CHAPTER 1

An act to amend Section 9420 of the Elections Code, relating to county central committee meetings, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor December 9, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State December 9, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9420 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

9420. (a) Each committee shall meet in the courthouse at its county seat, upon call which shall be given by the county clerk of the county and in quarters to be arranged or provided for by the county clerk of the county, on the first Monday after the first day in January following the direct primary.

(b) If the day designated by subdivision (a) falls upon the same date as inauguration events following the election of a new Governor and if one or more members of the committee so requests, the meeting shall be called for the next following Monday.

Requests for postponement under this section shall be in writing and shall be served on the county clerk of the county no later than 15 days prior to the day designated under the provisions of subdivision (a).

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to make the provisions of this act applicable to the upcoming inaugural festivities following the election of a new Governor, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 2

An act to amend Sections 9160.5 and 9324 of the Elections Code, relating to elections, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor January 19, 1983. Filed with Secretary of State January 19, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9160.5 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

9160.5. The following are members of the state central committee:

(a) Each officer named in subdivision (a) of Section 9160 who was nominated and elected as a candidate of the party and whose term of office extends beyond the first Monday in December in the case of legislators and the Monday after January 1 in the case of other officers next following the direct primary election, or the appointee or successor appointed, elected, or otherwise designated by law to fill a vacancy in the office of any such officer. These members are "holdover members."

(b) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), each candidate of the party in whose behalf nomination papers were filed and who was nominated at the direct primary election or at a special primary election by that party. These members are "nominee members." Nominees for an office the term of which extends beyond two years are members until the direct primary election at which nominations for the office are again to be made. If a nominee is elected to the office to which he was nominated at the succeeding general election, he shall be considered a "holdover member."

(2) (A) If the person most recently nominated to the Senate, Assembly, or House of Representatives received less votes for the particular office at the ensuing General Election than a write-in candidate for the same office, and the write-in candidate is elected to that office at that ensuing General Election, the write-in candidate shall, for the purposes of this part, be considered a "holdover member," provided that the write-in candidate's affidavit of registration reflects that that candidate has been affiliated with the party for at least 6 months prior to the General Election.

(B) The person described in subparagraph (A) who was nominated to legislative office or to the House of Representatives but who was not elected to the particular office shall be designated as a "nominee member." Any person designated as a "nominee member" pursuant to this subparagraph shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges as provided other nominee members of the committee.

(c) One member appointed for each of the officers named in subdivision (a) of Section 9160, not represented by a "holdover member" nor by a "nominee member" of the party. These members shall be chosen and appointed in the manner provided in subdivision (e) of this section. These members are "appointive members."

(d) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), if a person qualifies more than once to be a member that person shall be a member by virtue of the most recent qualification. The resulting vacancy shall be filled pursuant to subdivision (e).

(2) If a person qualifies more than once to be a member and one of the qualifications to the committee, which is not the most recent qualification, is by virtue of the person being a holdover member, that person shall be considered a holdover member. In this instance, the resulting vacancy shall be filled pursuant to subdivision (e).

(e) Vacancies in nominee or holdover memberships shall be filled

as follows:

(1) If the vacancy occurs in a senatorial or Assembly district situated wholly within the limits of a single county, by appointment by the county central committee of the party in the county. Whenever such a vacancy occurs by virtue of the failure to nominate a person affiliated with the party, no person shall be chosen to fill the vacancy who does not reside in the senatorial or Assembly district involved.

(2) If the vacancy occurs in a senatorial or Assembly district comprising two or more counties, by appointment by the county central committee of the party in the county in which the disqualified or deceased member resided, if the vacancy is caused by disqualification or death, or in which the "holdover" or "nominee member" of the opposing party resides, if the vacancy is due to any other cause.

(3) If the vacancy occurs as to a member for a United States Senator from California or as to a member for any of the state officers named in subdivision (a) of Section 9160, by appointment by the state central committee.

(4) If the vacancy occurs as to a member for any Representative in Congress from California, by appointment by the state central committee of a voter who resides within the congressional district to be represented.

(f) A county central committee may authorize its chairman to appoint members to fill vacancies in the membership which the county central committee has power to fill.

SEC. 2. Section 9324 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

9324. (a) In each county the nominee of the party for State Senator, the nominees of the party for the Assembly, and any person nominated to either the Senate or Assembly at a special election to fill a vacancy in the house, and the nominee of the party for Representative in Congress shall be ex officio members of this committee. If the person most recently nominated or elected from one party at the special election for an Assembly or Senate seat, or for the House of Representatives shall be other than the nominee of that party for the same office at the earlier election, the ex officio membership of the latter nominee shall expire immediately upon certification by the Secretary of State of the nomination or, if there is no runoff, the election of the person most recently nominated or elected. Ex officio members shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges, including the right to vote, and shall have the same standing in every way as other members of this committee, except they shall not be entitled to a ballot designation of incumbent upon seeking election to this committee in the next direct primary. A person shall be entitled to ex officio membership upon receiving a certificate of nomination from the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6617, at which time the former nominee's term shall expire.

(b) If the person most recently nominated to the Senate, Assembly, or House of Representatives received less votes for the particular office at the ensuing General Election than a write-in candidate for the same office, and the write-in candidate is elected to that office the write-in candidate shall, for purposes of this part, be considered the ex officio member of each affected county, provided that the write-in candidate's affidavit of registration reflects that that candidate has been affiliated with the party for at least six months prior to the General Election.

(c) If a write-in candidate is entitled to ex officio membership on each affected county central committee pursuant to subdivision (b), each affected county central committee shall, designate the party nominee described in subdivision (b) as an additional ex officio member to its committee. Any person designated as an ex officio member under this subdivision shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges as other ex officio members of the committee.

In order that the provisions of this act can be made applicable to the Republican State Central Committee and to the several Republican county central committees during 1983, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 3

An act to amend Section 700.01 of the Insurance Code, and to amend Section 3 of Chapter 389 of the Statutes of 1982, relating to insurance, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor February 18, 1983. Filed with Secretary of State February 18, 1983]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 700.01 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

700.01. In addition to any or all of the classes of insurance which it is permitted to transact by all other applicable provisions of this code, any incorporated insurer admitted or hereafter admitted for one or more of the classes of insurance stated in Section 100, except life, title, mortgage, or mortgage guaranty shall (subject to any limitations contained in its articles of incorporation or charter) be admitted after October 1, 1953, for any or all of the following classes, upon making application therefor and complying with all applicable requirements of law, if its paid-in capital is not less than one million three hundred thousand dollars ($1,300,000) or the aggregate of the amounts hereinafter set forth opposite the classes transacted by it in the United States if an alien insurer, or in any jurisdiction if other than an alien insurer, whichever is lower; provided, that the paid-in capital of incorporated insurers not transacting either fire, marine or surety insurance making application under this section shall be at least one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) in excess of such aggregate amount. In no event shall any incorporated insurer, as a condition for its admission, be permitted to have a paid-in capital of less than five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) or be required to have a paid-in capital in excess of one million three hundred thousand dollars ($1,300,000) for any or all of the classes of insurance hereinafter set forth.

Number and name of class	Amount of capital
2. Fire .....	$200,000
3. Marine .....	200,000
5. Surety .....	250,000
6. Disability .....	50,000
7. Plate glass .....	50,000
8. Liability	} .....100,000 for any or all of these
9. Workers' compensation
10. Common carrier liability
11. Boiler and machinery .....	50,000
12. Burglary .....	50,000
13. Credit .....	50,000
14. Sprinkler .....	50,000
15. Team and vehicle .....	50,000
16. Automobile .....	100,000
18. Aircraft .....	50,000
20. Miscellaneous .....	50,000

This section shall not be applicable to life, title, mortgage, or mortgage guaranty insurance, and an insurer now or hereafter admitted to transact life, title, mortgage, or mortgage guaranty insurance shall not be admitted under the provisions of this section, but its admission is governed by other applicable provisions of this code.

Insurers admitted for one or more classes of insurance on December 31, 1981, shall be governed by the provisions of this section in effect on December 31, 1981.

Insurers which were issued a permit prior to July 7, 1982, authorizing the organization of the insurer and which were admitted for one or more classes of insurance before January 1, 1983, shall also be governed by the provisions of this section in effect on December 31, 1981.

SEC. 2. Section 3 of Chapter 389 of the Statutes of 1982 is amended to read:

Sec. 3. The provisions of Section 1 of Chapter 389 of the Statutes of 1982 shall be effective only with respect to the issuance of an initial certificate of authority on or after January 1, 1982, with respect to any applicant therefor.

However, Section 1 of Chapter 389 of the Statutes of 1982 shall not be applicable where a permit was issued prior to July 7, 1982, authorizing the organization of an insurer, and the insurer was admitted for one or more classes of insurance before January 1, 1983, but that insurer shall be governed by the provisions of Section 700.01 of the Insurance Code in effect on December 31, 1981.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to prevent the application of the increased paid-in capital requirements imposed by Chapter 389 of the Statutes of 1982 to situations where an insurer was permitted to be organized before July 7, 1982, and was admitted prior to the effective date of that act, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 4

An act to amend Section 23083.5 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to fiscal affairs, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor March 10, 1983. Filed with Secretary of State March 10, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature in this act to make certain changes in the law necessary to implement the Budget Act of 1982.

SEC. 2. Section 23083.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

23083.5. (a) The board shall establish a surcharge applicable to the annual fees provided for in Section 23320.

(b) The surcharge set by the board shall be proportionate to the fee charged to each licensee pursuant to Section 23320 and shall provide an amount which is sufficient to pay the actual costs of the board in carrying out its duties commencing July 1, 1982. The surcharge shall not exceed 3 percent applied to the annual fees provided for in Section 23320, but shall otherwise be adjusted periodically to ensure that sufficient amounts are collected to pay these costs. The surcharge shall be collected on behalf of the board by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control at the same time the department makes its regular collections of annual fees pursuant to Sections 23320 and 23320.2.

(c) All surcharges collected by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control on behalf of the board pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Fund, which is hereby created. All moneys in the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Fund shall be available to the board, when appropriated by the Legislature, to pay the actual costs of the board in carrying out its duties, commencing July 1, 1982, under this chapter.

SEC. 3. All filing fees which were collected pursuant to Section 23083.5 of the Business and Professions Code prior to the effective date of this act, shall be returned to the appellants who paid them. Each timely appeal which had been delivered to the board for filing after August 29, 1982, without payment of the filing fee specified by Section 23083.5 of the Business and Professions Code prior to its amendment by this act at the 1983-84 Regular Session of the Legislature, shall be filed by the board.

SEC. 4. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

In order that this act, which would provide necessary statutory adjustments to implement the Budget Act of 1982, may take effect during the 1982-83 fiscal year and in time for the department's schedule of computer programming in March 1983, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 5

An act to amend Sections 25342, 25345 and 25356.5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor March 21, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State March 21, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25342 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25342. On or before March 1, 1982, and March 1 of each year thereafter, every person who submitted for disposal offsite, or who disposed of onsite, hazardous waste or extremely hazardous waste in the state during the preceding calendar year shall report to the board the following information:

(a) The total amount of hazardous or extremely hazardous waste, as defined by Sections 25117 and 25115, respectively, the federal regulation of which has been suspended under the Solid Waste Disposal Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6901 et seq.) by act of Congress, which that person has disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state, plus the total amount of hazardous or extremely hazardous waste and material, which that person has transferred to a surface impoundment in the state for purposes of reducing the water content of the waste and material by evaporation, plus the total amount of hazardous waste disposed of into an injection well or landfarm, as defined in subdivision (g) of Section 25345, exclusive of that waste specified in subdivision (d).

(b) The total amount of hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state by that person, exclusive of that waste specified in subdivisions (a), (c), and (d).

(c) The total amount of extremely hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state by that person, exclusive of that waste specified in subdivisions (a), (b), and (d).

(d) The total amount of hazardous or extremely hazardous waste that person has disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state from the extraction, beneficiation, and processing of ores and minerals, including phosphate rock and overburden from mining of uranium ore.

SEC. 2. Section 25345 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25345. (a) There is hereby imposed a tax, payable annually, and to be collected by the board, upon each ton or fraction thereof, of waste and material specified in Section 25342, according to the formula specified herein. The board shall set the base tax rate upon the waste and material specified in Section 25342 in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{Base tax rate} = \frac{($10,000,000 - M)}{(0.15W_1 + W_2 + 2W_3 + 0.01W_4)}$$

where:

(1) "M" is the existing unobligated balance in the fund (M shall equal zero (0) for June 30, 1982). As used in this article, "unobligated balance" means all unencumbered funds in the account as of June 30, as estimated on March 1 of each year, less:

(A) Any funds in the reserve account for emergencies established by Section 25354.

(B) Any remaining principal of the loan authorized by Section 25332.

(C) Any interest due on any remaining principal of the loan authorized by Section 25332.

(D) Any funds paid as taxes for the following fiscal year.

(E) Any funds received from the federal government pursuant to the federal act.

The unobligated balance shall not be less than zero (0).

(F) Any funds in the state account subject to the rebate specified in Section 25347.2.

(2)  $W_1$  is the total amount in tons of waste and material specified in subdivision (a) of Section 25344.

(3)  $W_2$  is the total amount in tons of waste specified in subdivision (b) of Section 25344.

(4)  $W_3$  is the total amount in tons of waste specified in subdivision (c) of Section 25344.

(5)  $W_4$  is the total amount in tons of waste specified in subdivision (d) of Section 25344.

(b) On or before May 1 of each year, using the formula specified in subdivision (a), the board shall determine the base tax rate for the current year.

(c) The tax imposed upon each person subject to Section 25342 shall be assessed according to the following formula:

$$\text{Tax} = (\text{base tax rate}) \times (0.15 P_1 + P_2 + 2P_3 + 0.01P_4)$$

where:

(1) "Base tax rate" equals the figure determined pursuant to subdivision (a).

(2)  $P_1$  is the amount in tons of waste and material specified by the person pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25342.

(3)  $P_2$  is the amount in tons of waste specified by the person pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25342.

(4)  $P_3$  is the total amount in tons of waste specified by the person pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 25342.

(5)  $P_4$  is the total amount in tons of waste specified by the person pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 25342.

(d) On or before May 1 of each year, the board shall send to each person subject to Section 25342 a notice of assessment.

(e) On or before July 1 of each year, each person subject to Section 25342 shall pay to the board the amount of the assessment as stated in the notice. The tax under this chapter shall not be imposed again on hazardous waste or extremely hazardous waste if the waste, or any portion thereof, is removed subsequently to another place for disposal and if the person has paid the amount of assessment for the waste in accordance with this section before the removal thereof.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, hazardous wastes disposed of into an injection well during the 1981 calendar year shall be subject to a tax rate that does not exceed 26.4 percent of the base tax rate, as determined in subdivision (a), per ton or fraction thereof.

(g) For purposes of this article, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Injection well" means a bored, drilled or driven shaft, whose depth is greater than the largest surface dimension, and which is used to inject hazardous waste into an underground formation. Injection well does not mean any well located in class I or a class II-I disposal site, as defined in Sections 2510 and 2511 of Title 23 of the California Administrative Code, on September 25, 1981.

(2) "Formation" means a body of rock characterized by a degree of lithologic homogeneity which is prevailing, but not necessarily, tabular and is mappable on the earth's surface or traceable in the subsurface.

(3) "Landfarm" means a waste management technique, conducted within a hazardous waste facility which has received a hazardous waste facilities permit or has obtained interim status pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 25200) of Chapter 6.5 of Division 20, or pursuant to Section 6925 of Title 42 of the United States Code. This waste management technique consists of applying oily wastes, biodegradable wastes, or both wastes onto land and incorporating them into the surface of the soil and, by controlling critical parameters of alkalinity and acidity, moisture content, and soil texture, enhancing the aerobic biodegradation of the waste into carbon dioxide, water, and humus. Landfarming is a managed process which changes the physical, chemical, or biological composition of hydrocarbon wastes, and it does not include any other land disposal practices, including, but not limited to, landfilling or codisposal.

SEC. 3. Section 25356.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25356.5. On or before October 1 of each fiscal year, the department shall provide a report to the Legislature which contains all of the following information:

(a) The actual funds expended for each site listed during the preceding year pursuant to Section 25356.

(b) The state's efforts to obtain available federal funds for the purposes of this chapter.

(c) An accounting of federal funds which have been obtained by, or committed to, the state.

(d) The state's efforts to obtain contributions to removal or remedial actions from potentially responsible parties.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act for the purpose of making reimbursement pursuant to these sections. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

Due to the March 1 filing deadline for the reporting of the disposal amounts of hazardous waste, and in order to insure the efficient and equitable administration of the Hazardous Substance Account tax, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 6

An act to amend Section 63 of, and to add Sections 63.1 and 63.2 to, the Civil Code, and to amend Sections 14853 and 14854 of the Financial Code, relating to minors.

[Approved by Governor March 29, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State March 30, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 63 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

63. An emancipated minor shall be considered as being over the age of majority for the following purposes:

(a) For the purpose of consenting to medical, dental, or psychiatric care, without parental consent, knowledge, or liability.

(b) For the purpose of the minor's capacity to do any of the following:

(1) Enter into a binding contract.

(2) Buy, sell, lease, encumber, exchange, or transfer any interest in real or personal property, including but not limited to shares of stock in a domestic or foreign corporation or a membership in a nonprofit corporation.

(3) Sue or be sued in his or her own name.

(4) Compromise, settle, arbitrate, or otherwise adjust a claim, action, or proceeding by or against the minor.

(5) Make or revoke a will.

(6) Make a gift, outright or in trust.

(7) Convey or release contingent or expectant interests in property, including marital property rights and any right of survivorship incident to joint tenancy, and consent to a transfer, encumbrance, or gift of marital property.

(8) Exercise or release his or her powers as donee of a power of appointment unless the creating instrument otherwise provides.

(9) Create for his or her own benefit or for the benefit of others a revocable or irrevocable trust.

(10) Revoke a revocable trust.

(11) Elect to take under or against a will.

(12) Renounce or disclaim any interest acquired by testate or intestate succession or by inter vivos transfer, including exercising the right to surrender the right to revoke a revocable trust.

(13) Make an election or an election and agreement referred to in Section 202 of the Probate Code.

(c) For the purpose of the minor's right to support by his or her parents.

(d) For purposes of the rights of the minor's parents or guardian to the minor's earnings, and to control the minor.

(e) For the purpose of establishing his or her own residence.

(f) For purposes of the application of Sections 300 and 601 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(g) For purposes of applying for a work permit pursuant to Section 49110 of the Education Code without the request of his or her parents or guardian.

(h) For the purpose of ending all vicarious liability of the minor's parents or guardian for the minor's torts; provided, that nothing in this section shall affect any liability of a parent, guardian, spouse, or employer imposed by the Vehicle Code, or any vicarious liability which arises from an agency relationship.

(i) For the purpose of enrolling in any school or college.

SEC. 2. Section 63.1 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

63.1. An insurance contract entered into by an emancipated minor has the same effect as if it were entered into by an adult and, with respect to such a contract, the minor has the same rights, duties, and liabilities as an adult.

SEC. 3. Section 63.2 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

63.2. With respect to any shares of stock in a domestic or foreign corporation held by an emancipated minor, any membership in a nonprofit corporation held by an emancipated minor, or any other property held by an emancipated minor, the minor may do all of the following:

(a) Vote in person, and give proxies to exercise any voting rights, with respect to such shares or memberships or property.

(b) Waive notice of any meeting or give consent to the holding of any meeting.

(c) Authorize, ratify, approve, or confirm any action which could be taken by shareholders, members, or property owners.

SEC. 4. Section 14853 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14853. A credit union may issue shares or certificates for funds to a minor of any age or maintain any other account authorized for credit union members for a minor, and receive payments thereon by or for the minor. The minor is entitled to withdraw, transfer, or pledge any shares or certificates or other moneys owned by him or her and to receive from the credit union all dividends, interest, or other money due thereon in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as an adult. The receipt or acquittance of a minor constitutes a valid release and discharge of the credit union for the payment of dividends, interest, or other money due to the minor.

SEC. 5. Section 14854 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14854. Shares or certificates for funds owned in joint tenancy, whether the joint tenants are minors or adults, and all dividends and interest thereon, may be paid to any of the joint tenants during their lifetime or to the survivor or any one of the survivors of them after the death of one or more of the joint tenants. By written instructions of all joint tenants given to the credit union, the joint tenants may require the signatures of more than one of those persons during their lifetimes or of more than one of the survivors after the death of any one of them on any notice of withdrawal, request for withdrawal, check endorsement or receipt, in which case the credit union shall pay withdrawals, dividends, and interest only in accordance with those instructions, but those instructions shall not limit the right of the sole survivor or of all of the survivors to receive withdrawal payments, dividends, and interest. Payment as provided in this section and the receipt or acquittance by any joint tenant is a valid and sufficient release and discharge of the depository credit union for all payments made on account of shares or certificates for funds owned in joint tenancy prior to the receipt by the credit union of notice in writing from any one of them not to make payments in accordance with the terms of the shares or certificates for funds or of the written instructions. After receipt of the notice a credit union may refuse, without liability, to pay withdrawals, dividends, or interest pending a determination of the rights of the parties.

CHAPTER 7

An act to add Section 78201.7 to the Education Code, relating to community colleges, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor March 29, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State March 30, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 78201.7 is added to the Education Code, to read:

78201.7. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the governing board of a community college district may grant credit for any course or program offered in the 1982-83 fiscal year as a noncredit or community service class, for which a fee was charged, if that course or program has maintained the academic standards required for credit classes under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 55000) of Division 6 of Title 5 of the California Administrative Code, and if that course or program was offered for credit during fiscal year 1981-82 and is no longer state funded as a result of policies and guidelines adopted by the Board of Governors in conformance with Proviso Number 11 of Item 6870-101-001 of the Budget Act of 1982 (Chapter 326, Statutes of 1982).

Fees may be charged for the course or program pursuant to Section 78305.

This section shall be operative only for the 1982-83 fiscal year, and is not intended to establish a state policy that fees be charged for credit courses.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to enable second year community college students to complete the courses of study which they began in the 1981-82 fiscal year, where these courses of study have had state funding discontinued in the 1982-83 fiscal year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 8

An act to amend Section 8682 of, and to add Section 10100.7 to, the Streets and Highways Code, relating to improvement acts.

[Approved by Governor March 29, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State March 30, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8682 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8682. A copy of the order of the legislative body determining the assessments remaining unpaid and upon the security of which bonds are issued shall be filed in the office of the auditor. The auditor shall keep a record in his office showing the several installments of principal and interest on the assessments which are to be collected in each year during the term of the bonds. The auditor shall annually enter in his assessment roll on which taxes will next become due, opposite each lot or parcel of land affected in a space marked "public improvement assessment," or by other suitable designation, the several installments of the assessment coming due during the fiscal year covered by the assessment roll, including in each case the interest due on the total unpaid assessments, and also including a percentage of 1 percent of the amount of the installments and of the interest so entered; provided that the percentage may be increased by the legislative body in any amount up to a maximum of 5 percent of the amount of the installments and of the interest so entered if the legislative body finds that the expenses of collection exceed the 1 percent specified above, but in no event shall the increased amount exceed the city treasurer's estimate of the expenses of collection and regardless of the percentage increase in the amount of the installments and the interest which the legislative body may order, the amount to be added to the installments for any lot or parcel of land may not exceed three dollars ($3). The expenses of collection shall include necessary administrative expenses of the city incurred in providing the auditor with current information regarding the ownership or division of the affected lots or parcels of land to ensure the proper entry by the auditor in his assessment roll of the several installments of the assessment coming due during the fiscal year covered by the assessment roll and the timely collection of the installments. The percentages, and the amount represented thereby, when collected shall belong to the city and shall cover the expenses and compensation of the city treasurer incurred in the collection of the assessments, and of the interest and penalties thereon. No other percentage or amount shall be claimed for the collections.

SEC. 2. Section 10100.7 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

10100.7. The legislative body of any municipality which has entered into an agreement with an owner or owners of land within the municipality whereby the owner or owners have constructed or acquired water system facilities, including wells, pumps, dams, reservoirs, storage tanks, pipes, hydrants, meters or other appurtenances for supplying or distributing a domestic water supply, or sewer system facilities, including sewers, pipes, conduits, manholes, treatment and disposal plants, connecting sewers and appurtenances for providing sanitary sewer service, or capacity in these facilities, and have transferred the facilities or capacity to the municipality to be utilized by it for providing water or sewer service, or both, to the land of the owner or owners, and whereby the municipality has agreed to refund or reimburse to the owner or owners the cost of the facilities or capacity or any portion thereof out of connection fees or other revenues or funds of the municipality, including an assessment levied upon the land of the owner or owners or proceeds from the sale of bonds issued pursuant to this division, may upon obtaining the written consent of the owner or owners conduct proceedings pursuant to this division for the formation of an assessment district over and including the land of the owner or owners and levying an assessment thereon and issuing bonds as authorized by Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 10600), for the purpose of satisfying its refund or reimbursement obligation to the owner or owners. The municipality may, upon obtaining the written consent of the owner thereof, include in the assessment district, and levy an assessment upon, any land which will benefit from the water or sewer system facilities, or both, or capacity therein, whether or not the land is owned by the owner or owners who are parties to the agreement with the municipality, but may not include in an assessment district the land of any owner who does not consent in writing thereto.

CHAPTER 9

The term "public body" and the plural thereof, as used in this act, shall include only those entities which are specifically enumerated in this section.

(b) The term "bonds" means all instruments evidencing an indebtedness of a public body incurred or to be incurred for any public purpose, and all instruments evidencing the borrowing of money in anticipation of taxes, revenues, or other income of such body, and all instruments payable from revenues or special funds of such public bodies, and all instruments funding or refunding any thereof or any indebtedness.

SEC. 2. All public bodies heretofore organized or existing under, or under color of, any law are hereby declared to have been legally organized and to be legally functioning as such public body. Every such public body shall have all the rights, powers, and privileges, and be subject to all the duties and obligations, of such a public body regularly formed pursuant to law.

SEC. 3. The boundaries of every public body as heretofore established, defined, or recorded, or as heretofore actually shown on maps or plats used by the assessor, are hereby confirmed, validated, and declared legally established.

SEC. 4. All acts and proceedings heretofore taken by any public body or bodies under any law, or under color of any law, for the annexation or inclusion of territory into any such public body or for the annexation of any such public body to any other such public body or for the withdrawal or exclusion of territory from any such public body or for the consolidation, merger, or dissolution of any public bodies are hereby confirmed, validated, and declared legally effective. This shall include all acts and proceedings of the governing board of any such public body and of any person, public officer, board, or agency heretofore done or taken upon the question of the annexation or inclusion or of the withdrawal or exclusion of such territory or the consolidation, merger, or dissolution of such public bodies.

SEC. 5. All acts and proceedings heretofore taken by or on behalf of any public body under any law, or under color of any law, for the authorization, issuance, sale, or exchange of bonds of any such public body for any public purpose are hereby confirmed, validated, and declared legally effective. This shall include all acts and proceedings of the governing board of such public body and of any person, public officer, board, or agency heretofore done or taken upon the question of the authorization, issuance, sale, or exchange of such bonds.

All bonds of any public body heretofore issued shall be, in the form and manner in which issued and delivered, the legal, valid, and binding obligations of the public body. All bonds of any public body heretofore awarded and sold to a purchaser and hereafter issued and delivered in accordance with the contract of sale and other proceedings for the award and sale shall be the legal, valid, and binding obligations of the public body. All bonds of any public body heretofore authorized to be issued by ordinance, resolution, order, or other action adopted or taken by or on behalf of the public body and hereafter issued and delivered in accordance with such authorization shall be the legal, valid, and binding obligations of the public body. All bonds of any public body heretofore authorized to be issued at an election and hereafter issued and delivered in accordance with such authorization shall be the legal, valid, and binding obligations of the public body. Whenever an election has heretofore been called for the purpose of submitting to the voters of any public body the question of issuing bonds for any public purpose, such bonds, if hereafter authorized by the required vote and in accordance with the proceedings heretofore taken, and issued and delivered in accordance with such authorization, shall be the legal, valid, and binding obligations of the public body.

SEC. 6. (a) The foregoing provisions of this act shall operate to supply such legislative authorization as may be necessary to validate any such acts and proceedings heretofore taken which the Legislature could have supplied or provided for in the law under which such acts or proceedings were taken.

(b) The foregoing provisions of this act shall be limited to the validation of acts and proceedings to the extent to which the same can be effectuated under the State and Federal Constitutions.

(c) The foregoing provisions of this act shall not operate to confirm, validate, or legalize any act, proceeding, or other matter the legality of which is being contested or inquired into in any legal proceeding now pending and undetermined or which may be pending and undetermined during the period of 30 days from and after the effective date of this act, and shall not operate to confirm, validate, or legalize any act, proceeding, or other matter which has heretofore been determined in any legal proceeding to be illegal, void, or ineffective.

(d) This act shall not operate to confirm, validate, or legalize a contract between any district and the United States.

SEC. 7. Any action or proceeding contesting the validity of any action or proceeding heretofore taken under any law, or under color of any law, for the formation, organization, or incorporation of any public body, or for any annexation thereto, exclusion therefrom, or other change of boundaries thereof, or for the consolidation, merger, or dissolution of any public bodies, or for the authorization, issuance, sale, or exchange of bonds thereof upon any ground involving any alleged defect or illegality not effectively validated by the prior provisions of this act and not otherwise barred by any statute of limitations or by laches must be commenced within six months of the effective date of this act; otherwise each and all of such matters shall be held to be valid and in every respect legal and incontestable. This section shall not extend the period in which any action may be brought beyond the period in which it would be barred by any presently existing valid statute of limitations.

SEC. 8. Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to render the creation of any city or district, or any change in the boundaries of any city or district, effective for purposes of assessment or taxation unless the statement, together with the map or plat, required to be filed under Sections 54900 to 54904, inclusive, of the Government Code, is filed within the time and substantially in the manner required by said sections.

SEC. 9. As used in this act, the word "now" means the date this act takes effect; the word "heretofore" means any time prior to such effective date; and the word "hereafter" means any time subsequent to such effective date.

SEC. 10. This act may be cited as the First Validating Act of 1983.

To validate the organization, boundaries, acts, proceedings, and bonds of public bodies as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take immediate effect.

CHAPTER 10

An act to add and repeal Section 8151 of, and to add Section 8231.5 to, the Fish and Game Code, relating to commercial fishing, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 4, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State April 4, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8151 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

8151. (a) Notwithstanding Section 8150.5, the tolerance for sardines taken incidentally to other fishing operations and mixed with other fish in a load shall be 25 percent if, using the mackerel fishery as an indicator, the overall percentage of incidentally taken sardines mixed with jack mackerel and Pacific mackerel during the preceding month exceeded 5 percent. Thereafter, the tolerance shall increase by additional 10-percent increments whenever the overall percentage of incidentally taken sardines during the preceding month exceeded one-third of the previously established tolerance. The overall percentage of incidentally taken sardines shall be determined monthly by dividing the weight of sardines taken incidentally with jack mackerel and Pacific mackerel by the weight of all jack mackerel, Pacific mackerel, and sardines landed by the mackerel fishery.

(b) In the event the overall percentage of incidentally taken sardines has been less than one-fourth of the tolerance in effect during the preceding three-month period and the tolerance has not been adjusted during this three-month period, the tolerance for incidentally taken sardines shall be decreased by deducting one 10-percent increment from the tolerance.

(c) Under no circumstances shall the tolerance be higher than 45 percent or less than 15 percent.

(d) The department shall inform the commission of any change in the status of the tolerance for incidentally taken sardines, and the commission shall immediately direct the department to notify commercial fishermen of the status of the tolerance by broadcasting on VHF Channel 16 between 0800 hours and 1000 hours during the first five business days of each calendar month. It shall be the responsibility of commercial fishermen to monitor this radio channel during the specified hours or otherwise to be aware of the status of the tolerance for incidentally taken sardines.

(e) The commission shall hold public hearings to consider the implementation of this section and shall report annually to the Legislature on the status of the sardine resource and may also make recommendations to the Legislature regarding this section or its implementation.

(f) This section shall remain in effect until July 1, 1985, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before July 1, 1985, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 8231.5 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

8231.5. Notwithstanding subdivision (a) of Section 8231, "commercial salmon permit" does not include any permit issued to an individual prior to 1982 if that individual had qualified for the permit solely on the basis of former Section 8233, as repealed by Chapter 16 of the Statutes of 1981.

As the sardine resource continues to be rehabilitated, the increase in sardines is having the unintended present effect of impeding the legitimate fishing activities of commercial fishermen thus imperiling their livelihood. In addition, it may be possible for persons to qualify for a commercial salmon permit on the basis of a repealed provision of law. In order to avoid unnecessary hardship on commercial fishermen and their families, and to prevent persons qualifying for commercial salmon permits for the 1983 season on the basis of a repealed law, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 11

An act to add Section 27491.47 to the Government Code, relating to coroners.

[Approved by Governor April 5, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State April 5, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 27491.47 is added to the Government Code, to read:

27491.47. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the coroner may, in the course of an autopsy, remove and release or authorize the removal and release of corneal eye tissue from a body within the coroner's custody, if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The autopsy has otherwise been authorized.

(2) The coroner has no knowledge of objection to the removal and release of corneal tissue having been made by the decedent or any other person specified in Section 7151.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

(3) The removal of such tissue will not unnecessarily mutilate the body, be accomplished by enucleation, nor interfere with the autopsy.

(4) The tissue will be removed by a coroner, licensed physician and surgeon, or a trained transplant technician.

(5) The tissue will be released to a public or nonprofit facility for transplant, therapeutic, or scientific purposes.

(b) Neither the coroner nor medical examiner authorizing the removal of the corneal tissue, nor any hospital, medical center, tissue bank, storage facility, or person acting upon the request, order, or direction of the coroner or medical examiner in the removal of corneal tissue pursuant to this section, shall incur civil liability for such removal in an action brought by any person who did not object prior to the removal of the corneal tissue, nor be subject to criminal prosecution for the removal of such corneal tissue pursuant to the provisions of this section.

CHAPTER 12

An act to amend Section 15002, and to repeal and add Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 15035) to Division 8 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to public social services, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 7, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State April 7, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15002 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

15002. The following definitions shall govern the construction of this division:

(a) "Director" means the Director of the Employment Development Department.

(b) "Department" means the Employment Development Department.

(c) "Local council" means the private industry council established by a service delivery area in accordance with the provisions of this division.

(d) "State council" means the State Job Training Coordinating Council established under Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 15035) of Division 8.

(e) "Job preparation and training services" means that system of services, activities and procedures developed by each county to provide eligible participants with the skills and knowledge needed to obtain and retain adequately paying jobs in the private sector.

(f) "Service Delivery Area plan" means that statement prepared by service delivery areas describing the methods and processes for carrying out job preparation and training services, the objectives to be achieved by such methods and processes, the manner in which funds will be used to achieve those objectives, and the level of performance achieved.

(g) "Performance standards" means those indicators used to measure levels of achievement by service delivery area programs.

SEC. 2. Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 15035) of Division 8 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 15035) is added to Division 8 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

CHAPTER 4.5. STATE JOB TRAINING COORDINATING COUNCIL

15035. To promote integration of employment and training programs at the state level, to further cooperation between government and the private sector in meeting California employers' needs for well-trained workers and California workers' needs for good jobs, to provide oversight of programs operated pursuant to the division, and to meet federal requirements of Section 122 of Part B of Title I of the Job Training Partnership Act of 1982, the State Job Training Coordinating Council is established.

15036. The state council shall consist of 30 members, appointed by the Governor from nominations as provided in this section, and as required by federal law, and be representative of the population of the state with regard to sex, race, ethnic background, and geographical distribution. The Governor shall appoint one nongovernmental member to be the chairperson of the council. The appointment of the chairperson, and the appointments of members designated under subdivision (d), shall be subject to confirmation by the Senate.

(a) Ten members shall be representatives of large and small business, industry, and agriculture. Eight of these members shall be owners of business concerns, chief executives, or chief operating officers of business concerns or other private sector executives who have or have had substantial management or policy responsibilities for an autonomous part of a business. Of these, at least four shall be current or past members of a private industry council. Two shall be representatives from general purpose organizations representing business interests. One of the members shall also have a record of employing a significant number of disabled persons.

(b) Six members shall be representatives of state government. These representatives shall be a Member of the Senate nominated by the Rules Committee, a Member of the Assembly nominated by the Speaker, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Secretary of Health and Welfare, the Secretary of Business, Transportation and Housing, and the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, or their designees.

(c) Seven members shall be representatives of local government. Four shall be members of county boards of supervisors, and shall be nominated by the County Supervisors' Association of California. Three shall be members of city councils, and shall be nominated by the League of California Cities.

(d) Seven members shall be representatives of public and private organizations providing employment and training services or advocacy for program participants. One each shall represent organized labor, local vocational education organizations serving youth, the population eligible for services, community-based organizations, private proprietary schools, veterans organizations, and organizations serving older Californians.

In the event that the Governor finds an insufficient number of acceptable nominees in a given category, he shall return the nomination lists to the respective nominating bodies within 10 days of receipt. The bodies shall then have 10 days to submit new lists of nominees. If nominations are not received within 10 days, members shall be appointed at the discretion of the Governor.

15037. The state council shall:

(a) Recommend to the Governor and the Legislature a coordination and special services plan.

(b) Recommend to the Governor local service delivery areas. To the extent permitted by federal law, designation of service delivery areas shall reflect the intent of the Legislature to integrate and coordinate employment and training services, public assistance programs, and other educational and training efforts as may exist which are designed to assist individuals in preparing for participation in the labor force.

(c) To the extent permitted by federal law, review and approve:

(1) Local service delivery area plans.

(2) Standards, criteria and reporting requirements established by the department pursuant to this division with respect to local service delivery area plans.

(3) The allocation formula to be used for the distribution of funds for local service delivery area plans.

(4) The distribution of other federal funds allocated to the state for those employment and training services provided pursuant to this division.

(d) Consult and advise the director on all matters connected with the administration of this code as submitted to it by the director, and may upon its own initiative recommend such changes in administration as it deems necessary.

(e) Review and comment to the Governor and the Legislature on the annual report prepared in accordance with Section 15064, and the employment and training plan prepared in accordance with Sections 10522 and 10523.

(f) Serve as the body responsible for making recommendations to the Governor when the director proposes to withdraw funding pursuant to Section 15028.

15037.5. The plans and decisions of the state council shall be subject to approval by the Governor.

15038. In order to assure objective management and oversight, the state council shall not operate programs or provide services directly to eligible participants, but shall exist solely to plan, coordinate, and monitor the provisions of such programs and services.

15039. The state council shall succeed to the Employment Services Board and the former state employment and training council created under Section 10524.

15039.5. The state council may employ personnel necessary to carry out its responsibilities. All personnel of the council shall be under the supervision of the chairperson or an executive director to whom he or she delegates this responsibility. All personnel shall be appointed pursuant to the State Civil Service Act established pursuant to Part 1 (commencing with Section 18000) of Division 5 of Title 2 of the Government Code, except the executive director who shall be exempt.

15039.7. Members of the state council shall be reimbursed only for their necessary and actual expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties.

In order for the state to meet the requirements of the federal Job Training Partnership Act of 1982, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 13

An act to amend Sections 50775 and 50775.5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to housing, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 7, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State April 7, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 50775 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50775. (a) The department may provide financial assistance, in accordance with this chapter, to households residing in rental housing, or a mobilehome park in which such households rent spaces, which is to be converted to condominium ownership, planned development ownership, as defined in Section 11003 of the Business and Professions Code, or ownership by a stock cooperative corporation, as defined in Section 11003.2 of the Business and Professions Code, for the purpose of assisting such households in acquiring a dwelling unit or a share in the stock cooperative corporation which entitles such households to occupancy of a dwelling unit.

(b) The department may also provide financial assistance for the purpose of assisting households to purchase a mobilehome, as defined in Section 18008, which is located outside a mobilehome park, as defined in Section 18214, and which is affixed to a permanent foundation system.

(c) The financial assistance provided pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) shall not exceed 49 percent of the purchase price paid by the household for the dwelling unit, mobilehome, or share in the stock cooperative, and in no event shall such assistance be used to reduce the purchaser's downpayment below 3 percent of the total purchase price.

(d) The department may establish maximum purchase prices for such units, mobilehomes, or shares.

(e) Eligibility for such financial assistance shall be limited to households (1) which have incomes no greater than the median for the county, (2) which do not currently own residential property and have not owned any residential property, other than a mobilehome not affixed to a permanent foundation, for at least three years, (3) which have not previously received any assistance pursuant to this chapter and (4) which, without financial assistance pursuant to this section, would be unable to acquire a dwelling unit, mobilehome, or a share in a stock cooperative.

(f) As used in this section and Section 50776, "dwelling unit" means the dwelling unit that such household occupies, or another dwelling unit not being purchased by its existing tenant within the same rental housing development or mobilehome park. "Dwelling unit" includes a space in a mobilehome park, as defined in Section 18214, and may include a mobilehome rented with the space.

SEC. 2. Section 50775.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50775.5. For the purposes of disaster relief to those households displaced as a result of the Anaheim fire resulting in a state of emergency proclaimed on April 23, 1982, by the Governor, pursuant to Section 8625 of the Government Code, financial assistance may be provided to displaced Anaheim residents as prescribed in this chapter, consistent with the following exceptions:

(a) Condominium, planned development, as defined in Section 11003 of the Business and Professions Code, or stock cooperative units to be purchased with state financial assistance may include existing condominium, planned development, or cooperative units.

(b) Households receiving state assistance to purchase condominium, planned development, or cooperative units need not have resided in such units prior to the purchase thereof.

(c) Eligibility for state financial assistance shall be limited to households which have incomes no greater than 150 percent of the median for the county.

(d) The housing assisted by this section shall not be governed by the percentage requirements in Section 50778, nor shall units assisted pursuant to this section be used in determining compliance with the percentage requirements contained in Section 50778.

(e) Any rule, policy, or standard of general application employed by the department in implementing the provisions of this section shall not be subject to the requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act, Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

Any repayment of funds originating from the Homeownership Assistance Fund allocated pursuant to this section shall be utilized by the department pursuant to this chapter.

The provisions of Sections 14 and 15 of Chapter 312 of the Statutes of 1982 shall be applicable to this section as amended by the Statutes of 1983.

In order for victims of the Anaheim fire which resulted in a state of emergency proclaimed on April 23, 1982, by the Governor, to receive urgently needed emergency assistance, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 14

An act to add Section 27472 to the Government Code, relating to coroners.

[Approved by Governor April 16, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State April 18, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 27472 is added to the Government Code, to read:

27472. If authorized by the county board of supervisors by ordinance, the coroner, whenever he or she takes custody of a dead body pursuant to law, may charge and collect from the person entitled to control the disposition of the remains, as specified in Section 7100 of the Health and Safety Code, the actual expense incurred by the coroner in removing the body from the place of death and keeping the body until its release to the person responsible for its interment. The charge shall not exceed one hundred dollars ($100), shall not be imposed upon a person who claims and proves to be indigent, and shall not include expenses of keeping the body during the time necessary for the coroner to perform his or her duties in connection with it. The charge, if not paid, may be considered a part of the funeral expenses and paid as a preferred charge against the estate of the decedent.

CHAPTER 15

An act to amend Section 9891.2 of, and to repeal and add Section 9891.24 to, the Business and Professions Code, and to amend Section 2 of Chapter 1635 of the Statutes of 1982, relating to tax preparers, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 19, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State April 19, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9891.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9891.2. The following persons are exempt from the requirements of this chapter:

(a) Any person regulated by the State Board of Accountancy and his or her employees while functioning within the scope of their employment.

(b) Any person who is a member of the State Bar of California and his or her employees while functioning within the scope of their employment.

(c) Employees of any trust company or trust business as defined in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 99) of Division 1 of the Financial Code while functioning within the scope of their employment.

(d) Financial institutions regulated by the state or federal government, and employees thereof, insofar as the activities of the employees are related to their employment and the activities of the financial institution with respect to tax preparation are subject to federal or state examination or oversight.

(e) Any person who is enrolled or authorized to practice before the Internal Revenue Service pursuant to Subpart A (commencing with Section 10.1) of Part 10 of Title 31 of the Code of Federal Regulations, and his or her employees while functioning within the scope of their employment.

(f) Any person authorized to make loans pursuant to Division 7 (commencing with Section 18000), Division 9 (commencing with Section 22000), or Division 10 (commencing with Section 24000) of the Financial Code, or its wholly owned subsidiary, and his or her employees while functioning within the scope of their employment.

SEC. 2. Section 9891.24 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 9891.24 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

9891.24. (a) On and after April 16, 1983, it shall be unlawful for any person to be a tax preparer or tax interviewer associated with a tax preparer unless the tax preparer has submitted to the administrator a letter of intent to register. The letter of intent shall include the following information for the tax preparer and each tax interviewer associated with the tax preparer: the name, address, telephone number and social security number of each such person. The letter shall be accompanied by a bond as required by Article 4 (commencing with Section 9891.35) and a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25) for each tax preparer and each tax interviewer. The provisions of this subdivision shall permit unregistered practice as a tax preparer or tax interviewer only until November 1, 1983.

(b) On and after November 1, 1983, it shall be unlawful for any person to be a tax preparer or tax interviewer unless he or she is registered in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

(c) Any person who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50) or more than five hundred dollars ($500), or jail for a period of not more than 60 days, or both, for each violation of this section.

SEC. 4. Section 2 of Chapter 1635 of the Statutes of 1982 is amended to read:

Sec. 2. The sum of forty thousand dollars ($40,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Tax Preparers Fund, which sum shall be a loan to be repaid to the General Fund with interest at the rate earned by moneys invested in the Pooled Money Investment Account and shall be repaid during the 1982-83 fiscal year from fees collected pursuant to the Tax Preparers Act.

SEC. 5. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

In order to permit tax preparers to practice during the 1983 tax season prior to implementation of formal registration procedures, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 16

An act to amend subdivision (h) of Provision 4 of Item 6100-101-001 of the Budget Act of 1982, relating to education, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 19, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State April 20, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subdivision (h) of Provision 4 of Item 6100-101-001 of the Budget Act of 1982 is amended to read:

For ROC/Ps which have below average participation rates, as measured by the ratio of the ROC/P ADA to the ADA in grades 9-12 in the participating districts, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall allocate the amount per ADA calculated in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of this provision, times an authorized increase in the number of ADA approved by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, provided that the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall consider need in allocating ADA to these ROC/Ps and shall certify up to one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000) of the amount calculated pursuant to subdivisions (g) (2) and (g) (3) of this provision. This subdivision shall not be interpreted to limit the amount of ADA growth in low-participation ROC/Ps to only the amount authorized in this subdivision.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding subdivision (d) of Provision 4 of Item 6100-101-001 of the Budget Act of 1982, if the amount of funds available for regional occupational centers and programs for the 1982-83 fiscal year is less than the amount necessary to cover all of the authorized expenditures, the allocation to each district, county office, or joint powers agency operating regional occupational centers and programs shall be reduced proportionately, as follows:

(a) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall compute an allowable growth factor for each district, county office, or joint powers agency operating regional occupational centers and programs according to the following formula:

$$G = \frac{(F \times 0.10 \times H) + (F \times 0.05 \times A)}{(H + A)}$$

where:

(1) "G" is the allowable growth factor for the 1982-83 fiscal year.

(2) "H" is the 1981-82 fiscal year high school average daily attendance in regional occupational centers and programs operated by the district, county office, or joint powers agency.

(3) "A" is the 1981-82 fiscal year adult average daily attendance in regional occupational centers and programs operated by the district, county office, or joint powers agency.

(4) "F" is the fraction obtained by dividing one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000) by the sum of the amounts computed pursuant to paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (g) of Provision 4 of Item 6100-101-001 of the Budget Act of 1982, and subtracting the result from 1.0.

(b) Any reduction in allocations shall apply only to the claims of districts, county offices, or joint powers agencies on account of average daily attendance in regional occupational centers and programs in excess of the amount computed by the following formula:

$$(H + A) \times (1.0 + G)$$

where the symbols are as defined in subdivision (a).

(c) No reduction in allocation shall apply to claims on account of average daily attendance less than or equal to the amount computed pursuant to subdivision (b) or to claims for amounts received pursuant to subdivision (h) of Provision 4 of Item 6100-101-001 of the Budget Act of 1982.

In order to provide a timely and equitable response to a possible deficit in funding for regional occupational centers and programs in the 1982-83 fiscal year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 17

An act to amend Sections 591.6 and 2580 of, to add Division 2.5 (commencing with Section 260) to, and to repeal Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 190) of Division 1 of, the Probate Code, relating to disclaimers.

[Approved by Governor April 21, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State April 21, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 190) of Division 1 of the Probate Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Division 2.5 (commencing with Section 260) is added to the Probate Code, to read:

DIVISION 2.5. DISCLAIMER OF TESTAMENTARY AND OTHER INTERESTS

CHAPTER 1. DEFINITIONS

260. Unless the provision or context otherwise requires, the words and phrases defined in this chapter govern the construction of this division.

261. "Account" means a contract of deposit of funds between a depositor and a financial institution, and includes a checking account, savings account, certificate of deposit, share account, and other like arrangement.

262. "Beneficiary" means the person entitled, but for the person's disclaimer, to take an interest.

263. (a) "Creator of the interest" means a person who establishes, declares, creates, or otherwise brings into existence an interest.

(b) "Creator of the interest" includes, but is not limited to, the following:

(1) With respect to an interest created by intestate succession, the person dying intestate.

(2) With respect to an interest created under a will, the testator.

(3) With respect to an interest created under a trust, the trustor.

(4) With respect to an interest created by succession to a disclaimed interest, the disclaimant of the disclaimed interest.

(5) With respect to an interest created by virtue of an election to take against a will, the testator.

(6) With respect to an interest created by creation of a power of appointment, the donor.

(7) With respect to an interest created by exercise or nonexercise of a power of appointment, the donee.

(8) With respect to an interest created by an inter vivos gift, the donor.

(9) With respect to an interest created by surviving the death of a depositor of a Totten trust account or P.O.D. account, the deceased depositor.

(10) With respect to an interest created under an insurance or annuity contract, the owner, the insured, or the annuitant.

(11) With respect to an interest created by surviving the death of another joint tenant, the deceased joint tenant.

(12) With respect to an interest created under an employee benefit plan, the employee or other owner of an interest in the plan.

(13) With respect to an interest created under an individual retirement account, annuity, or bond, the owner.

264. "Disclaimant" means a beneficiary who executes a disclaimer on his or her own behalf or a person who executes a disclaimer on behalf of a beneficiary.

265. "Disclaimer" means any writing which declines, refuses, renounces, or disclaims any interest that would otherwise be taken by a beneficiary.

266. "Employee benefit plan" includes, but is not limited to, any pension, retirement, death benefit, stock bonus, or profit-sharing plan, system, or trust.

267. (a) "Interest" includes the whole of any property, real or personal, legal or equitable, or any fractional part, share, or particular portion or specific assets thereof, or any estate in any such property, or any power to appoint, consume, apply, or expend property, or any other right, power, privilege, or immunity relating to property.

(b) "Interest" includes, but is not limited to, an interest created in any of the following manners:

(1) By intestate succession.

(2) Under a will.

(3) Under a trust.

(4) By succession to a disclaimed interest.

(5) By virtue of an election to take against a will.

(6) By creation of a power of appointment.

(7) By exercise or nonexercise of a power of appointment.

(8) By an inter vivos gift, whether outright or in trust.

(9) By surviving the death of a depositor of a Totten trust account or P.O.D. account.

(10) Under an insurance or annuity contract.

(11) By surviving the death of another joint tenant.

(12) Under an employee benefit plan.

(13) Under an individual retirement account, annuity, or bond.

(14) Any other interest created by any testamentary or inter vivos instrument or by operation of law.

268. "Person" means an individual, corporation, government or governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, association, or other entity.

269. "P.O.D. account" means an account subject to a pay-on-death provision as provided in Section 852.5, 7604.5, 11203.5, 14854.5, or 18318.5 of the Financial Code.

270. "Totten trust account" means an account in the name of one or more parties as trustee for one or more beneficiaries where the relationship is established by the form of the account and the deposit agreement with the financial institution and there is no subject of the trust other than the sums on deposit in the account. In a Totten trust account, it is not essential that payment to the beneficiary be mentioned in the deposit agreement. A Totten trust account does not include (1) a regular trust account under a testamentary trust or a trust agreement which has significance apart from the account or (2) a fiduciary account arising from a fiduciary relation such as attorney-client.

CHAPTER 2. GENERAL PROVISIONS

275. A beneficiary may disclaim any interest, in whole or in part, by filing a disclaimer as provided in this division.

276. A disclaimer on behalf of a conservatee shall be made by the conservator of the estate of the conservatee pursuant to a court order obtained under Article 10 (commencing with Section 2580) of Chapter 6 of Part 4 of Division 4 authorizing or requiring the conservator to execute and file the disclaimer.

277. (a) A disclaimer on behalf of a minor shall be made by the guardian of the estate of the minor if one has been appointed or, if none has been appointed, by a guardian ad litem of the minor. A disclaimer by a guardian is not effective unless made pursuant to a court order obtained under this section.

(b) A disclaimer on behalf of a decedent shall be made by the personal representative of the decedent. Except as provided in Article 2 (commencing with Section 591) of Chapter 8 of Division 3, a disclaimer by a guardian or personal representative is not effective unless made pursuant to a court order obtained under this section.

(c) A petition for an order authorizing or requiring a guardian or personal representative to execute and file a disclaimer shall be filed in the superior court in the county in which the estate of the minor or decedent is administered or, if there is no administration, the superior court in any county in which administration would be proper. The petition may be filed by the guardian, personal representative, or other interested person.

(d) The petition shall:

(1) Identify the creator of the interest.

(2) Describe the interest to be disclaimed.

(3) State the extent of the disclaimer.

(4) Identify the person or persons the petitioner believes would take the interest in the event of the disclaimer.

(e) Notice of the hearing on the petition shall be given as follows:

(1) If the petition is for an order authorizing or requiring the guardian of the estate of a minor to execute and file the disclaimer, notice of the hearing on the petition shall be given for the period and in the manner provided in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1460) of Part 1 of Division 4 to all of the persons (other than the petitioner or persons joining in the petition) required to be given notice under that chapter.

(2) If the petition is for an order authorizing or requiring the personal representative of a decedent to execute and file the disclaimer, notice of the hearing on the petition shall be given for the period and in the manner provided in Section 1200.5.

(3) If the petition is for an order authorizing or requiring a guardian ad litem of a minor to execute and file the disclaimer, notice of the hearing on the petition shall be given to the persons and in the manner that the court shall by order direct.

(4) The court may require that additional notice be given in such manner as the court directs.

(f) After hearing, the court in its discretion may make an order authorizing or requiring the guardian or personal representative to execute and file the disclaimer if the court determines, taking into consideration all of the relevant circumstances, that the minor or decedent as a prudent person would disclaim the interest if he or she had the capacity to do so.

278. The disclaimer shall be in writing, shall be signed by the disclaimant, and shall:

- (a) Identify the creator of the interest.
- (b) Describe the interest to be disclaimed.
- (c) State the disclaimer and the extent thereof.

279. (a) A disclaimer to be effective shall be filed within a reasonable time after the person able to disclaim acquires knowledge of the interest.

(b) In the case of any of the following interests, a disclaimer is conclusively presumed to have been filed within a reasonable time if it is filed within nine months after the death of the creator of the interest or within nine months after the interest becomes indefeasibly vested, whichever occurs later:

- (1) An interest created under a will.
- (2) An interest created by intestate succession.
- (3) An interest created pursuant to the exercise or nonexercise of a testamentary power of appointment.
- (4) An interest created by surviving the death of a depositor of a Totten trust account or P.O.D. account.
- (5) An interest created under a life insurance or annuity contract.
- (6) An interest created by surviving the death of another joint tenant.

(7) An interest created under an employee benefit plan.

(8) An interest created under an individual retirement account, annuity, or bond.

(c) In the case of an interest created by an inter vivos trust, an interest created by the exercise of a presently exercisable power of appointment, an outright inter vivos gift, a power of appointment, or an interest created or increased by succession to a disclaimed interest, a disclaimer is conclusively presumed to have been filed within a reasonable time if it is filed within nine months after whichever of the following times occurs latest:

(1) The time of the creation of the trust, the exercise of the power of appointment, the making of the gift, the creation of the power of appointment, or the disclaimer of the disclaimed property.

(2) The time the first knowledge of the interest is acquired by the person able to disclaim.

(3) The time the interest becomes indefeasibly vested.

(d) In case of an interest not described in subdivision (b) or (c), a disclaimer is conclusively presumed to have been filed within a reasonable time if it is filed within nine months after whichever of the following times occurs later:

(1) The time the first knowledge of the interest is acquired by the person able to disclaim.

(2) The time the interest becomes indefeasibly vested.

(e) In the case of a future estate, a disclaimer is conclusively presumed to have been filed within a reasonable time if it is filed within whichever of the following times occurs later:

(1) Nine months after the time the interest becomes an estate in possession.

(2) The time specified in subdivision (b), (c), or (d), whichever is applicable.

(f) If the disclaimer is not filed within the time provided in subdivision (b), (c), (d), or (e), the disclaimant has the burden of establishing that the disclaimer was filed within a reasonable time after the disclaimant acquired knowledge of the interest.

280. (a) A disclaimer shall be filed with any of the following:

(1) The superior court in the county in which the estate of the decedent is administered or, if there is no administration of the decedent's estate, the superior court in any county in which administration of the estate of the decedent would be proper.

(2) The trustee, personal representative, other fiduciary, or person responsible for distributing the interest to the beneficiary.

(3) Any other person having custody or possession of or legal title to the interest.

(4) The creator of the interest.

(b) If a disclaimer made pursuant to this division affects real property or an obligation secured by real property and the disclaimer is acknowledged and proved in like manner as a grant of real property, the disclaimer may be recorded in like manner and with like effect as a grant of real property, and all statutory provisions relating to the recordation or nonrecordation of conveyances of real property and to the effect thereof apply to the disclaimer with like effect, without regard to the date when the disclaimer was filed pursuant to subdivision (a). Failure to file a disclaimer pursuant to subdivision (a) which is recorded pursuant to this subdivision does not affect the validity of any transaction with respect to the real property or the obligation secured thereby, and the general laws on recording and its effect govern any such transaction.

281. A disclaimer, when effective, is irrevocable and binding upon the beneficiary and all persons claiming by, through, or under the beneficiary, including creditors of the beneficiary.

282. Unless the creator of the interest provides for a specific disposition of the interest in the event of a disclaimer, the interest disclaimed shall descend, go, be distributed, or continue to be held

(1) as to a present interest, as if the disclaimant had predeceased the creator of the interest or (2) as to a future interest, as if the disclaimant had died before the event determining that the taker of the interest had become finally ascertained and the taker's interest indefeasibly vested. A disclaimer relates back for all purposes to the date of the death of the creator of the disclaimed interest or the determinative event, as the case may be.

283. A disclaimer is not a fraudulent conveyance by the beneficiary under Title 2 (commencing with Section 3439) of Part 2 of Division 4 of the Civil Code.

284. A person who could file a disclaimer under this division may instead file a written waiver of the right to disclaim. The waiver shall specify the interest to which the waiver applies. Upon being filed as provided in Section 280, the waiver is irrevocable and is binding upon the beneficiary and all persons claiming by, through, or under the beneficiary.

285. (a) A disclaimer may not be made after the beneficiary has accepted the interest sought to be disclaimed.

(b) For the purpose of this section, a beneficiary has accepted an interest if any of the following occurs before a disclaimer is filed with respect to that interest:

(1) The beneficiary, or someone acting on behalf of the beneficiary, makes a voluntary assignment, conveyance, encumbrance, pledge, or transfer of the interest or part thereof, or contracts to do so.

(2) The beneficiary, or someone acting on behalf of the beneficiary, executes a written waiver under Section 284 of the right to disclaim the interest.

(3) The beneficiary, or someone acting on behalf of the beneficiary, accepts the interest or part thereof or benefit thereunder.

(4) The interest or part thereof is sold at a judicial sale.

(c) An acceptance does not preclude a beneficiary from thereafter disclaiming all or part of an interest if both of the following requirements are met:

(1) The beneficiary became entitled to the interest because another person disclaimed an interest.

(2) The beneficiary or other person acting on behalf of the beneficiary at the time of the acceptance had no knowledge of the interest to which the beneficiary so became entitled.

(d) The acceptance by a joint tenant of the joint tenancy interest created when the joint tenancy is created is not an acceptance by the joint tenant of the interest created when the joint tenant survives the death of another joint tenant.

286. The right to disclaim exists regardless of any limitation imposed on the interest of a beneficiary in the nature of an expressed or implied spendthrift provision or similar restriction.

287. An interest created before January 1, 1984, that has not been accepted may be disclaimed after December 31, 1983, in the manner provided in this division, but no interest that arose before January 1, 1984, in a person other than the beneficiary may be destroyed or diminished by any action of the disclaimant taken pursuant to this division.

288. This division does not limit or abridge any right a person may have under any other law to assign, convey, or release any property or interest, but after December 31, 1983, an interest that would otherwise be taken by a beneficiary may be declined, refused, renounced, or disclaimed only as provided in this division.

CHAPTER 3. DISCLAIMERS EFFECTIVE UNDER FEDERAL LAW

295. Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, if as a result of a disclaimer or transfer the disclaimed or transferred interest is treated pursuant to the provisions of Title 26 of the United States Code, as now or hereafter amended, or any successor statute thereto, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, as never having been transferred to the beneficiary, then the disclaimer or transfer is effective as a disclaimer under this division.

SEC. 3. Section 591.6 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

591.6. Unless restricted by the will, an executor or administrator who has been granted authority to administer the estate without court supervision shall have all of the following powers, in addition to any other powers granted by this code, which powers can be exercised in the manner provided in this article:

(a) To manage, control, convey, divide, exchange, partition, and to sell for cash or on credit; to lease for any purpose, including exploration for and removal of gas, oil, or other minerals; to enter into community oil leases; and to grant options to purchase real property for a period within or beyond the administration of the estate.

(b) To invest and reinvest money of the estate in deposits in banks and insured savings and loan association accounts and in direct obligations of the United States maturing not later than one year from the date of investment or reinvestment; to invest and reinvest any surplus moneys in his or her hands in any manner provided by the will.

(c) To borrow; to place, replace, renew or extend any encumbrance upon any property in the estate.

(d) To abandon worthless assets or any interest therein.

(e) To make ordinary or extraordinary repairs or alterations in buildings or other property.

(f) To vote a security, in person or by general or limited proxy.

(g) To sell or exercise stock subscription or conversion rights.

(h) To hold a security in the name of a nominee or in other form without disclosure of the estate, so that title to the security may pass by delivery, but the executor or administrator is liable for any act of the nominee in connection with the security so held.

(i) To insure the assets of the estate against damage or loss, and the executor or administrator against liability with respect to third persons.

uncollectible; to institute, compromise and defend actions and proceedings.

(k) To pay taxes, assessments, and other expenses incurred in the collection, care and administration of the estate.

(l) To continue the operation of the decedent's business to such extent as he or she shall deem to be for the best interest of the estate and those interested therein.

(m) To pay a reasonable family allowance.

(n) To make a disclaimer.

SEC. 4. Section 2580 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

2580. (a) The conservator or other interested person may file a petition under this article for an order of the court authorizing or requiring the conservator to take a proposed action for any one or more of the following purposes:

(1) Benefiting the conservatee or the estate.

(2) Minimizing current or prospective taxes or expenses of administration of the conservatorship estate or of the estate upon the death of the conservatee.

(3) Providing gifts for such purposes, and to such charities, relatives (including the other spouse), friends, or other objects of bounty, as would be likely beneficiaries of gifts from the conservatee.

(b) The action proposed in the petition may include, but is not limited to, the following:

(1) Making gifts of principal or income, or both, of the estate, outright or in trust.

(2) Conveying or releasing the conservatee's contingent and expectant interests in property, including marital property rights and any right of survivorship incident to joint tenancy or tenancy by the entirety.

(3) Exercising or releasing the conservatee's powers as donee of a power of appointment.

(4) Entering into contracts.

(5) Creating for the benefit of the conservatee or others, revocable or irrevocable trusts of the property of the estate, which trusts may extend beyond the conservatee's disability or life.

(6) Exercising options of the conservatee to purchase or exchange securities or other property.

(7) Exercising the rights of the conservatee to elect benefit or payment options, to terminate, to change beneficiaries or ownership, to assign rights, to borrow, or to receive cash value in return for a surrender of rights under any of the following:

(i) Life insurance policies, plans, or benefits.

(ii) Annuity policies, plans, or benefits.

(iii) Mutual fund and other dividend investment plans.

(iv) Retirement, profit sharing, and employee welfare plans and benefits.

(8) Exercising the right of the conservatee to elect to take under or against a will.

(9) Exercising the right of the conservatee to disclaim any interest that may be disclaimed under Division 2.5 (commencing with Section 260).

(10) Exercising the right of the conservatee (i) to revoke a revocable trust or (ii) to surrender the right to revoke a revocable trust, but the court shall not authorize or require the conservator to exercise the right to revoke a revocable trust if the instrument governing the trust (i) evidences an intent to reserve the right of revocation exclusively to the conservatee, (ii) provides expressly that a conservator may not revoke the trust, or (iii) otherwise evidences an intent that would be inconsistent with authorizing or requiring the conservator to exercise the right to revoke the trust.

(11) Making an election or an election and agreement referred to in Section 202.

SEC. 5. This act shall become operative only if Assembly Bill No. 24 is chaptered and becomes effective and operative on January 1, 1984, and in such case this act shall become effective and operative on January 1, 1984, the same as Assembly Bill No. 24.

CHAPTER 18

An act to amend Sections 5122, 7398, 9891.31, and 9891.35 of, to add Section 7071.15 to, and to repeal Section 9891.36 of, the Business and Professions Code, to amend Sections 166, 488.465, 700.160, 720.760, 720.770, 726, 995.020, 995.710, 996.340, and 1166a of, and to repeal Sections 720.710, 720.720, 720.730, 720.740, 720.750, 720.780, and 720.790 of, the Code of Civil Procedure, to amend Section 25100 of the Corporations Code, to amend Section 26855.3 of, and to repeal Section 1587 of, the Government Code, to amend Section 1376 of the Health and Safety Code, to amend Section 1448 of the Penal Code, to amend Sections 541, 2329, and 2334 of the Probate Code, to amend Sections 5101, 20398, 20413, 20426, 20458, 20483, 20569, and 20589 of the Public Contract Code, and to amend Sections 11301.5, 11713, and 16434 of the Vehicle Code, relating to bonds and undertakings, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 21, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State April 21, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5122 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5122. Whenever in the judgment of the board, or with its approval any administrative committee, any person has engaged, or is about to engage, in any acts or practices which constitute, or will constitute, an offense against this chapter, the board may make application to the appropriate court for an order enjoining the acts or practices, and upon showing by the board that the person has engaged, or is about to engage, in any such acts or practices, an injunction, restraining order, or such other order as may be appropriate shall be granted by the court.

SEC. 1.5. Section 7071.15 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

7071.15. If a licensee fails to maintain a sufficient bond required by this article, the license is subject to suspension or revocation pursuant to Section 996.020 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 2. Section 7398 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7398. (a) Every school shall post with the board a surety bond executed by an admitted surety insurer in the amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(b) The bond shall be in the form approved by the board and shall be conditioned upon compliance with the provisions of this chapter and upon faithful compliance with the terms and conditions of any and all contracts, verbal or written, made by the school to furnish instruction to any person. The bond shall be to the State of California in favor of every person who pays or deposits any money with the school as payment for any instruction. Every bond shall continue in force and effect until notice of termination is given by registered mail to the board and every bond shall set forth this fact.

(c) A judgment against the principal or surety in any action to enforce the liability on the bond shall include the costs thereof and those incident to the bringing of the action, including a reasonable attorney fee.

SEC. 3. Section 9891.31 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9891.31. The superior court in and for the county wherein any person acts as a tax preparer in violation of the provisions of this chapter, or any regulation adopted pursuant to this chapter, may, upon a petition filed by the administrator with the approval of the chief, issue an injunction or other appropriate order restraining such conduct. The proceedings under this section shall be governed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of the Code of Civil Procedure, except that the administrator shall not be required to allege facts necessary to show or tending to show lack of an adequate remedy at law or irreparable injury.

SEC. 4. Section 9891.35 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9891.35. (a) A tax preparer, other than a tax preparer operating solely in the capacity of a tax interviewer, shall deposit with the division, prior to registration or registration renewal, a bond executed by an admitted surety insurer payable to the people of the State of California in the penal sum of two thousand dollars ($2,000). The bond shall be conditioned that the person applying for registration or registration renewal will comply with this chapter and will pay all damages occasioned to any person by reason of misstatement, misrepresentation, fraud, deceit or any unlawful acts or omissions by the tax preparer, or interviewer while acting in the scope of their employment.

(b) A tax interviewer associated with a tax preparer shall be covered by the bond of the tax preparer with which the tax interviewer is associated. However, in no event shall the total bond required for any single tax preparer and associated tax interviewers be required to exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

SEC. 5. Section 9891.36 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 166 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

166. (a) The judge or judges of the superior, municipal and justice courts may, at chambers, in the matters within the jurisdiction of their respective courts:

(1) Grant all orders and writs which are usually granted in the first instance upon an ex parte application, and may, at chambers, hear and dispose of such orders and writs; and may also, at chambers, appoint appraisers, receive inventories and accounts to be filed, suspend the powers of executors, administrators, guardians, or conservators in the cases allowed by law, grant special letters of administration and letters of temporary guardianship or conservatorship, approve claims, and direct the issuance from the court of all writs and process necessary in the exercise of their powers in matters of probate.

(2) Hear and determine all motions made pursuant to Section 657 or 663.

(3) Hear and determine all uncontested actions, proceedings, demurrers, motions, petitions, applications, and other matters pending before the court other than actions for dissolution of marriage, for legal separation, or for a judgment of nullity of the marriage, and except also applications for confirmation of sale of real property in probate proceedings.

(4) Hear and determine motions to tax costs of enforcing a judgment.

(5) Approve bonds and undertakings.

(b) A judge may, out of court, anywhere in the state, exercise all the powers and perform all the functions and duties conferred upon a judge as contradistinguished from the court, or which a judge may exercise or perform at chambers.

SEC. 7. Section 488.465 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

488.465. (a) The provisions of this section apply in addition to the provisions of Sections 488.455 and 488.460 if any of the following property is attached:

(1) A deposit account standing in the name of a third person or in the names of both the defendant and a third person.

(2) Property in a safe-deposit box standing in the name of a third person or in the names of both the defendant and a third person.

(b) The plaintiff shall provide, and the levying officer shall deliver to the financial institution at the time of levy, an undertaking given by an admitted surety insurer. The undertaking shall be for not less than twice the amount of the attachment or, if a lesser amount in a deposit account is sought to be levied upon, not less than twice the lesser amount. The undertaking shall indemnify any third person rightfully entitled to the property against actual damage by reason of the attachment of the property and shall assure to the third person the return of the property upon proof of the person's right thereto. The undertaking need not name the third person specifically but may refer to the third person generally in the same manner as in this subdivision. If the provisions of this subdivision are not satisfied, the attachment is ineffective and the financial institution shall not comply with the requirements of this section or with the attachment.

(c) Upon delivery of the undertaking to the financial institution, the financial institution shall immediately mail or deliver a notice of the delivery of the undertaking to the third person in whose name the deposit account or safe-deposit box stands. If mailed, the notice shall be sent by registered or certified mail addressed to the person's last address known to the financial institution. The financial institution shall deliver the undertaking as directed by the third person.

(d) Notwithstanding Article 4 (commencing with Section 488.600), from the time of levy and delivery of the undertaking to the financial institution until 15 days after the notice is mailed or delivered under subdivision (c) if no objection to the undertaking is made or, if such objection is made, until the court determines that the undertaking is sufficient, the financial institution shall not do any of the following:

(1) Honor a check or other order for the payment of money drawn against, or pay a withdrawal from, the deposit account that would reduce the deposit account to less than the amount attached. For the purposes of this paragraph, in determining the amount of the deposit account, the financial institution shall not include the amount of items deposited to the credit of the deposit account that are in the process of being collected.

(2) Permit the removal of any of the contents of the safe-deposit box except pursuant to the writ.

(e) The financial institution is not liable to any person for any of the following during the period prescribed in subdivision (d):

(1) Nonpayment of a check or other order for the payment of money drawn or presented against the deposit account where the nonpayment is pursuant to the requirements of subdivision (d).

(2) Refusal to pay a withdrawal from the deposit account where the refusal is pursuant to the requirements of subdivision (d).

(3) Refusal to permit access to the safe-deposit box by the person in whose name it stands.

(4) Removal of any of the contents of the safe-deposit box pursuant to the attachment.

(f) Upon the expiration of the period prescribed in subdivision (d), the financial institution shall comply with the attachment and Sections 488.455 and 488.460 apply.

SEC. 8. Section 700.160 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

700.160. (a) The provisions of this section apply in addition to the provisions of Sections 700.140 and 700.150 if any of the following property is levied upon:

(1) A deposit account standing in the name of a third person or in the names of both the judgment debtor and a third person.

(2) Property in a safe-deposit box standing in the name of a third person or in the names of both the judgment debtor and a third person.

(b) The judgment creditor shall provide, and the levying officer shall deliver to the financial institution at the time of levy, an undertaking given by an admitted surety insurer. The undertaking shall be for not less than twice the amount of the judgment or, if a lesser amount in a deposit account is sought to be levied upon, not less than twice the lesser amount. The undertaking shall indemnify any third person rightfully entitled to the property against actual damage by reason of the levy on the property and shall assure to the third person the return of the property upon proof of the person's right thereto. The undertaking need not name the third person specifically but may refer to the third person generally in the same manner as in this subdivision. If the provisions of this subdivision are not satisfied, the levy is ineffective and the financial institution shall not comply with the requirements of this section or with the levy.

(c) Upon delivery of the undertaking to the financial institution, the financial institution shall immediately mail or deliver a notice of the delivery of the undertaking to the third person in whose name the deposit account or safe-deposit box stands. If mailed, the notice shall be sent by registered or certified mail addressed to the person's last address known to the financial institution. The financial institution shall deliver the undertaking as directed by the third person.

(d) Notwithstanding Article 5 (commencing with Section 701.010), from the time of levy and the delivery of the undertaking to the financial institution until 15 days after the notice is mailed or delivered under subdivision (c) if no objection to the undertaking is made or, if such objection is made, until the court determines that the undertaking is sufficient, the financial institution shall not do any of the following:

(1) Honor a check or other order for the payment of money drawn against, or pay a withdrawal from, the deposit account that would reduce the deposit account to less than the amount levied upon. For the purposes of this paragraph, in determining the amount of the deposit account, the financial institution shall not include the amount of items deposited to the credit of the deposit account that are in the process of being collected.

(2) Permit the removal of any of the contents of the safe-deposit box except pursuant to the writ.

(e) The financial institution is not liable to any person for any of the following during the period prescribed in subdivision (d):

(1) Nonpayment of a check or other order for the payment of money drawn or presented against the deposit account where such nonpayment is pursuant to the requirements of subdivision (d).

(2) Refusal to pay a withdrawal from the deposit account where such refusal is pursuant to the requirements of subdivision (d).

(3) Refusal to permit access to the safe-deposit box by the person in whose name it stands.

(4) Removal of any of the contents of the safe-deposit box pursuant to the levy.

(f) Upon the expiration of the period prescribed in subdivision (d), the financial institution shall comply with the levy and Sections 700.140 and 700.150 apply.

SEC. 9. Section 720.710 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 10. Section 720.720 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 11. Section 720.730 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 12. Section 720.740 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 13. Section 720.750 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 14. Section 720.760 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

720.760. A copy of a notice of motion objecting to an undertaking shall be filed with the levying officer.

SEC. 15. Section 720.770 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

720.770. Unless the parties otherwise agree, the hearing on an objection to an undertaking shall be held not less than 10 nor more than 15 days after service of the notice of motion. The court may order the amount of the undertaking decreased below the amount prescribed by Section 720.160 or 720.260 if the court determines the amount prescribed exceeds the probable recovery of the beneficiary if the beneficiary ultimately prevails in proceedings to enforce the liability on the undertaking.

SEC. 16. Section 720.780 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 17. Section 720.790 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 18. Section 726 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

726. There can be but one form of action for the recovery of any debt, or the enforcement of any right secured by mortgage upon real property, which action must be in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. In such action the court may, by its judgment, direct the sale of the encumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the application of the proceeds of the sale to the payment of the costs of court, and the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiff, including, where the mortgage provides for the payment of attorney's fees, such sum for such fees as the court shall find reasonable, not exceeding the amount named in the mortgage.

The court may, by its judgment, or at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the encumbered property. It must require of him an undertaking in an amount fixed by the court, to the effect that the commissioner will faithfully perform the duties of his office according to law. Before entering upon the discharge of his duties he must file such undertaking, so approved, together with his oath that he will faithfully perform the duties of his office.

The decree for the foreclosure of a mortgage or deed of trust secured by real property or any interest therein shall declare the amount of the indebtedness or right so secured and, unless judgment for any deficiency there may be between the sale price and the amount due with costs is waived by the judgment creditor or a deficiency judgment is prohibited by Section 580b, shall determine the personal liability of any defendant for the payment of the debt secured by such mortgage or deed of trust and shall name such defendants against whom a deficiency judgment may be ordered following the proceedings hereinafter prescribed. In the event of such waiver, or if the prohibition of Section 580b is applicable the decree shall so declare and there shall be no judgment for a deficiency. In the event that a deficiency is not waived or prohibited and it is decreed that any defendant is personally liable for such debt, then upon application of the plaintiff filed at any time within three months of the date of the foreclosure sale and after a hearing thereon at which the court shall take evidence and at which hearing either party may present evidence as to the fair value of the property or the interest therein sold as of the date of sale, the court shall render a money judgment against such defendant or defendants for the amount by which the amount of the indebtedness with interest and costs of sale and of action exceeds the fair value of the property or interest therein sold as of the date of sale; provided, however, that in no event shall the amount of said judgment, exclusive of interest from the date of sale and of costs exceed the difference between the amount for which the property was sold and the entire amount of the indebtedness secured by said mortgage or deed of trust. Notice of such hearing must be served upon all defendants who have appeared in the action and against whom a deficiency judgment is sought, or upon their attorneys of record, at least 15 days before the date set for such hearing. Upon application of any party made at least 10 days before the date set for such hearing the court shall, and upon its own motion the court at any time may, appoint one of the probate referees provided for by law to appraise the property or the interest therein sold as of the time of sale. Such probate referee shall file his appraisal with the clerk and the same shall be admissible in evidence. Such probate referee shall take and subscribe an oath to be attached to the appraisal that he has truly, honestly and impartially appraised the property to the best of his knowledge and ability. Any probate referee so appointed may be called and examined as a witness by any party or by the court itself. The court must fix the compensation, in an amount as determined by the court to be reasonable, but such fees shall not exceed similar fees for similar services in the community where such services are rendered, which may be taxed and allowed in like manner as other costs.

No person holding a conveyance from or under the mortgagor of the property mortgaged, or having a lien thereon, which conveyance or lien does not appear of record in the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action need be made a party to such action, and the judgment therein rendered, and the proceedings therein had, are as conclusive against the party holding such unrecorded conveyance or lien as if he had been a party to the action.

If the court appoint a commissioner for the sale of the property, he must sell it in the manner provided by law for the sale of like property by the sheriff upon execution; and the provisions of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 681), Title 9, Part 2, of this code are hereby made applicable to sale made by such commissioner, and the powers therein given and the duties therein imposed on sheriffs are extended to such commissioner.

In all cases heretofore, now or hereafter pending in the courts of this state, in the event of the death, absence from the state, other disability or disqualification of the commissioner appointed to sell encumbered property under the foregoing provisions of this section, the court may, upon the happening of either the death, absence from the state, other disability or disqualification of the commissioner appoint an elisor to perform the duties of such commissioner which are then to be performed in such action. The elisor so appointed shall give the undertaking, and take the oath hereinbefore provided to be given and taken by a commissioner, before entering upon the discharge of his duties, and shall thereafter perform all duties left unperformed by the commissioner whom he is appointed to succeed, with like effect as if such duties had been performed by the commissioner.

If the land mortgaged consists of a single parcel, or two or more contiguous parcels, situated in two or more counties, the court may, in its judgment, direct the whole thereof to be sold in one of such counties by the sheriff, commissioner or elisor, as the case may be, and upon such proceedings, and with like effect, as if the whole of the property were situated in that county.

SEC. 18.2. Section 995.020 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

995.020. (a) The provisions of this chapter apply to a bond or undertaking executed, filed, posted, furnished, or otherwise given as security pursuant to any statute of this state, except to the extent the statute prescribes a different rule or is inconsistent.

(b) The provisions of this chapter apply to a bond or undertaking given at any of the following times:

(1) On or after January 1, 1983.

(2) Before January 1, 1983, to the extent another surety is substituted for the original surety on or after January 1, 1983, or to the extent the principal gives a new, additional, or supplemental bond or undertaking on or after January 1, 1983.

Except to the extent provided in this section, the law governing a bond or undertaking given before January 1, 1983, is the law applicable to the bond or undertaking immediately before January 1, 1983, pursuant to Section 414 of Chapter 517 of the Statutes of 1982.

(c) The provisions of this chapter do not apply to a bail bond or an undertaking of bail.

SEC. 18.5. Section 995.710 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

995.710. (a) Except to the extent the statute providing for a bond precludes a deposit in lieu of bond or limits the form of deposit, the principal may, instead of giving a bond, deposit with the officer any of the following:

(1) Lawful money of the United States. The money shall be maintained by the officer in an interest-bearing trust account.

(2) Bearer bonds or bearer notes of the United States or the State of California.

(3) Certificates of deposit payable to the officer, not exceeding the federally insured amount, issued by banks authorized to do business in this state and insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or by savings and loan associations authorized to do business in this state and insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation.

(4) Savings accounts assigned to the officer, not exceeding the federally insured amount, together with evidence of the deposit in the savings accounts with banks authorized to do business in this state and insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

(5) Investment certificates or share accounts assigned to the officer, not exceeding the federally insured amount, issued by savings and loan associations authorized to do business in this state and insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation.

(6) Certificates for funds or share accounts assigned to the officer, not exceeding the guaranteed amount, issued by a credit union, as defined in Section 14002 of the Financial Code, whose share deposits are guaranteed by the National Credit Union Administration or guaranteed by any other agency approved by the Department of Corporations.

(b) The deposit shall be in an amount or have a face value, or in the case of bearer bonds or bearer notes have a market value, equal to or in excess of the amount that would be required to be secured by the bond if the bond were given by an admitted surety insurer. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, in the case of a deposit of bearer bonds or bearer notes other than in an action or proceeding, the officer may, in the officer's discretion, require that the amount of the deposit be determined not by the market value of the bonds or notes but by a formula based on the principal amount of the bonds or notes.

(c) The deposit shall be accompanied by an agreement executed by the principal authorizing the officer to collect, sell, or otherwise apply the deposit to enforce the liability of the principal on the deposit. The agreement shall include the address at which the principal may be served with notices, papers, and other documents under this chapter.

(d) The officer may prescribe terms and conditions to implement this section.

SEC. 19. Section 996.340 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

996.340. (a) If the principal does not give a new bond within 30 days after notice of cancellation or withdrawal is given, all rights obtained by giving the original bond immediately cease, any office for which the bond is given is vacant, any commission for which the bond is given is revoked, and any license or registration for which the bond is given is suspended.

(b) A person whose license or registration is suspended shall not operate or carry on business pursuant to the license or registration during the period of suspension. A license or registration that is suspended may be revived only by the giving of a new bond during the license or registration period in which the cancellation or withdrawal occurred.

SEC. 20. Section 1166a of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

(b) Written notice of the hearing on the motion shall be served on the defendant by the plaintiff in accordance with the provisions of Section 1011, and shall inform the defendant as follows: "You may file affidavits on your own behalf with the court and may appear and present testimony on your own behalf. However, if you fail to appear, the plaintiff will apply to the court for a writ of possession of real property."

(c) The plaintiff shall file an undertaking in such sum as shall be fixed and determined by the judge, to the effect that, if the plaintiff fails to recover judgment against the defendant for the possession of the premises or if the suit is dismissed, the plaintiff will pay to the defendant such damages, not to exceed the amount fixed in the undertaking, as may be sustained by the defendant by reason of such dispossession under the writ of possession of real property.

(d) If, at the hearing on the motion, the findings of the court are in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, an order shall be entered for the immediate possession of the premises.

(e) The order for the immediate possession of the premises may be enforced as provided in Division 3 (commencing with Section 712.010) of Title 9 of Part 2.

(f) For the purposes of this section, references in Division 3 (commencing with Section 712.010) of Title 9 of Part 2 and in subdivisions (e) to (m), inclusive, of Section 1174, to the "judgment debtor" shall be deemed references to the defendant, to the "judgment creditor" shall be deemed references to the plaintiff, and to the "judgment of possession or sale of property" shall be deemed references to an order for the immediate possession of the premises.

SEC. 21. Section 25100 of the Corporations Code, as amended by Chapter 1625 of the Statutes of 1982, is amended to read:

25100. The following securities are exempted from the provisions of Sections 25110, 25120, and 25130:

(a) Any security (including a revenue obligation) issued or guaranteed by the United States, any state, any city, county, city and county, public district, public authority, public corporation, public entity, or political subdivision of a state or any agency or corporate or other instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing; or any certificate of deposit for any of the foregoing.

(b) Any security issued or guaranteed by the Dominion of Canada, any Canadian province, any political subdivision or municipality of any such province, or by any other foreign government with which the United States currently maintains diplomatic relations, if the security is recognized as a valid obligation by the issuer or guarantor; or any certificate of deposit for any of the foregoing.

(c) Any security issued or guaranteed by and representing an interest in or a direct obligation of a national bank or a bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of this state, and any security issued by a bank to one or more other banks and representing an interest in an asset of the issuing bank.

(d) Any security issued or guaranteed by a federal savings and loan association or federal land bank or joint land bank or national farm loan association or by any savings and loan association which is subject to the supervision and regulation of the Savings and Loan Commissioner of this state.

(e) Any security (other than an interest in all or portions of a parcel or parcels of real property which are subdivided land or a subdivision or in a real estate development), the issuance of which is subject to authorization by the Insurance Commissioner, the Public Utilities Commission, or the Real Estate Commissioner of this state.

(f) Any security consisting of any interest in all or portions of a parcel or parcels of real property which are subdivided lands or a subdivision or in a real estate development; provided that the exemption in this subdivision shall not be applicable to any investment contract sold or offered for sale with, or as part of, any such interest, or to any person engaged in the business of selling, distributing or supplying water for irrigation purposes or domestic use which is not a public utility.

(g) Any shares, investment certificates or borrower's membership certificates (as defined in the Savings and Loan Association Law) issued by a savings and loan association holding a license then in force from the Savings and Loan Commissioner of this state.

(h) Any security issued or guaranteed by any federal credit union, or by any credit union organized and supervised, or regulated, under the Credit Union Law.

(i) Any security issued or guaranteed by any railroad, other common carrier, public utility, or public utility holding company which is (1) subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission or (2) a holding company registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 or a subsidiary of such a company within the meaning of that act or (3) regulated in respect of the issuance or guarantee of the security by a governmental authority of the United States, of any state, of Canada or of any Canadian province; and the security is subject to registration with or authorization of issuance by such authority.

(j) Any security (except evidences of indebtedness, whether interest bearing or not) of an issuer (1) organized exclusively for educational, benevolent, fraternal, religious, charitable, social, or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit, if no part of the net earnings of the issuer inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, or (2) organized as a chamber of commerce or trade or professional association. The fact that amounts received from memberships or dues or both will or may be used to construct or otherwise acquire facilities for use by members of the nonprofit organization does not disqualify the organization for this exemption. This exemption does not apply to the securities of any nonprofit organization if any promoter thereof expects or intends to make a profit directly or indirectly from any business or activity associated with the organization or operation of such nonprofit organization or from remuneration received from such nonprofit organization.

(k) Any agreement, commonly known as a "life income contract," of an issuer (1) organized exclusively for educational, benevolent, fraternal, religious, charitable, social, or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit and (2) which the commissioner designates by rule or order, with a donor in consideration of a donation of property to such issuer and providing for the payment to the donor or persons designated by him of income or specified periodic payments from the donated property or other property for the life of the donor or such other persons.

(l) Any note, draft, bill of exchange, or banker's acceptance which is freely transferable and of prime quality, arises out of a current transaction or the proceeds of which have been or are to be used for current transactions, and which evidences an obligation to pay cash within nine months of the date of issuance, exclusive of days of grace, or any renewal of such paper which is likewise limited, or any guarantee of such paper or of any such renewal, provided that such paper is not offered to the public in amounts of less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in the aggregate to any one purchaser. In addition, the commissioner may, by rule or order, exempt any issuer of any notes, drafts, bills of exchange or banker's acceptances from qualification of such securities when the commissioner finds that such qualification is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

(m) Any security issued by any corporation organized and existing under the provisions of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 54001) of Division 20 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

(n) Any beneficial interest in an employees' pension, profit sharing, stock bonus or similar benefit plan which meets the requirements for qualification under Section 401 of the Federal Internal Revenue Code or any statute amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto. A determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service stating that an employees' pension, profit sharing, stock bonus or similar benefit plan meets such requirements shall be conclusive evidence that such plan is an employees' pension, profit sharing, stock bonus or similar plan within the meaning of the first sentence of this subdivision until the date such determination letter is revoked in writing by the Internal Revenue Service, regardless of whether or not such revocation is retroactive.

(o) Any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on a national securities exchange certified by rule or order of the commissioner and any warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to any such security.

Such certification of any exchange shall be made by the commissioner upon the written request of the exchange if the commissioner finds that the exchange, in acting on applications for listing of common stock substantially applies each of the minimum standards set forth in subparagraph (1) below, and in considering suspension or removal from listing, substantially applies each of the criteria set forth in subparagraph (2) below.

(1) Listing standards:

(i) Net tangible assets of at least two million dollars ($2,000,000).

(ii) Net income of at least two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) after all charges including federal income taxes in the fiscal year immediately preceding the filing of a listing application and net income before such taxes of at least five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000).

(iii) Minimum public distribution of 250,000 shares excluding the holdings of officers, directors, controlling shareholders and other concentrated or family holdings among not less than 900 holders including not less than 600 holders of lots of 100 shares or more, with a corresponding requirement that such securities not be largely held in blocks by institutional investors.

(iv) Minimum price of four dollars ($4) per share for a reasonable period of time prior to the filing of a listing application.

(v) An aggregate market value for publicly held shares of at least one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000).

(2) Criteria for consideration of suspension or removal from listing:

(i) If a company which (A) has net tangible assets of less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) has sustained net losses in each of its two most recent fiscal years, or (B) has net tangible assets of less than three million dollars ($3,000,000) and has sustained net losses in three of its four most recent fiscal years.

(ii) If the number of shares publicly held (excluding the holdings of officers, directors, controlling shareholders and other concentrated or family holdings) is less than 150,000.

(iii) If the total number of shareholders of record is less than 450 or if the number of shareholders of lots of 100 shares or more is less than 300.

(iv) If the aggregate market value of shares publicly held is less than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000).

(v) If shares of common stock sell at a price of less than four dollars ($4) per share for a substantial period of time and the issuer shall fail to effectuate a reverse stock split of such shares within a reasonable period of time after being requested by the exchange to take such action.

The commissioner after appropriate notice and opportunity for hearing in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, may by rule or order, decertify any exchange previously certified which ceases substantially to apply the standards or criteria as set forth above. A rule or order of certification shall conclusively establish that any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on any exchange named in a rule or order of certification and any warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to any such security is exempt under this subdivision until the adoption of any rule or order decertifying such exchange.

(p) A promissory note secured by a lien on real property, which is neither one of a series of notes of equal priority secured by interests in the same real property nor a note in which beneficial interests are sold to more than one person or entity.

(q) Any unincorporated interindemnity or reciprocal or interinsurance contract, which qualifies under the provisions of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code, between members of a cooperative corporation, organized and operating under Part 2 (commencing with Section 12200) of Division 3 of Title 1, and whose members consist only of physicians and surgeons licensed in California, which contracts indemnify solely in respect to medical malpractice claims against such members, and which do not collect in advance of loss any moneys other than contributions by each member to a collective reserve trust fund or for necessary expenses of administration.

(1) Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code, the commissioner may, in the commissioner's discretion, bring an action in the name of the people of the State of California in the superior court to enjoin the acts or practices or to enforce compliance with Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code. Upon a proper showing a permanent or preliminary injunction, restraining order or writ of mandate shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets.

(2) The commissioner may, in the commissioner's discretion, (A) make such public or private investigations within or outside of this state as the commissioner deems necessary to determine whether any person has violated or is about to violate any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code or to aid in the enforcement of Section 1280.7, and (B) publish information concerning the violation of Section 1280.7.

(3) For the purpose of any investigation or proceeding under this section, the commissioner or any officer designated by the commissioner may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements, or other documents or records which the commissioner deems relevant or material to the inquiry.

(4) In case of contumacy by, or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to, any person, the superior court, upon application by the commissioner, may issue to the person an order requiring the person to appear before the commissioner, or the officer designated by the commissioner, there to produce documentary evidence, if so ordered, or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt.

(5) No person is excused from attending or testifying or from producing any document or record before the commissioner or in obedience to the subpoena of the commissioner or any officer designated by the commissioner, or in any proceeding instituted by the commissioner, on the ground that the testimony or evidence (documentary or otherwise), required of the person may tend to incriminate the person or subject the person to a penalty or forfeiture, but no individual may be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which the person is compelled, after validly claiming the privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence (documentary or otherwise), except that the individual testifying is not exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury or contempt committed in testifying.

(r) Any shares or memberships issued by any corporation organized and existing pursuant to the provisions of Part 2 (commencing with Section 12200) of Division 3 of Title 1; provided (1) the corporation limits its shareholders or members primarily to ultimate consumers or ultimate producers or both and (2) the aggregate investment of any shareholder or member in shares or memberships sold pursuant to this subdivision does not exceed three hundred dollars ($300). This exemption does not apply to the shares or memberships of any such corporation if any promoter thereof expects or intends to make a profit directly or indirectly from any business or activity associated with the corporation or the operation of such corporation or from remuneration, other than reasonable salary, received from such corporation. This exemption does not apply to nonvoting shares or memberships of any such corporation issued to any person who does not possess, and who will not acquire in connection with the issuance of nonvoting shares or memberships, voting rights in the corporation.

(s) Any security consisting of or representing an interest in a pool of mortgage loans which meets each of the following requirements:

(1) The pool consists of mortgage loans originated or acquired in the ordinary course of business by a national bank or federal savings and loan association having its principal office in this state, by a bank incorporated under the laws of this state or by a savings and loan association which is subject to the supervision and regulation of the Savings and Loan Commissioner and which at the time of transfer to the pool is an authorized investment for such origination or acquiring institution;

(2) The pool of mortgage loans is held in trust by a trustee which is a financial institution specified in paragraph (1) as trustee or otherwise;

(3) The loans are serviced by a financial institution specified in paragraph (1);

(4) Such security is not offered in amounts of less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in the aggregate to any one purchaser; and

(5) Such security is offered pursuant to a registration under the Securities Act of 1933, or pursuant to an exemption under Regulation A under such act, or in the opinion of counsel for the issuer, is offered pursuant to an exemption under Section 4(2) of that act.

SEC. 22. Section 1587 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 23. Section 26855.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26855.3. The fee for issuing a certificate pursuant to Section 995.640 of the Code of Civil Procedure is three dollars and fifty cents ($3.50).

SEC. 24. Section 1376 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1376. (a) No plan shall conduct any activity regulated by this chapter in contravention of such rules and regulations as the commissioner may prescribe as necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of plans, subscribers, and enrollees to provide safeguards with respect to the financial responsibility of plans. Such rules and regulations may require a minimum capital or net worth, limitations on indebtedness, procedures for the handling of funds or assets, including segregation of funds, assets and net worth, the maintenance of appropriate insurance and a fidelity bond and the maintenance of a surety bond in an amount not exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

(b) The surety bond referred to in subdivision (a) shall be conditioned upon compliance by the licensee with the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter and orders issued under this chapter. Every surety bond shall provide that no suit may be maintained to enforce any liability thereon unless brought within two years after the act upon which such suit is based.

(c) For purposes of computing any minimum capital requirement which may be prescribed by the rules and regulations of the commissioner under subdivision (a), any operating cost assistance or direct loan made to a plan by the United States Department of Health and Human Services pursuant to Public Law 93-222, as amended, may be treated as a subordinated loan, notwithstanding any express terms thereof to the contrary.

(d) Each solicitor and solicitor firm shall handle funds received for the account of plans, subscribers, or groups in accordance with such rules as the commissioner may adopt pursuant to this subdivision.

(e) The commissioner may, by regulation, designate requirements of this section or regulations adopted pursuant to this section, from which public entities and political subdivisions of the state shall be exempt.

SEC. 25. Section 1448 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1448. If the complainant does not pay the costs, or give an undertaking therefor, the court may enter judgment against the complainant for the amount of the costs, which may be enforced in the manner provided for enforcement of money judgments generally.

SEC. 26. Section 541 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

541. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, every person to whom letters testamentary or of administration are directed to issue (unless the testator has waived such requirement) shall, before receiving them, execute a bond to the State of California, to be approved by a judge of the superior court, conditioned that the executor or administrator shall faithfully execute the duties of the trust according to law. If the bond is to be given by personal sureties, the amount shall be not less than twice the value of the personal property and twice the value of the probable annual income from the real property belonging to the estate, which values shall be ascertained by the court or judge by examining on oath the party applying, and any other persons. If the bond is to be given by an admitted surety insurer, the court in its discretion may fix the amount of the bond at not less than the value of the personal property and the probable value of the annual rents, issues and profits of all of the property belonging to the estate.

(b) Unless the will provides for a requirement of a bond, if a verified petition for letters testamentary or of administration alleges that all beneficiaries under the last will and testament of the decedent, or that all heirs at law of the decedent, have waived the filing of a bond, the court, on the hearing of the petition, if the petition so requests, may direct that no bond be filed.

SEC. 27. Section 2329 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

2329. (a) If a guardian or conservator moves the court for reduction in the amount of the bond, the motion shall include an affidavit setting forth the condition of the estate.

(b) Except upon a showing of good cause, the amount of the bond shall not be reduced below the amount determined pursuant to Section 2320.

(c) Nothing in this section limits the authority of the court to reduce the amount of the bond with or without notice under Section 2328.

SEC. 28. Section 2334 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

2334. When a petition is filed requesting an order that a guardian or conservator be required to give a bond where no bond was originally required, or an objection is made to the sufficiency of the bond, and the petition or affidavit supporting the objection alleges facts showing that the guardian or conservator is failing to use ordinary care and diligence in the management of the estate, the court, by order, may suspend the powers of the guardian or conservator until the matter can be heard and determined.

SEC. 29. Section 5101 of the Public Contracts Code is amended to read:

5101. A bidder shall not be relieved of the bid unless by consent of the awarding authority nor shall any change be made in the bid because of mistake, but the bidder may bring an action against the public entity in a court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the bids were opened for the recovery of the amount forfeited, without interest or costs. If the plaintiff fails to recover judgment, the plaintiff shall pay all costs incurred by the public entity in the suit, including a reasonable attorney's fee to be fixed by the court.

SEC. 30. Section 20398 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

20398. The board shall cause the highway work, provided for in this article, to be done in accordance with the provisions of Sections 20391 to 20395, inclusive, except that the notice calling for bids shall be published in a newspaper published in the division if there is such a newspaper. The successful bidder shall give a bond in such sum as the board requires, conditioned on the faithful performance of the contract, and on the payment of all labor employed and material used in the work.

SEC. 31. Section 20413 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

20413. All proposals or bids offered shall be accompanied by cash, a cashier's check or a certified check payable to the city, for an amount which shall not be less than 10 percent of the aggregate of the proposal, or by a bond for that amount and so payable, to the satisfaction and approval of the superintendent of streets.

SEC. 32. Section 20426 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

20426. All contractors, contracting owners included, shall, at the time of executing any contract for the work, execute a bond to the satisfaction and approval of the superintendent of streets and payable to the city, in a sum not less than 25 percent of the amount of the contract, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the contract.

SEC. 33. Section 20458 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

20458. The bond shall provide that the contractor or subcontractor shall pay for any materials, provisions, provender, or other supplies or use of implements or machinery used in, upon, for or about the performance of the work contracted to be done, or for any work or labor done thereon of any kind.

SEC. 34. Section 20483 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

20483. (a) Each bid shall be accompanied by cash, a cashier's check or a certified check, amounting to 10 percent of the bid, payable to the order of the clerk of the legislative body, or by a bond for that amount and so payable, to the satisfaction and approval of the superintendent of streets. The amount so posted shall be forfeited to the municipality if the bidder does not, within 15 days after written notice that the contract has been awarded to the bidder, enter into a contract with the municipality for the work.

(b) The faithful performance of the contract shall be secured by an undertaking in such penal sum as the legislative body requires, but not less than 25 percent of the contract price, satisfactory to the legislative body. When the proceedings include the acquisition or construction of works, appliances, or improvements to be owned, managed or controlled by a public agency other than the municipality making the acquisitions or ordering the work done, the legislative body of the municipality may require that the undertaking also inure to the benefit of the public agency to the extent of its interest in the entire project. The contractor shall also furnish a labor and material bond as required by law in a sum not less than 50 percent of the contract price.

SEC. 35. Section 20569 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

20569. Any person to whom a contract may be awarded pursuant to this article shall provide a bond approved by the board, payable to the district for at least 25 percent of the estimated contract price, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the contract.

SEC. 36. Section 20589 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

20589. Any person to whom a contract is awarded shall enter into a bond, to be approved by the board, payable to the district for its use, for 25 percent of the amount of the contract price, conditioned for the full and faithful performance of the contract. The work shall be done under the direction and to the satisfaction of, and be approved by, the board.

SEC. 37. Section 11301.5 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11301.5. If a deposit is given instead of the bond required by Section 11301:

(a) The Director of Motor Vehicles may order the refund of the deposit three years from the date a vehicle verifier has ceased to be licensed, if the director is satisfied that there are no outstanding claims against the deposit. A judge of a municipal or superior court may order the return of the deposit prior to the expiration of three years from the date a vehicle verifier has ceased to be licensed if there is evidence satisfactory to the court that there are no outstanding claims against the deposit.

(b) If the director, department, or state is a defendant in any action instituted to recover all or any part of the deposit, or any action is instituted by the director, department, or state to determine those entitled to any part of the deposit, the director, department, or state shall be paid reasonable attorney fees and costs from the deposit. Costs shall include those administrative costs incurred in processing claims against the deposit.

SEC. 38. Section 11713 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11713. It shall be unlawful and a violation of this code for the holder of any license issued under this article:

(a) To make or disseminate or cause to be made or disseminated before the public in this state, in any newspaper or other publication, or any advertising device, or by public outcry or proclamation, or in any other manner or means whatever, any statement which is untrue or misleading, and which is known, or which by the exercise of reasonable care should be known, to be untrue or misleading; or to so make or disseminate or cause to be so disseminated any such statement as part of a plan or scheme with the intent not to sell any vehicle or service so advertised at the price stated therein, or as so advertised.

(b) To advertise or offer for sale or exchange in any manner, any vehicle not actually for sale at the premises of the dealer or available to the dealer from the manufacturer or distributor of the vehicle at the time of the advertisement or offer; provided, however, that this subdivision does not apply to advertising or offering for sale or exchange any used mobilehome or used commercial coach, as defined by Section 18014 of the Health and Safety Code, other than a recreational vehicle, as defined by Section 18010 of the Health and Safety Code, where the advertising or offering for sale is not contrary to any terms of a contract between the seller of the mobilehome or commercial coach and the owner of the mobilehome park, and which mobilehome or commercial coach is either in place on a lot rented or leased for human habitation within an established mobilehome park, as defined in Section 18214 of the Health and Safety Code, or is otherwise located, pursuant to a local zoning ordinance or permit, on a lot where its presence has been authorized or its continued presence and the use would be authorized, for a total and uninterrupted period of at least one year.

(c) To fail within 48 hours in writing to withdraw any advertisement of a vehicle that has been sold or withdrawn from sale.

(d) To advertise or represent a vehicle as a new vehicle if the vehicle falls within the purview of Section 665.

(e) To engage in the business for which licensee is licensed without having in force and effect a bond as provided in Section 11710.

(f) For any licensed dealer to engage in the business for which the dealer is licensed without at all times maintaining an established place of business as required by this code.

(g) To include, as an added cost to the selling price of a vehicle, an amount for licensing or transfer of title of the vehicle, which amount is not due to the state unless, prior to the sale, that amount has been paid by a dealer to the state in order to avoid penalties that would have accrued because of late payment of the fees. However, a dealer may collect from the second purchaser of a vehicle a prorated fee based upon the number of months remaining in the registration year for that vehicle, if the vehicle had been previously sold by the dealer and the sale was subsequently rescinded and all the fees that were paid, as required by this code and Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 10751) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, were returned to the first purchaser of the vehicle.

(h) To employ any person as a salesman who has not been licensed pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 11800), and whose license is not displayed on the premises of the dealer as provided in Section 11812.

(i) To deliver, following sale, a vehicle for operation on California highways, if the vehicle does not meet all of the equipment requirements of Division 12 (commencing with Section 24000).

(j) To use or permit the use of the special plates assigned to him for any purpose other than as permitted by Section 11715.

(k) To advertise or otherwise represent, or knowingly to allow to be advertised or represented on behalf of or at the place of business of the license holder, that no downpayment is required in connection with the sale of a vehicle when a downpayment is in fact required and the buyer is advised or induced to finance the downpayment by a loan in addition to any other loan financing the remainder of the purchase price of the vehicle.

(l) To participate in the sale of a vehicle reported to the Department of Motor Vehicles under the provisions of Section 5900 or 5901 without making the return and payment of any sales tax due and required by Section 6451 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(m) To permit the use of the dealer's license, supplies, or books by any other person for the purpose of permitting that person to engage in the sale of vehicles required to be registered under this code, or to permit the use of the dealer's license, supplies, or books to operate a branch location to be used by any other person, whether or not the licensee has any financial or equitable interest or investment in the vehicles sold by, or the business of, or branch location used by, the other person.

(n) To violate any of the provisions of Article 10 (commencing with Section 28050) of Chapter 5 of Division 12.

(o) To violate any of the provisions of Part 2 (commencing with Section 18000) of Division 13 of the Health and Safety Code or any rules and regulations issued pursuant thereto.

SEC. 38.5. Section 16434 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

16434. Proof of ability to respond in damages may be given by a bond. The bond shall be conditioned for the payment of the amount specified in Section 16430, and shall provide for the entry of judgment on motion of the state in favor of any holder of any final judgment on account of damages to property over five hundred dollars ($500) in amount, or injury to any person caused by the operation of the person's motor vehicle.

Chapter 998 of the Statutes of 1982 enacted the Bond and Undertaking Law, operative January 1, 1983. Chapter 517 of the Statutes of 1982 made conforming changes in other statutes to conform to the Bond and Undertaking Law, also operative January 1, 1983. Because many of the conforming changes made by Chapter 517 were chaptered out or superseded by other chapters enacted in 1982, it is necessary that this act take immediate effect in order to ensure a smooth transition to the Bond and Undertaking Law and to avoid undue disruption and confusion in the law.

SEC. 40. Sections 7 to 17, inclusive, and 20 of this act shall become operative on July 1, 1983.

SEC. 41. Section 21 of this act shall become operative on January 1, 1984.

CHAPTER 19

An act making an appropriation in augmentation of Items 9840-001-001, 9840-001-494, and 9840-001-988 of the Budget Act of 1982, relating to contingencies or emergencies, to take effect immediately, usual current expenses.

[Approved by Governor April 29, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State April 29, 1983.]

I am reducing the General Fund Appropriation contained in Assembly Bill No. 354 from $439,000,000 to $431,500,000 by deleting the $7,500,000 appropriation to fund a deficiency in the regional center program

The regional center deficiency will be funded through redirection of existing resources, by proposed statutory changes and a deficiency appropriation in Assembly Bill 40X. I anticipate AB 40X reaching my desk in the near future.

With this reduction, I approve Assembly Bill No. 354.

George Deukmejian, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 13338.8 of the Government Code, the sum of seven hundred ninety-four million seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($794,750,000) is hereby appropriated for expenditure in the 1982-83 fiscal year in augmentation of, and for the purposes of contingencies or emergencies as provided in, Items 9840-001-001, 9840-001-494, and 9840-001-988 of the Budget Act of 1982 as follows:

- |   |               |
| (a) From the General Fund to the reserve for contingencies or emergencies in Item 9840-001-001 .....          | $439,000,000 |
| (b) From special funds to the reserve for contingencies or emergencies in Item 9840-001-494 .....             | $ 4,500,000  |
| (c) From nongovernmental cost funds to the reserve for contingencies or emergencies in Item 9840-001-988..... | $351,250,000 |

SEC. 2. The Director of Finance may withhold authorization for expenditure of funds provided in Section 1 of this act until such time and to the extent that preliminary estimates of potential deficiencies are verified. The Director of Finance shall report bimonthly to the chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee on the status of the Department of Finance's verification of deficiencies and allocation of funds pursuant thereto.

SEC. 3. This act makes an appropriation for the usual current expenses of the state within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 20

An act relating to schools, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 4, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 4, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding Sections 16105 and 39363 of the Education Code, the Castro Valley Unified School District may deposit up to five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) of the proceeds of the sale or lease of district surplus property into the general fund of the school district in the 1982-83 school year for any general fund purposes.

Money transferred pursuant to this authorization shall be repaid to the State Allocation Board over a one-year period to the extent of any claim the board may have pursuant to Section 16105.

SEC. 2. Due to the unique circumstance concerning the financial condition of the Castro Valley Unified School District, the Legislature finds and declares, that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the Constitution.

The Castro Valley Unified School District finds itself in a precarious financial position and is in danger of not being able to provide continued, adequate education to its pupils.

In order for the district to continue to provide adequate education for its pupils, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 21

An act to amend Section 4016.2 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 4, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 5, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4016.2 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

4016.2. (a) The presence in person or by proxy of 5 percent of the members of a domestic mutual insurer entitled to vote at any meeting shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business of the insurer, including but not limited to, the amendment of the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the insurer, unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or bylaws of such insurer.

(b) Any required member approval shall be by the affirmative vote of a number of members which, as to a stock corporation, would constitute approval of the shareholders (Section 153 of the Corporations Code) rather than approval of the outstanding shares (Section 152 of the Corporations Code).

Section 1 of this act expresses the intent of the Legislature in initially enacting Section 4016.2 of the Insurance Code (Ch. 300, Stats. 81) and in a subsequent amendment to that section in 1982 (Ch. 817, Stats. 82). Therefore, in order to rectify a possible misconstruction of the original intent of the Legislature it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 22

An act to amend Section 853.6a of the Penal Code, and to amend Sections 256, 257, and 259.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to juvenile court law.

[Approved by Governor May 4, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 5, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 853.6a of the Penal Code is amended to read:

853.6a. If the person arrested appears to be under the age of 18 years, and the arrest is for a violation of the Fish and Game Code not declared to be a felony, a violation of Section 640 or Section 640a, or a violation of subdivision (m) of Section 602, the notice under Section 853.6 shall instead provide that the person shall appear before the juvenile court, a juvenile court referee, or a juvenile traffic hearing officer within the county in which the offense charged is alleged to have been committed, and the officer shall instead, as soon as practicable, file the duplicate notice with the prosecuting attorney unless the prosecuting attorney directs the officer to file the duplicate notice with the clerk of the juvenile court, the juvenile court referee, or the juvenile traffic hearing officer. If the notice is filed with the prosecuting attorney, within 48 hours before the date specified on the notice to appear, the prosecutor, within his or her discretion, may initiate proceedings by filing the notice or a formal petition with the clerk of the juvenile court, or the juvenile court referee or juvenile traffic hearing officer, before whom the person is required to appear by the notice.

SEC. 2. Section 256 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

256. Subject to the orders of the juvenile court, a traffic hearing officer may hear and dispose of any case in which a minor under the age of 18 years as of the date of the alleged offense is charged with any violation of the Vehicle Code not declared to be a felony, or a violation of subdivision (m) of Section 602 of the Penal Code, or a violation of the Fish and Game Code not declared to be a felony, or a violation of any of the equipment and registration provisions of the Harbors and Navigation Code, or a violation of any provision of an ordinance of a city, county, or local agency relating to traffic offenses, or a violation of Section 126 or 27176 of the Streets and Highways Code, or a violation of any provision of an ordinance of a city, county, or local agency relating to evasion of fares on a public transportation system, as defined by Section 99211 of the Public Utilities Code, or a violation of Section 640 or 640a of the Penal Code.

SEC. 3. Section 257 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

257. With the consent of the minor, a hearing before a traffic hearing officer, or a hearing before a referee or a judge of the juvenile court, where the minor is charged with a traffic offense, may be conducted upon an exact legible copy of a written notice given pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 40500) of Chapter 2 of Division 17 or Section 41103 of the Vehicle Code, or an exact legible copy of a written notice given pursuant to Chapter 5C (commencing with Section 853.6) of Title 3 of Part 2 of the Penal Code when the offense charged is a violation of the Fish and Game Code not declared to be a felony, a violation of subdivision (m) of Section 602 of the Penal Code, a violation of a provision of an ordinance of a city, county, or local agency relating to fare evasion on a public transportation system, as defined by Section 99211 of the Public Utilities Code, or a violation of Section 640 or 640a of the Penal Code, in lieu of a petition as provided in Article 16 (commencing with Section 650).

SEC. 4. Section 259.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

259.1. (a) Upon a hearing conducted in accordance with Section 257, upon admission by the minor of the commission of the offense charged under an ordinance of a city, county, or local agency relating to fare evasion on a public transportation system or of Section 640 or 640a of the Penal Code, or upon a finding that the minor did in fact commit the offense, the judge, referee, or traffic hearing officer may do any one of the following:

- (1) Reprimand the minor and take no further action.
- (2) Direct the probation officer to file a petition as provided for in Article 16 (commencing with Section 650).

(3) Order that the minor pay to the treasurer of the county a sum, not to exceed fifty dollars ($50).

(4) Order that the minor shall perform community service for a total of not to exceed 20 hours over a period not to exceed 30 days, during times other than his or her hours of school attendance or employment.

(b) The judge, referee, or traffic hearing officer shall retain jurisdiction of the case until all orders made under this section have been fully complied with.

CHAPTER 23

An act to amend Section 25536 of the Government Code, relating to county contracts, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 4, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State May 5, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25536 of the Government Code is amended to read:

25536. (a) Nothing in this article shall prevent the board of supervisors of a county from, and the board of supervisors of any county is empowered to make contracts, acquiring, leasing, or subleasing property pursuant to Section 1261 of the Military and Veterans Code, or, by a four-fifths vote of the board, entering into leases, or concession or managerial contracts involving leasing or subleasing all or any part of county-owned, leased, or managed property devoted to or held for ultimate use for airport, vehicle parking, fairground, beach, park, amusement, recreation, or employee cafeteria purposes, or industrial or commercial development incidental thereto or not inconsistent therewith without compliance with this article.

(b) In addition to the powers provided in subdivision (a), the County of Monterey may enter into a lease, concession, or managerial contract involving the leasing or subleasing of all or any part of a county-owned, leased, or managed property devoted to or held for ultimate use for juvenile placement.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that a special law is necessary and that a general law cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution because of the unique circumstances of a juvenile placement facility in Monterey County.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to allow the operation of a juvenile placement facility in Monterey County in the best interests of placed juveniles as soon as possible, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 24

An act to amend Sections 24451.1 and 24451.3 of, and to repeal Section 24451.1 of, the Financial Code, relating to loans.

[Approved by Governor May 4, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 5, 1983]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 24451.1 of the Financial Code, as added by Chapter 724 of the Statutes of 1981, is amended to read:

24451.1. As an alternative to the charges authorized by Section 24451 a licensee may contract for and receive charges at the greater of:

(a) A rate not exceeding 1.6 percent per month on the unpaid principal balance.

(b) A rate not exceeding five-sixths of 1 percent per month plus a percentage per month equal to one-twelfth of the annual rate prevailing on the 25th day of the second month of the quarter preceding the quarter in which the loan is made as established by the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco on advances to member banks under Sections 13 and 13a of the Federal Reserve Act as now in effect or hereafter from time to time amended, or if there is no such single determinable rate for advances, the closest counterpart of this rate as shall be designated by the Superintendent of Banks of the State of California. Charges shall be calculated on the unpaid principal balance.

SEC. 2. Section 24451.1 of the Financial Code, as amended and renumbered by Chapter 1009 of the Statutes of 1982, is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 24451.3 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

24451.3. In addition to the charges authorized by Section 24451 or 24451.1 a licensee may contract for and receive an acquisition fee, which shall be fully earned immediately upon making the loan, with respect to a loan of a principal amount of not more than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) at a rate not in excess of 5 percent of the principal amount or fifty dollars ($50), whichever is lesser. Only one acquisition fee may be contracted for or received until the loan has been repaid in full. No acquisition fee may be contracted for or received in connection with refinancing a loan with respect to which an acquisition fee has been received.

CHAPTER 25

An act relating to public resources, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 6, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 9, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The agreement with respect to the San Bruno Mountain Area Habitat Conservation Plan entered into March 4, 1983, by and among the State of California, acting by and through the Department of Parks and Recreation and the Department of Fish and Game, and various other public and private persons and entities and recorded as document number 83026343 in the Official Records of San Mateo County, and all agreements entered into pursuant thereto, including, but not limited to, an agreement to restrict use of land, an easement for enforcement on county-owned conserved habitat, and an easement for enforcement on state-owned conserved habitat, are hereby confirmed, validated, and declared legally effective.

In order to ensure the protection and security of various endangered species and other plant and animal species of concern at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

---

CHAPTER 26

An act to amend Section 6463 of the Financial Code, relating to savings and loan associations, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 6, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 9, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6463 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

6463. With the approval of the commissioner, an association, although it has shares but no stock outstanding, may amend its articles of incorporation to authorize the issuance of stock and may issue stock. Any amendment to the articles of incorporation and bylaws of an association which for the first time authorizes it to issue stock must be approved by the vote or written assent of the holders of a majority in value of its outstanding shares. The commissioner may require, as a condition to permitting the issuance of stock by an association which has shares but no stock outstanding, that all stock to be initially issued be subscribed and fully paid. An amendment to the articles of incorporation of an association pursuant to this section may include such provisions with respect to the surplus, reserves and undivided profits of such association as may be approved by the vote or written assent of the holders of a majority in value of its outstanding shares, and in such case the surplus, reserves and undivided profits shall be retained and disposed of in accordance with such provisions.

Changes in federal and state law in 1982 created impetus for conversion from mutual to stock capitalization, from federal to state charter. Certain laws exist in California which are inconsistent with recent federal enactments, but are beyond the reach of current parity emergency regulation authority under Section 5500.5 of the Financial Code. It is necessary that this act take effect at the earliest possible date to grant state savings and loan associations competitive equality in these conversion areas with federal associations. To promote such parity, which will help encourage the regeneration of a strong state system, and to both maintain a viable and independent Department of Savings and Loan and enhance and preserve the strength and stability of state associations for the benefit and protection of their depositors, it is essential that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 27

An act to add Section 54774.3 to the Government Code, relating to local agency formation commissions, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 6, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 9, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 54774.3 is added to the Government Code, to read:

54774.3. (a) The commission shall develop, determine, and adopt the sphere of influence for each local governmental agency within its jurisdiction no later than January 1, 1985.

(b) Until January 1, 1985, a commission which has not adopted a sphere of influence for a local governmental agency may review, approve, conditionally approve, or disapprove a proposal which includes territory which might be contained within the sphere of such local agency. When acting on a proposal pursuant to this subdivision the commission shall prepare a written statement of findings with respect to the existence of agricultural preserves in the area which could be considered within an agency's sphere of influence and the effect on maintaining the physical and economic integrity of such preserves in the event that such preserves are within a sphere of influence of a local governmental agency. If the proposal would result in the conversion of prime agricultural land to nonagricultural use, the commission shall make written findings explaining the reasons for its determination.

SEC. 2. The approval or conditional approval by a local agency formation commission of an annexation, detachment, formation, incorporation, change of organization, or reorganization, pursuant to the Municipal Organization Act of 1977 (Part 2 (commencing with Section 35000) of Division 2 of Title 4 of the Government Code), the Knox-Nisbet Act (Chapter 6.6 (commencing with Section 54773) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code), or the District Reorganization Act of 1965 (Division 1 (commencing with Section 56000) of Title 6 of the Government Code), which occurred prior to the determination of a sphere of influence as required by Section 54774 of the Government Code, is hereby confirmed, validated, and declared legally effective solely with respect to the spheres of influence issue, notwithstanding any failure to comply with the requirement that a sphere be determined prior to the commission's action, provided that the approval or conditional approval occurred prior to the effective date of this act.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to respond to the court's decision in the case of Resource Defense Fund v. Santa Cruz Local Agency Formation Commission (138 Cal. App. 3d 987), and to delay the deadline for the adoption of spheres of influence until January 1, 1985. Section 2 of this act shall be construed as confirming, validating, and making legally effective only that portion of an action by a local agency formation commission defective because of the failure to determine a sphere of influence and shall not be construed as validating any other defects which may have occurred in such action.

This act relates to a recent court decision which requires that before a local agency formation commission approves a proposal it must have adopted the sphere of influence for each local governmental agency which might include the subject territory. Because that decision may preclude the approval of annexations and other proposals necessary for needed land use development, this act must take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 28

An act to amend Section 1547 of the Penal Code, relating to rewards, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 6, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 9, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1547 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1547. (a) The Governor may offer a reward of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000), payable out of the General Fund, for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any of the following:

(1) Any convict who has escaped from a state prison, prison camp, prison farm, or the custody of any prison officer or employee or as provided in Section 3059, 4530, or 4531.

(2) Any person who has committed, or is charged with the commission of, an offense punishable with death.

(3) Any person engaged in the robbery or hijacking of, or any attempt to rob or hijack, any person upon or in charge of, in whole or in part, any public conveyance engaged at the time in carrying passengers within this state.

(4) Any person who kills, assaults with a deadly weapon, or inflicts serious bodily harm upon a police officer who is acting in the line of duty.

(5) Any person who has committed a crime involving the burning or bombing of public property, including any public hospital housed in a privately owned facility.

(6) Any person who has committed a crime involving the burning or bombing of any private hospital. A reward may be offered by the Governor in conjunction with such a crime only if a reward in conjunction with the same crime is offered by the hospital, or any other public or private donor on its behalf. The amount of the reward offered by the Governor shall not exceed the aggregate amount offered privately, or ten thousand dollars ($10,000), whichever is less. Nothing in this paragraph shall preclude a private hospital, or any public or private donor on its behalf, from offering a reward in an amount exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000). If a person providing information for a reward under this paragraph so requests, his or her name and address shall remain confidential. This confidentiality, however, shall not preclude or obstruct the investigations of law enforcement authorities.

(b) The reward shall be paid to the person giving the information, immediately upon the conviction of the person so arrested.

(c) As used in this section, "hijacking" means an unauthorized person causing, or attempting to cause, by violence or threat of violence, a public conveyance to go to an unauthorized destination.

Recently, numerous fires have been started at a large hospital endangering the lives and safety of patients and employees. In order to assist in the prosecution and conviction of the person or persons responsible and to protect the safety of persons in hospitals, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 29

An act to amend Section 1004 of the Probate Code, relating to probate, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 11, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State May 11, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1004 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

1004. When the time for filing or presenting claims has expired and all uncontested claims have been paid or are sufficiently secured by mortgage, or otherwise, but the estate is not in a condition to be finally closed and distributed, the executor or administrator to whom authority has been granted to administer the estate without court supervision, in accordance with Article 2 (commencing with Section 591) of Chapter 8 of Division 3, may petition the court for authority to distribute a portion of the estate to the person or persons entitled thereto. Such petition need not include an accounting, provided that when the petition seeks authority to distribute to a trustee the petition shall include an accounting unless the trustee consents to the distribution without an accounting. The total amount of the property distributed under this section shall not exceed 50 percent of the net value of the estate. The clerk shall set the petition for hearing by the court and notice shall be given in the manner provided in Section 1200.5, but the court may order the notice to be given for a shorter period or dispensed with. If the court shall determine that all of the allegations of the petition are true, that the estate is but little indebted, that the property to be distributed does not exceed 50 percent of the net value of the estate, and that the distribution may be made without loss or injury to the estate or any person interested therein, the court shall make an order authorizing the executor or administrator to distribute the property to the person or persons entitled thereto. For purposes of this section, "net value of the estate" means the excess of the value of the assets of the estate reflected by all inventories and appraisements on file with the court over the total amount of all creditors' claims filed or presented and liens and encumbrances recorded or known to the executor or administrator not reflected in any creditors' claims filed or presented, excluding death tax liens occasioned by the decedent's death.

In order to clarify the probate law regarding petitions for partial distribution, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 30

An act to amend Section 1101.1 of the Corporations Code, relating to corporations, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 11, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 11, 1983]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1101.1 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

1101.1. The last two sentences of Section 1101 do not apply to any transaction if the Commissioner of Corporations, the Superintendent of Banks, the Savings and Loan Commissioner, the Commissioner of Insurance or the Public Utilities Commission has approved the terms and conditions of the transaction and the fairness of such terms and conditions pursuant to Section 25142 or Section 696.5, 9204, or 11707 of the Financial Code or Section 838.5 of the Insurance Code or Section 822 of the Public Utilities Code.

The application of the specified requirements of Section 1101 of the Corporations Code to transactions which have been approved by the Savings and Loan Commissioner would result in delays in processing the merger of corporations. In order to facilitate mergers which have been approved by the commissioner, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 31

An act to add Section 6348.7 to the Business and Professions Code, relating to law libraries, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 11, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 11, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6348.7 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

6348.7. A board of law library trustees may enter into an agreement with a county for the joint exercise of powers pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 6500) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code for the purpose of constructing a building or buildings to house the law library and court or county facilities, without limitation as to the number of courtrooms such building or buildings may contain, and may lease from any authority created pursuant to such agreement the space required for law library purposes.

An immediate need exists for the construction of additional court and related law library facilities to accommodate increased court workload, to increase court efficiency, and to avoid deterioration in the administration of justice.

CHAPTER 32

An act to amend Section 18521 of the Financial Code, relating to financial institutions.

[Approved by Governor May 11, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State May 12, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18521 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

18521. Each industrial loan company, other than a premium finance agency, which has issued and has outstanding thrift obligations shall, as a condition to its authority to conduct business under this division, participate as a member in Guaranty Corporation in accordance with this chapter and rules established by the Board of Directors of Guaranty Corporation, unless its outstanding thrift obligations are insured or guaranteed by an instrumentality of the United States government.

CHAPTER 33

An act to amend Section 2982.8 of the Civil Code, relating to the Automobile Sales Finance Act.

[Approved by Governor May 11, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 12, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2982.8 of the Civil Code is amended to read:
2982.8. (a) If a buyer is obligated under the terms of the conditional sale contract to maintain insurance on the vehicle and subsequent to the execution of the contract the buyer either fails to maintain or requests the holder to procure such insurance, any amounts advanced by the holder to procure such insurance may be the subject of finance charges from the date of advance as provided in subdivision (d). Such amounts shall be secured as provided in the contract and permitted by Section 2984.2 if the holder notifies the buyer in writing of his or her option to repay such amounts in any one of the following ways:

(1) Full payment within 10 days from the date of giving or mailing the notice.

(2) Full amortization during the term of the insurance.

(3) If offered by the holder, any other amortization plan.

If the buyer neither pays in full the amounts advanced nor notifies the holder in writing of his or her choice regarding amortization options before the expiration of 10 days from the date of giving or mailing the notice by the holder, the holder shall amortize the amounts advanced on a secured basis pursuant to paragraph (2).

(b) The written notification described in subdivision (a) shall also set forth the amounts advanced by the holder and, with respect to each amortization plan the amount of the additional finance charge, the sum of the amounts advanced and the additional finance charge, the number of installments required, the amount of each installment and the date for payment of the installments.

(c) If subsequent to the execution of the contract the holder advances amounts for repairs to or preservation of the motor vehicle or preservation of the holder's security interest therein and such advances are occasioned by the buyer's default under the contract, such advances may be the subject of finance charges from the date of advance as provided in subdivision (d) and shall be secured as provided in the contract and permitted by Section 2984.2.

(d) The maximum rate of finance charge which may be imposed on amounts advanced by the holder subsequent to the execution of the contract for insurance, repairs to or preservation of the motor vehicle, or preservation of the holder's security interest therein, shall not exceed the annual percentage rate disclosed pursuant to Section 2982.

CHAPTER 34

An act making an appropriation to pay the settlement of certain claims against the State of California, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 11, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 12, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The sum of three million four hundred eighty-two thousand one hundred ninety-two dollars and two cents ($3,482,192.02) is hereby appropriated from the Motor Vehicle Account in the State Transportation Fund, to the State Board of Control to pay in accordance with subdivisions (b) and (c) the settlement of the separate, consolidated claims of the plaintiffs named therein against the state.

(b) The Board of Control shall pay the sum of two million two hundred twelve thousand one hundred ninety-two dollars and two cents ($2,212,192.02) to settle the claims of the plaintiffs in the case entitled Jerol R. Hodges, Jack Thomas Hodges, and Robert William Hodges v. State of California, case number C300478, brought in the Superior Court of the State of California in the County of Los Angeles. This amount shall be subject to offset for any amounts received by the plaintiffs from the state, in accordance with the terms of the settlement.

(c) The Board of Control shall pay the sum of one million two hundred seventy thousand dollars ($1,270,000) to settle the claims of the plaintiffs in the case entitled William Bradley Lemons, Thomas Edward Lemons, Marie Therese Lemons, Mark Christopher Lemons, and Karen Elizabeth Lemons v. State of California, case number NWC79384, brought in the Superior Court of the State of California in the County of Los Angeles.

In order to pay the settlement of the claims arising out of the actions brought by the plaintiffs and to end the hardship of the plaintiffs as quickly as possible, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 35

An act to amend and supplement the Budget Act of 1982 by amending Section 8.45 thereof, relating to parks and recreation, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 12, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 12, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8.45 of the Budget Act of 1982, as added by Chapter 1617 of the Statutes of 1982, is amended to read:

Sec. 8.45. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, Provision 11 of Item 3790-301-721 is null and void and shall have no force or effect; and, instead, funds appropriated in category (tt) of Item 3790-301-721 for acquisition at the Big Sur Project shall be for the purchase of the following real property from willing sellers only: Little Sur River (Hill Ranch Project); parcels 243-231-15, 243-231-18, 243-241-13, and 243-301-7 and approximately 14.2 acres of parcel 243-301-8 at Garrapata State Beach; and parcel 601-818-00 at Julia Pfeiffer Burns State Park.

In order that the specific parcels authorized for acquisition for the Big Sur Project may be revised and restricted to willing sellers only at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 36

An act to add Section 750.5 to the Labor Code, relating to smelters and underground workings, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 12, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 12, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 750.5 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

750.5. The provisions of Section 750 shall not prohibit a period of employment up to 12 hours within a 24-hour period when the employer and a labor organization representing employees of the employer have entered into a valid collective-bargaining agreement where the agreement expressly provides for the wages, hours of work, and working conditions of the employees.

The economic viability of mining and mining related employment has been limited in certain instances due to the lack of authority by employers and employee representatives to determine hours and conditions of employment. To achieve these needed changes through collective-bargaining agreements at the earliest possible time, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 37

An act to amend Section 43830 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to air pollution, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 12, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 12, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 43830 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

43830. The state board shall establish, by regulation, maximum standards for the volatility of gasoline at nine pounds per square inch Reid vapor pressure as determined by the American Society for Testing and Materials test D 323-58, or by an appropriate test determined by the state board, for gasoline sold in this state.

The state board, in adopting the regulations, shall give full consideration to climatic conditions and may provide that the maximum standards imposed thereby shall be applicable only during those periods of time and only in those areas which the state board determines necessary in order to carry out the purposes of this division.

Notwithstanding any other law or regulation, until January 1, 1987, any blend of gasoline of at least 10 percent ethyl alcohol shall be considered a legal fuel in California if the gasoline used in the blend meets the standard of nine pounds per square inch Reid vapor pressure.

In order to continue without interruption the widespread use of blends of gasoline and alcohol as authorized by Chapter 179 of the Statutes of 1980, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 38

An act relating to education, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 17, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 17, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A sum not to exceed six hundred thousand dollars ($600,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Superintendent of Public Instruction for allocation to the Emery Unified School District for the 1982-83 fiscal year for any purpose for which money in the district general fund may be used.

SEC. 2. (a) If the Emery Unified School District accepts the appropriation made pursuant to this act, the appropriation shall be deemed an apportionment made pursuant to Section 41310 of the Education Code, and the requirements of Article 2 (commencing with Section 41320) of Chapter 3 of Part 24 of the Education Code shall be met by the district, except that the reports required of the district shall be submitted directly to the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 41320 of the Education Code, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall review the reports submitted pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section and submit a copy of the reports to the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, and the Director of Finance.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 41322 of the Education Code, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, no more than 18 months after the disbursement of funds to the Emery Unified School District, shall make a followup review on the action taken by the district and submit a report to the Director of Finance of the results of the action taken to correct the financial problems of the district.

SEC. 3. In order to repay the allocation made pursuant to Section 1, the Emery Unified School District shall sell an elementary school site within a one-year period from the date of receipt of the allocation and shall use the proceeds of the sale towards repayment of the loan, together with amounts representing interest at a rate equal to the rate earned by the state in the Pooled Money Investment Account as of the date of disbursement of funds to the district.

If the school site cannot be sold within the one-year period, the district shall, at least 30 days prior to the expiration of the period, notify the county superintendent of schools of this fact and shall request an extension of time from the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

During this one-year period of time, and during any extension granted thereto, the county superintendent of schools shall (a) monitor and review the financial plans and activities of the district as developed by an independent auditor approved by the county superintendent of schools, and (b) approve any budgetary changes that would increase the fiscal liabilities of the district.

SEC. 4. Due to the unique circumstances concerning the Emery Unified School District, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the Constitution.

Because of a dramatic decline in income resulting in an overestimate of receipts from state apportionments, and in order that the Emery Unified School District may continue meeting its operational costs in the 1982-83 fiscal year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 39

An act to amend Sections 1274.3, 1274.35, 1274.8, 10205, 10206, and 10217 of, and to add Sections 10212.1 and 10212.2 to, the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to unemployment insurance, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 17, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 17, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1274.3 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1274.3. A determination of potential eligibility for benefits under this article shall be issued to an unemployed individual if the director finds that:

(a) The individual has been unemployed for four or more continuous weeks, or the individual is unemployed and unlikely to return to his or her most recent workplace because work opportunities in the individual's job classification are impaired by a plant closure or a substantial reduction in employment at the individual's most recent workplace, or by advancement in technological improvements, the effects of automation and relocation in the economy, and foreign competition as set forth in petitions certified under the federal Trade Act of 1974, as amended (Title 19, United States Code, Sections 2101 et seq.), or because of a mental or physical disability which prohibits the individual from utilizing existing occupational skills.

(b) One of the substantial causes of the individual's continuous unemployment is a lack of sufficient demand in the individual's labor market area for the occupational skills for which the individual is fitted by training and experience or current physical or mental capacity and that the lack of employment opportunities is expected to continue for an extended period of time, or, if the individual's occupation is one for which there is a seasonable variation in demand in the labor market, that the lack of demand for the individual's skills is the result of a decline in demand, expected to continue for an extended period of time and is not the result of a seasonal fluctuation.

(c) The training or retraining course of instruction relates to an occupation or skill for which there are, or are expected to be in the immediate future, reasonable employment opportunities in the labor market area in this state in which the individual intends to seek work and there is not a substantial surplus of workers with requisite skills in the occupation in that area.

(d) The training or retraining course of instruction is one approved by the director and can be completed within one year.

(e) The training or retraining course is prescribed for the primary purpose of training the applicant in skills that will allow him or her to obtain immediate employment in a demand occupation and is not primarily intended to meet the requirements of any degree from a college, community college, or university.

(f) The individual can be reasonably expected to complete the training or retraining successfully.

SEC. 2. Section 1274.35 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1274.35. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, any unemployed individual who, as determined by the director, has been laid off from work as a result of a plant closure or a substantial reduction in employment at the individual's most recent workplace at the time the individual filed his or her parent claim, and whose benefit year has expired and who is not entitled to establish a benefit year, or who has exhausted benefits payable under this part, Part 3 (commencing with Section 3501), and Part 4 (commencing with Section 4001), or any other federal unemployment compensation law, after January 1, 1982, and who applies for a determination of potential eligibility for benefits under this article no later than December 31, 1982, and who is determined otherwise eligible for benefits under this division is eligible for an additional maximum of 26 times his or her most recent weekly benefit amount and shall not be denied benefits under this division in any week he or she is otherwise eligible for benefits under this article.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, any other unemployed individual who, as determined by the director, has been laid off from work as a result of a plant closure or a substantial reduction in employment at the individual's most recent workplace at the time the individual filed his or her parent claim, and who is receiving benefits payable under this part, Part 3 (commencing with Section 3501), or Part 4 (commencing with Section 4001) or under any other federal unemployment compensation law, who, by December 31, 1983, applies for a determination of potential eligibility for benefits under this article and is determined otherwise eligible for benefits under this article, is eligible for an additional maximum of 26 times his or her weekly benefit amount under the provisions of this article.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, any unemployed individual receiving benefits payable under this part, Part 3 (commencing with Section 3501), or Part 4 (commencing with Section 4001), or any other federal unemployment compensation law, who, after December 31, 1982, but before July 1, 1983, and no later than the 14th week of his or her unemployment, applies for a determination of potential eligibility for benefits under this article and is determined eligible for benefits under this article, is eligible for a maximum of 52 times his or her weekly benefit amount under the provisions of this division.

(d) Any claimant receiving benefits pursuant to subdivision (a), (b), or (c) who becomes eligible to file an unemployment compensation claim under state law or any other federal unemployment compensation law, shall file the claim in order to remain eligible under this article.

(e) Additional benefits paid under this section, and not otherwise payable under this division, shall be charged to individual employer reserve accounts, consistent with other provisions of this code.

(f) To the extent permitted by federal law, benefits payable under any federal unemployment compensation law shall be included as benefits payable under the provisions of this section.

(g) For the purposes of this section, the director shall only approve those training programs which meet the criteria described in Section 1274.3 and which are affiliated with an employer or a labor organization.

(h) This section shall remain in effect only until a total of twenty million dollars ($20,000,000) is expended from the Unemployment Fund pursuant to this section or until July 1, 1984, whichever date occurs first, and on that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute chaptered before that date deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 1274.8 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1274.8. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, no payment of benefits during a period of training or retraining as described in this article shall be made to any individual for any week or part of any week with respect to which he or she receives training or retraining benefits, allowances or stipends pursuant to the provisions of any federal law, including, but not limited to, the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, as amended, providing for the payment of such benefits, but excluding costs of training paid pursuant to the federal Trade Act of 1974, as amended (Title 19, United States Code, Sections 2101 et seq.). Training or retraining benefits, allowances or stipends as used herein means discretionary use, cash in-hand payments available to the individual to be used as he or she sees fit. Direct and indirect compensation for training costs such as tuition, books, and supplies are excluded as a condition of approval.

SEC. 4. Section 10205 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

10205. The panel shall do all of the following:

(a) Solicit proposals and write contracts on the basis of proposals made directly to it and on the basis of the recommendations of the local review panels. Contracts may be written with any employer or any group of employers acting jointly or any training agency for the purpose of providing employment training. These contracts shall be in the form of fixed-fee performance contracts. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, contracts entered into pursuant to this chapter shall not be subject to competitive bidding procedures. No trainee shall receive employment training under this chapter for a period of more than 18 months. Contracts for training may be written for a period not to exceed 24 months for the purpose of administration by the panel and the contracting employer or any group of employers acting jointly or any training agency for the purpose of providing employment training.

(b) Allocate the Employment Training Fund. In doing so, the panel shall seek to facilitate the employment of the maximum number of eligible participants in jobs with definite career potential and long-term job security. In no case shall the statewide allocation be based solely on population. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to preclude the panel from entering into contracts with employers, groups of employers, or training agencies for the provision of training in multijurisdictional areas of the state. In writing contracts, priority shall be given to employers and training for employers who are expanding their business enterprises in this state, to employers and training for employers who are establishing enterprises in areas targeted for economic development by the Department of Economic and Business Development, and to employers and training for employers in industries in which there are critical skills shortages. Preference shall be given to apprenticeship and similar training in which a person is employed at the commencement of training.

(c) Establish minimum standards for the consideration of proposals, which shall include, but not be limited to, the identification of employers who will employ successful trainees, the number of jobs available, the skill requirements for the identified jobs, the projected cost per trainee, and the wage level of the available jobs. No proposal shall be considered which proposes training for employment covered by a collective-bargaining agreement unless the signatory labor organization agrees in writing.

(d) Ensure the provision of adequate fiscal and accounting controls for, monitoring and auditing of, and other appropriate technical and administrative assistance to, projects funded by this chapter.

(e) Provide for evaluation of projects funded by this chapter. Individual project evaluations shall contain a summary description of the project, the number of persons entering training, the number of persons completing training, the number of persons employed at the end of the project, the number of persons still employed three months after the end of the project, the wages paid, the total costs of the project, and the total reimbursement received from the Employment Training Fund.

(f) Report annually to the Legislature, by September 30, on projects operating during the previous state fiscal year. These annual reports shall provide separate summaries of (1) projects completed during the year, including their individual and aggregate performance and cost; and (2) projects not completed during the year, briefly describing each project and identifying approved contract amounts by contract and for this category as a whole. The first annual report is due September 30, 1984.

(g) Expedite the processing of contracts for firms considering locating or expanding businesses in the state, as determined by the Department of Economic and Business Development.

SEC. 5. Section 10206 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

10206. The panel may allocate money in the fund for any of the following purposes:

(a) Reimbursement of actual training costs incurred by employers and training agencies and for reasonable administrative costs.

(b) Costs of program administration incurred under this chapter.

For fiscal year 1983-84 and each fiscal year thereafter the panel's administrative costs exclusive of the cost of administering Section 976.6 shall not exceed more than 5 percent of the amount collected pursuant to Section 976.6.

(c) Costs of the Legislative Analyst's program evaluation conducted pursuant to Section 15395.

SEC. 6. Section 10212.1 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

10212.1. All personnel of the panel shall be appointed, directed, and controlled only by the panel or its authorized deputies or agents to whom it may delegate its powers.

SEC. 7. Section 10212.2 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

10212.2. (a) The panel shall prepare a budget covering necessary administrative costs of the panel. The budget shall not be subject to change by the director except as agreed to by the panel. In the event that agreement cannot be reached, the Secretary of Health and Welfare shall attempt to reach a mutual agreement. In the event a mutual agreement cannot be reached, the final decision shall rest with the Governor.

(b) The director shall furnish at the request of the panel equipment, supplies, and housing unless specified otherwise in this code, and nonpersonal and housekeeping services required by the panel and shall perform any other mechanics of administration as the panel and the director may agree upon.

SEC. 8. Section 10217 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

10217. (a) Funds in the Employment Training Fund created by Section 1610 shall be appropriated annually in the Budget Act by the Legislature for allocation by the panel for the purposes of this chapter.

(b) Except for funds appropriated under subdivisions (c) and (d), those funds accruing in the Employment Training Fund are hereby appropriated to the Employment Development Department for the support of the Employment Training Panel for job training contracts consistent with Sections 10206 and 10212.2 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, as the panel determines necessary to meet its responsibilities as set forth in Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 10200) of Part 1 of Division 3 of the Unemployment Insurance Code during the 1982-83 fiscal year.

(c) There is hereby appropriated from the Employment Training Fund to the Employment Development Department for allocation by the Employment Training Panel for its administration, consistent with Sections 10206 and 10212.2 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, two hundred eighteen thousand dollars ($218,000) during the 1982-83 fiscal year.

(d) There is hereby appropriated from the Employment Training Fund to the Employment Development Department the sum of one million five hundred fifty-two thousand dollars ($1,552,000) for the support of the department in administering Section 976.6 and Article 6 (commencing with Section 1610) of Chapter 6 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Unemployment Insurance Code during the 1982-83 fiscal year.

SEC. 9. Notwithstanding Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act for the purpose of making reimbursement pursuant to these sections. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

In order to provide for the immediate retraining of workers whose unemployment benefits are about to be exhausted and to prevent the adverse consequences to workers, families, and communities and the costs to the state of long-term unemployment, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 40

An act to amend Sections 175 and 177 of, and to add and repeal Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 8460) of Part 2 of Division 5 of, the Water Code, and to amend and supplement the Budget Act of 1979 by amending Section 2.9B thereof, relating to public resources, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 25, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 26, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 175 of the Water Code is amended to read:

175. There is in the Resources Agency the State Water Resources Control Board consisting of five members appointed by the Governor. One of the members appointed shall be an attorney admitted to practice law in this state who is qualified in the fields of water supply and water rights, one shall be a registered civil engineer under the laws of this state who is qualified in the fields of water supply and water rights, one shall be a registered professional engineer under the laws of this state who is experienced in sanitary engineering and who is qualified in the field of water quality, and one shall be qualified in the field of water quality. One of the above-appointed persons, in addition to having the specified qualifications, shall be qualified in the field of water supply and water quality relating to irrigated agriculture. One member shall not be required to have specialized experience.

Each member shall represent the state at large and not any particular portion thereof and shall serve full time. The board shall, to the extent possible, be composed of members from different regions of the state. The appointments so made by the Governor shall be subject to confirmation by the Senate in accordance with Article 2 (commencing with Section 1770) of Chapter 4 of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

SEC. 2. Section 177 of the Water Code is amended to read:

177. All members of the board shall be appointed for terms of four years. Vacancies shall be immediately filled by the Governor for the unexpired portion of the terms in which they occur.

SEC. 3. Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 8460) is added to Part 2 of Division 5 of the Water Code, to read:

CHAPTER 6. FLOOD MANAGEMENT AT LAKE ELSINORE

8460. This chapter provides interim authority for measures for the control and removal of floodwaters from Lake Elsinore. This authority may be exercised only until the time when permanent flood control facilities are constructed at Lake Elsinore and along Temescal Wash.

8461. (a) The department is designated as the lead agency of the state for implementing a program of control and removal of floodwaters from Lake Elsinore. The department, other state agencies, cities, counties, and districts are hereby authorized to cooperate with one another and with agencies of the United States in implementing the program.

(b) The City of Lake Elsinore shall be responsible for the day-to-day operation of pumps for the removal of floodwaters from Lake Elsinore and shall report to the department and the County of Riverside from time to time on the progress made in removing the floodwaters.

8462. (a) Any contract entered into by the department for the purposes of this chapter is not subject to approval by the Department of General Services or the Attorney General.

(b) Any project undertaken pursuant to this chapter is not subject to approval by the State Public Works Board.

8463. The department shall enter into an agreement with the County of Riverside, the City of Lake Elsinore, and any other public agency or private entity deemed appropriate by the department, to indemnify the state and hold it harmless from any liability that may arise from any activity or project undertaken pursuant to this chapter.

8464. No public agency is liable for any damage to land or any improvements resulting from any activity or project undertaken pursuant to this chapter if the occupation or use of the land or improvement is not in conformity with the requirements of any applicable law, regulation, or ordinance.

8465. The department shall furnish pumps and other equipment owned by the department as needed for the control and removal of floodwaters from Lake Elsinore, provided that the department is not required to furnish any pumps or other equipment which is essential to the State Water Project. No rent shall be charged for the use of the pumps and other equipment, but the department shall be reimbursed for any costs incurred in installing, operating, repairing, refurbishing, and removing any pumps or other equipment so used.

8466. Because of the urgent need to reduce the level of Lake

Elsinore in the aftermath of extraordinary rainfall during the winter of 1982-83, the California regional water quality control board for the Santa Ana region is requested to expedite the processing of application of necessary permits in order to facilitate the prompt implementation of this chapter during 1983 and in subsequent years.

8467. (a) Not later than January 1, 1984, the Department of Finance shall establish a formula for allocating the costs of any activity or project undertaken pursuant to this chapter. The formula shall reflect the extent of the benefit conferred on private and public property by activities and projects undertaken pursuant to this chapter.

(b) Commencing with the budget bill for the 1984-85 fiscal year, the Department of Finance shall include in each budget bill an appropriation to the Department of Water Resources to meet the state's share of all costs reasonably expected to be incurred in the implementation of this chapter in that fiscal year. As used in this subdivision, "state's share" means that portion of the total costs expected to be incurred that reflects the extent of the benefit conferred on state property by activities and projects undertaken pursuant to this chapter, as determined by the formula established pursuant to subdivision (a).

(c) No funds appropriated pursuant to this section shall be encumbered until funds from nonstate sources, sufficient to meet the nonstate share of all costs reasonably expected to be incurred in a particular project or activity, have been encumbered, as determined by the Department of Finance.

8468. This chapter shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1988, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1988, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. Section 2.9B of the Budget Act of 1979, as amended by Chapter 1305 of the Statutes of 1980, is amended to read:

NEJEDLY-HART STATE, URBAN, AND COASTAL PARK BOND ACT PROGRAM

Sec. 2.9B. The following sums of money, or so much thereof as may be necessary, are hereby appropriated for expenditure during the 1981-82, 1982-83, and 1983-84 fiscal years, unless otherwise provided herein, for the programs contemplated by Section 5096.124 of the Public Resources Code, except that appropriations for studies, planning, and working drawings shall be available for expenditure only during the 1981-82 fiscal year. All such appropriations shall be paid out of the State, Urban, and Coastal Park Fund.

CAPITAL OUTLAY

RESOURCES

507.5B—For capital outlay, Department of Parks and Recreation, for purposes set forth in paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) of Section 5096.124 of the Public Resources Code, payable from the State, Urban, and Coastal Park Fund .....
Schedule:

6,000,000

- (a) Acquisition of land, leases, and other interests in land; acquisition and development of recreation facilities at Lake Elsinore provided, that none of the funds appropriated for the projects set forth herein shall be available for expenditure unless and until such projects are recommended by the State Park and Recreation Commission and reviewed by the Secretary of the Resources Agency.

State Recreation Area ..... 6,000,000

Provided further, that the sum of $250,000, or so much thereof as necessary, shall be available for expenditure pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 8460) of Part 2 of Division 5 of the Water Code for site preparation for construction of recreation facilities; however, not more than $150,000 of that sum shall be expended for removing water resulting from rainfall during the winter of 1982–83. Except for removing water resulting from rainfall during the winter of 1982–83, such sums shall only be used to meet the state's share of costs, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 8467 of the Water Code, and only if funds for the nonstate share of costs have been encumbered as provided in subdivision (c) of Section 8467 of the Water Code.

SEC. 5. The unencumbered balance of the funds appropriated by Section 3 of Chapter 372 of the Statutes of 1980 is hereby reappropriated to the Department of Parks and Recreation for transfer to the Department of Water Resources for expenditure for the purposes of Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 8460) of Part 2 of Division 5 of the Water Code during the 1983 calendar year.

SEC. 6. Funds appropriated by Section 4 of this act for expenditure pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 8460) of Part 2 of Division 5 of the Water Code shall be transferred by the Department of Parks and Recreation to the Department of Water Resources for expenditure; provided, however, that the funds appropriated by Section 5 of this act shall be expended first and the funds appropriated by Section 4 of this act shall not be encumbered unless and until no funds appropriated by Section 5 of this act are available for encumbrance.

SEC. 7. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that the existence of extraordinary floodwaters at Lake Elsinore poses a serious threat to public health, impairs access to, and use of, recreational facilities at the Lake Elsinore State Recreation Area, and precludes construction and development of recreational facilities at the state recreation area.

(b) The Legislature further finds that the removal of floodwaters at Lake Elsinore pursuant to this act constitutes a part of the Lake Elsinore Recreation Area project recommended by the State Park and Recreation Commission and reviewed by the Secretary of the Resources Agency.

(c) The Legislature further finds and declares that removal of floodwaters at Lake Elsinore pursuant to this act constitutes specific actions necessary to prevent or mitigate an emergency under paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) of Section 21080 of the Public Resources Code.

SEC. 8. Notwithstanding subdivision (d) of Section 13260 of the Water Code, filing fees for market and manufacturing milk dairy farms or dairy feedlots shall not exceed the fee charged to the facility when the initial report of proposed discharge was filed or a waiver of the report of waste discharge was granted by the regional board plus an annual adjustment for inflation based on the consumer price index not to exceed 6 percent per year. Any fees heretofore collected in excess of the fees permitted by this subdivision shall be refunded to the discharger.

In order to insure better administration of water pollution statutory provisions, to insure that filing fees for waste discharge reports filed by market and manufacturing milk dairy farms or dairy feedlots will be in accordance with this act, and to remove floodwaters at Lake Elsinore which are creating a threat to public health and property at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 41

An act to add Section 61765.9 to the Government Code, and to amend Sections 3 and 12 of Chapter 1435 of the Statutes of 1961, relating to local agencies, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 25, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State May 26, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 61765.9 is added to the Government Code, to read:

61765.9. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 61765, in the Big Bear City Community Services District, the water standby or availability charge shall not exceed forty dollars ($40) per year for each acre of land on which the charge is levied or forty dollars ($40) per year for a parcel less than one acre.

The proceeds from any standby assessment or availability charge in excess of ten dollars ($10) per year for each acre or ten dollars ($10) per year for a parcel less than one acre shall only be used for the purpose of financing the design and construction of municipal water system improvements within the district or retiring indebtedness incurred by the district for the financing of those improvements.

This section, applicable only to the Big Bear City Community Services District, is necessary because of the unique and special water management and financing problems in the area included within the district.

SEC. 2. Section 3 of the San Gorgonio Pass Water Agency Law (Chapter 1435 of the Statutes of 1961) is amended to read:

Sec. 3. The board of directors shall, at its first meeting, or as soon thereafter as practicable, divide the agency into five divisions, which shall be as nearly as practicable equal in area. The divisions shall be numbered first, second, third, fourth and fifth. One director shall be elected for each division by the voters thereof at the next general agency election following the organization of the agency, and two directors at large shall be elected at the election by the voters of the agency as a whole. Each director elected or appointed for a division shall be an elector in that division, and each director at large shall be an elector in the agency. Each director elected or appointed for a division is herein called a "divisional director," and each of the two directors elected or appointed for the agency at large is herein called a "director at large." The two offices of directors at large shall respectively be known as "director at large No. 1" and "director at large No. 2."

SEC. 3. Section 12 of the San Gorgonio Pass Water Agency Law (Chapter 1435 of the Statutes of 1961) is amended to read:

Sec. 12. The board of directors shall act only by ordinance, resolution, or motion. On all ordinances the roll shall be called and the ayes and noes recorded in the journal of the proceedings of the board of directors. Resolutions and orders may be adopted by voice vote, but on demand of any member the roll shall be called. No ordinance, motion, or resolution shall be passed or become effective without the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the board. The enacting clause of all ordinances passed by the board shall be: "Be it ordained by the Board of Directors of the San Gorgonio Pass Water Agency as follows:". Each of the members of the board of directors shall receive for each attendance at the meetings of the board twenty dollars ($20), or such other amount as the board shall establish, not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100). No directors, however, shall receive pay for more than three meetings in any calendar month. Any vacancy in the board of directors shall be filled by a majority of the remaining directors, the person so chosen shall be qualified to fill such vacancy and shall hold office for the remainder of the unexpired term.

SEC. 4. The Legislature finds and declares that a special law is necessary and that a general law cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution because of the unique and special water management and financing problems within the Big Bear City Community Services District which are not common to other districts organized pursuant to this division. Enabling the district to levy increased water standby or availability charges will allow the district to more fairly allocate the cost of needed municipal water system improvements to both improved and unimproved parcels of real property which benefit therefrom. If such increased charges are not authorized, the owners of improved property would be required to pay a disproportionately large share of the cost through increased water rates and the owners of unimproved benefited parcels of property would pay little or nothing toward that cost.

In order to permit the equitable financing of vital municipal water system improvements within the Big Bear City Community Services District and in order to permit the San Geronio Water Agency to take advantage of the provisions of this act at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 42

An act to amend Section 53212 of the Government Code, relating to local agencies.

[Approved by Governor May 27, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State May 27, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 53212 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53212. As used in this article, "local agency" means a county, city, public district, joint powers agency, or any public or municipal corporation.

CHAPTER 43

An act to amend Section 30634 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to transit.

[Approved by Governor May 27, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 27, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 30634 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

30634. The district may enter into agreements for the joint use of any property and rights by the district and any city, public agency or public utility operating transit facilities; may enter into agreements with any city, public agency or public utility operating any transit facilities, either wholly or partially within, or without, the district, for the joint use of any property of the district or of such city, public agency or public utility, or the establishment of through routes, joint fares, transfer of passengers or pooling arrangements. As to any service which the district is authorized to perform pursuant to this part, the district may contract for the performance of such service by any city, county, or public utility operating transit facilities the territory of which is wholly or partly included within the district.

CHAPTER 44

An act to amend Sections 30005, 30630.5, and 99250 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor May 27, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 27, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 30005 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

30005. (a) "Rapid transit," as used in this part, means the transportation of passengers only and their incidental baggage by means other than by chartered bus, sightseeing bus, taxi, or any other motor vehicle not on an individual passenger fare paying basis, except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b).

(b) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the district from any of the following:

- (1) Leasing its buses to private certified public carriers.
- (2) Providing school bus service for the transportation of pupils between their homes and schools.
- (3) Providing charter bus services to governmental agencies, if comparable service is unavailable through privately operated bus companies, and to special events, other than regular and preseason scheduled professional and amateur sporting events.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) or paragraph (3) of subdivision (b), nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the district from providing charter bus services, which are incidental to the holding of the Olympic Games in Los Angeles, to any party or to any event during the period from May 1, 1984, to September 30, 1984, inclusive, if the district does not curtail existing, regularly scheduled services.

SEC. 2. Section 30630.5 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

30630.5. The district may operate charter bus service, subject to the following limitations:

(a) No bus equipment which is designed solely for charter service shall be purchased. A bus equipped with a toilet or underfloor baggage compartment shall be deemed to be bus equipment which is designed solely for charter service.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (d), the board shall hold a public hearing prior to adopting a charter rate schedule or any amendment thereto. Notice of the hearing shall be mailed to each charter-party carrier operating within the district at least 30 days prior to the date of the hearing. The notice shall include the proposed charter rate schedule. At the close of the public hearing, the board may adopt charter rate schedules which shall not be less than the average for the three largest private charter party carriers operating similar service in the district.

(c) Charter service operations by the district shall originate and terminate within the area served by the district, unless a private charter-party carrier requests the district to provide service beyond that area.

(d) The district may establish a schedule of rates for charter bus services which are incidental to the holding of the Olympic Games in Los Angeles. The rates for charter-party bus services established under this subdivision shall be sufficient to pay all fully allocated costs related to those charter bus services and shall contribute financially to the reduction of deficits incurred by the district in the operation of scheduled route services. The rates shall be at least equal to the average of the lowest rates charged by the three largest private charter party carriers operating similar service in Los Angeles County. The schedule of rates shall be effective from May 1, 1984, to September 30, 1984, inclusive.

SEC. 3. Section 99250 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

99250. (a) All charter bus services authorized to be performed by a public transportation system receiving funding under this chapter shall contribute financially to the reduction of deficits incurred in the operation of scheduled route service. In addition, the charter bus service shall not interfere with regularly scheduled service to the public or compete unfairly with private operators where the private operators are willing and able to provide charter bus service.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (d) or (e), charter bus service rates and minimums shall be established which are either of the following:

(1) At least equal to the average of the three lowest current rates charged by private charter bus carriers actually operating charters originating in the same service area of the public transportation system during the prior year.

(2) At least equal to the fully allocated cost of each charter operated. All terms and conditions, in addition to the base rate, shall be at least equal to the average of the three lowest current rates charged by private charter bus carriers actually operating a charter originating in the same service area of the public transportation system during the prior year.

(c) All charter bus service rates shall be reviewed and adjusted not less than semiannually to reflect variations in actual and assumed costs, as well as private charter bus carrier rates.

(d) If the operator of a public transportation system determines that there is a public need that cannot otherwise be met, the operator may provide charter bus services to charitable or public service organizations at direct cost, not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or a total of 40 charter buses per year, whichever occurs first.

(e) This section shall not apply to charter bus services which are incidental to the holding of the Olympic Games in Los Angeles during the period of May 1, 1984, to September 30, 1984, if the public transportation system establishes charter bus rates for those services which are sufficient to pay all fully allocated costs related to those services, which are at least equal to the average of the lowest rates charged by the three largest private charter party carriers operating similar service within Los Angeles County, and which contribute financially to the reduction of deficits incurred by the system in the operation of scheduled route service.

CHAPTER 45

An act to amend Section 13140.5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to fire services.

[Approved by Governor May 27, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 27, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13140.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

13140.5. The board shall be composed of the following voting members: the State Fire Marshal, the Chief of Fire Protection of the Department of Forestry, the Chief of the Fire and Rescue Division, Office of Emergency Services, a representative of the insurance industry, four fire chiefs, five fire service labor representatives, one representative from city government, and one representative from county government.

The following members shall be appointed by the Governor: a representative of the insurance industry, four fire chiefs, five fire service labor representatives, one representative from city government, and one representative from county government. Each member appointed shall be a resident of this state. Three of the fire chiefs appointed to the board shall be selected from a list of names recommended by the Board of Directors of the California Fire Chiefs' Association, Inc. and one fire chief shall be selected from a list of names submitted by the California Metropolitan Fire Chiefs. The five fire service labor representatives shall be selected from a list of names recommended by statewide employee organizations representing rank and file firefighters with organization memberships exceeding 2,000 firefighters, but not more than one fire service labor representative shall be selected from among persons recommended by any one of the employee organizations, unless each organization is represented on the membership of the board. The city government representative shall be selected from elected or appointed city chief administrative officers. The county government representative shall be selected from elected or appointed county chief administrative officers. The appointed members, except those first appointed, shall be appointed for a term of four years. Of the members first appointed seven shall be appointed for a term of two years and four shall be appointed for a term of four years. Any member chosen by the Governor to fill a vacancy created other than by expiration of a term shall be appointed for the unexpired term of the member he or she is to succeed.

CHAPTER 46

An act to amend Section 8101.6 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor May 27, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 27, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8101.6 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

8101.6. (a) No refund of any tax shall be granted on motor vehicle fuel used in propelling passenger carrying vehicles, except six cents ($.06) of the tax imposed upon each gallon of motor vehicle fuel used in propelling passenger carrying vehicles used for the transportation of persons for hire, compensation, or profit of the following:

(1) Any transit district, transit authority, or city owning and operating a local transit system itself or through a wholly owned nonprofit corporation.

(2) Any private entity providing transportation services for the transportation of people under contract or agreement, except general franchise agreements, with a public agency authorized to provide public transportation services, including, but not limited to, any nonprofit corporation designated as a consolidated transportation service agency pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 15975 of the Government Code, which provides door-to-door transportation services under contract or agreement with a transit district, transit authority, or public agency authorized to provide transportation services, but only for fuels consumed while providing services under those contracts or agreements entered into subsequent to the effective date of this act.

(3) Any passenger stage corporation subject to the jurisdiction of the Public Utilities Commission when the motor vehicles of such passenger stage corporation are exclusively operated in urban or suburban areas or between cities in close proximity; provided, however, that the exemption is not extended to any line or lines operated by such passenger stage corporation which shall exceed 50 miles of one-way route mileage.

(4) Any common carrier of passengers operating exclusively on any line or lines within the limits of a single city between fixed termini or over a regular route, 98 percent of whose operations, as measured by total route mileage operated, are exclusively within the limits of a single city, and who by reason thereof is not a passenger stage corporation subject to the jurisdiction of the Public Utilities Commission.

(b) The exemption provided for in subdivision (a) shall not be applicable to motor vehicle fuel used by a charter-party carrier of passengers. The term "charter-party carrier of passengers" has the same meaning as that specified in Section 5360 of the Public Utilities Code and shall further include those transportation services described in subdivisions (a) and (e) of Section 5353 of the Public Utilities Code, if such transportation service is rendered as contract carriage and not as common carriage of passengers.

(c) There are in the State of California many private entities providing public transportation services for the transportation of people in vehicles other than buses under contract or agreement with local government, transit districts or local bus transit operators. It is the purpose of this section to provide relief from the payment of fuel tax for gasoline fuel for those private entities only for fuels consumed while providing these services.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that the amendments made to Section 8101.6 of the Revenue and Taxation Code by this act are declaratory of existing law.

CHAPTER 47

An act to amend Section 20251 of the Public Contract Code, relating to transit districts.

[Approved by Governor May 27, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 27, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1 Section 20251 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

20251. (a) The purchase of all supplies, equipment, and materials, when the expenditure required exceeds fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000), shall be by contract let to the lowest responsible bidder.

(b) The construction of facilities and works, when the expenditure required exceeds three thousand dollars ($3,000), shall be by contract let to the lowest responsible bidder.

(c) Notice requesting bids shall be published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation, which publication shall be made at least 10 days before bids are received. The board may reject any and all bids and readvertise in its discretion.

---

CHAPTER 48

An act to amend Sections 5549 and 5594 of the Public Resources Code, relating to regional park or open-space districts.

[Approved by Governor May 27, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 27, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5549 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

5549. (a) The general manager has the following administrative and executive functions, powers, and duties. The general manager shall do all of the following:

(1) See that the provisions of this article and all ordinances and regulations of the district are enforced.

(2) Appoint subordinates, clerks, and other employees, and exercise supervision and control over all departments and offices of the district. Such appointees shall hold employment at the pleasure of the general manager.

(3) Attend all meetings of the board unless excused by the board.

(4) Submit to the board for adoption such measures, ordinances, and regulations as he or she deems necessary or expedient.

(5) See that all terms and conditions imposed in favor of the district or its inhabitants in any contract are faithfully kept and performed, and call any violations to the attention of the board and to the police department.

(6) Prepare and submit the annual budget to the board, and perform such other duties as may be imposed by this article or by the board.

(b) With the approval of the board, the general manager may bind the district, without advertising and without written contract, (1) for the payment for supplies, materials, labor, or other valuable consideration for any purpose other than new construction of any building, structure, or improvement in amounts not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000) and (2) for the payment for supplies, materials, or labor for new construction of any building, structure, or improvement in amounts not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000). All expenditures shall be reported to the board of directors at its next regular meeting.

SEC. 2. Section 5594 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

5594. All contracts for furnishing supplies, materials, labor, or other valuable consideration furnished the district, for maintenance projects involving contractor services to preserve, maintain, or repair any existing building, structure, or improvement, or for constructing any new building, structure, or improvement, when the expenditures will exceed the applicable amount specified in Section 5549, shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder, after notice inviting bids, published in a newspaper in the district at least one week before the time of receiving bids. The board of directors may reject all bids and readvertise, or by a five-sevenths vote may elect to purchase the materials or supplies in the open market, or to construct the building, structure, or improvement by force account.

CHAPTER 49

An act to add Section 965.65 to the Government Code, relating to claims against the State of California, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 27, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 27, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Controller to pay the settlement of the claim of the plaintiff against the State of California in the case entitled Bach v. State of California, case number 67221, brought in Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Ventura. Payment of the sums specified in this section shall be in accordance with the terms of the settlement reached by the plaintiff and the State of California.

SEC. 2. Section 965.65 is added to the Government Code, to read:

965.65. Within 180 days of the effective date of any statute making a specific appropriation to pay the settlement of a claim against the State of California, which claim arose from the activities of any state agency, the agency shall report to the Attorney General concerning any action it has taken to prevent the future occurrence of circumstances similar to those upon which the claim was based, including any imposition of disciplinary action. The Attorney General shall provide a copy of the report to the Governor and to the Legislature.

In order to pay the settlement arising out of the action brought by the plaintiff, who has been rendered paraplegic, and ending the hardship to the plaintiff as quickly as possible, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 50

An act to amend Sections 18206, 22005, 22454, 24005, 24454, and 24466 of the Financial Code, relating to financial institutions.

[Approved by Governor May 27, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 27, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18206 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

18206. An industrial loan company shall not make a consumer loan or acquire a consumer obligation unless such loan or obligation is repayable by equal or substantially equal periodic payments during its term. This section shall not apply to a loan made to a graduate student at an accredited college or university while the student is actively pursuing a study program leading to a postbaccalaureate degree.

SEC. 2. Section 22005 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

22005. "Charges" do not include commissions received as a licensed insurance agent or broker in connection with insurance written as provided in Section 22458 or court costs, excluding attorney's fees, incurred in a suit and recovered against a debtor who defaults on his or her loan.

SEC. 3. Section 22454 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

22454. (a) Except as provided in Article 3 (commencing with Section 22480), all charges on loans made under this division shall be computed and paid only as a percentage per month of the unpaid principal balance or portions thereof, and shall be so expressed in every obligation signed by the borrower. The charges on loans shall be computed on the basis of the number of days actually elapsed, for the purpose of which computations a month is any period of 30 consecutive days.

(b) The loan contract shall provide for payment of the aggregate amount contracted to be paid in substantially equal periodical installments, the first of which shall be due not less than 15 days nor more than 1 month and 15 days from the date the loan is made. This subdivision shall not apply to a loan made to a graduate student at an accredited college or university while the student is actively pursuing a study program leading to a postbaccalaureate degree.

SEC. 4. Section 24005 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

24005. "Charges" do not include commissions received as a licensed insurance agent or broker in connection with insurance written as provided in Section 24458 or court costs, excluding attorney's fees, incurred in a suit and recovered against a debtor who defaults on his or her loan.

SEC. 5. Section 24454 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

24454. (a) Except as provided in Section 24451.3 and in Article

3 (commencing with Section 24480), all charges on loans made under this division shall be computed and paid only as a percentage per month of the unpaid principal balance or portions thereof, and shall be so expressed in every obligation signed by the borrower. The charges on loans shall be computed on the basis of the number of days actually elapsed, for the purpose of which computations a month is any period of 30 consecutive days.

(b) The loan contract shall provide for payment of the aggregate amount contracted to be paid in substantially equal periodical installments, the first of which shall be due not less than 15 days nor more than 1 month and 15 days from the date the loan is made. This subdivision shall not apply to a loan made to a graduate student at an accredited college or university while the student is actively pursuing a study program leading to a postbaccalaureate degree.

SEC. 6. Section 24466 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

24466. No licensee shall take a deed of trust, mortgage or lien upon real property as security for any loan of a principal amount of less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) made under this division, except such lien as is created by law upon the recording of an abstract of judgment. A loan that is secured by a lien on real property may not be secured by a lien on personal property as well, with the exception of:

- (a) A lien on a mobilehome located upon the real property.
- (b) An assignment of rents in a mortgage or deed of trust.

---

CHAPTER 51

An act to amend Sections 712 and 713 of the Civil Code, relating to real property.

[Approved by Governor May 27, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 27, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 712 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

712. Every provision contained in or otherwise affecting a grant of a fee interest in, or purchase money security instrument upon, real property in this state heretofore or hereafter made, which purports to prohibit or restrict the right of the grantee or his or her agent to display or have displayed on the property a sign which is of reasonable dimensions and design advertising the property for sale, lease, or exchange by the grantee or his or her agent is void as an unreasonable restraint upon the power of alienation.

This section shall operate retrospectively, as well as prospectively, to the full extent that it may constitutionally operate retrospectively.

A sign which conforms to the ordinance adopted in conformity with Section 713 shall be deemed to be of reasonable dimension and design pursuant to this section.

SEC. 2. Section 713 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

713. Notwithstanding any provision of any ordinance, an owner of real property or his or her agent may display or have displayed on the owner's property a sign of reasonable dimensions and design, as determined by the city or county, advertising:

- (a) That the property is for sale, lease, or exchange by the owner or his or her agent;
- (b) The owner's or agent's name; and
- (c) The owner's or agent's address and telephone number.

---

CHAPTER 52

An act to amend Sections 8313 and 8333 of the Streets and Highways Code, relating to vacation of streets, highways, and public service easements.

[Approved by Governor May 27, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 27, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8313 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8313. (a) If the proposed vacation of a street, highway, or public service easement is within an area for which a general or master plan is adopted by a local agency, the legislative body of the public entity shall consider the general or master plan prior to vacating the street, highway, or public service easement.

(b) The procedure prescribed in Section 65402 of the Government Code shall be followed if that section applies to the proposed vacation. If Section 65402 of the Government Code does not apply to the proposed vacation, the legislative body may submit the proposed vacation to the local planning commission or planning agency and give the commission or agency an opportunity to report upon the proposed vacation.

SEC. 2. Section 8333 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8333. The legislative body of a local agency may summarily vacate a public service easement in any of the following cases:

(a) The easement has not been used for the purpose for which it was dedicated or acquired for five consecutive years immediately preceding the proposed vacation.

(b) The date of dedication or acquisition is less than five years, and more than one year, immediately preceding the proposed vacation, and the easement was not used continuously since that date.

(c) The easement has been superseded by relocation and there are no other public facilities located within the easement.

CHAPTER 53

An act relating to local government, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 27, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 27, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 54902 and 54903 of the Government Code, the incorporation of the City of La Quinta at the general election of April 6, 1982, shall be effective for purposes of the allocation of property tax revenues pursuant to Sections 96 through 99 of the Revenue and Taxation Code for the 1982-83 fiscal year if the statement and map or plat required by Section 54900 of the Government Code were filed on or before July 1, 1982; provided, however, that since the County of Riverside has provided municipal services to the city for the first six months of the fiscal year, the allocation of property tax revenues to the city for the 1982-83 fiscal year shall be in an amount equal to one-half the amount which it would otherwise be entitled to receive.

(b) Out of the property tax revenues which the county would otherwise allocate to the City of La Quinta for the 1982-83 fiscal year by reason of the enactment of subdivision (a), the county shall retain an amount sufficient to reimburse itself for its administrative costs incurred by reason of that subdivision.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 54902 and 54903 of the Government Code, the boundary changes approved by the voters at the election held in November 1982 for the transfer of territory (commonly referred to as the South Rossmoor area) in Contra Costa County from the San Ramon Valley Unified School District to the Walnut Creek School District and the Acalanes Union High School District shall be effective for purposes of the allocation of property tax revenues and for the imposition of property taxes for the 1983-84 fiscal year if the statement and map or plat required by Section 54900 of the Government Code are filed before July 1, 1983.

SEC. 3. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that a special law is necessary and that a general law cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution because of the unique circumstance of the City of La Quinta, which was incorporated on May 1, 1982. The Legislature finds, therefore, that this special act is necessary. The city was unable to file the statement and map or plat required by Section 54900 of the Government Code by January 1, 1982, as required by Section 54902 of that code in order to receive an allocation of property tax revenues for the 1982-83 fiscal year. The further unique circumstance in this case is that the County of Riverside provided services to the City of La Quinta for the first half of the 1982-83 fiscal year.

(b) In addition, all requirements for boundary changes made last November, except for filing the necessary documents with the State Board of Equalization, are complete for the transfer of territory from the San Ramon Valley Unified School District to the Walnut Creek School District and Acalanes Union High School District. This special act is necessary to rectify that situation and to enable residents of the territory transferred to be served by the proper school districts and to pay proper local property taxes.

SEC. 4. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

In order for the newly incorporated City of La Quinta to obtain funds to operate for the second half of the 1982-83 fiscal year and for the territory transfer from the San Ramon Valley Unified School District to the Walnut Creek School District and the Acalanes Union High School District to be effective for the 1983-84 fiscal year, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 54

An act to add Section 2410.5 to the Vehicle Code, relating to traffic control, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 27, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 27, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2410.5 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

2410.5. (a) The department may contract with a person or governmental entity that is conducting a special event which will impose extraordinary traffic control requirements at and near the site of the special event to provide supplemental patrol services to coordinate and direct traffic at and near the special event site. A contract entered into pursuant to this section shall include provisions for reimbursement to the department, and may include a requirement for the posting of a bond, for the cost of providing the supplemental patrol services, as determined by the commissioner.

(b) The patrol services, if any, provided under this section shall be rendered by officers of the department.

(c) Contract patrol services authorized under this section shall not reduce the normal and regular services of the department.

(d) Any contract fees received by the department pursuant to a contract under this section shall be deposited in the Motor Vehicle Account in the State Transportation Fund.

In order to authorize the Department of the California Highway Patrol and local law enforcement agencies to contract with persons or governmental entities conducting a special event which will impose extraordinary traffic control requirements to provide supplemental patrol services to ensure public safety at or near the special event site, and to provide reimbursement to the department and local law enforcement agencies for the costs of providing those supplemental traffic patrol services as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 55

An act to amend Section 31032.10 of the Water Code, relating to county water districts, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 30, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 31, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 31032.10 of the Water Code is amended to read:

31032.10. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, the Yorba Linda County Water District may fix, in each fiscal year, within Improvement District No. 2 of the district, water standby or availability assessments of not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per year for (1) each acre or portion thereof or, in the alternative, (2) each residential unit, or the equivalent thereof as to property designated for other than residential purposes, not to exceed the maximum number of residential units or the equivalent thereof established in the General Plan for the property within Improvement District No. 2 adopted by the City of Yorba Linda on June 1, 1981, regardless of any amendment or revision of the General Plan, whether or not residential unit or the equivalent thereof is actually constructed and whether the water is actually used or not. The Board of Directors of the Yorba Linda County Water District shall establish schedules varying the assessment according to the land uses and the degree of availability or quantity of use of the water to the affected lands within Improvement District No. 2. If the assessment is to be collected on the basis of units, the written consent of the owner of the property to be assessed on the basis of units shall be obtained.

(b) The Yorba Linda County Water District may elect to have the assessments authorized by subdivision (a) for the fiscal year collected on the tax roll in the same manner, by the same persons, and at the same time as, and together with and not separately from, county taxes. In that event, the district shall prepare a written report which shall be filed with the secretary. The report shall contain a description of each parcel of real property and the amount of the assessment for each parcel for the year. If the assessment is to be assessed on a residential unit or equivalent basis as described in subdivision (a), the assessment for each assessor's parcel shall be determined by multiplying the estimated number of residential units or the equivalent thereof proposed at that time for the assessor's parcel by the proposed amount per residential unit as shown in the assessor's parcels in Improvement District No. 2 for the particular fiscal year.

(c) The water standby or availability assessment authorized by this section shall not be imposed on any subdivided parcel upon which there exists a residential unit which has been connected to domestic water facilities of the Yorba Linda County Water District.

(d) The procedures set forth in Sections 31032.2 to 31032.9, inclusive, shall apply to any assessments imposed pursuant to subdivision (a).

(e) This section shall have no force or effect after January 1, 1989, except to the extent necessary to raise funds for interest or principal payments on bonds of Improvement District No. 2 issued prior to such date.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that a special law is necessary and that a general law cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution because of unique and special water management problems within Improvement District No. 2 of the Yorba Linda County Water District which are not common to other districts organized pursuant to the County Water District Law. The adoption of Article XIII A of the California Constitution has created a situation where the assessed value of undeveloped land remains relatively constant if ownership is stable, but assessed value increases dramatically if the property is improved and sold. Consequently, the properties initially developed in the large and previously undeveloped improvement district will bear a disproportionate share of property taxes levied to pay the interest and redemption charges on general obligation bonded indebtedness incurred within the improvement district. This act is necessary to permit the burden of financing vital water facilities in the partially undeveloped improvement district to be more equitably allocated to all properties benefiting from the availability of a water system.

In order to permit the equitable financing of vital water development facilities within the Yorba Linda County Water District at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 56

An act to amend Section 12689 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to fireworks, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 30, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 31, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1 Section 12689 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

12689. (a) It is unlawful for any person to sell, give, or deliver any dangerous fireworks to any person under 18 years of age.

(b) It is unlawful for any person who is a retailer to sell or transfer any safe and sane fireworks to a person who is under 16 years of age.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (d), it is unlawful for any person who is a retailer to sell or transfer to a person under the age of 18 any rocket, rocket propelled projectile launcher, or similar device containing any explosive or incendiary material whether or not the device is designed for emergency or distance signaling purposes. It is also unlawful for a minor to possess such a device unless he or she has the written permission of, or is accompanied by, his or her parent or guardian while it is in his or her possession.

(d) Model rocket products including model rockets, launch systems, and model rocket motors designed, sold, and used for the purpose of propelling recoverable model rockets may be sold or transferred pursuant to regulations, adopted by the State Fire Marshal which the Fire Marshal determines are reasonably necessary to carry out the requirements of this part.

In order to exclude model rocket projects, which were inadvertently included in restrictions under Chapter 594 of the Statutes of 1982, as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect as soon as possible.

CHAPTER 57

An act to add Chapter 2.2 (commencing with Section 35520) to Part 5 of Division 13 of the Water Code, relating to water districts, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 30, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State May 31, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 2.2 (commencing with Section 35520) is added to Part 5 of Division 13 of the Water Code, to read:

CHAPTER 2.2. PROVISIONS PERTAINING ONLY TO THE LOST HILLS WATER DISTRICT

35520. The provisions of this chapter shall apply only to the Lost Hills Water District. The powers provided in this chapter shall be in addition to any existing powers the district may have in relation to drainage and disposal of drain water.

35520.1. A district may acquire, construct, operate, and furnish facilities for the control of waters to protect, maintain, and enhance the quality of lands within the district, including drainage, disposal of drainage water and water of deleterious quality, and conservation and beneficial use of flood, storm, and other waste waters occurring on the lands.

35520.3. In order to carry out the powers and purposes granted under this chapter, a district may exercise or use any of the powers or procedures otherwise granted to a district under this division to the extent the powers or procedures may be made applicable.

35520.4. The powers or procedures referred to in Section 35520.3 includes, but are not limited to, the following:

(a) Bonds issued pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 35950), Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 36150), and Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 36300) of Part 6.

(b) Warrants issued pursuant to Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 36400) of Part 6.

(c) The formation of improvement districts and bonds therefor pursuant to Chapter 4.9 (commencing with Section 36410) and Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 36450) of Part 6.

(d) The acquisition of property pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 35600) of Chapter 3.

(e) Contracts with other agencies pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 35850).

35520.5. The powers and procedures referred to in Section 35520.3 shall include all powers or procedures necessary, useful, or desirable to carry out the powers and purposes of this chapter.

35520.6. Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, the board may determine to issue bonds secured by benefit assessments, in which event the board shall define and determine a drainage service area which may be the entire district or any lesser portion thereof that will be benefited by the project.

The service area shall be designated "Drainage Service Area No. _____ of _____ Water District." The service area may be subdivided by the board into separate zones or subareas that benefit solely from separate components of the total project.

35520.7. When the board has determined to issue bonds secured by benefit assessments, it shall, by resolution, employ a civil engineer, who shall have no interest, directly or indirectly, in any land in the district, to apportion the cost of the plan, to which shall be added the compensation to be paid the engineer, in accordance with benefit to each tract of land within the service area held in separate ownership.

35520.8. Upon completion of the apportionment of costs, the engineer shall prepare and certify to the board an assessment roll which shall contain all of the following:

(a) A description of the service area to be benefited by the plan and of any zones or subareas into which the service area has been divided.

(b) A description of each tract held in separate ownership by legal subdivision, governmental survey, or other boundary sufficient to identify it. If any area composed of more than one tract held in separate ownership is not assessed because the lands therein will not be benefited by the expenditure of the funds to be raised by the assessment, a description of the area as a whole without a description of each tract is sufficient.

(c) The number of acres in each tract.

(d) The name and address of the owner of each tract, if known, and if unknown, that fact. No mistake or error in the name of the owner of the property assessed and no mistake in any other particular shall render the assessment invalid.

(e) The rate per acre of the assessment upon each tract assessed, or if no assessment is made upon any tract or area composed of more than one tract, a statement of that fact.

(f) The total amount of the assessment as computed.

35520.10. The board shall file a copy of the roll and report in its records and forthwith give notice of the filing of the report and assessment roll by publication at least once a week for two successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in each affected county, and by mailing copies of the notice to each affected landowner, as shown on the last equalized assessment book of the district or as is otherwise known to the district, stating therein the time and place of a special meeting which shall be not less than 15 days after the completion of publication and mailing at which meeting all interested persons, including all persons owning land in the district or in the affected drainage service area, may appear and be heard concerning any matter set forth in the roll and report.

35520.11. If no objections are presented to the board with respect to a particular assessment at the time and place noticed, the secretary shall execute a certificate in which the secretary shall certify that no objections were so presented and the assessment roll and certificate shall be filed in the district records.

35520.12. The board may continue the hearing on objections to assessments from time to time.

35520.13. At the hearing, the board shall hear any evidence that may be offered on the correctness of the assessment and may modify, amend, or approve the assessment in any particular and may reapportion the whole or any part of it.

35520.14. After the hearing of objections, the board shall, by resolution, approve the assessment as finally fixed or modified. A certified copy of the assessment roll as finally fixed shall be filed in the district records.

35520.15. When the secretary files the certificate as provided in Section 35520.11 or, if objections are raised, when the board approves the assessment as finally fixed as provided in Section 35520.14, the board shall call a special district election at which there shall be submitted to the electors of the district the question of whether or not the board shall be authorized to issue bonds secured by the benefit assessment roll, which election shall be held and conducted in the manner set forth in Section 35520.16. At the election, the ballots shall contain the words "Benefit Assessment Bonds - Yes" and "Benefit Assessment Bonds - No" or words equivalent thereto.

35520.16. The election required by Section 35520.15 shall be called, noticed, and held in the manner provided for bond elections by Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 35100) and Chapter 3

(a) The election shall be held on any Tuesday designated by the board which is not an election day designated in Section 2500 of the Elections Code and is not a state holiday or the day before or the day after a state holiday.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 35152.6, unless the voting procedure of the district has been changed from a landowner voting district to a resident voting district pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 35040) of Chapter 1 of Part 4, the qualified voters at the election shall be determined according to Article 1 (commencing with Section 35003) of Chapter 1 of Part 4.

35520.17. The board may advance general funds of the district to pay all costs and expenses incurred in preparation of the plan of works and estimate of cost provided for by Section 35520.2, in the preparation of the assessment roll and report provided for by Sections 35520.7 and 35520.8, in noticing and calling the hearing required by Section 35520.10, and in calling, noticing, and holding the election provided by Section 35520.15. The advances shall be repaid to the general funds of the district with the proceeds of the call provided for in Section 35520.18 or from the proceeds of sale of the first division of bonds called for sale pursuant to Section 35520.24.

35520.18. If more than one-third of the votes cast are for "Benefit Assessment Bonds - No," the board shall, by resolution, abandon the project, make a call upon the assessment roll, certified as provided for by Section 35520.11 or as finally fixed as provided for by Section 35520.14, sufficient to pay all costs and expenses incurred in preparation of the plan of works and estimate of cost provided for by Section 35520.2, in the preparation of the assessment roll and report provided for by Sections 35520.7 and 35520.8, in noticing and holding the hearing required by Section 35520.10, and in calling, noticing, and holding the election provided for by Section 35520.15 and, thereafter, cancel all the assessment remaining uncalled.

35520.19. If two-thirds or more of the votes are cast for "Benefit Assessment Bonds - Yes," the board shall transmit a certified copy of the roll to the district tax collector. The charges assessed by the roll as certified as provided for by Section 35520.11, or as finally fixed as provided for by Section 35520.14, shall, upon recordation of a notice in each affected county in the manner specified in Section 3114 of the Streets and Highways Code, constitute a lien upon the land in each county which is prior to all other liens except city, county, and special district assessments or ad valorem taxes levied or assessed by or under statutory authority. The notice recorded pursuant to this section shall expressly provide that the lien is prior to all other liens except city, county, and special district assessments or ad valorem taxes.

35520.20. The assessment roll as approved by the board shall be conclusive evidence before any court or body that the assessment has been made and levied according to law.

35520.21. All unpaid assessments shall bear interest at the rate of 12 percent per annum. Interest shall commence to run 30 days after the board has adopted a resolution calling for the sale of bonds secured by the assessment.

35520.22. The assessment list shall remain open for payment of any unpaid balance of the assessment thereon at the office of the district tax collector until such time as the board adopts a resolution calling for the sale of bonds secured by the assessment.

35520.23. Payments on assessments made to the district tax collector prior to the adoption of a resolution of the board calling for the sale of bonds secured by the assessment shall be transferred by the tax collector to the district treasurer and placed in the construction fund.

35520.24. Any time after the filing of the assessment roll as provided in Section 35520.19, the board may, by resolution, call for the sale of bonds secured by the assessment. The form and substance of the bonds and the sale thereof shall be governed by Sections 35520.35 and 35520.36. The total par value of bonds sold against any benefit assessment shall not exceed the total assessment less any collections against the assessment made prior to the first adoption of a resolution for sale of bonds secured by the assessment.

35520.25. Collection of assessments levied and called by the board shall be made by the district tax collector.

35520.26. Concurrently with the making of the annual estimate to be filed with the board of supervisors pursuant to Section 36552, the board shall designate and determine, by resolution, the percentage of any assessment previously levied that shall be called and collected. The interest due on unpaid assessments may be called without calling any installment of the assessment.

A certified copy of the call resolution shall be published once a week for three successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in the principal county, commencing no more than 20 days following the adoption of the call resolution. The secretary, concurrently with the first publication of a certified copy of the call resolution, shall deliver certified copies thereof, one to the district assessor, one to the district tax collector, and one to the district treasurer.

35520.27. The district assessor, upon receipt of the assessment call resolution from the secretary, shall compute the amount to be collected from each parcel of land in separate ownership in the service area established pursuant to Section 35520.6 and shall enter in a separate space in the district's assessment book entitled "Drainage Service Area No. _____ Assessment" the sums, in dollars and cents, to be collected against the respective parcels of land.

35520.28. Assessments called pursuant to this chapter shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner as district assessments. When collected, the entire amount collected shall be transferred to the benefit assessment bond fund of the district.

35520.29. The board shall levy an amendatory assessment in the manner provided for original assessments if any of the following occur:

(a) Any land within the drainage service area is omitted from any assessment roll.

(b) Land appears on the assessment roll but is neither assessed or stated not to be assessed.

(c) A final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction has held that any assessment is not valid as to any part of the land assessed. This amendatory assessment shall be based upon a determination, as nearly as may be, of the amount the original assessment upon the land would have been except for the omission or invalidity.

35520.30. When any tract of land upon which any assessment has been levied is subdivided into smaller parcels, the board shall, upon its own motion or upon written application therefor signed by a landowner of record within the subdivided tract, after a hearing noticed and held in the same fashion as provided in Section 35520.10, reapportion the assessment upon the tract as will, in the judgment of the board, charge each of the smaller parcels with a just portion of the assessment. The reapportionment shall be entered in the minutes of the board and, upon entry, shall become final.

35520.31. The secretary shall file certified copies of any amendatory or reapportioned assessment with the district assessor, the district tax collector, and the district treasurer.

35520.32. Upon the inclusion of any land within a drainage service area, an assessment shall be levied upon the land so included. The amount of the assessment against each tract or parcel is to be the amount, as nearly as can be determined, of all the assessments which would have been levied against the tract or parcel had it been included in the drainage service area from the time of the original levy of the assessment.

35520.33. When a district has levied an assessment and it appears to the board that the assessment or some part thereof, together with the interest thereon, will provide an amount greater than is required to meet all obligations incurred, or to be incurred for, the purposes for which the assessment or part thereof was levied, and if no bonds secured by the assessment are outstanding, the board may, by resolution, declare its intention to cancel all or any portion of the assessment, including any interest thereon, or all or any portion of the interest.

For the purposes of this section, the term "assessment balances" means the assessment and the interest thereon, and the board, in the manner and subject to the limitations provided in this chapter, may cancel any part of the assessment balance, including all of the assessment and the interest thereon, a part of the assessment and the interest thereon, all of the interest on the assessment, or a part of the interest on the assessment.

35520.34. The board, pursuant to a resolution entered in its minutes, may distribute among the landowners of a drainage service area any funds in the treasury belonging to the service area which were collected on an assessment on which no bonds are outstanding or collected by way of interest or penalties on the assessment or by the rental, sale, or redemption of delinquent land under the assessment and which appear to the board to be greater than required to meet all obligations incurred or to be incurred for the purposes for which the assessment was levied. The distribution to the landowners shall be made in the proportion that they were assessed on the assessment.

35520.35. All bonds issued under this chapter shall be payable in lawful money of the United States. Subject to the provisions of this chapter, the board shall prescribe the form and the manner of execution of the bonds.

An issue of bonds is hereby defined to be all of the bonds to be issued in accordance with a proposal approved by the electors of the district. Each issue of the bonds of a district shall be numbered consecutively, as authorized, and the bonds of each issue shall be numbered consecutively.

The board shall fix the date of the bonds, or may divide any issue into two or more divisions and fix different dates and different rates of interest for the bonds of the divisions. The date of any bond shall be subsequent to the election at which its issuance was authorized. The bonds shall be made payable at such times as the board prescribes, but in no case shall the maturity of any bond be more than 40 years from the date thereof. The bonds shall bear interest at a rate or rates to be fixed by the board, not exceeding 12 percent per annum, payable semiannually on the first day of January and the first day of July of each year. The principal and interest shall be payable at a place to be designated by the board and specified in each bond.

The bonds shall express on their face that they were issued under the authority of this chapter.

35520.36. The board may sell the bonds, from time to time, in such quantities as may be necessary and most advantageous to raise money to carry out the objects and purposes of this chapter.

Before making any sale, the board shall at a regular meeting, by resolution, declare its intention to sell a specified amount of the bonds and the day and hour and place of the sale and shall cause notice of the sale to be given by publication of the resolution at least once a week for two successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in each county in which any portion of the district is located and, at its discretion, in other newspapers. The publications shall be complete not less than 10 days prior to the date of sale. The notice shall state that sealed proposals will be received for the purchase of the bonds until the day and hour named in the resolution.

The board shall award the purchase of the bonds to the highest responsible bidder. However, the board may reject all bids. The board shall, in no event, sell any of the bonds for less than 90 percent of the par value thereof.

35520.37. All bonds of the same issue shall be equally and ratably secured without priority by reason of number, date of bonds, date of sale, date of execution, or date of delivery by the lien of the benefit assessment roll recorded pursuant to Section 35520.19.

35520.38. For the purpose of the care, operation, management, and improvement of a project or projects, including payment of salaries of officers and employees and all other expenses, and for the payment of principal of and interest on any bonds issued under this chapter, the board may, in lieu, either in part or in whole, of calling assessments as provided for in this chapter, fix rates of tolls and charges for drainage facilities or available drainage facilities and other services rendered by the district and collect the tolls and charges from all persons receiving the benefit of the drainage facilities or other services. The tolls and charges shall be proportional as nearly as possible to the services rendered.

35520.39. Whenever any tolls or charges for the use of drainage facilities or for other services rendered by the district provided for in this chapter have been fixed by the board, they may be made payable in advance.

35520.40. In case any tolls or charges remain unpaid for a period of 30 days after they become payable, they shall become delinquent and a penalty of 10 percent shall be added thereto, and they bear interest at the rate of 1 percent per month or fraction thereof.

35520.41. After any toll or charge becomes delinquent, the board may, by resolution, direct the assessor to add to the assessment of the parcel of land to which it relates all delinquent tolls and charges, penalties, and interest thereon.

35520.42. In addition to and as an alternative to all other powers contained in this chapter with respect to provision of funds for the purpose of the care, operation, management, and improvement of a project or projects undertaken under the authority of this chapter, including the payment of salaries of officers and employees and all other expenses, and for the payment of principal of and interest on any bonds issued under this chapter, zones may be established within the drainage service area for the purpose of fixing rates of assessment in accordance with the extent of benefits derived, or to be derived, by each zone from services to the land in each zone arising from the service area's plan of works or any separately identifiable part thereof.

35520.43. No zone shall be established or varying rates of assessment fixed under Section 35520.42, unless the board, by resolution, declares that it intends to do so and that a public hearing will be held thereon at a specified time and place where all interested persons may appear and be heard.

Notice of the hearing shall be given by publishing a copy of the resolution in a newspaper of general circulation, published in each affected county, pursuant to Section 6066 of the Government Code, the first publication to be at least 14 days prior to the time fixed for the hearing. A copy of the resolution shall be mailed, postage prepaid, to each holder of title to land within the drainage service area as shown upon the last equalized assessment book of the district at least 15 days prior to the time fixed for the hearing. Any error, omission, or mistake in the mailing, or any failure of any person to receive a copy, shall not invalidate the proceedings pursuant to this section.

The hearing may be adjourned from time to time at the discretion of the board, and, at its conclusion, the board shall determine the zones of benefit established, if any, the share of benefits received by each zone arising from the district's operation, expressed as a percentage, the criteria for establishing each zone, and the percentage expressed. A map of the drainage service area in such detail as to delineate the geographical area of each zone shall be a part of the resolution. The zones and the percentages may be amended from time to time or abolished in the same manner required for original adoption.

35520.44. The board annually, concurrently with the making of the estimate required by Section 36552, shall adopt a resolution setting forth an estimate of the amount of money needed for the purposes of the drainage service area for the next fiscal year. The amount shall be sufficient to raise interest accruing and principal maturing during the fiscal year on outstanding bonds of the district issued for the drainage service area, incidental expenses of the service area, and the cost of the care, operation, management, or improvement of the works of the drainage service area, or that part of the costs as the board determines is to be raised by assessment. The amount of the assessment to be borne by each zone shall be computed by multiplying the total amount to be raised by assessment by the percentage of benefits accruing to each zone as declared by the board.

In the resolution to be adopted pursuant to this section, the board shall provide for a public hearing upon the assessment to be levied and shall specify a time and place when all interested persons may appear and be heard. Notice of the hearing shall be given by publishing a copy of the resolution in a newspaper of general circulation, published in each affected county, pursuant to Section 6066 of the Government Code, the first publication to be at least 14 days prior to the time fixed for the hearing. A copy of the resolution shall be mailed, postage prepaid, to each holder of title to land within title within the drainage service area as shown upon the last equalized assessment book of the district. Any error, omission, or mistake in the mailing, or any failure of any person to receive a copy, shall not invalidate the proceedings pursuant to this section.

The hearing may be adjourned from time to time at the discretion of the board, and, at its conclusion, the board shall, by resolution, levy an assessment upon all lands within each zone sufficient to raise the amount stated in the estimate of the board as revised, if revised, at the hearing. Assessments made within each zone of benefit established pursuant to this chapter shall be levied on all lands within the zone of benefit on an acreage basis.

35520.45. The secretary shall deliver certified copies of the resolution levying the assessment pursuant to Section 35520.44, one to the district assessor, one to the district tax collector, and one to the district treasurer.

The district assessor, upon receipt of a certified copy of the resolution, shall compute the amount to be collected from each parcel of land in separate ownership in the affected drainage service area and shall enter in a separate space in the district's assessment book entitled "Drainage Service Area No. _____ Annual Assessment," the sums, in dollars and cents, to be collected against the respective parcels of land.

35520.46. Proceeds from assessments levied pursuant to this chapter may be used to pay any lawful obligation of the district incurred in the care, operation, or management of the works of the district for the drainage service area for which the assessment is levied.

SEC. 2. Perched saline water conditions are increasing at extremely rapid rates in the Lost Hills Water District. This bill would provide the necessary authority for the district to plan, finance, and construct works for the drainage and reclamation of lands affected by those perched water conditions. The district's problem is not common to other California water districts. The Legislature, therefore, finds and declares that a special law is necessary with respect to the Lost Hills Water District, that the provisions of this act are needed to meet the special circumstances within the district, and that a general law cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

Perched saline water conditions are increasing at extremely rapid rates in the Lost Hills Water District, a California water district, making hundreds of acres of land in the district incapable of being used for the growth of crops and threatening to destroy thousands of additional acres of land, unless immediate steps are taken to plan, finance, and construct works for the drainage and reclamation of lands affected by those perched saline water conditions. The existing powers of California water districts do not provide necessary authority to plan, finance, construct, and operate the necessary works to achieve these purposes in the manner specified in this act. The formation of new districts, under existing law, to perform the powers granted in this act to the Lost Hills Water District would exacerbate the proliferation of special districts in Kern County. In order, therefore, to authorize the drainage and reclamation of these lands at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 58

An act to amend Sections 22054, 22054.1, 22409, 22450.1, 22452, 22454, 22470, 24053, 24054, 24409, 24450.1, 24452, 24454, 24470, and 26054.1 of, to add Sections 22053.1, 24053.1, and 24054.1 to, and to repeal Sections 22057, 24057, and 26057 of, the Financial Code, relating to loans.

[Approved by Governor May 31, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 1, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22053.1 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

22053.1. The following sections do not apply to any noncommercial loan of a bona fide principal amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more, or to a duly licensed personal property broker in connection with any such loan or loans, if the provisions of this section are not used for the purpose of evading this division: Sections 22004, 22005, 22450, 22451, 22451.1, 22452, 22453, 22455, 22459, 22460, 22462, 22463, 22464, and 22651.

SEC. 2. Section 22054 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

22054. In determining under Section 22053 whether a loan is a loan of a bona fide principal amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or more and whether the provisions of that section are used for the purpose of evading this division, the following principles apply:

(a) If a borrower applies for a loan in a principal amount of less than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) and a loan to that borrower of a principal amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or more is made by a licensed personal property broker, no adequate economic reason for the increase in the size of the loan exists, and by prearrangement or understanding between the borrower and the licensee a substantial payment is to be made upon the loan with the effect of reducing the principal amount of the loan to less than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) within a short time after the making of the loan other than by reason of a requirement that the loan be paid in substantially equal periodical installments, then the loan shall not be deemed to be a loan of the bona fide principal amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or more and the provisions of Section 22053 shall be deemed to be used for the purpose of evading this division unless the loan complies with the provisions of this division relating to loans of less than ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(b) An individual advance of money of less than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) pursuant to a revolving or open end loan agreement or similar agreement between a borrower and a licensed personal property broker which gives the borrower the right to draw upon all or any part of the line of credit, or a loan agreement providing for the making of advances to the borrower from time to time up to an aggregate maximum amount which gives the borrower the right to draw all or any part of the total amount, shall be deemed to be a loan of a principal amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or more if the line of credit or the aggregate maximum amount, is ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or more and the initial advance was ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or more even though the actual unpaid balance after the advance or at any other time is less than ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(c) If a loan made by a licensed personal property broker is in a principal amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or more, the fact that the transaction is in the form of a sale of accounts, chattel paper, contract rights, goods or instruments or a lease of goods or in the form of an advance on the purchase price of any of the foregoing shall not be deemed to affect the loan or the bona fides of the amount thereof or to indicate that the provisions of Section 22053 are used for the purpose of evading this division.

SEC. 3. Section 22054.1 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

(a) If a borrower applies for a loan in a principal amount of less than five thousand dollars ($5,000), and a loan to that borrower of a principal amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more is made by a licensed personal property broker, no adequate economic reason for the increase in the size of the loan exists, and by prearrangement or understanding between the borrower and the licensee a substantial payment is to be made upon the loan with the effect of reducing the principal amount of the loan to less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) within a short time after the making of the loan other than by reason of the requirement that the loan be paid in substantially equal periodic installments, then the loan shall not be deemed to be a commercial loan or a noncommercial loan of a bona fide principal amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more and the provisions of Section 22053 or 22053.1, respectively, shall be deemed to be used for the purpose of evading this division unless the loan complies with the provisions of this division relating to commercial or noncommercial loans of less than five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(b) A subsequent advance of money of less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) pursuant to a revolving or open end loan agreement or similar agreement between a borrower and a licensee which gives the borrower the right to draw upon all or any part of the line of credit, or a loan agreement providing for the making of advances to the borrower from time to time up to an aggregate maximum amount which gives the borrower the right to draw all or any part of the total amount, shall be deemed to be a commercial or noncommercial loan of a bona fide principal amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more if the line of credit or the aggregate maximum amount, is five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more and the initial advance was five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more even though the actual unpaid balance after the advance or at any other time is less than five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(c) If a loan made by a licensee is in a principal amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more, the fact that the transaction is in the form of a sale of accounts, chattel paper, contract rights, goods or instruments or a lease of goods or in the form of an advance on the purchase price of any of the foregoing shall not be deemed to affect the loan or the bona fides of the amount thereof or to indicate that the provisions of Section 22053 or 22053.1 are used for the purpose of evading this division.

SEC. 4. Section 22057 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 22409 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

22409. The commissioner shall require that information pertaining to loans be stated separately in the annual report as follows:

(a) For loans of a principal amount of less than five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(b) For loans of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more and any other business.

(c) The commissioner may permit information pertaining to expenses in the annual report to be reported in totals by categories without separation as to types of loans, and may make such other rules from time to time as may be necessary to obtain adequate information pertaining to the licensee.

The report shall be made under oath and in the form prescribed by the commissioner.

SEC. 6. Section 22450.1 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

22450.1. (a) No licensee shall directly or indirectly charge, contract for, or receive any interest or charge of any nature with respect to a noncommercial loan of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more unless the loan is made.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), whenever a noncommercial loan of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more is not consummated because of the borrower's failure to disclose outstanding liens or other information essential to making the loan or solely because of the borrower's failure to complete the loan in accordance with the loan application, a licensee may charge, contract for, and receive an amount equal to the actual expenses incurred by the licensee in connection with the preparation for the loan.

(c) The provisions of this section shall not apply to a commercial loan as defined in Section 22011.

SEC. 7. Section 22452 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

22452. (a) As used in this division, "open end loan" means a loan or loans made by a licensee pursuant to a loan agreement which expressly states that it is made pursuant to this section and pursuant to which:

(1) The licensee may permit the borrower to obtain advances of money from the licensee from time to time or the licensee may advance money on behalf of the borrower from time to time as directed by the borrower.

(2) The amount of each advance and the charges and other permitted costs are debited to an account.

(3) The charges are computed from time to time on the unpaid balances of the borrower's account, excluding from the computation any unpaid charges other than permitted fees, costs and expenses.

(4) The borrower has the privilege of paying the account in full at any time or in monthly installments.

(b) Subject to the written approval of the commissioner of the licensee's plan of business for making open end loans as not being misleading or deceptive and subject to regulations the commissioner may promulgate with respect to open end loans under Section 22400, a licensee may make open end loans pursuant to this section and may contract for and receive thereon charges as set forth in Sections 22451, 22451.1, and 22454.1. These charges may be calculated on an amount not exceeding the greater of:

(1) The actual daily unpaid balances of the open end account in the billing cycle for which the charge is made, in which case one-thirtieth of the monthly rate may be charged for each day the unpaid balance is outstanding.

(2) The average daily unpaid balance of the open end account in the billing cycle for which the charge is made, which is the sum of the amount unpaid each day during that cycle divided by the number of days in that cycle. The amount unpaid on a day is determined by adding to any balance unpaid as of the beginning of that day all advances and other debits and deducting all payments and other credits made or received as of that day.

The billing cycle shall be monthly. A billing cycle is monthly if the closing date of the cycle is the same date each month or does not vary by more than four days from the regular date.

(c) No licensee shall enter into any agreement for an open end consumer loan that provides for a minimum monthly payment that would result in the full repayment of principal over more than the maximum periods set forth below opposite the respective size of loans.

Principal amount of loan	Maximum period
Less than $1,500 .....	24 months and 15 days
$1,500 but less than $2,500 .....	36 months and 15 days
$2,500 but less than $4,000 .....	48 months and 15 days
$4,000 but less than $5,000 .....	60 months and 15 days

The minimum payment shall be determined by the amount of the initial loan advance and shall continue at that amount until a subsequent loan advance is made, at which time the minimum payment shall be determined by the amount of the unpaid balance of the loan after the advance and including the advance. Minimum payments after each advance shall be determined in the same manner.

(d) On open end loans the licensee may contract for and receive the fees, costs and expenses permitted on other loans, including those permitted by subdivisions (a), (b), (c), and (d) of Section 22458 and subdivision (d) of Section 22458.1, except that the charge for credit life insurance under Section 22458.1 shall be on a monthly basis and shall be actuarially consistent with the single premium rate for the same coverage approved or fixed by the Insurance Commissioner under Section 22458.1, or in accordance with a schedule of monthly rates filed with and not disapproved by the Insurance Commissioner.

(e) A licensee may not take real property as security, in whole or in part, for an open end loan under this section.

(f) Sections 22454 and 22455 shall apply to open end loans with the following variations:

(1) To comply with Section 22454, the loan contract shall provide for payment of minimum payments complying with subdivision (c).

(2) To comply with Section 22455, the licensee shall deliver to or at the direction of the borrower at the time of each loan advance an amount equal to the face value of the advance.

(g) In lieu of subdivision (a) of Section 22458.1, Section 22468, and subdivision (a) of Section 22473, the following provisions shall apply to open end loans:

(1) A licensee may provide insurance on the life of one or more borrowers, with his or her consent, the form to be approved by the Insurance Commissioner, and in an amount not in excess of the amount of the indebtedness. If life insurance is provided, and if the insured dies when there is an outstanding open end loan indebtedness, the insurance shall be sufficient to pay the total amount due on the loan outstanding on the date of his or her death without any exception, reservation or limitation. Any life insurance as is provided shall be in force as soon as the loan is made or coverage is agreed upon, whichever is later. No credit life insurance written in connection with an open end loan shall be canceled by the lender because of delinquency of the borrower in the making of the minimum payments thereon unless one or more of the payments is past due for a period of 90 days or more, and the lender shall advance to the insurer the amounts required to keep the insurance in force during that period, which amounts may be debited to the borrower's account.

(2) The open end loan agreement shall contain the name, address, and license number of the personal property broker and shall disclose the nature of the security taken, the method of determining the minimum payments which will be required to repay the initial advance and any subsequent advances on the loan, and the agreed rate of charge.

(3) Except in the case of an account which the licensee deems to be uncollectible, or with respect to which delinquency collection procedures have been instituted, the licensee shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the borrower, or any one thereof, for each billing cycle at the end of which there is an outstanding balance in the account or with respect to which a finance charge is imposed, a statement setting forth the outstanding balance in the account at the beginning of the billing cycle, the date and amount of any subsequent loan advance during the period, the amounts and dates of crediting to the account during the billing cycle for payments, the amount of any finance charge debited to the account during the billing cycle, the annual percentage rate of finance charge determined under Regulation Z promulgated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (12 C.F.R. 226 et seq.), the balance on which the finance charge was computed, the closing date of the billing cycle, the outstanding balance on that date, and the minimum monthly payment required in the absence of any additional advance. If there has been any change in the nature of the security for the loan since the next preceding advance, the statement shall contain or be accompanied by a statement of the nature of the security for the loan after such change.

(h) Subdivision (e) of Section 22473 shall not apply to an open end loan with respect to which there is no balance outstanding if the open end loan agreement continues in effect.

(i) Section 22480 shall not apply to open end loans.

(j) Nothing in this section may be construed to limit the authority of the commissioner to disapprove advertising with respect to open end loans pursuant to Section 22414.

(k) This section shall not apply to loans other than open end loans.

SEC. 8. Section 22454 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

22454. Except as provided in Article 3 (commencing with Section 22480), all charges on loans made under this division shall be computed and paid only as a percentage per month of the unpaid principal balance or portions thereof, and shall be so expressed in every obligation signed by the borrower. The charges on loans shall be computed on the basis of the number of days actually elapsed, for the purpose of which computations a month is any period of 30 consecutive days. The loan contract shall provide for payment of the aggregate amount contracted to be paid in substantially equal periodical installments, the first of which shall be due not less than 15 days nor more than 1 month and 15 days from the date the loan is made.

This section shall not apply to open end loans.

SEC. 9. Section 22470 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

22470. No licensee shall enter into any contract for a loan that provides for a scheduled repayment of principal over more than the maximum terms set forth below opposite the respective size of loans.

Principal amount of loan	Maximum term
Less than $1,500.....	24 months and 15 days
$1,500 but less than $2,500 ..	36 months and 15 days

$2,500 but less than $4,000 ..	48 months and 15 days
$4,000 but less than $6,000 ..	60 months and 15 days
$6,000 but less than $10,000	84 months and 15 days

This section shall not apply to open end loans.

SEC. 10. Section 24053 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

24053. The following sections do not apply to any loan of a bona fide principal amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or more, or to a duly licensed consumer finance lender in connection with any such loan or loans, if the provisions of this section are not used for the purpose of evading this division: Sections 24404, 24405, 24454, 24458, 24458.1, 24458.2, 24470, 24480, and 24652.

SEC. 11. Section 24053.1 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

24053.1. The following sections do not apply to any loan of a bona fide principal amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more, or to a duly licensed consumer finance lender in connection with any such loan or loans, if the provisions of this section are not used for the purpose of evading this division: Sections 24004, 24005, 24450, 24451, 24451.1, 24452, 24453, 24455, 24459, 24460, 24462, 24463, 24464, and 24651.

SEC. 12. Section 24054 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

24054. In determining under Section 24053 whether a loan is a loan of a bona fide principal amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or more and whether the provisions of that section are used for the purpose of evading this division, the following principles apply:

(a) If a borrower applies for a loan in a principal amount of less than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) and a loan to that borrower of a principal amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or more is made by a licensed consumer finance lender, no adequate economic reason for the increase in the size of the loan exists, and by prearrangement or understanding between the borrower and the licensee a substantial payment is to be made upon the loan with the effect of reducing the principal amount of the loan to less than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) within a short time after the making of the loan other than by reason of a requirement that the loan be paid in substantially equal periodical installments, then the loan shall not be deemed to be a loan of the bona fide principal amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or more and the provisions of Section 24053 shall be deemed to be used for the purpose of evading this division unless the loan complies with the provisions of this division relating to loans of less than ten thousand dollars (10,000).

(b) A subsequent advance of money of less than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) pursuant to a revolving or open end loan agreement or similar agreement between a borrower and a licensed consumer finance lender which gives the borrower the right to draw upon all or any part of the line of credit, or a loan agreement providing for the making of advances to the borrower from time to time up to an aggregate maximum amount which gives the borrower the right to draw upon all or any part of the total amount, shall be deemed to be a loan of a principal amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or more if the line of credit or the aggregate maximum amount is ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or more and the initial advance was ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or more even though the actual unpaid balance after the advance or at any other time is less than ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(c) If a loan made by a licensed consumer finance lender is in a principal amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or more, the fact that the transaction is in the form of a sale of accounts, chattel paper, contract rights, goods or instruments or a lease of goods or in the form of an advance on the purchase price of any of the foregoing shall not be deemed to affect the loan or the bona fides of the amount thereof or to indicate that the provisions of Section 24053 are used for the purpose of evading this division.

SEC. 13. Section 24054.1 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

24054.1. In determining under Section 24053.1 whether a loan is a loan of a bona fide principal amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more and whether the provisions of that section are used for the purpose of evading this division, the following principles apply:

(a) If a borrower applies for a loan in a principal amount of less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) and a loan to that borrower of a principal amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more is made by a licensed consumer finance lender, no adequate economic reason for the increase in the size of the loan exists, and by prearrangement or understanding between the borrower and the licensee a substantial payment is to be made upon the loan with the effect of reducing the principal amount of the loan to less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) within a short time after the making of the loan other than by reason of a requirement that the loan be paid in substantially equal periodical installments, then the loan shall not be deemed to be a loan of a bona fide principal amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more and the provisions of Section 24053.1 shall be deemed to be used for the purpose of evading this division unless the loan complies with the provisions of this division relating to loans of less than five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(b) A subsequent advance of money of less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) pursuant to a revolving or open end loan agreement or similar agreement between a borrower and a licensed consumer finance lender which gives the borrower the right to draw upon all or any part of the line of credit, or a loan agreement providing for the making of advances to the borrower from time to time up to an aggregate maximum amount which gives the borrower the right to draw upon all or any part of the total amount, shall be deemed to be a loan of a principal amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more if the line of credit or the aggregate maximum amount is five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more and the initial advance was five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more even though the actual unpaid balance after the advance or at any other time is less than five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(c) If a loan made by a licensed consumer finance lender is in a principal amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more, the fact that the transaction is in the form of a sale of accounts, chattel paper, contract rights, goods or instruments or a lease of goods or in the form of an advance on the purchase price of any of the foregoing shall not be deemed to affect the loan or the bona fides of the amount thereof or to indicate that the provisions of Section 24053.1 are used for the purpose of evading this division.

SEC. 14. Section 24057 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 15. Section 24409 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

24409. The commissioner shall require that information pertaining to loans be stated separately in the annual reports as follows:

(a) For loans of a principal amount of less than five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(b) For loans of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more and any other business.

(c) The commissioner may permit information pertaining to expenses in the annual report to be reported in totals by categories without separation as to types of loans, and may make such other rules from time to time as may be necessary to obtain adequate information pertaining to the licensee.

The report shall be made under oath and in the form prescribed by the commissioner.

SEC. 16. Section 24450.1 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

24450.1. (a) No licensee shall directly or indirectly charge, contract for, or receive any interest or charge of any nature with respect to a loan of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more unless the loan is made.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), when a loan of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more is not consummated because of the borrower's failure to disclose outstanding liens or other information essential to making the loan or solely because of the borrower's failure to complete the loan in accordance with the loan application, a licensee may charge, contract for, and receive an amount equal to the actual expenses incurred by the licensee in connection with the preparation for the loan.

SEC. 17. Section 24452 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

24452. (a) As used in this division, "open end loan" means a loan or loans made by a licensee pursuant to a loan agreement which expressly states that it is made pursuant to this section and pursuant to which:

(1) The licensee may permit the borrower to obtain advances of money from the licensee from time to time or the licensee may advance money on behalf of the borrower from time to time as directed by the borrower.

(2) The amount of each advance and the charges and other permitted costs are debited to an account.

(3) The charges are computed from time to time on the unpaid balances of the borrower's account, excluding from the computation any unpaid charges other than permitted fees, costs and expenses.

(4) The borrower has the privilege of paying the account in full at any time or in monthly installments.

(b) Subject to the written approval of the commissioner of the licensee's plan of business for making open end loans as not being misleading or deceptive and subject to regulations the commissioner may promulgate with respect to open end loans under Section 24400, a licensee may make open end loans pursuant to this section and may contract for and receive thereon charges as set forth in Sections 24451, 24451.1, and 24454.1. These charges may be calculated on an amount not exceeding the greater of:

(1) The actual daily unpaid balances of the open end account in the billing cycle for which the charge is made, in which case one-thirtieth of the monthly rate may be charged for each day the unpaid balance is outstanding.

(2) The average daily unpaid balance of the open end account in the billing cycle for which the charge is made, which is the sum of the amount unpaid each day during that cycle divided by the number of days in that cycle. The amount unpaid on a day is determined by adding to any balance unpaid as of the beginning of that day all advances and other debits and deducting all payments and other credits made or received as of that day.

The billing cycle shall be monthly. A billing cycle is monthly if the closing date of the cycle is the same date each month or does not vary by more than four days from the regular date.

(c) No licensee shall enter into any agreement for an open end consumer loan that provides for a minimum monthly payment that would result in the full repayment of principal over more than the maximum periods set forth below opposite the respective size of loans.

Principal amount of loan	Maximum period
Less than $1,500.....	24 months and 15 days
$1,500 but less than $2,500 ..	36 months and 15 days
$2,500 but less than $4,000 ..	48 months and 15 days
$4,000 but less than $5,000 ..	60 months and 15 days

The minimum payment shall be determined by the amount of the initial loan advance and shall continue at that amount until a subsequent loan advance is made, at which time the minimum payment shall be determined by the amount of the unpaid balance of the loan after the advance and including the advance. Minimum payments after each advance shall be determined in the same manner.

(d) On open end loans the licensee may contract for and receive the fees, costs, and expenses permitted on other loans, including those permitted by subdivisions (a), (b), (c), and (d) of Section 24458 and subdivision (d) of Section 24458.1, except that the charge for credit life insurance under Section 24458.1 shall be on a monthly basis and shall be actuarially consistent with the single premium rate for the same coverage approved or fixed by the Insurance Commissioner under Section 24458.1, or in accordance with a schedule of monthly rates filed with and not disapproved by the Insurance Commissioner.

(e) A licensee may not take real property as security, in whole or in part, for an open end loan under this section.

(f) Sections 24454 and 24455 shall apply to open end loans with the following variations:

(1) To comply with Section 24454, the loan contract shall provide for payment of minimum payments complying with subdivision (c).

(2) To comply with Section 24455, the licensee shall deliver to or at the direction of the borrower at the time of each loan advance an amount equal to the face value of the advance.

(g) In lieu of subdivision (a) of Section 24458.1, Section 24468, and subdivision (a) of Section 24473, the following provisions shall apply to open end loans:

(1) A licensee may provide insurance on the life of one or more borrowers, with his or her consent, the form to be approved by the Insurance Commissioner, and in an amount not in excess of the amount of the indebtedness. If life insurance is provided, and if the insured dies when there is an outstanding open end loan indebtedness, the insurance shall be sufficient to pay the total amount due on the loan outstanding on the date of his or her death without any exception, reservation or limitation. Any life insurance as is provided shall be in force as soon as the loan is made or coverage is agreed upon, whichever is later. No credit life insurance written in connection with an open end loan shall be canceled by the lender because of delinquency of the borrower in the making of the minimum payments thereon unless one or more of the payments is past due for a period of 90 days or more, and the lender shall advance to the insurer the amounts required to keep the insurance in force during that period, which amounts may be debited to the borrower's account.

(2) The open end loan agreement shall contain the name, address, and license number of the consumer finance lender and shall disclose the nature of the security taken, if any, the method of determining the minimum payments which will be required to repay the initial advance and any subsequent advances on the loan, and the agreed rate of charge.

(3) Except in the case of an account which the licensee deems to be uncollectible, or with respect to which delinquency collection procedures have been instituted, the licensee shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the borrower, or any one thereof, for each billing cycle at the end of which there is an outstanding balance in the account or with respect to which a finance charge is imposed, a statement setting forth the outstanding balance in the account at the beginning of the billing cycle, the date and amount of any subsequent loan advance during the period, the amounts and dates of crediting to the account during the billing cycle for payments, the amount of any finance charge debited to the account during the billing cycle, the annual percentage rate of finance charge determined under Regulation Z promulgated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (12 C.F.R. 226 et seq.), the balance on which the finance charge was computed, the closing date of the billing cycle, the outstanding balance on that date, and the minimum monthly payment required in the absence of any additional advance. If there has been any change in the nature of the security for the loan since the next preceding advance, the statement shall contain or be accompanied by a statement of the nature of the security for the loan after such change.

(h) Subdivision (e) of Section 24473 shall not apply to an open end loan with respect to which there is no balance outstanding if the open end loan agreement continues in effect.

(i) Section 24480 shall not apply to open end loans.

(j) Nothing in this section may be construed to limit the authority of the commissioner to disapprove advertising with respect to open end loans pursuant to Section 24414.

(k) This section shall not apply to loans other than open end loans.

SEC. 18. Section 24454 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

24454. Except as provided in Section 24451.3 and in Article 3 (commencing with Section 24480), all charges on loans made under this division shall be computed and paid only as a percentage per month of the unpaid principal balance or portions thereof, and shall be so expressed in every obligation signed by the borrower. The charges on loans shall be computed on the basis of the number of days actually elapsed, for the purpose of which computations a month is any period of 30 consecutive days. The loan contract shall provide for payment of the aggregate amount contracted to be paid in substantially equal periodical installments, the first of which shall be due not less than 15 days nor more than 1 month and 15 days from the date the loan is made.

This section shall not apply to open end loans.

SEC. 19. Section 24470 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

24470. No licensee shall enter into any contract for a loan that provides for a scheduled repayment of principal over more than the maximum terms set forth below opposite the respective size of loans.

Principal amount of loan	Maximum term
Less than $1,500.....	24 months and 15 days
$1,500 but less than $2,500 ..	36 months and 15 days
$2,500 but less than $4,000 ..	48 months and 15 days
$4,000 but less than $6,000 ..	60 months and 15 days
$6,000 but less than $10,000	84 months and 15 days

This section shall not apply to open end loans.

SEC. 20. Section 26054.1 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

26054.1. In determining whether a loan is a loan of a bona fide principal amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more, the following principles shall apply:

(a) If a borrower applies for a loan in a principal amount of less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) and a loan to that borrower of a principal amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more is made by a licensed commercial finance lender, no adequate economic reason for the increase in the size of the loan exists, and by prearrangement or understanding between the borrower and the licensee a substantial payment is to be made upon the loan with the effect of reducing the principal amount of the loan to less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) within a short time after the making of the loan other than by reason of a requirement that the loan be paid in substantially equal periodical installments, then the loan shall not be deemed to be a loan of the bona fide principal amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more.

(b) A subsequent advance of money of less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) pursuant to a revolving or open end loan agreement or similar agreement between a borrower and a licensed commercial finance lender which gives the borrower the right to draw upon all or any part of the line of credit, or a loan agreement providing for the making of advances to the borrower from time to time up to an aggregate maximum amount which gives the borrower the right to draw all or any part of the total amount, shall be deemed to be a loan of a principal amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more if the line of credit or the aggregate maximum amount is five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more and the initial advance was five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more even though the actual unpaid balance after the advance or at any other time is less than five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(c) If a loan made by a licensed commercial finance lender is in a principal amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more, the fact that the transaction is in the form of a sale of accounts, chattel paper, contract rights, goods, or instruments, or a lease of goods, or in the form of an advance on the purchase price of any of the foregoing, shall not be deemed to affect the bona fides of the amount thereof.

SEC. 21. Section 26057 of the Financial Code is repealed.

CHAPTER 59

An act to add Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 5050) to Division 6 of Title 1 of the Government Code, relating to public obligations in registered form, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 2, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 5050) is added to Division 6 of Title 1 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 1.5. REGISTERED PUBLIC OBLIGATIONS

5050. This chapter may be cited as the Registered Public Obligations Act of California.

5051. As used in this chapter, the following terms have the following meanings, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Authorized officer" means any individual required or permitted, alone or with others, by any provision of law or by the issuing public entity, to execute on behalf of the public entity a certificated registered public obligation or a writing relating to an uncertificated registered public obligation.

(b) "Certificated registered public obligation" means a registered public obligation which is represented by an instrument.

(c) "Code" means the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended.

(d) "Facsimile seal" means the reproduction by engraving, imprinting, stamping, or other means of the seal of the issuer, official or official body.

(e) "Facsimile signature" means the reproduction by engraving, imprinting, stamping, or other means of a manual signature.

(f) "Financial intermediary" means a bank, broker, clearing corporation, or other person, or the nominee of any of them, which in the ordinary course of its business maintains registered public obligation accounts for its customers, when so acting.

(g) "Issuer" means a public entity which issues an obligation.

(h) "Obligation" means an agreement of a public entity to pay principal and any interest thereon, whether in the form of a contract to repay borrowed money, a lease, an installment purchase agreement, or otherwise, and includes a share, participation, or other interest in any such agreement.

(i) "Official actions" means the actions by statute, order, ordinance, resolution, contract, or other authorized means by which the issuer provides for issuance of a registered public obligation.

(j) "Official or official body" means the officer or board that is empowered under the laws of this state to provide for original issuance of an obligation of the issuer, by defining the obligation and its terms, conditions, and other incidents, the successor or successors of any such official or official body, and such other person or group or persons as shall be assigned duties of such official or official body with respect to a registered public obligation under applicable law from time to time.

(k) "Public entity" means any entity, department, or agency which is empowered under the laws of this state, to issue obligations any interest with respect to which may, under provision of law, be provided an exemption from the income tax referred to in the code. The term "public entity" may thus include, without limitation, the state, an entity deriving powers from and acting pursuant to the State Constitution or a special legislative act, a political subdivision, a municipal corporation, a state university or college, a school or other special district, a joint agreement entity, a public authority, a public trust, a nonprofit corporation, and other organizations.

(l) "Registered public obligation" means an obligation issued by a public entity pursuant to a system of registration.

(m) "System of registration" and its variants means a plan that provides:

(i) With respect to a certificated registered public obligation that (1) the certificated registered public obligation specify a person entitled to the registered public obligation and the rights it represents, and (2) transfer of the certificated registered public obligation and the rights it represents may be registered upon books maintained for that purpose by or on behalf of the issuer; and

(ii) With respect to an uncertificated registered public obligation, that (1) books maintained by or on behalf of the issuer for the purpose of registration of the transfer of a registered public obligation specify a person entitled to the registered public obligation and the rights evidenced thereby, and (2) transfer of the uncertificated registered public obligation and the rights evidenced thereby be registered upon such books.

(n) "Uncertificated registered public obligation" means a registered public obligation which is not represented by an instrument.

5052. (a) The code provides that interest with respect to certain obligations may not be exempt from federal income taxation unless they are in registered form. It is, therefore, a matter of state concern that public entities be authorized to provide for the issuance of obligations in such form. It is a purpose of this chapter to empower all public entities to establish and maintain a system pursuant to which obligations may be issued in registered form within the meaning of the applicable provisions of the code.

(b) Obligations have traditionally been issued in bearer rather than in registered form, and a change from bearer to registered form may affect the relationships, rights, and duties of issuers of, and the persons that deal with obligations, and by such effect, the costs. Such effects will impact the various issuers and varieties of obligations differently depending on their legal and financial characteristics, their markets, and their adaptability to recent and prospective technological and organizational developments. It is, therefore, a matter of state concern that public entities be provided flexibility in the development of such systems and control over system incidents, so as to accommodate such differing impacts. It is a purpose of this chapter to empower the establishment and maintenance, and amendment from time to time, of differing systems of registration of obligations, including systems incidents, so as to accommodate the differing impacts upon issuers and varieties of obligations. It is further a purpose of this chapter to authorize systems that will facilitate the prompt and accurate transfer of registered public obligations and developing practices with regard to the registration and transfer of registered public obligations.

5053. (a) Each issuer is authorized to establish and maintain a system of registration with respect to each obligation which it issues. The system may either be (1) a system pursuant to which only certificated registered public obligations are issued, or (2) a system pursuant to which only uncertificated registered public obligations are issued, or (3) a system pursuant to which both certificated and uncertificated registered public obligations are issued. The issuer may amend, discontinue, and reinstitute any system, from time to time, subject to covenants.

(b) The system shall be established, amended, discontinued, or reinstituted for the issuer by, and shall be maintained for, the issuer as provided by, the official or official body.

(c) The system shall be described in the registered public obligation or in the official actions which provide for original issuance of the registered public obligation, and in subsequent official actions providing for amendments and other matters from time to time. Such description may be by reference to a program of the issuer which is established by the official or official body.

(d) The system shall define the method or methods by which transfer of the registered public obligation shall be effective with respect to the issuer, and by which payment of principal and any interest shall be made. The system may permit the issuance of registered public obligations in any denomination to represent several registered public obligations of smaller denominations. The system may also provide for the form of any certificated registered public obligation or of any writing relating to an uncertificated registered public obligation, for identifying numbers or other designations, for a sufficient supply of certificates for subsequent transfers, for record and payment dates, for varying denominations, for communications to holders or owners of obligations, and for accounting, canceled certificate destruction, registration, and release of security interests, and other incidental matters. Unless the issuer otherwise provides, the record date for interest payable on the first or fifteenth days of a month shall be the fifteenth day or the last business day of the preceding month, respectively, and for interest payable on other than the first or fifteenth days of a month, shall be the fifteenth calendar day before the interest payment date.

(e) Under a system pursuant to which both certificated and uncertificated registered public obligations are issued, both types of registered public obligations may be regularly issued, or one type may be regularly issued and the other type issued only under described circumstances or to particular described categories of owners, and provisions may be made for registration and release of security interests in registered public obligations.

(f) The system may include covenants of the issuer as to amendments, discontinuances, and reinstitutions of the system and the effect of such on the exemption of interest from the income tax provided for by code.

(g) Whenever an issuer shall issue an uncertificated registered public obligation, the system of registration may provide that a true copy of the official actions of the issuer relating to such uncertificated registered public obligation be maintained by the issuer or by the person, if any, maintaining such system on behalf of the issuer, so long as the uncertificated registered public obligation remains outstanding and unpaid. A copy of such official actions, verified to be such by an authorized officer, shall be admissible before any court of record, administrative body, or arbitration panel without further authentication.

(h) Nothing in this chapter shall preclude a conversion from one of the forms of registered public obligations provided for by this chapter to a form of obligation not provided for by this chapter, if interest on the obligation so converted will continue to be exempt from the income tax provided for by the code.

(i) The rights provided by other laws with respect to obligations in forms not provided for by this chapter shall, to the extent not inconsistent with this chapter, apply with respect to registered public obligations issued in forms authorized by this chapter.

5054. (a) A certificated registered public obligation shall be executed by the issuer by the manual or facsimile signature or signatures of authorized officers. Any signature of an authorized officer may be attested by the manual or facsimile signature of another authorized officer.

(b) In addition to the signatures referred to in subdivision (a), any certificated registered public obligation or any writing relating to an uncertificated registered public obligation may include a certificate or certificates signed by the manual or facsimile signature of an authenticating agent, registrar, transfer agent, or the like.

5055. (a) Any certificated registered public obligation signed by the authorized officers at the time of the signing thereof shall remain valid and binding, notwithstanding that before the issuance thereof any or all of such officers shall have ceased to fill their respective offices.

(b) Any authorized officer empowered to sign any certificated registered public obligation may adopt, as and for the signature of such officer, the signature of a predecessor in office in the event that such predecessor's signature appears on such certificated registered public obligation. An authorized officer incurs no liability by adoption of a predecessor's signature that would not be incurred by such authorized officer, if the signature were that of such authorized officer.

5056. When a seal is required or permitted in the execution of any certificated registered public obligation, an authorized officer may cause the seal to be printed, engraved, stamped, or otherwise placed in facsimile thereon. The facsimile seal has the same legal effect as the impression of the seal.

5057. (a) An issuer may appoint for such term as may be agreed, including for so long as a registered public obligation may be outstanding, corporate or other authenticating agents, transfer agents, registrars, paying or other agents, and specify the terms of their appointment, including their rights, their compensation and duties, limits upon their liabilities and provision for their payment of liquidated damages in the event of breach of certain of the duties imposed, which liquidated damages may be made payable to the issuer, the owner or a financial intermediary. None of such agents need have an office or do business within this state.

(b) An issuer may agree with custodian banks and financial intermediaries, and nominees of any of them, in connection with the establishment and maintenance by others of a central depository system for the transfer or pledge of registered public obligations. Any such custodian banks and financial intermediaries, and nominees, if qualified and acting as fiduciaries, may serve also as authenticating agents, transfer agents, registrars, paying or other agents of the issuer with respect to the same issue of registered public obligations.

(c) Nothing shall preclude the issuer from itself performing, either alone or jointly with other issuers, any transfer, registration, authentication, payment, or other function described in this section.

5058. (a) An issuer, prior to or at original issuance of registered public obligations, may provide as a part of a system of registration that the transferor or transferee of the registered public obligations pay all or a designated part of the costs of the system as a condition precedent to transfer, that costs be paid out of proceeds of the registered public obligations, or that both methods be used. The portion of the costs of the system not provided to be paid for by the transferor or transferee or out of proceeds shall be the liability of the issuer.

(b) The issuer may, as part of a system of registration, provide for reimbursement or for satisfaction of its liability by payment by others. The issuer may enter into agreements with others respecting such reimbursement or payment, may establish fees and charges pursuant to such agreements or otherwise, and may provide that the amount or estimated amount of such fees and charges shall be reimbursed or paid from the same sources and by means of the same collection and enforcement procedures and with the same priority and effect as with respect to the obligations.

5059. Obligations issued by public entities under the laws of this state, which are in registered form, whether or not represented by an instrument, and which, except for their form, satisfy the requirements with regard to security for deposits of moneys of public agencies prescribed pursuant to any law of this state, shall be deemed to satisfy all such requirements, even though they are in registered form, if a security interest in such obligations is perfected on behalf of the public agencies whose moneys are so deposited.

5060. (a) Records, with regard to the ownership of or security interests in registered public obligations, are not subject to inspection or copying under any law of this state relating to the right of the public to inspect or copy public records, notwithstanding any law to the contrary.

(b) Registration records of the issuer may be maintained at such locations within or without this state as the issuer shall determine.

5061. (a) Unless at any time prior to or at original issuance of a registered public obligation the official or official body of the issuer determines otherwise, this chapter shall be applicable to such registered public obligation notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary. When this chapter is applicable, no contrary provision shall apply.

(b) Nothing in this chapter limits or prevents the issuance of obligations in any other form or manner authorized by law.

(c) Unless determined otherwise pursuant to subdivision (a), the provisions of this chapter shall be applicable with respect to obligations which have heretofore been approved by vote, referendum, or hearing, authorizing or permitting the authorization of obligations in bearer and registered form, or in bearer form only, and such obligations need not be resubmitted for a further vote, referendum, or hearing, for the purpose of authorizing or permitting the authorization of registered public obligations pursuant to this chapter.

5062. This chapter shall be construed in conjunction with the Uniform Commercial Code and the principles of contract law relative to the registration and transfer of obligations.

SEC. 2. If any provision or the application of any provision of this act shall be invalid, it shall not affect the validity of other provisions or other applications, it hereby being declared that the provisions or the applications of this act are separable and this act would have been enacted with the invalid provision omitted or without the invalid application in any event.

Subsection (j) of Section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 denies exemption from the income tax referred to in paragraph (1) thereof of interest on any obligation required by subsection (j) to be in registered form and which is not in such form. Many laws relating to the issuance of obligations do not provide the authorization for compliance and its incidents. Consequently, in order to enable all issuers to comply, so as to prevent substantial additional financing costs or delays in the financing of projects, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 60

An act to amend Section 72410 of the Education Code, and to amend Section 1253.3 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to education, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[ Approved by Governor June 2, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 2, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 72410 of the Education Code is amended to read:

72410. (a) No governing board shall affix the title of deputy, associate, or assistant superintendent to any position not defined by this code as a position requiring certification qualifications or which does not qualify under the provisions set forth by the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges as a position requiring certification qualifications. These titles may, however, be assigned to the position of business manager or a related business position. Except as provided in subdivision (b), the position shall not, if so designated, require certification qualifications, nor shall the employee be deemed to be a certificated employee.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, when the title of deputy, associate, assistant superintendent, vice president, or vice chancellor has been affixed to the position of business manager of a community college district having resident average daily attendance of more than 12,000, the governing board of the district may, without reference to the certification qualifications of the business manager, appoint, employ, and terminate persons holding the position in accordance with provisions of this code which apply to certificated administrative employees.

SEC. 2. Section 1253.3 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1253.3. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, unemployment compensation benefits, extended duration benefits, and federal-state extended benefits are payable on the basis of service to which Section 3309(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 applies, in the same amount, on the same terms, and subject to the same conditions as such benefits payable on the basis of other service subject to this division, except as provided by this section.

(b) Benefits specified by subdivision (a) of this section based on service performed in the employ of a nonprofit organization, or of any public entity as defined by Section 605, or of any federally operated school, with respect to service in an instructional, research, or principal administrative capacity for an educational institution shall not be payable to any individual with respect to any week which begins during the period between two successive academic years or terms or, when an agreement provides instead for a similar period between two regular but not successive terms, during that period, or during a period of paid sabbatical leave provided for in the individual's contract, if the individual performs services in the first of the academic years or terms and if there is a contract or a reasonable assurance that the individual will perform services for any educational institution in the second of the academic years or terms.

(c) Benefits specified by subdivision (a) of this section based on service performed in the employ of a nonprofit organization, or of any public entity as defined by Section 605, or of any federally operated school, with respect to service in any other capacity than specified in subdivision (b) for an educational institution shall not be payable to any individual with respect to any week which commences during a period between two successive academic years or terms if the individual performs the service in the first of the academic years or terms and there is a reasonable assurance that the individual will perform the service in the second of the academic years or terms, except that the individual shall be entitled to a retroactive payment of benefits for each week for which benefits are denied solely by reason of this subdivision commencing with the week during which a timely claim for benefits is filed, if the individual is not offered an opportunity to perform the services for the educational institution for the second of the academic years or terms, and if the individual is otherwise eligible except for the requirement that he or she file a claim for each week benefits are claimed. A claim for retroactive benefits may be made no later than 30 days following the commencement of the second academic year or term.

(d) Benefits specified by subdivision (a) of this section based on service performed in the employ of a nonprofit organization, or of any public entity as defined by Section 605, or of any federally operated school, with respect to services specified by subdivision (b) or (c), shall not be payable to any individual with respect to any week which commences during an established and customary vacation period or holiday recess if the individual performs the services in the period immediately before the vacation period or holiday recess, and there is a reasonable assurance that the individual will perform the services in the period immediately following the vacation period or holiday recess.

(e) For purposes of this section, "reasonable assurance" includes, but is not limited to, an offer of employment made by the educational institution, provided that the offer is not contingent on enrollment, funding, or program changes.

(f) For purposes of this section, if the time for service performed during the period of and pursuant to any contract for any academic year or term by an individual for any employing unit as specified in subdivision (b) or (c) constitutes one-half or more of the time in total service performed for the employing unit by the individual during that same period for remuneration, all the services of the individual for the employing unit for that period shall be deemed subject to the benefit payment restriction provisions of this section.

(g) Subdivisions (b), (c), and (d) of this section shall not apply to nonprofessional workers employed by the Fremont or Riverside campus of the California School for the Deaf, the Fremont campus of the California School for the Blind, or the diagnostic schools for the neurologically handicapped located in Los Angeles, San Francisco, and Fresno. These nonprofessional workers are not defined as school employees.

(h) Any public entity as defined by Section 605, with respect to any individual performing a service in any other capacity other than specified in subdivision (b) for an educational institution, shall provide the following in writing to the individual no later than 30 days before the end of the first of the academic year or term.

A statement which indicates the following:

(1) Whether or not there is a reasonable assurance of reemployment.

(2) Whether or not it is stated that the individual has no reasonable assurance of reemployment, that the individual should file a claim for benefits at the close of the academic year or term.

(3) If it is stated that the individual has reasonable assurance of reemployment, the written statement shall also inform the employee that he or she may file a claim for benefits and that the determination for eligibility for benefits is made by the Employment Development Department and not by the employer.

(4) If it is stated that the individual has reasonable assurance of reemployment, that the individual shall be entitled to a retroactive payment of benefits if the individual is not offered an opportunity to perform the services for the educational institution for the second of the academic years or terms, if the individual is otherwise eligible except for the requirement that he or she file a claim for each week benefits are claimed, and if a claim for retroactive benefits is made no later than 30 days following the commencement of the second academic year or term.

SEC. 3. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the Legislature finds and declares that there are savings as well as costs in this act which, in the aggregate, do not result in additional net costs.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 2231.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, this act does not contain a repealer, as required by that section; therefore, the provisions of this act shall remain in effect unless and until they are amended or repealed by a later enacted act.

In order to effect state compliance with the provisions of the federal Social Security Reform Act of 1983 that deem nonprofessional school employees between terms ineligible for unemployment insurance compensation benefits, which compliance is necessary to avoid the loss to the State of California of $270 million in federal grants and the loss to California employers of $1.7 billion in federal unemployment tax credits, and in order to decrease unduly burdensome administration costs associated with the employment, appointment, and termination of business managers of community college districts, it is essential that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 61

An act to add Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 1899) to Title 4 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, relating to loans of property to museums.

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 2, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 1899) is added to Title 4 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, to read:

CHAPTER 1.5. LOANS TO MUSEUMS FOR INDEFINITE OR LONG TERMS

1899. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) Many museums have benefited greatly from having property loaned to them for study or display. Problems have arisen, however, in connection with loans for indefinite or long terms, when museums and lenders have failed to maintain contact. Many of these problems could be avoided by a clarification and regularization of the rights and obligations of the parties to loans for indefinite or long terms.

(b) An existing law, the Unclaimed Property Law (commencing with Section 1500 of the Code of Civil Procedure), is technically applicable to property on loan to a museum which has been left unclaimed by its owner for at least seven years.

(c) While the Unclaimed Property Law addresses problems similar to those which arise in the museum context when the parties to loans fail to maintain contact, there is need for an alternative method of dealing with unclaimed property in the hands of museums, one tailored to the unique circumstances of unclaimed loans to museums. These circumstances include the likelihood that the unclaimed property has significant scientific, historical, aesthetic, or cultural value but does not have great monetary value; that the public's interest in the intangible values of unclaimed property loaned to museums can best be realized if title is transferred to the museums holding the property; that often lenders intend eventually to donate property but place it on indefinite or long term loan initially for tax and other reasons; and that many museums have incurred unreimbursed expenses in caring for and storing unclaimed loaned property.

(d) There is an inherent tendency for the condition of tangible property to change over time. Loaned property often requires conservation work and conservation measures may be expensive or potentially detrimental to the property. Organic materials and specimens may serve as breeding grounds for insects, fungi, or diseases which threaten other more valuable property.

(e) Museums cannot reasonably be expected to make decisions regarding conservation or disposition of loaned property at their own risk and expense. Over time, however, lenders die or move, and museums and lenders lose contact. If a lender has failed to maintain contact with a museum, it is often impossible to locate the lender so that the lender can make decisions regarding conservation or disposition of loaned property.

(f) Since museums rarely relocate, it is easier for lenders, and those who claim through them, to notify museums of address or ownership changes so that museums can readily contact lenders when decisions must be made regarding conservation or disposition of loaned property.

(g) The best evidence of ownership of property on loan to a museum is generally the original loan receipt. The longer property remains on loan, the less likely it is that the original lender will claim it, and the more likely it is that any claim which is made will be made by someone who does not have the original loan receipt or other clear evidence of ownership. The state has a substantial interest in cutting off stale and uncertain claims to tangible personal property loaned to nonprofit and public museums.

(h) Most of the tangible personal property which escheats to the state under the Unclaimed Property Law is found in safe deposit boxes. Although 40–50 percent of the intangible property which escheats to the state is subsequently claimed, less than 1 percent of escheated tangible personal property is claimed. Of the few claims which are presented to the Controller for tangible personal property, most are presented within two years of the date the Controller gives notice of the escheat.

(i) The public interest is served by requiring lenders to notify museums of changes in address or ownership of loaned property, by establishing a uniform procedure for lenders to preserve their interests in property loaned to museums for indefinite or long terms, and by vesting title to unclaimed property on loan to museums in the museums which have custody of the property.

1899.1. For the purposes of this chapter:

(a) A "museum" is an institution located in California and operated by a nonprofit corporation or public agency, primarily educational, scientific, or aesthetic in purpose, which owns, borrows, or cares for, and studies, archives, or exhibits property.

(b) A "lender's address" is the most recent address as shown on the museum's records pertaining to the property on loan from the lender.

(c) The terms "loan," "loaned," and "on loan" include all deposits of property with a museum which are not accompanied by a transfer of title to the property.

(d) "Property" includes all tangible objects, animate and inanimate, under a museum's care which have intrinsic value to science, history, art, or culture, except that it does not include botanical or zoological specimens loaned to a museum for scientific research purposes.

1899.2. (a) When a museum is required to give a lender notice pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, the museum shall be deemed to have given a lender notice if the museum mails the notice to the lender at the lender's address and proof of receipt is received by the museum within 30 days from the date the notice was mailed. If the museum does not have an address for the lender, or if proof of receipt is not received by the museum, notice shall be deemed given if the museum publishes notice at least once a week for three successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in both the county in which the museum is located and the county of the lender's address, if any.

(b) In addition to any other information prescribed in this chapter, notices given pursuant to it shall contain the lender's name, the lender's address, if known, the date of the loan and, if the notice is being given by the museum, the name, address, and telephone number of the appropriate office or official to be contacted at the museum for information regarding the loan.

(c) For the purposes of this section, a museum is "located" in the county of a branch of the museum to which a loan is made. In all other instances, a museum is located in the county in which it has its principal place of business.

1899.3. (a) If, on or after January 1, 1984, a museum accepts a loan of property for an indefinite term, or for a term in excess of seven years, the museum shall inform the lender in writing at the time of the loan of the provisions of this chapter. A copy of the form notice prescribed in Section 1899.5, or a citation to this chapter, is adequate for this purpose.

(b) Unless the loaned property is returned to the claimant, the museum shall retain for a period of not less than 25 years the original or an accurate copy of each notice filed by a claimant pursuant to Section 1899.4.

(c) The museum shall furnish anyone who files a notice of intent to preserve an interest in property on loan proof of receipt of the notice by mailing an original receipt or a copy of the receipt portion of the form notice prescribed in Section 1899.5 to the lender or other claimant at the address given on the notice within 30 days of receiving the notice.

(d) A museum shall give a lender prompt notice of any known injury to or loss of property on loan.

1899.4. (a) It is the responsibility of the owner of property on loan to a museum to notify the museum promptly in writing of any change of address or change in ownership of the property. Failure to notify the museum of these changes may result in the owner's loss of rights in the property.

(b) The owner of property on loan to a museum may file with the museum a notice of intent to preserve an interest in the property as provided for in Section 1899.5. The filing of a notice of intent to preserve an interest in property on loan to a museum does not validate or make enforceable any claim which would be extinguished under the terms of a written loan agreement, or which would otherwise be invalid or unenforceable.

1899.5. (a) A notice of intent to preserve an interest in property on loan to a museum filed pursuant to this chapter shall be in writing, shall contain a description of the property adequate to enable the museum to identify the property, shall be accompanied by documentation sufficient to establish the claimant as owner of the property, and shall be signed under penalty of perjury by the claimant or by a person authorized to act on behalf of the claimant.

(b) The museum need not retain a notice which does not meet the requirements set forth in subdivision (a). If, however, the museum does not intend to retain a notice for this reason, the museum shall promptly notify the claimant at the address given on the notice that it believes the notice is ineffective to preserve an interest, and the reasons therefor. The fact that the museum retains a notice shall not be construed to mean that the museum accepts the sufficiency or accuracy of the notice or that the notice is effective to preserve an interest in property on loan to the museum.

(c) A notice of intent to preserve an interest in property on loan to a museum which is in substantially the following form, and contains the information and attachments described, satisfies the requirements of subdivision (a):

NOTICE OF INTENT TO PRESERVE AN INTEREST IN PROPERTY ON LOAN TO A MUSEUM

TO THE LENDER: Section 1899.4 of the California Civil Code requires that you notify the museum promptly in writing of any change of address or ownership of the property. If the museum is unable to contact you regarding your loan, you may lose rights in the loaned property. If you choose to file this form with the museum to preserve your interest in the property, the museum is required to maintain it, or a copy of it, for 25 years. For full details, see Section 1899, et seq. of the California Civil Code.

TO THE MUSEUM: You are hereby notified that the undersigned claims an interest in the property described herein.

(d) Notices of intent to preserve an interest in property on loan to a museum filed pursuant to this chapter are exempt from the disclosure requirements of the California Public Records Act (commencing with Section 6250 of the Government Code).

1899.6. (a) Unless there is a written loan agreement to the contrary, a museum may apply conservation measures to or dispose of property on loan to the museum without a lender's permission if:

(1) Immediate action is required to protect the property on loan or to protect other property in the custody of the museum, or because the property on loan has become a hazard to the health and safety of the public or of the museum's staff; and:

(A) The museum is unable to reach the lender at the lender's last address of record so that the museum and the lender can promptly agree upon a solution; or

(B) The lender will not agree to the protective measures the museum recommends, yet is unwilling or unable to terminate the loan and retrieve the property.

(2) In the case of a lender who cannot be contacted in person, the museum publishes a notice containing the information described in subdivision (a) of Section 1899.7 and there is no response for 120 days.

(b) If a museum applies conservation measures to or disposes of property pursuant to subdivision (a):

(1) The museum shall have a lien on the property and on the proceeds from any disposition thereof for the costs incurred by the museum; and

(2) The museum shall not be liable for injury to or loss of the property:

(A) If the museum had a reasonable belief at the time the action was taken that the action was necessary to protect the property on loan or other property in the custody of the museum, or that the property on loan constituted a hazard to the health and safety of the public or the museum's staff; and

(B) If the museum applied conservation measures, the museum exercised reasonable care in the choice and application of the conservation measures.

1899.7. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), if a museum is unable to give the lender the notice required by subdivision (d) of Section 1899.3 of injury to or loss of property on loan by mail, the museum shall be deemed to have given the lender notice of any injury or loss if in addition to the information required by subdivision (b) of Section 1899.2 the published notice includes a statement containing substantially the following information:

"The records of _____

indicate that you have property on loan to it. Your failure to notify it in writing of a change of address or ownership of property on loan or to contact it in writing regarding the loan may result in the loss of rights in the loaned property. See California Civil Code Sections 1899, et seq.”

(b) If, within three years of giving notice of injury to or loss of loaned property by publishing the notice set forth in subdivision (a), the museum receives a notice from a claimant pursuant to Section 1899.4, the museum shall promptly advise the claimant in writing of the nature of the injury to or the fact of the loss of property on loan and the approximate date thereof. For the purposes of the limitation period in Section 1899.8, if the museum mails the information to the claimant within 30 days of the date the museum receives the notice from the claimant, the museum shall be deemed to have given the claimant notice of the injury to or loss of property on loan on the date notice by publication pursuant to subdivision (a) was completed.

1899.8. Effective January 1, 1985, no action shall be brought against a museum for damages because of injury to or loss of property loaned to the museum more than (1) three years from the date the museum gives the lender notice of the injury or loss, or (2) ten years from the date of the injury or loss, whichever occurs earlier.

1899.9. (a) A museum may give the lender notice of the museum's intent to terminate a loan which was made for an indefinite term, or which was made on or after January 1, 1984, for a term in excess of seven years.

A notice of intent to terminate a loan given pursuant to this section shall include a statement containing substantially the following information:

indicate that you have property on loan to it. The institution wishes to terminate the loan. You must contact the institution, establish your ownership of the property, and make arrangements to collect the property. If you fail to do so promptly, you will be deemed to have donated the property to the institution. See California Civil Code Sections 1899, et seq.”

(b) For the purposes of this chapter, a loan for a specified term becomes a loan for an indefinite term if the property remains in the custody of the museum when the specified term expires.

1899.10. (a) The three-year limitation on actions to recover personal property prescribed in Code of Civil Procedure Section 338.3 shall run from the date the museum gives the lender notice of its intent to terminate the loan pursuant to Section 1899.9.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (e), effective January 1, 1985, no action shall be brought against a museum to recover property on loan when more than 25 years have passed from the date of the last written contact between the lender and the museum, as evidenced in the museum's records.

(c) A lender shall be deemed to have donated loaned property to a museum if the lender fails to file an action to recover the property on loan to the museum within the periods specified in subdivisions

(a) and (b).

(d) One who purchases property from a museum acquires good title to the property if the museum represents that it has acquired title to the property pursuant to subdivision (c).

(e) Notwithstanding subdivisions (b) and (c), a lender who was not given notice that the museum intended to terminate a loan and who proves that the museum received a notice of intent to preserve an interest in loaned property within the 25 years immediately preceding the filing of an action to recover the property may recover the property or, if the property has been disposed of, the reasonable value of the property at the time the property was disposed of with interest at the rate on judgments set by the Legislature pursuant to Section 1 of Article XV of the California Constitution.

1899.11. (a) The provisions of this chapter supersede the provisions of the Unclaimed Property Law (commencing with Section 1500 of the Code of Civil Procedure) except that at its option, a museum may report property which has been on loan unclaimed by its owner for more than seven years to the Controller pursuant to Section 1530 of the Code of Civil Procedure for disposition in accordance with the provisions of the Unclaimed Property Law.

(b) Not less than six months or more than 12 months before reporting any loaned property to the Controller, a museum shall mail to the lender at the lender's address, if known, a notice of intent to report the property to the Controller. The notice shall include a statement containing substantially the following information:

(name of museum)

indicate that you have property on loan to the institution. The institution wishes to terminate the loan. You must contact the institution, establish your ownership of the property and make arrangements to collect the property before _____ or the property will be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of the Unclaimed Property Law (commencing with Section 1500 of the Code of Civil Procedure)."

SEC. 2. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the Legislature finds and declares that there are savings as well as costs in this act which, in the aggregate, do not result in additional net costs.

CHAPTER 62

An act to amend Section 19286 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor June 8, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State June 9, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19286 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19286. (a) The Franchise Tax Board may permit the Commissioner of Internal Revenue of the United States, or other tax officials of this state, or the Multistate Tax Commission, or the proper officer of any state imposing an income tax or a tax measured by income, or the authorized representative of any such officer, to inspect the income tax returns of any individual, estate, trust, or partnership, or may furnish to such commission, or the officer or the authorized representative thereof an abstract of the return of income of any taxpayer or supply thereto information concerning any item of income contained in any return or disclosed by the report of any investigation of the income or return of income of any taxpayer. Such information shall be furnished to the Multistate Tax Commission, such federal or state officer or his representative for tax purposes only. Except when furnished pursuant to a written agreement, information furnished pursuant to this section, shall be furnished only if the request is in the form of an affidavit under penalty of perjury stating that the purpose for the request relates to an investigation of the tax specified in the request and that the information will be used in the ordinary performance of the applicant's official duties.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a), tax officials of political subdivisions of this state shall request information from the Franchise Tax Board by affidavit only. At the time a tax official makes the request, he or she shall provide the affected taxpayer with a copy of the affidavit and, upon request, make the information obtained available to the taxpayer.

CHAPTER 63

An act to amend Section 20642 of the Public Contract Code, relating to municipal water districts.

[Approved by Governor June 8, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 9, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20642 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

20642. When work is not to be done by the district itself by force account, and the amount involved is twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), or more, any contract for the doing of such work shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder, after publication, in the manner prescribed by the board, of notices inviting bids therefor. However, the board may reject any and all proposals.

CHAPTER 64

An act to amend Section 17504 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to advertising of consumer goods.

[Approved by Governor June 8, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 9, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17504 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

17504. (a) Any person, partnership, corporation, firm, joint stock company, association, or organization engaged in business in this state as a retail seller who sells any consumer good or service which is sold only in multiple units and which is advertised by price shall advertise such goods or services at the price of the minimum multiple unit in which they are offered.

(b) Nothing contained in subdivision (a) shall prohibit a retail seller from advertising any consumer good for sale at a single unit price where such goods are sold only in multiple units and not in single units as long as the advertisement also discloses, at least as prominently, the price of the minimum multiple unit in which they are offered.

(c) For purposes of subdivision (a), "consumer good" means any article which is used or bought for use primarily for personal, family, or household purposes, but does not include any food item.

(d) For the purposes of subdivision (a), "consumer service" means any service which is obtained for use primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

(e) For purposes of subdivision (a), "retail seller" means an individual, firm, partnership, corporation, joint stock company, association, organization, or other legal relationship which engages in the business of selling consumer goods or services to retail buyers.

CHAPTER 65

An act to amend Section 6501 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to barbers.

[Approved by Governor June 8, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 9, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6501 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6501. One member of the board shall be a journeyman barber who has actively engaged in the practice of barbering in this state for at least five years immediately prior to his or her appointment. One member of the board shall be either a registered barber who has actively engaged in the practice of barbering for five years in this state and who is presently engaged in the management of a barber college as the owner of the barber college, or as a member of a partnership or officer of a corporation which owns a barber college, or a registered barber who has actively engaged in the practice of barbering in this state for at least five years immediately prior to his or her appointment and who presently employs one or more journeymen barbers. Nothing in this section shall make ineligible for appointment to the board of one person who has been a registered barber in this state for at least five years immediately prior to his or her appointment and whose work as organizer, or officer, of an organization directly affecting the welfare of the barber business, prevents his or her continuous practice as a barber.

The public members shall not be licentiates of the board.

CHAPTER 66

An act to amend Section 12804 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor June 10, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 10, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12804 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

12804. (a) The examination shall include a test of the applicant's knowledge and understanding of the provisions of this code governing the operation of vehicles upon the highways, the ability to read and understand simple English used in highway traffic and directional signs, and his understanding of traffic signs and signals, including the bikeway signs, markers, and traffic control devices established by the Department of Transportation. The applicant shall be required to give an actual demonstration of his ability to exercise ordinary and reasonable control in operating a motor vehicle by driving it under the supervision of an examining officer and submit to an examination appropriate to the type of motor vehicle or combination of vehicles he or she desires a license to drive, except that the department may waive the driving test part of the examination of an applicant who holds a valid license issued by another state, territory, or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. The examination shall also include a test of the hearing and eyesight of the applicant and other matters that may be necessary to determine the applicant's mental and physical fitness to operate a motor vehicle upon the highways and whether any ground exists for refusal of a license under this code. The examination for a class 1 or class 2 license under subdivision (b) shall also include a report of a medical examination of the applicant given not more than two years prior to the date of the application by a physician licensed to practice medicine. The report shall be on a form approved by the department or by the Federal Highway Administration or the Federal Aviation Administration. In establishing the requirements, consideration may be given to the standards presently required of motor carrier drivers by the Federal Highway Administration of the United States Department of Transportation. Any physical defect of the applicant, which, in the opinion of the department, is compensated to insure safe driving ability, shall not prevent the issuance of a license to the applicant.

(b) In accordance with the following classifications, any applicant for a driver's license shall be required to submit to an examination appropriate to the type of motor vehicle or combination of vehicles the applicant desires a license to drive:

(1) Class 1. Any combination of vehicles and includes the operation of all vehicles under class 2 and class 3.

(2) Class 2. Any bus, any single vehicle with three or more axles, any such vehicles towing another vehicle weighing less than 6,000 pounds gross, and all vehicles covered under class 3.

(3) Class 3. A three-axle housecar, any three-axle vehicle weighing less than 6,000 pounds gross, any two-axle vehicle, any three-axle housecar or vehicle towing another vehicle weighing less than 6,000 pounds gross, and any two-axle vehicle weighing 4,000 pounds or more unladen when towing either a trailer coach not exceeding 9,000 pounds gross or a trailer or semitrailer not exceeding 9,000 pounds gross designed and used exclusively for hauling livestock, or a trailer not exceeding 9,000 pounds gross used to transport agricultural products from a farm to a processing or handling point, or a trailer transporting a boat not exceeding 9,000 pounds gross, when the hauling of livestock or agricultural products or the towing of boats is not for compensation, or any schoolbus, school pupil activity bus, youth bus, or farm labor vehicle, as specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (d), except any other bus, two-wheel motorcycle, or two-wheel motor-driven cycle.

(4) Class 4. Any two-wheel motorcycle, any two-wheel motor-driven cycle, or any motorized bicycle. Authority to operate vehicles included in a class 4 license may be granted by endorsement on a class 1, 2, or 3 license upon completion of appropriate examination.

(c) Class 1 and class 2 driver's licenses shall be valid for operating class 1 or class 2 vehicles only when a medical certificate approved by the department or the Federal Highway Administration or the Federal Aviation Administration is in the licensee's immediate possession which has been issued within two years of the date of the operation of that vehicle, otherwise the license shall be valid only for operating class 3 vehicles and class 4 vehicles if so endorsed.

(d) (1) A class 3 license shall be valid for operating any schoolbus, school pupil activity bus, youth bus, or farm labor vehicle when a special driver's certificate to permit the operation of those vehicles is also in the immediate possession of the licensee. A class 3 license shall also be valid for operating any of those vehicles with no passengers aboard while receiving behind-the-wheel driver training from a person having in his or her immediate possession a special driver's certificate to permit the operation of the vehicle.

(2) A special driver certificate for the operation of a schoolbus, school pupil activity bus, youth bus, or farm labor vehicle shall not be valid unless the driver has, in his or her immediate possession, a medical certificate issued within the past two years.

(e) The department may accept a certificate of driving experience in lieu of a driving test on class 1 or 2 applications when the certificate is issued by an employer of the applicant, provided the applicant has first qualified for a class 3 license and also met the other examination requirements for the license for which he or she is applying. The certificate may be submitted as evidence of the applicant's experience or training in the operation of the types of equipment covered by the license for which he or she is applying.

(f) The department may accept a certificate of competence in lieu of a driving test on class 4 applications when the certificate is issued by a law enforcement agency for its officers who operate class 4 vehicles in their duties, provided the applicant has also met the other examination requirements for the license for which he or she is applying.

(g) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), any person holding a valid California driver's license of any class may operate a motorized bicycle without taking any special examination for the operation of a motorized bicycle and without having a class 4 endorsement on that license.

(h) Drivers of vanpool vehicles, may operate with class 3 licenses, but shall possess evidence of a medical examination required for a class 2 license when operating vanpool vehicles. The driver shall keep in the vanpool vehicle a statement signed under penalty of perjury that he or she has not been convicted of reckless driving, drunk driving, or a hit and run offense in the last five years in order to be eligible to drive the vanpool vehicle.

CHAPTER 67

An act to amend Section 100450 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to transit districts.

[Approved by Governor June 10, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 10, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 100450 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

100450. The district may issue bonds, payable from revenue of any facility or enterprise to be acquired or constructed by the district, in the manner provided by the Revenue Bond Law of 1941 (Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 54300) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code), all of the provisions of which are applicable to the district, except that these bonds may be paid, in whole or in part, from revenues made available under Article 9 (commencing with Section 100250) of Chapter 5 and, in such a case, the bonds may be issued without an election if the resolution authorizing the bonds provides that the retail transactions and use tax shall continue to be imposed under that Article 9 until the bonds are fully paid or provision has made for their payment in full.

CHAPTER 68

An act to amend Section 41856 of the Education Code, to amend Section 3 of Chapter 106 of the Statutes of 1980, to amend Section 1 of Chapter 30 of the Statutes of 1981, and to amend Section 4 of Chapter 88 of the Statutes of 1982, relating to education, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 10, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 10, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

41856. (a) For the 1981-82 fiscal year, from Section A of the State School Fund the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall apportion to each school district the amount of its approved home-to-school transportation costs for the previous fiscal year, but not to exceed 1.06 times the sum of the reduction made pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 42241, the state reimbursement received in the prior fiscal year for home-to-school transportation costs, and the state apportionment, if any, received in the prior fiscal year pursuant to former Section 41855. Districts not submitting a 1979-80 fiscal year State Department of Education transportation cost report for approval may do so and the superintendent shall determine the approved costs in the same manner as for those districts having submitted a report.

(b) For the 1982-83 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, from Section A of the State School Fund, the superintendent shall apportion to each district the amount apportioned in the 1981-82 fiscal year pursuant to subdivision (a) reduced by the amount added to the district revenue limit pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 42241.4 or to be increased by the amount subtracted from the district revenue limit pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 42241.4, whichever is applicable, cumulatively increased by the amount provided in the Budget Act.

(c) In no event shall the amount apportioned pursuant to subdivision (b) exceed the district's actual approved home-to-school transportation costs for the prior fiscal year, except that an elementary school district located in a remote, sparsely populated area with less than 30 units of average daily attendance which contracts with a high school district for the home-to-school transportation of pupils shall be reimbursed for the additional contract costs caused by an increase in the total number of pupils transported in the 1982-83 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter.

SEC. 2. Section 3 of Chapter 106 of the Statutes of 1980 is amended to read:

Sec. 3. The governing board of the Curtis Creek Elementary School District may continue to use the building referred to in Section 1 until June 30, 1983. The governing board of the Columbia Union Elementary School District may continue to use the building referred to in Section 2 until June 30, 1985. During such period of continued use, the buildings shall not be subject to any of the provisions of Article 3 (commencing with Section 39140) or Article 6 (commencing with Section 39210) of Chapter 2 of Part 23 of the Education Code.

SEC. 3. The Tahoe Truckee Unified School District is conducting its continuation high school program in a structure which does not conform to the so-called Field Act. The structure is wooden with a concrete foundation and is leased from the Tahoe City Recreation District. Due to a substantial school district deficit, coupled with prohibitive rents on buildings available in the area, a move to more suitable facilities would be detrimental to the school district as a whole. It is necessary, therefore, that the existing structure continue to be used if the continuation high school program is to continue to exist.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 39227 of the Education Code, the governing board of the Tahoe Truckee Unified School District may use until June 30, 1985, the existing building described in Section 3 to conduct its continuation high school program.

During the period of use authorized by this section, the building shall not be subject to Article 3 (commencing with Section 39140) or Article 6 (commencing with Section 39210) of Chapter 2 of Part 23 of the Education Code.

SEC. 5. Section 1 of Chapter 30 of the Statutes of 1981 is amended to read:

Section 1. Notwithstanding Section 39227 of the Education Code, the Governing Board of the San Ramon Valley Unified School District may use facilities known as Twin Creeks Elementary School. During the period of use authorized by this section, the building and related facilities shall not be subject to Article 3 (commencing with Section 39140) or Article 6 (commencing with Section 39210) of Chapter 2 of Part 23 of the Education Code.

The liability of the San Ramon Valley Unified School District and the members of its governing board for a dangerous condition in the Twin Creeks Elementary School during the period of use authorized by this section shall be determined by the provisions of Division 3.6 (commencing with Section 810) of Title 1 of the Government Code.

This section shall remain in effect only until June 30, 1985, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before June 30, 1985, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 6. Section 4 of Chapter 88 of the Statutes of 1982 is amended to read:

Sec. 4. The governing board of the Allan Hancock Joint Community College District may continue to use for classroom and support services six buildings constructed between 1940 and 1945 for use as World War II barracks and two buildings constructed between 1928 and 1932 as part of the Hancock Airfield Facility, all of which presently comprise part of the campus of the Allan Hancock College. The use of the buildings herein described may be continued until June 30, 1985, or until the final completion of replacement facilities, whichever occurs first, and the liability of the Allan Hancock Joint Community College District and the members of its governing board during the period of use authorized by this section shall be determined by the provisions of Division 3.6 (commencing with Section 810) of Title 1 of the Government Code.

SEC. 7. The Corning Union Elementary School District has certain buildings on its West Street School campus which do not conform to the so-called Field Act. However, because of a growth in average daily attendance in the district, it is necessary to provide additional inexpensive classroom space at the earliest possible time. The district intends to replace the nonconforming facilities as soon as possible under the Leroy F. Greene School Building Lease-Purchase Law of 1976. Until the replacement facilities are available, it will be necessary to use the existing buildings for classroom space.

SEC. 8. Notwithstanding Section 39227 of the Education Code, the governing board of the Corning Union Elementary School District may use the existing building described in Section 7 for classroom space until the governing board determines that alternative facilities are available.

During the period of use authorized by this section, the building shall not be subject to Article 3 (commencing with Section 39140) or Article 6 (commencing with Section 39210) of Chapter 2 of Part 23 of the Education Code.

SEC. 9. (a) In the event the Board of Supervisors of Sacramento County failed in the 1982-83 fiscal year to levy a tax upon the property in the Elk Grove Unified School District sufficient to raise for the district the amount of money to be deducted from State School Fund apportionments by the Controller during the 1982-83 fiscal year, as required by Section 16080 of the Education Code, and in the event the county auditor certifies that fact and the amount of the insufficiency to the Controller, the Controller shall reduce the total amount of the deductions from apportionments to be made to the Elk Grove Unified School District pursuant to Section 16080 of the Education Code for the 1982-83 fiscal year by the amount of the insufficiency.

(b) If, prior to the effective date of this act, the Controller has deducted from state apportionments to the Elk Grove Unified School District the total amount required in the 1982-83 fiscal year pursuant to Section 16080 of the Education Code, the Controller shall increase the apportionments from Section A of the State School Fund to the Elk Grove Unified School District for the 1982-83 fiscal year by an amount equal to the amount determined pursuant to subdivision (a).

(c) For the 1983-84 fiscal year, the Controller shall add to the amounts to be deducted from apportionments to the Elk Grove Unified School District pursuant to Section 16080 of the Education Code, the amount determined pursuant to subdivision (a), plus interest equal to the rate of interest earned by the Pooled Money Investment Account.

SEC. 10. The Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution due to the following:

(a) Unique circumstances concerning delays in building a new school facility for the Pinecrest School of the Columbia Elementary School District.

(b) Unique circumstances specified in Section 3 of this act concerning the Tahoe Truckee Unified School District.

(c) Unique circumstances concerning the unavailability of suitable replacements for the temporary facilities of the Twin Creek Elementary School of the San Ramon Valley Unified School District.

(d) Unique circumstances concerning the shortage of classroom space in the Corning Union Elementary School District.

(e) Unique circumstances concerning loan repayments to the State School Building Aid Fund by the Elk Grove Unified School District.

(f) Unique circumstances concerning the unavailability of suitable replacements for the affected buildings of the Allan Hancock Joint Community College District.

The Columbia Union Elementary School District's authorization to house pupils temporarily in a building that does not satisfy Field Act standards expires on June 30, 1983, and the district will not be able to obtain replacement classrooms by that date.

The Tahoe Truckee Unified School District's authorization to house pupils temporarily in a building that does not satisfy Field Act standards expires December 30, 1982, and the district will not be able to obtain replacement classrooms by that date.

The San Ramon Valley Unified School District's authorization to house pupils in temporary facilities that do not satisfy Field Act standards expires on June 30, 1983, and the district will not be able to obtain replacement facilities by that date.

The Allan Hancock Joint Community College District's authorization to use buildings which do not satisfy Field Act standards for classroom and support services expires on June 30, 1983, and the district will not be able to obtain replacement facilities by that date.

The need of the Corning Union Elementary School District to provide adequate facilities to meet the requirements of a pupil population which has grown beyond the capacity of its current school facilities.

In order to permit the districts to use these buildings so that necessary educational services can be provided without interruption, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

Further, in order to permit the revision of the home-to-school transportation allowance prescribed by the bill to be made at the earliest possible time, and so avoid financial hardship to school districts, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

In addition, in order to prevent the depletion of the general fund of the Elk Grove Unified School District because of an inadvertent failure to levy a tax sufficient to provide the full amount of the 1982-83 fiscal year repayments of apportionments made under the State School Building Aid Law of 1952, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 69

An act to amend Section 84630.5 of, and to add Sections 71027.5 and 78462.5 to, the Education Code, and to amend Section 42 of Chapter 10 of the Statutes of 1983 (First Extraordinary Session), relating to education, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 10, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 10, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 71027.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

71027.5. (a) The board of governors shall establish policies and guidelines which, for the 1983–84 fiscal year, or at such earlier time as the board may designate, identify those avocational, recreational, and personal development courses, whether offered for credit or noncredit, that are offered more appropriately as community service classes pursuant to Article 7 (commencing with Section 78300) of Part 48.

(b) The board of governors shall establish educational criteria which, commencing with the 1984–85 fiscal year, or at such earlier time as the board may designate, will enable community college districts to identify those avocational, recreational, and personal development courses, whether offered for credit or noncredit, that are offered more appropriately as community service classes pursuant to Article 7 (commencing with Section 78300) of Part 48.

SEC. 2. Section 78462.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

78462.5. A student enrolled in a class offered by a community college district which is not eligible for state apportionments may be required by the governing board of the district maintaining the class to pay a fee for the class. The total revenues derived from the fee shall not exceed the estimated cost of all of these classes maintained.

SEC. 3. Section 84630.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

84630.5. (a) For the 1982–83 fiscal year, if General Fund appropriations and local property tax and other local tax revenues allocated to community college districts are less than the amounts computed for all districts for the fiscal year, pursuant to Section 84620, the chancellor shall apportion general aid to the community college districts according to the procedure prescribed by this section.

(b) The chancellor shall fund in total for all community college districts the base as specified in Section 84620 plus lease and capital outlay commitments calculated pursuant to Section 84609, less the workload adjustment as specified in Section 84606 or 84607 for districts experiencing a loss in either noncredit or credit average daily attendance, plus the workload adjustments specified in Section 84606 or 84607 for shifts in average daily attendance between credit and noncredit categories required due to implementation of the course classification system, and the following purposes in the following order:

(1) Inflation adjustments calculated pursuant to Section 84608.

(2) Workload increases in accordance with subdivision (g) of Section 84605.

(3) Program changes calculated pursuant to Section 84640.

(c) Unless otherwise provided in this article, in cases where total available funds are less than the total amount calculated for all districts for a particular purpose, the chancellor shall apportion funds for that purpose to each district eligible for the funds by multiplying the amounts determined in paragraphs (1) and (2):

(1) The total amount available for the purpose divided by the total of all districts' calculated amounts for that purpose.

(2) The calculated amount for that purpose for the district during the fiscal year.

SEC. 4. Section 42 of Chapter 10 of the Statutes of 1983 (First Extraordinary Session) is amended to read:

Sec. 42. (a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, an amount equal to the sum of the decreases in employer contributions to the Public Employees' Retirement System, exclusive of the amount of the federal share of employer contributions to the Public Employees' Retirement System, as certified by the county superintendents, for employees supported by federal funds for a specific purpose and subject to federal supplanting restrictions, for each community college district for the period of January 1, 1983, to June 30, 1983, shall revert from the unencumbered balance of the appropriation made by Item 6870-101-001 of the Budget Act of 1982 to the unappropriated surplus of the General Fund. The decreases in employer contributions shall be identified pursuant to the November 17, 1982, decision of the Board of Administration of the Public Employees' Retirement System to provide credits against employers' contributions.

(b) The allocations of apportioned funds made to community college districts for the 1982-83 fiscal year shall be reduced by the amount reverted pursuant to subdivision (a). The preliminary estimate of the amount of reduction in funds allocated for the 1982-83 fiscal year for each community college district shall be identified by the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges by February 23, 1983, and shall be reflected in the district's first principal apportionment for the 1982-83 fiscal year. The chancellor shall transmit the preliminary estimates to the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges. The board of governors shall give maximum consideration to those districts which are currently experiencing financial difficulties and may adjust the fiscal reductions to be more or less than the amount determined for each district in subdivision (a). In no case shall the reduction be made on a pro rata basis.

(c) The amount determined pursuant to subdivision (a) shall not be transferred by the Controller from the General Fund to Section B of the State School Fund, but shall instead be reverted to the unappropriated surplus of the General Fund by March 10, 1983.

SEC. 5. (a) From funds appropriated to Section B of the State School Fund for the 1982-83 fiscal year, a sum not to exceed three hundred fifty thousand dollars ($350,000) is hereby appropriated for allocation to the Compton Community College District for the 1982-83 fiscal year as an emergency apportionment pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 84309) of Chapter 3 of Part 50 of the Education Code.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 84310 of the Education Code, the apportionment of the funds appropriated in this section shall be made immediately. In compliance with the provisions of Section 84310 of the Education Code, the Compton Community College District shall submit revisions of audit reports and management plans prepared for the purpose of securing the emergency loan provided by Section 4 of Chapter 343 of the Statutes of 1982. The provisions of Section 84313 of the Education Code shall not apply to the emergency apportionment provided in this section. However, the Controller shall deduct the amount of the emergency apportionment made pursuant to the provisions of this section, together with interest determined pursuant to the provisions of Section 84313 of the Education Code, from the apportionment of state funds to be made to the Compton Community College District for the 1986-87 fiscal year.

(c) The effect of any deficit in the state general apportionments to community college districts in the 1982-83 fiscal year created by this reapportionment shall be excluded from the computation of community college district base revenues in the 1983-84 fiscal year.

In order to permit the changes in the law relating to the finances of community colleges to become effective and operative as soon as possible, and so facilitate the orderly and effective administration of the community colleges, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 70

An act to amend repeal, and add Section 5733 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to auctioneers, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 10, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 10, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5733 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5733. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), no individual may act as an auctioneer and no person may operate an auction house or an auction company without obtaining and having in full force and effect a valid license issued by the commission in accordance with this chapter.

(b) The requirements of this chapter shall not apply to:

(1) An auction of goods conducted by an individual who personally owns such goods and who did not acquire such goods for resale.

(2) An auction conducted by or under the direction of any public authority.

(3) An auction conducted pursuant to any judicial order or to the settlement of a decedent's estate.

(4) A sale conducted by or on behalf of any person, political candidate or party, church, charitable corporation, or association, if the individual conducting the sale receives no compensation and does not, by advertising or otherwise, hold himself or herself out as being available to engage in the sale of goods at auction.

(5) A sale of real estate.

(6) Automobile auctions regulated by the Department of Motor Vehicles. However a person acting as an auctioneer at any such auto auction shall hold a license as required by this chapter.

(7) An auction of livestock in any place designated by the Secretary of the United States Department of Agriculture as a stockyard pursuant to Section 202 of Chapter 9 of Title 7 of the United States Code. The exemption provided by this paragraph shall extend to persons acting as auctioneers at any such livestock auction.

This section shall be operative until July 1, 1985, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 5733 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

5733. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), no individual may act as an auctioneer and no person may operate an auction house or an auction company without obtaining and having in full force and effect a valid license issued by the commission in accordance with this chapter.

(b) The requirements of this chapter shall not apply to:

(1) An auction of goods conducted by an individual who personally owns such goods and who did not acquire such goods for resale.

(2) An auction conducted by or under the direction of any public authority.

(3) An auction conducted pursuant to any judicial order or to the settlement of a decedent's estate.

(4) A sale conducted by or on behalf of any person, political candidate or party, church, charitable corporation, or association, if the individual conducting the sale receives no compensation and does not, by advertising or otherwise, hold himself or herself out as being available to engage in the sale of goods at auction.

(5) A sale of real estate.

(6) Automobile auctions regulated by the Department of Motor Vehicles. However a person acting as an auctioneer at any such auto auction shall hold a license as required by this chapter.

This section shall become operative on July 1, 1985.

In order that the provisions of this act take effect prior to the operative date of the Auctioneer and Auction Licensing Act which will take effect on July 1, 1983, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 71

An act to amend Section 1251 of the Education Code, relating to schools.

[Approved by Governor June 10, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 10, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1251 of the Education Code is amended to read:

1251. The county superintendent of schools, with the approval of the county board of education, may enter into an agreement with a nonpublic institution of higher education, the governing board of any nonpublic school, a public agency, or a nonprofit public organization to provide for the use by the institution, agency, organization, or school of audiovisual curriculum materials, including equipment and apparatus, under the control of the county superintendent of schools, in the same manner as public schools pursuant to Section 1250 except as otherwise provided in this section.

The agreement shall, among other matters, provide for the amount of the payment to be made by the nonpublic institution of higher education, the governing board of any nonpublic school, a public agency, or a nonprofit public organization to the county superintendent of schools and the time payments shall be made. The payments made by the nonprofit institution of higher education, the governing board of any nonpublic school, a public agency, or a nonprofit public organization that has entered into an agreement with the county superintendent of schools under this section shall be equal to the cost incurred by the county superintendent of schools in connection with the handling of, and the loss, destruction or damage to the audiovisual curriculum materials, including equipment and apparatus, by the nonpublic institution of higher education, the governing board of any nonpublic school, a public agency, or a nonprofit organization.

The governing board of any nonpublic school, a public agency, or nonprofit organization may withdraw from an agreement by giving notice six months prior to the beginning of the next fiscal year, and the agreement shall terminate on the last day of the then current fiscal year. The terms of an agreement may be changed by mutual consent at any time.

All funds received for the purposes of this section shall be deposited in the special equipment and apparatus fund of the county superintendent of schools authorized by Section 1250, and all expenditures made for the purposes of this section shall be made from that fund.

The audiovisual curriculum materials, including equipment and apparatus, shall be available for use by the nonpublic institution of higher education, the governing board of any nonpublic school, a public agency, or a nonprofit organization pursuant to this section only when such materials, including equipment and apparatus, are not needed by the public schools or the county superintendent of schools.

As used in this section, "nonpublic school" means a school that satisfies the requirements of Section 48222 and is exempt from taxation under Section 214 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

CHAPTER 72

An act to amend Section 1827.5 of the Probate Code, relating to conservatorship.

[Approved by Governor June 13, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State June 14, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1827.5 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

1827.5. (a) In the case of any proceeding to establish a limited conservatorship, within 30 days after the filing of a petition for limited conservatorship, a proposed limited conservatee, with his or her consent, shall be assessed at a regional center as provided in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 4620) of Division 4.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. The regional center shall submit a written report of its findings and recommendations to the court. The report shall include a description of the proposed limited conservatee's specific areas, nature, and degree of disability, if any. The findings and recommendations of the regional center are not binding upon the court.

(b) At least five days before the hearing on the petition, the regional center shall mail a copy of the report referred to in subdivision (a) to all of the following:

- (1) The proposed limited conservatee.
- (2) The attorney, if any, for the proposed limited conservatee.
- (3) If the petitioner is not the proposed limited conservatee, the attorney for the petitioner or the petitioner if the petitioner does not have an attorney.
- (4) Such other persons as the court orders.

CHAPTER 73

An act to amend Section 148 of the Penal Code, relating to peace officers.

[Approved by Governor June 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 14, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 148 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

148. Every person who willfully resists, delays, or obstructs any public officer or peace officer, in the discharge or attempt to discharge any duty of his office, when no other punishment is prescribed, is punishable by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

---

CHAPTER 74

An act to amend Section 2954.1 of the Civil Code, relating to mortgages.

[Approved by Governor June 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 14, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2954.1 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2954.1. No lender or person who purchases obligations secured by real property, or any agent of such lender or person, who maintains an impound, trust, or other type of account for the payment of taxes and assessments on real property, insurance premiums, or other purposes relating to such property shall do any of the following:

(a) Require the borrower or vendee to deposit in such account in any month an amount in excess of that which would be permitted in connection with a federally related mortgage loan pursuant to Section 10 of the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act of 1974 (12 U.S.C. 2609), as amended.

(b) Require the sums maintained in such account to exceed at any time the amount or amounts reasonably necessary to pay such obligations as they become due. Any sum held in excess of the reasonable amount shall be refunded within 30 days unless the parties mutually agree to the contrary. Such an agreement may be rescinded at any time by any party.

(c) Make payments from the account in a manner so as to cause any policy of insurance to be canceled or so as to cause property taxes or other similar payments to become delinquent.

Nothing contained herein shall prohibit requiring additional amounts to be paid into an impound account in order to recover any deficiency which may exist in the account.

Any person harmed by a violation of this section shall be entitled to sue to recover his or her damages or for injunctive relief; but such violation shall not otherwise affect the validity of the loan or sale.

This section applies to all such accounts maintained after the effective date of this act.

CHAPTER 75

An act to amend Section 25210.18 of, and to add Section 25210.1a to, the Government Code, relating to county service areas.

[Approved by Governor June 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 14, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25210.1a is added to the Government Code, to read:

25210.1a. Land devoted primarily to agricultural, timber, or livestock uses and being used for the commercial production of agricultural, timber, or livestock products may be included in a county service area only if that land is contiguous to other land which is included within the described exterior boundaries of the county service area, and only if the board of supervisors finds that the land will be benefited by any of the types of services proposed to be provided within the area. That land may, however, be included in the county service area, if the owner requests its inclusion.

read:

25210.18. The hearing may be continued from time to time, but shall be completed within 30 days. At the conclusion of the hearing, the board shall find and determine the extent to which the services described in the resolution of intention are extended county services. After making the finding, the board may abandon the proposed establishment of the county service area or may, after passing upon all protests, determine to establish the area. If the board abandons the proposed establishment of the county service area, the county services found by the board to be extended county services shall not thereafter be provided to the area from general funds of the county. If the board determines to establish the area, it shall by resolution so declare and finally determine and establish the boundaries of the county service area and designate the types of services to be performed therein and adopt a resolution either:

- (a) Declaring the area finally established without an election; or
- (b) Declaring the area established, subject to confirmation by the voters of the proposed area on the question of establishment of the area.

In establishing the boundaries of the area, the board may alter the exterior boundaries of the area to include less territory than that described in the notice of the hearing but it may not include any territory not described in the notice of the hearing.

In designating the types of services to be performed in the county service area, the board may eliminate one or more of the types of services specified in the resolution of intention to establish the area but may not include any types of services not specified in the resolution of intention.

Upon the adoption of a resolution establishing an area without an election, the area is established for all purposes, subject only to compliance with the requirements of Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 54900) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 and subject to the provisions of Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 25210.21).

CHAPTER 76

An act to add Section 72761 to the Government Code, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor June 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 14, 1983]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 72761 is added to the Government Code, to read:

72761. Notwithstanding Section 72400, the presiding judge of the Beverly Hills Municipal Court District may also appoint the clerk-administrative officer, on an as-needed basis, to serve temporarily as traffic referee without additional compensation, provided he or she is a member of the State Bar of California.

---

CHAPTER 77

An act to amend Section 653 of the Probate Code, relating to probate.

[Approved by Governor June 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 14, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 653 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

653. (a) If proceedings for the administration of the estate of a deceased spouse are pending at the time a petition described in Section 650 is filed or, if the proceedings are not pending and if the petition is not joined with a petition for probate of the will or administration of the estate of the deceased spouse, the clerk shall set the petition for hearing. At least 20 days prior to the date of the hearing on the petition, a notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition shall be personally served upon the following persons by the petitioner or mailed, postage prepaid, by the petitioner to the following persons, addressed to the addresses given in their request for special notice or notice of appearance, the addresses of their offices or places of residence, or, if neither of these addresses are known to the petitioner, the county seat of the county in which the proceedings are pending:

- (1) Any personal representative who is not the petitioner.
- (2) All legatees, devisees, and known heirs of the deceased spouse.
- (3) All persons or their attorneys who have requested special notice pursuant to Section 1202.
- (4) All persons or their attorneys who have given notice of appearance.
- (5) The Attorney General, addressed to the office of the Attorney General at Sacramento, California, if the petitioner bases the allegation that all or part of the estate of the deceased spouse is community property or quasi-community property passing to the surviving spouse upon the will of the deceased spouse and the will involves or may involve (i) a testamentary trust of property for charitable purposes other than a charitable trust with a designated trustee, resident in this state, or (ii) a bequest or devise for a charitable purpose without an identified legatee, devisee, or beneficiary.

(6) All other persons who are named in the will of the deceased spouse, if the petitioner bases the allegation that all or part of the estate of the deceased spouse is community property or quasi-community property passing to the surviving spouse upon the will.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a), a copy of the petition is not required to be personally served upon or mailed to any of the persons specified therein if both of the following conditions are met:

(1) All of the decedent's property passes to the surviving spouse under the decedent's will.

(2) No contingencies in the decedent's will remain to be satisfied at the time of the filing of the petition.

The notice shall specify that paragraphs (1) and (2) are applicable to the estate that is the subject of the petition.

---

CHAPTER 78

An act to amend Sections 409 and 1250.150 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to lis pendens.

[Approved by Governor June 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 14, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 409 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

409. (a) In an action concerning real property or affecting the title or the right of possession of real property, the plaintiff, at the time of filing the complaint, and the defendant, at the time of filing a cross-complaint, or at any time afterwards, may record in the office of the recorder of the county in which the property is situated, a notice of the pendency of the action, containing the names of the parties, and the object of the action or cross-action, and a description of the property in that county affected thereby. This section authorizes a notice of an action concerning real property pending in any United States district court to be recorded and indexed in the same manner and in the same place as herein provided with respect to notices of action pending in courts of this state. From the time of filing such notice for record only, shall a purchaser or encumbrancer of the property affected thereby be deemed to have constructive notice of the pendency of the action as it relates to the real property and only of its pendency against parties designated by their real names.

(b) Except in actions brought under Title 7 (commencing with Section 1230.010) of Part 3, the person causing the notice of the pendency of the action to be recorded shall first cause a copy of the notice to be served upon the other party, by first class mail, return receipt requested, mailed to all known addresses of the adverse parties and all owners of record as shown by the county assessor's office. A copy of the notice of the pendency of the action shall also be filed with the court in which the lawsuit is filed. Service shall also be made immediately upon each adverse party who is later brought into the action pursuant to Section 472 or 473.

(c) Any notice of the pendency of the action recorded pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be void and invalid as to any adverse party or owner of record, unless the requirements of subdivision (b) are met for the party or owner, and a proof of service, as set forth in Section 1013a, has been recorded with the notice of the pendency of the action. If there is no known address for service on an adverse party or owner as required under subdivision (b) above, then as to that party a declaration under penalty of perjury to such effect shall be recorded instead of the proof of service described above and the service on that party shall not be required.

SEC. 2. Section 1250.150 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1250.150. The plaintiff, at the time of the commencement of the proceeding, shall record a notice of the pendency of the proceeding in the office of the county recorder of any county in which property described in the complaint is located. A copy of the notice shall be served with the summons and complaint.

CHAPTER 79

An act to amend Sections 266h, 266i, and 1203.065 of the Penal Code, relating to sentencing and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 14, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 266h of the Penal Code is amended to read:

266h. Any person who, knowing another person is a prostitute, lives or derives support or maintenance in whole or in part from the earnings or proceeds of the person's prostitution, or from money loaned or advanced to or charged against that person by any keeper or manager or inmate of a house or other place where prostitution is practiced or allowed, or who solicits or receives compensation for soliciting for the person, is guilty of pimping, a felony, and is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for three, four, or six years, or, where the person engaged in prostitution is under 16 years of age, is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for three, six, or eight years.

SEC. 2. Section 266i of the Penal Code is amended to read:

266i. Any person who: (a) procures another person for the purpose of prostitution; or (b) by promises, threats, violence, or by any device or scheme, causes, induces, persuades or encourages another person to become a prostitute; or (c) procures for another person a place as inmate in a house of prostitution or as an inmate of any place in which prostitution is encouraged or allowed within this state; or (d) by promises, threats, violence or by any device or scheme, causes, induces, persuades or encourages an inmate of a house of prostitution, or any other place in which prostitution is encouraged or allowed, to remain therein as an inmate; or (e) by fraud or artifice, or by duress of person or goods, or by abuse of any position of confidence or authority, procures another person for the purpose of prostitution, or to enter any place in which prostitution is encouraged or allowed within this state, or to come into this state or leave this state for the purpose of prostitution; or (f) receives or gives, or agrees to receive or give, any money or thing of value for procuring, or attempting to procure, another person for the purpose of prostitution, or to come into this state or leave this state for the purpose of prostitution, is guilty of pandering, a felony, and is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for three, four, or six years, or, where the other person is under 16 years of age, is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for three, six, or eight years.

SEC. 3. Section 1203.065 of the Penal Code is amended to read: 1203.065. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, probation shall not be granted to, nor shall the execution or imposition of sentence be suspended for, any person convicted of violating subdivision (2) of Section 261, or Section 264.1, or Section 266h, or Section 266i, or Section 266j, or 289, or of committing sodomy or oral copulation in violation of Section 286 or 288a by force, violence, duress, menace or threat of great bodily harm or subdivision (c) of Section 311.4.

(b) Except in unusual cases where the interests of justice would best be served if the person is granted probation, probation shall not be granted to any person convicted of a violation of Section 220 for assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation or any violation of Section 264.1, subdivision (b) of Section 288, or Section 289.

When probation is granted, the court shall specify on the record and shall enter on the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by such a disposition.

(c) This section does not prohibit the adjournment of criminal proceedings pursuant to Division 3 (commencing with Section 3000) or Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

In order to effect the denial of probation to those convicted of pimping or pandering at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 80

An act to amend Section 1224 of the Financial Code, relating to banks, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 14, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1224 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1224. (a) In addition to the limitations contained in Section 1221 a commercial bank may issue letters of credit and a commercial bank may accept drafts or bills of exchange drawn upon it having not more than six months' sight to run, exclusive of days of grace, which grow out of transactions involving the importation or exportation of goods; or which grow out of transactions involving the domestic shipment of goods; or which are secured at the time of acceptance by a warehouse receipt or other such document conveying or securing title covering readily marketable staples. A commercial bank shall not accept such drafts or bills in the aggregate to an amount exceeding 150 percent of the sum of its shareholders' equity, allowance for loan losses, capital notes, and debentures or, when authorized by the superintendent, to an amount exceeding 200 percent of the sum of its shareholders' equity, allowance for loan losses, capital notes, and debentures. A commercial bank shall not accept such drafts or bills for any one person to an amount exceeding 10 percent of the sum of its shareholders' equity, allowance for loan losses, capital notes, and debentures, unless the bank is and remains secured by either attached documents or some other actual security growing out of the same transaction as the acceptance.

(b) With respect to a bank which issues an acceptance, the limitations contained in this section shall not apply to that portion of an acceptance which is issued by such bank and which is covered by a participation agreement sold to another institution.

On October 8, 1982, President Reagan signed into law the Export Trading Company Act of 1982, Pub. Law No. 97-290, 96 Stat. 1233. Section 207 of that act amends the seventh paragraph of Section 13 of the Federal Reserve Act (12 U.S.C. Sec. 372) to (1) increase the statutorily fixed limits imposed on Federal Reserve member banks' eligible acceptances, (2) to delete the requirement that shipping documents conveying or securing title be attached to acceptances which grow out of transactions involving the domestic shipment of goods, and (3) to provide that the aggregate and single entity limitations imposed by the seventh paragraph do not apply to that portion of an acceptance which is issued by a member bank and which is covered by a participation agreement sold to another institution. This act would amend Section 1224 of the Financial Code to conform California law to the changes made in the federal law.

In order, therefore, to bring California law into conformity with federal law, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 81

An act to amend Section 25209.6 of the Government Code, relating to health.

[Approved by Governor June 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 14, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25209.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

25209.6. The board of supervisors may take all necessary action on behalf of the county to participate as a health maintenance organization in Section 1876 of the Social Security Act (Public Law 92-603, Section 226), or Section 300(e) of Title 42 of the United States Code, or any other health maintenance organization provision under Title 18 or 19 of the Social Security Act, or any or all of such provisions, and to provide to its enrollees services in addition to those described in subsection (c), as provided in subsection (g) of Section 1876, including the establishment, receipt, segregation and use of prepayments by and for the benefit of enrollees, execution and performance of contracts, and authorization of the expenditure by the county of whatever funds may be required therefor. In connection with a program under this section, county funds may be expended to provide county supplementation of enrollee prepayment amounts, up to 100 percent of the full prepayment amount for persons or families who, in the judgment of the county, are not financially capable of making the full prepayment.

CHAPTER 82

An act to add Section 65980.1 to the Government Code, relating to education, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 14, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 65980.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

65980.1. Notwithstanding Section 69580, for the purposes of Section 65974, interim facilities shall include leased residential dwellings used by the Lodi Unified School District for school purposes.

SEC. 2. Due to the unique circumstances concerning the school facilities in the Lodi Unified School District, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

Because of financial difficulties, the Lodi Unified School District needs the use of development fees to pay for additional interim facilities at the earliest possible time.

CHAPTER 83

An act to amend Sections 16002 and 16607 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to public utility districts.

[Approved by Governor June 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 14, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 16002 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

16002. Each member of the board shall receive such compensation as the board by ordinance provides, not exceeding four thousand eight hundred dollars ($4,800) a year.

SEC. 2. Section 16607 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

16607. The expense of employing an expert shall not exceed fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) at any one time, to be paid out of the income and revenues of the district, as the board prescribes.

---

CHAPTER 84

An act to amend Section 66452.50 of the Government Code, relating to housing, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 13, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State June 14, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 66452.50 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66452.50. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, a local agency may, upon application by a subdivider, in connection with the approval of a tentative or final map for the proposed construction of a condominium development, which requires the obtaining of a tentative or final map under provisions of this division or local ordinances enacted pursuant thereto, enter into a binding agreement with the subdivider mandating that the units be first made available for rental housing for a period of not less than 10 years from the date a certificate of occupancy has been issued for the units within the development; provided that (1) at the expiration of the 10-year period the units within the development may be sold to individual purchasers, in accordance with the approved final map authorizing the development without further proceedings under the provisions of this division or local ordinances enacted pursuant thereto, and (2), except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), during the period the units are required to be made available for rental purposes, the units are insured or are to be insured or co-insured pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 51850) of Part 4 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) each tenant of a unit within the development shall be given 180 days' written notice prior to actual conversion. Such notice shall include an offer of an exclusive right to contract for his or her respective unit upon the same terms and conditions that such unit will be initially offered to the general public or on terms more favorable to the tenant. The right shall run for a period of not less than 90 days from the date written notice of actual conversion was sent to the tenant.

Any such agreement shall be in writing, particularly describe the real property and set forth the name or names of the record title owner of the real property affected thereby, and be executed by the person authorized to act on behalf of the local agency and by the subdivider. From the date of execution of the agreement, it shall be binding upon the local agency, the subdivider, and their successors.

The fact that a condominium development is subject to such an agreement shall be set forth on the face of any tentative or final map approved by the local agency and the agreement shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder in the county in which the real property is located on or before the date of recordation of the final map.

(b) Multifamily rental housing financed on or after January 1, 1983, with the proceeds of sale of tax-exempt bonds sold pursuant to any laws of this state shall not be subject to the requirements of condition (2) prescribed in the first paragraph of subdivision (a), but shall be subject to all the requirements of the law pursuant to which the bonds are being issued, including, but not limited to, any requirement in such law that the housing be maintained as rental housing for a period in excess of 10 years.

In order to achieve successful financing of urgently needed multifamily rental housing developments in this state, it is frequently necessary to file a subdivision map allowing conversion to condominium units in order to assure or facilitate refinancing after a certain number of years under the terms of the project loan. Such conversion is required under federal tax law to be deferred for a given number of years and agreements so providing are a common requirement of the financing program.

Section 66452.50 of the Government Code, as added by Chapter 1447 of the Statutes of 1982, is susceptible to the construction that mortgage insurance under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 51850) of Part 4 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code must be taken out in order to be able to enter into such an agreement. In order to allow the financing of urgently needed multifamily rental housing units to proceed without that insurance, it is essential that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 85

An act to amend Sections 2842, 2847, and 2849 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to vocational nursing.

[Approved by Governor June 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 14, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2842 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2842. Each member of the board shall be a citizen of the United States and a resident of the State of California. Three members shall be duly licensed vocational nurses who have been licensed for a period of not less than three years prior to appointment; two members shall be licensed psychiatric technicians, each of whom shall have had not less than five years' experience in a psychiatric hospital, or in a psychiatric unit of a hospital licensed by the Department of Health Services, or a private institution licensed by the Department of Health Services; one member shall be a licensed vocational nurse or registered nurse who shall have had not less than five years' experience as a teacher or administrator in an accredited school of vocational nursing; and five members shall be public members who are not licentiates of the board or any other board under this division or of any board referred to in Sections 1000 and 3600.

No person may serve as a member of the board for more than two consecutive terms.

Per diem and expenses of members of the board who are licensed psychiatric technicians shall be paid solely from revenues received pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 4500) of Division 2.

SEC. 2. Section 2847 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2847. The board shall select an executive officer who shall perform such duties as are delegated by the board and who shall be responsible to it for the accomplishment of such duties.

The person selected to be the executive officer of the board shall be a duly licensed vocational nurse under the provisions of this chapter or a duly licensed professional nurse as defined in Section 2725 or a duly licensed psychiatric technician. The executive officer shall not be a member of the board.

With the approval of the Director of Finance, the board shall fix the salary of the executive officer.

The executive officer shall be entitled to traveling and other necessary expenses in the performance of his or her duties. He or she shall make a statement, certified before some duly authorized person, that the expenses have been actually incurred.

SEC. 3. Section 2849 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2849. Special meetings may be held at such times as the board may elect, or on the call of the president of the board, or of not less than five members thereof.

A written notice of the time, place, and object of any special meeting shall be mailed by the executive officer to all members of the board who are not parties to the call, at least 15 days before the day of the meeting.

CHAPTER 86

An act to amend Section 14502 of, and to repeal Section 14502.5 of, the Government Code, relating to the California Transportation Commission.

[Approved by Governor June 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 14, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14502 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14502. The commission shall consist of 11 members appointed as follows:

(a) Nine members, one of whom shall be a member of the Public Utilities Commission, shall be appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate.

(b) No person appointed as a member pursuant to subdivision (a) shall simultaneously hold an elected public office, except a person who was serving as a member on January 1, 1983, and who, on that date, was an elected public official.

(c) One Member of the Senate appointed by the Senate Rules Committee and one Member of the Assembly appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly shall be ex officio members without vote and shall participate in the activities of the commission to the extent that such participation is not incompatible with their positions as Members of the Legislature.

SEC. 2. Section 14502.5 of the Government Code is repealed.

CHAPTER 87

An act to amend Sections 18506 and 18538 of the Financial Code, relating to industrial loan companies.

[Approved by Governor June 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 14, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18506 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

18506. No person shall advertise, print, display, publish, distribute or broadcast, or cause or permit to be advertised, printed, displayed, published, distributed, or broadcast, in any manner any statement or representation with regard to its membership in Thrift Guaranty Corporation of California or that any of its thrift obligations are in any manner guaranteed unless the amount of the guarantee fund is in excess of one-half of 1 percent of the total outstanding thrift obligations of all members as shown on the most recent independent audit reports required by subdivision (a) of Section 18405 and without first obtaining the written approval of the commissioner. Except for any logo of Thrift Guaranty Corporation of California, such advertising shall only state the following:

“Accounts guaranteed to fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) by Thrift Guaranty Corporation of California as provided under California law.”

SEC. 2. Section 18538 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

18538. In the event any member fails to pay an assessment when due, Guaranty Corporation shall report such default in writing to the commissioner and the defaulting member within 24 hours of such default and thereafter the rights and benefits of membership of such defaulting member in Guaranty Corporation shall be suspended and the defaulting member shall not be authorized to sell or issue its investment certificates in any form until all delinquent assessments are paid in full; provided, however, that the thrift obligations of the defaulting member shall continue to be protected as provided in this chapter. Within 30 days after default, Guaranty Corporation shall bring an action in law or in equity to enforce payment. If Guaranty Corporation does not bring such action within the time specified, the commissioner may bring an action in law or in equity to enforce such payment. Upon payment of all sums due, the member shall be reinstated and thereafter may sell and issue its investment certificates.

CHAPTER 88

An act relating to the validation of certain acts with regard to property taxation of taxing agencies and revenue districts and of their officers.

[Approved by Governor June 13, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State June 14, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. As used in this act “taxing agency” includes the state, county, and city. “Taxing agency” also includes every district that assesses property for taxation purposes and levies taxes or assessments on the property so assessed.

SEC. 2. As used in this act “revenue district” includes every city and district for which the county officers assess property and collect taxes or assessments.

SEC. 3. Every act and proceeding heretofore taken by any taxing agency or revenue district or the officers thereof relative to preparing, transmitting, computing, determining, or fixing the budget or the tax rate or rates of any taxing agency or revenue district, or to the assessment or equalization of property or to the levy of taxes thereon or to tax sales or certificates of tax sales, tax deeds, or other conveyances, are hereby confirmed, validated, and declared legally effective.

SEC. 4. (a) This act is limited to the correction of defects, irregularities, and ministerial errors which the Legislature originally could have omitted from the statutory requirements of law under which the acts hereby confirmed, validated, and declared legally effective were taken.

(b) This act is limited to the validating of acts and proceedings to the extent to which the same can be effectuated under the State and Federal Constitutions.

(c) This act shall not operate to confirm, validate, or legalize any act, proceeding, or other matter the legality of which is being contested or inquired into in any legal proceeding, now pending and undetermined or which may be pending and undetermined during the period of 30 days from and after the effective date of this act, and shall not operate to confirm, validate, or legalize any act, proceeding or other matter which has heretofore been determined in any legal proceeding to be illegal, void, or ineffective.

(d) Nothing in this act shall operate to make valid any property tax rate which is in excess of that permitted by law.

SEC. 5. If any provisions of this act or its application to any person or circumstances are held invalid, the remainder of the act and application of its provisions to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

---

CHAPTER 89

An act to amend Sections 14002, 14100, 14103, 14601, 14800, 14807, 14808, 14866, 14902, 14957, and 15154 of the Financial Code, relating to credit unions.

[Approved by Governor June 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 14, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14002 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14002. A credit union is a cooperative corporation, organized for the purposes of promoting thrift and savings among its members, creating a source of credit for them at rates of interest set by the board of directors, and providing an opportunity for them to use and control their own money on a democratic basis in order to improve their economic and social conditions. As a cooperative, a credit union conducts its business for the mutual benefit and general welfare of its members with the earnings, savings, benefits, or services of the credit union being distributed to its members as patrons.

SEC. 2. Section 14100 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14100. Credit unions shall be incorporated under this division in the same manner as corporations under the Nonprofit Mutual Benefit Corporation Law of this state, except as otherwise provided in this division.

SEC. 3. Section 14103 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14103. The bylaws shall prescribe the manner in which the business of the credit union shall be conducted with reference to the following matters:

- (a) The purpose of the credit union.
- (b) The qualification for membership.
- (c) Determination of the month, time and place of the annual meeting; the manner of conducting meetings; the method by which members shall be notified of meetings; and the number of members which shall constitute a quorum.
- (d) The authorized number of directors, the number of directors necessary to constitute a quorum, and the powers and duties of officers elected by the directors.
- (e) The membership, powers, and duties of the supervisory committee.
- (f) The membership, powers, and duties of the credit committee or if applicable, the general powers, responsibilities and duties of the credit manager.
- (g) The conditions upon which shares may be issued, paid for, transferred and withdrawn.
- (h) The charges, if any, which may be imposed for failure to punctually meet obligations to the credit union.
- (i) The conditions upon which certificates may be issued and withdrawn.
- (j) The manner in which the funds of the credit union shall be employed.
- (k) The conditions upon which loans may be made and repaid.
- (l) The method of receipting for money paid on account of shares, certificates, or loans.
- (m) The manner in which the regular reserve shall be accumulated.
- (n) The manner in which dividends may be determined and paid to members.
- (o) The manner in which the bylaws may be amended.

SEC. 4. Section 14601 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14601. No member of the credit committee or the credit manager or any loan officer shall serve as a member of the supervisory committee. Neither a credit manager nor any loan officer shall be a member of the board of directors.

SEC. 5. Section 14800 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14800. (a) Every credit union may admit to membership those persons qualified for membership, as provided in the credit union bylaws, upon payment of an entrance fee or the purchase of a share in the credit union.

(b) No officer, director, committee member, or employee of any credit union shall approve a person for admission to membership or admit an applicant for membership in the credit union or extend any benefit or service of the credit union to any person, either directly or indirectly, unless that person is admitted to membership in the credit union pursuant to subdivision (a).

(c) Nothing in subdivisions (a) and (b) shall be construed to limit the powers of a credit union to engage in joint service programs or business relationships for the benefit of their members where some incidental benefit may flow to third parties to the transaction or the authority for a credit union to engage in joint loan programs pursuant to the provisions of Section 14959.

SEC. 6. Section 14807 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14807. Any member may withdraw from the credit union at any time. A withdrawing member shall give 60 days' notice of intention to withdraw shares and 30 days' notice of intention to withdraw certificates for funds unless a different period of notice is required by the commissioner for the withdrawal of shares or share certificates that may be established by the board of directors pursuant to Section 14862.

SEC. 7. Section 14808 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14808. All amounts paid on shares or on certificates for funds of an expelled or withdrawn member, with any dividends or interest credited thereto to the date of withdrawal or expulsion, shall be paid to such members as funds become available, and after deducting all amounts due from the member to the credit union. Withdrawing or expelled members have no further rights in the credit union, but are not by expulsion or withdrawal released from any liability to the credit union or its creditors.

SEC. 8. Section 14866 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14866. The evidence of credit union shares issued shall be a certificate, a passbook, a statement or other evidence approved by regulation of the commissioner. The evidence of any credit union shares shall not constitute an "investment security" under Division 8 (commencing with Section 8101) of the Commercial Code.

SEC. 9. Section 14902 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14902. The directors of any credit union may, for the dividend period, declare dividends from its undivided profits as provided by law, but no credit union shall credit or pay any dividends or pay loan interest refunds to its members, until it has transferred to its regular reserve such part of its gross income as is required by Section 14700.

SEC. 10. Section 14957 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14957. Whenever the directors, the credit committee, or if applicable, the credit manager, deem any loan unsafe, they may require additional security to be given by the borrower, and if such security is not furnished as required, they may declare the loan due and take action to collect the same.

SEC. 11. Section 15154 of the Financial Code is amended to read:
15154. A credit union shall inform a depositor of the applicable period for the escheat of the account to the state and the circumstances under which escheat may occur pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1513 and Section 1513.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure at the time of furnishing the written statement described in subdivision (a) of Section 15152, and the information described in this section may be included in the written statement. The failure to provide information pursuant to this section shall not constitute a violation of Section 15152.

CHAPTER 90

An act to amend Section 26980 of the Government Code, relating to county officers, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 14, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 26980 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26980. The board of supervisors of any county may establish the office of director of finance.

The board of supervisors shall submit to the electors of the county the question of whether the office of director of finance shall be established. If a majority of the voters voting on the question at such election favor the establishment of the office, the board of supervisors shall, by ordinance, create the office.

County boards of supervisors wish to place cost-saving measures before the local electorate for their approval at the earliest possible time, therefore this act must take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 91

An act to amend Section 25123 of the Government Code, relating to ordinances, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 15, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 15, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25123 of the Government Code is amended to read:

25123. All ordinances shall become effective 30 days from the date of final passage, except the following ordinances, which shall take effect immediately:

- (a) Those calling or otherwise relating to an election.
- (b) Those specifically required by this code or by any other law to take immediate effect.
- (c) Those fixing the amount of money to be raised by taxation, or the rate of taxes to be levied.
- (d) Those for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, which shall contain a declaration of the facts constituting the urgency, and shall be passed by a four-fifths vote of the board of supervisors.
- (e) Those specifically relating to the adoption or implementation of a memorandum of understanding with an employee organization.
- (f) Those relating to salaries and other compensation of officers, other than elected officers, and employees.

In order that local ordinances affecting the salaries and wages of non-represented employees of a local agency, as well as those resulting from collective bargaining, may be given effect this year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 92

An act to amend Section 683 of the Civil Code, to amend, repeal and add Section 14854 of the Financial Code, and to amend Section 647 of, and to add Division 5 (commencing with Section 5100) to, the Probate Code, relating to nonprobate transfers.

[Approved by Governor June 15, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 15, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 683 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

683. (a) A joint interest is one owned by two or more persons in equal shares, by a title created by a single will or transfer, when expressly declared in the will or transfer to be a joint tenancy, or by transfer from a sole owner to himself or herself and others, or from tenants in common or joint tenants to themselves or some of them, or to themselves or any of them and others, or from a husband and wife, when holding title as community property or otherwise to themselves or to themselves and others or to one of them and to another or others, when expressly declared in the transfer to be a joint tenancy, or when granted or devised to executors or trustees as joint tenants. A joint tenancy in personal property may be created by a written transfer, instrument, or agreement.

(b) Provisions of this section do not apply to a joint account in a financial institution if Part 1 (commencing with Section 5100) of Division 5 of the Probate Code applies to such account.

(c) Provisions of this section shall not restrict the creation of a joint tenancy in a bank deposit as provided for in the Bank Act.

SEC. 2. Section 14854 of the Financial Code, as amended by Chapter 6 of the Statutes of 1983, is amended to read:

14854. Shares or certificates for funds owned in joint tenancy, whether the joint tenants are minors or adults, and all dividends and interest thereon may be paid to any of the joint tenants during their lifetime or to the survivor or any one of the survivors of them after the death of one or more of the joint tenants. By written instructions of all joint tenants given to the credit union, the joint tenants may require the signatures of more than one of those persons during their lifetimes or of more than one of the survivors after the death of any one of them on any notice of withdrawal, request for withdrawal, check endorsement or receipt, in which case the credit union shall pay withdrawals, dividends, and interest only in accordance with those instructions, but those instructions shall not limit the right of the sole survivor or of all of the survivors to receive withdrawal payments, dividends, and interest. Payment as provided in this section and the receipt or acquittance by any joint tenant is a valid and sufficient release and discharge of the depository credit union for all payments made on account of shares or certificates for funds owned in joint tenancy prior to the receipt by the credit union of notice in writing from any one of them not to make payments in accordance with the terms of such shares or certificates for funds or of the written instructions. After receipt of the notice a credit union may refuse, without liability, to pay withdrawals, dividends, or interest pending a determination of the rights of the parties.

This section shall remain in effect until July 1, 1984, and on that date is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 14854 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

14854. Subject to Section 14860, a credit union share account that is a multiple-party account, as defined in Section 5101 of the Probate Code, is governed by Part 1 (commencing with Section 5100) of Division 5 of the Probate Code.

SEC. 4. Section 647 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

647. For the purposes of this article:

(a) Any property or interest therein or lien thereon which, at the time of the decedent's death, was held by the decedent as joint tenant, or in which the decedent had a life or other estate terminable upon the decedent's death, shall be excluded in determining the estate of the decedent or its value.

(b) A multiple-party account to which the decedent was a party at the time of the decedent's death shall be excluded in determining the estate of the decedent or its value, whether or not all or a portion of the sums on deposit are community property, to the extent that the sums on deposit belong after the death of the decedent to a surviving party, P.O.D. payee, or beneficiary. As used in this subdivision, the terms "multiple-party account," "party," "P.O.D. payee," and "beneficiary" have the meaning given those terms by Section 5101.

SEC. 5. Division 5 (commencing with Section 5100) is added to the Probate Code, to read:

DIVISION 5. NONPROBATE TRANSFERS

PART 1. MULTIPLE-PARTY ACCOUNTS

CHAPTER 1. SHORT TITLE AND DEFINITIONS

5100. This part may be cited as the California Multiple-Party Accounts Law.

5101. In this part, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Account" means a contract of deposit of funds between a depositor and a financial institution, and includes a checking account, savings account, certificate of deposit, share account, and other like arrangement.

(b) "Beneficiary" means a person named in a trust account as one for whom a party to the account is named as trustee.

(c) "Financial institution" means:

(1) Any organization authorized to do business under state or federal laws relating to credit unions.

(2) Any industrial loan company as defined in Section 18003 of the Financial Code.

(d) "Joint account" means an account payable on request to one or more of two or more parties whether or not mention is made of any right of survivorship.

(e) A "multiple-party account" is any of the following types of account: (1) a joint account, (2) a P.O.D. account, or (3) a trust account. It does not include: (1) accounts established for deposit of funds of a partnership, joint venture, or other association for business purposes, (2) accounts controlled by one or more persons as the duly authorized agent or trustee for a corporation, unincorporated association, charitable or civic organization, or (3) a regular fiduciary or trust account where the relationship is established other than by deposit agreement.

(f) "Net contribution" of a party to a joint account as of any given time is the sum of all deposits thereto made by or for the party, less all withdrawals made by or for the party that have not been paid to or applied to the use of any other party, plus a pro rata share of any interest or dividends included in the current balance. The term includes, in addition, any proceeds of deposit life insurance added to the account by reason of the death of the party whose net contribution is in question. In the absence of proof otherwise, only parties who have a present right of withdrawal shall be considered as having a net contribution and the net contribution of each of the parties having a present right of withdrawal is deemed to be an equal amount.

(g) "Party" means a person who, by the terms of the account, has a present right, subject to request, to payment from a multiple-party account. A P.O.D. payee or beneficiary of a trust account is a party only after the account becomes payable to the payee or beneficiary by reason of surviving the original payee or trustee. Unless the context otherwise requires, "party" includes a guardian, conservator, personal representative, or assignee, including a levying creditor, of a party. "Party" also includes a person identified as a trustee of an account for another whether or not a beneficiary is named, but it does not include any named beneficiary unless the beneficiary has a present right of withdrawal.

(h) "Payment" of sums on deposit includes withdrawal, payment on check or other directive of a party, and any pledge of sums on deposit by a party and any set-off, or reduction or other disposition of all or part of an account pursuant to a pledge.

(i) "P.O.D. account" means an account payable on request to one person during the person's lifetime and on the person's death to one or more P.O.D. payees, or to one or more persons during their lifetimes and on the death of all of them to one or more P.O.D. payees.

(j) "P.O.D. payee" means a person designated on a P.O.D. account as one to whom the account is payable on request after the death of one or more persons.

(k) "Proof of death" includes an original or attested or certified copy of a death certificate or record or report that is prima facie evidence of death under Section 10577 of the Health and Safety Code, Sections 1530 to 1532, inclusive, of the Evidence Code, or another statute of this state.

(l) A financial institution "receives" an order or notice under this part when it is received by the particular office or branch office of the financial institution where the account is carried.

(m) "Request" means a proper request for withdrawal, or a check or order for payment, that complies with all conditions of the account (including special requirements concerning necessary signatures) and regulations of the financial institution; but if the financial institution conditions withdrawal or payment on advance notice, for purposes of this part the request for withdrawal or payment is treated as immediately effective and a notice of intent to withdraw is treated as a request for withdrawal.

(n) "Sums on deposit" means the balance payable on a multiple-party account including interest, dividends, and in addition any deposit life insurance proceeds added to the account by reason of the death of a party.

(o) "Trust account" means an account in the name of one or more parties as trustee for one or more beneficiaries where the relationship is established by the form of the account and the deposit agreement with the financial institution and there is no subject of the trust other than the sums on deposit in the account. In a trust account, it is not essential that payment to the beneficiary be mentioned in the deposit agreement. A trust account does not include (1) a regular trust account under a testamentary trust or a trust agreement that has significance apart from the account or (2) a fiduciary account arising from a fiduciary relation such as attorney-client.

(p) "Withdrawal" includes payment to a third person pursuant to check or other directive of a party.

CHAPTER 2. GENERAL PROVISIONS

5201. (a) The provisions of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 5301) concerning beneficial ownership as between parties, or as between parties and P.O.D. payees or beneficiaries of multiple-party accounts, are relevant only to controversies between these persons and their creditors and other successors, and have no bearing on the power of withdrawal of these persons as determined by the terms of account contracts.

(b) The provisions of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 5401) govern the liability of financial institutions who make payments pursuant to that chapter.

5202. Nothing in this part affects the law relating to transfers in fraud of creditors.

CHAPTER 3. OWNERSHIP BETWEEN PARTIES AND THEIR CREDITORS AND SUCCESSORS

5301. (a) A joint account belongs, during the lifetime of all parties, to the parties in proportion to the net contributions by each to the sums on deposit, unless there is clear and convincing evidence of a different intent.

(b) A P.O.D. account belongs to the original payee during his or her lifetime and not to the P.O.D. payee or payees. If two or more parties are named as original payees, during their lifetimes the account belongs to them in proportion to the net contributions by each to the sums on deposit, unless there is clear and convincing evidence of a different intent.

(c) Unless a contrary intent is manifested by the terms of the account or the deposit agreement or there is other clear and convincing evidence of an irrevocable trust, a trust account belongs beneficially to the trustee during his or her lifetime, and if two or more parties are named as trustee on the account, during their lifetimes the account belongs beneficially to them in proportion to the net contributions by each to the sums on deposit, unless there is clear and convincing evidence of a different intent. If there is an irrevocable trust, the account belongs beneficially to the beneficiary.

5302. (a) Sums remaining on deposit at the death of a party to a joint account belong to the surviving party or parties as against the estate of the decedent unless there is clear and convincing evidence of a different intention. If there are two or more surviving parties, their respective ownerships during lifetime shall be in proportion to their previous ownership interests under Section 5301 augmented by an equal share for each survivor of any interest the decedent may have owned in the account immediately before the decedent's death; and the right of survivorship continues between the surviving parties.

(b) If the account is a P.O.D. account:

(1) On death of one of two or more original payees, the rights to any sums remaining on deposit are governed by subdivision (a).

(2) On death of the sole original payee or of the survivor of two or more original payees, (A) any sums remaining on deposit belong to the P.O.D. payee or payees if surviving, or to the survivor of them if one or more die before the original payee, (B) if two or more P.O.D. payees survive, any sums remaining on deposit belong to them in equal and undivided shares unless the terms of the account or deposit agreement expressly provide for different shares, and (C) if two or more P.O.D. payees survive, there is no right of survivorship in the event of death of a P.O.D. payee thereafter unless the terms of the account or deposit agreement expressly provide for survivorship between them.

(c) If the account is a trust account:

(1) On death of one of two or more trustees, the rights to any sums remaining on deposit are governed by subdivision (a).

(2) On death of the sole trustee or the survivor of two or more trustees, (A) any sums remaining on deposit belong to the person or persons named as beneficiaries, if surviving, or to the survivor of them if one or more die before the trustee, unless there is clear and convincing evidence of a contrary intent, (B) if two or more beneficiaries survive, any sums remaining on deposit belong to them in equal and undivided shares unless the terms of the account or deposit agreement expressly provide for different shares, and (C) if two or more beneficiaries survive, there is no right of survivorship in event of death of any beneficiary thereafter unless the terms of the account or deposit agreement expressly provide for survivorship between them.

(d) In other cases, the death of any party to a multiple-party account has no effect on beneficial ownership of the account other than to transfer the rights of the decedent as part of the decedent's estate.

(e) A right of survivorship arising from the express terms of the account or under this section, a beneficiary designation in a trust account, or a P.O.D. payee designation, cannot be changed by will.

5303. (a) The provisions of Section 5302 as to rights of survivorship are determined by the form of the account at the death of a party.

(b) Once established, the terms of a multiple-party account can be changed only by any of the following methods:

(1) Closing the account and reopening it under different terms.

(2) Presenting to the financial institution a modification agreement that is signed by all parties with a present right of withdrawal. If the financial institution has a form for this purpose, it may require use of the form.

(3) If the provisions of the terms of the account or deposit agreement provide a method of modification of the terms of the account, complying with those provisions.

5304. Any transfers resulting from the application of Section 5302 are effective by reason of the account contracts involved and this part and are not to be considered as testamentary. The right under this part of a surviving party to a joint account, or of a beneficiary, or of a P.O.D. payee, to the sums on deposit on the death of a party to a multiple-party account shall not be denied, abridged, or affected because such right has not been created by a writing executed in accordance with the laws of this state prescribing the requirements to effect a valid testamentary disposition of property.

5305. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 5301 to 5303, inclusive, if parties to an account are married to each other, whether or not they are so described in the deposit agreement, their net contribution to the account is presumed to be and remain their community property.

(b) The presumption established by this section is a presumption affecting the burden of proof and may be rebutted by proof of either of the following:

(1) The sums on deposit that are claimed to be separate property can be traced from separate property unless it is proved that the married persons made an agreement that expressed their clear intent that such sums be their community property.

(2) The married persons made a written agreement, separate from the deposit agreement, that expressly provided that the sums on deposit, claimed not to be community property, were not to be community property.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a right of survivorship arising from the express terms of the account or under Section 5302, a beneficiary designation in a trust account, or a P.O.D. payee designation, cannot be changed by will.

(d) Except as provided in subdivision (c), a multiple-party account created with community property funds does not in any way alter community property rights.

5306. For the purposes of this chapter, if a joint account was established before July 1, 1984, and the account was established as a "tenancy in common" account, no right of survivorship arises from the terms of the account or under Section 5302.

CHAPTER 4. PROTECTION OF FINANCIAL INSTITUTION

5401. (a) Financial institutions may enter into multiple-party accounts to the same extent that they may enter into single-party accounts. Any multiple-party account may be paid, on request and according to its terms, to any one or more of the parties.

(b) The terms of the account or deposit agreement may require the signatures of more than one of the parties to a multiple-party account during their lifetimes or of more than one of the survivors after the death of any one of them on any check, check endorsement, receipt, notice of withdrawal, request for withdrawal, or withdrawal order. In such case, the financial institution shall pay the sums on deposit only in accordance with such terms, but those terms do not limit the right of the sole survivor or of all of the survivors to receive the sums on deposit.

(c) A financial institution shall not be required to inquire as to the source of funds received for deposit to a multiple-party account, or to inquire as to the proposed application of any sum withdrawn from an account, for purposes of establishing net contributions.

5402. Any sums in a joint account may be paid, on request and according to its terms, to any party without regard to whether any other party is incapacitated or deceased at the time the payment is demanded; but payment may not be made to the personal representative or heirs of a deceased party unless proof of death is presented to the financial institution showing that the decedent was the last surviving party or unless there is no right of survivorship under Section 5302.

5403. Any P.O.D. account may be paid, on request and according to its terms, to any original party to the account. Payment may be made, on request, to the P.O.D. payee or to the personal representative or heirs of a deceased P.O.D. payee upon presentation to the financial institution of proof of death showing that the P.O.D. payee survived all persons named as original payees. Payment may be made to the personal representative or heirs of a deceased original payee if proof of death is presented to the financial institution showing that the deceased original payee was the survivor of all other persons named on the account either as an original payee or as P.O.D. payee.

5404. Any trust account may be paid, on request and according to its terms, to any trustee. Unless the financial institution has received written notice that the beneficiary has a vested interest not dependent upon surviving the trustee, payment may be made to the personal representative or heirs of a deceased trustee if proof of death is presented to the financial institution showing that the deceased trustee was the survivor of all other persons named on the account either as trustee or beneficiary. A trust account may be paid to a beneficiary or beneficiaries or the personal representative or heirs of a beneficiary or beneficiaries if proof of death is presented to the financial institution showing that the beneficiary or beneficiaries survived all persons named as trustees.

5405. (a) Payment made pursuant to Section 5401, 5402, 5403, or 5404 discharges the financial institution from all claims for amounts so paid whether or not the payment is consistent with the beneficial ownership of the account as between parties, P.O.D. payees, or beneficiaries, or their successors.

(b) The protection provided by subdivision (a) does not extend to payments made after the financial institution has been served with a court order restraining payment. No other notice or any other information shown to have been available to a financial institution shall affect its right to the protection provided by subdivision (a).

(c) Unless the notice is withdrawn, after receipt of a written notice from any party that withdrawals in accordance with the terms of the account should not be permitted, the financial institution may refuse, without liability, to pay any sums on deposit pending determination of the rights of the parties or their successors.

(d) The protection provided by this section has no bearing on the rights of parties in disputes between themselves or their successors concerning the beneficial ownership of funds in, or withdrawn from, multiple-party accounts and is in addition to, and not exclusive of, any protection provided the financial institution by any other provision of law.

5406. The provisions of this chapter that apply to the payment of a trust account apply to an account in the name of one or more parties as trustee for one or more other persons if the financial institution has no other or further notice that the account is not a trust account as defined in Section 5101.

5407. If a financial institution is required or permitted to make payment pursuant to this chapter to a person who is a minor:

(a) If the minor is a party to a multiple-party account, payment may be made to the minor or to the minor's order, and payment so made is a valid release and discharge of the financial institution, but this subdivision does not apply if the account is to be paid to the minor because the minor was designated as a P.O.D. payee or as a beneficiary of a trust account.

(b) In cases where subdivision (a) does not apply, payment shall be made as provided in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 3400) of Part 8 of Division 4.

SEC. 6. (a) A financial institution has no duty to inform any of the following of the enactment of Division 5 (commencing with Section 5100) of the Probate Code:

(1) Any depositor holding an account on the operative date of Part 1 (commencing with Section 5100) of Division 5 of the Probate Code.

(2) Any beneficiary named in a trust account on the operative date of Part 1 (commencing with Section 5100) of Division 5 of the Probate Code.

(3) Any P.O.D. payee designated on a P.O.D. account on the operative date of Part 1 (commencing with Section 5100) of Division 5 of the Probate Code.

(b) No liability shall be imposed on a financial institution for failing to inform any person described in subdivision (a) of the enactment of Part 1 (commencing with Section 5100) of Division 5 of the Probate Code.

SEC. 7. Sections 1, 3, 4, 5, and 6 of this act shall become operative on July 1, 1984, and shall apply to accounts in existence on that date, and accounts thereafter established, in financial institutions as defined in Section 5101 of the Probate Code.

SEC. 8. Section 2 of this act shall become operative on January 1, 1984.

CHAPTER 93

An act to add Sections 14820 and 14821 to, and to repeal Section 14813 of, the Financial Code, relating to credit unions.

[Approved by Governor June 15, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 15, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14813 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 14820 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

14820. (a) Any member of a credit union may authorize another person or persons to act by proxy with respect to such membership, subject to subdivision (e). Any proxy purported to be executed in accordance with this part shall be presumptively valid.

(b) No proxy shall be valid after the expiration of 11 months from the date thereof unless otherwise provided in the proxy, except that the maximum term of any proxy shall be three years from the date of execution. Every proxy continues in full force and effect until revoked by the person executing it prior to the vote pursuant thereto, except as otherwise provided in this section. Such revocation may be effected by a writing delivered to the corporation stating that the proxy is revoked or by a subsequent proxy executed by the person executing the prior proxy and presented to the meeting, or as to any meeting by attendance at such meeting and voting in person by the person executing the proxy. The dates contained on the forms of proxy presumptively determine the order of execution, regardless of the postmark dates on the envelopes in which they are mailed.

(c) A proxy is not revoked by the death or incapacity of the maker or the termination of a membership as a result thereof unless, before the vote is counted, written notice of such death or incapacity is received by the corporation.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivisions (b) and (c), whenever any credit union which is subject to the provisions of this division is insolvent or its capital is impaired, or, when the commissioner determines that a credit union is in danger of insolvency or an impairment of its capital and the board of the directors of the credit union presents a reorganization plan to the commissioner and such plan is approved, the board of directors may, subject to the provisions of this division, solicit irrevocable proxies for a proxyholder who qualifies pursuant to this section. Unless otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, the proxy of a member which states that it is irrevocable is irrevocable for the period specified therein when it is held by any of the following or a nominee of any of the following:

(1) A person who has purchased or who has agreed to purchase the membership.

(2) A creditor or creditors of the credit union who extended or continued credit or contracted to perform services to the corporation in consideration of the proxy if the proxy states that it was given in consideration of the extension or continuation of credit or services and the name of the person extending or continuing the credit or performing the service.

(3) A person who has contracted to perform services as an employee of the credit union, if the proxy is required by the contract of employment and if the proxy states that it was given in consideration of such contract of employment, the name of the employee, and the period of employment for which the employee has contracted.

Notwithstanding the period of irrevocability specified, the proxy becomes revocable when the agreement to purchase is terminated, the debt of the credit union or the member is paid, or the period of employment provided for in the contract of employment or the contract to perform services has terminated. In addition to paragraphs (1) through (3), a proxy of a member may be made irrevocable notwithstanding subdivision (c) if it is given to secure the performance of a duty or to protect a title, either legal or equitable, until the happening of events which by its terms, discharge the obligations secured by it.

(e) Subdivision (a) notwithstanding:

(1) No amendment of the articles or bylaws repealing, restricting, creating or expanding proxy rights may be adopted without approval by the members.

(2) No amendment of the articles or bylaws restricting or limiting the use of proxies may affect the validity of a previously issued irrevocable proxy during the term of its irrevocability, so long as it complied with applicable provisions, if any, of the articles or bylaws at the time of issuance, and is otherwise valid under this section.

(f) Anything to the contrary notwithstanding, any revocable proxy covering matters requiring a vote of the members pursuant to Section 7222, Section 7224, Section 7233, Section 7812, paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 7911, Section 8012, subdivision (a) of Section 8015, Section 8610, or subdivision (a) of Section 8719 of the Nonprofit Mutual Benefit Corporation Law, Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110) of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, or subdivision (e) is not valid as to such matters unless it sets forth the general nature of the matter to be voted on.

SEC. 3. Section 14821 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

14821. (a) Any form of proxy or written ballot distributed to 10 or more members of a credit union with 100 or more members shall afford an opportunity on the proxy or form of written ballot to specify at the time the written ballot or proxy is distributed, a choice between approval and disapproval of each matter or group of related matters intended to be acted upon at the meeting for which the proxy is solicited or by such written ballot, and shall provide, subject to reasonable specified conditions, that where the person solicited specifies a choice with respect to any such matter the vote shall be cast in accordance therewith.

(b) In any election of directors, any form of proxy or written ballot in which the directors to be voted upon are named therein as candidates and which is marked by a member "withhold" or otherwise marked in a manner indicating that the authority to vote for the election of directors is withheld, shall not be voted either for or against the election of a director.

(c) Failure to comply with this section shall not invalidate any corporate action taken, but may be the basis for challenging any proxy at a meeting or written ballot and the superior court may compel compliance therewith at the suit of any member.

CHAPTER 94

An act to amend Sections 5300, 5301, 5302, 5303, and 5304 of the Financial Code, relating to savings and loan associations and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 15, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State June 15, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5300 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

5300. (a) To meet the operating costs and expenses provided for in this division, for the payment of which no provision is otherwise made, the commissioner shall require each association doing business in this state to pay in advance an annual assessment for its pro rata share of all operating costs and expenses as estimated by the commissioner for the ensuing year.

(b) As used in this article, "association" includes a foreign association doing business in this state under an approval issued by the commissioner.

SEC. 2. Section 5301 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

5301. The proportion of operating costs and expenses to be assessed against each association shall be determined and prescribed by the commissioner by regulation. The total amount assessed for all associations together with any existing surplus shall not exceed the amount of the budget for the ensuing fiscal year plus a reasonable reserve for contingencies.

SEC. 3. Section 5302 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

5302. (a) On or before the 20th day of June of each year the commissioner shall notify each association by mail of the amount assessed and levied against it.

(b) Except as provided in this article, each association shall pay one-half of the amount assessed so as to be received by the commissioner not later than the 10th day of July and pay the remainder so as to be received by the commissioner not later than the following 10th day of January. There shall be no rebate or refund of an assessment if an association ceases to be an association by reason of merger, consolidation, conversion, acquisition of assets or similar type transaction during a fiscal year.

(c) If payment is not received by the commissioner on time, the commissioner shall assess and collect in addition to the annual assessment, a penalty of 5 percent of the unpaid assessment for each month or part of a month that the payment is delinquent.

SEC. 4. Section 5303 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

5303. (a) If a new domestic association is formed and licensed during a fiscal year, the initial assessment provided for by this article shall be computed on the same basis as if such new association had been a licensed association and assessed on or before the 20th day of June in the fiscal year preceding the initial assessment except that the initial assessment shall be based on the assets of the new association at the time of issuance of its license and, except as provided in subsection (b) hereof, the assessment shall be reduced, if the license is not issued in July, by one-twelfth for each full month of the fiscal year which has expired at the time of issuance of the license and shall be payable in full on the date of the issuance of the license.

(b) In the levy and collection of an assessment under this article, no association shall be assessed for, nor be permitted to pay less than five hundred dollars ($500) for the unexpired portion of the fiscal year in which such domestic association is formed.

SEC. 5. Section 5304 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

5304. If any domestic association proposes to acquire the assets of any federal savings and loan association or any state or national bank by transfer, conversion, or otherwise, the initial assessment provided for by this article shall be computed on the same basis as if such federal savings and loan association or state or national bank had been a state association and assessed on or before the 20th day of June in the fiscal year preceding the initial assessment, except that the initial assessment shall be based on the assets of the federal savings and loan association or of the state or national bank, as shown by the institution's report to the Federal Home Loan Bank, the Superintendent of Banks, or the Comptroller of the Currency, respectively, next preceding the 20th day of June in the fiscal year preceding the initial assessment and the assessment shall be reduced, if the license is not issued in July, by one-twelfth for each full month of the fiscal year which has expired at the time of the issuance of the license and shall be payable in full on the date of the issuance of the license.

It is necessary that this act take effect at the earliest possible date in order to facilitate budget planning for fiscal year 1983-84 by the Department of Savings and Loan. Conversion of several large savings and loan associations from state license to federal charter has diminished the asset base upon which assessments supporting the department are predicated. In order to maintain the department's independent existence and preserve its attention to assuring association compliance with state laws and regulations, including those involving consumer protection and antidiscrimination, as well as to monitor continued financial growth and safety of these institutions consistent with public need and convenience, and to protect the funds deposited with these associations to assure that the saving and borrowing public are properly and legally served, it is essential that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 95

An act to amend Sections 477, 2221, and 2222 of, to add Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 496) to Division 1.5 of, and to repeal and add Section 2185 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to businesses and professions.

[Approved by Governor June 15, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 15, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 477 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

477. As used in this division: (a) "board" includes "bureau," "commission," "committee," "department," "division," "examining committee," and "agency."

(b) "License" includes certificate, registration or other means to engage in a business or profession regulated by this code.

SEC. 2. Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 496) is added to Division 1.5 of the Business and Professions Code, to read:

CHAPTER 5. EXAMINATION SECURITY

496. A board may deny, suspend, revoke or otherwise restrict a license on the ground that an applicant or licensee has subverted or attempted to subvert any licensing examination or the administration of an examination, including but not limited to:

(a) Conduct which violates the security of the examination materials; removing from the examination room any examination materials; the unauthorized xerographic, photographic or other mechanical reproduction of any portion of the actual licensing examination; aiding by any means the unauthorized xerographic, photographic or other mechanical reproduction of any portion of the actual licensing examination; paying or using professional or paid examination-takers for the purpose of reconstructing any portion of the licensing examination; obtaining examination questions or other examination material, except by specific authorization either before, during or after an examination or use or purport to use any examination questions or materials which were improperly removed or taken from any examination for the purpose of instructing or preparing applicants for examinations; or selling, distributing, buying, receiving or having unauthorized possession of any portion of a future, current or previously administered licensing examination.

(b) Conduct which violates the standard of examination administration; communicating with any other examinee during the administration of a licensing examination; copying answers from another examinee or permitting one's answers to be copied by another examinee; having in one's possession during the administration of the licensing examination any books, equipment, notes, written or printed materials or data of any kind, other than the examination materials distributed, or otherwise authorized to be in one's possession during the examination; or impersonating any examinee or having an impersonator take the licensing examination on one's behalf.

497. Whenever any person has engaged, or is about to engage, in any acts or practices which constitute, or will constitute, a violation of any provision of this chapter, the superior court in and for the county wherein the acts or practices take place, or are about to take place, may issue an injunction, or other appropriate order, restraining such conduct on application of a board, the Attorney General or the district attorney of the county.

The proceedings under this section shall be governed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

The remedy provided for by this section shall be in addition to, and not a limitation on, the authority provided for in any other provision of this code.

SEC. 3. Section 2185 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 2185 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

2185. An applicant for a physician's and surgeon's certificate who fails to pass the examination shall either be reexamined in the entire examination and obtain a passing score, or be reexamined in the part, or parts, failed and successfully pass each part of the examination with a score of at least 75 percent.

SEC. 5. Section 2221 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2221. The Division of Licensing may deny a physician's and surgeon's certificate to any applicant guilty of unprofessional conduct or of any cause that would subject a licensee to revocation or suspension of license; or, the division in its sole discretion, may issue a probationary certificate to an applicant subject to terms and conditions, including, but not limited to, any of the following conditions of probation: (1) practice limited to a supervised, structured environment where the licensee's activities shall be supervised by another physician; (2) total or partial restrictions on drug prescribing privileges for controlled substances; (3) continuing medical or psychiatric treatment; (4) ongoing participation in a specified rehabilitation program; (5) enrollment and successful completion of a clinical training program; (6) abstention from the use of alcohol or drugs; (7) restrictions against engaging in certain types of medical practice; and (8) compliance with all provisions of this chapter.

Enforcement and monitoring of the probationary conditions shall be under the jurisdiction of the Division of Medical Quality which may initiate disciplinary proceedings to revoke or suspend the probationary license for any violation of probation. Upon satisfactory completion of probation, the Division of Licensing shall convert the probationary certificate to a regular certificate free from conditions.

SEC. 6. Section 2222 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2222. The Podiatry Examining Committee shall enforce and administer the provisions of this article as to podiatry certificate holders. The committee may order the denial of an application or issue a certificate subject to conditions as set forth in Section 2221, or order the revocation, suspension, or other restriction of, or the modification of such penalty, and the reinstatement of any podiatrist's certificate within its authority as granted by this chapter. For these purposes the committee shall exercise the powers granted in this chapter.

CHAPTER 96

An act to amend Sections 6461 and 6463 of the Streets and Highways Code, relating to the Improvement Act of 1911.

[Approved by Governor June 15, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 15, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6461 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

6461. The bonds shall:

- (a) Be payable to the party to whom they issue, or to order.
- (b) Be serial bonds.
- (c) Bear interest at the rate specified in the resolution of intention to do the work, unless the legislative body finds that a lesser rate of interest is appropriate at the time of advertising for construction bids, in which case a lesser interest rate may be specified in the construction bid advertisements.

- (d) Have annual principal coupons attached to them, payable in annual order, on the second day of January of every year after the next September 1st following the date of the bond, until all are paid. Each principal coupon shall be for an even annual proportion of the principal of the bond.

- (e) Have semiannual interest coupons attached to them.

SEC. 2. Section 6463 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

6463. The interest shall be payable semiannually, by coupon, on the second days of January and July, respectively, of each year after the date of the bonds. The bonds shall bear the date of the 31st day after the date of recordation of the warrant, whether or not the date falls on a Sunday or holiday. The first interest coupon shall be for interest from the date of the bonds and shall be payable to the holder thereof on the January 2nd next succeeding the September 1st or the July 2nd next succeeding the March 1st, as the case may be, next following the date of the bond. The rate of interest shall not exceed the interest rate established by Section 53531 of the Government Code as that section reads at the time of the adoption of the resolution of intention by the legislative body pursuant to Section 5132.

CHAPTER 97

An act to amend Section 17804 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to marriage, family and child counselors.

[Approved by Governor June 15, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State June 15, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17804 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

17804. To qualify for a license an applicant shall have all the following qualifications:

(a) (1) At least a two-year master's degree in marriage, family, and child counseling or a master's degree in counseling psychology, or their equivalent, obtained from a school, college or university accredited by the Western College Association, the Northwest Association of Secondary and Higher Schools, or an essentially equivalent accrediting agency as determined by the board. Equivalent degrees include, but are not limited to, the master's degree in social work from a school accredited by the Council on Social Work Education and the master's degree in child development and family studies.

(2) After September 1, 1978, an applicant shall have a doctor's or a two-year master's degree in marriage, family, and child counseling or a master's degree in social work, clinical psychology, counseling, or a degree determined by the board to be equivalent. Such degree shall be obtained from a school, college, or university accredited as provided in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a).

(b) Must be at least 18 years of age.

(c) At least two years' experience, in interpersonal, relationship, marriage, family and child counseling and psychotherapy under the supervision of a licensed marriage, family and child counselor, licensed clinical social worker, licensed psychologist, or licensed physician certified in psychiatry, or the equivalent as determined by the board. All experience shall be at all times under the supervision of the supervisor who shall, with the person being supervised, be responsible for insuring that the extent, kind and quality of counseling performed is consistent with the training and experience of the person being supervised, and who shall be responsible to the board for the compliance of all laws, rules and regulations governing the practice of marriage, family and child counseling. Supervision shall include at least one hour of direct supervision for each week of experience claimed. Any person supervising another pursuant to this subdivision shall have been licensed or certified for at least two years prior to acting as a supervisor, except this requirement shall not affect any supervisory relationship in existence on December 31, 1983. The board may prescribe by regulation such other qualifications for supervisors as it deems appropriate.

(d) The applicant shall pass a written examination conducted by the board or persons designated by the board and shall pass an oral examination if required in the discretion of the board for all applicants.

(e) Must not have committed acts or crimes constituting grounds for denial of licensure under Section 480.

CHAPTER 98

An act to amend Section 35012 of, and to repeal Section 35012.1 of the Government Code, relating to municipal annexation.

[Approved by Governor June 15, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State June 15, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 35012 of the Government Code is amended to read:

35012. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 35011, upon approval of the commission a city may annex noncontiguous territory not exceeding 300 acres in area, which is located in the same county as that in which the city is situated, and which is owned by the city and is being used for municipal purposes at the time preliminary proceedings are initiated pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 35100) of this part. If, after the completion of the annexation, the city sells such territory or any part thereof, all such territory which is no longer owned by the city shall cease to be a part of the city.

If territory is annexed pursuant to this section, the annexing city may not annex any territory not owned by it and not contiguous to it although such territory is contiguous to the territory annexed pursuant to this section.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this section to the contrary, a city which annexes territory pursuant to this section may annex additional territory which is owned by the United States government or the State of California and which is contiguous to such first annexed territory if the total acreage of the first annexed and the subsequently annexed territory together does not exceed 300 acres in area. If after the completion of such subsequent annexation, the city sells all or any part of such first annexed territory, the subsequently annexed territory shall cease to be part of the city if it is no longer contiguous to territory owned by the city.

When territory ceases to be part of a city pursuant to this section, the legislative body of the city shall adopt a resolution confirming such detachment. The resolution shall describe the detached territory and shall be accompanied by a map indicating the territory. Immediately upon adoption of the resolution, the city clerk shall make such filing as is provided for by Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 35350).

If territory annexed to a city pursuant to this section becomes contiguous to such city, the limitations imposed by this section shall cease to apply.

SEC. 2. Section 35012.1 of the Government Code is repealed.

CHAPTER 99

An act to amend Sections 2238, 2258, 2269, 2282, and 2355 of the Civil Code, and to amend Sections 733, 772, 851.5, and 902 of, and to repeal Section 657 of, the Probate Code, relating to fiduciaries.

[Approved by Governor June 15, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State June 16, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2238 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2238. (a) A trustee who uses or disposes of the trust property in any manner not authorized by the trust, but in good faith, and with intent to serve the interests of the beneficiary, is liable only to make good whatever is lost to the beneficiary by his or her error.

(b) A trustee who uses or disposes of the trust property in any manner not authorized by the trust but in compliance with subdivision (b) of Section 2258 shall not be liable to the beneficiary.

SEC. 2. Section 2258 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2258. (a) A trustee must fulfill the purpose of the trust, as declared at its creation, and must follow all the directions of the trustor given at that time, except as modified by the consent of all parties interested, in the same manner, and to the same extent, as an employee.

(b) With respect to a revocable trust, the trustee shall follow all written directions acceptable to the trustee given from time to time to the trustee by the person or persons then having the power to revoke the trust or that portion thereof with respect to which the direction is given or by the person or persons other than the trustee to whom the trustor delegates the right to direct the trustee. In acceding to and carrying out such direction, the trustee shall incur no liability to any person having a vested or contingent interest in the trust and may follow such instructions regardless of any fiduciary obligations to which the directing party may also be subject.

SEC. 3. Section 2269 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2269. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c), a discretionary power conferred upon a trustee is presumed not to be left to his or her arbitrary discretion, but shall be exercised reasonably.

(b) The exercise of a discretionary power is subject to review by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(c) Subject to the additional requirements of subdivision (d), where a trust instrument confers absolute, sole, or uncontrolled discretion upon a trustee, the trustee shall act in accordance with fiduciary principles and shall not act in bad faith or in disregard of the purposes of the trust.

(d) Notwithstanding the trustor's use of terms such as "absolute", "sole", or "uncontrolled", a person who is a beneficiary of a trust and who, either individually or as trustee or cotrustee, holds a power to take or distribute income or principal to or for the benefit of himself or herself pursuant to a standard shall exercise that power reasonably and in accordance with the standard. In any case in which the standard governing the exercise of the power does not clearly indicate that a broader power is intended, such a holder of the power may exercise it in his or her favor only for his or her health, education, support, or maintenance, and the exercise of the power shall be subject to review by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(e) Unless specifically so authorized, a person who holds a power to appoint or distribute income or principal to or for the benefit of others, either individually or in a fiduciary capacity, may not use the power to discharge his or her legal obligations.

SEC. 4. Section 2282 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2282. A trustee can be discharged from his or her trust only as follows:

(a) By the extinction of the trust.

(b) By the completion of his or her duties under the trust.

(c) By such means as may be prescribed by the declaration of trust.

(d) By the consent of the beneficiary, if the beneficiary has capacity to contract.

(e) By the superior court.

SEC. 5. Section 2355 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2355. An agency is terminated, as to every person having notice thereof, by any of the following:

(a) The expiration of its term.

(b) The extinction of its subject.

(c) The death of the agent.

(d) The agent's renunciation of the agency.

(e) The incapacity of the agent to act as such.

(f) The divorce, dissolution, annulment, or adjudication of the nullity of marriage of, or the judicial or legal separation of, principal and attorney in fact, or commencement by the attorney in fact of an action for such relief, in the case of a power of attorney, if the attorney in fact was the spouse of the principal, and the principal has become an absentee as defined in Section 1403 of the Probate Code, unless the power of attorney expressly provides otherwise in writing.

SEC. 6. Section 657 of the Probate Code, as amended by Section 9 of Chapter 1535 of the Statutes of 1982, is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 733 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

733. For claims based upon written contract the rate of interest specified in the contract shall be paid in accordance with the terms thereof until the claim is paid in full. No greater rate of interest shall be paid upon any other claim after its allowance by the administrator or executor and its approval by the judge than 10 percent per annum; and if the estate is insolvent, no greater rate of interest shall be paid upon any debt, from the time of the first publication of notice to creditors, than is allowed upon judgments. If any debt of the decedent bears interest, whether filed or presented or not, the executor or administrator, by order of the court, may pay the amount then accumulated and unpaid, or any part thereof, at any time when there are sufficient funds properly applicable thereto, whether the claim be then due or not; and interest shall thereupon cease to accrue upon the amount so paid.

SEC. 8. Section 772 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

772. Except as provided in Sections 757, 770, and 771, personal property may be sold only after notice posted at the courthouse of the county in which the proceedings are pending at least 10 days before the sale or, in case of a private sale, at least 10 days before the day on or after which the sale is to be made; or by publication pursuant to Section 6063a of the Government Code in a newspaper in such county, or by both, as the executor or administrator may determine. If it is shown that it will be for the best interests of the estate, the court may shorten the time of notice to no less than five days, and such notice must then be posted, or published pursuant to Section 6061 of the Government Code in the county in which the proceedings are pending, at least five days before the sale, or, in the case of a private sale, at least five days before the day on or after which the sale is to be made. Notice given pursuant to this section shall contain the time and place of sale, and a brief description of the property to be sold and stating whether the sale is to be a private or public sale. In case of a private sale the notice must state a place at which bids or offers will be received and a day on or after which the sale will be made and the sale must not be made before that day but must be made within one year thereafter. Public sales, must be made at the courthouse door, or at some other public place, or at the residence of the decedent; but no public sale shall be made of any personal property which is not present at the time of sale, unless the court shall otherwise order. A public sale may be postponed from time to time if the executor or administrator deems it for the interests of all persons concerned, such postponement not to exceed in all three months. In case of such postponement, notice thereof must be given by public declaration at the time and place appointed for the sale.

Title to tangible personal property sold at public sale passes upon receipt of the purchase price and delivery of the property to the buyer but the executor or administrator is responsible for the actual value of the property unless, after making a sworn return, and on proper showing, the court shall approve the sale.

SEC. 9. Section 851.5 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

851.5. If a person dies in possession of, or holding title to, real or personal property which, or some interest in which, is claimed to belong to another, or dies having a claim to real or personal property, title to or possession of which is held by another, the executor, administrator, or any claimant may file with the clerk of the court a verified petition setting forth the facts upon which the claim is predicated. Thereupon the clerk shall set the petition for hearing by the court and give notice thereof for the period and in the manner required by Section 1200. The petitioner shall cause notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition to be mailed to the executor or administrator (if not the petitioner) and all known heirs, legatees and devisees at their last known addresses, as provided in Section 1200, whether they have requested special notice or given notice of appearance or not. The petitioner shall also cause notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition to be served in accordance with Title 5 (commencing with Section 410.10) of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure on any other person who may have an interest in the property which is the subject of the petition, at least 30 days prior to the date set for hearing. Any interested person may request time for filing a response to the petition, for discovery proceedings, or for other preparation for such hearing and the court shall grant a continuance for a reasonable time for any of such purposes. Notice of pendency of such proceeding may be filed pursuant to Section 409 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Any person having or claiming title to or an interest in the property which is the subject of the petition, at or prior to the hearing, may object to the hearing of the petition if the petition is filed in a court which is not the proper court under any other provision of law for the trial of a civil action seeking the same relief and, if such objection be established, the court shall not grant the petition. If a civil action is pending in respect to the subject matter of a claim filed pursuant to this section and jurisdiction has been obtained in the court where the civil action is pending prior to the filing of such claim the court shall abate the petition until the conclusion of the civil action.

SEC. 10. Section 902 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

902. Such further allowances may be made as the court may deem just and reasonable for any extraordinary services, such as sales or mortgages of real or personal property, contested or litigated claims against the estate, the successful defense of a will which is contested either before or after the will is admitted to probate, the preparation of estate, inheritance, income, sales or other tax returns, or the adjustment or litigation or payment of any of said taxes, litigation in regard to the property of the estate, the carrying on of the decedent's business pursuant to an order of the court, and such other litigation or special services as may be necessary for the executor or administrator to prosecute, defend, or perform.

The executor or administrator may also employ or retain tax counsel, tax auditors, accountants, or other tax experts for the performance of any action which such persons, respectively, may lawfully perform in the computation, reporting, or making of tax returns, or in negotiations or litigation which may be necessary for the final determination and payment of taxes, and pay from the funds of the estate for such services.

CHAPTER 100

An act to add Section 61601.2 to the Government Code, relating to community services districts, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 16, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 16, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 61601.2 is added to the Government Code, to read:

61601.2. Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 61600 and 61601, whenever the Board of Directors of the Groveland Community Services District or the Big Bear City Community Services District determines by resolution that it is feasible, economically sound, and in the public interest for the district to exercise its power for the purpose of constructing, installing, owning, maintaining, and operating hydroelectric power generating facilities and transmission lines for the conveyance thereof, either within or without or partly within and partly without the district, the board may adopt that additional purpose by resolution entered in the minutes, and thereafter the powers of the district may be exercised for that purpose. The district shall, for the purpose of constructing these facilities, have all of the power and authority to issue revenue bonds pursuant to Section 61613.1, which section authorizes the issuance of revenue bonds for other types of revenue producing authorities. The facilities so constructed shall be operated in a manner consistent with the district's storage, transmission, and distribution of irrigation and domestic water and reclaimed waste water. The power generated shall be used for district purposes or sold to a public utility or other public agency engaged in the generation, distribution, use, or sale of electrical power. The board may thereafter divest the district of the power to carry on this activity in the same manner as it acquired that power.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that the Groveland Community Services District and the Big Bear City Community Services District have potential sources of hydroelectric power inside and outside the districts' boundaries which can be generated as an incident to the district's storage, transmission, and distribution of irrigation and domestic water and reclaimed waste water. These incidental sources of hydroelectric power are not common to other community services districts. The Legislature therefore finds and declares that a special law is necessary with respect to the Groveland Community Services District and the Big Bear City Community Services District, that the provisions of this act are needed to meet the special circumstances of the districts, and that a general law cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

In order for the Groveland Community Services District and the Big Bear City Community Services District to participate in the development and recovery of available hydroelectric power at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take immediate effect.

[Approved by Governor June 16, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 16, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2343 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2343. Each member of a committee shall receive per diem and expenses as provided in Section 103.

SEC. 2. Section 2653 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2653. (a) An applicant who was issued a diploma by a physical therapy school not located in the United States shall meet all of the following requirements in order to be licensed as a physical therapist:

(1) Furnish documentary evidence satisfactory to the committee, that he or she has completed in a physical therapy school or schools a physical therapy education that entitles the applicant to practice as a physical therapist in the country where the diploma was issued. The physical therapy education received by the applicant shall reasonably include biological sciences, physical sciences, and the requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 2650. The committee may require an applicant to submit documentation of his or her education to a credentials evaluation service for review and a report to the committee.

(2) Pass the written examination required in Section 2636. The requirements to pass the written examination shall not apply to an applicant who at the time of application has passed, to the satisfaction of the committee, an examination for licensure in another state, district, or territory of the United States, that is, in the opinion of the committee, comparable to the examination given in this state.

(3) Complete a period of clinical service under the direct and immediate supervision of a physical therapist licensed by the board which does not exceed nine months in a location approved by the committee, in a manner satisfactory to the committee. The applicant shall have passed the written examination required in subdivision (b) prior to commencing the period of clinical service. The committee shall require the supervising physical therapist to evaluate the applicant and report his or her findings to the committee. The committee may in its discretion waive all or part of the required clinical service pursuant to guidelines set forth in its regulations. During the period of clinical service until he or she is issued a license as a physical therapist by the board, the applicant shall be identified as a "physical therapist license applicant."

(4) Pass an oral examination administered by the committee at the completion of the clinical service if the clinical service has not been completed in a manner satisfactory to the committee.

(b) Nothing contained in this section shall prohibit the committee from disapproving any foreign physical therapy school or from denying the applicant if, in the opinion of the committee, the instruction received by the applicant or the courses were not equivalent to that required in this chapter.

SEC. 3. Section 6548 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6548. (a) Not less than four times each year, two times in the southern part of the state and two times in the northern part of the state, the board shall conduct examinations to ascertain the educational qualifications of each of the following:

(1) Applicants for certificates of registration to practice as registered barbers.

(2) Applicants for certificates of registration to practice as instructors in a barber college.

(b) The examination of applicants for certificates of registration as registered barbers shall include both a practical demonstration and a written test and shall embrace the subjects usually taught in colleges of barbering approved by the board. The examination for a certificate of registration as a registered barber shall include the standard methods for dressing all textures of hair, including hair relaxing. The written examination shall be limited to clearly job-related questions on the following subjects:

(1) Sanitation, antiseptics, sterilization, hygiene, bacteria, and health and safety aspects of consumer protection.

(2) Hair tonics, hairdressing preparations, and rinses.

(3) Facials and scalp massages or treatments with creams, lotions, oils, or other cosmetic preparations either by hand or mechanical appliances which are not galvanic or faradic.

(4) Implements of barbering.

(5) Laws and regulations governing the practice of barbering.

(6) Common skin and hair diseases of the scalp, face, and neck.

(7) The structure and functions of the skin and hair of the scalp, face, and neck.

(8) Cosmetic preparations and chemicals used in the practice of barbering.

(9) Circulation, muscles, nerves, and cells of the scalp, face, and neck only as those subjects are related to massaging or other acts of barbering.

(10) Fundamentals of hair coloring and bleaching.

(11) Fundamentals of hair straightening (also known as hair relaxing).

(12) Waving of hair, except that waving shall not include permanent waving.

(c) If an applicant fails to appear for a scheduled examination, the board may assess a penalty fee of not more than 50 percent of the examination fee and in no event to exceed five dollars ($5). The board shall reschedule the examination date for the applicant upon the applicant's payment of the penalty fee.

SEC. 4. Section 10161.75 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

10161.75. The holder of an inactive license may reinstate or renew the license on an active basis only, provided the licensee presents evidence of compliance with all provisions of this part and is otherwise qualified.

SEC. 5. Section 10171.1 of the Business and Professions Code, as added by Chapter 179 of the Statutes of 1981, is amended and renumbered to read:

10170.5. No real estate license shall be renewed unless the commissioner finds that the applicant for the license has, during each four-year period preceding the renewal application, completed as part of the 45 clock hours of attendance provided for in Section 10170.4, a three-hour course in ethics, professional conduct, and legal aspects of real estate. Any such course shall include, but need not be limited to, relevant legislation, regulations, articles, reports, studies, court decisions, treatises, and information of current interest.

This section shall be operative until January 1, 1985, and on that date is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 10171.6 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

10171.6. The holder of an inactive license who applies for activation of the license shall present evidence of compliance with the continuing education requirements of this chapter if the applicant has not held an active real estate license within the four years immediately preceding the date of application for activation. If the applicant for activation is unable to present evidence of having satisfied the continuing education requirements of this chapter, the commissioner may upon a showing of hardship to the applicant activate the license for a period of not to exceed 90 days. If the licensee presents evidence of compliance with the continuing education requirements of this chapter within the period of active licensure authorized by the commissioner, the commissioner shall authorize activation for the remainder of the regular term of the license without any additional fee.

SEC. 7. Section 10249.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

10249.2. The sale or lease, or the offering for sale or lease, of lots or parcels in a subdivision situated outside of this state shall be governed by Article 6 (commencing with Section 10237) and of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 11000) of Part 2, insofar as applicable.

The Real Estate Commissioner may adopt regulations reasonably necessary to enforce this article.

The actual subdivision fees established by regulation shall not exceed the amount reasonably required by the department to process applications for permits required by this article.

SEC. 8. Section 11017 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

11017. All fees and earned expense collected under this chapter shall be deposited in the Real Estate Fund under Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 10450) of Part 1.

The actual subdivision fees established by regulation shall not exceed the amount reasonably required by the department to process questionnaires and applications for public reports required by this article.

SEC. 9. Section 5010 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

5010. If the articles or bylaws provide for more or less than one vote for any membership on any matter, the references in Sections 5033 and 5034 to a majority or other proportion of memberships mean, as to those matters, a majority or other proportion of the votes entitled to be cast. Whenever in Part 2 (commencing with Section 5110) or Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110) members are disqualified from voting on any matter, their memberships shall not be counted for the determination of a quorum at any meeting to act upon, or the required vote to approve action upon, that matter under any other provision of Part 2 (commencing with Section 5110) or Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110) or the articles or bylaws.

SEC. 10. Section 5011 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

5011. All references in Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110) to the voting of memberships include the voting of securities given voting rights in the articles pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 7132.

SEC. 11. Section 5012 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

5012. All references in this part, Part 2 (commencing with Section 5110), Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110), or Part 4 (commencing with Section 9110) to financial statements of a corporation mean statements prepared in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles or some other basis of accounting which reasonably sets forth the assets and liabilities and the income and expenses of the corporation and discloses the accounting basis used in their preparation.

SEC. 12. Section 5013 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

5013. As used in this part, Part 2 (commencing with Section 5110), Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110), or Part 4 (commencing with Section 9110), "independent accountant" means a certified public accountant or public accountant who is independent of the corporation, as determined in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and who is engaged to audit financial statements of the corporation or perform other accounting services.

SEC. 13. Section 5014 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

5014. Any requirement in Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110) for a vote of each class of members means such a vote regardless of limitations or restrictions upon the voting rights thereof, unless expressly limited to voting memberships.

SEC. 14. Section 5015 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

5015. Any reference in this part, Part 2 (commencing with Section 5110), Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110), Part 4 (commencing with Section 9110), or Part 5 (commencing with Section 9910) to the time a notice is given or sent means, unless otherwise expressly provided, the time a written notice by mail is deposited in the United States mails, postage prepaid; or the time any other written notice is personally delivered to the recipient or is delivered to a common carrier for transmission, or actually transmitted by the person giving the notice by electronic means, to the recipient; or the time any oral notice is communicated, in person or by telephone or wireless, to the recipient or to a person at the office of the recipient who the person giving the notice has reason to believe will promptly communicate it to the recipient.

SEC. 15. Section 5040 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

5040. "Chapter" refers to a chapter of Part 2 (commencing with Section 5110), Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110), or Part 4 (commencing with Section 9110) unless otherwise expressly stated.

SEC. 16. Section 5042 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

5042. "Common memberships," as used in Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110), means memberships which have no preference over any other memberships with respect to distribution of assets on liquidation.

SEC. 17. Section 5043 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

5043. "Common shares," as used in Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110), means shares which have no preference over any other shares with respect to distribution of assets on liquidation or with respect to payment of dividends.

SEC. 18. Section 5046 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

5046. (a) "Corporation" as used in this part and Part 5 (commencing with Section 9910), refers to corporations defined in subdivisions (b), (c), and (d).

(b) "Corporation," as used in Part 2 (commencing with Section 5110), means a nonprofit public benefit corporation as defined in Section 5060.

(c) "Corporation," as used in Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110) means a nonprofit mutual benefit corporation as defined in Section 5059.

(d) "Corporation," as used in Part 4 (commencing with Section 9110), including those provisions of Part 2 (commencing with Section 5110) made applicable pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 9610) of Part 4, means a nonprofit religious corporation as defined in Section 5061.

SEC. 19. Section 5052 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

5052. "Foreign business corporation," as used in Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110), means a foreign corporation as defined in Section 171 except that it does not include a foreign corporation as defined in Section 5053.

SEC. 20. Section 5055 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

5055. "Liquidating price" or "liquidation preference," as used in Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110), means amounts payable on memberships of any class, upon voluntary or involuntary dissolution, winding up or distribution of the entire assets of the corporation, in priority to amounts payable to members of another class or classes.

SEC. 21. Section 5058 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

5058. "Membership certificate," as used in Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110), means a document evidencing a transferable property interest in a corporation.

SEC. 22. Section 5063 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

5063. "On the certificate," as used in Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110), means that a statement appears on the face of a certificate or on the reverse thereof with a reference thereto on the face.

SEC. 23. Section 5066 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

5066. "Preferred membership," as used in Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110), means a membership other than a common membership.

SEC. 24. Section 5067 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

5067. "Preferred shares," as used in Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110), means shares other than common shares.

SEC. 25. Section 5071 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

5071. "Shareholder," as used in Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110), means one who is a holder of record of shares.

SEC. 26. Section 5072 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

5072. "Shares," as used in Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110), means the units into which the proprietary interests in a business corporation or foreign business corporation are divided in the articles.

SEC. 27. Section 16212 of the Education Code is amended to read:

16212. In lieu of grants to districts pursuant to subdivision (1) of Section 16211 for the purpose of acquisition of portable buildings or other facilities and equipment, the board may expend moneys available for grants under this article for the acquisition of portable buildings and facilities and equipment by the state, and thereafter convey the same to the eligible districts. The conveyance to eligible districts may take the form of sale, lease, outright grant, or other suitable form of conveyance, as determined by the board.

SEC. 28. Section 41407 of the Education Code is amended to read:

41407. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall prepare an annual report on administrative ratios, utilizing the information submitted pursuant to Section 41405. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall transmit a copy of this report to the Legislature and to any agency or individual who requests it.

SEC. 29. Section 42237.9 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 100 of the Statutes of 1981, is repealed. The repeal made by this section shall not affect the existence or validity of Section 42237.9 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 129 of the Statutes of 1981.

SEC. 30. Section 69517 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 707 of the Statutes of 1981, is amended to read:

69517. (a) By October 15 of each year, the Student Aid Commission may propose adjustments to award selection procedures and selection criteria established pursuant to Section 69516. The proposed adjustments shall be made available for public review and comment pursuant to procedures set forth in Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. In determining adjustments, the commission shall consider at least all of the following factors:

(1) The impact of the adjustments on the distribution of funds and awards among income groups, ethnic groups, and grade point average levels.

(2) The impact of the adjustments on the distribution of funds and awards among postsecondary education segments.

(3) The costs of implementing proposed adjustments.

(4) The availability of financial aid from other sources for students who qualify for an award.

(b) The commission may also consider the impact of inflation in the proposed adjustments pursuant to subdivision (a).

SEC. 31. Section 69517 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1115 of the Statutes of 1981, is amended and renumbered to read:

69517.5. The Student Aid Commission shall, with the assistance of the Attorney General's office, seek refunds on any awards to students in this chapter which resulted from the student or his or her parents, or both, reporting information concerning their status incorrectly, with the incorrect information leading to the establishment of the student's financial eligibility to receive an award.

SEC. 32. Article 5 (commencing with Section 72650) of Chapter 6 of Part 45 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 471 of the Statutes of 1981, is repealed. The repeal made by this section shall not affect the existence or validity of Article 5 (commencing with Section 72650) of Chapter 6 of Part 45 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 930 of the Statutes of 1981.

SEC. 33. Section 78002 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 470 of the Statutes of 1981, is repealed. The repeal made by this section shall not affect the existence or validity of Section 78002 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1000 of the Statutes of 1981.

SEC. 34. Section 3801.5 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

3801.5. Nongame birds not covered by the Migratory Bird Treaty Act which are found to be injuring growing crops or property may be taken by the owner or tenant of the premises. They may also be so taken by officers or employees of the Department of Food and Agriculture or by federal or county officers or employees when acting in their official capacities pursuant to the provisions of the Food and Agricultural Code pertaining to pests, or pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 6021) of Chapter 9 of Part 1 of Division 4 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

Landowners and tenants taking birds in accordance with this section are exempt from Section 3007.

SEC. 35. Section 4185 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

4185. In any district or part of a district within San Bernardino and Riverside Counties, bears may be taken at any time with traps within a good and substantial fence, as such fence is described in Section 17121 of the Food and Agricultural Code, surrounding beehives, if no part of the fence is at a distance greater than 50 yards from a beehive, and if a conspicuous sign is posted and maintained at each entrance to the enclosed premises to give warning of the presence of the traps. No iron or steel-jawed or any type of metal-jawed trap shall be used to take bear under this section.

SEC. 36. Section 8022 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8022. The receipts, reports, or other records filed with the department pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 7700) to this article, inclusive, and the information contained therein, shall, except as otherwise provided in this section, be confidential, and the records shall not be public records, and, insofar as possible, the information contained in the records shall be compiled or published as summaries, so as not to disclose the individual record or business of any person.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, commercial landing receipts recorded pursuant to Sections 8011 and 8023, except for the actual name of the seller and buyer of the fish, filed with the department may be used or disseminated as determined by the director to be necessary for development of interstate management plans for Dungeness crab.

SEC. 37. Section 8371 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8371. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), it is unlawful to buy or sell striped bass or sturgeon or parts thereof, or to possess striped bass or sturgeon or parts thereof in any place where fish are bought, possessed for sale, or sold, or where food is offered for sale, or in any truck or other conveyance operated by or for a place so selling or possessing fish.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not apply to any of the following:

(1) Artificially propagated striped bass or sturgeon.

(2) Striped bass or sturgeon raised for sale for scientific study by either a domestic fish breeder licensed pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 6450) of Chapter 5 of Part 1, or a person who is licensed to engage in cultivating marine life.

(3) Striped bass or sturgeon imported pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 2301) of Chapter 3 of Division 3.

(4) Sturgeon imported pursuant to Section 2363.

SEC. 38. Section 8497 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8497. If the director determines that the California halibut resource, or existing fishing operations, within the designated California halibut trawl grounds are in danger of irreparable injury, he or she may order the closure of the area, or portions thereof, to trawl net fishing or further restrict the nets that may be used in the area, or portions thereof. Any such closure or restriction order shall be adopted by emergency regulation in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

The department shall bring to the attention of the Legislature within 30 calendar days after commencement of the next succeeding regular session of the Legislature any regulation adopted pursuant to this section.

SEC. 39. Section 8498 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 40. Section 4051 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

4051. An association, with the approval of both the Department of Food and Agriculture and the Department of General Services, may do any of the following:

(a) Contract.

(b) Purchase, acquire, hold, sell, exchange, or convey any interest in real or personal property and beautify or improve that property. Any acquisition of land or other real property shall be subject to the Property Acquisition Law (Part 11 (commencing with Section 15850) of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code).

(c) Lease, let, or grant licenses for the use of its real estate or personal property, or any portion of that property, to any person or public body for whatever purpose may be approved by the board.

(d) Use or manage its real estate or personal property, or any portion of that property, for any or all of the purposes of this section jointly with any lessee, sublessee, or licensee, or otherwise use or manage the property in connection with the lease, sublease, or license which is made or granted.

(e) Lease or let its real property for public park, recreational, or playground purposes.

(f) Rent or permit the use of its premises for any purpose which is beneficial to the agricultural industry, including, but not limited to, the holding of sales or auctions of cattle or other livestock.

(g) Contract with any county or county fair association for holding a fair jointly with the county or county fair association. The joint fair is a district fair of the association.

(h) Make permanent improvements upon publicly owned real property adjacent to real property of the district when the improvements materially benefit the property of the district.

SEC. 41. Section 4053 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

4053. The Director of Food and Agriculture may make available for the use of any association any property of the state which is suitable for the purposes of the association and which has been obtained by the state by gift from any county or city, or otherwise, without cost to the state.

SEC. 42. Section 9211 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

9211. No person shall engage in the production of biologics except in any of the following:

(a) In an establishment licensed by the United States Department of Agriculture.

(b) In an establishment producing biologics only for use by the owner or operator of that establishment for animals owned by him or her. Biologics produced in such an establishment shall be registered by the director under this chapter.

(c) In an establishment licensed by the director.

SEC. 43. Section 9231 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

9231. The license application fee and license renewal fee under this chapter for an establishment proposing to produce or producing biologics shall be as follows:

(a) The application and annual license fee shall be two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each establishment, which shall be the fee for the fiscal year, or portion thereof, ending June 30 of each year. When an applicant is a city, county, state, or district, or an official thereof, no fee shall be required under this section.

(b) Licenses shall be renewed every year. The annual renewal fee shall be paid on or before the first day of July of each year.

(c) The fees required by this section are maximum, and may be fixed by the director at a lesser amount for any fiscal year whenever he or she finds that the cost of administering this chapter can be defrayed from revenues derived from the lower fees.

SEC. 44. Section 9241 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

9241. No person shall offer for sale or use any biologic unless it is registered by the director pursuant to this article, except, however, no such registration shall be required of any biologic manufactured pursuant to the terms of a valid license issued by the United States Department of Agriculture unless the director finds that, due to local conditions, it is necessary that the biologic be registered in order to assure that it have value for the purpose intended and it is safe to use in this state.

SEC. 45. Section 33082 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

33082. The director shall supervise the operation of all approved milk inspection services in the enforcement of this division and the regulations which are adopted by him or her.

SEC. 46. Section 33084 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

33084. The director, at least once each month, shall report to the Controller the total amount of money which is collected under Section 33294. He or she shall, at the same time, pay into the State Treasury the entire amount of the receipts which shall be credited to the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund and expended as provided in Section 32704.

SEC. 47. Section 33114 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

33114. The director shall establish and collect fees for the application and for the examination of persons for the position of registered dairy inspector to cover the cost of carrying out the provisions of this article. The application fee shall not exceed ten dollars ($10) and the examination fee shall not exceed thirty dollars ($30). Any fees collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund and be used in carrying out this article.

SEC. 48. Section 34353 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

34353. Any money which is received under this article shall be paid into the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund.

SEC. 49. Section 35251 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

35251. The director, at least once each month, shall report to the Controller the total amount of any money which is collected under Section 35221. He or she shall, at the same time, pay into the State Treasury the entire amount of the receipts which shall be credited to the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund and expended as provided in Section 32704.

SEC. 50. Section 38983 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

38983. The regulations shall be adopted after a public hearing in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 51. Section 38986 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

38986. If the director determines that fees established to enforce and administer this chapter exceed the cost of enforcing and administering this chapter, he or she may by regulation reduce the fees accordingly. If he or she determines that the fees are insufficient to defray the costs, he or she may use funds for the administration and enforcement of this chapter which are collected from producers and distributors pursuant to Article 14 (commencing with Section 62211) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 21 and which have been appropriated from the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund for this purpose.

SEC. 52. Section 40561 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

40561. Any money which is collected pursuant to this chapter shall be paid into the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund.

SEC. 53. Section 40933 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

40933. Any money which is collected pursuant to this article shall be remitted to the director weekly during the tomato canning season for deposit into the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund to be used in carrying out the purposes of this chapter.

SEC. 54. Section 41195 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

41195. Any money which is received pursuant to this article shall be paid into the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund to be expended in carrying out this article.

SEC. 55. Section 42763 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

42763. Any money which is received pursuant to this article shall be paid into the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund to be expended in carrying out this article.

SEC. 56. Section 62031 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

62031. The director may amend or terminate any stabilization and marketing plan, after notice and public hearing as prescribed in Article 7 (commencing with Section 61991), if he or she finds that the plan is no longer in conformity with the standards which are prescribed in, or will not tend to effectuate the purposes of, this chapter. Any order under this article amending or terminating any stabilization and marketing plan shall be subject to Section 61996.

SEC. 57. Section 6254.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

6254.5. Notwithstanding any other provisions of the law, whenever a state or local agency discloses a public record which is otherwise exempt from this chapter, to any member of the public, this disclosure shall constitute a waiver of the exemptions specified in Sections 6254, 6254.7, or other similar provisions of law. For the purposes of this section, before a disclosure of an otherwise exempt public record by a state or local agency to a federal agency, is made, the federal agency shall agree in writing to comply with this chapter. For purposes of this section, "agency" includes a member, agent, officer, or employee of the agency acting within the scope of his or her membership, agency, office, or employment.

This section, however, shall not apply to disclosures:

(a) Made pursuant to the Information Practices Act (commencing with Section 1798 of the Civil Code) or discovery proceedings.

(b) Made through other legal proceedings.

(c) Within the scope of disclosure of a statute which limits disclosure of specified writings to certain purposes.

(d) Not required by law, and prohibited by formal action of an elected legislative body of the local agency which retains the writings.

SEC. 58. The heading of Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 8855) of Division 1 of Title 2 of the Government Code is amended and renumbered to read:

CHAPTER 11. CALIFORNIA DEBT ADVISORY COMMISSION

SEC. 59. Section 11004 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11004. Sections 11002 and 11003 do not apply to:

(a) Applications or other documents required or permitted to be filed under the Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 10100) of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code.

(b) Applications to appropriate water under Division 2 (commencing with Section 1000) of the Water Code.

SEC. 60. Section 11121.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11121.5. Under the provisions of this article, the official student body organization at any campus of the California State University, or of the California Community Colleges, shall be treated in the same manner as a state body.

SEC. 61. Section 12853 of the Government Code is amended to read:

12853. The secretary of each agency and any other officer or employee within the agency designated in writing by the secretary shall have the power of a head of a department pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 11180) of Chapter 2 of Part 1.

SEC. 62. Section 12855 of the Government Code is amended to read:

12855. For the purpose of this chapter, “agency” means the State and Consumer Services Agency, the Health and Welfare Agency, or the Resources Agency, or the Youth and Adult Correctional Agency, and “secretary” means the secretary of any such agency. The general powers of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency and its secretary are those specified in Part 4.5 (commencing with Section 13975).

SEC. 63. Section 13984 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 64. Section 14087 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14087. If the governing body of a public entity wishes to appeal an action of the department taken under Section 14085 the matter shall be appealed to the Secretary of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency. Within a reasonable time after receiving the appeal, the secretary shall hear all parties involved and determine the matter, or the secretary may appoint a hearing officer to hear all parties involved and make a recommendation for the consideration of the secretary in determining the matter.

SEC. 65. Section 14790.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14790.5. Purchases of electronic data processing supplies and equipment as provided for in Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 14816) are not subject to this article.

SEC. 66. Section 14791 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14791. The bid requirements prescribed in this article do not apply to purchases or contracts for the purchase of any of the following:

(a) Fluid milk and fluid cream, the price of which is established in accordance with Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 61801) of Part 3 of Division 21 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

(b) Fruits and vegetables procured under contract with growers for the use of canneries maintained and operated by state agencies, if the canneries are maintained and operated so that their canned products will meet the standards prescribed for similar commercially packed canned products under federal law.

(c) Such agricultural surpluses as may be available to the state or its agencies by any governmental agency.

SEC. 67. Section 14792 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14792. Except as provided in Article 1 (commencing with Section 14780), every purchase of supplies or equipment in excess of one hundred dollars ($100) for any state agency shall be made by or under the supervision of the Department of General Services. However, the state agency may specify the quality of the supplies or equipment to be purchased. If the Department of General Services determines that the quality specified by the agency is inconsistent with the statewide purchasing standards established by the Director of General Services under Section 14792.5, it shall change the order to make it consistent with the standards, and it shall notify the state agency, within a reasonable time, before a purchase order is issued. If the agency is of the opinion the interests of the state would not be served by the purchase of supplies or equipment of a lesser quality or different than that specified by the agency, the agency may request a hearing before the State Board of Control and the board shall determine which supplies or equipment will best serve the interests of the state, whereupon the department shall issue a purchase order for the supplies or equipment specified by the State Board of Control.

SEC. 68. Section 14824 of the Government Code, as amended by Section 8 of Chapter 867 of the Statutes of 1981, is amended to read:

14824. This article shall not apply to the Regents of the University of California or to the Trustees of the California State University.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1987, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1987, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 69. Section 18861 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 70. Section 50921 of the Government Code is amended to read:

50921. Whenever any peace officer of a city, county, or city and county of this state is injured, dies, or is disabled from performing his or her duties as a peace officer by reason of engaging in the apprehension or attempted apprehension of law violators or suspected law violators or protection or preservation of life or property, or the preservation of the peace anywhere in this state, including the local jurisdiction in which he or she is employed, but is not at the time acting under the immediate direction of his or her employer, he, she, or his or her dependents, as the case may be, shall be accorded by his or her employer all of the same benefits including the benefits of the Workers' Compensation Law, which he, she, or they would have received had that peace officer been acting under the immediate direction of his or her employer. Any injury, disability, or death incurred under the circumstances described in this section shall be deemed to have arisen out of and been sustained in the course of employment for purposes of workers' compensation and all other benefits.

SEC. 71. Section 51293.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51293.1. Any public agency or person requiring land in an agricultural preserve for a use which has been determined by a city or county to be a "compatible use" pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 51201 in that agricultural preserve shall not be excused from the provisions of subdivision (b) of Section 51291 if the agricultural preserve was established before the location of the improvement of a public utility was submitted to the city, county, or Public Utilities Commission for agreement or approval and that compatible use shall not come within the provisions of Section 51293 unless the location of the improvement is approved or agreed to pursuant to subdivision

(a) of Section 51293 or the compatible use is listed in Section 51293.

SEC. 72. Section 51939.74 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51939.74. The procedures set forth in this article shall have validity and effect and shall be followed in the event the provisions of Article 3 (commencing with Section 51920) are not effective.

SEC. 73. Section 51953 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51953. The charter may provide for the manner in which any of the other cities which has elected to retain its local governmental structure pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 51920) or its governmental independence pursuant to Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 51939.50), whichever is applicable, may at any time become consolidated and merged into the city-county government following a majority vote of its voters voting thereon.

SEC. 74. Section 53115.4 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 75. Section 53202.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53202.1. In approving a plan or plans of health and welfare benefits, the local agency may approve policies of life, health, legal expense, and accident insurance, or any of them, from an admitted insurer or from a nonprofit membership corporation, as defined in Section 1157, wherein a bona fide association, as defined in Section 1157.1, is the policyholder or contractholder, for the benefit of the agency and the officers and employees authorizing the purchase.

SEC. 76. Section 54914 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 77. Section 54916 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 78. Section 54917 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 79. Section 54918 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 80. Section 54919 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 81. Section 54920 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 82. Section 54921 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 83. Section 54922 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 84. Section 61606 of the Government Code is amended to read:

61606. Notwithstanding Sections 61600 and 61601, the district may construct, maintain, and operate one or more plants, which plants are constructed after January 1, 1982, for the generation of hydroelectric power. The plant or plants so constructed shall be operated in a manner consistent with the district's storage, transmission, and distribution of irrigation and domestic water. Construction of the plant or plants may be financed by the issuance of revenue bonds as otherwise provided in this division.

SEC. 85. Section 65909 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65909. No local governmental body, or any agency thereof, may condition the issuance of any building or use permit or zone variance on any or all of the following:

(a) The dedication of land for any purpose not reasonably related to the use of the property for which the variance, building, or use permit is requested.

(b) The posting of a bond to guarantee installation of public improvements not reasonably related to the use of the property for which the variance, building, or use permit is requested.

SEC. 86. The heading of Chapter 4.6 (commencing with Section 65990) of Division 1 of Title 7 of the Government Code is amended and renumbered to read:

CHAPTER 4.8. ENVIRONMENTAL IMPROVEMENT
AUTHORIZATIONS

SEC. 87. Section 66412 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66412. This division does not apply to any of the following:

(a) The financing or leasing of apartments, offices, stores or similar space within apartment buildings, industrial buildings, commercial buildings, mobilehome parks, or trailer parks.

(b) Mineral, oil, or gas leases.

(c) Land dedicated for cemetery purposes under the Health and Safety Code.

(d) A lot line adjustment between two or more existing adjacent parcels, where the land taken from one parcel is added to an adjacent parcel, and where a greater number of parcels than originally existed is not thereby created, provided the lot line adjustment is approved by the local agency, or advisory agency.

(e) Boundary line or exchange agreements to which the State Lands Commission or a local agency holding a trust grant of tide and submerged lands is a party.

(f) Any separate assessment under Section 2188.7 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(g) Unless a parcel or final map was approved by the legislative body of a local agency, the conversion of a community apartment project, as defined in Section 11004 of the Business and Professions Code, to a condominium, as defined in Section 783 of the Civil Code, but only if all of the following requirements are met:

(1) At least 75 percent of the units in the project were occupied by record owners of the project on March 31, 1982.

(2) A final or parcel map of the project was properly recorded, if the property was subdivided, as defined in Section 66424, after January 1, 1964, with all of the conditions of that map remaining in effect after the conversion.

(3) The local agency certifies that the above requirements were satisfied if the local agency, by ordinance, provides for such certification.

(h) Unless a parcel or final map was approved by the legislative body of a local agency, the conversion of a stock cooperative, as defined in Section 11003.2 of the Business and Professions Code, to a condominium, as defined in Section 783 of the Civil Code, but only if all of the following requirements are met:

(1) At least 51 percent of the units in the cooperative were occupied by stockholders of the cooperative on January 1, 1980, or individually owned by stockholders of the cooperative on January 1, 1980. As used in this paragraph a cooperative unit is "individually owned" if and only if the stockholder of the unit owns or partially owns an interest in no more than one unit in the cooperative.

(2) No more than 25 percent of the shares of the cooperative were owned by any one person, as defined in Section 17, including an incorporator or director of the cooperative, on January 1, 1980.

(3) A person renting a unit in a cooperative shall be entitled at the time of conversion to all tenant rights in state or local law, including, but not limited to, rights respecting first refusal, notice, and displacement and relocation benefits.

(4) The local agency certifies that the above requirements were satisfied if the local agency, by ordinance, provides for such certification.

SEC. 88. Section 66452.7 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66452.7. The governing body, when there is no advisory agency or the advisory agency is required by Section 66455.5 to submit the tentative map to the Office of Intergovernmental Management, may extend the time permitted for action on such map if it is required to allow consideration of the evaluation received from the Office of Intergovernmental Management, but the extension shall not exceed 15 days.

SEC. 89. Section 66473.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66473.5. No local agency shall approve a tentative map, or a parcel map for which a tentative map was not required, unless the legislative body finds that the proposed subdivision, together with the provisions for its design and improvement, is consistent with the general plan required by Article 5 (commencing with Section 65300) of Chapter 3 of Division 1, or any specific plan adopted pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 65450) of Chapter 3 of Division 1.

A proposed subdivision shall be consistent with a general plan or a specific plan only if the local agency has officially adopted such a plan and the proposed subdivision or land use is compatible with the objectives, policies, general land uses, and programs specified in such a plan.

SEC. 90. Section 66714.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66714.3. "Enforcement agency" means the local agency, the board, or the department designated pursuant to Section 66796 for the purpose of carrying out Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 66795).

SEC. 91. Section 66731 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66731. State solid waste management and resource recovery policy shall consist of the policies, plans, and programs established pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 66770).

SEC. 92. Section 66790 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66790. In addition to all other powers and duties under this chapter, the board shall do all of the following:

(a) Conduct studies and investigations regarding new or improved methods of solid waste handling, disposal, or reclamation and review and coordinate solid waste management studies by other state agencies.

(b) Prepare and implement a statewide solid waste management information storage and retrieval system coordinated with other state information systems.

(c) Implement a public information program to provide information to local government, private industry, and general maximum environmental protection, and effective reuse of waste products.

(d) Render technical assistance to state and local agencies, local health officers, and others in the planning and operation of solid waste programs.

(e) Conduct studies of the nature, extent, and methods of reducing and controlling the litter problems statewide, including, but not limited to, methods of improving public education and incentives not to litter, necessary additional legislation, and improved methods of implementing existing litter laws.

(f) Adopt and enforce all regulations reasonably necessary to carry out the policies, requirements, and duties of this title in conformity, as nearly as practicable, with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2.

(g) Assist enforcement agencies in the development, implementation, and maintenance of their inspection, enforcement, training, and regulatory programs.

(h) Organize, operate, and conduct any solid waste enforcement activity as it deems advisable upon the request of the local governing body of any city, county, or city and county and upon the appropriation for solid waste enforcement purposes by that city, county, or city and county of a sum adequate to compensate the board for the full cost of that activity.

(i) Require, as necessary, any state or local agency having jurisdiction to investigate and report on any questions or matters involved in solid waste handling and disposal. The requirement shall be subject to the budgetary constraints of the state or local agency.

SEC. 93. Section 66795 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66795. This chapter shall be known and cited as the Z'berg-Kapiloff Solid Waste Control Act of 1976.

SEC. 94. Section 782 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

782. Excepting laws regulating the discharge of sewage into or upon the navigable waters of any lake, reservoir, or fresh water impoundment of this state, and notwithstanding the provisions of Section 660, no vessel, as defined in subdivision (f) of Section 775.5 shall, from September 19, 1974, be subject to any other state or local government law, ordinance, or regulation with respect to the design, manufacture, installation, or use within any vessel of any marine sanitation device. Notwithstanding this chapter or any other provision of law, nothing in this chapter shall be construed to in any way preclude or restrict a city, city and county, county, or other regional or local governmental agency, from enacting local rules and regulations, by ordinance or otherwise, with respect to the discharge of sewage from vessels.

SEC. 95. Section 6330 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

6330. A district may create a bonded debt pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 43600) of Chapter 4 of Division 4 of Title 4 of the Government Code.

Bonds may be issued for the purpose of raising money for use in carrying out any of the powers and purposes of the district.

SEC. 96. Section 423.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

423.1. The State Department of Health Services shall conduct a program for the control of high blood pressure. The program shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(a) Support of local community high blood pressure control programs to improve the quality and distribution of high blood pressure control services.

(b) Promotion of consumer participation in high blood pressure control efforts.

(c) Statewide coordination of high blood pressure control activities.

(d) Planning, including development, adoption, periodic review, and revision of a state plan for high blood pressure control; and assistance to local agencies in their planning efforts.

(e) Gathering, analysis, and dissemination of epidemiologic data and information on high blood pressure and its resulting effects, and support of high blood pressure research.

(f) Development and maintenance of a clearinghouse for high blood pressure information, materials, and services.

(g) Promotion of local and regional councils on high blood pressure control.

(h) Evaluation of high blood pressure control efforts.

(i) Education of patients, health professionals, and the general public.

SEC. 97. Section 432.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

432.6. Applications for hospital construction projects for which federal funds are requested shall be submitted to the department, and may be submitted by the state or any political subdivision thereof or by any public or nonprofit agency authorized to construct and operate a hospital. Each application for a construction project shall conform to federal and state requirements, and shall be submitted in the manner and form prescribed by the department.

Any county which applies for or accepts federal funds for any hospital does so on condition that the hospital for which assistance is requested and accepted, at all times during which it is operated, (a) shall be qualified for a license under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250) of Division 2 (whether or not that chapter is otherwise applicable to the hospital), and be subject to inspection under that chapter to the same extent as are other hospitals to which that chapter applies; and (b) shall not restrict patients to those unable to pay for their care.

SEC. 98. Section 434.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

434.5. The department shall, to the extent required by federal law, ascertain and enforce compliance with federal and state provisions and rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this section during the period that an applicant who receives federal assistance remains obligated in order to assure the provision of uncompensated services for persons unable to pay for those services.

The department shall adopt rules and regulations, in accordance with applicable federal regulations and Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, for administering federal requirements for uncompensated services for persons unable to pay for those services. The rules and regulations shall include all of the following:

(a) Identify categories of persons eligible for uncompensated services.

(b) Define the services that applicants may provide to meet their obligations under this section.

(c) Require obligated facilities to submit information, data, budgets, and reports, in a form and manner as the department may prescribe, describing the method under which the facility elects to establish the level at which it will provide uncompensated services.

(d) Permit department approval of requests to provide uncompensated services at a lesser level than prescribed, based on facility's inability to provide the prescribed level.

(e) Specify procedures for public hearings to inform the public of levels of uncompensated services to be provided by individual facilities or to resolve disputes and complaints relating to such levels.

(f) Set forth procedures for publication of notice concerning public hearings and, thereafter, for notices announcing the levels of uncompensated services to be provided by facilities.

(g) Describe the surveillance program utilized by the department to assure that individual facility's obligations to provide a determined level of uncompensated services are met.

SEC. 99. Section 437.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

437.7. In order to assure availability of objective and impartial review by planning groups (referred to as area health planning agencies) of proposals for health facility projects as set forth in Section 437.10, the Advisory Health Council shall evaluate and shall designate annually no more than one area health planning agency for any area of the state designated by the council, provided the agency shall be incorporated as a nonprofit corporation and be controlled by a board of directors consisting of a majority representing the public and local government as consumers of health services with the balance being broadly representative of the providers of health services and the health professions, or alternatively be a health systems agency established pursuant to Public Law 93-641. The functions of area health planning agencies shall be all of the following:

(a) To review information on utilization of hospitals and related health facilities.

(b) To develop area plans to be used for the determination of community need and desirability of projects specified in Section 437.10, consistent with the regulations adopted by the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development pursuant to Section 437.8. Each plan shall become effective upon a determination by the council that the plan is in conformance with regulations adopted pursuant to Section 437.8. The council shall integrate all of these area plans into a single Statewide Health Facilities and Services Plan, which shall become effective upon formal adoption by the council.

(c) To conduct public meetings in which providers of health care and consumers will be encouraged to participate.

(d) To review applications for certificates of need, as required by Section 437.10, and make recommendations to the office as to the need and desirability for the project proposed in the application, based upon the statewide and area plans adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) or, prior to the adoption of those plans, based upon the existing plans specified in Section 437.9. However, an area health planning agency may, with the concurrence of the office, waive participation in the review of all or any applications or class of applications.

(e) To make written findings of fact and recommendations to be delivered to the applicant and filed with the office as a public record.

Area health planning agencies shall comply with all of the following requirements:

(1) The governing body of the agency shall, to the extent feasible, be composed of individuals representative of the major social, economic, linguistic, and racial populations, and geographic areas, within the area served by the agency.

(2) The agency shall hold public meetings and hearings only after reasonable public notice. The notice shall, to the extent feasible, be publicized directly to those who, as determined by the director, are medically underserved and are in other ways denied equal access to good medical care.

(3) The agency shall file with the Advisory Health Council an affirmative action employment plan approved by the office.

Area health planning agencies may divide their areas into local areas for purposes of more effective health facility planning, with the approval of the Advisory Health Council. These local areas shall be of a geographic size and contain adequate population to insure a broad base for planning decisions. Each local area shall contain a local health planning agency which shall meet the requirements of this section.

An organization which meets the requirements of this section may make application to its area health planning agency for designation as a local health planning agency for a designated area. Within 45 days after a complete application for designation has been received, the area agency shall reach a decision concerning the application.

Each area health planning agency existing on September 9, 1976, shall continue to function as an area planning agency pursuant to this part, and shall provide review and recommendations on applications for certificates of need until such time as one or more designated health systems agencies are fully operational, as determined by the Advisory Health Council in the area served, or formerly served, by the respective area health planning agency.

If the Advisory Health Council determines that an area health planning agency approved under this section is dissolved or unable to carry out the functions required by this part, the office shall fulfill the responsibilities of an area health planning agency, pursuant to this part, in the area until such time as another area health planning agency is designated by the Advisory Health Council for that area and becomes fully operational.

Adoption of regulations setting forth administrative procedures for area and local area health planning agencies shall be made by the office pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 100. Section 437.119 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

437.119. (a) The office shall exempt from the provisions of Sections 438 to 438.13, inclusive, and shall issue a certificate of need for those projects where the applicant has shown and the director has found that the project is for a pediatric freestanding outpatient hemodialysis unit operated under an associational agreement with a university medical school renal transplant and dialysis program, and will be used exclusively for the provision of outpatient dialysis services to children, and is undertaken by a provider of dialysis services which meet the requirements for participation in the federal Medicare End-Stage Renal Disease Program. Any unit given an exemption under this subdivision shall not use the facility for any purpose other than the provision of outpatient dialysis services to children unless a certificate of need is obtained pursuant to this part.

Dialysis services provided in facilities authorized by this subdivision shall not be reimbursed by funds appropriated for the kidney diseases-chronic uremia program established pursuant to Article 7.7 (commencing with Section 417) of Chapter 2 of Part 1.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (a), a certificate of exemption issued pursuant to this section or Section 1268 shall for all purposes have the same effect as a certificate of need issued pursuant to this part.

SEC. 101. An article heading is added to Part 1.95 of Division 1, immediately preceding Section 446, of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 1. General Provisions

SEC. 102. The heading of Article 3 (commencing with Section 447.10) of Part 1.95 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

Article 2. Health Professions Careers Opportunity Program

SEC. 103. Section 447.14 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

447.14. The Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development shall maintain a Health Professions Career Opportunity Program which shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(a) Producing and disseminating a series of publications aimed at informing and motivating minority and disadvantaged students to pursue health professional careers.

(b) Conducting a conference series aimed at informing those students of opportunities in health professional training and mechanisms of successfully preparing to enter such training.

(c) Providing support and technical assistance to health professional schools and colleges as well as student and community organizations active in minority health professional development.

(d) Conducting relevant manpower information and data analysis in the field of minority and disadvantaged health professional development.

(e) Providing necessary consultation, recruitment, and counseling through other means.

(f) Supporting and encouraging minority health professionals in training to practice in health professional shortage areas of California.

SEC. 104. Section 1275 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1275. The state department shall adopt, amend, or repeal, in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code and Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5 of Division 13 of this code, such reasonable rules and regulations as may be necessary or proper to carry out the purposes and intent of this chapter and to enable the state department to exercise the powers and perform the duties conferred upon it by this chapter, not inconsistent with any statute of this state including, but not limited to, the State Building Standards Law (Part 2.5 (commencing with Section 18901) of Division 13.

All regulations in effect on December 31, 1973, which were adopted by the State Board of Public Health, the State Department of Public Health, the State Department of Mental Hygiene, or the State Department of Health relating to licensed health facilities shall remain in full force and effect until altered, amended, or repealed by the director or pursuant to Section 25 or other provisions of law.

SEC. 105. Section 1661 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1661. The provisions of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, shall be applicable to all the rules and regulations promulgated by the department under this chapter.

SEC. 106. Section 4028 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

4028. (a) When any primary drinking water standard specified in the department's regulations is not complied with, when a monitoring requirement specified in the department's regulations is not performed, or when a water purveyor fails to comply with the conditions of any variance or exemption, the person operating the public water system shall notify the department and shall give notice to the users of that fact in the manner prescribed by the department. When a variance or exemption is granted, the person operating the public water system shall give notice to the users of that fact.

(b) When a person operating a public water system determines that a significant rise in the bacterial count of water has occurred in water he or she supplies, the person shall provide, at his or her expense, a report on the rise in bacterial count of the water, together with the results of an analysis of the water within 24 hours to the department and, where appropriate, to the county health officer.

(c) When the department receives the information described in subdivision (b) and determines that it constitutes an immediate danger to health, the department shall immediately notify the person operating the public water system to implement the emergency notification plan required by this chapter.

(d) In the case of a failure to comply with any primary drinking water standard which represents an imminent danger to the health of water users, the operator shall notify each of his or her customers as provided in the approved emergency notification plan.

(e) The content of notices required by this section shall be approved by the department. Notice shall be repeated at intervals as required by the department until the department concludes that there is compliance with its standards or requirements. Notices may be given by the department.

SEC. 107. Section 4074 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

4074. The director, with the approval of the advisory committee, shall adopt rules and regulations and certification standards necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter, pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and shall submit those rules and regulations to the board for its review and approval.

SEC. 108. Section 11100 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11100. (a) Any manufacturer, wholesaler, retailer, or other person who sells, transfers, or otherwise furnishes any of the following substances to any person in this state shall submit a report to the Department of Justice of all of those transactions:

- (1) Phenyl-2-propanone
- (2) Methylamine
- (3) Ethylamine
- (4) D-lysergic acid
- (5) Ergotamine tartrate
- (6) Diethyl malonate
- (7) Malonic acid
- (8) Ethyl malonate
- (9) Barbituric acid
- (10) Piperidine
- (11) N-acetylanthranilic acid
- (12) Pyrrolidine
- (13) Phenylacetic acid
- (14) Anthranilic acid.
- (15) Morpoline.

(b) The Department of Justice may adopt rules and regulations in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code that add substances to subdivision (a) if the substance is a precursor to a controlled substance and delete substances from subdivision (a). However, no regulation adding or deleting a substance shall have any effect beyond March 1 of the year following the calendar year during which the regulation was adopted.

(c) This section shall not apply to any of the following:

(1) Any pharmacist or other authorized person who sells or furnishes such substance upon the prescription of a physician, dentist, podiatrist, or veterinarian.

(2) Any physician, dentist, podiatrist, or veterinarian who administers or furnishes such substance to his or her patients.

(3) Any manufacturer or wholesaler licensed by the California State Board of Pharmacy who sells, transfers, or otherwise furnishes such substance to a licensed pharmacy, physician, dentist, podiatrist, or veterinarian.

(d) Any manufacturer, wholesaler, retailer, or other person who sells, transfers, or otherwise furnishes the substance specified in subdivision (a) to a person in this state shall, not less than 21 days prior to delivery of the substance, submit a report of the transaction to the Department of Justice. However, the Department of Justice may authorize the submission of the reports on a monthly basis with respect to repeated, regular transactions between the furnisher and the recipient involving the same substance if the Department of Justice determines that either of the following exist:

(1) A pattern of regular supply of the substance exists between the manufacturer, wholesaler, retailer, or other person who sells, transfers, or otherwise furnishes such substance and the recipient of the substance.

(2) The recipient has established a record of utilization of the substance for lawful purposes.

(e) The Department of Justice shall grant an exemption from the reporting requirements of this section to any person who supplies a substance specified in subdivision (a) who can demonstrate, to the department's satisfaction, that the recipient requires the substance for a lawful purpose and that special circumstances prevent the supplier from reporting the transaction to the department not less than 21 days prior to delivery.

(f) (1) Any person specified in subdivision (d) who does not submit a report as required by that subdivision shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000) or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(2) Any person specified in subdivision (d) who has been previously convicted of a violation of subdivision (d) who subsequently does not submit a report as required by subdivision (d) shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), or by both the fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 109. Section 11263 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11263. Any physician and surgeon may apply to the Research Advisory Panel to conduct clinical trials of cannabis or any of its derivatives. The application shall follow the guidelines of the Research Advisory Panel. No patient shall be included in an application, unless the patient's consent is first obtained. The applications, their contents, and related correspondence and records shall be confidential and are not subject to disclosure under Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

Each application shall be reviewed by the Research Advisory Panel in executive session, which may in its discretion require an appearance by the applicant or copies of pertinent medical records of proposed patient subjects.

Chapters 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) and 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code do not apply to the pilot program conducted pursuant to this article.

SEC. 110. Section 11372.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11372.5. (a) Every person who is convicted of a violation of Section 11350, 11351, 11352, 11358, 11359, 11363, 11364, 11368, 11377, 11378, 11378.5, 11379, 11379.5, or 11383, subdivision (a) or (c) of Section 11357, or subdivision (a) of Section 11360, shall, as part of any fine imposed, pay an increment in the amount of fifty dollars ($50) for each separate offense. The courts shall increase the total fine as necessary to include this increment.

With respect to those offenses specified in this subdivision for which a fine is not authorized by other provisions of law, the court may upon conviction impose a fine in the amount of fifty dollars ($50), which shall constitute the increment prescribed by this section and which shall be in addition to any other penalty authorized by law.

(b) The county treasurer shall maintain a criminalistics laboratories fund. The sum of fifty dollars ($50) shall be deposited into the fund for every conviction under Section 11350, 11351, 11352, 11358, 11359, 11363, 11364, 11368, 11377, 11378, 11378.5, 11379, 11379.5, or 11383, subdivision (a) or (c) of Section 11357, or subdivision (a) of Section 11360, from fines, forfeitures, and other moneys which are transmitted by the courts to the county treasurer pursuant to Section 11502. The deposits shall be made prior to any transfer pursuant to Section 11502. The county may retain an amount of such money equal to its administrative cost incurred pursuant to this section. Moneys in the criminalistics laboratories fund shall, except as otherwise provided in this section, be used by the county exclusively to fund all of the following:

(1) Costs incurred by criminalistics laboratories providing microscopic and chemical analyses for controlled substances, in connection with criminal investigations conducted within both the incorporated or unincorporated portions of the county.

(2) The purchase and maintenance of equipment for use by these laboratories in performing the analyses.

(3) Continuing education, training, and scientific development of forensic scientists regularly employed by these laboratories.

(c) As used in this section, "criminalistics laboratory" means a laboratory operated by, or under contract with, a public agency, including a criminalistics laboratory of the Department of Justice, which meets both of the following requirements:

(1) It has not less than one regularly employed forensic scientist engaged in the analysis of solid-dose controlled substances.

(2) It is registered as an analytical laboratory with the Drug Enforcement Administration of the United States Department of Justice for the possession of all scheduled controlled substances.

In counties served by criminalistics laboratories of the Department of Justice, amounts deposited in the criminalistics laboratories fund, after deduction of appropriate county overhead charges attributable to the collection thereof, shall be paid by the county treasurer once a month to the Controller for deposit into the state's General Fund, and shall be excepted from the expenditure requirements otherwise prescribed by this subdivision.

The county treasurer shall, at the conclusion of each fiscal year, determine the amount of any funds remaining in the special fund established pursuant to this section after expenditures for that fiscal year have been made for the purposes herein specified. The county treasurer shall annually distribute such surplus funds in accordance with the allocation scheme for distribution of fines and forfeitures set forth in Section 11502.

SEC. 111. Section 11480 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11480. The Legislature finds that there is a need to encourage further research into the nature and effects of marijuana and hallucinogenic drugs and to coordinate research efforts on such subjects.

There is a Research Advisory Panel which consists of a representative of the State Department of Health Services, a representative of the California State Board of Pharmacy, a representative of the Attorney General, a representative of the University of California who shall be a pharmacologist, a physician, or a person holding a doctorate degree in the health sciences, a representative of a private university in this state who shall be a pharmacologist, a physician, or a person holding a doctorate degree in the health sciences, a representative of a statewide professional medical society in this state who shall be engaged in the private practice of medicine and shall be experienced in treating controlled substance dependency, a representative appointed by and serving at the pleasure of the Governor who shall have experience in drug abuse, cancer, or controlled substance research and who is either a registered nurse, licensed pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 2700) of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code, or other health professional. The Governor shall annually designate the private university and the professional medical society represented on the panel. Members of the panel shall be appointed by the heads of the entities to be represented, and they shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing power.

The Research Advisory Panel shall appoint two special members to the Research Advisory Panel, who shall serve at the pleasure of the Research Advisory Panel only during the period Article 6 (commencing with Section 11260) of Chapter 5 remains effective. The additional members shall be physicians and surgeons, and who are board certified in oncology, ophthalmology, or psychiatry.

The panel shall annually select a chairman from among its members.

The panel may hold hearings on, and in other ways study, research projects concerning marijuana or hallucinogenic drugs in this state. Members of the panel shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for any actual and necessary expenses incurred in connection with the performance of their duties.

The panel may approve research projects, which have been registered by the Attorney General, into the nature and effects of marijuana or hallucinogenic drugs, and shall inform the Attorney General of the head of the approved research projects which are entitled to receive quantities of marijuana pursuant to Section 11478.

The panel may withdraw approval of a research project at any time, and when approval is withdrawn shall notify the head of the research project to return any quantities of marijuana to the Attorney General.

The panel shall report annually to the Legislature and the Governor those research projects approved by the panel, the nature of each research project, and, where available, the conclusions of the research project.

SEC. 112. Section 12000 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

12000. For the purposes of this part, "explosives" means any substance, or combination of substances, the primary or common purpose of which is detonation or rapid combustion, and which is capable of a relatively instantaneous or rapid release of gas and heat, or any substance, the primary purpose of which, when combined with others, is to form a substance capable of a relatively instantaneous or rapid release of gas and heat. "Explosives" includes, but is not limited to, any of the following:

(a) Dynamite, nitroglycerine, picric acid, lead azide, fulminate of mercury, black powder, smokeless powder, propellant explosives, detonating primers, blasting caps, or commercial boosters.

(b) Substances determined to be class A and class B explosives as classified by the United States Department of Transportation.

(c) Nitro carbo nitrate substances (blasting agent) as classified by the United States Department of Transportation.

(d) Any material designated as an explosive by the State Fire Marshal. The designation shall be made pursuant to the classification standards established by the United States Department of Transportation. The State Fire Marshal shall adopt regulations in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code to establish procedures for the classification and designation of explosive materials or explosive devices that are not under the jurisdiction of the United States Department of Transportation.

(e) Certain class C explosives as designated by the United States Department of Transportation when listed in regulations adopted by the State Fire Marshal.

For the purposes of this part, "explosives" does not include any destructive device, as defined in Section 12301 of the Penal Code, nor does it include ammunition or small arms primers manufactured for use in shotguns, rifles, and pistols.

SEC. 113. Section 13151 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

13151. The State Fire Marshal shall prepare and adopt regulations in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (commencing with Section 11340 of the Government Code), which in his or her judgment are designed to promote the safe use of portable internal combustion engine-driven pumps used for the transfer of flammable and combustible liquids.

SEC. 114. Section 13160 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

13160. With the advice of the State Fire Advisory Board, the State Fire Marshal shall adopt, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and administer regulations and standards as he or she may deem necessary for the protection and preservation of life and property to control the servicing, including charging, and testing, of all portable fire extinguishers for controlling and extinguishing fires, and for controlling the sale and marketing of all such devices with respect to conformance with standards of their use, capacity, and effectiveness. In adopting the regulations, the State Fire Marshal shall consider the standards of the National Fire Protection Association.

SEC. 115. Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 13220) of Part 2 of Division 12 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 403 of the Statutes of 1981, is repealed. The repeal made by this section shall not affect the existence or validity of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 13220) of Part 2 of Division 12 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 557 of the Statutes of 1981.

SEC. 116. The heading of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 13250) of Part 2 of Division 12 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 345 of the Statutes of 1981, is amended and renumbered to read:

CHAPTER 7. CIVIL ACTIONS TO ABATE FIRE HAZARDS

SEC. 117. Section 17020 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

17020. Except as otherwise provided in this part, the provisions of this part, building standards published in the State Building Standards Code relating to labor camps, and the other rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to the provisions of this part which relate to labor camps apply in all parts of the state and supersede any ordinance or regulations enacted by any city, county, or city and county applicable to labor camps. Rules and regulations adopted or continued in effect prior to January 1, 1980, by former Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 2610) of Part 9 of Division 2 of the Labor Code are hereby continued in effect as rules and regulations under this part until amended or repealed by the Department of Housing and Community Development.

Building standards as defined by Section 18909 shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1985, or until adopted, amended, or superseded by provisions published in the State Building Standards Code relating to labor camps pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5, whichever occurs sooner.

SEC. 118. Section 17031 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

17031. (a) The operator of a labor camp on a farm, which meets the requirements of Section 32505 of the Food and Agricultural Code, consisting only of permanent housing may request an exemption from the requirement of obtaining an annual permit to operate. The labor camp operator shall notify each tenant of the permanent housing in writing that such an exemption is being requested. The request for exemption shall be made in writing to the enforcement agency.

An exemption shall be granted to permanent housing unless the housing is in violation of the State Housing Law, building standards published in the State Building Standards Code relating to labor camps, or the other regulations adopted pursuant to the State Housing Law in a manner which materially affects the health and safety of the occupants, or in the case of a mobilehome, is in violation of the National Mobile Home Construction and Safety Act of 1974 (42 U.S.C. 5401, et seq.) or regulations of the department pursuant to Section 18056.5 in a manner which materially affects the health and safety of the occupants, or has been found in violation of this chapter within the previous two years.

(b) Whenever the enforcement agency issues an exemption from the requirement of obtaining a permit to operate, it shall make written findings indicating the reasons for issuing the exemption. Exemptions shall be reviewed annually by the enforcement agency.

The findings of the enforcement agency shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following information:

- (1) The year the dwellings on the labor camp were constructed.
- (2) The number of years the labor camp has been operated with a valid permit to operate.
- (3) The number and character of any complaints received during the time the labor camp has been operating either with or without a permit.

- (4) Any violations cited in the last inspection of the labor camp.

(c) Failure to maintain any permanent housing in accordance with the State Housing Law, or, in the case of mobilehomes, failure to maintain such mobilehomes in accordance with the provisions of Part 2.1 (commencing with Section 18200) of Division 13, and the regulations adopted pursuant thereto, in a manner which materially affects the health and safety of the occupants, shall be considered cause for revocation of an exemption.

SEC. 119. Section 17036 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

17036. Except as provided in Section 18930, the department shall adopt regulations which it determines are necessary for the administration and enforcement of this part. The regulations adopted, amended, or repealed shall prescribe reasonable requirements for issuance of permits and establish procedures for suspension of permits, including appeal procedures.

The department shall establish a schedule of fees to pay for the cost of administration and enforcement of this part.

SEC. 120. Section 17040 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

17040. (a) Except as provided in Section 18930, the department shall adopt, amend, or repeal rules and regulations for the protection of the public health, safety, and general welfare of employees and the public, governing the erection, construction, enlargement, conversion, alteration, repair, occupancy, use, sanitation, ventilation, and maintenance of all labor camps.

(b) The appropriate enforcement agency shall enforce building standards published in the State Building Standards Code relating to labor camps and other regulations of the department promulgated pursuant to subdivision (a).

(c) The department shall adopt and submit building standards for approval pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5 for the purposes described in this chapter.

SEC. 121. Section 17041 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

17041. Except as provided in Section 17011, the rules and regulations adopted, amended, or repealed from time to time pursuant to this part shall be consistent with accepted standards and practices reasonably applicable to permanent and temporary labor camps and the utilization of housing or camping facilities. In promulgating rules and regulations, the department shall consider, among other things, geographic, topographic, and climatic conditions. The department may establish a schedule of fees for the construction and operation of labor camps wherever the department is the enforcing agency.

SEC. 122. Section 17042 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

17042. Notwithstanding any other provision of this code or of law, and except as provided in the State Building Standards Law, Part 2.5 (commencing with Section 18900), on and after January 1, 1980, the department shall not adopt or publish a building standard as defined in Section 18909, unless the provisions of Sections 18930, 18933, 18938, 18940, 18943, 18944, and 18945 are expressly excepted in the statute under which the authority to adopt rules, regulations, or orders is delegated. Any building standard adopted in violation of this section shall have no force or effect. Any building standard adopted before January 1, 1980, or continued in effect, pursuant to this part and not expressly excepted by statute from the provisions of the State Building Standards Law, shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1985, or until adopted, amended, or superseded by provisions published in the State Building Standards Code, whichever occurs sooner.

SEC. 123. Section 17050 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

17050. (a) Except as provided in Section 18930, the Department of Housing and Community Development may promulgate rules and regulations to interpret and make specific the provisions of this part and when adopted those rules and regulations shall apply to all parts of the state.

(b) Upon written notice to the Department of Housing and Community Development, any city, county, or city and county may assume the responsibility for the enforcement of this part, the building standards published in the State Building Standards Code relating to labor camps, and the other regulations adopted pursuant to the provisions of this part following approval by the department for that assumption.

(c) The Department of Housing and Community Development shall adopt regulations which shall set forth the conditions for assumption and may include required qualifications of local enforcement agencies. When assumption is approved, the department shall transfer the responsibility for enforcement to the city, county, or city and county, together with all records of labor camps within its jurisdiction.

(d) A city, county, or city and county may, by ordinance, establish a schedule of fees for the operation of labor camps not to exceed that which is established by the department.

(e) In the event of nonenforcement of this part, the building standards published in the State Building Standards Code relating to labor camps, or the other rules and regulations adopted pursuant to the provisions of this part, the department shall enforce the provisions of this part, the building standards published in the State Building Standards Code relating to labor camps, and the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to the provisions of this part in any city, county, or city and county after the department has given written notice to the governing body of the city, county, or city and county setting forth in what respects the city, county, or city and county has failed to discharge its responsibility, and has failed to initiate corrective measures to carry out its responsibility within 30 days of the date of the notice.

(f) The department shall conduct an annual evaluation of the enforcement of this part, the building standards published in the State Building Standards Code relating to labor camps, and the other regulations adopted pursuant to the provisions of this part by each city, county, or city and county which has assumed responsibility for enforcement.

(g) Except as provided in Section 18945, the department shall be sole judge as to whether the local enforcement agency is properly enforcing such provisions. Except as provided in Section 18945, the local enforcement agency shall have the right to appeal the decision to the department.

(h) Any city, county, or city and county, upon written notice from the governing body to the department, may cancel its assumption of responsibility for the enforcement of these provisions. The department, upon receipt of that notice, shall assume the responsibility within 30 days.

(i) The enforcement agency may:

(1) Enter public or private properties to determine whether there exists any labor camp to which this part applies.

(2) Enter and inspect all labor camps wheresoever situated, and inspect all accommodations, equipment, or paraphernalia connected therewith.

(3) Enter and inspect the land adjacent to the labor camp to determine whether the sanitary and other requirements of this part, the building standards published in the State Building Standards Code relating to labor camps, and the other rules and regulations adopted pursuant to the provisions of this part have been or are being complied with.

SEC. 124. Section 17920.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

17920.7. (a) Except as provided in Section 18930, the State Fire Marshal shall adopt, amend, and repeal fire safety rules and regulations, and, except as otherwise provided in this part, the State Fire Marshal shall enforce building standards published in the State Building Standards Code and those other rules and regulations adopted by the State Fire Marshal for the provision of structural fire safety and fire-resistant exits in multiple-story structures existing on January 1, 1975, let for human habitation including, and limited to, apartment houses, hotels, and motels wherein rooms used for sleeping are let above the ground floor. The State Fire Marshal shall adopt, amend, or repeal and shall submit building standards for approval pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5. The rules and regulations and building standards shall provide adequate safety to the occupants and the general public, and shall be consistent with the requirements contained in subdivisions (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), (i), (k), and (l) of Section 1313 of Chapter 13 of the appendix of the Uniform Building Code, 1970 edition, as adopted by the International Conference of Building Officials.

Except as provided in Section 18930, the department, with the written approval of the State Fire Marshal, may allow reasonable exceptions to subdivisions (e) and (g) of Section 1313 to permit the continued use of existing stairs and to subdivision (l) of Section 1313 to permit equivalent protection in lieu of occupancy separations. However, the exceptions shall not impair occupant safety and shall be consistent with the legislative intent of this section.

The building standards adopted by the State Fire Marshal and submitted for approval pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5 shall not require that interior stairs and vertical openings be enclosed in two-story buildings.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), any city, county, or city and county may adopt building standards for structural fire safety and fire-resistant exits in structures subject to this section, provided that those building standards are substantially equivalent in fire safety to the building standards published in the State Building Standards Code. Each city, county, or city and county adopting alternative standards shall submit a detailed statement, with supporting data, to the State Fire Marshal demonstrating the equivalency of the alternate standards to the state building standards and other regulations adopted by the State Fire Marshal. The State Fire Marshal shall make a finding as to the equivalency of alternate local standards to those requirements. It is the intention of the Legislature that the building standards adopted and published in the State Building Standards Code shall be consistent with the requirements for new construction contained in the Uniform Building Code, 1970 edition, as adopted by the International Conference of Building Officials, except as otherwise required by state or federal law.

(c) This section shall not apply to any apartment house, hotel, or motel existing on May 14, 1979, having floors, as measured from the top of the floor surface, used for human occupancy located more than 75 feet above the lowest floor level having building access which is subject to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 13210) of Part 2 of Division 12 relating to high rise buildings existing on May 14, 1979.

(d) The enforcement agency shall make inspections to the extent necessary to identify the structures within its jurisdiction in violation of the rules and regulations adopted by the State Fire Marshal pursuant to this section, and all structures subject to this section shall be conformed to the requirements contained in those regulations.

SEC. 125. Section 17920.9 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

17920.9. (a) The department shall adopt, amend, or repeal, and submit building standards for approval pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5, and the department shall adopt, amend, and repeal such regulations as are necessary for the provision of minimum fire safety and fire-resistant standards relating to the manufacture, composition, and use of foam building systems manufactured for use, or used, in construction of buildings subject to this part, mobilehomes subject to Part 2 (commencing with Section 18000), or factory-built housing subject to Part 6 (commencing with Section 19960), for the protection of the health and safety of persons occupying those buildings, mobilehomes, or factory-built housing. The department shall enforce building standards published in the State Building Standards Code relating to foam building systems, and other rules and regulations adopted by the department or by federal law. Each manufacturer of foam building systems shall have any foam building system manufactured for use in any building, factory-built housing, or mobilehome listed and labeled by an approved testing agency certifying that the system meets fire safety and fire-resistant building standards published in the State Building Standards Code adopted by the department. The department shall consult with all available public and private sources to assist in the development of the building standards and other rules and regulations.

“Approved testing agency” means any agency which is determined by rule and regulation of the department to have adequate personnel and expertise to carry out the testing of those systems.

(b) The department shall make inspections of the manufacture of such foam building systems which it determines are necessary to insure compliance with the requirements of subdivision (a).

(c) No person shall sell, offer for sale, or use in construction of buildings subject to this part, mobilehomes subject to Part 2 (commencing with Section 18000), or factory-built housing subject to Part 6 (commencing with Section 19960), in this state, any foam building system, and no person shall sell or offer for sale in this state any such building, mobilehome, or factory-built housing of which a foam building system is a component, which foam building system does not comply with, or has not been listed and labeled by an approved testing agency certifying that the foam building system is in compliance with, the requirements of subdivision (a) on and after the 180th day after the building standards or other rules or regulations become effective.

This subdivision shall not apply to any buildings, mobilehomes, or factory-built housing constructed prior to the 180th day after those standards become effective.

(d) No person shall sell, offer for sale, or use in construction of any building subject to this part, mobilehome subject to Part 2 (commencing with Section 18000), or factory-built housing subject to Part 6 (commencing with Section 19960), in this state, any foam building system, and no person shall sell or offer for sale in this state any such building, mobilehome, or factory-built housing of which a foam building system is a component, if the manufacturer thereof refuses to permit the department to conduct the inspections required by subdivision (b) on and after the 180th day after the building standards or other rules or regulations become effective.

(e) As used in this section:

(1) “Foam” means a material made by mixing organic polymers with air or other gases in a manner that forms a solid substance with holes filled with air or gas when the mixture is allowed to set.

(2) “Foam building system” means a system of building materials composed of, in whole or in part, of foam. It includes, but is not limited to, all combinations of systems such as those composed of foam inserted between and bonded to two boundary surface materials or those composed exclusively of foam.

(3) “Building standard” means building standard as defined in Section 18909.

SEC. 126. Section 17921 of the Health and Safety Code is

17921. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), the department shall adopt, amend, or repeal and submit building standards for approval pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5, and the department shall adopt, amend, and repeal other rules and regulations for the protection of the public health, safety, and general welfare of the occupant and the public governing the erection, construction, enlargement, conversion, alteration, repair, moving, removal, demolition, occupancy, use, height, court, area, sanitation, ventilation and maintenance of all hotels, motels, lodginghouses, apartment houses, and dwellings, and buildings and structures accessory thereto. Except as otherwise provided in this part, the department shall enforce those building standards and those other rules and regulations. The other rules and regulations adopted by the department may include a schedule of fees to pay the cost of enforcement by the department under Sections 17952 and 17965.

(b) The State Fire Marshal shall adopt, amend, or repeal and submit building standards for approval pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5, and the State Fire Marshal shall adopt, amend, and repeal other rules and regulations for fire and panic safety in all hotels, motels, lodginghouses, apartment houses and dwellings, buildings, and structures accessory thereto. These building standards and regulations shall be enforced pursuant to Sections 13145 and 13146; however, this section is not intended to require an inspection by a local fire agency of each single-family dwelling prior to its occupancy.

SEC. 127. Section 17922 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

17922. (a) Except as otherwise specifically provided by law, the building standards adopted and submitted by the department for approval pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5 and the other rules and regulations adopted, amended, or repealed from time to time pursuant to this chapter shall impose substantially the same requirements as are contained in the most recent editions of the following uniform industry codes as adopted by the organizations specified:

(1) The Uniform Housing Code of the International Conference of Building Officials, except its definition of "substandard building."

(2) The Uniform Building Code of the International Conference of Building Officials.

(3) The Uniform Plumbing Code of the International Association of Plumbing and Mechanical Officials.

(4) The Uniform Mechanical Code of the International Conference of Building Officials and the International Association of Plumbing and Mechanical Officials.

(5) The National Electrical Code of the National Fire Protection Association.

In adopting building standards for approval pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5 for publication in the State Building Standards Code and in promulgating other regulations, the department shall consider local conditions and any amendments to the uniform codes referred to in this section. Except as provided in Part 2.5 (commencing with Section 18901), in the absence of adoption by regulation, the most recent editions of the uniform codes referred to in this section shall be considered to be adopted one year after the date of publication of such uniform codes.

(b) Except as provided in Section 17959.5, local use zone requirements, local fire zones, building setback, side and rear yard requirements, and property line requirements are hereby specifically and entirely reserved to the local jurisdictions notwithstanding any requirements found or set forth in this part.

(c) Regulations other than building standards which are adopted, amended, or repealed by the department, and building standards adopted and submitted by the department for approval pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5, governing alteration and repair of existing buildings and moving of apartment houses and dwellings shall permit the replacement, retention, and extension of original materials and the continued use of original methods of construction as long as the hotel, lodginghouse, motel, apartment house, or dwelling, or portions thereof, or building and structure accessory thereto, complies with the provisions published in the State Building Standards Code and the other rules and regulations of the department or alternative local standards adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 17920.7 or 17958.5 and does not become or continue to be a substandard building. Building additions or alterations which increase the area, volume, or size of an existing building, and foundations for apartment houses and dwellings moved, shall comply with the requirements for new buildings or structures specified in this part, or in building standards published in the State Building Standards Code, or in the other rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this part. However, the additions and alterations shall not cause the building to exceed area or height limitations applicable to new construction.

(d) Regulations other than building standards which are adopted by the department and building standards adopted and submitted by the department for approval pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5, governing alteration and repair of existing buildings, shall permit the use of alternate materials, appliances, installations, devices, arrangements, or methods of construction if the material, appliance, installation, device, arrangement, or method is, for the purpose intended, at least the equivalent of that prescribed in this part, the building standards published in the State Building Standards Code, and the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to the provisions of this part in performance, safety, and for the protection of life and health. Regulations governing abatement of substandard buildings shall permit those conditions prescribed by Section 17920.3 which do not endanger the life, limb, health, property, safety, or welfare of the public or the occupant thereof.

(e) No local enforcement agency may prohibit the use of materials, appliances, installations, devices, arrangements, or methods of construction specifically permitted by the department to be used in the alteration or repair of existing buildings, but the materials, appliances, installations, devices, arrangements, or methods of construction may be specifically prohibited by local ordinance as provided pursuant to Section 17958.5.

(f) No local ordinance may permit any action or proceeding to abate violations of regulations governing maintenance of existing buildings, unless the building is a substandard building or the violation is a misdemeanor.

SEC. 128. Section 17922.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

17922.1. Notwithstanding Section 17922, local agencies may modify or change the requirements published in the State Building Standards Code or contained in other regulations adopted by the department pursuant to Section 17922 if they make a finding that temporary housing is required for use in conjunction with a filed mining claim on federally owned property located within the local jurisdiction and that the modification or change would be in the public interest and consistent with the intent of the so-called Federal Mining Act of 1872 (see 30 U.S.C., Sec. 22, et seq.), relating to the development of mining resources of the United States.

SEC. 129. Section 17924 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

17924. Rules and regulations shall be promulgated pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and no state department, officer, board, agency, committee, or commission shall have power pursuant to the provisions of this part to publish building standards, as defined in Section 18909, but shall adopt and submit such building standards as deemed necessary to carry out the provisions of this part for approval and publishing pursuant to the provisions of Part 2.5 (commencing with Section 18901).

SEC. 130. Section 17925 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

17925. Except as provided in Section 17922.6, any person, firm, corporation, or governmental agency that opposes the application of any applicable building standard published in the State Building Standards Code or any other rule or regulation adopted by the department within a particular local area may request a hearing before the local appeals board regarding the matter. If the local appeals board determines after the hearing that because of local conditions or factors it is not reasonable for the building standard, rule, or regulation to be applied in the local area, the building standard, rule, or regulation shall have no application within that local area. A copy of the determination of the local appeals board, together with a report of the local conditions upon which the determination is based, shall be filed with the department pursuant to Section 17958.7.

SEC. 131. Section 17927 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

17927. The department shall adopt, amend, or repeal and submit building standards for approval pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5, and the department shall adopt, amend, and repeal other rules and regulations for garage door springs for installation in garages which are accessory to apartment houses, hotels, motels, and dwellings as the department determines are reasonably necessary to prevent the death or injury of persons or damage to property resulting from the breaking of the garage door springs. Except as otherwise provided in this part, the department shall enforce building standards published in the State Building Standards Code relating to garage door springs and other rules and regulations adopted by the department pursuant to this section.

No garage door spring which violates the provisions of any building standard published in the State Building Standards Code relating to garage door springs or any other rule or regulation adopted by the department pursuant to this section shall be sold or offered for sale, or installed in any garage which is accessory to an apartment house, hotel, motel, or dwelling, on or after the date of publication of the building standard or the effective date of the rule or regulation.

SEC. 132. Section 17958.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

17958.2. Notwithstanding Section 17958, regulations of the department adopted for limited-density owner-built rural dwellings, which are codified in Article 10 (commencing with Section 142) of Subchapter 1 of Chapter 1 of Title 25 of the California Administrative Code, shall not become operative within any city or county unless and until the governing body of the city or county makes an express finding that the application of those regulations within the city or county is reasonably necessary because of local conditions and the city or county files a copy of that finding with the department.

In adopting ordinances or regulations for limited-density owner-built rural dwellings, a city or county may make such changes or modifications in the requirements contained in Article 10 (commencing with Section 142) of Subchapter 1 of Chapter 1 of Title 25 of the California Administrative Code as it determines are reasonably necessary because of local conditions, provided the city or county files a copy of such changes or modifications and the express findings for the changes or modifications with the department. No change or modification of that type shall become effective or operative for any purpose until the finding and the change or modification has been filed with the department.

SEC. 133. Section 17958.8 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

17958.8. Local ordinances or regulations governing alterations and repair of existing buildings shall permit the replacement, retention, and extension of original materials and the use of original methods of construction as long as the hotel, lodginghouse, motel, apartment house, or dwelling, or portions thereof, or building and structure accessory thereto, complies with the provisions published in the State Building Standards Code and the other rules and regulations of the department or alternative local standards adopted pursuant to Section 17920.7 and does not become or continue to be a substandard building.

SEC. 134. Section 18931.5 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 1003 of the Statutes of 1981, is repealed. The repeal made by this section shall not affect the existence or validity of Section 18931.5 of the Health and Safety Code as added by Chapter 1082 of the Statutes of 1981.

SEC. 135. Section 19990.5 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 1152 of the Statutes of 1979, is amended and renumbered to read:

19990.6. The provisions of Section 17920.9, the building standards published in the State Building Standards Code relating to foam building systems, and the other rules and regulations adopted pursuant to Section 17920.9, shall be applicable to the sale, offering for sale, or use in the construction of any factory-built housing of any foam building system, and to any factory-built housing in which any such system is used as a component.

SEC. 136. Section 25845 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25845. (a) In any proceeding under this chapter for granting or amending any license, or for determining compliance with, or granting exceptions from, rules and regulations promulgated in accordance with this chapter, the department shall afford an opportunity for a hearing on the record upon the request of any person whose interest may be affected by the proceeding, and shall admit that person as a party to such proceeding.

(b) Proceedings for the suspension or revocation of licenses under this chapter shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and the department shall have all the powers granted therein.

(c) The adoption, repeal, or amendment of rules and regulations pursuant to this chapter shall be accomplished in conformity with the provisions of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 137. Section 26202 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

26202. The department may adopt any regulations which it determines are necessary for the enforcement of this division. The regulations shall be adopted by the department in the manner prescribed by Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. The department shall, insofar as practicable, make these regulations conform with those adopted under the federal act or by the United States Department of Agriculture or by the Internal Revenue Service of the United States Treasury Department.

SEC. 138. Section 28776 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

28776. The regulations shall be adopted by the department in the manner prescribed by Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. Such regulations shall conform as nearly as practicable with regulations promulgated by the United States Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Food and Drug Administration.

SEC. 139. Section 44520 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44520. The authority shall, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, adopt all necessary rules and regulations to carry out its powers and duties under this division. The authority may call upon any board or department of the state government for aid and assistance in the preparation of plans and specifications and in the development of technology necessary to effectively control pollution.

SEC. 140. Section 50459 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50459. The department shall adopt guidelines for the preparation of housing elements required by Section 65302 of the Government Code. The guidelines initially adopted shall conform as nearly as possible to the guidelines adopted by the commission June 17, 1971, and shall be adopted in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. After consultation with the State Office of Planning and Research, the department may, from time to time, revise those guidelines.

The department may review local housing elements for conformity with the requirements of Section 65302 of the Government Code and guidelines adopted pursuant thereto, and report its findings. The department may, in connection with any loan or grant application submitted to the agency, require submission to it for review of any local housing element and any local housing assistance plan adopted pursuant to provisions of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (P.L. 93-383).

SEC. 141. Section 50900 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50900. The California Housing Finance Agency is hereby continued in existence in the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency. The agency constitutes a public instrumentality and a political subdivision of the state, and the exercise by the agency of the powers conferred by this division shall be deemed and held to be the performance of an essential public function.

SEC. 142. Section 50901 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50901. The agency shall be administered by a board of directors consisting of 11 voting members, including a chairperson selected by the Governor from among his or her appointees. Members in office on January 1, 1978, shall continue to hold office until the expiration of their term, their ceasing to be qualified, or their removal from office. Members in office on January 1, 1981, shall continue to hold office until the expiration of their term, their ceasing to be qualified, or their removal from office. The State Treasurer, the Secretary of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency, and the Director of Housing and Community Development, or their designees, shall be members, in addition to six members appointed by the Governor, one member appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly, and one member appointed by the Senate Rules Committee. The Director of Finance, the Director of the State Office of Planning and Research, and the executive director of the agency shall serve as nonvoting ex officio members of the board.

SEC. 143. Section 50909 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50909. The compensation of the executive director shall be established by the board in such amount as is reasonably necessary, in the discretion of the board, to attract and hold a person of superior qualifications. However, the salary of the executive director shall not exceed the salary of the Secretary of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency. Members of the board shall not receive a salary but shall be entitled to a per diem allowance of fifty dollars ($50) for each day's attendance at a meeting of the board or a meeting of a committee of the board, not to exceed three hundred dollars ($300) in any month, and reimbursement for expenses incurred in the performance of their duties under this part, including travel and other necessary expenses.

SEC. 144. Section 50913 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50913. For its activities under this division, the executive director shall prepare a preliminary budget on or before December 1 of each year for the ensuing fiscal year to be reviewed by the Secretary of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency, the Director of Finance, and the Joint Legislative Budget Committee. An analysis of the agency's proposed budget prepared by the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, together with any comments of the committee, shall be transmitted to the chairpersons of the fiscal committee of each house of the Legislature and to the chairperson of the board prior to the board's final adoption of the agency's budget.

SEC. 145. Section 1063.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1063.5. Each time an insurer becomes insolvent then, to the extent necessary to secure funds for the association for payment of covered claims of that insolvent insurer and also for payment of reasonable costs of adjusting the claims, the association shall collect premium payments from its member insurers sufficient to discharge its obligations. The association shall allocate its claim payments and costs, incurred or estimated to be incurred, to one or more of the following categories: (a) workers' compensation claims; (b) automobile claims, which shall include: automobile material damage, automobile liability (both personal injury and death and property damage), medical payments and uninsured motorist claims; and (c) claims other than workers' compensation and automobile, as above defined. Separate premium payments shall be required for each category. The premium payments for each category shall be used to pay the claims and costs allocated to that category. The rate of premium charged shall be a uniform percentage of net direct written premium in the preceding calendar year applicable to that category. The rate of premium charges to each member in the appropriate categories shall initially be based on the written premium of each insurer as shown in the latest year's annual financial statement on file with the commissioner. The initial premium shall be adjusted by applying the same rate of premium charge as initially used to each insurer's written premium as shown on the annual statement for the year following the year in which the initial premium charge is made. The difference between the initial premium charge and the adjusted premium charge shall be refunded or charged to each member insurer by the association as soon as practical after the filing of the annual statements of the member insurers with the commissioner for the year on which the adjusted premium is based. "Net direct written premiums" shall mean the amount of gross premiums, less return premiums and policyholder's dividends paid or allowed, received in that calendar year upon business done in this state, other than premiums received for reinsurance. In cases of a dispute as to the amount of any such net direct written premium between the association and one of its members the written decision of the commissioner shall be final. The premium charged to any member insurer for any of the three categories or a category established by the association shall not be more than 1 percent of the net direct premium written in that category in this state by that member insurer. However, in no event shall the total premium charged a member insurer in one calendar year exceed 1 percent of the net direct premium written by the member insurer in one calendar year. The association may exempt or defer, in whole or in part, the assessment of any member insurer, if the assessment would cause the member insurer's financial statement to reflect an amount of capital or surplus less than the minimum amounts required for a certificate of authority by any jurisdiction in which the member insurer is authorized to transact insurance. However, during the period of deferment, no dividends shall be paid to shareholders or policyholders by the company whose assessment was deferred.

Deferred assessments shall be paid when the payment will not reduce capital or surplus below required minimums. These payments shall be refunded to those companies receiving larger assessments by virtue of the deferment, or, in the discretion of any such company, credited against future assessments. The premium charges shall be recognized in the ratemaking procedures for insurance rates in the same manner that losses are recognized or as otherwise provided in this article. After all covered claims of the insolvent insurer and expenses of administration have been paid, any unused premiums and any reimbursements or claims dividends from the liquidator remaining in any category either shall be refunded by the association to the member insurers who paid the premiums for that category in proportion to their premiums paid or retained by the association and applied to reduce future premium charges in the appropriate category. However, an insurer which ceases to be a member of the association shall have no right to a refund of any premium previously remitted to the association. The commissioner may suspend or revoke the certificate of authority to transact business in this state of a member insurer which fails to pay a premium when due and after demand has been made.

Interest at a rate equal to the current federal reserve discount rate plus 2½ percent per annum shall be added to the premium of any member insurer which fails to submit the premium requested by the association within 30 days after such mailing request. However, in no event shall the interest rate exceed the legal maximum.

SEC. 146. Section 1759 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1759. For purposes of this chapter, "administrator" means any person who collects charges or premiums from, or who adjusts or settles claims on, residents of this state in connection with life or health insurance coverage or annuities other than any of the following:

(a) An employer on behalf of its employees or the employees of one or more subsidiary or affiliated corporations of that employer.

(b) A union on behalf of its members.

(c) An insurance company which is either licensed in this state or acting as an insurer with respect to a policy lawfully issued and delivered by it in and pursuant to the laws of a state in which the insurer was authorized to do an insurance business or prepaid hospital or health care service plan (including their sales representatives licensed in this state when engaged in the performance of their duties as such).

(d) A life or health agent or broker licensed in this state, whose activities are limited exclusively to the sale of insurance.

(e) A creditor on behalf of its debtors with respect to insurance covering a debt between the creditor and its debtors.

(f) A trust, its trustees, agents, and employees acting thereunder, established in conformity with 29 U.S.C. 186.

(g) A trust exempt from taxation under Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, its trustees, and employees acting thereunder, or a custodian, its agents and employees acting pursuant to a custodian account which meets the requirements of Section 401(f) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(h) A bank, credit union or other financial institution which is subject to supervision or examination by federal or state regulatory authorities.

(i) A company which advances for and collects premiums or charges from its credit card holders who have authorized it to do so, provided the company does not adjust or settle claims.

(j) A person who adjusts or settles claims in the normal course of his or her practice or employment as an attorney at law, and who does not collect charges or premiums in connection with life or health insurance coverage or annuities.

(k) An adjuster licensed by the Insurance Commissioner when engaged in the performance of his or her duties as such.

(l) A nonprofit agricultural association.

SEC. 147. The heading of Article 3a (commencing with Section 10159.1) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

Article 3a. Standard Nonforfeiture Law for Life Insurance

SEC. 148. Section 12200 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12200. The term "machine gun" as used in this chapter means any weapon which shoots, or is designed to shoot, automatically, more than one shot, without manual reloading, by a single function of the trigger, and includes any frame or receiver which can only be used with that weapon. The term shall also include any combination of parts designed and intended for use in converting a weapon into a machine gun.

SEC. 149. Section 12590 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12590. (a) Any person who does any of the following acts while engaged in picketing, or other informational activities in a public place relating to a concerted refusal to work, is guilty of a misdemeanor:

(1) Carries concealed upon his person or within any vehicle which is under his or her control or direction any pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person.

(2) Carries a loaded firearm upon his or her person or within any vehicle which is under his or her control or direction.

(3) Carries a deadly weapon.

(4) Wears the uniform of a peace officer, whether or not the person is a peace officer.

(b) This section shall not be construed to authorize or ratify any picketing or other informational activities not otherwise authorized by law.

(c) Section 12027 shall not be construed to authorize any conduct described in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), nor shall subdivision (b) of Section 12031 be construed to authorize any conduct described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a).

SEC. 150. Section 321 of the Public Utilities Code, as added by Chapter 1196 of the Statutes of 1980, is repealed. The repeal made by this section shall not affect the existence or validity of Section 321 of the Public Utilities Code, as added by Chapter 837 of the Statutes of 1982.

SEC. 151. Section 2961 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

2961. Upon the adoption of an ordinance of intention, or the presentation of a petition, as provided in Article 2 (commencing with Section 2931), the legislative body of the municipal corporation shall, by ordinance, order the holding of a special election for the purpose of submitting to the qualified electors of the municipal corporation the propositions set forth in the ordinance of intention or in the petition, as the case may be, or the legislative body shall, by ordinance, order the submission of the propositions at a general municipal election.

SEC. 152. Section 3586 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

3586. Any operating permit not exercised for a period of one year, inclusive of all periods of suspension, shall lapse and terminate and shall be revoked by the commission. Nonexercise of a permit shall be presumed from nonpayment of the fees required by Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 5001) for four consecutive quarters.

SEC. 153. Section 3592.5 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

3592.5. (a) An application for a permit to operate as a tank truck carrier or a vacuum truck carrier shall be in writing, verified under oath, and shall be in such form, contain such information, and be accompanied by proof of service upon such interested parties as the commission requires.

(b) If, in the judgment of the commission, the applicant has satisfied all requirements of this section, it may issue the requested permit without further proceedings; otherwise it may require the applicant to demonstrate compliance at a public hearing.

(c) Upon issuance of a permit pursuant to this section, all prior operating authority authorizing transportation included in the provisions of the permit is revoked.

SEC. 154. Section 3615 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

3615. Any operating permit not exercised for a period of one year shall lapse and terminate and shall be revoked by the commission. Nonexercise of a permit shall be presumed from nonpayment of the fees required by Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 5001) for four consecutive quarters.

SEC. 155. Section 3634 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

3634. The protection against liability shall be continued in effect during the active life of the permit. The policy of insurance or surety bond shall not be cancelable on less than 30 days' written notice to the commission, except in the event of cessation of operations as a highway carrier as approved by the commission.

SEC. 156. Section 3904 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

3904. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions and general provisions set forth in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 3501) shall govern the construction of this chapter.

SEC. 157. Section 5004 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

5004. The following fees shall be paid to the commission, pursuant to permits issued under the Highway Carriers' Act (Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 3501)):

(a) Five hundred dollars ($500) for filing each application for a permit, except applications for a seasonal permit.

(b) One hundred fifty dollars ($150) for filing each application to sell, mortgage, lease, assign, transfer, or otherwise encumber any permit, except that for the transfer of each permit subsequent to the death of a permittee, and after court approval of the distribution of the estate or when it is not necessary to probate the will or distribute the estate through court, the fee is twenty-five dollars ($25).

(c) Twenty-five dollars ($25) for filing each application for issuance or renewal of a permit to operate as an agricultural carrier or livestock carrier on a seasonal basis, as authorized by Section 3584.2.

SEC. 158. Section 5162 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

5162. The protection required under this article shall be evidenced by the deposit of any of the following with the commission covering each vehicle used or to be used under the permit applied for:

(a) A policy of insurance, issued by a company licensed to write such insurance in this state, or by nonadmitted insurers subject to Section 1763 of the Insurance Code, if the policies meet the rules promulgated therefor by the commission.

(b) A bond of a surety company licensed to write surety bonds in the state.

(c) Such evidence of the qualification of the household goods carrier as a self-insurer as may be authorized by the commission.

SEC. 159. Section 5164 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

5164. The protection against liability shall be continued in effect during the active life of the permit. The policy of insurance or surety bond shall not be cancelable on less than 30 days' written notice to the commission.

SEC. 160. Section 5353 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

5353. This chapter does not apply to any of the following:

(a) Transportation service rendered wholly within the corporate limits of a single city or city and county.

(b) Transportation of school pupils conducted by or under contract with the governing board of any school district entered into pursuant to the Education Code.

(c) Common carrier transportation services between fixed termini or over a regular route which are subject to authorization pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 1031) of Chapter 5 of Part 1 of Division 1.

(d) Transportation services occasionally afforded for farm employees moving to and from farms on which employed when the transportation is performed by the employer in vehicles owned or leased by him, or by a nonprofit agricultural cooperative association organized and acting within the scope of its powers under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 54001) of Division 20 of the Food and Agricultural Code, and without any requirement for the payment of compensation therefor by the employees.

(e) Transportation service rendered by a publicly owned transit system.

(f) Passenger vehicles carrying passengers on a noncommercial enterprise basis.

(g) Taxicab transportation service licensed and regulated by a city or county, by ordinance or resolution, rendered in vehicles designed for carrying not more than eight persons excluding the driver.

(h) Transportation of persons between home and work locations or of persons having a common work-related trip purpose in a vehicle having a seating capacity of 15 passengers or less, including the driver, which are used for the purpose of ridesharing, as defined in Section 522 of the Vehicle Code, when the ridesharing is incidental to another purpose of the driver. This exemption does not apply if the primary purpose for the transportation of those persons is to make a profit. "Profit," as used in this subdivision, does not include the recovery of the actual costs incurred in owning and operating a vanpool vehicle, as defined in Section 668 of the Vehicle Code.

(i) Medical transportation vehicles.

(j) Transportation services rendered solely within the Lake Tahoe Basin, comprising that area included within the Tahoe Regional Planning Compact as set forth in Section 66801 of the Government Code, when the operator of the services has obtained any permit required from the Tahoe Basin Transportation Authority or the City of South Lake Tahoe, or both.

SEC. 161. Section 5360 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

5360. Subject to the exclusions of Section 5353, "charter-party carrier of passengers" means every person engaged in the transportation of persons by motor vehicle for compensation, whether in common or contract carriage, over any public highway in this state.

SEC. 162. Section 5392 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

5392. The protection required under Section 5391 shall be evidenced by the deposit of any of the following with the commission covering each vehicle used or to be used under the certificate or permit applied for:

(a) A policy of insurance, issued by a company licensed to write such insurance in this state, or by nonadmitted insurers subject to Section 1763 of the Insurance Code, if the policies meet the rules promulgated therefor by the commission.

(b) A bond of a surety company licensed to write surety bonds in the state.

(c) Such evidence of the qualification of the charter-party carrier of passengers as a self-insurer as may be authorized by the commission.

SEC. 163. Section 366.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

366.3. (a) Every hearing in a demonstration county in which an order is made adjudging a minor a dependent child of the juvenile court, pursuant to Section 300 or Section 302, and the minor is removed from the custody of his or her parent or guardian, shall be continued to a specific future date not more than six months after the date of the order. The continued hearing shall be placed on the appearance calendar.

(b) At least 10 days prior to the hearing, the probation officer or social worker shall file a supplemental report with the court regarding the services offered to the family, the progress made, and where relevant, the prognosis for return of the child to the physical custody of his or her parent or guardian, and make his or her recommendation for disposition. Notice of hearing shall be mailed by the probation officer or social worker to the same persons as in an original proceeding and to counsel of record by certified mail addressed to the last known address of the person to be notified, or shall be personally served on them, not earlier than 30 nor later than 15 days preceding the date to which the hearing was continued. The probation officer or social worker shall provide the parent or guardian and the minor's attorney with a copy of the report, including his or her recommendation for disposition, at least seven days before the hearing.

(c) At the beginning of the hearing the court shall advise all persons present at the hearing of the date of the future hearing, of their right to be present and to be represented by counsel.

(d) At the review hearing the court shall order the return of the minor to the physical custody of his or her parents or guardians unless it finds that return of the child would create a substantial risk of detriment to the physical or emotional well-being of the minor. The probation department or county welfare department shall have the burden of establishing the detriment. The failure of the parent or guardian to participate in any court-ordered treatment programs shall constitute prima facie evidence that return would be detrimental. In making its determination the court shall review the probation officer's or social worker's report and shall consider the efforts or progress, or both, demonstrated by the parent or guardian and the extent to which they cooperated and availed themselves of services provided.

(e) If the minor is not returned to his or her parent or guardian the court shall make specific findings regarding the reasons why the minor cannot be returned. It shall also order, where relevant, any additional services needed for the purpose of facilitating reunification. The court shall also inform the parents or guardians that if the minor cannot be returned by the next review hearing a proceeding pursuant to Section 232.1 of the Civil Code may be instituted.

(f) When a minor is returned to the custody of his or her parent or guardian, the hearing shall be continued to a specific future date not more than 12 months after the date of the order. The continued hearing shall be placed on the appearance calendar and shall be conducted in accordance with Section 366.4.

SEC. 164. Section 737 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

737. (a) Whenever a person has been adjudged a ward of the juvenile court and has been committed or otherwise disposed of as provided in this chapter for the care of wards of the juvenile court, the court may order that the ward be detained in the detention home, or in the case of a ward of the age of 18 years or more, in the county jail or otherwise as the court deems fit until the execution of the order of commitment or of other disposition.

(b) In any case in which a minor is detained for more than 15 days pending the execution of the order of commitment or of any other disposition, the court shall periodically review the case to determine whether the delay is reasonable. These periodic reviews shall be held at least every 15 days, commencing from the time the minor was initially detained pending the execution of the order of commitment or of any other disposition, and during the course of each review the court shall inquire regarding the action taken by the probation department to carry out its order, the reasons for the delay, and the effect of the delay upon the minor.

SEC. 165. Section 1767 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as added by Chapter 588 of the Statutes of 1981, is amended and renumbered to read:

1767.8. In the case of any person under the control of the Youth Authority for the commission of any offense of rape in violation of subdivision (2) or subdivision (3) of Section 261 of the Penal Code, or murder, written notice of any hearing to consider the release on parole of the person shall be sent by the Youthful Offender Parole Board to the following persons at least 30 days before the hearing: the judge of the court by whom the person was committed to the authority, the attorney for the person, the district attorney of the county from which the person was committed, and the law enforcement agency which investigated the case. The board shall also send written notice to the victim of the rape or the next of kin of the person murdered if he or she requests notice from the board and keeps it apprised of his or her current mailing address.

SEC. 166. Section 1767 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as added by Chapter 591 of the Statutes of 1981, is amended and renumbered to read:

1767.9. At least 30 days before the Youthful Offender Parole Board meets to review or consider the parole of any person over 18 years of age who has been committed to the control of the Youth Authority for the commission of any offense described in subdivision (b) of Section 707, the board shall send written notice thereof to each of the following persons: the judge of the court which committed the person to the authority, the attorney for the person, the district attorney of the county from which the person was committed, the law enforcement agency that investigated the case, and, where he or she has filed a request for such notice with the board, the victim or next of kin of the victim of the offense for which the person was committed to the authority. The burden shall be on the requesting party to keep the board apprised of his or her current mailing address.

Each of the persons so notified shall have the right to submit a written statement to the board at least 10 days prior to the scheduled hearing for the board's consideration at the hearing. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to permit any person so notified to attend the hearing.

At the hearing the presiding officer shall state findings and supporting reasons for the decision of the board. The findings and reasons shall be reduced to writing, and shall be made available for inspection by members of the public no later than 30 days from the date of the hearing.

SEC. 168. Section 4626 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

4626. (a) In order to prevent potential conflicts of interest, no member of the governing board or member of the program policy committee of a regional center shall be any of the following:

(1) An employee of the State Department of Developmental Services or any state or local agency which provides services to a regional center client, if employed in a capacity which includes administrative or policymaking responsibility, or responsibility for the regulation of the regional center.

(2) An employee or a member of the state council or an area board.

(3) An employee or member of the governing board of any entity from which the regional center purchases client services.

(4) Any person who has a financial interest, as defined in Section 87103 of the Government Code, in regional center operations, except as a consumer of regional center services.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), members serving on the governing board or program policy committee of a regional center on January 1, 1982, may continue to serve on the board or committee until the expiration of their term as defined in subdivision (f) of Section 4622. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, members serving on the governing board or program policy committee of a regional center on January 1, 1982, may continue to serve on the board or committee until the expiration of their current term. Changes in the composition of such board or committee required by amendments to this section that are operative on January 1, 1982, shall apply only to subsequent vacancies on the board or committee.

SEC. 169. Section 5326.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5326.1. Quarterly, each local mental health director shall furnish to the Director of Mental Health, the facility reports of the number of persons whose rights were denied and the right or rights which were denied. The content of the reports from facilities shall enable the local mental health director and Director of Mental Health to identify individual treatment records, if necessary, for further analysis and investigation. These quarterly reports, except for the identity of the person whose rights are denied, shall be available, upon request, to Members of the State Legislature, or a member of a county board of supervisors.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, information pertaining to denial of rights contained in the person's treatment record shall be made available, on request, to the person, his or her attorney, his or her conservator or guardian, the local mental health director, or his or her designee, or the Patient's Rights Office of the State Department of Mental Health. The information may include consent forms, required documentation for convulsive treatment, documentation regarding the use of restraints and seclusion, physician's orders, nursing notes, and involuntary detention and conservatorship papers. The information, except for the identity of the person whose rights are denied, shall be made available to the Members of the State Legislature or a member of a county board of supervisors.

SEC. 170. Section 5530 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5530. (a) County patients' rights advocates shall have access to all clients and other recipients of mental health services in any mental health facility, program, or service at all times as are necessary to investigate or resolve specific complaints and in accord with subdivision (b) of Section 5523. County patients' rights advocates shall have access to mental health facilities, programs, and services, and recipients of services therein during normal working hours and visiting hours for other advocacy purposes. Advocates may appeal any denial of access directly to the head of any facility, the director of a county mental health program or the State Department of Mental Health or may seek appropriate relief in the courts. If a petition to a court sets forth prima facie evidence for relief, a hearing on the merits of the petition shall be held within two judicial days of the filing of the petition. The superior court for the county in which the facility is located shall have jurisdiction to review petitions filed pursuant to this chapter.

(b) County patients' rights advocates shall have the right to interview all persons providing the client with diagnostic or treatment services.

(c) Upon request, all mental health facilities shall, when available, provide reasonable space for county patients' rights advocates to interview clients in privacy and shall make appropriate staff persons available for interview with the advocates in connection with pending matters.

(d) Individual patients shall have a right to privacy which shall include the right to terminate any visit by persons who have access pursuant to this chapter and the right to refuse to see any patient advocate.

(e) Notice of the availability of advocacy services and information about patients' rights may be provided by county patients' rights advocates by means of distribution of educational materials and discussions in groups and with individual patients.

SEC. 171. Section 14615 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 172. Section 18299 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

18299. The centers shall maintain quarterly and final fiscal reports in a form to be prescribed by the State Department of Health Services.

SEC. 173. Section 18300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

18300. (a) The State Department of Health Services, in consultation with the centers funded under this chapter, shall design a standard intake and followup document to be used by the centers on all persons appearing for services. The document shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following information:

- (1) Socioeconomic data.
- (2) Previous calls for help.
- (3) Number of return visits.
- (4) A description of the episode of domestic violence and probable causes.
- (5) Use of drugs and alcohol.
- (6) Source of referral.
- (7) Services provided by the center.
- (8) Length of stay.
- (9) History of domestic violence in family.
- (10) Need for followup services.
- (11) Followup services provided by the center.

(b) The information collected on each individual served by the center shall be confidential and shall be released only upon the person's written authorization.

SEC. 174. Section 18301 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

18301. A quarterly report shall be prepared by each center for submission to the State Department of Health Services. The report shall include, but not be limited to, the total number of persons requesting services of the centers, the number of persons served in the center by each type of service provided, and a description of the social and economic characteristics of persons receiving services by type of service provided.

SEC. 175. Section 18904.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as added by Chapter 69 of the Statutes of 1981, is amended and renumbered to read:

18904.2. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as authorizing the department to administer outreach programs or to adopt rules and regulations mandating that counties conduct outreach programs, except to the extent required by federal law.

SEC. 176. Section 18909 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

18909. Section 10850, relating to disclosure of information regarding public assistance recipients, shall apply to information obtained under this chapter.

SEC. 177. Section 19358 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 178. Section 19358.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 179. Section 19360 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 180. Any section of any act enacted by the Legislature during the 1983 calendar year, which takes effect on or before January 1, 1984, and which amends, amends and renumbers, adds, repeals and adds, or repeals a section amended, amended and renumbered, repealed and added, or repealed by this act, shall prevail over this act, whether that act is enacted prior to or subsequent to this act.

CHAPTER 102

An act to amend Sections 91, 92, 97, and 98 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to civil procedure, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 16, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 16, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 91 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

91. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the provisions of this article apply to every municipal and justice court civil action, including cases submitted to arbitration or on the arbitration hearing list, pending in the municipal and justice courts, on or after July 1, 1983, in which the amount in controversy is $15,000 or less. "Amount in controversy" means the amount of the demand, or the recovery sought, or the value of the property, or the amount of the lien, which is in controversy in the action, exclusive of attorney fees, interest, and costs. These provisions also apply to any action transferred to a municipal or justice court by reason of lack of jurisdiction in the court in which it was filed.

(b) The provisions of this article do not apply to any action under Chapter 5A (commencing with Section 116) or any proceeding under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 1159) of Title 3 of Part 3.

(c) Any action may, upon noticed motion, be withdrawn from the provisions of this article, upon a showing that it is impractical to prosecute or defend the action within the limitations of these provisions.

(d) Special demurrers, motions to strike, and requests for discovery, pending or determined prior to July 1, 1983, shall be subject to the law in effect on June 30, 1983.

SEC. 2. Section 92 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

92. (a) The pleadings allowed are complaints, answers, cross-complaints, answers to cross-complaints and general demurrers.

(b) The answer need not be verified, even if the complaint or cross-complaint is verified.

(c) Special demurrers are not allowed.

(d) Motions to strike are allowed only on the ground that the damages or relief sought are not supported by the allegations of the complaint.

(e) Except as limited by this section, all other motions are permitted.

SEC. 3. Section 97 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

97. (a) Except as provided in this section, upon objection of a party who served a request in compliance with Section 96, no party required to serve a responding statement may call a witness or introduce evidence, except for purposes of impeachment, against the objecting party unless the witness or evidence was included in the statement served.

(b) The exceptions to subdivision (a) are:

(1) A person who, in his or her individual capacity, is a party to the litigation and who calls himself or herself as a witness.

(2) An adverse party.

(3) Witnesses and evidence used solely for purposes of impeachment.

(4) Documents obtained by discovery authorized by this chapter.

(5) The court may, upon such terms as may be just (including, but not limited to, continuing the trial for a reasonable period of time and awarding costs and litigation expenses), permit a party to call a witness or introduce evidence which is required to be, but is not included in such party's statement so long as the court finds that such party has made a good faith effort to comply with subdivision (c) of Section 96 or that the failure to comply was the result of his or her mistake, inadvertence, surprise or excusable neglect as provided in Section 473.

(c) Nothing in this article limits the introduction of evidence in any hearing pursuant to Section 585.

SEC. 4. Section 98 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

98. A party may, in lieu of presenting direct testimony, offer the prepared testimony of relevant witnesses in the form of affidavits or declarations under penalty of perjury. The prepared testimony may include, but need not be limited to, the opinions of expert witnesses, and testimony which authenticates documentary evidence. To the extent the contents of the prepared testimony would have been admissible were the witness to testify orally thereto, the prepared testimony shall be received as evidence in the case, provided that either of the following applies:

(a) A copy has been served on the party against whom it is offered at least 30 days prior to the trial, together with a current address of the affiant that is within 150 miles of the place of trial, and the affiant is available for service of process at that place for a reasonable period of time, during the 20 days immediately prior to trial.

(b) The statement is in the form of all or part of a deposition in the case, and the party against whom it is offered had an opportunity to participate in the deposition.

The court shall determine whether the affidavit or declaration shall be read into the record in lieu of oral testimony or admitted as a documentary exhibit.

The changes which would be made by this bill are necessary to clarify and revise the economic litigation procedures which will be implemented on July 1, 1983.

CHAPTER 103

An act to add and repeal Section 43107.5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to air pollution, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 16, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 16, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 43107.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

43107.5. The rules and regulations adopted by the state board establishing exhaust emission standards for 1984 and later model-year motorcycles with engines of 280 cubic centimeters or greater are amended as follows:

The exhaust emission standards applicable to motorcycles manufactured prior to July 1, 1984, with engines of 280 cubic centimeters or greater shall be the same as the exhaust emission standards applicable to those motorcycles of the 1982 and 1983 model-years, unless the state board provides otherwise by rules and regulations adopted after the date of enactment of this section.

It is the intent of the Legislature to provide time for an adequate study of the effects of motorcycle exhaust emissions on air quality before imposition of additional exhaust emission requirements on motorcycles.

This section shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1984, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before July 1, 1984, deletes or extends that date.

In order for this act to apply to 1984 model-year motorcycles sold between September 1, 1983, and December 31, 1983, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 104

An act to amend Section 1513 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and to amend Sections 6601, 7170, 7604.5, and 11203.5 of the Financial Code, relating to financial institutions.

[Approved by Governor June 20, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 20, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1513 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1513. Subject to Sections 1510 and 1511, the following property held or owing by a business association escheats to this state:

(a) Except as provided in subdivision (f), any demand, savings, or matured time deposit, or account subject to a negotiable order of withdrawal, made with a banking organization, together with any interest or dividends thereon, excluding, from demand deposits and accounts subject to a negotiable order of withdrawal only, any reasonable service charges which may lawfully be withheld and which do not (where made in this state) exceed those set forth in schedules filed by the banking organization from time to time with the State Controller, when the owner, for more than seven years, has not either:

(1) Increased or decreased the amount of the deposit, or presented the passbook or other similar evidence of the deposit for the crediting of interest.

(2) Corresponded in writing with the banking organization concerning the deposit.

(3) Otherwise indicated an interest in the deposit as evidenced by a memorandum or other record on file with the banking organization.

No banking organization may discontinue any interest or dividends on any savings deposit because of the inactivity contemplated by this section.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (f), any demand, savings, or matured time deposit, or matured investment certificate, or account subject to a negotiable order of withdrawal, or other interest in a financial organization or any deposit made therewith, and any interest or dividends thereon, excluding, from demand deposits and accounts subject to a negotiable order of withdrawal only, any reasonable service charges which may lawfully be withheld and which do not (where made in this state) exceed those set forth in schedules filed by the financial organization from time to time with the Controller, when the owner, for more than seven years, has not either:

(1) Increased or decreased the amount of the funds or deposit, or presented an appropriate record for the crediting of interest or dividends.

(2) Corresponded in writing with the financial organization concerning the funds or deposit.

(3) Otherwise indicated an interest in the funds or deposit as evidenced by a memorandum or other record on file with the financial organization.

No financial organization may discontinue any interest or dividends on any funds paid toward purchase of shares or other interest, or on any deposit, because of the inactivity contemplated by this section.

(c) Any sum payable on a travelers check issued by a business association that has been outstanding for more than 15 years from the date of its issuance, when the owner, for more than 15 years, has not corresponded in writing with the business association concerning it, or otherwise indicated an interest as evidenced by a memorandum or other record on file with such association.

(d) Any sum payable on any other written instrument on which a banking or financial organization is directly liable, including, by way of illustration but not of limitation, any draft, certified check, or money order, that has been outstanding for more than seven years from the date it was payable, or from the date of its issuance if payable on demand, when the owner, for more than seven years, has not corresponded in writing with the banking or financial organization concerning it, or otherwise indicated an interest as evidenced by a memorandum or other record on file with the banking or financial organization.

(e) Any sum payable on a money order issued by a business association (other than a banking or financial organization) that has been outstanding for more than seven years from the date it was payable, or from the date of its issuance if payable on demand, when the owner, for more than seven years, has not corresponded in writing with the business association concerning it, or otherwise indicated an interest as evidenced by a memorandum or other record on file with the business association.

(f) Any funds held by a business association in an individual retirement account or under a retirement plan for self-employed individuals or similar account or plan established pursuant to the internal revenue laws of the United States or of this state, when the owner, for more than seven years after the funds become payable or distributable, has not either:

(1) Increased or decreased the principal.

(2) Accepted payment of principal or income.

(3) Corresponded in writing concerning the property or otherwise indicated an interest.

Such funds are not payable or distributable within the meaning of this subdivision unless, under the terms of the account or plan, distribution of all or a part of the funds would then be mandatory.

(g) For purposes of this section "service charges" means service charges imposed because of the inactivity contemplated by this section.

SEC. 2. Section 6601 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

6601. An association shall maintain information about: (1) the amount or, if no amount can be stated, the method of determining the amount of each charge which the association may impose on an account; (2) the rate of interest, the annual yield, and method that will be used in computing and paying interest on the account, if any, including any provision for nonpayment of interest on deposits made after the beginning of the interest payment period or withdrawn before the end of such period; and (3) the effective date thereof. The information shall be available to the public at each office in California at which such accounts are maintained in one or both of the following ways: (1) in written materials displayed and available to the public in an area of the association open to the public; or (2) in any form of communication; provided that written materials displayed in an area of the association open to the public tell how to get the information.

SEC. 3. Section 7170 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

7170. An association shall not make any loan other than an amortized loan unless at least 90 percent of the unpaid principal of all its loans then in force are amortized loans.

SEC. 4. Section 7604.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

7604.5. (a) As used in this section, "pay-on-death provision" means:

(1) A provision or term of a share or investment certificate which is in the name of one person, which provides that upon the death of that person the share or investment certificate shall become the property of one or more designated payees.

(2) A provision or term of a share or investment certificate which is in the name of two or more persons which provides that upon the death of all of such persons the share or investment certificate shall become the property of one or more designated payees.

(b) Any transfer of property to the designated payee or payees pursuant to the terms of a pay-on-death provision shall be given effect under the terms of the share or certificate and shall not be deemed to be a testamentary disposition of property. The right of the designated payee or payees to receive such property shall not be denied, abridged, or affected on the grounds that the right has not been created by a writing executed in accordance with the laws of this state prescribing the requirements to effect a valid testamentary disposition of property.

(c) Except as provided in Section 7612, the association shall make payment in accordance with the pay-on-death provision, and such payment shall discharge the association from liability with respect to the moneys so paid.

SEC. 5. Section 11203.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

11203.5. (a) As used in this section, "pay-on-death provision" means:

(1) A provision or term of a share, share account, or savings account of a federal savings and loan association which is in the name of one person, which provides that upon the death of that person the share or account shall become the property of one or more designated payees.

(2) A provision or term of a share, share account, or savings account of a federal savings and loan association which is in the name of two or more persons, which provides that upon the death of all of such persons the share or account shall become the property of one or more designated payees.

(b) Any transfer of property to the designated payee or payees pursuant to the terms of a pay-on-death provision shall be given effect under the terms of the share or account involved and shall not be deemed to be a testamentary disposition of property. The right of the designated payee or payees to receive such property shall not be denied, abridged, or affected on the grounds that the right has not been created by a writing executed in accordance with the laws of this state prescribing the requirements to effectuate a valid testamentary disposition of property.

(c) Except as provided in Section 11211, the association shall make payment in accordance with the pay-on-death provision, and such payment shall discharge the association from liability with respect to the moneys so paid.

CHAPTER 105

An act to amend Section 41015 of the Education Code, and to amend Sections 53632, 53633, 53639, 53640, 53643, 53644, 53646, 53649, and 53654 of, and to add Section 53632.5 to, the Government Code, relating to deposit of public moneys.

[Approved by Governor June 20, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 20, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 41015 of the Education Code is amended to read:

41015. The governing board of any school district which has funds in a special reserve fund of the district or any surplus moneys not required for the immediate necessities of the district, is hereby authorized to invest all or any part of such funds in bonds, notes, bills, certificates, debentures or other obligations, issued by the United States of America, bank time certificates, savings and loan deposits, demand deposit accounts which pay money market yields, or obligations issued by banks for cooperatives, federal land banks, federal intermediate credit banks, federal home loan banks, the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, the Tennessee Valley Authority, or in obligations, participations, or other instruments of or issued by, or fully guaranteed as to principal and interest by, the Federal National Mortgage Association; or in participation certificates evidencing beneficial interests in obligations, or in the right to receive interest and principal collections therefrom, which obligations have been subjected by one or more government agencies to a trust or trusts for which any executive department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States (or the head thereof) has been named to act as trustee.

Any bonds, notes, bills or certificates, debentures or other obligations, so purchased may be sold and the proceeds reinvested in similar bonds, notes, bills or certificates, debentures or other obligations, of the United States of America, its agencies, or its instrumentalities, or placed in the county treasury for credit to the fund of the district from which purchased. This section shall not be construed as in any way limiting or modifying the application of any other law providing for or authorizing the investment of any funds of a school district. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, interest earned on funds representing the proceeds of bonds of the district shall be deposited and retained in the interest and sinking fund of the district to meet the principal and interest falling due on such bonds.

SEC. 1.5. Section 53632 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53632. There are three classes of deposits:

- (a) Inactive deposits.
- (b) Active deposits.
- (c) Interest-bearing active deposits.

SEC. 2. Section 53632.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

53632.5. There are two classes of security for deposits:

- (a) Securities described in subdivision (m) of Section 53651.
- (b) Securities enumerated in Section 53651, except for those described in subdivision (m) of that section.

SEC. 3. Section 53633 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53633. The treasurer shall determine the amounts of money to be deposited as inactive, active, and interest-bearing active deposits, except as otherwise provided in Section 53679.

SEC. 4. Section 53639 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53639. Except as otherwise provided in Section 53682, the depository shall bear the expenses of transportation of money to and from the depository.

SEC. 5. Section 53640 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53640. Except as otherwise provided in Section 53682, the depository shall handle, collect, and pay all checks, drafts, and other exchange without cost to the local agency.

SEC. 6. Section 53643 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53643. The treasurer may deposit any part of the money as agreed upon between the treasurer and the depository.

SEC. 7. Section 53644 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53644. If an agreement is not made:

(a) Active deposits and interest thereon are subject to withdrawal upon the demand of the treasurer or other authorized official, subject to any penalties which may be prescribed by federal law or regulation.

(b) Inactive deposits are subject to notice of at least thirty days before withdrawal.

SEC. 8. Section 53646 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53646. The treasurer shall render to the depository and to the auditor, controller, secretary, or corresponding officer of the local agency a statement showing the amount of accrued interest for each depository for the preceding quarter if so required by the legislative body of the local agency.

SEC. 9. Section 53649 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53649. The treasurer is responsible for the safekeeping of money in his custody and shall enter into any contract with a depository relating to any inactive deposit which in his judgment is to the public advantage. The depository, and the agent of depository to the extent the agent of depository has been notified of deposits and the amount thereof, are responsible for securing moneys deposited pursuant to such a contract in accordance with Section 53652. One copy of each such contract shall be filed with the auditor, controller, secretary or corresponding officer of the local agency. The contract shall:

- (a) Fix the duration of deposits.
- (b) Fix the interest rate, if any.
- (c) Provide conditions for withdrawal and repayment.
- (d) Provide for placement of pooled securities in a named agent of depository in accordance with Section 53656.
- (e) Grant authority for agent of depository to place securities for safekeeping in accordance with Section 53659.
- (f) Set forth in accordance with Section 53665 the conditions upon which the administrator shall order pooled securities converted into money for the benefit of the local agency, and the procedure therefor.

(g) Provide for compliance in all respects with the provisions of this article and other applicable provisions of law.

SEC. 10. Section 53654 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53654. (a) The depository may add securities to the pool or substitute securities of equal value for those in the pool at any time, but shall not interchange classes of security, as defined in Section 53632.5, without prior approval of the treasurer.

(b) Withdrawal of securities from the pool without replacement at equal value may be ordered only by a bonded officer or employee of the depository who has satisfied such requirements as may be set by the administrator. The agent of depository is responsible for the safekeeping and disbursement of securities placed in its custody by a depository. It shall release securities only upon presentation by the depository of the most reasonably current statement of the total deposits subject to this article held by the depository, such statement to be verified and countersigned by a bonded officer, other than one who may have ordered the withdrawal of securities. A copy of this statement shall be forwarded to the administrator concurrently by the agent of depository.

CHAPTER 106

An act to amend Section 113.5 of, and to add Sections 5101.7, 5101.8, and 10102.2 to, the Streets and Highways Code, relating to improvements, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 20, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State June 21, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 113.5 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

113.5. A city or county may enter into a cooperative agreement with the department to fund the construction or improvement of a segment of a state highway located in whole or in part within its jurisdiction when the project is included in the state transportation improvement program pursuant to Section 14529 of the Government Code. The project shall be constructed by the department, and, upon completion of construction, the highway segment shall be in the possession and control of, and operated and maintained by, the department.

SEC. 2. Section 5101.7 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

5101.7. The legislative body of a city may order the construction and installation of improvements authorized by Section 5101 in the right-of-way of a state highway or county road, or in a railroad right-of-way which is located within or adjacent to the corporate boundaries of the city, or in the right-of-way of a county road which is or will be an extension of a street, public way, or right-of-way of the city, if the legislative body determines that the public interest or convenience requires the construction and installation and that the land within an assessment district to be assessed to pay the cost and expenses of the improvements is benefited thereby. The construction and installation of the improvements in the right-of-way may be performed pursuant to a permit, license, lease, easement, or right-of-way granted to the city by the public entity or corporation having jurisdiction and control over the highway, road, or right-of-way. The legislative body of the city may establish and change the grades of the highway, road, or right-of-way, or portion thereof, where the improvement will be constructed in cooperation with the public entity or corporation having jurisdiction and control over the highway, road, or right-of-way. Before ordering the construction and installation of the improvements, the city shall obtain the approval of the public entity or corporation having jurisdiction and control over the highway, road, or right-of-way. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the legislative body shall not order the construction or improvement of a segment of a state highway except as provided in Section 5101.8.

SEC. 3. Section 5101.8 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

5101.8. (a) The legislative body of a city may order the construction and improvement of a segment of a state highway located, in whole or in part, within the city's jurisdiction, if the following conditions have been met:

(1) The legislative body has made a determination that the public interest or convenience requires the state highway project, and that the land within an assessment district to be assessed to pay the cost and expenses of the state highway project will be benefited.

(2) The legislative body has entered a cooperative agreement with the Department of Transportation, as provided in subdivision (b), to fund the construction and improvement of the state highway.

(3) The highway project has been included in the state transportation improvement program pursuant to Section 14529 of the Government Code.

(b) The cooperative agreement required by subdivision (a) shall provide for:

(1) The Department of Transportation to perform the construction of the project.

(2) The city funding of the costs and expenses of the project from the assessment to be levied on the land within the assessment district to be assessed, and from the sale of any bonds which may be issued pursuant to this division or Division 10 (commencing with Section 8500).

(3) The agreement to become effective after proceedings have been taken pursuant to this division and the funds are available to carry out all its terms.

(4) The division of financial and legal responsibility between the city and the Department of Transportation for the maintenance of the state highway improvements and encroachments upon completion of the work.

SEC. 4. Section 10102.2 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

10102.2. The provisions of the Improvement Act of 1911 relating to work performed on a state highway, county road, or railroad right-of-way, as set forth in Sections 5101.7 and 5101.8, are incorporated in this division as if fully set out herein, except that references to "this division" shall be deemed to refer to Division 12 (commencing with Section 10000).

immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for currently scheduled construction to be undertaken prior to the end of 1983 in the manner provided by this act, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 107

An act to add Section 911.3 to the Government Code, relating to claims against public entities.

[Approved by Governor June 20, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 21, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 911.3 is added to the Government Code, to read:

911.3. (a) When a claim that is required by Section 911.2 to be presented not later than the 100th day after accrual of the cause of action is presented after such time without the application provided in Section 911.4, the board or other person designated by it may, at any time within 45 days after the claim is presented, give written notice to the person presenting the claim that the claim was not filed timely and that it is being returned without further action. The notice shall be in substantially the following form:

"The claim you presented to the (insert title of board or officer) on (indicate date) is being returned because it was not presented within 100 days after the event or occurrence as required by law. See Sections 901 and 911.2 of the Government Code. Because the claim was not presented within the time allowed by law, no action was taken on the claim.

Your only recourse at this time is to apply without delay to (name of public entity) for leave to present a late claim. See Sections 911.4 to 912.2, inclusive, and Section 946.6 of the Government Code. Under some circumstances, leave to present a late claim will be granted. See Section 911.6 of the Government Code.

You may seek the advice of an attorney of your choice in connection with this matter. If you desire to consult an attorney, you should do so immediately."

(b) Any defense as to the time limit for presenting a claim described in subdivision (a) is waived by failure to give the notice set forth in subdivision (a) within 45 days after the claim is presented, except that no notice need be given and no waiver shall result when the claim as presented fails to state either an address to which the person presenting the claim desires notices to be sent or an address of the claimant.

CHAPTER 108

An act to add Section 30656 to the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to animals.

[Approved by Governor June 20, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 21, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 30656 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

30656. (a) Any county, city, or city and county may, by ordinance, elect to utilize the provisions of this section in lieu of Sections 30653 and 30654.

(b) The claim for damages to livestock, in addition to being governed by Part 3 (commencing with Section 900) and Part 4 (commencing with Section 940) of Division 3.6 of Title 1 of the Government Code, shall be accompanied by a statement by the local animal control officer relating to the probable cause of death of the animal and by proof submitted by the owner of the livestock to establish the value of the animal.

(c) The statement submitted by the local animal control officer shall set forth the facts upon which the officer's statement is based and shall indicate whether, to the best of the officer's knowledge, the animal was killed by a dog.

CHAPTER 109

An act to add Section 72096.5 to the Water Code, relating to municipal water districts.

[Approved by Governor June 20, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State June 21, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 72096.5 is added to the Water Code, to read:

72096.5. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, a mobilehome which occupies a rental space and is not permanently attached to the land is not property subject to ad valorem property taxes for debt service of the district or of any improvement district therein.

CHAPTER 110

An act to add Section 1706 to the Business and Professions Code, relating to dentistry.

[Approved by Governor June 20, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 21, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1706 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

1706. Every complete upper or lower denture fabricated by a licensed dentist, or fabricated pursuant to the dentist's work order, shall be marked with the patient's name or social security number, unless the patient objects. The initials of the patient may be shown alone, if use of the name of the patient is not practical. The markings shall be done during fabrication and shall be permanent, legible, and cosmetically acceptable. The exact location of the markings and the methods used to implant or apply them shall be determined by the dentist or dental laboratory fabricating the denture. The dentist shall inform the patient that the markings are to be used for identification only and the patient shall have the choice of which marking is to appear on the dentures.

The dentist shall retain the records of those marked dentures and shall not release the records to any person except by enforcement officers, in the event of an emergency requiring personal identification by means of dental records, or to anyone authorized by the patient.

CHAPTER 111

An act to amend Sections 908.2 and 911 of, and to amend and repeal Section 901 of, the Penal Code, relating to grand juries.

[Approved by Governor June 20, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 21, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 901 of the Penal Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 950 of the Statutes of 1979, is amended to read:

901. (a) The persons whose names are so returned shall be known as regular jurors, and shall serve for one year and until other persons are selected and returned.

(b) If the superior court so decides, the presiding judge may name up to four regular jurors not previously so named, who served on the previous grand jury and who so consent, to serve for a second year.

(c) The court may also decide to select grand jurors pursuant to Section 908.2.

SEC. 2. Section 901, as added to the Penal Code by Section 3 of Chapter 950 of the Statutes of 1979, is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 908.2 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

908.2. (a) Upon the decision of the superior court pursuant to Section 901 to adopt this method of selecting grand jurors, when the required number of persons have been impaneled as the grand jury pursuant to law, the clerk shall write the names of each such person on separate ballots. The clerk shall fold the ballots so that the names cannot be seen, place them in a box, and draw out half of such ballots, or in a county where the number of grand jurors is uneven, one more than half. The persons whose names are on the ballots so drawn shall serve for 12 months until July 1 of the following year. The persons whose names are not on the ballots so drawn shall serve for six months until January 1 of the following year.

(b) Each subsequent year, on January 2 and July 2, a sufficient number of grand jurors shall be impaneled to replace those whose service concluded the previous day. Those persons impaneled on January 2, shall serve until January 1 of the following year. Those persons impaneled on July 2, shall serve until July 1 of the following year. No person shall serve on the grand jury for more than one year.

(c) The provisions of subdivisions (a) and (b) shall not be applicable to the selection of grand jurors for an additional grand jury authorized pursuant to Sections 904.5, 904.6, 904.7, 904.8, and 904.9.

SEC. 4. Section 911 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

911. The following oath shall be taken by each member of the grand jury: "I do solemnly swear (affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States and of the State of California, and all laws made pursuant to and in conformity therewith, will diligently inquire into, and true presentment make, of all public offenses against the people of this state, committed or triable within this county, of which the grand jury shall have or can obtain legal evidence. Further, I will not disclose any evidence brought before the grand jury, nor anything which I or any other grand juror may say, nor the manner in which I or any other grand juror may have voted on any matter before the grand jury. I will keep the charge that will be given to me by the court."

CHAPTER 112

An act to amend Section 2924c of the Civil Code, relating to real property.

[Approved by Governor June 20, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 21, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2924c of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2924c. (a) (1) Whenever all or a portion of the principal sum of any obligation secured by deed of trust or mortgage on real property hereafter executed has, prior to the maturity date fixed in such obligation, become due or been declared due by reason of default in payment of interest or of any installment of principal, or by reason of failure of trustor or mortgagor to pay, in accordance with the terms of such obligation or of such deed of trust or mortgage, taxes, assessments, premiums for insurance or advances made by beneficiary or mortgagee in accordance with the terms of such obligation or of such deed of trust or mortgage, the trustor or mortgagor or his successor in interest in the mortgaged or trust property or any part thereof, or any beneficiary under a subordinate deed of trust or any other person having a subordinate lien or encumbrance of record thereon, at any time within three months of the recording of the notice of default under such deed of trust or mortgage, if the power of sale therein is to be exercised, or, otherwise at any time prior to entry of the decree of foreclosure, may pay to the beneficiary or the mortgagee or their successors in interest, respectively, the entire amount then due under the terms of such deed of trust or mortgage and the obligation secured thereby (including costs and expenses actually incurred in enforcing the terms of such obligation, deed of trust or mortgage, and trustee's or attorney's fees not exceeding one hundred fifty dollars ($150) in case of a mortgage or a deed of trust or one-half of 1 percent of the entire unpaid principal sum secured, whichever is greater) other than such portion of principal as would not then be due had no default occurred, and thereby cure the default theretofore existing, and thereupon, all proceedings theretofore had or instituted shall be dismissed or discontinued and the obligation and deed of trust or mortgage shall be reinstated and shall be and remain in force and effect, the same as if no such acceleration had occurred. The provisions of this section shall not apply to bonds or other evidences of indebtedness authorized or permitted to be issued by the Commissioner of Corporations or made by a public utility subject to the provisions of the Public Utilities Code.

(2) If the trustor, mortgagor, or other person authorized to cure the default pursuant to this subdivision does cure the default, that person may request the beneficiary or the mortgagee or their successors in interest to cause to be executed and recorded a notice of rescission which rescinds the declaration of default and demand for sale and upon receipt of a written request the beneficiary or mortgagee or their successors in interest shall cause to be executed and recorded a notice of rescission. The request to execute and record a notice of rescission shall be directed to the person whose name and address is set forth in the notice required by subdivision (b). The beneficiary, or the mortgagee or their successors in interest, shall cause the notice of rescission to be recorded within 30 days of the receipt of the written request.

(b) (1) The notice, of any default described in this section, recorded pursuant to Section 2924, and mailed to any person pursuant to Section 2924b, shall begin with the following statement, printed or typed thereon:

“IMPORTANT NOTICE [14-point boldface type if printed or in capital letters if typed]

IF YOUR PROPERTY IS IN FORECLOSURE BECAUSE YOU ARE BEHIND IN YOUR PAYMENTS, IT MAY BE SOLD WITHOUT ANY COURT ACTION, [14-point boldface type if printed or in capital letters if typed] and you may have the legal right to bring your account in good standing by paying all of your past due payments plus permitted costs and expenses within three months from the date this notice of default was recorded.

This amount is _____ as of _____ , and will increase until your account becomes current. You may not have to pay the entire unpaid portion of your account, even though full payment was demanded, but you must pay the amount stated above.

After three months from the date of recordation of this document (which date of recordation appears hereon), unless the obligation being foreclosed upon permits a longer period, you have only the legal right to stop the foreclosure by paying the entire amount demanded by your creditor.

To find out the amount you must pay, or to arrange for payment to stop the foreclosure, or if your property is in foreclosure for any other reason, contact:

_____
(Name of beneficiary or mortgagee)

_____
(Mailing address)

_____
(Telephone)

If you have any questions, you should contact a lawyer or the government agency which may have insured your loan.

Remember, YOU MAY LOSE LEGAL RIGHTS IF YOU DO NOT TAKE PROMPT ACTION. [14-point boldface type if printed or in capital letters if typed]”

Unless otherwise specified, the notice, if printed, shall appear in at least 12-point boldface type.

If the obligation secured by the deed of trust or mortgage is a contract or agreement described in paragraph (1) or paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 1632, the notice required herein shall be in Spanish if the trustor requested a Spanish language translation of the contract or agreement pursuant to Section 1632. If the obligation secured by the deed of trust or mortgage is contained in a home improvement contract, as defined in Sections 7151.2 and 7159 of the Business and Professions Code, which is subject to the provisions of Title 2 (commencing with Section 1801), the seller shall specify on the contract whether or not the contract was principally negotiated in Spanish and if the contract was principally negotiated in Spanish, the notice required herein shall be in Spanish. No assignee of such contract or person authorized to record the notice of default shall incur any obligation or liability for failing to mail a notice in Spanish unless Spanish is specified in the contract or such assignee or person has actual knowledge that the secured obligation was principally negotiated in Spanish. Unless specified in writing to the contrary, a copy of the notice required by subdivision (3) of Section 2924b shall be in English.

(2) Any failure to comply with the provisions of this subdivision shall not affect the validity of a sale in favor of a bona fide purchaser or the rights of an encumbrancer for value and without notice.

CHAPTER 113

An act relating to school districts, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 21, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State June 21, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The governing board of the Grant Joint Union High School District may direct that moneys held in any fund or account be temporarily transferred from one or more accounts or funds to another fund of the district to be used for the payment of obligations of the district. Such a transfer may be made not more than twice within the fiscal year from the same fund or account, and may be made only when the district will receive income sufficient to repay the amount transferred. The amount transferred shall be repaid either in the same fiscal year, or in the following fiscal year if the transfer takes place within the final 120 calendar days of a fiscal year.

Notwithstanding Section 42603 of the Education Code, in the 1982-83 and 1983-84 fiscal years, the Grant Joint Union High School District shall be permitted to temporarily transfer 100 percent of the maximum of moneys held in any fund or account pursuant to provisions of this section. For that district only, moneys are defined as all cash and accounts receivable due the district, including secured notes. Funds include funds created under Section 39618 of the Education Code.

The Grant Joint Union High School District shall reduce its actual deficit for the 1981-82 and 1982-83 fiscal years in four equal installments, to be paid in the 1983-84, 1984-85, 1985-86, and 1986-87 fiscal years and included in the district's budget for those fiscal years. The district may apply any moneys received from the sale of school sites to the reduction of the deficit, and reduce accordingly the amounts to be repaid in any of the 1983-84, 1984-85, 1985-86, and 1986-87 fiscal years. Under either repayment procedure, the entire amount of the deficit shall be repaid by June 30, 1987. The district shall certify to the Superintendent of Public Instruction in each of the 1983-84, 1984-85, 1985-86, and 1986-87 fiscal years that the annual repayment required by this section has been made.

SEC. 2. Due to the unique circumstances surrounding the Grant Joint Union High School District, the Legislature hereby finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to allow school districts to meet their 1982-83 fiscal year obligations, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 114

An act to amend Section 760 of the Probate Code, relating to probate sales.

[Approved by Governor June 21, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 21, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 760 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

760. The executor or administrator may enter into a written contract with any bona fide agent or broker, or multiple group of agents or brokers, to secure a purchaser for any real or personal property of the estate, which contract may provide for the payment of a commission out of the proceeds of the sale. The court shall, without limitation on its discretion under this section or Section 761 or 785, give consideration to any agreement between the agent or the broker with a written contract to secure a purchaser and any cooperating agent or broker whose bid was returned to the court for confirmation, with respect to the sharing of compensation or commission in the transaction, subject to the provisions of Sections 761 and 785 relating to compensation or commission to the agent or broker who procured the purchaser to whom the sale is confirmed.

Such contract may additionally grant an exclusive right to sell property for a period not in excess of 90 days if prior to the execution of the contract granting an exclusive right to sell, the executor or administrator obtains the permission of the court to enter into such an agreement upon a showing of necessity and advantage to the estate, and such permission may be granted when the executor or administrator is appointed or qualified, or at any subsequent time upon an ex parte application.

When said sale is confirmed to such purchaser, such contract shall be binding and valid as against the estate for an amount to be allowed by the court. By the execution of any such contract no personal liability shall attach to the executor or administrator, and no liability of any kind shall be incurred by the estate unless an actual sale is made and confirmed by the court.

CHAPTER 115

An act to amend Section 1194.5 of, and to add Section 1192.5 to, the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor June 21, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 21, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1192.5 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

1192.5. Excess funds investments may be made in all deposits and debt obligations of banks or savings and loan associations including certificates of deposit, bankers' acceptances, and commercial paper.

SEC. 2. Section 1194.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1194.5. Excess funds investments may be made in any debt obligation issued by the United States, a federal agency or entity authorized to issue debt obligations by federal statute; the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, its agencies and political subdivisions; any state, its agencies or political subdivisions, or by any city, county, or city and county, or by any department or board of such city, county, or city and county, whether issued in bearer, registered or book entry form.

CHAPTER 116

An act to amend Section 409 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to county tax records.

[Approved by Governor June 21, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 21, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 409 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

409. (a) Notwithstanding Section 6257 of the Government Code or any other statutory provision, if the assessor, pursuant to the request of any party, provides information or records that the assessor is not required by law to prepare or keep, the county may require that a fee reasonably related to the actual cost of developing and providing that information be paid by the party receiving the information.

The actual cost of providing the information is not limited to duplication or reproduction costs, but may include recovery of developmental and indirect costs, such as overhead, personnel, supply, material, office, storage, and computer costs.

It is the intent of this section that the county may impose this fee for information and records maintained for county use, as well as for information and records not maintained for county use.

Nothing herein shall be construed to require an assessor to provide information to any party beyond that which he or she is otherwise statutorily required to provide.

(b) For purposes of this section, "market data," as defined in Section 408.1, shall be deemed to be information the assessor is required by law to prepare or keep when requested by the assessee or a designated representative of the assessee.

(c) This section shall not apply to requests of the State Board of Equalization for information.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1985, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1985, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 118

An act to amend Sections 591.6 and 2574 of the Probate Code, relating to estates.

[Approved by Governor June 21, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 21, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 591.6 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

591.6. Unless restricted by the will, an executor or administrator who has been granted authority to administer the estate without court supervision shall have all of the following powers, in addition to any other powers granted by this code, which powers can be exercised in the manner provided in this article:

(a) To manage, control, convey, divide, exchange, partition, and to sell for cash or on credit; to lease for any purpose, including exploration for and removal of gas, oil, or other minerals; to enter into community oil leases; and to grant options to purchase real property for a period within or beyond the administration of the estate.

(b) To invest and reinvest money of the estate in deposits in banks and insured savings and loan association accounts and in eligible securities for the investment of surplus state moneys as provided for in Section 16430 of the Government Code; to invest and reinvest any surplus moneys in his or her hands in any manner provided by the will.

(c) To borrow, to place, replace, renew or extend any encumbrance upon any property in the estate.

(d) To abandon worthless assets or any interest therein.

(e) To make ordinary or extraordinary repairs or alterations in buildings or other property.

(f) To vote a security, in person or by general or limited proxy.

(g) To sell or exercise stock subscription or conversion rights.

(h) To hold a security in the name of a nominee or in other form without disclosure of the estate, so that title to the security may pass by delivery, but the executor or administrator is liable for any act of the nominee in connection with the security so held.

(i) To insure the assets of the estate against damage or loss, and the executor or administrator against liability with respect to third persons.

(j) To allow, pay, reject, contest and compromise any claim by or against the estate by compromise; to release, in whole or in part, any claim belonging to the estate to the extent that the claim is uncollectible; to institute, compromise and defend actions and proceedings.

(k) To pay taxes, assessments, and other expenses incurred in the collection, care and administration of the estate.

(l) To continue the operation of the decedent's business to such extent as he or she shall deem to be for the best interest of the estate and those interested therein.

(m) To pay a reasonable family allowance.

SEC. 1.5. Section 591.6 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

591.6. Unless restricted by the will, an executor or administrator who has been granted authority to administer the estate without court supervision shall have all of the following powers, in addition to any other powers granted by this code, which powers can be exercised in the manner provided in this article:

(a) To manage, control, convey, divide, exchange, partition, and to sell for cash or on credit; to lease for any purpose, including exploration for and removal of gas, oil, or other minerals; to enter into community oil leases; and to grant options to purchase real property for a period within or beyond the administration of the estate.

(b) To invest and reinvest money of the estate in deposits in banks and insured savings and loan association accounts and in eligible securities for the investment of surplus state moneys as provided for in Section 16430 of the Government Code; to invest and reinvest any surplus moneys in his or her hands in any manner provided by the will.

(c) To borrow; to place, replace, renew or extend any encumbrance upon any property in the estate.

(d) To abandon worthless assets or any interest therein.

(e) To make ordinary or extraordinary repairs or alterations in buildings or other property.

(f) To vote a security, in person or by general or limited proxy.

(g) To sell or exercise stock subscription or conversion rights.

(h) To hold a security in the name of a nominee or in other form without disclosure of the estate, so that title to the security may pass by delivery, but the executor or administrator is liable for any act of the nominee in connection with the security so held.

(i) To insure the assets of the estate against damage or loss, and the executor or administrator against liability with respect to third persons.

(j) To allow, pay, reject, contest and compromise any claim by or against the estate by compromise; to release, in whole or in part, any claim belonging to the estate to the extent that the claim is uncollectible; to institute, compromise and defend actions and proceedings.

(k) To pay taxes, assessments, and other expenses incurred in the collection, care and administration of the estate.

(l) To continue the operation of the decedent's business to such extent as he or she shall deem to be for the best interest of the estate and those interested therein.

(m) To pay a reasonable family allowance.

(n) To make a disclaimer.

SEC. 2. Section 2574 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

2574. (a) Subject to subdivision (b), the guardian or conservator, without authorization of the court, may invest funds of the estate pursuant to this section in:

(1) Direct obligations of the United States, or of this state, having a maturity at the time of acquisition of not more than five years and mutual funds which are comprised of (A) those obligations, or (B) repurchase agreements with respect to any obligation, regardless of maturity, in which the fund is authorized to invest.

(2) United States Treasury bonds redeemable at par value on the death of the holder for payment of federal estate taxes, regardless of maturity date.

(3) Stocks, bonds, and other securities listed on an established stock or bond exchange in the United States which are purchased on such exchange.

(4) Eligible securities for the investment of surplus state moneys as provided for in Section 16430 of the Government Code.

(b) In making and retaining investments made under this section, the guardian or conservator shall conform to Section 2261 of the Civil Code and shall take into consideration the circumstances of the estate, indicated cash needs, and, if reasonably ascertainable, the date of the prospective termination of the guardianship or conservatorship.

(c) Nothing in this section limits the authority of the guardian or conservator to seek court authorization for any investment, or to make other investments with court authorization, as provided in this division.

SEC. 3. Section 1.5 of this act shall become operative only if Assembly Bill 24 is chaptered and becomes effective January 1, 1984, in which case Section 1 of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 119

An act to amend Section 272 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor June 21, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 21, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 272 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

272. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, whenever a valid application for exemption is filed pursuant to Section 270 or 271 and the assessor receives the board finding pursuant to Section 254.5 prior to the completion of the roll for the year for which the exemption is claimed, the assessor shall enroll the property so as to provide for the amount of exemption on the property's assessed value as provided by the applicable section.

When the application for exemption or the finding of the board for that application is received after completion of the roll, the assessor shall initiate an action to correct the roll by addition of the appropriate amount of exemption on the property. Upon notification by the assessor, the auditor shall make the appropriate adjustment on the roll.

Where authorized under the provisions of this article, the tax, penalty or interest thereon subject to cancellation or refund shall be canceled pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 4985) of Chapter 4 of Part 9, as if it had been levied or charged erroneously, and, if paid, a refund thereof shall be made pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 5096) of Chapter 5 of Part 9 as if it had been erroneously collected. The amount of tax, penalty or interest which is not canceled or refunded under this article with respect to property tax exemptions covered by this article and filed late may be paid in installments as provided in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 4186) of Part 7.

CHAPTER 120

An act to amend Sections 207 and 270 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 22, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 22, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 207 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

207. Property used exclusively for religious purposes shall be exempt from taxation. Property owned and operated by a church and used for religious worship, preschool purposes, nursery school purposes, kindergarten purposes, school purposes of less than collegiate grade, or for purposes of both schools of collegiate grade and schools less than collegiate grade but excluding property used solely for purposes of schools of collegiate grade, shall be deemed to be used exclusively for religious purposes under this section.

The exemption provided by this section is granted pursuant to the authority in subdivision (b) of Section 4 of Article XIII of the California Constitution, and shall be known as the "religious exemption."

This section shall be effective for the 1977-78 fiscal year and fiscal years thereafter.

SEC. 2. Section 270 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

270. (a) With respect to property as to which the college, cemetery, church, religious, exhibition, veterans' organization, free public libraries, free museums, public schools, community colleges, state colleges, state universities or welfare exemption was available but for which a timely application for exemption was not filed-

(1) Ninety percent of any tax or penalty or interest thereon shall be canceled or refunded provided an appropriate application for exemption is filed on or before the first day of March of the calendar year next succeeding the calendar year in which the exemption was not claimed by a timely application; or, if the application is filed thereafter,

(2) Eighty-five percent of any tax or penalty or interest thereon shall be canceled or refunded provided an appropriate application for exemption is filed and relief is not authorized under Section 214.01 or 271.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a), any tax or penalty or interest thereon exceeding two hundred fifty dollars ($250) in total amount shall be canceled or refunded provided it is imposed upon property entitled to relief under subdivision (a) for which an appropriate claim for exemption has been filed.

(c) With respect to property as to which the welfare exemption or veterans' organization exemption was available, all provisions of Section 254.5, other than the specified dates for the filing of affidavits and other acts, are applicable to this section.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a), with respect to property as to which the church or religious exemption was available, any tax or penalty or interest thereon shall be canceled or refunded if it is imposed upon property entitled to relief under that subdivision for which an appropriate claim for exemption has been filed on or before March 1, 1984, and a twenty-five dollar ($25) filing fee for each year as been paid. This subdivision shall be effective for the fiscal years 1977-78 to 1982-83, inclusive.

SEC. 3. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because self-financing authority is provided in this act.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Chapter 542 of the Statutes of 1981 established for the 1982-83 fiscal year and fiscal years thereafter, a "religious exemption" from property taxation for property used exclusively for religious purposes and specified the procedure for claiming the exemption. However, with respect to prior fiscal years, certain church properties were subjected to property taxation due to the failure of certain religious organizations to file a claim for property taxation based upon their religious convictions. Due to the belief of those religious organizations that the property subjected to taxation was entitled to exemption, the taxes assessed were not paid and, consequently, some of that property will be subjected in the near future to sale for the collection of those unpaid taxes. The enactment of this act would, through the cancellation of back taxes, provide tax relief to those religious organizations which is consistent with the spirit of Chapter 542. However, in order to provide the above relief prior to the time that certain of that property eligible for exemption is subjected to sale, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 121

An act to add and repeal Section 23432.5 of the Business and Professions Code, and to amend Section 172 of the Penal Code, relating to alcoholic beverages, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 22, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 23, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 23432.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

23432.5. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 23432, upon the finding by the department that exceptional circumstances exist, the department in its discretion, may accept an application for a club license by a qualified organization which had held an on-sale general license at the same premises within a year immediately preceding the date of filing the application. This section shall be operative for 60 days after it becomes effective and is thereafter repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 172 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

172. (a) Every person who, within one-half mile of the land belonging to this state upon which any state prison, or within 1,900 feet of the land belonging to this state upon which any Youth Authority institution is situated, or within one mile of the ground belonging to the University of California, at Berkeley, or within one mile of the grounds belonging to the University of California at Santa Barbara, as such grounds existed as of January 1, 1961, or within one mile of the grounds belonging to Fresno State College, as such grounds existed as of January 1, 1959, or within three miles of the University Farm at Davis, or within 1½ miles of any building actually occupied as a home, retreat, or asylum for ex-soldiers, sailors, and marines of the Army and Navy of the United States, establish or to be established by this state, or by the United States within the state, or within the State Capitol, or within the limits of the grounds adjacent and belonging thereto, sells or exposes for sale, any intoxicating liquor, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100), or by imprisonment for not less than 50 days or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(b) The provision of subdivision (a) of this section prohibiting the sale or exposure for sale of any intoxicating liquor within 1,900 feet of the land belonging to this state upon which any Youth Authority institution is situated shall not apply with respect to the Fred C. Nelles School for Boys.

(c) Except within the State Capitol or the limits of the grounds adjacent and belonging thereto, as mentioned in subdivision (a) of this section, the provisions of this section shall not apply to the sale or exposing or offering for sale of ale, porter, wine, similar fermented malt or vinous liquor or fruit juice containing one-half of 1 percent or more of alcohol by volume and not more than 3.2 percent of alcohol by weight nor the sale or exposing or offering for sale of beer.

(d) Distances provided in this section shall be measured not by airline but by following the shortest highway or highways as defined in Section 360 of the Vehicle Code connecting the points in question. In measuring distances from the Folsom State Prison and the eastern facilities of the California Institution for Men at Chino and Youth Training School, the measurement shall start at the entrance gate.

(e) The provision of subdivision (a) of this section prohibiting the sale or exposure for sale of any intoxicating liquor within 1½ miles of any building actually occupied as a home, retreat, or asylum for ex-soldiers, sailors, and marines of the Army and Navy of the United States shall not apply to the Veterans' Home at Yountville, Napa County, California.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to correct certain inequities with respect to the measurement of distances for the purpose of permitting the sale of alcoholic beverages, at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 122

An act to add Section 10219.5 to the Elections Code, relating to ballots.

[Approved by Governor June 22, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 23, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10219.5 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

10219.5. Commencing with the November 2, 1982, general election, all state measures in all elections at which state measures are submitted to a vote of the voters shall be numbered in a continuous sequence, commencing with the number "1" and continuing in numerical sequence for a period of 20 years from the year of commencement.

At the completion of a 20-year cycle, the numbering sequence shall recommence with the number "1" at the next election at which state measures are submitted to a vote of the voters.

---

CHAPTER 123

An act to amend Sections 1141.12, 1141.16 and 1141.17 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to arbitration.

[Approved by Governor June 22, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 23, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1141.12 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1141.12. (a) In each superior court in which arbitration may be had pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 1141.11, upon stipulation of the parties, any at-issue civil actions shall be submitted to arbitration regardless of the amount in controversy.

(b) In all other superior, municipal, and justice courts, the Judicial Council shall provide by rule for a uniform system of arbitration of the following causes:

(i) Any cause upon stipulation of the parties, and
(ii) Upon filing of an election by the plaintiff, any cause in which the plaintiff agrees that the arbitration award shall not exceed the amount in controversy as specified in Section 1141.11.

(c) Any election by a plaintiff shall be filed no sooner than the filing of the at-issue memorandum, and no later than 90 days before trial, or at a later time if permitted by the court.

SEC. 2. Section 1141.16 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1141.16. (a) The determination of the amount in controversy, under subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 1141.11 and Section 1141.12, shall be made by the court and the case submitted to arbitration at any conference at which all parties are present or represented by counsel. Such conference shall be held no later than three months after the at-issue memorandum is filed or no later than 90 days before trial, whichever occurs first. At that time the court shall make a determination whether any prayer for equitable relief is frivolous or insubstantial, which decision shall not be appealable. The date of such conference may be postponed upon motion of any party for good cause shown. No determination pursuant to this section shall be made if all parties stipulate in writing that the amount in controversy exceeds the amount specified in Section 1141.11.

(b) The determination and any stipulation of the amount in controversy shall be without prejudice to any finding on the value of the case by an arbitrator or in a subsequent trial de novo. The determination shall be based on the total amount of damages, and the judge shall not consider questions of liability or comparative negligence or other defenses.

(c) The case shall be submitted to arbitration at an earlier time upon the written request of all plaintiffs, subject to a motion by a defendant for good cause shown to delay the arbitration hearing.

(d) In cases submitted to arbitration pursuant to Section 1141.11 or subdivision (a) of Section 1141.12 or paragraph (i) of subdivision (b) of Section 1141.12, an arbitrator shall be assigned to hear a case within 30 days from the time of its submission to arbitration.

SEC. 3. Section 1141.17 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1141.17. (a) Submission of an action to arbitration pursuant to this chapter shall not suspend the running of the time periods specified in Section 583, except as provided in this section.

(b) If an action is or remains submitted to arbitration pursuant to this chapter more than four years and six months after the plaintiff has filed the action, then the time beginning on the date four years and six months after the plaintiff has filed the action and ending on the date on which a request for a de novo trial is filed under Section 1141.20 shall not be included in computing the five-year period specified in subdivision (b) of Section 583.

---

CHAPTER 124

An act to amend Section 25350 of, and to add Section 25350.60 to the Government Code, relating to counties.

[Approved by Governor June 22, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 23, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25350 of the Government Code is amended to read:

25350. No purchase of real property, including any water right or other interest therein, of which the purchase price is in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) shall be made unless a notice of the intention of the board of supervisors to make the purchase is published in the county pursuant to Section 6063. If no newspaper is published in the county, the notice shall be posted at least three weeks prior to the time the board meets to consummate the purchase in at least three public places in each supervisorial district. The notice shall contain a description of the property proposed to be purchased, the price, the vendor, and a statement of the time the board will meet to consummate the purchase.

Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to preclude the settlement of an action in eminent domain or the acquisition of any real property or interest therein for the uses and purposes of county highways without compliance with this section.

SEC. 2. Section 25350.60 is added to the Government Code, to read:

25350.60. The board of supervisors of a county may, by ordinance, authorize such county officer as it deems appropriate to perform any or all acts necessary to approve and accept for the county the acquisition of any interest in real property where the purchase price for such interest does not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000). Any such authorization shall specify procedures for the exercise of such authority by the officer so designated.

CHAPTER 125

An act to amend Section 5154 of, and to add Sections 5152.1, 5152.2, 5152.3, 5152.4, and 5152.5 to, the Elections Code, relating to elections.

[Approved by Governor June 22, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 23, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5152.1 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

5152.1. Before circulating an initiative petition in any district, the proponents of that measure shall publish a notice of intention. The notice shall be accompanied by a printed statement stating the reasons for the proposed petition. The printed statement shall not exceed 500 words. The notice shall be signed by at least one, but not more than five, proponents and shall be in substantially the following form:

"Notice of Intention to Circulate Initiative Petition

Notice is hereby given of the intention of the persons whose names appear hereon of their intention to circulate the petition within the _____ district for the purpose of _____. A statement of the reasons for the proposed action as contemplated in the petition is as follows:"

SEC. 2. Section 5152.2 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

5152.2. A notice of intention and statement as referred to in Section 5152.1 shall be published or posted, or both, as follows:

(a) If there is a newspaper of general circulation within the district, as described in Section 6000 of the Government Code, the notice and statement shall be published therein at least once.

(b) If the petition is to be circulated in a district in which there is no newspaper of general circulation, the notice and statement shall be published at least once, in a newspaper of general circulation within the county in which the district is located and the notice and statement shall be posted in three public places within the district.

SEC. 3. Section 5152.3 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

5152.3. Within 10 days after the date of publication or posting, or both, of the notice of intention and statement, the proponents shall file a copy of the notice and statement as published or posted, or both, together with an affidavit made by a representative of the newspaper in which the notice was published or, if the notice was posted, by a voter of the district certifying to the fact of publication or posting. The affidavit, together with a copy of the notice of intention and statement, shall be filed with the clerk of the district.

SEC. 4. Section 5152.4 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

5152.4. Twenty-one days after the publication or posting, or both, of the notice of intention and statement, the petition may be circulated among the voters of the district for signatures by any registered voter of the district. Each section of the petition shall bear a copy of the notice of intention and statement.

SEC. 5. Section 5152.5 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

5152.5. Signatures upon petitions and sections thereof shall be secured, and the petition, together with all sections thereof, shall be filed within 180 days from the date of publication or posting, or both, of the notice of intention and statement. If the petitions are not filed within the time permitted by this section, the petition and its sections shall be void for all purposes.

SEC. 6. Section 5154 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

5154. (a) If the initiative petition is signed by voters not less in number than 10 percent of the voters in the district where the total number of registered voters is less than 500,000, or not less in number than 5 percent of the voters in the district where the total number of registered voters is 500,000 or more, and the ordinance petitioned for is not required to be, or for any reason is not submitted to the voters at a special election, and is not passed without change by the district board, the ordinance, without alteration, shall be submitted by the board to the voters at the next statewide election consolidated with the next regular election.

(b) The number of registered voters referred to in subdivision (a) shall be calculated as of the time of the last report of registration by the county clerk to the Secretary of State made prior to publication or posting of the notice of intention to circulate the initiative petition.

CHAPTER 126

An act to amend Section 1399.61 of the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Section 10128.1 of the Insurance Code, relating to health plans.

[Approved by Governor June 23, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 23, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1399.61 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1399.61. In this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Carrier" shall mean the health care service plan or other entity responsible for the payment of benefits or provision of services under a group contract.

(b) "Dependent" shall have the meaning set forth in a contract.

(c) "Discontinuance" shall mean the termination of the contract between the entire employer unit under a contract and the health care service plan, and does not refer to the termination of any agreement between any individual member under a contract and the health care service plan.

(d) "Employee" shall mean all agents, employees, and members of unions or associations to whom benefits are provided under a contract.

(e) "Extension of benefits" shall mean the continuation of coverage under a particular benefit provided under a contract following discontinuance with respect to an employee or dependent who is totally disabled on the date of discontinuance.

(f) "Contract" shall mean any group health care service plan or contract subject to the provisions of this article.

(g) "Contractholder" shall mean the entity to which a contract is issued.

(h) "Dues" shall mean the consideration payable to the carrier.

(i) "Replacement coverage" shall mean the benefits provided by a succeeding carrier.

(j) "Totally disabled" shall have the meaning set forth in a contract.

SEC. 2. Section 10128.1 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10128.1. In this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Carrier" means the insurance company, nonprofit hospital service corporation, or other entity responsible for the payment of benefits or provision of services under a policy.

(b) "Dependent" shall have the meaning set forth in a policy.

(c) "Discontinuance" shall mean the termination of a policy or the termination of coverage between an entire employer unit under a group disability policy, group nonprofit hospital service contract or self-insured welfare benefit plan, and does not refer to the termination of any agreement between any individual member under a contract and the disability insurer, nonprofit hospital service contract or self-insured welfare benefit plan.

(d) "Employee" means all agents, employees, and members of unions or associations to whom benefits are provided under a policy.

(e) "Extension of benefits" means the continuation of coverage under a particular benefit provided under a policy following discontinuance with respect to an employee or dependent who is totally disabled on the date of discontinuance.

(f) "Policy" means any group insurance policy, group hospital service contract or other plan, contract or policy subject to the provisions of this article.

(g) "Policyholder" means the entity to which a policy or contract specified in Section 10128 is issued.

(h) "Premium" means the consideration payable to the carrier.

(i) "Replacement coverage" means the benefits provided by a succeeding carrier.

(j) "Totally disabled" shall have the meaning set forth in a policy.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature that neither the fact of the enactment of this act nor the text of anything contained in it shall be considered to reflect legislative intent concerning, or be used or applied to, the interpretation of the preexisting law.

CHAPTER 129

An act to amend Section 17922 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to housing.

[Approved by Governor June 23, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 23, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17922 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

17922. (a) Except as otherwise specifically provided by law, the building standards adopted and submitted by the department for approval pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5 and the other rules and regulations, which are contained in Title 24 of the California Administrative Code, adopted, amended, or repealed from time to time pursuant to this chapter shall impose substantially the same requirements as are contained in the most recent editions of the following uniform industry codes as adopted by the organizations specified:

(1) The Uniform Housing Code of the International Conference of Building Officials, except its definition of "substandard building."

(2) The Uniform Building Code of the International Conference of Building Officials.

(3) The Uniform Plumbing Code of the International Association of Plumbing and Mechanical Officials.

(4) The Uniform Mechanical Code of the International Conference of Building Officials and the International Association of Plumbing and Mechanical Officials.

(5) The National Electrical Code of the National Fire Protection Association. In adopting building standards for approval pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5 for publication in the State Building Standards Code and in promulgating other regulations, the department shall consider local conditions and any amendments to the uniform codes referred to in this section. Except as provided in Part 2.5 (commencing with Section 18901), in the absence of adoption by regulation, the most recent editions of the uniform codes referred to in this section shall be considered to be adopted one year after the date of publication of such uniform codes.

(b) Except as provided in Section 17959.5, local use zone requirements, local fire zones, building setback, side and rear yard requirements, and property line requirements are hereby specifically and entirely reserved to the local jurisdictions notwithstanding any requirements found or set forth in this part.

(c) Regulations other than building standards which are adopted, amended, or repealed by the department, and building standards adopted and submitted by the department for approval pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5, governing alteration and repair of existing buildings and moving of apartment houses and dwellings shall permit the replacement, retention, and extension of original materials and the continued use of original methods of construction as long as the hotel, lodginghouse, motel, apartment house, or dwelling, or portions thereof, or building and structure accessory thereto, complies with the provisions published in the State Building Standards Code and the other rules and regulations of the department or alternative local standards adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 17920.7 or 17958.5 and does not become or continue to be a substandard building. Building additions or alterations which increase the area, volume, or size of an existing building, and foundations for apartment houses and dwellings moved, shall comply with the requirements for new buildings or structures specified in this part, or in building standards published in the State Building Standards Code, or in the other rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this part. However, such additions and alterations shall not cause the building to exceed area or height limitations applicable to new construction.

(d) Regulations other than building standards which are adopted by the department and building standards adopted and submitted by the department for approval pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5 governing alteration and repair of existing buildings shall permit the use of alternate materials, appliances, installations, devices, arrangements, or methods of construction if the material, appliance, installation, device, arrangement, or method is, for the purpose intended, at least the equivalent of that prescribed in this part, the building standards published in the State Building Standards Code, and the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to the provisions of this part in performance, safety, and for the protection of life and health. Regulations governing abatement of substandard buildings shall permit those conditions prescribed by Section 17920.3 which do not endanger the life, limb, health, property, safety, or welfare of the public or the occupant thereof.

(e) No local enforcement agency may prohibit the use of materials, appliances, installations, devices, arrangements, or methods of construction specifically permitted by the department to be used in the alteration or repair of existing buildings, but such materials, appliances, installations, devices, arrangements, or methods of construction may be specifically prohibited by local ordinance as provided pursuant to Section 17958.5.

(f) No local ordinance may permit any action or proceeding to abate violations of regulations governing maintenance of existing buildings, unless the building is a substandard building or the violation is a misdemeanor.

CHAPTER 130

An act to amend Sections 31595.4 and 53216.1 of, and to add Section 31595.41 to, the Government Code, relating to public retirement and pension trust funds.

[Approved by Governor June 23, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 23, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 31595.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

31595.4. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 31595, in addition to such other investments as are authorized by this article, the board may in its discretion under the advice of proper counsel invest the assets of the retirement fund in an amount, determined on the basis of cost, not to exceed 10 percent of the assets in the first two years after the effective date of this section, not to exceed 15 percent during the third year after the effective date of this section, and not to exceed 25 percent thereafter, in common stock or shares, and not to exceed 2 percent of the assets in the first year after the effective date of this section, not to exceed 3 percent during the second year after the effective date of this section, and not to exceed 5 percent thereafter, in preferred stock or shares, of corporations created or existing under the laws of the United States, or any state, district, or territory thereof; provided that

(1) Such stock is registered on a national securities exchange, as provided in the "Securities Exchange Act of 1934" as amended. Such registration shall not be required with respect to the following stocks:

(A) The common stock of a bank which is a member of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and has capital funds, represented by capital, surplus, and undivided profits, of at least fifty million dollars ($50,000,000);

(B) The common stock of an insurance company which has capital funds, represented by capital, special surplus funds, and unassigned surplus, of at least fifty million dollars ($50,000,000);

(C) Any preferred stock.

(2) Such corporation has total assets of at least one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000);

(3) Bonds of such a corporation, if any are outstanding, qualify for investment of the retirement fund, and that there are no arrears of dividend payments on its preferred stock;

(4) Such corporation has paid a cash dividend on its common stock in at least eight of the 10 years next preceding the date of investment, and the aggregate net earnings available for dividends on the common stock of such corporation for the whole of such period have been equal to the amount of such dividends paid, and such corporation has paid an earned cash dividend in each of the last three years;

(5) Such investment in any one company may not exceed 5 percent of the common shares outstanding; and

(6) No single common stock investment, based on cost, may exceed 2 percent of the assets of the fund.

(b) The board may sell exchange-traded call options only through an exchange, and only with respect to stock owned by the board. Common stock that is obligated under an unexpired written call option shall not be sold unless the board first enters into a closing purchase transaction.

(c) The board may purchase exchange-traded options only through an exchange and only for the purpose of a closing purchase transaction.

SEC. 2. Section 31595.41 is added to the Government Code, to read:

31595.41. All acts made or done by the board or its officers and employees, on or after January 1, 1983, and until the effective date of this section, with respect to exchange-traded call options and related matters, which would have been valid if Section 31595.4, as amended by Section 1 of the act which enacts this section, had been in effect at the time the acts were made or done are hereby ratified, confirmed, and validated.

SEC. 3. Section 53216.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53216.1. (a) In addition to such other investments as are authorized by this article, the legislative body may in its discretion under the advice of proper counsel invest the assets of the pension trust in an amount, determined on the basis of cost, not to exceed 10 percent of the assets in the first two years after the effective date of this section, not to exceed 15 percent during the third year after the effective date of this section, and not to exceed 25 percent thereafter, in common stock or shares, and not to exceed 2 percent of the assets in the first year after the effective date of this section, not to exceed 3 percent during the second year after the effective date of this section, and not to exceed 5 percent thereafter, in preferred stock or shares, of corporations created or existing under the laws of the United States, or any state, district, or territory thereof; provided that

(1) Such stock is registered on a national securities exchange, as provided in the "Securities Exchange Act of 1934" as amended. Such registration shall not be required with respect to the following stocks:

(A) The common stock of a bank which is a member of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and has capital funds, represented by capital, surplus, and undivided profits, of at least fifty million dollars ($50,000,000);

(B) The common stock of an insurance company which has capital funds, represented by capital, special surplus funds, and unassigned surplus, of at least fifty million dollars ($50,000,000);

(C) Any preferred stock.

(2) Such corporation has total assets of at least one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000);

(3) Bonds of such a corporation, if any are outstanding, qualify for investment of the Public Employees' Retirement Fund, and that there are no arrears of dividend payments on its preferred stock;

(4) Such corporation has paid a cash dividend on its common stock in at least eight of the 10 years next preceding the date of investment, and the aggregate net earnings available for dividends on the common stock of such corporation for the whole of such period have been equal to the amount of such dividends paid, and such corporation has paid an earned cash dividend in each of the last three years;

(5) Such investment in any one company may not exceed 5 percent of the common shares outstanding; and

(6) No single common stock investment, based on cost, may exceed 2 percent of the assets of the trust.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the legislative body may enter into security loan agreements pursuant to the provisions of Division 8 (commencing with Section 7600) of Title 1 with respect to securities in which the legislative body is authorized by law to invest.

(c) The legislative body may enter into security loan agreements with broker-dealers and with any state or national banks for the purpose of prudently supplementing the income normally received from investments.

(d) All loans of securities shall be made pursuant to one of the standardized loan agreement forms, as developed by the administrators of the State Pooled Investment Account pursuant to Section 16481 of the Government Code or the Public Employees' Retirement System or the State Teachers' Retirement System or any county pooled investment account and as approved by the Commissioner of Corporations.

(e) The legislative body may sell exchange-traded call options only through an exchange, and only with respect to stock owned by the legislative body. Common stock that is obligated under an unexpired written call option shall not be sold unless the legislative body first enters into a closing purchase transaction.

(f) The legislative body may purchase exchange-traded options only through an exchange and only for the purpose of a closing purchase transaction.

CHAPTER 131

An act to amend Sections 17, 7600, 8230, 8231, 8232, 8233, 8235, 8236, 8237, 8238, 8239, 8240, 8244, 8246, 8247, 8249, 8664.5, 8664.6, 15402, 15406, 15407, and 15410 of, to add Sections 8399, 8664.7, 8834.1, 15006, 15406.5, and 15406.7 to, to repeal Section 8242 of, and to repeal and add Section 15405 to, the Fish and Game Code, to amend Section 6302 of the Labor Code, to amend Section 30100.2 of the Public Resources Code, and to amend Section 17063 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to marine resources, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 24, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 27, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

17. "Aquaculture" means that form of agriculture devoted to the propagation, cultivation, maintenance, and harvesting of aquatic plants and animals in marine, brackish, and fresh water. "Aquaculture" does not include species of ornamental marine or freshwater plants and animals not utilized for human consumption or bait purposes that are maintained in closed systems for personal, pet industry, or hobby purposes, however, these species continue to be regulated under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 2116) of Division 3.

SEC. 2. Section 7600 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

7600. The provisions of this part apply to the taking and possession of fish for any commercial purpose. This part does not apply to activities governed under Division 12 (commencing with Section 15000).

SEC. 3. Section 8230 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8230. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that commercial salmon fishing is affected with a public interest and that the preservation of commercial salmon fishing directly affects the health and welfare of the public. The Legislature further finds and declares that due to past declines in salmon stocks, the increase in the number of persons participating in commercial salmon fishing, the number and types of vessels being used, and the commensurate increase in the salmon fishing potential of the commercial salmon fishing fleet it is necessary and proper to limit the persons who are eligible to take salmon for commercial purposes and to regulate the amount of salmon that may be taken by restricting the number and salmon fishing potential of the vessels in the commercial salmon fishing fleet in order to preserve and rebuild the salmon resource, to protect commercial salmon fishing, and thereby protect the health and welfare of the public.

(b) The Legislature further finds and declares the following:

(1) The system for allocating commercial salmon vessel permits enacted in this article is an interim system created in response to the urgent need to protect the salmon resource in California waters while inflicting the least hardship on the people of the state.

(2) The Legislature shall, on or before January 1, 1986, enact a permanent system to regulate entry into the commercial salmon fishery which will continue to be equitable and provide for new entry.

(3) In order to devise a permanent system to regulate entry into the commercial salmon fishery, the Legislature shall continue to collect information on the salmon fishery from the Joint Committee on Fisheries and Aquaculture. This information shall include the impact that equipment and experience have on the fishery and the burden placed on the fishery by commercial salmon fishermen.

(4) A report containing the requested information shall be prepared by the committee and transmitted to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1985.

SEC. 4. Section 8231 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8231. The following definitions apply to the provisions of this article:

(a) "Commercial salmon permit" means a nontransferable, revocable permit which was issued by the department during the calendar year 1980, 1981, or 1982 to an individual engaged in the taking and landing of salmon in California waters for commercial purposes.

(b) "Operator" means an individual who is designated in writing on the federal documentation papers of a vessel as master or alternate master, on a boat registration statement provided by the department pursuant to Sections 7887 to 7890, inclusive, as the operator of the vessel, or by written proof including landing receipts submitted to and approved by the review board that the individual did operate a vessel engaged in the taking of salmon.

(c) "Owner" means an individual who is designated in writing on a boat registration statement provided by the Department of Motor Vehicles or by the United States Coast Guard as the owner of the vessel.

(d) "Review board" means the Commercial Salmon Fishing Review Board created pursuant to Section 8244.

(e) "Vessel permit" means a commercial salmon vessel permit created pursuant to Section 8232.

SEC. 5. Section 8232 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8232. A commercial salmon vessel permit shall be issued by the department to any of the following persons who shall affix the permit to the vessel for which it is issued:

(a) Upon application, to the owner or owners of a vessel which was registered pursuant to Sections 7887 to 7890 and was used to take and land salmon commercially in California during 1980, 1981, or before August 11th of the 1982 commercial salmon season as evidenced by a salmon landing receipt issued to a commercial salmon permittee with that vessel's Department of Fish and Game registration number on it pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 8010) of Chapter 1.

(b) Upon application, to a natural person who, prior to August 11, 1982, possessed a commercial salmon permit and who had under construction, under reconstruction, contracted for construction, or purchased, a vessel or an interest in a vessel with good faith anticipation, as determined by the review board, of that vessel's entry into the California commercial salmon fishery.

(c) Upon application, to a natural person who meets all of the following criteria, as determined by the review board:

(1) He or she is the owner and operator of a vessel which was registered pursuant to Section 7887.

(2) He or she landed salmon commercially on the vessel as documented by a department landing receipt, or if the landing receipt is unavailable, by other relevant evidence.

(3) He or she was unable to operate a vessel and land salmon commercially in California for reasons of illness, disability, or for other reasons beyond that person's control, as documented by medical records, court records, military records, or by other relevant evidence, and this inability persisted for a continuous period that commenced before the beginning of the 1980 commercial salmon fishing season and did not conclude until at least August 11, 1982.

(4) He or she is now able and intends to engage in the commercial taking of salmon in California.

(d) Upon application, to a natural person seeking new entry into the commercial fishery pursuant to Section 8240.

SEC. 6. Section 8233 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8233. Application for a vessel permit shall be made on forms and contain information, reasonably related to this article, as the department may require. Vessel permit applications made pursuant to Section 8232, except as provided in Section 8240, shall be received by the department no later than July 1, 1983.

SEC. 7. Section 8235 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8235. (a) If a vessel, for which a vessel permit has been issued, is lost, destroyed, or permanently retired from the commercial salmon fishery, that vessel permit shall be reissued by the department to the vessel owner of the lost, destroyed, or retired vessel, but the permit shall only be placed on another vessel within one year after reissuance and only on a vessel having a salmon fishing potential, as determined by the review board, no greater than that of the lost, destroyed, or retired vessel. The department shall not reissue a vessel permit to a vessel owner who lost or destroyed a vessel by fraudulent means.

(b) A vessel that is declared lost, destroyed, or retired pursuant to this section shall not be relicensed under a new vessel permit.

SEC. 8. Section 8236 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8236. (a) A vessel permit shall be renewed annually by May 1. The department shall set a fee to be charged for a vessel permit which shall not exceed the reasonable costs of implementing and administering the provisions of this article except as provided in subdivision (b).

(b) An additional fee of one hundred dollars ($100) shall be charged for any permit for which the permit application or permit renewal application is received:

- (1) After April 1, 1983, and no later than July 1, 1983.
- (2) After April 1, and no later than May 1, in 1984 and any later year.
- (3) This additional fee is not applicable during 1983 to persons who became eligible for a permit under amendments to Section 8232 enacted by Assembly Bill No. 153 of the 1983-84 Regular Session of the Legislature.

(c) If the department does not receive a permit renewal application for any vessel for which a vessel permit has been issued, the department shall notify the owner of the vessel. The notice shall be in writing, shall be addressed to the owner at the address listed on his or her most recent permit or permit renewal application, and shall be sent by registered mail no later than April 20. The notice shall include all of the following:

- (1) Instructions on how to apply for permit renewal.
- (2) Information on the provisions of paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).
- (3) Information on the provisions of subdivision (b) of Section 8237.

SEC. 9. Section 8237 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8237. (a) The commercial salmon fishing privilege of an individual may be suspended or revoked by the commission for violation and conviction of any of the provisions pertaining to commercial salmon fishing. The commission may revoke or suspend a vessel permit issued pursuant to this article that was obtained by fraudulent means.

(b) The commission shall revoke any vessel permit for which an application for renewal is not submitted by May 1 of that year.

SEC. 10. Section 8238 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8238. No salmon shall be taken aboard or landed from any vessel for commercial purposes unless a vessel permit has been issued for the vessel pursuant to this article.

SEC. 11. Section 8239 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8239. A vessel may not be used to take salmon for commercial purposes and sport purposes in the same calendar year. However, boats licensed as commercial passenger fishing boats pursuant to Section 7920 and engaged in that business may be used to take salmon for commercial purposes, but not on the same day that sport fishing passengers are carried on the vessel.

SEC. 12. Section 8240 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8240. (a) A natural person seeking to gain new entry into the commercial salmon fishery may obtain a vessel permit by either purchasing a vessel already licensed under a vessel permit or by applying to obtain a new vessel permit issued by the department.

(b) Eligibility criteria for new entry pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be recommended to the commission by the review board under the terms of, but not limited to, Sections 8241 and 8243, and the recommended criteria shall be published and included in the annual report to the Legislature. Factors relating to preservation of the fishery resource which include, but are not limited to, crew experience, and experience in other fisheries, may be included as criteria. The review board shall submit its recommended criteria to the commission on or before November 2, 1983.

(c) The commission shall adopt eligibility criteria on or before January 1, 1984.

SEC. 13. Section 8242 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 14. Section 8244 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8244. There is hereby established in the department a Commercial Salmon Fishing Review Board, which consists of the director or his or her designee and four commercial salmon vessel owners and three alternate vessel owners selected by the director from a list submitted by an association deemed to represent the majority of commercial salmon vessel owners.

The board shall be limited to making factual determinations and recommendations as provided in this article and shall act, based upon substantial evidence, by a majority vote of the full board.

SEC. 14.5. Section 8246 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8246. The review board shall:

(a) Consider and render decisions on all appeals of vessel permit denials.

(b) Make recommendations to the department, which shall present the recommendations to the commission, in any revocation of vessel permit proceedings brought pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 8237.

(c) Consider and render decisions on the removal, issuance, or reissuance of vessel permits pursuant to subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 8232, and Sections 8234 and 8235.

(d) Recommend to the department, which shall present the recommendations to the commission, the number of new vessel permits to be issued annually. The recommendations shall be based on the health and status of the salmon resource, and on the economic stability of the commercial salmon industry.

(e) Issue an annual report to the Legislature by January 1 on the effectiveness of the provisions of this article. The report shall include the criteria for eligibility recommended pursuant to Section 8240 and the recommended number of new vessel permits, if any, to be issued that year.

SEC. 15. Section 8247 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8247. The term of appointment to the review board shall be for four years. However, with respect to the members initially appointed, the director shall designate one member to serve for a term of one year, one member to serve for a term of two years, one member to serve for a term of three years, and the remaining members to serve the term of four years. Necessary and proper expenses shall be paid to review board members. Members who are commercial salmon vessel owners, and any alternate attending on behalf of a regular member, shall also receive one hundred dollars ($100) per day. The director may adopt standards and criteria that shall be applied by the board in carrying out its activities under this article.

SEC. 16. Section 8249 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8249. This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1986, and as of that date is repealed unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1986, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 16.5. Section 8399 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

8399. North of Point Conception, squid may be taken the year around; however, the commission may adopt regulations specifying the days of the week and the times of the day when squid may be taken.

SEC. 17. Section 8664.5 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8664.5. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 8693 and 8724, gill nets and trammel nets shall not be used in that portion of District 17 between the mouth of Aptos Creek and the United States surveyor's monument near Seaside in waters less than 10 fathoms in depth.

(b) If the director determines that any local population of any species of seabird or marine mammal is in danger of irreparable injury, or that mortality in any local population of any species of seabird or marine mammal is occurring at a rate that threatens the viability of the local population, as a direct result of the use of gill nets or trammel nets, the director may issue an order prohibiting or restricting the use, method of use, size, or materials used in the construction of either or both types of those nets in all or any part of District 17 for a specified period in waters of greater than 10 fathoms in depth. The order shall take effect 48 hours after its issuance. The director shall rescind any order issued pursuant to this subdivision whenever he or she determines that the order is no longer necessary.

SEC. 17.5. Section 8664.6 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8664.6. If, after a public hearing in a place convenient to the affected area, the director determines that any local population of any species of seabird or marine mammal is in danger of irreparable injury or that mortality in any local population of any species of seabird or marine mammal is occurring at a rate that threatens the viability of the local population, as a direct result of the use of gill nets or trammel nets, the director may issue an order prohibiting or restricting the use, method of use, size, or materials used in the construction of either, or both, types of those nets in all or any part of District 10 or in all or any part of District 18 north of Point Conception for a specified period. The order shall take effect 48 hours after its issuance. The director shall rescind any order issued pursuant to this section whenever he or she determines, after a public hearing, that the order is no longer necessary.

SEC. 18. Section 8664.7 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

8664.7. The initial period of effectiveness of an order issued pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 8664.5 or pursuant to Section 8664.6 shall not exceed 180 days. After a further public hearing, the director may, on the basis of a report prepared by the department on the condition of the local population of any species of seabird or marine mammal, extend the order for a further specified period or reissue the order for a further specified period.

SEC. 19. Section 8834.1 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

8834.1. It is unlawful for any person to possess on board or to take salmon on a vessel which also has on board any type of trawl net.

SEC. 20. Section 15006 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

15006. Nothing in this division applies to authorized species of ornamental marine or freshwater plants and animals not utilized for human consumption or bait purposes that are maintained in closed systems for personal, pet industry, or hobby purposes.

SEC. 21. Section 15402 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

15402. A lessee of a state water bottom owns all lawfully cultivated organisms that are described in the application for the lease and produced in the area leased. The lessee has the exclusive right to cultivate and harvest the aquatic organisms in the area leased.

SEC. 22. Section 15405 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 23. Section 15405 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

15405. No initial term of a state water bottom lease shall exceed 25 years.

SEC. 24. Section 15406 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

15406. (a) Each state water bottom lease shall specify a period prior to expiration when renewal of the lease may be requested by the lessee. If during this period the lessee is still actively engaged in aquaculture, as determined by the commission, the lessee shall have a prior right to renew the lease on terms agreed upon between the commission and the lessee. If terms are not agreed upon, the commission shall advertise for bids on the lease. If a request for renewal is not made by the lessee, the commission shall advertise for bids on the lease. The commission shall consider bids only from aquaculturists registered pursuant to Section 15101.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), with respect to any lease of state water bottoms in effect on January 1, 1983, the lessee shall have a prior right to renew the lease. If the lessee does not renew the lease, the commission shall advertise for bids on the lease. The commission shall consider bids only from aquaculturists registered pursuant to Section 15101.

(c) A lease may be renewed for additional periods not to exceed 25 years each.

SEC. 25. Section 15406.5 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

15406.5. The commission shall award water bottom leases to the highest responsible bidder, if the bid meets or exceeds the minimum annual rent established by the commission, which shall not be less than two dollars ($2) per acre, for all species cultivated, unless the acreage applied for is 10 acres or less, in which case the minimum acceptable rent shall be ten dollars ($10) per acre. The annual rent for any lease in effect on January 1, 1983, for the cultivation of oysters shall be one dollar ($1) per acre until the expiration thereof. The commission may reject any or all bids for the lease of state water bottoms if it deems the rejection to be in the public interest.

SEC. 26. Section 15406.7 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

15406.7. In addition to the rent provided for in Section 15406.5, every person operating under an oyster lease shall pay a privilege tax of two cents ($.02) per packed gallon or fraction thereof of shucked oysters harvested by the lessee.

If the oysters are marketed in the shell, the tax shall be based on the equivalent yield of shucked oyster meat. In determining the yield of oysters, it shall be deemed that 100 oysters are equivalent to one packed gallon of shucked oyster meat.

The tax imposed by this section is the exclusive privilege tax that shall be imposed on lessees of state water bottoms for oyster cultivation, notwithstanding subdivision (a) of Section 15003.

SEC. 27. Section 15407 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

15407. The annual rent shall be paid to the department within 30 days of the commencement of the lease and within 30 days of the anniversary thereof. The commission may establish penalty fees for late payment and may cancel the lease if rent is not paid within 90 days of the commencement of the lease or within 90 days of any anniversary thereof.

SEC. 28. Section 15410 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

15410. All leases shall be subject to the power of the Legislature to increase or decrease the rents, fees, taxes, and other charges relating to the lease, but no increase in rent shall be applicable to an existing lease until it is renewed.

SEC. 29. Section 6302 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

6302. As used in this division:

(a) "Director" means the Director of Industrial Relations.
(b) "Department" means the Department of Industrial Relations.
(c) "Insurer" includes the State Compensation Insurance Fund and any private company, corporation, mutual association, and reciprocal or interinsurance exchange, authorized under the laws of this state to insure employers against liability for compensation under this part and under Division 4 (commencing with Section 3201), and any employer to whom a certificate of consent to self-insure has been issued.

(d) "Division" means the Division of Occupational Safety and Health.

(e) "Standards board" means the Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board, within the department.

(f) "Appeals board" means the Occupational Safety and Health Appeals Board, within the department.

(g) "Aquaculture" means a form of agriculture as defined in Section 17 of the Fish and Game Code.

SEC. 30. Section 30100.2 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

30100.2. "Aquaculture" means a form of agriculture as defined in Section 17 of the Fish and Game Code. Aquaculture products are agricultural products, and aquaculture facilities and land uses shall be treated as agricultural facilities and land uses in all planning and permit-issuing decisions governed by this division.

SEC. 31. Section 17063 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17063. For purposes of this chapter, the items of tax preference are:

(a) An amount equal to the excess itemized deductions for the taxable year (as determined under Section 17063.2).

(b) With respect to each "Section 18212 property" (as defined in Section 18214), the amount by which the deduction allowable for the taxable year for exhaustion, wear or tear, obsolescence, or amortization exceeds the depreciation deduction which would have been allowable for the taxable year, had the taxpayer depreciated the property under the straight line method for each taxable year of its useful life (determined without regard to Section 17211.7 or 17228.5) for which the taxpayer has held the property.

(c) With respect to each item of Section 18211 property (as defined in Section 18214) which is subject to a lease, the amount by which—

(1) The deduction allowable for the taxable year for depreciation or amortization, exceeds

(2) The deduction which would have been allowable for the taxable year had the taxpayer depreciated the property under the straight line method for each taxable year of its useful life for which the taxpayer has held the property.

(d) With respect to the transfer of a share of stock pursuant to the exercise of a qualified stock option (as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 17532) or a restricted stock option (as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 17534), the amount by which the fair market value of the share at the time of exercise exceeds the option price.

(e) With respect to each property (as defined in Sections 17681 to 17690, inclusive), the excess of the deduction for depletion allowable under Section 17681 for the taxable year over the adjusted basis of the property at the end of the taxable year (determined without regard to the depletion deduction for the taxable year).

(f) An amount equal to one-half of the amount by which net long-term capital gain exceeds the net short-term capital loss for the taxable year.

(g) Subdivision (f) of this section shall apply only to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1970, and ending on or before November 30, 1972. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1971, the amount of the tax preference income with respect to capital gains shall be an amount (but not below zero) equal to the difference between (1) the taxpayer's total net capital gains and losses (determined without regard to any capital loss carryover) for the taxable year, and (2) the taxpayer's net capital gains and losses recognized by virtue of Section 18162.5 for the same taxable year.

(h) The amount of net farm loss in excess of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) which is deducted from nonfarm income. In the case of a husband or wife who files a separate return, the amount specified in the preceding sentence shall be twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000). This subdivision shall not apply if two-thirds or more of the taxpayer's average gross income from all sources for the taxable year and immediately preceding two years is from farming. Nor shall this subdivision apply if the net farm loss is the result of aquaculture activities. For purposes of this subdivision, "aquaculture" means a form of agriculture as defined in Section 17 of the Fish and Game Code.

(i) The excess of the intangible drilling and development costs described in Section 17283(c) paid or incurred in connection with oil, gas, and geothermal wells (other than costs incurred in drilling a nonproductive well) allowable under this part for the taxable year over the amount which would have been allowable for the taxable year if such costs had been capitalized and straight line recovery of intangibles (as defined in Section 17063.3) had been used with respect to such costs. This subdivision shall be applied separately with respect to.

(1) All oil and gas properties which are not described in paragraph (2), and

(2) All properties which are geothermal deposits (as defined in Section 613(e) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954).

SEC. 32. Notwithstanding Section 15 of Chapter 1336 and Section 11 of Chapter 1617 of the Statutes of 1982, the State Coastal Conservancy shall submit the final report required by those sections to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1984.

SEC. 33.5. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

SEC. 34. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure stability in the leasing of state water bottoms for aquaculture purposes, to ensure preservation of the squid fishery in time for the 1983 season, and to preserve and protect the other fishery resources named in the act in as timely a manner as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 132

An act to amend Sections 14903, 14904, and 15251 of the Financial Code, relating to credit unions.

[Approved by Governor June 28, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State June 28, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14903 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14903. To determine the undivided profits, the credit union may credit the profit and loss account with the earnings from all sources during the dividend period. The credit union shall then deduct the following amounts for the dividend period:

(a) All expenses paid or incurred of whatever nature in the management of its affairs, the collection of its debts or the transaction of its business.

(b) The interest paid, or accrued and unpaid, on debts owing by it.

(c) All provisions for losses sustained by it in excess of its regular reserve.

SEC. 2. Section 14904 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14904. The credit balance of the profit and loss account as determined pursuant to Section 14903, combined with the remaining balance of retained earnings from all prior periods, constitutes the undivided profit of the credit union at the close of such period.

SEC. 3. Section 15251 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

15251. If the dissolution of the credit union is voted the board of directors of the credit union shall elect a committee of three members or may by resolution appoint a liquidating agent to liquidate the assets of the credit union. If the commissioner is appointed liquidating agent, the commissioner may act as liquidating agent or appoint either the National Credit Union Administration or the California Credit Union Share Guaranty Corporation as liquidating agent. Whenever the commissioner is appointed liquidating agent, the credit union shall surrender its certificate to act as a credit union.

CHAPTER 133

An act to add Section 5096.159 to the Public Resources Code, to amend and supplement the Budget Act of 1981 by adding Section 8.35 thereto, and to amend and supplement the Budget Act of 1982 by adding Section 8.41 thereto, relating to parks and recreation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 28, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 28, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5096.159 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

5096.159. Funds appropriated for local assistance grants pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 5096.151 shall be encumbered by the recipient within three years of the date the appropriation became effective, regardless of the date when each project was approved pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 5096.157.

SEC. 2. Section 8.35 is added to the Budget Act of 1981 (Chapter 99, Statutes of 1981), to read:

Sec. 8.35. (a) Funds appropriated in subdivision (c) of Item 379-101-721 and in Item 379-101-742 for local assistance grants for park and recreation capital outlay projects were and are available for encumbrance by the recipient until June 30, 1984.

(b) Funds appropriated in subdivision (b) of Item 379-101-721 for local assistance grants pursuant to the Roberti-Z'berg Urban Open-Space and Recreation Program Act for capital outlay projects were and are available for encumbrance by the recipient until June 30, 1984, or the date established pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 5626 of the Public Resources Code, whichever occurs earlier.

SEC. 3. Section 8.41 is added to the Budget Act of 1982 (Chapter 326, Statutes of 1982), to read:

Sec. 8.41. Funds appropriated in subdivision (b) of Item 3790-101-721 and in subdivision (b) of Item 3790-101-742, as amended by Chapter 1421 of the Statutes of 1982, for local assistance grants for park and recreation capital outlay projects are available for encumbrance by the recipient until June 30, 1985.

SEC. 4. The provisions of Sections 2 and 3 of this act do not constitute a change in, but are declaratory of, the existing law.

SEC. 5. (a) Pursuant to Section 5096.96 of the Public Resources Code, the City of Firebaugh is hereby authorized to sell 1.8 acres of the Andrew Firebaugh Historical Park, as described in subdivision (b), which were acquired with a grant of State Beach, Park, Recreational and Historical Facilities Fund moneys appropriated by Item 390(49) of the Budget Act of 1975 (Chapter 176, Statutes of 1975) and under Department of Parks and Recreation project No. 10-0013, subject to all of the following conditions:

(1) The parcel and any improvements thereon shall be sold for at least fair market value.

(2) All proceeds of the sale, excluding the costs of sale, shall be expended only for the acquisition or development, or both, of outdoor park and recreation facilities at Andrew Firebaugh Historical Park or elsewhere within the city. Any proceeds not expended for this purpose shall be transmitted to the Department of Parks and Recreation and deposited in the State Beach, Park, Recreational, and Historical Facilities Fund of 1974.

(3) Prior to encumbering any proceeds from the sale, the City Council of the City of Firebaugh shall hold one or more public hearings on the subject of the new facilities to be acquired or developed with the proceeds of the sale and shall determine what new facilities shall be acquired or developed.

(4) Prior to encumbering any proceeds from the sale, the district shall enter into an agreement with the Department of Parks and Recreation with respect to the facilities to be acquired or developed as provided in Section 5096.96 of the Public Resources Code.

(b) All that portion of the northwest quarter of Section 28, T.12S., R.14E., M.D.B.&M., as shown on the Miller and Lux Subdivision Plat thereof, containing approximately 1.8 acres, described as follows:

Commencing at the intersection of the northeasterly prolongation of the southeasterly line of Block 24 of the Town (now City) of Firebaugh as shown on the Map thereof recorded in Book 1 at Page 13 of Miscellaneous Maps, Fresno County Records and the northeasterly line of "Q" Street of said Town of Firebaugh; thence N. 40°17'30"W., along the said northeasterly line of "Q" Street, a distance of 440.00 feet to an intersection with the northeasterly prolongation of the centerline of 12th Street as shown on the said map of the Town of Firebaugh; thence N.49°42'30"E., along said northeasterly prolongation of the centerline of 12th Street, a distance of 167.88 feet to a point on the southwesterly line of the San Joaquin River; thence N.83°22'E., along said southwesterly line of the San Joaquin River, a distance of 14.56 feet; thence leaving said southwesterly line of the San Joaquin River, S.40°17'30"E., along a line 180.00 feet northeasterly of and parallel with the said northeasterly line of "Q" Street, a distance of 431.93 feet to a point of intersection with the northeasterly prolongation of the southeasterly line of said Block 24; thence S.49°42'30"W., along said northeasterly prolongation of the southeasterly line of Block 24, a distance of 180.00 feet to the point of commencement.

SEC. 6. Notwithstanding Sections 1, 2, and 3 of this act or any other provision of law, funds appropriated in the 1983-84 and any subsequent fiscal year for local assistance grants for park and recreation capital outlay projects to any city with a population in excess of 2,000,000 which has in effect a requirement imposing vehicle use fees or other park entry fees for any park within that city shall be encumbered by the recipient within one year of the date the appropriation became effective.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to clarify, at the earliest possible time, the period of availability of encumbrance of appropriations for various local assistance grants for local park and recreation capital outlay projects, and to permit the City of Firebaugh to dispose of unneeded lands in the Andrew Firebaugh Historical Park without delay, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 134

An act to amend Section 940 of, and to add Section 940.5 to, the Military and Veterans Code, relating to veterans.

[Approved by Governor June 28, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State June 28, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 940 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

940. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise indicates, "veteran" means a person honorably discharged from the armed forces of the United States.

SEC. 2. Section 940.5 is added to the Military and Veterans Code, to read:

940.5. As used in this article, the terms "burial" and "interment" include cremation, except that the election of the form of interment as between burial and cremation shall be made pursuant to the first paragraph of Section 7100 of the Health and Safety Code.

CHAPTER 135

An act to amend Section 3572 of the Government Code, relating to higher education employer-employee relations.

[Approved by Governor June 28, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 28, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3572 of the Government Code is amended to read:

3572. This section shall apply only to the California State University.

(a) The duty to meet and confer in good faith requires the parties to begin negotiations prior to the adoption of the final budget for the ensuing year sufficiently in advance of the adoption date so that there is adequate time for agreement to be reached, or for the resolution of an impasse. The California State University shall maintain close liaison with the Department of Finance and the Legislature relative to the meeting and conferring on provisions of the written memoranda which have fiscal ramifications. The Governor shall appoint one representative to attend the meeting and conferring, including the impasse procedure, to advise the parties on the views of the Governor on matters which would require an appropriation or legislative action, and the Speaker of the Assembly and the Senate Rules Committee may each appoint one representative to attend the meeting and conferring to advise the parties on the views of the Legislature on matters which would require an appropriation or legislative action.

No written memoranda reached pursuant to the provisions of this chapter which require budgetary or curative action by the Legislature or other funding agencies shall be effective unless and until such an action has been taken. Following execution of written memoranda of understanding, an appropriate request for financing or budgetary funding for all state-funded employees or for necessary legislation will be forwarded promptly to the Legislature and the Governor or other funding agencies. When memoranda require legislative action pursuant to this section, if the Legislature or the Governor fail to fully fund the memoranda or to take the requisite curative action, the entire memoranda shall be referred back to the parties for further meeting and conferring; provided, however, that the parties may agree that provisions of the memoranda which are nonbudgetary and do not require funding shall take effect whether or not the funding requests submitted to the Legislature are approved.

CHAPTER 136

An act to amend Section 1714.9 of the Civil Code, relating to liability.

[Approved by Governor June 28, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 28, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1714.9 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1714.9. (a) Notwithstanding statutory or decisional law to the contrary, any person is responsible not only for the results of that person's willful acts causing injury to a peace officer, firefighter, or any emergency medical personnel employed by a public entity, but also for any injury occasioned to that person by the want of ordinary care or skill in the management of the person's property or person, in any of the following situations:

(1) Where the conduct causing the injury occurs after the person knows or should have known of the presence of the peace officer, firefighter, or emergency medical personnel.

(2) Where the conduct causing the injury occurs after the person knows or should have known of the presence of the peace officer, firefighter, or emergency medical personnel, violates a statute, ordinance, or regulation, and was the proximate cause of an injury which the statute, ordinance, or regulation was designed to prevent, and the statute, ordinance, or regulation was designed to protect the peace officer, firefighter, or emergency medical personnel.

As used in this subdivision, a statute, ordinance, or regulation prohibiting resistance or requiring a person to comply with an order of a peace officer or firefighter is designed to protect the peace officer, firefighter, or emergency medical personnel.

(3) Where the conduct causing the injury was intended to injure the peace officer, firefighter, or emergency medical personnel.

(4) Where the conduct causing the injury is arson as defined in Section 451 of the Penal Code.

(b) This section does not preclude the reduction of an award of damages because of the comparative fault of the peace officer or firefighter in causing the injury.

(c) The employer of a firefighter, peace officer or emergency medical personnel may be subrogated to the rights granted by this section to the extent of the worker's compensation benefits, and other liabilities of the employer, including all salary, wage, pension, or other emolument paid to the employee or the employee's dependents.

(d) The liability imposed by this section shall not apply to an employer of a peace officer, firefighter, or emergency service personnel.

CHAPTER 137

An act to amend Sections 1120.1a, 1138.3, and 1138.4 of the Probate Code, relating to estates, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 28, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 28, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1120.1a of the Probate Code is amended to read:

1120.1a. This section shall apply only to trusts which were created by a will executed before July 1, 1977, and not republished thereafter.

(a) Except as provided in subdivision (d), the trustee of such a trust shall give notice on or before July 1, 1983, or within six months after the initial funding of the trust, whichever occurs later, to each beneficiary, including all persons in being who shall or may participate in the corpus or income of the trust, at their last known addresses. Notice shall be given by registered or certified mail or, in the alternative, by first-class mail on the condition that an acknowledgment of receipt of notice is signed by the beneficiary and returned to the trustee. The notice shall contain the following information:

(1) A statement that as of January 1, 1983, Section 1120 of the Probate Code was amended to remove the necessity for mandatory court supervision of the trust.

(2) A statement that, unless the terms of trust limit or eliminate such authority, Section 1138.1 of the Probate Code gives the beneficiary and remainderman the right to petition a court to determine important matters relating to the administration of the trust, and a copy of the text of Section 1138.1.

(3) A statement that each income beneficiary, as defined in subdivision (1) of Section 730.01 of the Civil Code, is entitled to a statement of the income and principal receipts and disbursements of the trust at least annually and that any other beneficiary or remainderman, upon written request to the trustee, is entitled to such information at least annually.

(4) A statement that the beneficiary or remainderman is entitled to petition a court to settle the accounts and pass upon the acts of the trustee.

(5) The name and location of the superior court in the county in which it is appropriate to file a petition pursuant to Section 1138.1, the name and location of the superior court which had jurisdiction over the administration of the estate pursuant to Section 301, and a statement that it is appropriate to file a petition pursuant to Section 1138.1 with either court.

The trustee shall file with the court which previously had jurisdiction over the administration of the estate, pursuant to Section 301, proof of service of the notice set forth in this subdivision on or before August 1, 1983, or within seven months after the initial funding of the trust, whichever occurs later.

(b) The trustee shall furnish, at least annually, and at termination of the trust, a statement of the income and principal receipts and disbursements that have occurred since the immediately preceding statement to each income beneficiary, as defined in subdivision (1) of Section 730.01 of the Civil Code. The trustee shall also furnish such information to any other beneficiary or remainderman who has made a written request therefor.

(c) Within 90 days after the end of each fiscal year of the trust, the trustee shall furnish the summary of information described in this subdivision to each income beneficiary, as defined in subdivision (1) of Section 730.01 of the Civil Code, and, upon written request, to any other beneficiary or remainderman. The summary shall set forth the following:

- (1) The cost of each trust asset.
- (2) The present value of each asset as of the end of the current fiscal year of the trust.
- (3) The total present value of all assets as of the end of the current fiscal year and the immediately preceding fiscal year of the trust.
- (4) The net income for the current fiscal year and the immediately preceding fiscal year of the trust.
- (5) Trustee compensation for the current fiscal year and the immediately preceding fiscal year of the trust.

The summary shall also state that the recipient may petition a court pursuant to Section 1138.1 to obtain a court review, shall set forth a copy of the text of Section 1138.1, and shall give the name and location of the appropriate court or courts in which to file a petition.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a) of Section 1120, with respect to a trust where no trustee is a trust company, as defined in Section 107 of the Financial Code, the trustee may remove the trust from the continuing jurisdiction of the superior court only with the approval of the court which has jurisdiction over the administration of the trust pursuant to Section 1120. Unless the trust is so removed, the trustee is not required to comply with the requirements of subdivisions (a), (b), and (c). To obtain such approval the trustee may file at any time and from time to time, in his or her discretion, a verified petition with the clerk setting forth the trust accounts in detail, reporting his or her acts as trustee, and showing the condition of the trust estate. Unless the petition is filed with the court which has jurisdiction over the administration of the trust pursuant to Section 1120, the trustees shall attach to the petition a certified copy of the decree setting forth all of the trust provisions. Thereupon the clerk shall set the petition for hearing by the court. Notice of the hearing shall be given, along with a copy of the petition, at least 30 days before the hearing to all those persons who are entitled to receive the notice required by subdivision (a). At the hearing the court may receive testimony from any interested person and may grant or deny the petition, or grant the petition upon such conditions as the court in its discretion deems proper. In the event the petition is granted, the trustee shall send the notice and file the proof of service required by subdivision (a) within six months and seven months, respectively, from the date the petition is granted. Such notice shall have attached to it a copy of the order of the court granting the petition. If no such petition is granted, the trust shall continue to be administered under subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 1120 as if the testator had provided in the will that the superior court shall not lose jurisdiction of the estate by final distribution and subdivisions (b) and (c) of this section shall not apply to the trust. Nothing provided in this subdivision shall be interpreted to require any trustee to file a petition authorized by this subdivision.

(e) When a beneficiary or remainderman is a minor, ward or conservatee, any notice, statement, or summary required to be sent to the beneficiary or remainderman by this section shall be sent to the parent, guardian, or conservator, as the case may be, of the beneficiary or remainderman. In addition, if the trustee, at the time the notice required by subdivision (a) is sent, has actual knowledge that a beneficiary or remainderman who is not a minor, ward, or conservatee is being assisted by another individual in the handling of his or her personal affairs, the trustee shall send the notice required by subdivision (a) to both that individual and the beneficiary or remainderman and, upon the written request of either of them, shall also send the statements and summaries required by subdivisions (b) and (c) to both of them.

(f) Where the trust is a charitable trust subject to Article 7 (commencing with Section 12580) of Chapter 6 of Part 2 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, upon the vesting of any charitable interest created by the trust the trustee shall thereafter furnish to the Attorney General the statements and summaries required by subdivisions (b) and (c) without the necessity of any written request. A charitable interest is deemed to be vested within the meaning of this subdivision as of the time when it is first ascertainable that income or corpus is, or in the future will be, paid to a charity or applied for a charitable purpose. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1138, the Attorney General may petition the court to settle the account and pass upon the acts of the trustee as provided in Section 1138.1.

(g) If a trust company, as defined in Section 107 of the Financial Code, is appointed as a successor trustee of a trust which, at the time of the appointment, is subject to the continuing jurisdiction of the superior court because it was not removed pursuant to the provisions of subdivision (d), the successor trustee shall send the notice and proof of service required by subdivision (a) within six months and seven months from the date of appointment, respectively. After a trust is no longer subject to the continuing jurisdiction of the superior court, whether by operation of law or by removal pursuant to subdivision (d), neither a change in trustees nor any other event shall cause the trust to be subject to the provisions of Sections 1120 to 1133, inclusive.

SEC. 2. Section 1138.3 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

1138.3. (a) Proceedings under this article shall be commenced in the superior court of the county in which is located the principal place of administration of the trust. As used in this section, the "principal place of administration of the trust" is the trustee's usual place of business where the day-to-day records pertaining to the trust are kept or the trustee's residence if he has no such place of business. In the case of cotrustees, the principal place of administration is the usual place of business where such records are kept, or, if none, the usual place of business or residence of any of the cotrustees as agreed upon by them, or, if none, the county in which any trustee resides or maintains a place of business.

(b) Proceedings under this article with respect to a trust created by a will subject to Section 1120.1a, which is not subject to the continuing jurisdiction of the superior court, shall be commenced either in the superior court described in subdivision (a) or in the superior court which has jurisdiction over the administration of the estate pursuant to Section 301.

SEC. 3. Section 1138.4 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

1138.4. Each proceeding under this article shall be commenced by filing a verified petition which shall state facts showing that the petition is authorized under this article and the terms of the trust. No filing fee shall be required of any petitioner in a proceeding commenced pursuant to this article with respect to a trust created by a will subject to Section 1120.1a which is not subject to the continuing jurisdiction of the superior court.

SEC. 4. It is the intent of the Legislature that any trustee which, on or before the effective date of this act, sent a notice which complied with the provisions of subdivision (a) of Section 1120.1a, as that subdivision read prior to the enactment of this act, shall be deemed in compliance with subdivision (a) of Section 1120.1a and shall not be required to send a subsequent notice reflecting the changes made by this act.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to clarify existing provisions of law which specify the duties of a trustee with respect to the beneficiaries and remaindermen of a trust which was created by a will executed before July 1, 1977, and which is not subject to the continuing jurisdiction of the superior court, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 138

An act to add Section 2225 to the Civil Code, relating to trusts.

[Approved by Governor June 28, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 28, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2225 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

2225. A voluntary trust shall not be deemed invalid, merged, or terminated if the trustor is also the sole trustee and sole beneficiary during the trustor's lifetime, or if there are two or more trustors, one or more of whom is a trustee, and the beneficial interest in the trust is in the trustors during the lifetimes of the trustors, so long as the trust provides for one or more successor beneficiaries or remaindermen following the death of the trustor. This section shall apply, subject to the provisions of Section 852, to any voluntary trust created prior to, on, or after January 1, 1984.

CHAPTER 139

An act to amend Section 20211 of the Public Contract Code, relating to transit districts.

[Approved by Governor June 28, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 28, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20211 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

20211. The purchase of all supplies, equipment, and materials, when the expenditure required exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), and the construction of facilities and works, when the expenditure exceeds ten thousand dollars ($10,000), shall be by contract let to the lowest responsible bidder. Notice requesting bids shall be published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation, which publication shall be made at least 10 days before bids are received. The board may reject any and all bids and readvertise in its discretion.

CHAPTER 140

An act to amend Section 1463.16 of the Penal Code, relating to driving offenses.

[Approved by Governor June 28, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 28, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1463.16 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1463.16. Notwithstanding Section 1463, of the moneys deposited with the county treasurer pursuant to Section 1463, fifty dollars ($50) of each fine for each conviction of a violation of Section 23103, 23104, 23152, or 23153 of the Vehicle Code shall be deposited in a special account for exclusive allocation by the administrator of the county's alcoholism program, with approval of the board of supervisors, for alcohol programs and services for the general population. These funds shall be allocated through the local planning process pursuant to specific provision in the county plan which is submitted to the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs. For those services for which standards have been developed and certification is available, programs must be certified by the Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs or have made application for certification to be eligible for funding under this section. The county alcohol administrator shall implement the intent and procedures of subdivision (b) of Section 11812 of the Health and Safety Code while distributing funds under this section.

It is the specific intent of the Legislature that funds expended under this part shall be used for ongoing alcoholism program services as well as for contracts with private nonprofit organizations to upgrade facilities to meet state certification and licensing standards and federal nondiscrimination regulations relating to accessibility for handicapped persons.

Counties may retain up to 5 percent of the funds collected to offset administrative costs of collection and disbursement. The State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs may charge a fee to offset costs of certification of programs.

CHAPTER 141

An act to amend Sections 2030 and 2033 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to discovery of evidence.

[Approved by Governor June 28, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 28, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2030 of the Code of Civil Procedures is amended to read:

2030. (a) Any party may serve upon any other party written interrogatories to be answered by the party served or, if the party served is a public or private corporation or a partnership or association, or body politic, by any officer or agent, who shall furnish such information as is available to the party. Interrogatories may be served upon any other party at any time after service of the summons or the appearance of such other party and without leave of court except that, if service of interrogatories is made by the plaintiff within 10 days after such service of summons or appearance, leave of court granted with or without notice must first be obtained. The interrogatories shall be answered separately and fully in writing under oath. The answers shall be signed by the person making them; and the party upon whom the interrogatories have been served shall serve the answers on the party submitting the interrogatories within 30 days after the service of the interrogatories, unless the court, on motion and notice and for good cause shown, enlarges or shortens the time. For good cause and without notice, the court may enlarge the time not to exceed 15 days. Such answers shall respond to the written interrogatories; or, if any interrogatory be deemed objectionable, the objections thereto may be stated by the party addressed in lieu of response. If the party who has submitted the interrogatories deems that further response is required, he may move the court for an order requiring further response. Such motion must be upon notice given within 45 days from the date of service of the answers or objections unless the court, on motion and notice, and for good cause shown, enlarges the time. Otherwise, the party submitting the interrogatories shall be deemed to have waived the right to compel answer pursuant to this section. Copies of all interrogatories and of all answers thereto shall be served upon all other parties to the action who have appeared; but the court on motion with or without notice may waive this requirement if the court determines that enforcement thereof would be unduly expensive, oppressive or burdensome. At any time prior to final judgment and upon written request, the party originating interrogatories or responses thereto shall provide within 30 days of such request a copy thereof to any other party for any reason not previously served.

The party serving the interrogatories shall retain the original thereof with the original proof of service affixed thereto. The party responding to the interrogatories shall serve the original responses made under oath upon the party serving the interrogatories. The original responses shall be retained by the party serving the interrogatories. No party required to retain the original interrogatories and responses thereto pursuant to this paragraph shall be required to retain such documents after final judgment in the action in which such interrogatories are served.

(b) The written interrogatories and any responses thereto shall not be filed unless the court, on motion and notice and for good cause shown, so orders. Notwithstanding subdivision (a), any party may lodge with the court the original or a copy of any written interrogatories or responses thereto, but these shall not be filed unless the court determines that their contents have become relevant to an issue in a trial or other proceeding.

(c) Interrogatories may relate to any matters which can be inquired into under subdivision (b) of Section 2016 of this code, and the answers may be used to the same extent as provided in subdivision (d) of Section 2016 of this code for the use of the deposition of a party. Interrogatories may be served after a deposition has been taken, and a deposition may be sought after interrogatories have been answered, but the court, on motion of the deponent or the party interrogated, may make such protective order as justice may require. The number of interrogatories or of sets of interrogatories to be served is not limited except as above provided and except as justice requires to protect the party from annoyance, expense, embarrassment or oppression. The provisions of subdivision (b) of Section 2019 of this code are applicable for the protection of the party from whom answers to interrogatories are sought under this section.

(d) When in order to answer an interrogatory it is necessary to make a compilation, abstract, audit or summary of the business records of a party, and such a compilation, abstract, audit or summary does not exist, or if it does exist, it is not in the possession or under control of such party, it shall be a sufficient answer to such interrogatory to so state and to specify the records from which the answer may be derived or ascertained and to afford to the party by whom the interrogatory was proposed reasonable opportunity to examine, audit or inspect such records and to make copies thereof or compilations, abstracts or summaries therefrom.

(e) Service of interrogatories and responses under this section may be made upon any party or his attorney in the manner provided in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 1010) of Title 14 of Part 2.

SEC. 2. Section 2033 of the Code of Civil Procedures is amended to read:

2033. (a) After service of summons or the appearance of a party, any other party who has appeared in the action may serve upon any party who has been served or who has appeared a written request for the admission by the latter of the genuineness of any relevant documents described in the request or of the truth of any relevant matters of fact set forth in the request. If a plaintiff desires to serve a request within 10 days after the service of summons or the appearance, leave of court, granted with or without notice, shall be obtained. Copies of the documents shall be served with the request unless copies have already been furnished, and upon request the originals shall be made available for inspection. Each of the matters of which an admission is requested shall be deemed admitted, provided that the original request contained substantially the following words at the end thereof: "If you fail to comply with the provisions of Section 2033 of the Code of Civil Procedure with respect to this request for admissions, each of the matters of which an admission is requested will be deemed admitted", unless, within the period designated in the request, not less than 30 days after service thereof or within a shorter time as the court may allow for good cause on motion and notice to the party to whom the request is directed or within such longer time as the court may allow for good cause and with or without notice, but in no event later than 60 days prior to the date of trial, the party to whom the request is directed serves upon the party requesting the admission either (1) a sworn statement denying specifically the matters of which an admission is requested or setting forth in detail the reasons why the party cannot truthfully admit or deny those matters or (2) written objections on the ground that some or all of the requested admissions are privileged or irrelevant or that the request is otherwise improper in whole or in part. If written objections to a part of the request are made, the remainder of the request shall be answered within the period designated in the request. A denial shall fairly meet the substance of the requested admission, and when good faith requires that a party deny only a part of a matter of which an admission is requested, or that the party qualify his or her response thereto, the party shall specify so much of it as is true and deny or qualify only the remainder. If the party who has submitted the requests for admissions deems that further response is required, he or she may move the court for an order requiring further response. The motion shall be upon notice given within 45 days from the date of service of the responses unless the court, on motion and notice, and for good cause shown, enlarges the time. Otherwise, the party submitting the requests for admissions shall be deemed to have waived the right to compel further responses pursuant to this section. Copies of all requests for admissions and of all responses thereto shall be served upon all other parties to the action who have appeared; but the court on motion with or without notice may waive this requirement if the court determines that enforcement thereof would be unduly expensive, oppressive, or burdensome. At any time prior to final judgment and upon written request, the party originating requests for admissions or responses thereto shall provide within 30 days of the written request a copy thereof to any other party for any reason not previously served.

The party responding to the request for admissions shall serve the original responses made under oath upon the party serving the request for admissions. The party serving the request for admissions shall retain the original thereof with the original proof of service affixed thereto and the original responses for at least six months after the judgment has become final.

Upon failure of a party served with requests for admissions pursuant to this section either to answer or to file objections within the period as designated in the request or as extended by the court, the party making the request may serve upon the other party a notice in writing by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, notifying the party so served that the genuineness of the documents or the truth of the facts has been deemed admitted. Once the notice is served, the party upon whom the notice is served shall not have the right to apply for relief under the provisions of Section 473 unless a motion requesting relief is served and filed within 30 days after service of the notice.

(b) The number of requests for admissions or of sets of requests for admissions to be served is not limited except as justice requires to protect the party from annoyance, expense, embarrassment, or oppression. The provisions of subdivision (b) of Section 2019 are applicable for the protection of the party from whom the admissions are requested under this section.

(c) Any admission made by a party pursuant to such request is for the purpose of the pending action only and neither constitutes an admission by the party for any other purpose nor may be used against the party in any other action.

(d) Service upon a party of any request for admission or response under this section may be made upon any party or the party's attorney in the manner provided in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 1010) of Title 14 of Part 2.

CHAPTER 142

An act to amend Sections 8762 and 11003.4 of the Business and Professions Code, to amend Section 2981.7 of the Civil Code, to amend Sections 472, 472a, 585.5 and 587 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to amend Section 15527 of, to amend and renumber the heading of Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 21000) of Part 12 of, to amend and renumber the heading of Article 2 (commencing with Section 78230) of Chapter 2 of Part 48 of, and to repeal the heading of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 21000) of Part 12 of, the Education Code, to amend Sections 15272, 22935, 23531, 23540.5, 23557, 27031, 27100, and 27341 of the Elections Code, to amend Sections 102, 6054, 6059, 6067, and 6085 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to amend Sections 3208, 3572, 3586, 8188, 8208, 8214.3, 8214.4, 8567, 8818, 9125, 11018, 11019, 11349.4, 11550, 14404, 14838, 14903, 14955, 16366.2, 16503, 19131, 19132, 20570, 20750.8, 20750.85, 20750.86, 22009, and 51110.2 of, to amend and renumber the headings of Article 1.8 (commencing with Section 16369) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 4 of, and Article 3 (commencing with Section 19570) of Chapter 8 of Division 5 of Title 2 of, to repeal Sections 14841, 14962, and 18801.1, of, to repeal the headings of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 16170) of Division 4 of, and Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 18250) of Division 5 of Title 2 of, the Government Code, to amend Sections 4000 and 6201, of the Harbors and Navigation Code, to amend Sections 18029.5, 18030, 18031, 18942, 19820, 25651, 25803, 28744, 30001, 30002, 39601, 50701, 51005, and 51050 of, to amend and renumber Section 19026 of, to repeal Sections 18550.5, 25356, and 32130.7 of, the Health and Safety Code, to amend Sections 1190, 1210, 1350, 10499, 10500, 10507.2, 11512.21, 11512.25, 11527, 11528, 11555.2 and 12762 of, to amend and renumber Sections 11512.1 and 11512.2 of, the Insurance Code, to amend Sections 51, 103, 1144, 1700.36, 1720.3, 4650.5, 4700, 4702, 4706.5, 4721, 4723, 4903.2, 5455, 5600, 6304.4, 6396, 6403, 6410, 6413, 6454, 6500, 6650, and 7655 of the Labor Code, to amend Sections 987.8 and 1603 of, to amend and renumber Section 1170.8 of, the Penal Code, to amend Section 608 of the Probate Code, to amend Sections 4799.10 and 9965 of the Public Resources Code, to amend Sections 304, 705, 1906, 2702, 2703, 2707, 3904, 5162, 5164, 5392, 5504, 99314.3, 100055.4, 102304, and 102571 of the Public Utilities Code, to amend Sections 12631, 17056, 17063.3, 17112.5, 17155, 17299, 17524, 17530, 25951, and 26132 of, and to amend and renumber Sections 17052.4 and 23603 of, and to add Section 19356 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, to amend Sections 188.8, 680, 701, and 724 of the Streets and Highways Code, to amend Sections 625, 3061, 3063, 4460, 4601, 4602, 9102.5, 9706, 9853.4, 11520, 23181, 25108, 27909, 34501.5, and 40000.7 of the Vehicle Code, to amend Sections 127, 259, and 2782 of the Water Code, to amend Sections 1722, and 16712 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and to repeal Section 3 of Chapter 61 of the Statutes of 1978, as amended by Chapter 1055 of the Statutes of 1979, relating to maintenance of the codes.

[Approved by Governor June 28, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State June 28, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8762 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8762. After making a survey in conformity with the practice of land surveying, the surveyor or civil engineer may file with the county surveyor in the county in which the survey was made, a record of the survey.

Within 90 days after the establishment of points or lines the licensed land surveyor or registered civil engineer shall file with the county surveyor in the county in which the survey was made, a record of the survey relating to land boundaries or property lines, which discloses any of the following:

(a) Material evidence or physical change, which in whole or in part does not appear on any map or record previously recorded or filed in the office of the county recorder, county clerk, municipal or county surveying department or in the records of the Bureau of Land Management of the United States.

(b) A material discrepancy with the record.

(c) Evidence that, by reasonable analysis, might result in alternate positions of lines or points.

(d) The establishment of one or more lines not shown on any such map, the positions of which are not ascertainable from an inspection of the map without trigonometric calculations.

Any record of survey filed with the county surveyor shall after being examined by him or her be filed with the county recorder.

SEC. 2. Section 11003.4 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

11003.4. (a) A "limited-equity housing cooperative" is a corporation which meets the criteria of Section 11003.2 and which also meets the criteria of Section 33007.5 of the Health and Safety Code. Except as provided in subdivision (b), a limited-equity housing cooperative shall be subject to all the requirements of this chapter pertaining to stock cooperatives.

(b) A limited-equity housing cooperative shall be exempt from the requirements of this chapter if the limited-equity housing cooperative complies with all the following conditions:

(1) The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, the Farmers Home Administration, the National Consumers Cooperative Bank, the California Housing Finance Agency, or the Department of Housing and Community Development, alone or in any combination with each other, or with the city, county, or redevelopment agency in which the cooperative is located, directly finances or subsidizes at least 50 percent of the total development cost; or, the real property to be occupied by the cooperative was sold by the Department of Transportation for the development of the cooperative and has a regulatory agreement approved by the Department of Housing and Community Development.

(2) No more than 10 percent of the total development cost is provided by purchasers of membership shares.

(3) A regulatory agreement has been duly executed between the recipient of the financing or subsidy and one of the federal or state agencies described in paragraph (1) which covers the cooperative for a term of at least as long as the duration of the financing or subsidy. The regulatory agreement shall make provisions for at least all of the following:

(A) Assurances for completion of the common areas and facilities to be owned or leased by the limited-equity housing cooperative, unless a construction agreement between the same parties contains written assurances for completion.

(B) Governing instruments for the organization and operation of the housing cooperative by the members.

(C) The ongoing fiscal management of the project by the cooperative including an adequate budget, reserves, and provisions for maintenance and management.

(D) Distribution of a membership information report to any prospective purchaser of a membership share, prior to purchase of that share. The membership information report shall contain full disclosure of: the financial obligations and responsibilities of cooperative membership, the resale of shares, the financing of the cooperative including any arrangements made with any partners, membership share accounts, occupancy restrictions, management arrangements and any other information pertinent to the benefits, risks, and obligations of cooperative ownership.

(4) The federal or state agency named in paragraph (1) which executes the regulatory agreement shall satisfy itself that the bylaws, articles of incorporation, occupancy agreement, subscription agreement, any lease of the regulated premises, any arrangement with partners, and arrangement for membership share accounts provide adequate protection of the rights of cooperative members.

(5) The federal or state agency shall receive from the attorney for the recipient of the financing or subsidy a legal opinion that the cooperative meets the requirements of Section 33007.5 of the Health and Safety Code and the exemption provided by this section.

(c) Any limited-equity cooperative which meets the requirements for exemption pursuant to subdivision (b) may elect to be subject to all provisions of this chapter.

(d) The developer of the cooperative shall notify the Department of Real Estate, on a form provided by the department, that an exemption is claimed under this section. The Department of Real Estate shall retain this form for at least four years for statistical purposes.

SEC. 3. Section 2981.7 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2981.7. All contracts entered into between a buyer and a seller on or after January 1, 1983, shall provide for the calculation of the finance charge contemplated by item (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (j) of Section 2982 on the simple-interest basis, if the date on which the final installment is due, according to the original terms of the contract, is more than 62 months after the date of the contract.

SEC. 4. Section 472 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

472. Any pleading may be amended once by the party of course, and without costs, at any time before the answer or demurrer is filed, or after demurrer and before the trial of the issue of law thereon, by filing the same as amended and serving a copy on the adverse party, and the time in which the adverse party must respond thereto shall be computed from the date of notice of the amendment.

SEC. 5. Section 472a of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

472a. (a) A demurrer is not waived by an answer filed at the same time.

(b) Except as otherwise provided by rule adopted by the Judicial Council, when a demurrer to a complaint or to a cross-complaint is overruled and there is no answer filed, the court shall allow an answer to be filed upon such terms as may be just. If a demurrer to the answer is overruled, the action shall proceed as if no demurrer had been interposed, and the facts alleged in the answer shall be considered as denied to the extent mentioned in Section 431.20.

(c) When a demurrer is sustained, the court may grant leave to amend the pleading and shall fix the time within which the amendment or amended pleading shall be filed, or entered in the docket.

SEC. 6. Section 585.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

585.5. (a) Every application to enter default under subdivision

(a) of Section 585 shall include, or be accompanied by, an affidavit stating facts showing that the action is or is not subject to Section 1812.10 or 2984.4 of the Civil Code or subdivision (b) of Section 395.

(b) When a default or default judgment has been entered without full compliance with Section 1812.10 or 2984.4 of the Civil Code, or subdivision (b) of Section 395, the defendant may serve and file a notice of motion to set aside the default or default judgment and for leave to defend the action in the proper court. The notice of motion shall be served and filed within 60 days after the defendant first receives notice of levy under a writ of execution, or notice of any other procedure for enforcing, the default judgment.

(c) A notice of motion to set aside a default or default judgment and for leave to defend the action in the proper court shall designate as the time for making the motion a date not less than 10 nor more than 20 days after filing of the motion, and it shall be accompanied by an affidavit showing under oath that the action was not commenced in the proper court according to Section 1812.10 or 2984.4 of the Civil Code or subdivision (b) of Section 395. The party shall serve and file with the notice a copy of the answer, motion, or other pleading proposed to be filed in the action.

(d) Upon a finding by the court that the motion was made within the period permitted by subdivision (b) and that the action was not commenced in the proper court, it shall set aside the default or default judgment on such terms as may be just and shall allow such a party to defend the action in the proper court.

(e) Unless the plaintiff can show that the plaintiff used reasonable diligence to avoid filing the action in the improper court, upon a finding that the action was commenced in the improper court the court shall award the defendant actual damages and costs, including reasonable attorney's fees.

SEC. 7. Section 587 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

587. An application by a plaintiff for entry of default under subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 585 or Section 586 or an application for judgment under subdivision (c) of Section 585 shall include an affidavit stating that a copy of the application has been mailed to the defendant's attorney of record or, if none, to the defendant at his or her last known address and the date on which the copy was mailed. If no such address of the defendant is known to the plaintiff or plaintiff's attorney the affidavit shall state that fact.

No application for judgment under subdivision (c) of Section 585 shall be heard, and no default under subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 585 or Section 586 shall be entered, unless the affidavit is filed. The nonreceipt of the notice shall not invalidate or constitute ground for setting aside any judgment.

SEC. 8. Section 15527 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15527. No apportionment to a school district or community college district under this chapter shall become final, nor shall any agreement authorized by Section 15528 be entered into, unless at an election called by the governing board of the district, two-thirds of the qualified electors of the district voting thereat have authorized the governing board to accept, expend, and repay an apportionment as provided in this chapter or, with respect to an agreement authorized by Section 15528, to obligate the district in an amount equal to or in excess of the maximum amount which the district could be obligated by the agreement, or by any act of its governing board, or for which it is responsible, contemplated, or permitted under the agreement. The election shall be called, held, and conducted in the same manner as are elections to authorize the issuance of district bonds, except that the ballot shall contain substantially the following words:

“Shall the governing board of the district be authorized (1) to accept and expend an apportionment from the State of California under and subject to the provisions of the State Project Area School Construction Law, a portion of which amount is subject to repayment as provided by said law, or (2) to enter into an agreement or agreements with the state pursuant to Section 15528 of the Education Code, which will at the time of such agreement or agreements (or at the time of any subsequent act of the governing board, or for which it is responsible, contemplated or permitted thereby) commit the district to a total expenditure in connection with all such agreements of not more than _____ dollars, or both. Yes _____ No _____.”

SEC. 9. The heading of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 21000) of Part 12 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 10. The heading of Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 21100) of Part 12 of the Education Code is amended and renumbered to read:

CHAPTER 1. FOUNDATIONS, TRUSTS, AND INSTITUTIONS OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

SEC. 11. The heading of Article 2 (commencing with Section 78230) of Chapter 2 of Part 48 of the Education Code is amended and renumbered to read:

Article 2.5. Military Science

SEC. 12. Section 15272 of the Elections Code is amended to read:
15272. The clerk may count absent voter ballots by the use of a voting machine or vote tabulating device subject to all of the following:

(a) All interested persons shall be afforded the opportunity to be present.

(b) No vote shall be counted unless there are at least three persons observing the counting procedure.

(c) The voting machine or device shall be inspected, all of its registering counters set at zero (000) and locked.

(d) The clerk may appoint persons to assist in the counting of these ballots. No person shall be appointed who is not fully qualified to perform his or her duties.

(e) No vote shall be registered in the voting machine or device unless all persons present are in agreement that the voting machine or device reflects exactly the vote of the ballot being counted.

(f) When the votes of all absent voter ballots have been registered in the voting machine or device, the results of the votes cast shall be tabulated in the same manner as the results from other voting machines or devices.

SEC. 13. Section 22935 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

22935. Recount of votes in municipal elections shall be governed by the provisions of Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 17140) of Division 12.

SEC. 14. Section 23531 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

23531. Absent voting shall be allowed and conducted as nearly as practicable in accordance with Division 2 (commencing with Section 1000) pertaining to general elections, except in those districts in which voting by proxy is allowed unless a particular district shall, by resolution pursuant to Section 23511.1, provide for an all-mail ballot election.

SEC. 15. Section 23540.5 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

23540.5. Candidates' statements of their qualifications submitted in accordance with Section 10012 shall be filed with the county clerk who shall cause the voters' pamphlet, if any is required, to be mailed along with the notice required by Section 23540.

SEC. 16. Section 23557 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

23557. Notwithstanding Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 2500) of Division 4, no landowner voting district election shall be consolidated with any resident voter election whether or not it is held pursuant to this part or not. Except as specified in the preceding sentence, an election conducted by a district subject to the provisions of this part may be consolidated with any other election pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 23300) of Part 2.

SEC. 17. Section 27031 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

27031. Before any signature may be affixed to a recall petition, each page of each section shall bear all of the following in no less than six-point type:

(a) A request that an election be called to elect a successor to the officer; or, in the case of a city recall, a request that an election be called to determine whether the officer shall be removed from office and whether the vacancy, if any, shall be filled by appointment or special election.

(b) A copy of the notice of intention, including the statement of grounds for recall.

(c) The answer of the officer sought to be recalled, if any. If the officer sought to be recalled has not answered, the petition shall so state.

SEC. 18. Section 27100 of the Elections Code is amended to read: 27100. This chapter applies only to the recall of state officers.

In addition to the provisions contained in this chapter, the provisions of Sections 13 to 18, inclusive, of Article 11 of the Constitution and the applicable provisions of Chapters 1 (commencing with Section 27000) and 4 (commencing with Section 27300) shall govern the recall of state officers.

SEC. 19. Section 27341 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

27341. Nominations of candidates to succeed the recalled officer shall be made in the manner prescribed for nominating a candidate to that office in a regular election insofar as that procedure is consistent with this article. The following exceptions shall be made to that procedure:

(a) The nomination papers and the declaration of candidacy shall, in each case, be filed no less than 59 days prior to the date of the election and not before the day the order of the election is issued.

(b) If the clerk is required to certify to the governing board the names of the candidates to be placed on the ballot, that shall be done by the 54th day prior to the election.

(c) No person whose recall is being sought may be a candidate to succeed himself or herself at a recall election.

SEC. 20. Section 102 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

102. The department is under the control of a civil executive officer known as the Director of Food and Agriculture who shall receive the salary provided for by Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 11550) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. The director shall be appointed by, and hold office at the pleasure of, the Governor. The director shall execute and deliver, as provided by law, an official bond in the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000).

SEC. 21. Section 6054 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

6054. The commissioner shall file the cottongrowers register within 60 days of receipt of the order from the board of supervisors or by March 1st, whichever date is the later. The commissioner shall file with the register of cottongrowers a report and recommendation to the board of supervisors on whether conditions of disease, insect, or other pests of cotton warrant the board of supervisors in proceeding with the organization of the district.

SEC. 22. Section 6059 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

6059. The board of supervisors shall, at the next regular or special meeting following the hearing upon the question of the organization of the proposed district, meet and, if it determines that the evidence presented at the hearing was sufficient to warrant the organization of the district, shall, by order entered upon its minutes, declare the district duly organized under the name designated in the petition. The order shall describe the boundaries of the district so that all lands included in it may be known, and a copy of the order shall be filed for record in the office of the county recorder of the county where the district is situated.

SEC. 23. Section 6067 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

6067. Except as otherwise provided by this chapter, all acts of the board of directors shall be by resolution, and the adoption of a resolution shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the board of directors.

SEC. 24. Section 6085 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

6085. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Cotton Pests Abatement District Act.

SEC. 25. Section 3208 of the Government Code is amended to read:

3208. Except as provided in Section 19990, the limitations set forth in this chapter shall be the only restrictions on the political activities of state employees.

SEC. 26. Section 3572 of the Government Code is amended to read:

3572. This section applies only to the California State University.

The duty to engage in meeting and conferring requires the parties to begin meeting and conferring at least 60 days prior to the expiration of memoranda of understanding, or the May 1, if earlier, of any year in which a memorandum shall expire, or May 1, if there is no existing memorandum. The California State University shall maintain close liaison with the Department of Finance and the Legislature relative to the meeting and conferring on provisions of the written memoranda which have fiscal ramifications. The Governor shall appoint one representative to attend the meeting and conferring, including the impasse procedure, to advise the parties on the views of the Governor on matters which would require an appropriation or legislative action, and the Speaker of the Assembly and the Senate Rules Committee may each appoint one representative to attend the meeting and conferring to advise the parties on the views of the Legislature on matters which would require an appropriation or legislative action.

No written memoranda reached pursuant to this chapter which require budgetary or curative action by the Legislature or other funding agencies shall be effective unless and until such an action has been taken. Following execution of written memoranda of understanding, an appropriate request for financing or budgetary funding for all state-funded employees or for necessary legislation shall be forwarded promptly to the Legislature and the Governor or other funding agencies. When memoranda require legislative action pursuant to this section, if the Legislature or the Governor fail to fully fund the memoranda or to take the requisite curative action, the entire memoranda shall be referred back to the parties for further meeting and conferring. However, the parties may agree that provisions of the memoranda which are nonbudgetary and do not require funding shall take effect whether or not the funding requests submitted to the Legislature are approved.

SEC. 27. Section 3586 of the Government Code is amended to read:

3586. The Trustees of the California State University shall continue all payroll assignments authorized by an employee prior to and until recognition or certification of an exclusive representative until notification is submitted by an employee to discontinue the employee's assignments.

SEC. 28. Section 8188 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8188. The judgment shall determine the validity or invalidity respectively of the matters specified in Section 8187. The judgment shall be subject to being reopened under Section 473 or 473.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure, or otherwise only within 90 days after the entry of the judgment, and the petitioner and any person who has appeared in the special proceeding may move for a new trial under proper circumstances and upon appropriate grounds and may appeal from the judgment.

SEC. 29. Section 8208 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8208. The protest of a notary public, under his or her hand and official seal, of a bill of exchange or promissory note for nonacceptance or nonpayment, specifying any of the following is prima facie evidence of the facts recited therein:

- (a) The time and place of presentment.
- (b) The fact that presentment was made and the manner thereof.
- (c) The cause or reason for protesting the bill.
- (d) The demand made and the answer given, if any, or the fact that the drawee or acceptor could not be found.

SEC. 30. Section 8214.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8214.3. Prior to a revocation or suspension pursuant to this chapter or after a denial of a commission, the person affected shall have a right to a hearing on the matter and the proceeding shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3, except that a person shall not have a right to a hearing after a denial of an application for a notary public commission in either of the following cases:

(a) The Secretary of State has, within one year previous to the application, and after proceedings conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3, denied or revoked the applicant's application or commission.

(b) The Secretary of State has entered an order pursuant to Section 8214.4 finding that the applicant has committed or omitted acts constituting grounds for suspension or revocation of a notary public's commission.

SEC. 31. Section 8214.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8214.4. Notwithstanding this chapter or Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3, if the Secretary of State determines, after proceedings conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3, that any notary public has committed or omitted acts constituting grounds for suspension or revocation of a notary public's commission, the resignation or expiration of the notary public's commission shall not bar the Secretary of State from instituting or continuing an investigation or instituting disciplinary proceedings. Upon completion of the disciplinary proceedings, the Secretary of State shall enter an order finding the facts and stating the conclusion that the facts would or would not have constituted grounds for suspension or revocation of the commission if the commission had still been in effect.

SEC. 32. Section 8567 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8567. (a) The Governor may make, amend, and rescind orders and regulations necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter. The orders and regulations shall have the force and effect of law. Due consideration shall be given to the plans of the federal government in preparing the orders and regulations. The Governor shall cause widespread publicity and notice to be given to all such orders and regulations, or amendments or rescissions thereof.

(b) Orders and regulations, or amendments or rescissions thereof, issued during a state of war emergency or state of emergency shall be in writing and shall take effect immediately upon their issuance. Whenever the state of war emergency or state of emergency has been terminated, the orders and regulations shall be of no further force or effect.

(c) All orders and regulations relating to the use of funds pursuant to Article 16 (commencing with Section 8645) shall be prepared in advance of any commitment or expenditure of the funds. Other orders and regulations needed to carry out the provisions of this chapter shall, whenever practicable, be prepared in advance of a state of war emergency or state of emergency.

(d) All orders and regulations made in advance of a state of war emergency or state of emergency shall be in writing, shall be exempt from Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2, but shall be subject to the approval of the Emergency Council. As soon thereafter as possible they shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State and with the county clerk of each county.

SEC. 33. Section 8818 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8818. The meetings of the commission shall be open and public in accordance with Article 9 (commencing with Section 11120) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 3.

SEC. 34. Section 9125 of the Government Code is amended to read:

9125. (a) The Department of General Services shall cause the permanent relocating of the Treasurer's office in State Office Building No. 1 in Sacramento, and any necessary reconstruction and remodeling in connection therewith.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, all work performed pursuant to this section shall be exempt from the State Contract Act (Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 10100) of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code) and from the Environmental Quality Act of 1970 (Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000), Public Resources Code).

SEC. 35. Section 11018 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11018. Every state agency which is authorized by any law to conduct administrative hearings but is not subject to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) shall nonetheless comply with subdivision (d) of Section 11513 relative to the furnishing of language assistance at any such hearing.

SEC. 36. Section 11019 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11019. (a) Any department specified in subdivision (b) may, upon determining that an advance payment is essential for the effective implementation of a program within the provisions of this section, and to the extent funds are available, and not more frequently than once each fiscal year, advance to a community-based private nonprofit agency with which it has contracted, pursuant to federal law and related state law, for the delivery of services, not to exceed 25 percent of the annual allocation to be made pursuant to the contract and such laws, during the fiscal year to the private nonprofit agency. Advances in excess of 25 percent may be made on contracts financed by a federal program when those advances are not prohibited by federal guidelines. Advance payments may be provided for services to be performed under any contract with a total annual contract amount of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) or less, or which the Department of Finance determines has been entered into with any community-based private nonprofit agency with modest reserves and potential cash flow problems. No advance payment shall be granted if the total annual contract exceeds two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000), without the prior approval of the Department of Finance.

The specific departments mentioned in subdivision (b) shall develop a plan to establish control procedures for advance payments. Each such plan shall include a procedure whereby the department determines whether or not an advance payment is essential for the effective implementation of a particular program being funded. Each such plan is required to be approved by the Department of Finance.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall apply to the Department of Aging, the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs, the Department of Corrections, the Employment Development Department, the State Department of Health Services, the State Department of Mental Health, the Department of Rehabilitation, the State Department of Social Services, the Department of the Youth Authority, and the Department of Education.

Subdivision (a) shall also apply to the Health and Welfare Agency which may make advance payments, pursuant to the requirements of that subdivision, to multipurpose senior services projects as established in Sections 9400 to 9413, inclusive, of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(c) A county may, upon determining that an advance payment is essential for the effective implementation of a program within the provisions of this section, and to the extent funds are available, and not more frequently than once each fiscal year, advance to a community-based private nonprofit agency with which it has contracted, pursuant to federal law and related state law, for the delivery of services, not to exceed 25 percent of the annual allocation to be made pursuant to the contract and such laws, during the fiscal year to the private nonprofit agency.

SEC. 37. Section 11349.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11349.4. A regulation returned to an agency because of failure to meet the standards of Section 11349.1, or because of an agency's failure to comply with this chapter, may be rewritten and resubmitted without complying with the notice and public hearing requirements of Sections 11346.4, 11346.5, and 11346.8 unless the substantive provisions of the regulation have been significantly changed. If the regulation has been significantly changed, the agency shall comply with Article 5 (commencing with Section 11346) prior to readopting the regulation.

The office shall expedite the review of a regulation submitted without significant substantive change.

SEC. 38. Section 11550 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11550. An annual salary of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000) shall be paid to each of the following:

- (a) Director of Finance.
- (b) Secretary of Business, Transportation and Housing Agency.
- (c) Secretary of Resources Agency.
- (d) Secretary of Health and Welfare Agency.
- (e) Secretary of State and Consumer Services Agency.
- (f) Director of Industrial Relations.
- (g) Commissioner, California Highway Patrol.
- (h) Secretary of Youth and Adult Correctional Agency.
- (i) Director of Food and Agriculture.

SEC. 39. Section 14404 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14404. A filing of the claim pursuant to Part 3 (commencing with Section 900) of Division 3.6 of Title 1 is not required as a prerequisite to the commencement of arbitration pursuant to Article 8.1 (commencing with Section 14410). The department shall have full authority to compromise or otherwise settle any claims arising from the contract at any time.

SEC. 40. Section 14838 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14838. In order to facilitate the participation of small business in state procurement and in construction contracts under the Office of the State Architect or other state agencies which contract for the construction (including alteration, demolition, repair or improvement) of state facilities, the directors of General Services and of such other agencies, each within their respective areas of responsibility, shall do all of the following:

(a) Establish goals for the extent of participation of small businesses in state procurement and in construction contracts.

(b) Provide for small business preference where responsibility and quality are equal. The preference to small business shall be 5 percent for the lowest responsible bidder meeting specifications. However, the small business preference shall not exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) for any bid.

(c) Give special consideration to small businesses by doing all of the following:

(1) Reducing the experience required.

(2) Reducing the level of inventory normally required.

(d) Give special assistance to small businesses in their preparation and submission of the information requested in Section 14310.

(e) Under the authorization granted in Section 14311, make awards, whenever feasible, to small business bidders for each project bid upon within their prequalification rating. This may be accomplished by dividing major projects into subprojects so as to allow a small business contractor to qualify to bid on the subprojects.

SEC. 41. Section 14841 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 42. Section 14903 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14903. As soon as practicable after deposit of the copies in the library stockroom, the State Printer shall forward of each publication other than the legislative bills, daily journals and daily or weekly histories, 50 copies to the State Library at Sacramento, 25 copies each to the University of California libraries at Berkeley and Los Angeles, and 50 copies to the California State University, to be allocated among the libraries thereof as directed by the Trustees of the California State University. Those copies in excess of the number required for the institutions themselves may be used for exchanges with other institutions or with agencies of other states and countries.

SEC. 43. Section 14955 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14955. Where work to be performed, excluding regular maintenance work, which would otherwise be subject to the State Contract Act (Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 10100)) of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code), does not lend itself to the preparation of plans and specifications to enable bids to be taken on a lump-sum or unit basis, and the director so finds, the department may perform the work by the use of rented tools or equipment, either with operators furnished or unoperated. Contracts for the work may include provision for equipment rental and in addition the furnishing of labor and materials necessary to accomplish the work. The contracts shall not be subject to the State Contract Act, but shall be subject to all of the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 1770) of Chapter 1 of Part 7 of Division 2 of the Labor Code.

Whenever the total consideration of such a contract exceeds two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500), it shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder, after competitive bidding on such reasonable notice as the department may prescribe, except in cases of emergency rental of tools or equipment as hereinafter provided. Posting of notice for five days in a public place in the Sacramento and Los Angeles offices of the Office of Architecture and Construction of the department is sufficient. Those contracts involving a consideration in excess of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) shall be accompanied by labor and material bonds. The department may require faithful performance bonds when considered necessary. The notice for each contract shall state whether or not a bond shall be required. Where a faithful performance bond is required, labor and material bonds shall be required.

In cases of emergency work necessitated by the imminence or occurrence of a landslide, flood, storm damage, accident, or other casualty, tools or equipment may be rented for a period of not to exceed 10 days without competitive bidding.

SEC. 44. Section 14962 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 45. The heading of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 16170) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, as added by Chapter 1406 of the Statutes of 1972, is repealed. The repeal of this heading made by this section shall not affect the existence or validity of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 16180) of Part 1 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, as added by Chapter 454 of the Statutes of 1982.

SEC. 46. Section 16366.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

16366.2. As used in this article:

(a) "Service provider" means any public or private nonprofit agency which provides service directly to categorical populations.

(b) "Consolidated program" means any program which the state has the option to fund with the block grant.

(c) "Categorical populations" means those recipients of services provided pursuant to a program listed in Section 16366.4.

(d) "Block grant funds" shall have the same meaning as defined in federal law in existence on January 1, 1982.

SEC. 47. The heading of Article 1.8 (commencing with Section 16369) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, as added by Chapter 1453 of the Statutes of 1982, is amended and renumbered to read:

Article 1.9. Office of Long-Term Care

SEC. 48. Section 16503 of the Government Code is amended to read:

16503. Subject to the limitations of Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 16480) of Chapter 3, the Treasurer shall determine what amounts of money shall be deposited:

- (a) As time deposits, and the rates of interest to be received.
- (b) As demand deposits, and the rates of interest to be received, if any.

SEC. 49. The heading of Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 18250) of Division 5 of Title 2 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 50. Section 18801.1 of the Government Code, as added by Chapter 938 of the Statutes of 1982, is repealed.

SEC. 51. Section 18801.1 of the Government Code, as added by Chapter 985 of the Statutes of 1982, is repealed.

SEC. 52. Section 18801.1 of the Government Code, as added by Chapter 1135 of the Statutes of 1982, is repealed.

SEC. 53. Section 19131 of the Government Code is amended to read:

19131. Any state agency proposing to execute a contract pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 19130 shall notify the State Personnel Board of its intention. All organizations that represent state employees who perform the type of work to be contracted, and any person or organization which has filed with the board a request for notice, shall be contacted immediately by the State Personnel Board upon receipt of this notice so that they may be given a reasonable opportunity to comment on the proposed contract. Departments or agencies submitting proposed contracts shall retain and provide all data and other information relevant to the contracts and necessary for a specific application of the standards set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 19130. Any employee organization may request, within 10 days of notification, the State Personnel Board to review any contract proposed or executed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 19130. The review shall be conducted in accordance with subdivision (b) of Section 14831.6. Upon such a request, the State Personnel Board shall review the contract for compliance with the standards specified in subdivision (a) of Section 19130.

SEC. 54. Section 19132 of the Government Code is amended to read:

19132. The State Personnel Board, at the request of an employee organization that represents state employees, shall review the adequacy of any proposed or executed contract which is of a type enumerated in subdivision (b) of Section 19130. The review shall be conducted in accordance with subdivision (c) of Section 14831.6. However, a contract that was reviewed at the request of an employee organization when it was proposed need not be reviewed again after its execution.

SEC. 55. The heading of Article 3 (commencing with Section 19570) of Chapter 8 of Division 5 of Title 2 of the Government Code is amended and renumbered to read:

Article 1. Disciplinary Proceedings

SEC. 56. Section 20570 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20570. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, the board may enter into an agreement with the governing body of a contracting agency, other than a housing authority, and the governing body of a city with a population in excess of 2,000,000 and maintaining its own retirement system for termination of the contracting agency's participation in this system and inclusion of the employees in the city retirement system. The agreement shall contain such provisions as the board finds necessary to protect the interests of the system for determination of the amount, time, manner of transfer of cash or the securities, or both, to be transferred to the city system as representing the value of the interests in the retirement fund of the contracting agency and its employees by reason of contributions and interest credited to the agency and its employees. All liability of this system with respect to members and retired persons under the contract shall cease and shall become the liability of the city system as of the date of termination specified in the agreement. Liability of the city system shall be for payment of benefits to persons retired on the termination date and their beneficiaries and of beneficiaries of deceased members in at least the amount provided under the agency's contract as it was on that date. The termination shall not affect the contribution rate of any member in any other employment under the system on the date of termination or any retirement allowance or other benefit based on service. Any member who becomes a member of a city system upon the contract termination shall be subject to those provisions of this part extending rights to a member or subjecting the member to limitations because of membership in another retirement system to the same extent that the member would have been had he or she been a member of the city system during his or her membership in this system under the terminated contract.

SEC. 57. Section 20750.8 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20750.8. Each contracting agency and school employer which is an employer for purposes of this chapter shall make contributions in addition to those otherwise specified in this chapter in amounts to be fixed and determined by the board on account of unpaid liability for prior service and on account of liability for benefits under Sections 21263 to 21263.3, inclusive, and 21382 and benefits provided local safety members. Payments shall be under such arrangement as may be agreed to by the board.

SEC. 58. Section 20750.85 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20750.85. Each employer included in a contract under Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 20580) shall make contributions on account of liability for prior service and benefits under Section 21382 in addition to those otherwise specified in this chapter in a sum equal to 0.11 percent of compensation paid miscellaneous members.

SEC. 59. Section 20750.86 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20750.86. Each employer included in a contract under Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 20580) and each school district which is a contracting agency shall make contribution on account of liability for benefits under Section 20862.5 in addition to those otherwise specified in this chapter in a sum equal to 0.072 percent of compensation paid the members by the employer.

SEC. 60. Section 22009 of the Government Code is amended to read:

22009. "Public agency" means the state, any city, county, city and county, district, municipal or public corporation or any instrumentality thereof, or boards and committees established under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 58601) or 2 (commencing with Section 59501) of Part 1 of Division 21 of the Food and Agricultural Code, Chapter 754 of the Statutes of 1933, as amended, or Chapter 307 of the Statutes of 1935, as amended, the employees of which constitute one or more coverage groups or retirement system coverage groups.

SEC. 61. Section 51110.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51110.2. The county or city planning commission shall hold a public hearing on parcels referred to it for review by the board or council pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 51110 and subdivision (c) of Section 51110.1 according to Section 65854, and shall render its decision in the form of a written recommendation to the board or council according to Section 65855. The planning commission shall include in its recommendation to the board or council considerations as to the exact zoning boundaries to be drawn within each assessors parcel contained in list A or list B.

SEC. 63. Section 4000 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

4000. The board of supervisors of any county may, upon approval of the Public Utilities Commission, grant authority to any person to construct a wharf, chute, or pier, on any lands bordering on any navigable bay, lake, inlet, creek, slough, or arm of the sea, situated in or bounding the county, with a license to take tolls for its use for the term of 20 years.

SEC. 64. Section 6201 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

6201. "Board," as used in this part, means the board of port commissioners described in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 6240).

SEC. 65. Section 18029.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18029.5. (a) The department may promulgate rules and regulations, which it determines are reasonably consistent with generally recognized fire protection standards, governing conditions relating to the prevention of fire or for the protection of life and property against fire in manufactured homes, mobilehomes, recreational vehicles, and commercial coaches. All mobilehomes manufactured on or after June 15, 1976, shall comply with the National Manufactured Housing Construction and Safety Act of 1974 (42 U.S.C., Sec. 5401, et seq.).

(b) The chief fire official of every city, county, city and county, fire protection district, or other local fire protection agency shall file a report of each manufactured home and mobilehome fire occurring within his or her jurisdiction with the State Fire Marshal. The report shall be made on forms provided by the State Fire Marshal.

The State Fire Marshal shall annually compile a statistical report of all manufactured home and mobilehome fires occurring within this state and shall furnish the department with a copy of the report. The annual report shall include, but need not be limited to, the number of manufactured home and mobilehome fires, the causes of the fires, the monetary loss, and any casualties or fatalities resulting from the fires.

SEC. 66. Section 18030 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18030. If the department determines that standards for commercial coaches and recreational vehicles, which have been prescribed by the statutes or regulations of another state, are at least equal to the standards prescribed by the department, the department may so provide by regulation. Thereafter, any commercial coaches or recreational vehicles which that other state has approved as meeting its standards shall be deemed to meet the standards of the department, if the department determines that the standards of the other state are actually being enforced.

SEC. 67. Section 18031 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18031. The department, by rules and regulations, may establish a schedule of fees to pay the costs of work related to administration and enforcement of this part. The fees collected shall be deposited in the Mobilehome-Manufactured Home Revolving Fund.

SEC. 68. Section 18550.5 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 194 of the Statutes of 1979, is repealed. The repeal made by this section shall not affect the existence or validity of Section 18550.5 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 1160 of the Statutes of 1979.

SEC. 69. Section 18942 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18942. (a) The commission shall publish, or cause to be published, bound editions of the code in its entirety once in every three years, commencing January 1, 1980. In each intervening year the commission shall publish, or cause to be published, annual bound supplements. In addition, the commission shall publish, for emergency standards defined in subdivision (a) of Section 18913, an emergency standards supplement whenever the commission determines it is necessary. The commission shall also publish, for emergency standards defined in subdivision (b) of Section 18913 and for building standards approved pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 142.3 of the Labor Code, a semiannual supplement, or a more frequent supplement if required by federal law.

(b) All building standards approved shall be incorporated into the next applicable triennial edition or supplement thereto, and no building standards, except emergency standards and those approved pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 142.3 of the Labor Code and published pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 18943, shall become effective until its required approval by the commission and its publication in the triennial edition or annual supplement.

(c) Except emergency standards and building standards approved pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 142.3 of the Labor Code, no building standards or regulations shall be published in the triennial edition of the code or annual supplement less than 90 days after approval by the commission.

(d) Emergency standards defined in subdivision (a) of Section 18913 shall become effective when approved by the commission, transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law, and filed with the Secretary of State, or upon any later date specified therein, and remain in effect as provided by Section 11346.1 of the Government Code and Section 18937 of this code. Emergency standards shall be distributed as soon as practicable after publication to all interested and affected parties. Notice of repeal pursuant to Section 11346.1 of the Government Code of emergency standards defined in subdivision (a) of Section 18913 within the period specified by that section shall also be given to the parties by the affected agencies promptly after the termination of the statutory period pursuant to Section 11346.1 of the Government Code.

(e) The commission may publish, stockpile, and sell at a reasonable price the code and any materials incorporated therein by reference if it deems the latter is insufficiently available to the public, or unavailable at a reasonable price. Each state department concerned and each city and county shall have an up-to-date copy of the code available for public inspection.

SEC. 70. Section 19026 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

15095. Any person who violates any provision of this chapter is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 71. Section 19820 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

19820. (a) No person shall sell, or offer for sale, new children's sleepwear to and including size 14 which does not meet federal flammability standards for children's sleepwear to and including size 6X, and such other standards as may from time to time be adopted by the federal government. The requirements prescribed by this chapter shall be in addition to those prescribed by Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 19810).

(b) Violation of subdivision (a) is a misdemeanor.

(c) The State Fire Marshal shall promulgate, in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (commencing with Section 11340 of the Government Code), flammability regulations covering such other articles of new children's clothing to and including size 14 as it shall determine to be in the public interest.

(d) Violation of any rule or regulation promulgated pursuant to subdivision (c) is a misdemeanor.

SEC. 72. Section 25356 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 327 of the Statutes of 1982, is repealed. The repeal made by this section shall not affect the existence or validity of Section 25356 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 496 of the Statutes of 1982.

SEC. 73. Section 25651 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25651. (a) The department, with the assistance of the Office of Emergency Services, the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, and the Department of the California Highway Patrol shall, with respect to any fissile radioactive material coming within the definition of "fissile class II," "fissile class III," "large quantity radioactive materials," or "low-level radioactive waste" provided by the regulations of the United States Department of Transportation (49 C.F.R. 173.389), do all of the following:

(1) Study the adequacy of current packaging requirements for radioactive materials.

(2) Study the effectiveness of special routing and timing of radioactive materials shipments for the protection of the public health.

(3) Study the advantages of establishing a tracking system for shipments of most hazardous radioactive materials.

(b) A report on these studies, together with recommendations for any necessary changes in transportation regulations, shall be submitted by the department to the Legislature on or before July 1, 1982.

(c) The department, with the assistance of the Office of Emergency Services, the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, and the Department of the California Highway Patrol, shall extend the nuclear threat emergency response plan to include radioactive materials in transit and provide training for law enforcement officers in dealing with those threats.

(d) Subject to Section 25611, the department, in cooperation with the Department of the California Highway Patrol, shall adopt, in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, reasonable regulations which, in the judgment of the department, promote the safe transportation of radioactive materials. The regulations shall (1) prescribe the use of signs designating radioactive material cargo; shall designate, in accordance with the results of the studies done pursuant to subdivision (a), the manner in which the shipper shall give notice of such shipment to appropriate authorities; (2) prescribe the packing, marking, loading, and handling of radioactive materials, and the precautions necessary to determine whether the material when offered is in proper condition to transport, but shall not include the equipment and operation of the carrier vehicle; and (3) be reviewed and amended, as required, pursuant to Section 25611. The regulations shall be compatible with those established by the federal agency or agencies required or permitted by federal law to establish the regulations.

(e) Subject to Section 25611, the Department of the California Highway Patrol, after consulting with the department, shall adopt regulations specifying the time at which shipments may occur and the routes which are to be used in the transportation of cargoes of hazardous radioactive materials, as those materials are defined in regulations of the department.

SEC. 74. Section 25803 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25803. Rules and regulations adopted under this chapter shall be adopted in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and Sections 25733 and 25734 of this code.

SEC. 75. Section 28744 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

28744. The term "hazardous substance" shall not apply to any of the following:

(a) Foods, drugs, or cosmetics subject to the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (52 Stat. 1040) or Division 21 (commencing with Section 26000) of this code.

(b) Substances intended for use as fuels when stored in containers and used in the heating, cooking, or refrigeration system of a house.

(c) Source material, special nuclear material, or byproduct material, as defined in the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 (68 Stat. 919), as amended, and regulations issued pursuant thereto by the Atomic Energy Commission.

(d) Fertilizing materials regulated by Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 14501) of Division 7 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

(e) Livestock remedies regulated by Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 14200) of Division 7 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

(f) Economic poisons regulated by Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 12751) of Division 7 of the Food and Agricultural Code, except as provided in Section 28744.1.

(g) Economic poisons subject to the Federal Insecticide,

Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act (61 Stat. 163), except as provided in Section 28744.1.

(h) Injurious substances as defined and regulated by Article 112 (commencing with Section 5225) of Group 16 of Subchapter 7 of Chapter 4 of Title 8 of the California Administrative Code.

SEC. 76. Section 30001 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

30001. Unless the provisions or the context otherwise requires, these definitions, rules of construction, and general provisions shall govern the construction of this chapter. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Department" means the State Department of Health Services.

(b) "Household substance" means any substance which is customarily produced or distributed for sale for consumption or use, or customarily stored by individuals in or about the household and is one of the following:

(1) A hazardous substance as that term is defined in Section 28743.

(2) A food, drug, or cosmetic, as those terms are defined in Sections 26012, 26010, and 26005, which (i) is toxic, (ii) is corrosive, (iii) is an irritant, (iv) is a strong sensitizer, (v) is flammable or combustible, or (vi) generates pressure through decomposition, heat, or other means; if it may cause substantial personal injury or substantial illness during or as a proximate result of any customary or reasonably foreseeable handling or use, including reasonably foreseeable ingestion by children.

(3) A substance intended for use as fuel when stored in a portable container and used in the heating, cooking, or refrigeration system of a residential dwelling.

(c) "Package" means the immediate container or wrapping in which any household substance is contained for consumption, use, or storage by individuals in or about the household, and, for purposes of household substances, also means any outer container or wrapping used in the retail display of any such substance to consumers.

"Package" does not include the following:

(1) Any shipping container or wrapping used solely for the transportation of any household substance in bulk or in quantity to manufacturers, packers, or processors, or to wholesale or retail distributors thereof.

(2) Any shipping container or outer wrapping used by retailers to ship or deliver any household substance to consumers unless it is the only container or wrapping.

(d) "Special packaging" means packaging that is designed or constructed to be significantly difficult for children under five years of age to open or obtain a toxic or harmful amount of the substance contained therein within a reasonable time and not difficult for normal adults to use properly, but does not mean packaging which all such children cannot open or obtain a toxic or harmful amount of within a reasonable time.

(e) "Labeling" means all labels and other written, printed, or graphic matter upon any household substance or its package, or accompanying the substance.

(f) "Federal act" means the "Poison Prevention Packaging Act of 1970" (15 U.S.C. § 1471 et seq.).

SEC. 77. Section 30002 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

30002. The department shall, pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, adopt regulations establishing standards for the special packaging of any household substance in accordance with the provisions of this chapter if the regulations do not differ in substance or proscribe or require conduct which differs from the provisions of the federal act or regulations issued pursuant to the federal act and if the department finds as follows:

(a) The degree or nature of the hazard to children in the availability of the substance, by reason of its packaging, is such that special packaging is required to protect children from serious personal injury or serious illness resulting from handling, using, or ingesting the substance.

(b) The special packaging to be required by the standard is technically feasible, practicable, and appropriate for the substance.

SEC. 78. Section 32130.7 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed. The repeal of this section shall not affect the validity of any loan, indebtedness, or obligation incurred, or any agreement entered into pursuant to Section 32130.7 of the Health and Safety Code, prior to October 1, 1961.

SEC. 79. Section 39601 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

39601. (a) The state board shall adopt standards, rules, and regulations in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, necessary for the proper execution of the powers and duties granted to, and imposed upon, the state board by this division and by any other provision of law.

(b) The state board, by rules and regulations, may revise the definitions of terms set forth in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 39010) of Part 1 in order to conform those definitions to federal laws and rules and regulations.

(c) The standards, rules, and regulations adopted pursuant to this section shall, to the extent consistent with the responsibilities imposed under this division, be consistent with the state goal of providing a decent home and suitable living environment for every Californian.

SEC. 80. Section 50701 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50701. There is hereby created in the State Treasury the Land Purchase Fund. All money in the Land Purchase Fund is continuously appropriated to the department for the purpose of making loans to eligible sponsors of assisted housing for land purchase costs incurred by them in connection with the provision of housing for low-income persons in rural areas.

All interest, dividends, and pecuniary gains from investments or deposits of moneys in the loan fund shall accrue to the fund notwithstanding Section 16305.7 of the Government Code.

There shall be paid into the fund all of the following:

(a) Any moneys appropriated and made available by the Legislature for purposes of the fund.

(b) Any moneys which the department receives in repayment or return of loans made from the fund, including any interest thereon.

(c) Any other moneys which may be made available to the department for the purposes of this chapter from any other source or sources.

SEC. 81. Section 51005 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

51005. The agency shall, within 90 days following the close of each fiscal year, submit an annual report of its activities under this division for the preceding year to the Governor, the Secretary of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency, the Director of Housing and Community Development, the Treasurer, and the Legislature. Within 90 days following the close of each fiscal year, the agency shall also submit an annual report to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee. Each report shall set forth a complete operating and financial statement of the agency during the concluded fiscal year. The report shall specify the number of units assisted, the distribution of units among the metropolitan, nonmetropolitan, and rural areas of the state, and shall contain a summary of statistical data relative to the incomes of households occupying assisted units, the monthly rentals charged to occupants of rental housing developments, and the sales prices of housing developments purchased during the previous fiscal year by housing sponsors who are persons or families of low or moderate income. The report shall also include a statement of accomplishment during the previous year with respect to the agency's progress, priorities, and affirmative action efforts. The agency shall specifically include in its report on affirmative action goals, statistical data on the numbers and percentages of minority sponsors, developers, contractors, subcontractors, suppliers, architects, engineers, attorneys, mortgage bankers or other lenders, insurance agents and managing agents. The agency shall cause an audit of its books and accounts with respect to its activities under this division to be made at least once during each fiscal year by an independent certified public accountant and the agency shall be subject to audit by the Department of Finance not more often than once each fiscal year.

Commencing with fiscal year 1981-82, the agency shall include in its annual report information with respect to the number of manufactured housing units assisted by the agency.

Within 90 days following receipt of the agency's annual report, the Joint Legislative Budget Committee shall submit a report on the agency's activities under this division to the Legislature.

SEC. 82. Section 51050 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

51050. The agency shall have all of the following powers:

- (a) To sue and be sued in its own name.
- (b) To have an official seal and to alter the same at pleasure.
- (c) To have perpetual succession.
- (d) To maintain offices at such place or places within the state as it may designate.

(e) To adopt, and from time to time amend and repeal, by action of the board, rules and regulations, not inconsistent with this part, to carry into effect the powers and purposes of the agency and the conduct of its business. Rules and regulations of the agency shall be adopted, amended, repealed, and published in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. With respect to regulations in areas specified in Section 50462, the agency may propose regulations, but those regulations shall become effective only upon concurrence of the Secretary of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency, or the secretary's designated representative, or the Director of Housing and Community Development.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, to make and execute contracts and all other instruments necessary or convenient for the exercise of its powers and functions under this part with any governmental agency, private corporation or other entity, or individual, and to contract with any local public entity for processing of any aspect of financing housing developments. Contracts made or executed under the authority of this part shall not be subject to any provision of law requiring competitive bidding, but the agency shall take into consideration any applicable state policies respecting competitive bidding prior to letting a contract on a negotiated bid.

In exercising the powers set forth in this subdivision, the agency shall be subject to any applicable provisions of law requiring the supervision or approval of another division or officer of state government, except with respect to the following, which shall be exempt from these requirements:

(1) Contracts and instruments made or executed in connection with the issuance or marketing of the agency's bonds, including procurement of financial consultants, underwriters, actuaries, bond counsel, and computer and printing services related to the issuance or marketing of the bonds.

(2) Contracts and instruments relating to protection of the security interests of holders of the agency's bonds or the management, acquisition, or disposition of any property, funds, assets, or loans that are either acquired with the proceeds of any bonds or pledged or held in trust for the benefit of holders of the agency's bonds.

(3) Contracts and instruments made or executed pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 51100).

(g) To acquire real or personal property, or any interest therein, on either a temporary or long-term basis in its own name by gift, purchase, transfer, foreclosure, lease, option, or otherwise, including easements or other incorporeal rights in property.

(h) To hold, sell, assign, lease, encumber, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of any real or personal property or any interest therein; to hold, sell, assign, or otherwise dispose of any mortgage interest owned by it, under its control or custody, or in its possession; and, as applicable, to do any of the acts specified in this subdivision by public or private sale, with or without public bidding, notwithstanding any other provision of law.

(i) To release or relinquish any right, title, claim, lien, interest, easement, or demand however acquired, including any equity or right of redemption in real property foreclosed by it.

(j) To determine the terms and conditions of any mortgage instrument, deed of trust, or promissory note used or executed in conjunction with the financing of any housing development.

(k) To employ architects, engineers, attorneys, accountants, housing construction and financial experts, and such other advisers, consultants, and agents as may be necessary in its judgment and to fix their compensation.

(l) To provide advice, technical information, and consultative and technical service in connection with the financing of housing developments pursuant to this part.

(m) To procure insurance against any loss in connection with its property and other assets, including mortgages and mortgage loans, in such amounts and from such insurers as it deems desirable.

(n) To establish, revise from time to time, and charge and collect fees and charges in connection with loans made by the agency.

(o) To borrow money and issue bonds, as provided in this part.

(p) To enter such agreements and perform such acts as are necessary to obtain federal housing subsidies for use in connection with housing developments.

(q) To provide bilingual staff in connection with services of the department and make available agency publications in a language, other than English, where necessary to effectively serve all groups for which those services or publications are made available.

(r) To require any individual, corporation, or other legal entity operating, managing, or providing maintenance services for a housing development or a residential structure to maintain a current certificate of qualification developed and approved by the agency.

(s) To do any and all things necessary to carry out its purposes and exercise the powers expressly granted by this part.

SEC. 83. Section 1190 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1190. Any domestic incorporated insurer, which maintains in cash on hand or on deposit in a national or state bank, or in securities specified in Article 3 (commencing with Section 1170), an amount equal to its required minimum paid-in capital, may invest the remainder of its assets in the purchase of, or loans upon the securities set forth in this article. The investments are known as excess funds investments and are subject to the restrictions set forth in this article.

SEC. 84. Section 1210 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1210. (a) Any admitted insurer, after investing an amount equal to its required minimum paid-in capital in securities specified in Article 3 (commencing with Section 1170), may make such investments as it may see fit in the purchase of, or loans upon, properties and securities other than or in addition to or in excess of those set forth in Articles 2 (commencing with Section 1150), 3 (commencing with Section 1170) and 4 (commencing with Section 1190) of this chapter. Investments under this section shall not exceed, in the aggregate, the lesser of any of the following:

(1) Five percent of the insurer's admitted assets.

(2) Fifty percent of the excess of admitted assets over the sum of capital paid-up, liabilities and the surplus required by subdivision (a) of Section 700.02. The percentage or dollar value of admitted assets and capital paid-up and liabilities shall be determined by the insurer's last preceding annual statement of conditions and affairs made as of the preceding December 31st and which has been filed with the commissioner pursuant to law. The investments shall be subject to the provisions of Sections 1153.5, 1154, 1200, 1201, and 1202 as if they were excess funds investments. This section shall apply to an insurer other than life only if the insurer has aggregate capital and surplus of at least ten million dollars ($10,000,000).

(b) An investment originally made by an insurer pursuant to this section which subsequently meets the requirements of an investment contained in Article 2 (commencing with Section 1150), 3 (commencing with Section 1170) or 4 (commencing with Section 1190) may, at the election of the insurer, be considered to be held pursuant to any provision contained in those articles.

SEC. 85. Section 1350 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1350. The commissioner shall issue a certificate of authority to the attorney upon compliance with the requirements of this chapter, and the payment of the application fee prescribed by Article 3 (commencing with Section 699) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 1. The certificate shall authorize the making, by the attorney, of contracts of insurance under this chapter. It shall also specify all of the following:

(a) The classes of insurance to be effected.

(b) The name of the attorney.

(c) The location of the principal office.

(d) The name under which the contracts of insurance are issued.

SEC. 86. Section 10499 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10499. The commissioner may at any time notify any person possessing a certificate of exemption that the commissioner has grounds to believe that it is violating any of the applicable provisions of this code or is not operating in strict conformity with the documents filed with the commissioner as a basis of its application for the certificate of exemption. The notice shall fix the time and place for hearing at which the person notified may appear and show cause why the commissioner should not revoke its certificate of exemption. The time fixed shall not be less than 15 nor more than 60 days after date of the notice.

At the time and place specified in the notice and order to show cause, the commissioner shall hold a hearing at which the possessor of a certificate of exemption may present evidence to show that it is not violating any applicable provision of this code, and that it is operating in conformity with the documents which were filed as a basis for the certificate of exemption. If after the hearing the commissioner finds the evidence shows that the operations of the person are in violation of any of the applicable provisions of this code, or are in violation of the documents upon which its application for certificate of exemption was based, the commissioner shall revoke the certificate of exemption and the person whose certificate of exemption is thus revoked shall cease the transaction of life and disability insurance until it procures a new certificate of exemption or a certificate of authority under other provisions of this code.

This article does not prevent the commissioner from acting and bringing proceedings under Article 14 (commencing with Section 1010) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 1, if grounds exist for the institution of such proceedings with respect to any person transacting life or disability insurance either with or without a certificate of exemption.

SEC. 87. Section 10500 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10500. Every person not expressly exempted by the provisions of this code that transacts life or disability insurance without a valid and unrevoked certificate of authority or without a valid and unrevoked certificate of exemption issued pursuant to this article is guilty of a misdemeanor. Every employee, officer, or agent of any person who knowingly assists any person in the transaction of insurance in violation of the provisions of this code, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 88. Section 10507.2 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10507.2. An investment return assurance policy evidencing such insurance, shall not be issued or delivered in this state until a copy of the form thereof is filed with the commissioner, the fees required by Section 12973.9 are paid, and the commissioner has given written approval of the form.

SEC. 89. Section 11512.1 of the Insurance Code, as added by Chapter 1594 of the Statutes of 1982, is amended and renumbered to read:

11512.11. A plan shall provide group contractors with a current roster of institutional and professional providers under contract to provide services at alternative rates under their group contract, and shall also make such a roster available for public inspection, during regular business hours, at the plan's home office or principal place of business in this state.

SEC. 90. Section 11512.2 of the Insurance Code, as added by
Vol. 1 19—4446

Chapter 558 of the Statutes of 1981, is amended and renumbered to read:

11512.196. A hospital service plan contract which is written or issued for delivery outside California in a state the laws of which require recognition of psychologists licensed in such state for services performed within the scope of psychological practice shall not be deemed to prohibit the insured from selecting a psychologist licensed in California to perform services in California which are covered under the terms of the policy even though such psychologist is not licensed in the state in which the insurance is written or issued for delivery.

SEC. 91. Section 11512.21 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11512.21. Every group hospital service contract issued or issued for delivery or amended in this state after January 1, 1977, shall comply with the requirements of Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 10128) of Chapter 1.

SEC. 92. Section 11512.25 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11512.25. (a) Any hospital service contract issued to a corporation, copartnership, or individual employer eligible for group hospital service contracts pursuant to Section 11512.2 may also provide that "employees" shall include the officers, managers, and employees of subsidiary or affiliated corporations, and the individual proprietors, partners, and employees of affiliated individuals and firms, when the business of the subsidiary or affiliated corporations, firms, or individuals, is controlled by the holder of the hospital service contract through stock ownership, contract, or otherwise, or when the holder of the hospital service contract is controlled by affiliated corporations, firms, or individuals through stock ownership, contract, or otherwise.

(b) Nothing contained herein shall permit any person other than an officer, manager, or employee for compensation of the holder of the hospital service contract or of one or more of the individuals, firms, or corporations specified in subdivision (a) to be covered under a group hospital service contract.

SEC. 93. Section 11527 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11527. The commissioner shall examine the plan submitted under subdivision (c) of Section 11526. The commissioner shall not approve the plan unless in the commissioner's opinion the rights and interests of the insurer, its policyholders, and shareholders are protected and the commissioner is satisfied that the plan will be fair and equitable in its operation.

SEC. 94. Section 11528 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11528. The election prescribed by subdivision (d) of Section 11526, shall be called by the board of directors or the president and every policyholder of the class or classes for whose benefit the stock is to be acquired, whose insurance shall have been in force for at least one year prior to the election shall have one vote, regardless of the number of policies or amount of insurance the policyholder holds, and regardless of whether the policies are policies of life insurance or policies of disability insurance. Notice of the election shall be given to policyholders entitled to vote by mail from the principal office of the insurer at least 30 days prior to the date set for the election, in a sealed envelope, postage prepaid, addressed to the policyholder at that person's last known address.

Voting shall be by one of the following methods:

(a) At a meeting of those policyholders, held pursuant to the notice, by ballot in person or by proxy.

(b) If not by the method described in subdivision (a), then by mail pursuant to a procedure and on forms to be prescribed by the plan.

The election shall be conducted under the direction and supervision of three impartial and disinterested inspectors appointed by the insurer and approved by the commissioner. In case any person appointed as inspector fails to appear at the meeting or fails or refuses to act at the election, the vacancy, if occurring in advance of the convening of the meeting or in advance of the opening of the mail vote, may be filled in the manner prescribed for the appointment of inspectors and, if occurring at the meeting or during the canvass of the mail vote, may be filled by the person acting as chairperson of the meeting or designated for that purpose in the plan. The decision, act, or certificate of a majority of the inspectors shall be effective in all respects as the decision, act, or certificate of all. The inspectors of election shall determine the number of policyholders, the voting power of each, the policyholders represented at the meeting or voting by mail, the existence of a quorum, and the authenticity, validity, and effect of proxies. They shall receive votes, hear and determine all challenges and questions in any way arising in connection with the right to vote, count and tabulate all votes, determine the result, and do such other acts as are proper to conduct the vote with fairness to all policyholders. The inspectors of election shall, before commencing performance of their duties, subscribe to and file with the insurer and with the commissioner an oath that they, and each of them, will perform their duties impartially, in good faith, to the best of their ability and as expeditiously as is practicable. On the request of the insurer, the commissioner, a policyholder or his or her proxy, the inspectors shall make a report in writing of any challenge or question or matter determined by them and execute a certificate of any fact found by them. They shall also certify the result of the vote to the insurer and to the commissioner. Any report or certificate made by them shall be prima facie evidence of facts stated therein. All necessary expenses incurred in connection with the election shall be paid by the insurer. For the purpose of this section, a quorum shall consist of 5 percent of the policyholders of the insurer entitled to vote at the election.

SEC. 95. Section 11555.2 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11555.2. Each insurer transacting insurance covering liability for malpractice of any person licensed under the Dental Practice Act (Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 1600) of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code), or under the Medical Practice Act (Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 2000) of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code), shall report all of the following statistics to the commissioner, by profession and by medical specialty, on a date to be set by the commissioner, but not later than July 1st of each calendar year:

(a) The total number of doctors written during the immediately preceding calendar year.

(b) The total amount of premiums received from insureds, both written and earned (as reported in the annual statement), during the immediately preceding calendar year.

(c) The number of claims reported to the insurer for the first time separately by the year the claim occurred, and the number of claims reported closed during a previous calendar year which were reopened separately by the year claim occurred.

(d) The total number of claims outstanding, together with the monetary amount reserved for loss and allocated loss expense, in the annual statement as of December 31 of the calendar year next preceding, separately stated by the year the claim occurred.

(e) (1) The number of claims closed with payment to the claimant during the calendar year next preceding, to be reported by the year the claim occurred, (2) the total monetary amount paid thereon, reported by the year the claim occurred, and (3) the total allocated loss expense paid thereon, reported by the year the claim occurred.

(f) The monetary amount paid on claims during the calendar year next preceding, to be reported separately by the year the claim occurred, with allocated loss expense paid, to be reported separately by the year the claim occurred.

(g) The number of claims closed without payment to the claimant during the calendar year next preceding, by the year the claim occurred, and the allocated loss expense paid thereon, separately by the year the claim occurred.

(h) The monetary amount reserved in the annual statement for the calendar year next preceding on claims incurred but not reported to the insurer.

(i) The number of lawsuits filed against the insurer's insureds, and the number of doctors included therein, during the calendar year next preceding, to be separately reported by the year the claim occurred.

(j) A distribution by size of payment for those claims closed during the calendar year next preceding, showing the number of claims and total amount paid for each monetary category, as determined by the commissioner.

SEC. 96. Section 12762 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

12762. (a) A home protection contract shall specify, in clear and conspicuous terms, the following information:

(1) Each of the appliances, systems and components covered by the contract.

(2) All exclusions and limitations respecting the extent of coverage.

(3) The period during which the contract will remain in effect, the protection contract fee and the renewal terms, if any.

(4) With respect to the performance of services by the home protection company, all of the following:

(A) The services to be performed by the company and the terms and conditions of such performance.

(B) The service fee or fees, if any, to be charged for such services.

(C) All limitations respecting the performance of services, including any restrictions as to the time period when or geographical area within which services may be requested or will be performed.

(D) A statement that services will be performed upon telephonic request therefor to the company, without any requirement that claim forms or applications be filed prior to the rendition of service.

(E) A representation that services will be initiated by or under the direction of the company within 48 hours after request is made for such services by any person entitled to make such request under the contract, or the agent of such person.

(b) The commissioner may adopt, pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, such reasonable regulations as may be necessary to make more specific the provisions of this section. Those regulations may also establish such other contract form standards and requirements as the commissioner may deem necessary and appropriate in the public interest. However, this section does not authorize the commissioner to specify those appliances, systems, or components which must be covered by a home protection contract except to the extent necessary to guarantee the equity of the exclusions from coverage offered or provided under a contract, or to the extent necessary to avoid illusory coverage due to the nature or extent of exclusions from the contract.

SEC. 97. Section 51 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

51. The department shall be conducted under the control of an executive officer known as Director of Industrial Relations. The Director of Industrial Relations shall be appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate and hold office at the pleasure of the Governor and shall receive an annual salary provided for by Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 11550) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 98. Section 103 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

103. The Labor Commissioner shall, to the extent provided for by any reciprocal agreement entered into pursuant to Section 64, or by the laws of any other state, maintain actions in the courts of the other state for the collection of the claims for wages, judgments, and other demands and may assign the claims, judgments, and demands to the labor department or agency of the other state for collection to the extent that they may be permitted or provided for by the laws of that state or by reciprocal agreement.

SEC. 99. Section 1144 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

1144. The board may from time to time make, amend, and rescind, in the manner prescribed in Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out this part.

SEC. 100. Section 1700.36 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

1700.36. No talent agency shall accept any application for employment made by or on behalf of any minor, as defined by subdivision (c) of Section 1286, or shall place or assist in placing any such minor in any employment whatever in violation of Part 4 (commencing with Section 1171).

SEC. 101. Section 1720.3 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

1720.3. For the limited purposes of Article 2 (commencing with Section 1770), "public works" also means the hauling of refuse from a public works site to an outside disposal location, with respect to contracts involving any state agency, including the California State University and the University of California.

SEC. 102. Section 4650.5 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4650.5. Notwithstanding Section 4650, in the case of state civil service employees, employees of the Regents of the University of California, and employees of the Board of Trustees of the California State University, the disability payment shall be made from the first day the injured employee leaves work as a result of the injury, if the injury is the result of a criminal act of violence against the employee.

SEC. 103. Section 4700 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4700. The death of an injured employee does not affect the liability of the employer under Articles 2 (commencing with Section 4600) and 3 (commencing with Section 4650). Neither temporary nor permanent disability payments shall be made for any period of time subsequent to the death of the employee. Any accrued and unpaid compensation shall be paid to the dependents, or, if there are no dependents, to the personal representative of the deceased employee or heirs or other persons entitled thereto, without administration.

SEC. 104. Section 4702 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4702. Except as otherwise provided in this section and in Sections 4553, 4554, 4557, and 4558, the death benefit in cases of total dependency, when added to all accrued disability indemnity, shall be as follows:

(a) In the case of two or more total dependents and regardless of the number of partial dependents, eighty-five thousand dollars ($85,000), if the injury resulting in death occurred on and after January 1, 1983, or ninety-five thousand dollars ($95,000), if the injury occurred on and after January 1, 1984.

(b) In the case of one total dependent and one or more partial dependents, sixty thousand dollars ($60,000), if the injury resulting in death occurred on and after January 1, 1983, or seventy thousand dollars ($70,000), if the injury occurred on and after January 1, 1984, plus four times the amount annually devoted to the support of the partial dependents, but not more than a total of eighty-five thousand dollars ($85,000), if the injury resulting in death occurred on and after January 1, 1983, or ninety-five thousand dollars ($95,000), if the injury occurred on and after January 1, 1984.

(c) In the case of one total dependent and no partial dependents, sixty thousand dollars ($60,000), if the injury resulting in death occurred on and after January 1, 1983, or seventy thousand dollars ($70,000), if the injury occurred on and after January 1, 1984.

(d) In the case of no total dependents and one or more partial dependents, four times the amount annually devoted to the support of the partial dependents, but not more than a total of sixty thousand dollars ($60,000), if the injury resulting in death occurred on and after January 1, 1983, or seventy thousand dollars ($70,000) if the injury occurred on and after January 1, 1984.

The death benefit in all cases shall be paid in installments in the same manner and amounts as temporary disability indemnity, payments to be made at least twice each calendar month, unless the appeals board otherwise orders.

Disability indemnity shall not be deducted from the death benefit and shall be paid in addition to the death benefit when the original injury resulting in death occurs after September 30, 1949.

Every computation made pursuant to this section shall be made only with reference to death resulting from an original injury sustained on and after January 1, 1983. However, all rights presently existing under this section shall be continued in force.

SEC. 105. Section 4706.5 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4706.5. (a) Whenever any fatal injury is suffered by an employee under such circumstances as to entitle the employee to compensation benefits, but for his or her death, and the employee does not leave surviving any person entitled to a dependency death benefit, the employer shall pay a sum to the Department of Industrial Relations equal to the total dependency death benefit that would be payable to a surviving spouse with no dependent minor children.

(b) Where the deceased employee leaves no surviving dependent, personal representative, heir, or other person entitled to the accrued and unpaid compensation referred to in Section 4700, the accrued and unpaid compensation shall be paid by the employer to the Department of Industrial Relations.

(c) The payments to be made to the Department of Industrial Relations, as required by subdivisions (a) and (b), shall be deposited in the General Fund and shall be credited, as a reimbursement, to any appropriation to the Department of Industrial Relations for payment of the additional compensation for subsequent injury provided in Article 5 (commencing with Section 4750), in the fiscal year in which the Controller's receipt is issued.

(d) The payments to be made to the Department of Industrial Relations, as required by subdivision (a), shall be paid to the department in a lump sum in the manner provided in subdivision (b) of Section 5101.

(e) The Department of Industrial Relations shall keep a record of all payments due the state under this section, and shall take such steps as may be necessary to collect those amounts.

(f) Each employer, or the employer's insurance carrier, shall notify the administrative director, in such form as the administrative director may prescribe, of each employee death, except when the employer has actual knowledge or notice that the deceased employee left a surviving dependent.

(g) When, after a reasonable search, the employer concludes that the deceased employee left no one surviving who is entitled to a dependency death benefit, and concludes that the death was under such circumstances as to entitle the employee to compensation benefits, the employer may voluntarily make the payment referred to in subdivision (a). Payments so made shall be construed as payments made pursuant to an appeals board findings and award. Thereafter, if the appeals board finds that the deceased employee did in fact leave a person surviving who is entitled to a dependency death benefit, upon that finding, all payments referred to in subdivision (a) which have been made shall be forthwith returned to the employer, or if insured, to the employer's workers' compensation carrier that indemnified the employer for the loss.

SEC. 106. Section 4721 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4721. The surviving spouse or dependent minor children of an elected public official who is killed by assassination shall be entitled to a special death benefit which shall be in addition to any other benefits provided for by this division or Division 4.5 (commencing with Section 6100).

SEC. 107. Section 4723 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4723. The person or persons to whom the special death benefit is payable pursuant to Section 4722 shall, within one year of the date of death of the elected public official, choose either of the following benefits:

(a) An annual benefit equal to one-half of the average annual salary paid to the elected public official in his or her elected capacity, less credit for any other death benefit provided for under existing law or by public funds, except benefits payable pursuant to this division or Division 4.5 (commencing with Section 6100). Payments shall be paid not less frequently than monthly, and shall be paid from the date of death until the spouse dies or remarries, or until the youngest minor dependent child reaches the age of 18 years, whichever occurs last. If payments are being made to a dependent parent or parents they shall continue during dependency.

(b) A lump-sum benefit of one hundred fifty thousand dollars

($150,000), less any other death benefit provided for under existing law or by public funds, except benefits payable pursuant to this division or Division 4.5 (commencing with Section 6100).

SEC. 108. Section 4903.2 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4903.2. Where a lien claimant is reimbursed pursuant to subdivision (f) or (g) of Section 4903 or Section 4903.1, for benefits paid or services provided, the appeals board may award an attorney's fee to the applicant's attorney out of the lien claimant's recovery if the appeals board determines that all of the following occurred:

(a) The lien claimant received notice of all hearings following the filing of the lien and received notice of intent to award the applicant's attorney a fee.

(b) An attorney or other representative of the lien claimant did not participate in the proceedings before the appeals board with respect to the lien claim.

(c) There were bona fide issues respecting compensability, or respecting allowability of the lien, such that the services of an attorney were reasonably required to effectuate recovery on the claim of lien and were instrumental in effecting the recovery.

(d) The case was not disposed of by compromise and release.

The amount of the attorney's fee out of the lien claimant's recovery shall be based on the extent of applicant's attorney's efforts on behalf of the lien claimant. The ratio of the amount of the attorney's fee awarded against the lien claimant's recovery to that recovery shall not exceed the ratio of the amount of the attorney's fee awarded against the applicant's award to that award.

SEC. 109. Section 5455 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

5455. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit any party from filing an application for benefits under this division. In any proceeding pursuant to such application, the admissibility of written evidence or reports submitted by any party pursuant to this chapter, or Section 5502, shall be governed by Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 5700).

SEC. 110. Section 5600 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

5600. The appeals board may, upon the filing of an application by or on behalf of an injured employee, the employee's dependents, or any other party in interest, direct the county clerk of any county to issue writs of attachment authorizing the sheriff to attach the property of the defendant as security for the payment of any compensation which may be awarded in any of the following cases:

(a) In any case mentioned in Section 415.50 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(b) Where the employer has failed to secure the payment of compensation as required by Article 1 (commencing with Section 3700) of Chapter 4 of Part 1.

The attachment shall be in an amount fixed by the appeals board, not exceeding the greatest probable award against the defendant in the matter.

SEC. 111. Section 6304.4 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

6304.4. A prisoner engaged in correctional industry, as defined by the Department of Corrections, shall not be considered an employee for purposes of the provisions relating to appeal proceedings set forth in Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 6600).

SEC. 112. Section 6396 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

6396. (a) The Director of Industrial Relations shall protect from disclosure any and all trade secrets coming into his or her possession, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 6254.7 of the Government Code, when requested in writing or by appropriate stamping or marking of documents by the manufacturer or producer of a mixture.

(b) Any information reported to or otherwise obtained by the Director of Industrial Relations, or any of his or her representatives or employees, which is exempt from disclosure under subdivision (a), shall not be disclosed to anyone except an officer or employee of the state or of the United States of America, in connection with the official duties of that officer or employee under any law for the protection of health, or to contractors with the state and their employees if in the opinion of the director the disclosure is necessary and required for the satisfactory performance of a contract for performance of work in connection with this act.

(c) Any officer or employee of the state, or former officer or employee, who by virtue of that employment or official position has obtained possession of or has access to material the disclosure of which is prohibited by this section, and who knowing that disclosure of the material is prohibited, knowingly and willfully discloses the material in any manner to any person not entitled to receive it, is guilty of a misdemeanor. Any contractor with the state and any employee of that contractor, who has been furnished information as authorized by this section, shall be considered to be an employee of the state for purposes of this section.

(d) Information certified to by appropriate officials of the United States, as necessarily kept secret for national defense purposes, shall be accorded the full protections against disclosure as specified by that official or in accordance with the laws of the United States.

(e) (1) The director, upon his or her own initiative, or upon receipt of a request pursuant to the California Public Records Act, (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code) for the release of data submitted and designated as a trade secret by an employer, manufacturer, or producer of a mixture, shall determine whether any or all of the data so submitted are a properly designated trade secret.

(2) If the director determines that the data is not a trade secret, the director shall notify the employer, manufacturer, or producer of a mixture by certified mail.

(3) The employer, manufacturer, or producer of a mixture shall have 15 days after receipt of notification to provide the director with a complete justification and statement of the grounds on which the trade secret privilege is claimed. This justification and statement shall be submitted by certified mail.

(4) The director shall determine whether the data are protected as a trade secret within 15 days after receipt of the justification and statement, or if no justification and statement is filed, within 30 days of the original notice, and shall notify the employer or manufacturer and any party who has requested the data pursuant to the California Public Records Act of that determination by certified mail. If the director determines that the data are not protected as a trade secret, the final notice shall also specify a date, not sooner than 15 days after the date of mailing of the final notice, when the data shall be available to the public.

(5) Prior to the date specified in the final notice, an employer, manufacturer, or producer of a mixture may institute an action in an appropriate superior court for a declaratory judgment as to whether the data are subjected to protection under subdivision (a).

(f) This section does not authorize a manufacturer to refuse to disclose information required pursuant to this chapter to the director.

SEC. 113. Section 6403 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

6403. No employer shall fail or neglect to do any of the following:

(a) To provide and use safety devices and safeguards reasonably adequate to render the employment and place of employment safe.

(b) To adopt and use methods and processes reasonably adequate to render the employment and place of employment safe.

(c) To do every other thing reasonably necessary to protect the life, safety, and health of employees.

SEC. 114. Section 6410 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

6410. The reports required by subdivision (a) of Section 6409, subdivision (a) of Section 6409.1, and Section 6413 shall be made in the form and detail and within the time limits prescribed by reasonable rules and regulations adopted by the Division of Labor Statistics and Research in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

Nothing in this chapter requiring recordkeeping and reporting by employers shall relieve the employer of maintaining records and making reports to the assistant secretary, United States Department of Labor, as required under the Federal Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970 (P.L. 91-596). The Division of Labor Statistics and Research shall prescribe and provide the forms necessary for maintenance of the required records, and the Division of Occupational Safety and Health shall enforce by citation and penalty assessment any violation of the recordkeeping requirements of this chapter.

All state and local government employers shall maintain records and make reports in the same manner and to the same extent as required of other employers by this section.

SEC. 115. Section 6413 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

6413. (a) The Department of Corrections, and every physician or surgeon who attends any injured state prisoner, shall file with the Division of Labor Statistics and Research a complete report of every injury to each state prisoner, not reported pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 6409 or Section 6409.1, resulting from any labor performed by the prisoner unless disability resulting from such injury does not last through the day or does not require medical service other than ordinary first aid treatment. The Division of Labor Statistics and Research may, in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, adopt reasonable rules and regulations prescribing the details and time limits of the report.

(b) Where the injury results in death a report, in addition to the report required by subdivision (a), shall forthwith be made by the Department of Corrections to the Division of Labor Statistics and Research by telephone or telegraph.

(c) Except as provided in Section 6304.2, nothing in this section or in this code shall be deemed to make a prisoner an employee, for any purpose, of the Department of Corrections.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), no physician or surgeon who attends any injured state prisoner outside of a Department of Corrections institution shall be required to file the report required by subdivision (a), but the Department of Corrections shall file the report.

SEC. 116. Section 6454 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

6454. The division may, in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, make such rules and regulations as are reasonably necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter and to establish rules and regulations relating to the granting or denial of temporary variances.

SEC. 117. Section 6500 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

6500. For those employments or places of employment which by their nature involve a substantial risk of injury, the division shall require the issuance of a permit prior to the initiation of any practices, work, method, operation, or process of employment. The employment or places of employment shall be limited to any of the following:

(a) Construction of trenches or excavations which are five feet or deeper and into which a person is required to descend.

(b) The construction of any building, structure, falsework, or scaffolding more than three stories high or the equivalent height.

(c) The demolition of any building, structure, falsework, or scaffold more than three stories high or the equivalent height.

SEC. 118. Section 6650 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

6650. After the exhaustion of the review procedures provided for in Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 6600), the director may apply to the appropriate superior court for an order directing payment of a civil penalty. The application, which shall include a certified copy of the notice of civil penalty or the decision of the appeals board, shall constitute a sufficient showing to warrant the issuance of the order.

SEC. 119. Section 7655 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

7655. The division shall prepare and adopt regulations in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act provided for in Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, designed to promote safety with respect to the installation and operation of vendor facilities for the storage and pumping of compressed or liquefied natural gas and liquefied petroleum gas into vehicles.

SEC. 120. Section 987.8 of the Penal Code, as amended by Section 3 of Chapter 966 of the Statutes of 1982, is amended to read:

987.8. (a) In any case in which a defendant is provided legal assistance, either through the public defender or private counsel appointed by the court, upon conclusion of the criminal proceedings in the trial court, or upon the withdrawal of the public defender or appointed private counsel, the court may, after notice and a hearing, make a determination of the present ability of the defendant to pay all or a portion of the cost thereof. The court may, in its discretion, hold one such additional hearing within six months of the conclusion of the criminal proceedings. The court may, in its discretion, order the defendant to appear before a county officer designated by the court to make an inquiry into the ability of the defendant to pay all or a portion of the legal assistance provided.

(b) In any case in which the defendant hires counsel replacing a publicly provided attorney; in which the public defender or appointed counsel was required by the court to proceed with the case after a determination by the public defender that the defendant is not indigent; or, in which the defendant, at the conclusion of the case, appears to have sufficient assets to repay, without undue hardship, all or a portion of the cost of the legal assistance provided to him or her, by monthly installments or otherwise; the court shall make a determination of the defendant's ability to pay as provided in subdivision (a), and may, in its discretion, make other orders as provided in that subdivision.

This subdivision shall be operative in a county only upon the adoption of a resolution by the board of supervisors to that effect.

(c) If the defendant, after having been ordered to appear before a county officer, has been given proper notice and fails to appear before a county officer within 20 working days, the county officer shall recommend to the court that the full cost of the legal assistance shall be ordered to be paid by the defendant. The notice to the defendant shall contain all of the following:

(1) A statement of the cost of the legal assistance provided to the defendant as determined by the court.

(2) The defendant's procedural rights under this section.

(3) The time limit within which the defendant's response is required.

(4) A warning that if the defendant fails to appear before the designated officer, the officer will recommend that the court order the defendant to pay the full cost of the legal assistance provided to him or her.

(d) At a hearing, the defendant shall be entitled to, but shall not be limited to, all of the following rights:

(1) The right to be heard in person.

(2) The right to present witnesses and other documentary evidence.

(3) The right to confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses.

(4) The right to have the evidence against him or her disclosed to him or her.

(5) The right to a written statement of the findings of the court.

If the court determines that the defendant has the present ability to pay all or a part of the cost, the court shall set the amount to be reimbursed and order the defendant to pay the sum to the county in the manner in which the court believes reasonable and compatible with the defendant's financial ability. Failure of a defendant who is not in custody to appear after due notice is a sufficient basis for an order directing the defendant to pay the full cost of the legal assistance determined by the court. The order to pay all or a part of the costs may be enforced in the manner provided for enforcement of money judgments generally but may not be enforced by contempt.

Any order entered under this subdivision is subject to relief under Section 473 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(e) Prior to the furnishing of counsel or legal assistance by the court, the court shall give notice to the defendant that the court may, after a hearing, make a determination of the present ability of the defendant to pay all or a portion of the cost of counsel. The court shall also give notice that, if the court determines that the defendant has the present ability, the court shall order him or her to pay all or a part of the cost. The notice shall inform the defendant that the order shall have the same force and effect as a judgment in a civil action and shall be subject to enforcement against the property of the defendant in the same manner as any other money judgment.

(f) As used in this section:

(1) "Legal assistance" means legal counsel and supportive services including, but not limited to, medical and psychiatric examinations, investigative services, expert testimony, or any other form of services provided to assist the defendant in the preparation and presentation of the defendant's case.

(2) "Ability to pay" means the overall capability of the defendant to reimburse the costs, or a portion of the costs, of the legal assistance provided to him or her, and shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(A) The defendant's present financial position.

(B) The defendant's reasonably discernible future financial position. In no event shall the court consider a period of more than six months from the date of the hearing for purposes of determining the defendant's reasonably discernible future financial position. Unless the court finds unusual circumstances, a defendant sentenced to state prison shall be determined not to have a reasonably discernible future financial ability to reimburse the costs of his or her defense.

(C) The likelihood that the defendant shall be able to obtain employment within a six-month period from the date of the hearing.

(D) Any other factor or factors which may bear upon the defendant's financial capability to reimburse the county for the costs of the legal assistance provided to the defendant.

(g) At any time during the pendency of the judgment rendered according to the terms of this section, a defendant against whom a judgment has been rendered may petition the rendering court to modify or vacate its previous judgment on the grounds of a change in circumstances with regard to the defendant's ability to pay the judgment. The court shall advise the defendant of this right at the time it renders the judgment.

(h) This section shall apply to all proceedings, including contempt proceedings, in which the party is represented by a public defender or appointed counsel.

SEC. 121. Section 1170.8 of the Penal Code, as added by Chapter 964 of the Statutes of 1982, is amended and renumbered to read:

1170.9. In the case of any person convicted of a felony who would otherwise be sentenced to state prison the court shall consider whether the defendant was a member of the military forces of the United States who served in combat in Vietnam and who suffers from substance abuse or psychological problems resulting from that service. If the court concludes that the defendant is such a person, the court may order the defendant committed to the custody of federal correctional officials for incarceration for a term equivalent to that which the defendant would have served in state prison. The court may make such a commitment only if the defendant agrees to such a commitment, the court has determined that appropriate federal programs exist, and federal law authorizes the receipt of the defendant under such conditions.

SEC. 122. Section 1170.8 of the Penal Code, as added by Chapter 1296 of the Statutes of 1982, is amended and renumbered to read:

1170.95. (a) Notwithstanding Section 1170.1 relating to the maximum total of subordinate terms for consecutive offenses which are not "violent felonies," the total of the subordinate terms for consecutive offenses which are all residential burglaries may exceed five years but shall not exceed 10 years.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 1170.1, the term of imprisonment may exceed twice the number of years imposed by the trial court as the base term pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1170 if the defendant stands convicted of at least two residential burglaries.

(c) As used in this section, "residential burglary" means burglary in the nighttime or a felony burglary in the daytime, of an inhabited dwelling house or trailer coach, as defined in Section 635 of the Vehicle Code, or the inhabited portion of any other building.

SEC. 123. Section 1603 of the Penal Code, as added by Section 2 of Chapter 1232 of the Statutes of 1982, is amended to read:

1603. Any person subject to subdivision (a) of Section 1601 may be placed on outpatient status if all of the following conditions are satisfied:

(a) The director of the state hospital or other treatment facility to which the person has been committed advises the committing court that the defendant is no longer likely to be a danger to the health and safety of others while on outpatient status, and will benefit from that status.

(b) The county mental health director advises the court that the defendant will benefit from that status, and identifies an appropriate program of supervision and treatment.

(c) After actual notice to the prosecutor and defense counsel, and after a hearing in court, the court specifically approves the recommendation and plan for outpatient status pursuant to Section 1604.

(d) This section shall become operative January 1, 1989.

SEC. 124. Section 608 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

608. The appraisalment shall be signed by the executor or administrator as to those assets appraised by him or her, and by the probate referee as to those assets appraised by him or her. The executor or administrator and the probate referee shall each subscribe his or her oath or statement under penalty of perjury that all items thereof which he or she has appraised have been truly, honestly, and impartially appraised to the best of his or her ability.

SEC. 125. Section 4799.10 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

4799.10. (a) The department is authorized to implement a program in urban forestry to encourage better tree management and planting in urban areas, to assist the cities in seeking innovative solutions to problems such as tree maintenance and vandalism, encourage demonstration projects to maximize the benefits of urban forests, and otherwise accomplish the purposes of this chapter.

The department shall assume the primary responsibility in carrying out the intent of this chapter in cooperation with other private and public entities or persons and appropriate local, state, and federal agencies such as the Cooperative Extension, the Department of Parks and Recreation, the Department of Transportation, resource conservation districts, and the United States Forest Service.

(b) The department shall be the agent of the state and shall have full power to cooperate with those agencies of the federal government which have powers and duties concerning urban forestry, and shall perform all things necessary to secure for this state the benefits of federal urban forestry programs.

To facilitate implementation of this chapter, the director is authorized to enter into agreements and contracts with any public or private organization including local agencies having forestry-related jurisdictional responsibilities and established and operating urban forestry programs. The director shall consult with those agencies when carrying out the provisions of this chapter in their respective areas.

(c) The director shall take all steps necessary to prevent or retard the introduction, establishment, and spread of the Dutch elm disease including the detection and removal of infected and high-hazard elm trees.

The department and the Department of Food and Agriculture shall cooperate in setting quarantine boundary lines and in enforcing the provisions relating to quarantine and pest abatement contained in Division 4 (commencing with Section 5001) of the Food and Agricultural Code when a quarantine is established with regard to the Dutch elm disease.

(d) The department may use available recipients of the Aid to Families with Dependent Children or General Assistance Program who are participating in state or county work experience programs for carrying out the purposes of this chapter. The participation of Work Incentive Program registrants shall be consistent with their employability development plan. Persons being used by the department pursuant to this subdivision shall not be in the same crew as persons being used pursuant to subdivision (e).

(e) Whenever it is feasible to do so, the department may utilize inmates and wards assigned to conservation camps in implementing this chapter.

SEC. 126. Section 9965 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

9965. (a) The Legislature finds that compliance with the mandated regulations of the district will produce public benefits by improving wildlife habitat in the primary management area and that providing public funds to partially offset the costs of complying with those regulations would serve a valid public purpose. Assistance under this section shall not be treated as taxable income to a private landowner.

(b) Each year the district shall submit to the department an estimate of an amount sufficient to reimburse the private landowners in the primary management area for 50 percent of the operation and maintenance costs which it anticipates they will incur the following fiscal year in carrying out this chapter and Division 19 (commencing with Section 29000). Funds for this purpose shall not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) per individual ownership. The funds shall be included in the budget of the department payable from the Wildlife Restoration Fund and shall be available to the department for disbursement to the private landowners in accordance with subdivision (c).

(c) Each fiscal year, any private landowner in the primary management area who desires to qualify for the assistance provided by this section shall, by December 31, submit to the district a claim for those costs incurred that calendar year in carrying out the operation and maintenance activities specified in that landowner's individual ownership management program. Each claim shall be accompanied by substantiating documents, as determined by the district. The district shall review each claim to determine its appropriateness by, including, but not limited to, an onsite inspection to establish that the physical improvements or management procedures for which a claim is submitted have been satisfactorily completed. The district shall submit the individual ownership claims to the department for review and approval for payment equal to 50 percent of each claim. However, no payment shall exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000). In any fiscal year in which the funds appropriated for purposes of this section are insufficient to pay 50 percent of each claim, the department shall pay all approved claims on a pro rata basis. In any fiscal year in which no funds are appropriated for purposes of this section, the department shall pay no claims.

SEC. 127. Section 304 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

304. The annual salary of each commissioner is provided for by Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 11550) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. The commissioners shall be civil executive officers, and their salaries as fixed by law shall be paid in the same manner as are the salaries of other state officers.

SEC. 128. Section 705 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

705. Whenever in Articles 2 (commencing with Section 726), 3 (commencing with Section 761), and 4 (commencing with Section 791) a hearing by the commission is required, the hearing may be had either upon complaint or upon motion of the commission.

SEC. 129. Section 1906 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

1906. All fees collected under this chapter shall be paid, except as provided in Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 5001) of Division 2, at least once each month into the State Treasury to the credit of the General Fund.

SEC. 130. Section 2702 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

2702. Any corporation or association which is organized for the purpose of delivering water solely to its stockholders or members at cost, and which delivers water to others than its stockholders or members, or to the state or any department or agency thereof or any school district, or to any other mutual water company, for compensation, is a public utility and is subject to Part 1 (commencing with Section 201) and to the jurisdiction, control, and regulation of the commission.

SEC. 131. Section 2703 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

2703. Any corporation or association which is organized both for the purpose of delivering water to its stockholders or members at cost, and to persons, firms, corporations, municipalities, or other political subdivisions of the state, is a public utility and is subject to Part 1 (commencing with Section 201) and to the jurisdiction, control, and regulation of the commission.

SEC. 132. Section 2707 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

2707. For the purpose of determining the status of any person, firm, or corporation, their lessees, trustees, receivers or trustees appointed by any court, owning, controlling, operating, or managing any water system or water supply within this state, the commission may hold hearings and issue process and orders in the manner and to the same extent as provided in Part 1 (commencing with Section 201), and the findings and conclusions of the commission on questions of fact arising under this chapter are final and not subject to review, except as provided in Part 1 (commencing with Section 201).

SEC. 133. Section 3904 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

3904. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions and general provisions set forth in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 3501) govern the construction of this chapter.

SEC. 134. Section 5162 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

5162. The protection required under this article shall be evidenced by the deposit of any of the following with the commission covering each vehicle used, or to be used, under the permit applied for:

(a) A policy of insurance, issued by a company licensed to write such insurance in this state, or by nonadmitted insurers subject to Section 1763 of the Insurance Code, if the policies meet the rules promulgated therefor by the commission.

(b) A bond of a surety company licensed to write surety bonds in the state.

(c) Such evidence of the qualification of the household goods carrier as a self-insurer as may be authorized by the commission.

SEC. 135. Section 5164 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

5164. The protection against liability shall be continued in effect during the active life of the permit. The policy of insurance or surety bond shall not be cancelable on less than 30 days' written notice to the commission.

SEC. 136. Section 5392 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

5392. The protection required under Section 5391 shall be evidenced by the deposit of any of the following with the commission covering each vehicle used or to be used under the certificate or permit applied for:

(a) Of a policy of insurance, issued by a company licensed to write such insurance in this state, or by nonadmitted insurers subject to Section 1763 of the Insurance Code, if the policies meet the rules promulgated therefor by the commission.

(b) Of a bond of a surety company licensed to write surety bonds in the state.

(c) Such evidence of the qualification of the charter-party carrier of passengers as a self-insurer as may be authorized by the commission.

SEC. 137. Section 5504 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

5504. This article does not apply to any person licensed under Article 1 (commencing with Section 11701) of Chapter 4 of Division 6 of the Food and Agricultural Code with respect to that person's operation of an aircraft for the purpose of applying pest control materials or substances by dusting, spraying, or any other manner whereby the materials or substances are applied through the medium of aircraft. That person is subject to Article 2 (commencing with Section 11931) of Chapter 5 of Division 6 of the Food and Agricultural Code with respect to that aircraft operation.

SEC. 138. Section 99314.3 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

99314.3. (a) The amount received by each transportation planning agency and county transportation commission, and the San Diego Metropolitan Transit Development Board, pursuant to Section 99314 shall be allocated to the operators in the area of its jurisdiction.

(b) The amount allocated to each operator pursuant to this section shall be based on the ratio of its revenue during the prior fiscal year to the total revenue of all the operators during the prior fiscal year within the area of jurisdiction of the allocating agency, commission, or board, as the case may be.

(c) For purposes of subdivision (a), the City and County of San Francisco with respect to its municipal railway system, the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District, and the San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit District shall be considered one operator. The amount allocated to them as one operator shall be apportioned to each of them based on the ratio of its revenue to the sum of their revenues, excluding from the determination of that ratio the amount allocated to each of them pursuant to Section 29142.2.

SEC. 139. Section 100055.4 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

100055.4. Section 851 does not apply to any contract for sale or sale of an existing system, or any portion thereof, pursuant to this chapter, and the Public Utilities Commission has no jurisdiction with respect thereto.

SEC. 140. Section 102304 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

102304. Section 851 does not apply to any contract for sale or sale of an existing system, or any portion thereof, pursuant to this chapter, and the Public Utilities Commission has no jurisdiction with respect thereto.

SEC. 141. Section 102571 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

102571. Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 99000) of Part 11 applies to the district.

SEC. 142. Section 12631 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

12631. Any insurer who fails to pay any tax, except a tax determined as a deficiency assessment by the board under Article 3 (commencing with Section 12421) of Chapter 4, within the time required, shall pay a penalty of 10 percent of the amount of the tax in addition to the tax, plus interest at the adjusted annual rate established pursuant to Section 19269 from the due date of the tax until the date of payment.

SEC. 143. Section 17052.4 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 155 of Chapter 454 of the Statutes of 1982, is amended and renumbered to read:

17052.1. (a) (1) There shall be allowed as a credit against the amount of net tax imposed by this part an amount equal to 50 percent of the cost incurred by the taxpayer during the taxable year for the acquisition and installation of solar pumping systems used in agricultural irrigation on premises in California.

(2) A husband and wife shall receive but one credit under this section. If the husband and wife file separate returns, the credit may be taken by either or equally divided between them.

(3) The basis of any solar pumping system for which a credit is allowed shall be reduced by the amount of the credit. The basis adjustment shall be made for the taxable year for which the credit is allowed.

(4) The credit provided by this section for the cost incurred by the taxpayer for the acquisition and installation of solar pumping systems shall be in lieu of any credit under Section 17052.5 to which the taxpayer otherwise may be entitled, if any.

(b) The amount of credits allowed by this section shall not exceed seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) for each solar pumping system.

(c) If in the case where the credit allowed under this section exceeds the "net tax" for the taxable year, that portion of the credit which exceeds such "net tax" may be carried over to the "net tax" in succeeding taxable years, with respect to which this section shall remain in effect for purposes of carrying over excess credit, until the credit is used. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest years possible.

(d) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Installation" means placing in position in a functionally operative state.

(2) "Net tax" means the tax imposed under Section 17041 or 17048 minus all credits except the credits provided by Sections 17061

(relating to state disability insurance withheld), 18551.1 (relating to income tax withheld), and 17053.5 (relating to the renters' credit).

(3) "Solar pumping system" includes, but is not limited to, active thermal systems, photovoltaic systems, and any other system which converts solar energy into electrical or mechanical energy for purposes of driving an irrigation pump. "Solar pumping system" also includes the ancillary components necessary for the installation and operation of the system.

(e) The Franchise Tax Board, in determining the eligibility of a solar pumping system for which a taxpayer has filed a statement of election, may consult with the California Energy Commission regarding the technical qualifications of the equipment.

SEC. 144. Section 17056 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17056. For the purposes of this part, "dependents" means any of the following individuals over half of whose support, for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins, was received from the taxpayer (or is treated under Section 17058 or 17059.5 as received from the taxpayer):

- (a) A son or daughter of the taxpayer, or a descendant of either.
- (b) A stepson or stepdaughter of the taxpayer.
- (c) A brother, sister, stepbrother, or stepsister of the taxpayer.
- (d) The father or mother of the taxpayer or an ancestor of either.
- (e) A stepfather or stepmother of the taxpayer.
- (f) A son or daughter of a brother or sister of the taxpayer.
- (g) A brother or sister of the father or mother of the taxpayer.
- (h) A son-in-law, daughter-in-law, father-in-law, mother-in-law, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law of the taxpayer.

(i) An individual (other than an individual who at any time during the taxable year was the spouse, determined without regard to Section 17060, of the taxpayer) who, for the taxable year of the taxpayer, has as his or her principal place of abode the home of the taxpayer and is a member of the taxpayer's household.

SEC. 145. Section 17063.3 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17063.3. For purposes of subdivision (i) of Section 17063:

(a) "Straight line recovery of intangibles," when used with respect to intangible drilling and development costs for any well, means (except in the case of an election under subdivision (b)) ratable amortization of those costs over the 120-month period beginning with the month in which production from the well begins.

(b) If the taxpayer elects, at such time and in such manner as the Franchise Tax Board may by regulations prescribe, with respect to the intangible drilling and development costs for any well, "straight line recovery of intangibles" means any method which would be permitted for purposes of determining cost depletion with respect to such well and which is selected by the taxpayer for purposes of subdivision (i) of Section 17063.

SEC. 146. Section 17112.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17112.5. (a) In computing—

(1) The aggregate amount of premiums or other consideration paid for the contract for purposes of Section 17103(a) (1) (relating to the investment in the contract),

(2) The consideration for the contract contributed by the employee for purposes of Section 17104(a) (relating to employee's contributions recoverable in three years), and

(3) The aggregate premiums or other consideration paid for purposes of Section 17105 (relating to certain amounts not received as an annuity), any amount allowed as a deduction with respect to the contract under Sections 17513 to 17525, inclusive, which was paid while the employee was an employee within the meaning of Section 17502.2(a) shall be treated as consideration contributed by the employer, and there shall not be taken into account any portion of the premiums or other consideration for the contract paid while the employee was an owner-employee which is properly allocable (as determined under regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board) to the cost of life, accident, health, or other insurance.

(b) (1) This subdivision shall apply to any life insurance contract—

(A) Purchased as a part of a plan described in Section 17511, or

(B) Purchased by a trust described in Section 17501 which is exempt from tax under Section 17631 if the proceeds of the contract are payable directly or indirectly to a participant in the trust or to a beneficiary of the participant.

(2) Any contribution to plan described in paragraph (1) (A) or a trust described in paragraph (1) (B) which is allowed as a deduction under Sections 17513 to 17525, inclusive, which is determined in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board to have been applied to purchase the life insurance protection under a contract described in paragraph (1), is includable in the gross income of the participant for the taxable year when so applied.

(3) In the case of the death of an individual insured under a contract described in paragraph (1), an amount equal to the cash surrender value of the contract immediately before the death of the insured shall be treated as a payment under such plan or a distribution by such trust, and the excess of the amount payable by reason of the death of the insured over such cash surrender value shall not be includable in gross income under this chapter and shall be treated as provided in Section 17132.

(c) (1) If during any taxable year an owner-employee assigns (or agrees to assign) or pledges (or agrees to pledge) any portion of his or her interest in a trust described in Section 17501 which is exempt from tax under Section 17631, an individual retirement account described in Section 17530(a), an individual retirement annuity described in Section 17530(b) or any portion of the value of a contract purchased as part of a plan described in Section 17511, that portion shall be treated as having been received by the owner-employee as a distribution from the trust or as an amount received under the contract.

(2) If during any taxable year, an owner-employee receives, directly or indirectly, any amount from any insurance company as a loan under a contract purchased by a trust described in Section 17501 which is exempt from tax under Section 17631 or purchased as part of a plan described in Section 17511, and issued by that insurance company, that amount shall be treated as an amount received under the contract.

(d) (1) This subdivision shall apply—

(A) To amounts (other than any amount received by an individual in his capacity as a policyholder of an annuity, endowment, or life insurance contract which is in the nature of a dividend or similar distribution) which are received from a qualified trust described in Section 17501 or under a plan described in Section 17511 and which are received by an individual, who is, or has been, an owner-employee, before the individual attains the age of 59½ years, for any reason other than the individual's becoming disabled (within the meaning of subdivision (f)), but only to the extent that the amounts are attributable to contributions paid on behalf of that individual (other than contributions made by that individual as an owner-employee) while the individual was an owner-employee, and

(B) To amounts which are received from a qualified trust described in Section 17501 or under a plan described in Section 17511 at any time by an individual who is, or has been, an owner-employee, or by the successor of that individual, but only to the extent that the amounts are determined, under regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board, to exceed the benefits provided for that individual under the plan formula, and

(2) If a person receives an amount to which this subdivision applies, that person's tax under this part for the taxable year in which that amount is received shall be increased by an amount equal to 2.5 percent of the portion of the amount so received which is includable in that person's gross income for the taxable year.

(e) For purposes of this section, "owner-employee" has the meaning assigned to it by Section 17502.2(c) and includes an individual for whose benefit an individual retirement account or annuity described in Section 17530(a) or (b) is maintained.

(f) For purposes of this chapter, an individual shall be considered to be disabled if that individual is unable to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or to be of long-continued and indefinite duration. An individual shall not be considered to be disabled unless that individual furnishes proof of the existence thereof in such form and manner as the Franchise Tax Board may require.

SEC. 147. Section 17155 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17155. (a) At the election of the taxpayer, gross income shall not include gain from the sale or exchange of property if:

(1) The taxpayer has attained the age of 55 before the date of the sale or exchange, and

(2) During the five-year period ending on the date of the sale or exchange, the property has been owned and used by the taxpayer as his or her principal residence for periods which cumulatively total three years or more.

(b) The amount of the gain excluded from gross income under subdivision (a) shall not exceed one hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($125,000) (sixty-two thousand five hundred dollars ($62,500) in the case of a separate return by a married individual).

(c) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to any sale or exchange by the taxpayer if an election by the taxpayer or the taxpayer's spouse under subdivision (a) with respect to any other sale or exchange is in effect.

(d) An election under subdivision (a) may be made or revoked at any time before the expiration of the period for making a claim for credit or refund of the tax imposed by this part for the taxable year in which the sale or exchange occurred, and shall be made or revoked in such manner as the Franchise Tax Board shall prescribe. In the case of a taxpayer who is married, an election under subdivision (a) or a revocation of an election made under subdivision (a) may be made only if the taxpayer's spouse joins in the election or revocation.

(e) (1) For purposes of this section, if:

(A) Property is held by a husband and wife as joint tenants, tenants by the entirety, or community property,

(B) The husband and wife make a joint return under Section 18402 for the taxable year of the sale or exchange, and

(C) One spouse satisfies the holding and use requirements of subdivision (a) with respect to the property, then both husband and wife shall be treated as satisfying the holding and use requirements of subdivision (a) with respect to the property.

(2) For purposes of this section, in the case of an unmarried individual whose spouse is deceased on the date of the sale or exchange of property, if:

(A) The deceased spouse (during the five-year period ending on the date of the sale or exchange) satisfied the holding and use requirements of subdivision (a) with respect to the property, and

(B) No election by the deceased spouse under subdivision (a) is in effect with respect to a prior sale or exchange then the individual shall be treated as satisfying the holding and use requirements of subdivision (a) with respect to the property.

(3) For purposes of this section, if the taxpayer holds stock as a tenant-stockholder (as defined in Section 17265) in a cooperative housing corporation (as defined in that section) then:

(A) The holding requirements of subdivision (a) shall be applied to the holding of that stock, and

(B) The use requirements of subdivision (a) shall be applied to the house or apartment which the taxpayer was entitled to occupy as the stockholder.

(4) For purposes of this section, the destruction, theft, seizure, requisition, or condemnation of property shall be treated as the sale of the property.

(5) In the case of property only a portion of which, during the five-year period ending on the date of the sale or exchange, has been owned and used by the taxpayer as his or her principal residence for periods aggregating three years or more, this section shall apply with respect to so much of the gain from the sale or exchange of the property as is determined, as prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board, to be attributable to the portion of the property so owned and used by the taxpayer.

(6) In the case of any sale or exchange, for purposes of this section:

(A) The determination of whether an individual is married shall be made as of the date of the sale or exchange; and

(B) An individual legally separated from his or her spouse under a decree of divorce, dissolution or of separate maintenance shall not be considered as married.

(7) In applying Sections 18082 (relating to involuntary conversions) and 18091 (relating to sale or exchange of residence), the amount realized from the sale or exchange of property shall be treated as being the amount determined without regard to this section, reduced by the amount of gain not included in gross income pursuant to an election under this section.

(8) If the basis of the property sold or exchanged is determined (in whole or in part) under Section 18088 (relating to basis of property acquired through involuntary conversion), then the holding and use by the taxpayer of the converted property shall be treated as holding and use by the taxpayer of the property sold or exchanged.

(f) The amendments made to this section by the act adding this subdivision shall apply to residences sold or exchanged in taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981.

SEC. 148. Section 17299 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17299. (a) Notwithstanding any other provisions in this part to the contrary, in the case of a taxpayer who derives rental income from substandard housing located in this state, no deduction shall be allowed for interest, taxes, depreciation, or amortization paid or incurred in the taxable year with respect to the substandard housing, except as provided in subdivision (e).

(b) "Substandard housing" means housing which (1) has been determined by a state or local government regulatory agency to violate state law or local codes dealing with health, safety, or building; and (2) after written notice of violation by the regulatory agency, specifying the applicability of this section, has not been brought to a condition of compliance within six months after the date of the notice or the time prescribed in the notice, whichever period is later; or on which good faith efforts for compliance have not been commenced, as determined by the regulatory agency. The regulatory agency may, for good cause shown, extend the compliance date prescribed in a violation notice.

(c) When the period specified in subdivision (b) has expired without compliance, the regulatory agency shall mail to the taxpayer a notice of noncompliance. The notice of noncompliance shall be in such form and shall include such information as may be prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board, shall be mailed by certified mail to the taxpayer at the taxpayer's last known address, and shall advise the taxpayer (1) of an intent to notify the Franchise Tax Board of the noncompliance within 10 days unless an appeal is filed, (2) where an appeal may be filed, and (3) a general description of the tax consequences of the filing with the Franchise Tax Board. Appeals shall be made to the same body and in the same manner as appeals from other actions of the regulatory agency. If no appeal is made within 10 days or after disposition of the appeal if the regulatory agency is sustained, the regulatory agency shall notify the Franchise Tax Board of the noncompliance. No deduction shall be allowed for the items provided in subdivision (a) from the date of the notice of noncompliance until the date the regulatory agency determines that the substandard housing has been brought to a condition of compliance. The regulatory agency shall mail to the Franchise Tax Board and the taxpayer a notice of compliance, which notice shall be in such form and include such information as may be prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board. In the event the period of noncompliance does not cover an entire taxable year, the deductions shall be denied at the rate of one-twelfth for each full month during the period of noncompliance.

If the property is owned by more than one owner or if recorded title is in the name of a fictitious owner, the notice requirements provided in subdivision (b) and this subdivision shall be satisfied for each owner if the notices are mailed to one owner or to the fictitious name owner at the address appearing on the latest available property tax bill. However, notices made pursuant to this subdivision shall not relieve the regulatory agency from furnishing taxpayer identification information required to implement this section to the Franchise Tax Board.

(d) For the purposes of this section, a notice of noncompliance shall not be mailed by the regulatory agency to the Franchise Tax Board if:

(1) The rental housing was rendered substandard solely by reason of earthquake, flood, or other natural disaster except where the condition remains for more than three years after the disaster,

(2) The owner of the rental housing has secured financing to bring the housing into compliance with those laws or codes which have been violated, causing the housing to be classified as substandard, and has commenced repairs or other work necessary to bring the housing into compliance or

(3) The owner of rental housing which is not within the meaning of housing accommodation as defined by subdivision (d) of Section 35805 of the Health and Safety Code has attempted to:

(A) Secure financing to bring such housing into compliance with those laws or codes which have been violated, causing such housing to be classified as substandard; and

(B) The financing is denied solely because the housing is located in a neighborhood or geographical area in which financial institutions do not provide financing for rehabilitation of any such housing.

(e) This section does not apply to deductions from income derived from property rendered substandard solely by reason of a change in applicable state or local housing standards unless the violations cause substantial danger to the occupants of the property, as determined by the regulatory agency which has served notice of violation pursuant to subdivision (b).

(f) The owner of rental housing found to be in noncompliance shall, upon total or partial divestiture of interest in the property, immediately notify the regulatory agency of the name and address of the person or persons to whom the property has been sold or otherwise transferred and the date of the sale or transference.

(g) By July 1st of each year, the regulatory agency shall report to the appropriate legislative body of its jurisdiction all of the following information, for the preceding calendar year, regarding its activities to secure code enforcement, which shall be public information:

(1) The number of written notices of violation issued for substandard dwellings under subdivision (b).

(2) The number of violations complied with within the period prescribed in subdivision (b).

(3) The number of notices of noncompliance issued pursuant to subdivision (c).

(4) The number of appeals from those notices pursuant to subdivision (c).

(5) The number of successful appeals by owners.

(6) The number of notices of noncompliance mailed to the Franchise Tax Board pursuant to subdivision (c).

(7) The number of cases in which a notice of noncompliance was not sent pursuant to the provision of subdivision (d).

(8) The number of extensions for compliance granted pursuant to subdivision (b) and the mean average length of the extensions.

(9) The mean average length of time from the issuance of a notice of violation to the mailing of a notice of noncompliance to the Franchise Tax Board where the notice is actually sent to the Franchise Tax Board.

(10) The number of cases where compliance is achieved after a notice of noncompliance has been mailed to the Franchise Tax Board.

(11) The number of instances of disallowance of tax deductions by the Franchise Tax Board resulting from referrals made by the regulatory agency. This information may be filed in a supplemental report in succeeding years as it becomes available.

SEC. 149. Section 17524 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17524. (a) (1) In the case of a plan included in Section 17514, 17515, or 17516, which provides contributions or benefits for employees some or all of whom are employees within the meaning of Section 17502.2 (a), the amounts deductible under Sections 17513 to 17520.6, inclusive, in any taxable year with respect to contributions on behalf of any employee within the meaning of Section 17502.2(a) shall, subject to the provisions of subdivision (b), not exceed two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500), or 10 percent of the earned income derived by the employee from the trade or business with respect to which the plan is established, whichever is the lesser.

(2) In the case of such a plan where contributions are also made pursuant to and in conformance with the special limitations for self-employed individuals under Section 404 (e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (P.L. 93-406) and the Economic Recovery Tax Act of 1981 (P.L. 97-34)—

(A) The amounts deductible are subject to the limitations provided in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c), and

(B) The net income attributable to the nondeductible portion shall not be includable in the gross income of the owner-employee for the taxable year or for succeeding taxable years until distributed pursuant to the provision of the plan or by operation of the law.

(b) (1) In any taxable year in which amounts are deductible with respect to contributions under two or more plans on behalf of an individual who is an employee within the meaning of Section 17502.2(a) with respect to the plans, the aggregate amount deductible for the taxable year under all the plans with respect to contributions on behalf of the employee shall not exceed two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500), or 10 percent of the earned income derived by the employee from the trades or businesses with respect to which the plans are established, whichever is the lesser.

(2) In any case in which the amounts deductible under Sections 17513 to 17520.6, inclusive (with the application of the limitations of this section), with respect to contributions made on behalf of an employee within the meaning of Section 17502.2(a), under two or more plans are, by reason of subdivision (b) (1), less than the amounts deductible under that section determined without regard to that subdivision, the amount deductible under Sections 17513 to 17520.6, inclusive, with respect to the contributions under each such plan shall be determined in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board.

(c) For purposes of this section, contributions which are allocable (determined under regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board) to the purchase of life, accident, health, or other insurance shall not be taken into account.

SEC. 150. Section 17530 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17530. (a) For purposes of this section, "individual retirement account" means a trust created or organized in the United States for the exclusive benefit of an individual or the individual's beneficiaries, but only if the written governing instrument creating the trust meets the following requirements:

(1) Except in the case of a rollover contribution described in subdivision (d) (3), in Section 17503(d), 17511(e), 17512(a) (9), or 17530.1(b) (3), no contribution will be accepted unless it is in cash, and contributions will not be accepted for the taxable year on behalf of any individual in excess of two thousand dollars ($2,000).

(2) The trustee is a bank (as defined in Section 17502.3(a)) or such other person who demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Franchise Tax Board that the manner in which that other person will administer the trust will be consistent with the requirements of this section.

(3) No part of the trust funds will be invested in life insurance contracts.

(4) The interest of an individual in the balance in that individual's account is nonforfeitable.

(5) The assets of the trust will not be commingled with other property except in a common trust fund or common investment fund.

(6) The entire interest of an individual for whose benefit the trust is maintained will be distributed to the individual not later than the close of that individual's taxable year in which the individual attains age 70½, or will be distributed, commencing before the close of the taxable year, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board, over—

(A) The life of the individual or the lives of the individual and the individual's spouse, or

(B) A period not extending beyond the life expectancy of the individual or the life expectancy of the individual and that individual's spouse.

(7) If an individual for whose benefit the trust is maintained dies before the individual's entire interest has been distributed to him or her, or if distribution has been commenced as provided in paragraph (6) to his or her surviving spouse and the surviving spouse dies before the entire interest has been distributed to the spouse, the entire interest (or the remaining part of the interest if distribution thereof has commenced) will, within five years after that individual's death (or the death of the surviving spouse), be distributed, or applied to the purchase of an immediate annuity for that individual's beneficiary or beneficiaries (or the beneficiary or beneficiaries of his or her surviving spouse) which will be payable for the life of the beneficiary or beneficiaries (or for a term certain not extending beyond the life expectancy of the beneficiary or beneficiaries) and which annuity will be immediately distributed to the beneficiary or beneficiaries. The preceding sentence does not apply if distributions over a term certain commenced before the death of the individual for whose benefit the trust was maintained and the term certain is for a period permitted under paragraph (6).

(b) For purposes of this section, "individual retirement annuity" means an annuity contract, or an endowment contract (as determined under regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board), issued by an insurance company which meets the following requirements:

(1) The contract is not transferable by the owner.

(2) Under the contract—

(A) The premiums are not fixed,

(B) The annual premium on behalf of any individual will not exceed two thousand dollars ($2,000), and

(C) Any refund of premiums will be applied before the close of the calendar year following the year of the refund toward the payment of future premiums or the purchase of additional benefits.

(3) The entire interest of the owner will be distributed to the owner not later than the close of the owner's taxable year in which the owner attains age 70½, or will be distributed, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board over—

(A) The life of the owner or the lives of the owner and the owner's spouse, or

(B) A period not extending beyond the life expectancy of the owner or the life expectancy of the owner and the owner's spouse.

(4) If the owner dies before the owner's entire interest has been distributed to the owner, or if distribution has been commenced as provided in paragraph (3) to the owner's surviving spouse and the surviving spouse dies before the entire interest has been distributed to the spouse, the entire interest (or the remaining part of the interest if distribution thereof has commenced) will, within five years after the owner's death (or the death of the surviving spouse), be distributed, or applied to the purchase of an immediate annuity for the owner's beneficiary or beneficiaries (or the beneficiary or beneficiaries of the owner's surviving spouse) which will be payable for the life of the beneficiary or beneficiaries (or for a term certain not extending beyond the life expectancy of the beneficiary or beneficiaries) and which annuity will be immediately distributed to the beneficiary or beneficiaries. The preceding sentence shall have no application if distributions over a term certain commenced before the death of the owner and the term certain is for a period permitted under paragraph (3).

(5) The entire interest of the owner is nonforfeitable. The term does not include an annuity contract for any taxable year of the owner in which it is disqualified on the application of subdivision (e) or for any subsequent taxable year. For purposes of this subdivision, no contract shall be treated as an endowment contract if it matures later than the taxable year in which the individual in whose name the contract is purchased attains age 70½; if it is not for the exclusive benefit of the individual in whose name it is purchased or the individual's beneficiaries; or if the aggregate annual premiums under all such contracts purchased in the name of the individual for any taxable year exceed two thousand dollars ($2,000).

(c) A trust created or organized in the United States by an employer for the exclusive benefit of his or her employees or their beneficiaries, or by an association of employees (which may include employees within the meaning of Section 17502.2(a)) for the exclusive benefit of its members or their beneficiaries, shall be created as an individual retirement account (described in subdivision (a)), but only if the written governing instrument creating the trust meets the following requirements:

(1) The trust satisfies the requirements of paragraphs (1) through (7) of subdivision (a).

(2) There is a separate accounting for the interest of each employee or member (or spouse of an employee or member).

The assets of the trust may be held in a common fund for the account of all individuals who have an interest in the trust.

(d) (1) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, any amount paid or distributed out of an individual retirement account or under an individual retirement annuity shall be included in gross income by the payee or distributee, as the case may be, for the taxable year in which the payment or distribution is received. Notwithstanding any other provision of this code (including Parts 8 (commencing with Section 13301) and 9 (commencing with Section 15101)), the basis of any person in such an account or annuity is the amount of contributions not allowed as a deduction under Section 17240 or 17241 on account of the purchase of the account or annuity.

(2) Paragraph (1) does not apply to any annuity contract which meets the requirements of paragraphs (1), (3), (4), and (5) of subdivision (b) and which is distributed from an individual retirement account. Sections 17101 to 17112.7, inclusive, apply to any such annuity contract, and for purposes of Sections 17101 to 17112.7, inclusive, the investment in the contract is zero.

(3) An amount is described in this paragraph as a rollover contribution if it meets the requirements of subparagraphs (A) and (B).

(A) Paragraph (1) does not apply to any amount paid or distributed out of an individual retirement account or individual retirement annuity to the individual for whose benefit the account or annuity is maintained if—

(i) The entire amount received (including money and any other property) is paid into an individual retirement account or individual retirement annuity (other than an endowment contract) or retirement bond for the benefit of the individual not later than the 60th day after the day on which the individual receives the payment or distribution;

(ii) The entire amount received (including money and other property) represents the entire amount in the account or the entire value of the annuity and no amount in the account and no part of the value of the annuity is attributable to any source other than a rollover contribution from an employees' trust described in Section 17501 which is exempt from tax under Section 17631 (other than a trust forming part of a plan under which the individual was an employee within the meaning of Section 17502.2(a) at the time contributions were made on his behalf under the plan), or an annuity plan described in Section 17511 (other than a plan under which the individual was an employee within the meaning of Section 17502.2(a) at the time contributions were made on the individual's behalf under the plan) and any earnings on those sums and the entire amount thereof is paid into another such trust (for the benefit of that individual) or annuity plan not later than the 60th day on which the individual receives the payment or distribution; or

(iii) (I) The entire amount received (including money and other property) represents the entire interest in the account or the entire value of the annuity,

(II) No amount in the account and no part of the value of the annuity is attributable to any source other than a rollover contribution from an annuity contract described in Section 17512 and any earnings on the rollover, and

(III) The entire amount thereof is paid into another annuity contract described in Section 17512 (for the benefit of that individual) not later than the 60th day after the individual receives the payment or distribution.

(B) This paragraph does not apply to any amount described in subparagraph (A) (i) received by an individual from an individual retirement account or individual retirement annuity if at any time during the one-year period ending on the day of that receipt the individual received any other amount described in that subparagraph from an individual retirement account, individual retirement annuity, or a retirement bond which was not includable in the individual's gross income because of the application of this paragraph. Clause (ii) of subparagraph (A) shall not apply to any amount paid or distributed out of an individual retirement account or an individual retirement annuity to which an amount was contributed which was treated as a rollover contribution by Section 17503(f) (or in the case of an individual retirement annuity, that section as made applicable by Section 17511(e) (2)).

(4) Paragraph (1) does not apply to the distribution of any contribution paid for a taxable year to an individual retirement account or for an individual retirement annuity to the extent that the contribution exceeds the amount allowable as a deduction under Section 17240 or 17241 if—

(A) The distribution is received on or before the day prescribed by law (including extensions of time) for filing the individual's return for the taxable year.

(B) No deduction is allowed under Section 17240 or 17241 with respect to the excess contribution, and

(C) The distribution is accompanied by the amount of net income attributable to the excess contribution. In the case of such a distribution, for purposes of Section 17071, any net income described in subparagraph (C) shall be deemed to have been earned and receivable in the taxable year in which the excess contribution is made.

(5) (A) In the case of any individual, if the aggregate contributions (other than rollover contributions) paid for any taxable year to an individual retirement account or for an individual retirement annuity do not exceed two thousand two hundred fifty dollars ($2,250), paragraph (1) shall not apply to the distribution of any such contribution to the extent that the contribution exceeds the amount allowable as a deduction under Section 17240 or 17241 for the taxable year for which the contribution was paid—

(i) If the distribution is received after the date described in paragraph (4),

(ii) But only to the extent that no deduction has been allowed under Section 17240 or 17241 with respect to the excess contribution.

If employer contributions on behalf of the individual are paid for the taxable year to a simplified employee pension, the dollar limitation of the preceding sentence shall be increased by the lesser of the amount of such contributions or fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000).

(B) (i) The taxpayer reasonably relies on information supplied pursuant to this part for determining the amount of a rollover contribution, but

(ii) The information was erroneous, subparagraph (A) shall be applied by increasing the dollar limit set forth therein by that portion of the excess contribution which was attributable to that information.

(6) The transfer of an individual's interest in an individual retirement account, individual retirement annuity, or retirement bond to the individual's former spouse under a divorce decree or under a written instrument incident to the divorce is not to be considered a taxable transfer made by the individual notwithstanding any other provision of this part, and that interest at the time of the transfer is to be treated as an individual retirement account of the spouse, and not of the individual. Thereafter the account, annuity, or bond for purposes of this part shall be treated as maintained for the benefit of the spouse.

(7) The payment or distribution of any contribution made in a taxable year which exceeds the amount allowable as a deduction under subdivision (a) Section 17240 or subdivision (a) 17241 shall be attributable to the earliest excess contribution made.

(e) (1) Any individual retirement account is exempt from taxation under this part unless the account has ceased to be an individual retirement account by reason of paragraph (2) or (3). Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, any such account is subject to the taxes imposed by Section 17651 (relating to imposition of tax on unrelated business income of charitable, etc. organizations).

(2) (A) In the case of such a plan in existence in taxable year 1975 where contributions were made pursuant to and in conformance with Section 408 or 409 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended by the Employee Income Security Act of 1974 (P.L. 93-406), any net income attributable to the 1975 contribution shall not be includable in the gross income, for taxable year 1977 or succeeding taxable years, of the individual for whose benefit the plan was established until distributed pursuant to the provisions of the plan or by operation of law.

(B) In the case of a simplified employee pension, where contributions are also made pursuant to, and in conformance with, the provisions of Section 408(k) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended by Public Law 97-34, the net income attributable to the nondeductible portion of the contributions shall not be includable in the gross income of the individual for whose benefit the plan was established for the taxable year or for succeeding taxable years until distributed pursuant to the provisions of the plan or by operation of law.

(C) Notwithstanding the limitations provided in Sections 17240 and 17241 with respect to the amount of deductible contributions and individuals eligible for the deduction, any income attributable to contributions made to a plan in existence in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1982, in conformance with Sections 219, 220, 408, and 409 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended by P.L. 97-34, shall not be includable in the gross income of the individual for whose benefit the plan was established until distributed pursuant to the provisions of the plan or by operation of law. The Franchise Tax Board shall prescribe regulations with respect to the determination of the amount of the income included in the amount distributed or deemed distributed by operation of law which is includable in the individual's gross income in the taxable year in which the distribution is received or deemed distributed by operation of law.

(3) (A) If, during any taxable year of the individual for whose benefit any individual retirement account is established, that individual or the individual's beneficiary engages in any transaction prohibited by Section 4975 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended by Public Law 95-596 with respect to that account, the account ceases to be an individual retirement account as of the first day of the taxable year. For purposes of this paragraph—

(i) The individual for whose benefit any account was established is treated as the creator of the account and

(ii) The separate account for any individual within an individual retirement account maintained by an employer or association of employees is treated as a separate individual retirement account.

(B) In any case in which any account ceases to be an individual retirement account by reason of subparagraph (A) as of the first day of any taxable year, paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) applies as if there were a distribution on that first day in an amount equal to the fair market value (on that first day) of all assets in the account (on that first day).

(4) If during any taxable year the owner of an individual retirement annuity borrows any money under or by use of the contract, the contract ceases to be an individual retirement annuity as of the first day of that year. The owner shall include in gross income for the taxable year an amount equal to the fair market value of such contract as of the first day.

(5) If, during any taxable year of the individual for whose benefit an individual retirement account is established, that individual uses the account or any portion thereof as security for a loan, the portion so used is treated as distributed to that individual.

(6) If the assets of an individual retirement account or any part of the assets are used to purchase an endowment contract for the benefit of the individual for whose benefit the account is established—

(A) To the extent that the amount of the assets involved in the purchase are not attributable to the purchase of life insurance, the purchase is treated as a rollover contribution described in subdivision (d) (3), and

(B) To the extent that the amount of the assets involved in the purchase are attributable to the purchase of life, health, accident, or other insurance, those amounts are treated as distributed to that individual (but subdivision (f) does not apply).

(7) Any common trust fund or common investment fund of individual retirement account assets which is exempt from taxation under this part does not cease to be exempt on account of the participation or inclusion of assets of a trust exempt from taxation under Section 17631 which is described in Section 17501.

(f) (1) If a distribution from an individual retirement account or under an individual retirement annuity to the individual for whose benefit the account or annuity was established is made before the individual attains age 59½, the individual's tax under this part for the taxable year in which the distribution is received shall be increased by an amount equal to 2.5 percent of the amount of distribution which is includable in the individual's gross income for the taxable year.

(2) If an amount is includable in gross income for a taxable year under subdivision (e) and the taxpayer has not attained age 59½ before the beginning of the taxable year, the individual's tax under this article for the taxable year shall be increased by an amount equal to 2.5 percent of the amount so required to be included in his gross income.

(3) Paragraphs (1) and (2) do not apply if the amount paid or distributed, or the disqualification of the account or annuity under subdivision (e), is attributable to the taxpayer becoming disabled within the meaning of Section 17112.5(f).

(g) This section shall be applied without regard to any community property laws.

(h) For purposes of this section, a custodial account shall be treated as a trust if the assets of the account are held by a bank (as defined in Section 17502.3(a)) or another person who demonstrates, to the satisfaction of the Franchise Tax Board, that the manner in which the person will administer the account will be consistent with the requirements of this section, and if the custodial account would, except for the fact that it is not a trust, constitute an individual retirement account described in subdivision (a). For purposes of this part, in the case of a custodial account treated as a trust by reason of the preceding sentence, the custodian of the account shall be treated as the trustee thereof.

(i) The trustee of an individual retirement account and the issuer of an endowment contract described in subdivision (b) or an individual retirement annuity shall make the reports regarding the account, contract, or annuity to the Franchise Tax Board and to the individuals for whom the account, contract, or annuity is, or is to be, maintained with respect to contributions, distributions, and such other matters as the Franchise Tax Board may require under regulations. The reports required by this subdivision shall be filed at such time and in such manner and furnished to those individuals at such time and in such manner as may be required by those regulations.

(j) In the case of a simplified employee pension, this section shall be applied by substituting "fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000)" or, if applicable, any higher amount referred to in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (5) of subdivision (d) for "two thousand dollars ($2,000)" in the following provisions:

(1) Paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), and

(2) Paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).

(k) (1) For purposes of this part, "simplified employee pension" means an individual retirement account or individual retirement annuity with respect to which the requirements of paragraphs (2), (3), (4), and (5) are met.

(2) This paragraph is satisfied with respect to a simplified employee pension for a calendar year only if for such year the employer contributes to the simplified employee pension of each employee who—

(A) Has attained age 25, and

(B) Has performed service for the employer during at least three of the immediately preceding five calendar years. For purposes of this paragraph, there shall be excluded from consideration employees described in subparagraph (A) or (C) of paragraph (1) of subsection (b) of Section 410 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended by Public Law 96-605.

(3) (A) The requirements of this paragraph are met with respect to a simplified employee pension for a calendar year if for that year the contributions made by the employer to simplified employee pensions for his employees do not discriminate in favor of any employee who is—

- (i) An officer,
- (ii) A shareholder,
- (iii) A self-employed individual, or
- (iv) Highly compensated.

(B) For purposes of subparagraph (A)—

(i) There shall be excluded from consideration employees described in subparagraph (A) or (C) of Section 410(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended by Public Law 96-605, and

(ii) An individual shall be considered a shareholder if the individual owns (with the application of Section 17384) more than 10 percent of the value of the stock of the employer.

(C) For purposes of subparagraph (A), employer contributions to simplified employee pensions shall be considered discriminatory unless—

(i) Contributions thereto bear a uniform relationship to the total compensation not in excess of the first two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) of each employee maintaining a simplified employee pension, and

(ii) If compensation in excess of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) is taken into account under a simplified employee pension for an employee, contributions to a simplified employee pension on behalf of each employee for whom a contribution is required are at a rate (expressed as a percentage of compensation) not less than 7.5 percent.

(D) Except as provided in this subparagraph, employer contributions do not meet the requirements of this paragraph unless those contributions meet the requirements of this paragraph without taking into account contributions or benefits relating to tax on self-employment income, relating to Federal Insurance Contributions Act, Title II of the Social Security Act, or any other federal or state law. Taxes paid under Section 3111 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended by Public Law 95-216 (relating to tax on employers) with respect to an employee may, for purposes of this paragraph, be taken into account as a contribution by the employer to an employee's simplified employee pension. If contributions are made to the simplified employee pension of an owner-employee, the preceding sentence shall not apply unless taxes paid by all such owner-employees under Chapter 2 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended by Public Law 97-34, and the taxes which would be payable under Chapter 2 by the owner-employees but for paragraphs (4) and (5) of Section 1402(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended by Public Law 95-600, are taken into account as contributions by the employer on behalf of the owner-employees.

(4) A simplified employee pension meets the requirements of this paragraph only if—

(A) Employer contributions thereto are not conditioned on the retention in such pension of any portion of the amount contributed, and

(B) There is no prohibition imposed by the employer on withdrawals from the simplified employee pension.

(5) The requirements of this paragraph are met with respect to a simplified employee pension only if employer contributions to the pension are determined under a definite written allocation formula which specifies—

(A) The requirements which an employee must satisfy to share in an allocation, and

(B) The manner in which the amount allocated is computed.

(6) For purposes of this subdivision and subdivision (1)—

(A) “Employee”, “employer”, and “owner-employee” shall have the respective meanings given the terms by Section 17502.2.

(B) “Compensation” means, in the case of an employee within the meaning of Section 17502.2(a), earned income within the meaning of Section 17502.2(b).

(1) An employer who makes a contribution on behalf of an employee to a simplified employee pension shall provide such simplified reports with respect to such contributions as the Franchise Tax Board may require by regulations. The reports required by this subdivision shall be filed at such time and in such manner, and information with respect to such contributions shall be furnished to the employee at such time and in such manner, as may be required by regulations.

(m) (1) The acquisition by an individual retirement account or by an individually directed account under a plan described in Section 17501 (a) of any collectible shall be treated (for purposes of this section and Section 17503) as distribution from that account in an amount equal to the cost to that account of that collectible.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision, “collectible” means—

(A) Any work of art,

(B) Any rug or antique,

(C) Any metal or gem,

(D) Any stamp or coin,

(E) Any alcoholic beverage, or

(F) Any other tangible personal property specified by the Franchise Tax Board for purposes of this subdivision.

(3) This subdivision shall apply to property acquired after December 31, 1981, in taxable years ending after that date.

(n) The amendments made to this section by the act adding this subdivision shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981.

SEC. 151. Section 19356 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

19356. (a) The Tax Relief and Refund Account is hereby created in the General Fund and is continuously appropriated to the Franchise Tax Board for purposes of making all payments as provided in this section.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, all payments required to be made to taxpayers or other persons from the Personal Income Tax Fund shall be paid from the Tax Relief and Refund Account.

(c) The Controller shall transfer, as needed, to the Tax Relief and Refund Account:

(1) From the unexpended balance of the appropriation made by Item 375 of Chapter 219 of the Statutes of 1977, an amount determined by the Franchise Tax Board to be equivalent to the total amount of renters' assistance credits and refunds allowed under Section 17053.5.

(2) From the disability fund, the amount transferable to the General Fund pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1176.5 of the Unemployment Insurance Code.

(3) From the Personal Income Tax Fund, such additional amounts as determined by the Franchise Tax Board to be necessary to make the payments required under this section.

SEC. 152. Section 23603 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 1559 of the Statutes of 1982, is amended and renumbered to read:

23606. (a) There shall be allowed as a credit against the taxes imposed by this part (except the minimum franchise tax and the tax on preference income) an amount equal to 25 percent of the fair market value of qualified charitable contributions, not to exceed the basis of the property contributed.

(b) For purposes of this section, "qualified charitable contribution" means a charitable contribution of tangible personal property described in paragraph (1) of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, but only if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The contribution is to an educational organization which is described in subsection (b) (1) (A) (ii) of Section 170 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and which is not an institution of higher education (as defined in Section 3304(f) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954) in this state.

(2) The contribution is made not later than one year after the date the construction of the property is substantially completed.

(3) The original use of the property is by the donee.

(4) The property is a computer, scientific equipment, or apparatus all of the use of which by the donee is directly in the education of students of this state.

(5) The property is not transferred by the donee in exchange for money, other property, or services.

(6) The taxpayer receives from the donee a written statement representing that its use and disposition of the property will be in accordance with these provisions.

(7) The property has the approval of the donee.

(8) The contribution is made on or after January 1, 1983, and on or before June 30, 1984.

(c) The credit shall be in lieu of any deduction under this part to which the taxpayer otherwise may be entitled, if any.

(d) In the case of a taxpayer whose credits exceed its tax liability computed under this part (except the minimum franchise tax and the tax on preference income) for the income year, the taxpayer shall be allowed a credit to the extent of that tax liability. At the election of the taxpayer, that portion of the credit which exceeds the taxes imposed by this part (except the minimum franchise tax and the tax on preference income) may be carried over to the taxes imposed by this part (except the minimum franchise tax and the tax on preference income) in succeeding income years, with respect to which this section shall remain in effect for purposes of carrying over excess credit, until the credit is used. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest income years possible.

(e) The credit shall be claimed on tax returns filed on or after July 1, 1983.

(f) The Franchise Tax Board shall prescribe regulations as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this section.

SEC. 153. Section 25951 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

25951. In case of any underpayment of estimated tax, except as provided in Section 25954, there shall be added to the tax for the income year an amount determined at the adjusted annual rate established pursuant to Section 19269 upon the amount of underpayment (determined under Section 25952) for the period of the underpayment (determined under Section 25953).

SEC. 154. Section 26132 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

26132. The Franchise Tax Board may by notice, served personally or by first-class mail, require any bank, corporation, or person, and any officer or department of the state or any political subdivision or agency of the state, or any city organized under a freeholder's charter, or any political body not a subdivision or agency of the state, having in their possession, or under their control, any credits or other personal property or other things of value, belonging to a taxpayer to withhold, from the credits or other property the amount of any tax, interest or penalties due from the taxpayer or the amount of any liability incurred by that person for failure to withhold and transmit amounts due from a taxpayer under this part and to transmit the amount withheld to the Franchise Tax Board at such times as it may designate. However, in the case of a depository institution, as defined in Section 19(b) of the Federal Reserve Act (12 U.S.C.A. Sec. 461 (b) (1) (A)), amounts due from a taxpayer under this part shall be transmitted to the Franchise Tax Board not less than 10 business days from receipt of the notice. To be effective, the notice shall state the amount due from the taxpayer and shall be delivered or mailed to the branch or office where the credits or other property is held, unless another branch or office is designated by the bank, corporation, person, officer or department of the state, political subdivision or agency of the state, city organized under a freeholder's charter, or a political body not a subdivision or agency of the state. Any bank, corporation, or person failing to withhold the amounts due from any taxpayer and transmit them to the Franchise Tax Board after service of the notice shall be liable for those amounts.

SEC. 155. Section 188.8 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

188.8. From the money expended pursuant to Section 188, the commission shall allocate and the department shall expend, or cause to be expended, in each county of County Group No. 1 and in each county of County Group No. 2 during the period commencing July 1, 1983, and ending June 30, 1988, and for each period of five years thereafter, not less than an amount computed as follows:

(a) The commission shall compute, for each period of five years, an amount equal to 70 percent of the money to be expended in County Groups Nos. 1 and 2, respectively, as provided in Section 188.

(b) From the amount computed for County Group No. 1 in subdivision (a) for each five-year period, the commission shall determine the minimum expenditure for each county in the group based on a formula which is based 75 percent on the population of the county to the total population of County Group No. 1 and 25 percent on state highway miles in the county to the total state highway miles in County Group No. 1.

(c) From the amount computed for County Group No. 2 in subdivision (a) for each five-year period, the commission shall determine the minimum expenditure for each county in the group based on a formula which is based 75 percent on the population of the county to the total population of County Group No. 2 and 25 percent on state highway miles in the county to the total state highway miles in County Group No. 2.

(d) A county board of supervisors may adopt a resolution to pool its county minimum expenditure with adjacent counties adopting similar resolutions. The resolution shall provide for pooling the county minimum expenditures for expenditure in any of the pooling counties for a five-year period and shall be submitted to the commission not later than May 1 immediately preceding the commencement of the five-year period.

(e) Except as provided in this subdivision, the entire obligation under a contract awarded or a day labor project commenced during any of the periods shall be deemed an expenditure within the period in which the contract was awarded or day labor project commenced. Obligations under contracts which have been awarded or day labor projects which have been commenced, but which are to be budgeted over more than one fiscal year pursuant to Section 170, shall be deemed expenditures in each of the fiscal years in which the work is to be performed in an amount equal to the final amount budgeted for each of the fiscal years for the work.

(f) For the purpose of this section, the population in each county is that determined by the last preceding federal census, or a subsequent census validated by the Population Research Unit of the Department of Finance, at the beginning of each five-year period.

(g) For the purpose of this section, "state highway miles," means the miles of state highways open to vehicular traffic at the beginning of each five-year period.

(h) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a), (b), and (c), the commission shall program and allocate funds for projects that were included in the 1980 state transportation improvement program. This subdivision shall be limited to projects, as defined in the 1980 state transportation improvement program, and shall provide for inflationary cost increases, but shall not provide for cost increases which are caused by any change in the scope or nature of the project. This subdivision shall not apply to projects that cannot proceed due to changes in federal law or other causes beyond the commission's and department's authority. During the five-year period beginning July 1, 1983, the commission may deviate from subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) for the purpose of meeting the requirements of this subdivision, but shall make a reasonable effort to comply with subdivisions (a), (b), and (c).

SEC. 156. Section 680 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

680. Whenever a franchise is granted by any county or city in any public highway which has been or is subsequently constituted a state highway, the department may enforce any obligations of the grantee or holder of the franchise with respect to the repair of the highway. The department may require any person who has placed and maintained any pole, pole line, pipe, pipeline, conduit, street railroad tracks, or other structures or facilities upon any state highway, whether under that or any franchise, to move it at his or her own cost and expense to such different location in the highway as is specified in a written demand of the department, whenever necessary to insure the safety of the traveling public or to permit the improvement of the highway. However, no such change of location shall be required for a temporary purpose. The department shall specify in the demand a reasonable time within which the work of relocation shall be commenced and the grantee or owner shall commence the relocation within the time specified in the demand and thereafter diligently prosecute it to completion.

In case the owner fails to comply with any such demand, the encroachments specified in the demand become subject to Article 3 (commencing with Section 720), except that no further notice is required.

SEC. 157. Section 701 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

701. This article is limited to state highways which are or shall become freeways. Article 2 (commencing with Section 670), except as inconsistent with this article, applies to freeways.

SEC. 158. Section 724 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

724. Unless the encroachment is authorized under Article 2

(commencing with Section 670), any person owning, controlling, or placing, or causing or suffering to exist, any encroachment within any state highway after the service upon that person of the notice, in the manner provided in Section 720, is, in addition to any civil liability therefor, guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 159. Section 625 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

625. A "traffic officer" is any member of the California Highway Patrol, or any peace officer who is on duty for the exclusive or main purpose of enforcing Division 10 (commencing with Section 20000) or 11 (commencing with Section 21000).

SEC. 160. Section 3061 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

3061. In determining whether good cause has been established for modifying, replacing, terminating, or refusing to continue a franchise, the board shall take into consideration the existing circumstances, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

(a) Amount of business transacted by the franchisee, as compared to the business available to the franchisee.

(b) Investment necessarily made and obligations incurred by the franchisee to perform its part of the franchise.

(c) Permanency of the investment.

(d) Whether it is injurious or beneficial to the public welfare for the franchise to be modified or replaced or the business of the franchisee disrupted.

(e) Whether the franchisee has adequate motor vehicle sales and service facilities, equipment, vehicle parts, and qualified service personnel to reasonably provide for the needs of the consumers for the motor vehicles handled by the franchisee and has been and is rendering adequate services to the public.

(f) Whether the franchisee fails to fulfill the warranty obligations of the franchisor to be performed by the franchisee.

(g) Extent of franchisee's failure to comply with the terms of the franchise.

SEC. 161. Section 3063 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

3063. In determining whether good cause has been established for not entering into or relocating an additional franchise for the same line-make, the board shall take into consideration the existing circumstances, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

(a) Permanency of the investment.

(b) Effect on the retail motor vehicle business and the consuming public in the relevant market area.

(c) Whether it is injurious to the public welfare for an additional franchise to be established.

(d) Whether the franchisees of the same line-make in that relevant market area are providing adequate competition and convenient consumer care for the motor vehicles of the line-make in the market area which shall include the adequacy of motor vehicle sales and service facilities, equipment, supply of vehicle parts, and qualified service personnel.

(e) Whether the establishment of an additional franchise would increase competition and therefore be in the public interest.

SEC. 162. Section 4460 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

4460. The Department of Motor Vehicles, the Traffic Adjudication Board, and the Department of the California Highway Patrol or any regularly employed and salaried police officer or deputy sheriff may take possession of any certificate, card, placard, permit, license, or license plate issued under this code, upon expiration, revocation, cancellation, or suspension thereof or which is fictitious or which has been unlawfully or erroneously issued. Any license plate which is not attached to the vehicle for which issued, when and in the manner required under this code, may be seized, and attachment to the proper vehicle may be made or required.

Any such document, placard, or license plate seized shall be delivered to the Department of Motor Vehicles.

SEC. 163. Section 4601 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

4601. Except as otherwise provided in this code, every vehicle registration and registration card expires at midnight on the expiration date designated by the director pursuant to Section 1651.5, and shall be renewed prior to the expiration of the registration year. The department may, upon payment of the proper fees, renew the registration of vehicles.

SEC. 164. Section 4602 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

4602. Application for renewal of a vehicle registration shall be made by the owner not later than midnight of the expiration date, and shall be made by presentation of the registration card last issued for the vehicle or by presentation of a potential registration card issued by the department for use at the time of renewal and by payment of the full registration year fee for the vehicle as provided in this code.

SEC. 165. Section 9102.5 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

9102.5. (a) In lieu of all other fees which are specified in this code, except fees for duplicate plates, certificates, or cards, a fee of ten dollars ($10) shall be paid for the registration and licensing of any privately owned schoolbus, as defined in Section 545, which is either of the following:

(1) Owned by a private nonprofit educational organization and operated in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Department of Education and the Department of the California Highway Patrol exclusively in transporting school pupils, or school pupils and employees, of the private nonprofit educational organization.

(2) Operated in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Department of Education and the Department of the California Highway Patrol exclusively in transporting school pupils, or school pupils and employees, of any public school or private nonprofit educational organization pursuant to a contract between a public school district or nonprofit educational organization and the owner or operator of the schoolbus.

This section does not apply to any schoolbus which is operated pursuant to any contract which requires the public school district or nonprofit educational organization to pay any amount representing the costs of registration and weight fees unless and until the contract is amended to require only the payment of an amount representing the fee required by this section.

(b) When a schoolbus under contract and registered pursuant to subdivision (a) is to be temporarily operated in such a manner that it becomes subject to full registration fees specified in this code, the owner may, prior to such operation, as an alternative to such full registration, secure a temporary permit to operate the vehicle in this state for any one or more calendar months. The permit shall be posted upon the windshield or other prominent place upon the vehicle, and shall identify the vehicle to which it is affixed. When so affixed, the permit shall serve as indicia of full registration for the period designated thereon. Upon payment of the fees specified in Section 9266.5, the department may issue a temporary permit under this section.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision, any schoolbus used exclusively to transport students at or below the 12th-grade level to or from any school, education-related purpose, or activity sponsored by a nonprofit organization shall be deemed to be a schoolbus for the purposes of this section and shall pay a fee of ten dollars ($10) in lieu of all other fees which are specified in this code, except fees for duplicate plates, certificates, or cards.

SEC. 166. Section 9706 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

9706. (a) Application for partial year registration in conjunction with an application for original California registration shall be made by the owner within 20 days of the date the vehicle first becomes subject to California registration. Any application for partial year registration submitted after that 20-day period shall not be registered for a partial year, and the vehicle shall be subject to payment of the fees for the entire registration year. In addition to the fee for the registration year, a penalty, as specified in Section 9554, shall be added to the fee for registration.

(b) Any application to renew registration for a part of the remainder of the registration year, or for the entire remainder of the registration year, shall be made prior to midnight of the expiration date of the last issued registration certificate. Application shall be made upon presentation of the last issued registration card, or of a potential registration issued by the department for use at the time of renewal and by payment of the proper partial year fees, or, if renewal, is for the remainder of the registration year, by payment of the annual fee provided by Section 9400, as reduced pursuant to Section 9407. Any application submitted after the expiration date of the last issued registration certificate which is not accompanied by a certificate of nonoperation, as provided in Section 9708, shall be refused partial year registration and shall be subject to payment of the full fees for the registration year or remainder thereof. In addition to the fee for the registration year or remainder thereof, a penalty, as specified in Section 9554, shall be added to the fee for renewal of registration.

(c) In order to obtain partial year registration or renewal of partial year registration for a period of less than three months, application shall be made prior to the date the vehicle is first operated, moved, or left standing on the highways. Partial year registration or renewal of partial year registration may be obtained for a minimum of three months when application is made after, but within 20 days of, the date the vehicle is first operated, moved, or left standing on the highways.

SEC. 167. Section 9853.4 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

9853.4. The department may issue one or more stickers, tabs, or other suitable devices to identify vessels as being currently registered. The size, shape, and color of the sticker, tab, or other device and the positioning of the sticker, tab, or other device on the vessel shall be as determined by the department after consultation with the Department of Boating and Waterways, such consultation to consider the responsibilities and duties of the Department of Boating and Waterways as prescribed in the Harbors and Navigation Code.

SEC. 168. Section 11520 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11520. (a) A licensed automobile dismantler who acquired, for the purpose of dismantling, actual possession, as a transferee, of a vehicle of a type subject to registration under this code shall do all of the following:

(1) Within five calendar days, not including the day of acquisition, mail a notice of acquisition to the department at its headquarters.

(2) Within five calendar days, not including the day of acquisition, mail a copy of the notice of acquisition to the Department of Justice at its headquarters.

(3) Not begin dismantling until 10 calendar days have elapsed after mailing the notice of acquisition. In the alternative, dismantling may begin any time after the dismantler complies with paragraph (4).

(4) Deliver to the department, within 90 calendar days of the date of acquisition, the documents evidencing ownership and the license plates last issued for the vehicle. Proof that a registered or certified letter of demand for the documents was sent within 90 days of the date of acquisition to the person from whom the vehicle was acquired may be substituted for documents that cannot otherwise be obtained. A certificate of license plate destruction, when authorized by the director, may be delivered in lieu of the license plates.

(5) Maintain a business record of all vehicles acquired for dismantling. The record shall contain the name and address of the person from whom the vehicle was acquired; the date the vehicle was acquired; the license plate number last assigned to the vehicle; and a brief description of the vehicle, including its make, type, and the vehicle identification number used for registration purposes. The record required by this subdivision shall be a business record of the dismantler separate and distinct from the records maintained in those books and forms furnished by the department.

(b) Paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (a), do not apply to vehicles acquired pursuant to Section 11515 or 22851.2 of this code or Section 3071, 3072, or 3073 of the Civil Code.

(c) Any person, other than a licensed dismantler, desiring to dismantle a vehicle of a type subject to registration under this code shall deliver to the department the certificate of ownership, registration card, and the license plates last issued to the vehicle before dismantling may begin.

(d) Any person who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person not licensed under this chapter who is convicted under this section shall be punished upon a first conviction by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than five days or more than six months or by a fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500) or by both such fine and imprisonment; and upon a second or any subsequent conviction, by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than 30 days nor more than one year or by a fine of not less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 169. Section 23181 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

23181. (a) If the court grants probation to any person punished under Section 23180, in addition to the provisions of Section 23206 and any other terms and conditions imposed by the court, the court shall impose as a condition of probation that the person be confined in the county jail for at least five days but not more than one year and pay a fine of at least three hundred ninety dollars ($390) but not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000). The person's privilege to operate a motor vehicle shall be suspended by the Department of Motor Vehicles pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 13352.

(b) In any county where the county alcohol program administrator has certified, and the board of supervisors has approved, such a program or programs, the court shall also impose as a condition of probation that the driver shall participate in, and successfully complete, an alcohol or drug education program, as designated by the court.

(c) Each county which has approved and certified an alcohol or drug education program or programs shall make provision for persons who cannot afford the program fee, in order to enable those persons to participate.

(d) In order to assure effectiveness of the alcohol or drug education program, the county shall provide, as appropriate, services to ethnic minorities, women, youth, or any other group that has particular needs related to the program.

SEC. 170. Section 25108 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

25108. (a) Any motor vehicle may be equipped with not more than two amber turn signal pilot indicators mounted on the exterior.

The light output from any such indicator shall not exceed five candlepower unless provision is made for operating the indicator at reduced intensity during darkness in which event the light output shall not exceed five candlepower during darkness or 15 candlepower at any other time. The center of the beam shall be projected toward the driver.

(b) Any vehicle may be equipped with pilot indicators visible from the front to monitor the functioning or condition of parts essential to the operation of the vehicle or of equipment attached to the vehicle which is necessary for protection of the cargo or load. The pilot indicators shall be steady burning, having a projected lighted lens area of not more than three-quarters of a square inch and have a light output of no more than five candlepower. The pilot indicator may be of any color except red.

(c) Other exterior pilot indicators of any color may be used for monitoring exterior lighting devices, provided that the area of each indicator is less than 0.20 square inch, the intensity of each indicator does not exceed 0.10 candlepower, and the color red is not visible to the front.

SEC. 171. Section 27909 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

27909. Any vehicle which carries liquefied petroleum gas fuel or natural gas, in a tank attached to a vehicle, in any concealed area, including trunks, compartments, or under the vehicle, shall display on the exterior of the vehicle the letters "CNG," "LNG," or "LPG," whichever type fuel is utilized, in block letters at least one inch high. The letters shall be of contrasting color and shall be placed as near as possible to the area of the location of the tank. Any vehicle fueled by liquefied petroleum gas fuel or by natural gas may also comply with this section by displaying on each side of the vehicle words or letters at least 0.25 inch high indicating that the vehicle is fueled by liquefied petroleum gas or natural gas. It is unlawful to dispense liquefied petroleum gas fuel or natural gas into any tank in a concealed area of any vehicle registered in California, unless the vehicle complies with the requirements of this section.

SEC. 172. Section 34501.5 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

34501.5. The Department of the California Highway Patrol shall adopt reasonable rules and regulations which, in the judgment of the department, are designed to promote the safe operation of vehicles described in Sections 39830 and 82321 of the Education Code and Sections 545 and 34500 of this code. The Commissioner of the California Highway Patrol shall appoint a committee of nine members to act in an advisory capacity when developing and adopting regulations affecting schoolbuses and schoolbus operations. The advisory member committee shall consist of nine members appointed as follows:

- (a) One member of the State Department of Education.
- (b) One member of the Department of Motor Vehicles.
- (c) One member of the Department of the California Highway Patrol.

- (d) One member who is employed as a schoolbus driver.
- (e) One member of the Office of Traffic Safety in the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency.

(f) Two members who are schoolbus contractors, one which shall be from an urban area of the state and one which shall be from a rural area of the state, as determined by the department.

(g) Two members who are representatives of school districts, one which shall be from an urban area of the state and one which shall be from a rural area of the state, as determined by the department.

The department shall cooperate and confer with the advisory committee appointed pursuant to this section prior to adopting rules or regulations affecting schoolbuses and schoolbus operations.

SEC. 173. Section 40000.7 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

40000.7. A violation of any of the following provisions shall constitute a misdemeanor, and not an infraction:

- (a) Section 2416, relating to regulations for emergency vehicles.
- (b) Section 2800, relating to failure to obey an officer's lawful order or submit to a lawful inspection.
- (c) Section 2800.1, relating to fleeing from a peace officer.
- (d) Section 2801, relating to failure to obey a fireman's lawful order.
- (e) Section 2803, relating to unlawful vehicle or load.
- (f) Section 2813, relating to stopping for inspection.
- (g) Subdivision (b) of Section 4461 and subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 4463, relating to disabled person placards.
- (h) Section 5753, relating to delivery of certificates of ownership and registration when committed by a dealer or any person while a dealer within the preceding 12 months.
- (i) Section 5901, relating to dealers and lessor-retailers giving notice.
- (j) Section 5901.1, relating to lessors giving notice and failure to pay fee.
- (k) Section 8802, relating to the return of canceled, suspended, or revoked certificates of ownership, registration cards, or license plates, when committed by any person with intent to defraud.
- (l) Section 8803, relating to return of canceled, suspended, or revoked documents and license plates of a dealer, manufacturer, transporter, dismantler, or salesman.

SEC. 174. Section 127 of the Water Code is amended to read:

127. The department may employ legal counsel who shall advise the director, represent the department in connection with legal matters before other boards and agencies of the state, and may, when authorized by the Attorney General, represent the department and the state in litigation concerning affairs of the department. In any event, the legal counsel of the department may, with the approval of the director and with the consent of the court before which the action is pending, present to the court the views of the department with respect to the action. Sections 955.4, 955.6, 11041, 11042, 11043, and the first sentence of Section 11157 of the Government Code do not apply to the department.

SEC. 175. Section 259 of the Water Code is amended to read:

259. When the department condemns the property of any common carrier railroad, other public utility, or state agency, or the appurtenances thereof, it shall be governed by Article 3 (commencing with Section 11590) of Chapter 6 of Part 3 of Division 6.

SEC. 176. Section 2782 of the Water Code is amended to read:

2782. After expiration of the time fixed by the court for filing contests, the court shall proceed to hear and determine the exception and proof of intervenor and any contest thereto in accordance as near as may be with Article 9 (commencing with Section 2750).

SEC. 177. Section 1722 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

1722. (a) Any rules and regulations, including any resolutions and policy statements, promulgated by the Youthful Offender Parole Board, shall be promulgated and filed pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and shall, to the extent practical, be stated in language that is easily understood by the general public.

(b) The board shall maintain, publish, and make available to the general public, a compendium of its rules and regulations, including any resolutions and policy statements, promulgated pursuant to this section.

(c) The following exception to the procedures specified in this section shall apply to the board: The chairperson may specify an effective date that is any time more than 30 days after the rule or regulation is filed with the Secretary of State; provided that no less than 20 days prior to that effective date, copies of the rule or regulation shall be posted in conspicuous places throughout each institution and shall be mailed to all persons or organizations who request them.

SEC. 178. Section 16712 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

16712. The State Department of Health Services shall adopt any regulations necessary to implement this part. The department may adopt these regulations on an emergency basis pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 11346) of Chapter 3.5 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, based on the finding by the department that these regulations are necessary to assure that local jurisdictions receive funding for health services on a timely basis in order to promote and protect the health and safety of the people of California.

SEC. 179. Section 3 of Chapter 61 of the Statutes of 1978, as amended by Chapter 1055 of the Statutes of 1979, is repealed.

SEC. 180. The repeal, by Section 179 of this act, of Section 3 of Chapter 61 of the Statutes of 1978, as amended by Chapter 1055 of the Statutes of 1979, shall not become operative if Section 19356 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Section 151 of this act, does not become operative or Chapter 22 (commencing with Section 19351) of Part 10 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed during the 1982 calendar year.

SEC. 181. Any section of any act enacted by the Legislature during the 1983 calendar year, which takes effect on or before January 1, 1984, and which amends, amends and renumbers, adds, repeals and adds, or repeals a section amended, amended and renumbered, repealed and added, or repealed by this act, shall prevail over this act, whether that act is enacted prior to or subsequent to this act.

[Approved by Governor June 28, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 28, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2902 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2902. As used in this chapter, unless the context clearly requires otherwise and except as in this chapter expressly otherwise provided:

(a) "Licensed psychologist" means an individual to whom a license has been issued pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, and which license is in force and has not been suspended or revoked.

(b) "Board" means the Division of Allied Health Professions of the Board of Medical Quality Assurance. "Committee" means the Psychology Examining Committee.

(c) A person represents himself or herself to be a psychologist when the person holds himself or herself out to the public by any title or description of services incorporating the words "psychology," "psychological," "psychologist," "psychometry," "psychometrics" or "psychometrist," "psychotherapy," "psychotherapist," "psychoanalysis," "psychoanalyst" or when the person holds himself or herself out to be trained, experienced, or an expert in the field of psychology.

(d) "Accredited," as used with reference to academic institutions, means the University of California, the California State University, an institution accredited under the provisions of subdivision (a) of Section 94310 of the Education Code, or an institution located in another state which is accredited by a national or an applicable regional accrediting agency recognized by the United States Department of Education.

(e) "Approved," as used with reference to academic institutions, means approved under the provisions of subdivision (b) of Section 94310 of the Education Code.

SEC. 2. Section 2080.9 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2080.9. The Trustees of the California State University may provide by resolution or regulation for the care, restitution, sale, or destruction of unclaimed, lost, or abandoned property in the possession of any state university. Any resolution or regulation adopted pursuant to this section shall include therein (1) that such unclaimed or lost property shall be held by the particular state university for a period of at least six months, (2) that thereafter such property, as well as abandoned property, will be sold at public auction to the highest bidder, and (3) that notice of such sale shall be given by the Trustees of the California State University at least five days before the time therefor by publication once in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which such property is held. The Trustees of the California State University may dispose of any such property upon which no bid is made at any such sale.

SEC. 3. Section 8080 of the Education Code is amended to read: 8080. For purposes of this chapter, the determination of definite need shall be established by the appropriate body as follows:

(a) The determination of need for a regional occupational center shall be established by the governing body of the agency maintaining the center.

(b) The determination of need for a high school shall be established by the governing body of the district maintaining the high school.

(c) The determination of need for a community college shall be established by the governing body of the district maintaining the community college.

(d) The determination of need for a state university shall be established by the Trustees of the California State University.

SEC. 4. Section 8081 of the Education Code is amended to read: 8081. No programs, courses, classes, or instruction in cosmetology, as defined by Section 7321 of the Business and Professions Code, shall be initiated or expanded by any regional occupational center, high school, public community college, or campus of the California State University unless and until a determination has been made, by the appropriate body pursuant to Section 8080, that a definite need exists for the initiation or expansion of such instruction and that existing private institutions offering the same or similar instruction are not adequately meeting that need.

SEC. 5. Section 8084 of the Education Code is amended to read:

8084. The appropriate body, as referred to in Section 8080, shall report its findings at a public meeting within 90 days from the date of being notified by a regional occupational center, high school, community college, or campus of the California State University of its intent to initiate or expand its teaching of cosmetology.

SEC. 6. Section 10000 of the Education Code is amended to read:

10000. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Trustees of the California State University and any school district or community college district may enter into an agreement for the exchange of personnel between the state university and the district.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to limit the present authority of the parties, which exists by law, to participate in other agreements concerning the exchange, transfer, or temporary assignment of personnel.

SEC. 7. Section 10001 of the Education Code is amended to read:

10001. An agreement authorized by Section 10000 shall provide that an employee of the California State University engaged in teacher training may assume the duties of one of the certificated employees of the district engaged in classroom teaching, and that the certificated employee of the district may assume the duties of the state university employee engaged in teacher training.

SEC. 8. Section 10003 of the Education Code is amended to read:

10003. During such time as an employee has assumed duties in another entity, pursuant to this chapter, he or she shall continue to be an employee of the California State University, the school district, or the community college district, as the case may be, for all purposes, including, but not limited to, salary, membership in a retirement system, tenure rights, and all other incidents of employment.

SEC. 9. Section 10101 of the Education Code is amended to read:

10101. The Commission on Teacher Credentialing shall develop, on or before January 15th of each year, a status report on local, state, and federally funded bilingual-crosscultural teacher preparation programs. The report shall be made to the Legislature not later than February 15th of each year. The Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, the Trustees of the California State University, and the Regents of the University of California shall, by November 15 of each year, report to the Commission on Teacher Credentialing with reference to their programs in bilingual-crosscultural teacher training. The report shall include, but not be limited to, information on special classes or programs leading to a certificate of competence for bilingual-crosscultural instruction, preservice or in-service programs offered by these institutions to bilingual-crosscultural teachers or teacher aides, the number of persons enrolled in the programs, and any other relevant data requested by the Commission on Teacher Credentialing.

SEC. 10. Section 10103 of the Education Code is amended to read:

10103. The Commission on Teacher Credentialing shall, with the assistance of a representative appointed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, the Chancellor of the California State University, the President of the University of California, and with five presently practicing teachers appointed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, design a comprehensive language and culture curriculum for teachers who are already certificated. The curriculum shall be designed to enable teachers to qualify for the bilingual-crosscultural certificate of competence authorized pursuant to Section 44253.5. Initial programs to assist in the development of this shall be offered at not less than five public institutions of higher education in California, beginning not later than September 1, 1977.

SEC. 11. Section 10105 of the Education Code is amended to read:

10105. The Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges and the Trustees of the California State University shall, within their respective systems, establish a policy of recruitment and appointment of professors of bilingual-crosscultural education.

SEC. 12. Section 12090 of the Education Code is amended to read:
12090. Subject to the provisions of this article, the State Department of Education acting by and through the Director of Education is hereby authorized to enter into an agreement, or agreements, with the Veterans Administration, or any other agency of the federal government, for the education of veterans in any of the schools of the public school system, except the California State University. The contract shall provide for the payment to the schools through the State Department of Education or otherwise of the maximum amount permitted by the act, or acts, of Congress under which the agreement, or agreements, is entered into by the Veterans Administration, or any other agency of the federal government.

SEC. 13. Section 22509 of the Education Code is amended to read:
22509. Members who on January 1, 1976, are in state service positions according to former Section 13948 as it read on December 31, 1975, or who are employees of the Trustees of the California State University, may elect in writing prior to July 1, 1976, not to continue as members of this system and to transfer membership to the Public Employees' Retirement System. Failure to execute and file the election, which shall be received in the office of this system by the close of business on June 30, 1976, shall be deemed a decision to remain as a member of this system.

SEC. 14. Section 23918 of the Education Code is amended to read:
23918. Any retirant whose last employment was in the California State University, as a member of this system or the Public Employees' Retirement System, may serve as a member of the teaching staff of the California State University and shall be subject to the employment limitations as provided by the Public Employees' Retirement Law (Part 3 (commencing with Section 20000) of Division 5 of Title 2 of the Government Code).

SEC. 15. Section 23921 of the Education Code is amended to read:
23921. Upon retaining the services of a retirant as an employee under the provisions of Section 23918 or 23919, the school district, community college district, county superintendent of schools, California State University, or other employing agency shall do both of the following:

(a) Advise the retirant of the earnings limitation set forth in Sections 23918 and 23919.

(b) Maintain accurate records of the retirant's earnings and report those earnings monthly to the system and the retirant regardless of the method of payment or the fund from which the payments were made.

This section shall not be construed to make any school district, community college district, county superintendent of schools, the California State University, or other employing agency liable for any amount paid to the retirant in excess of the earnings limitation under any circumstance, including the failure to inform the retirant that continuation of service would exceed the limitations.

SEC. 16. Section 32220 of the Education Code is amended to read:

32220. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Educational institution" means a school district, a community college district, a state university, the University of California, and the State Department of Education special schools.

(b) "Governing board" means the governing board of a school district or community college district, the Trustees of the California State University, and the Regents of the University of California.

(c) "Member of an athletic team" means member of any extramural athletic team engaged in athletic events on or outside the school grounds, maintained or sponsored by the educational institution or a student body organization thereof. "Member of an athletic team" also includes members of school bands or orchestras, cheerleaders and their assistants, pompon girls, team managers and their assistants, and any student or pupil selected by the school or student body organization to directly assist in the conduct of the athletic event, including activities incidental thereto, but only while such members are being transported by or under the sponsorship or arrangements of the educational institution or a student body organization thereof to or from a school or other place of instruction and the place at which the athletic event is being conducted.

Organized rooting sections, student body members who are spectators, and other spectator students, who are not actually participating in the conduct of the athletic event, are not members of an athletic team. Participants in a playday or field day activity occurring occasionally during a school year, in which students of one or more particular grade levels from two or more schools of a school district or community college district participate in athletic contests, are not members of an athletic team. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed as prohibiting a governing board from extending the applicability of the provisions of this article to any of those persons, should the governing board elect so to do.

(d) "Student body organization" means any student organization under supervision of the educational institution or its officers.

SEC. 17. Section 32221 of the Education Code is amended to read:

32221. The governing board of any educational institution, except a school district or community college district and except the State Department of Education special schools as defined in Sections 59000, 59100, and 59200, shall provide for each member of an athletic team insurance protection for medical and hospital expenses resulting from accidental bodily injuries in an amount of at least five thousand dollars ($5,000) for all services for each member of an athletic team, through group, blanket, or individual policies of accident insurance from authorized insurers, or through a benefit and relief association described in paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 10493 of the Insurance Code. The coverage shall be for the injury to members of athletic teams arising while the members are engaged in or are preparing for an athletic event promoted under the sponsorship or arrangements of the educational institution or a student body organization thereof or while the members are being transported by or under the sponsorship or arrangements of the educational institution or a student body organization thereof to or from school or other place of instruction and the place of the athletic event. However, the Trustees of the California State University and the Regents of the University of California may authorize and require the student body organizations designated pursuant to this section, to be responsible for such medical and hospital expenses in any amount the trustees or the regents may specify, up to two hundred fifty dollars ($250), in which event the insurance protection for the health and accident expenses may include a deductible clause in the same amount.

The governing board of each school district or community college district and the State Department of Education special schools as defined in Sections 59000, 59100, and 59200 shall provide for each member of an athletic team insurance protection for medical and hospital expenses resulting from accidental bodily injuries in one of the following amounts:

(a) A group or individual medical plan with accidental benefits of at least two hundred dollars ($200) for each occurrence and major medical coverage of at least ten thousand dollars ($10,000), with no more than one hundred dollars ($100) deductible and no less than 80 percent payable for each occurrence.

(b) Group or individual medical plans which are certified by the Insurance Commissioner to be equivalent to the required coverage of at least one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500).

(c) At least one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) for all medical and hospital expenses.

Insurance protection in any of the above amounts shall be provided through group, blanket, or individual policies of accident insurance from authorized insurers or through a benefit and relief association described in paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 10493 of the Insurance Code. The coverage shall be for the injury to members of athletic teams arising while the members are engaged in or are preparing for an athletic event promoted under the sponsorship or arrangements of the educational institution or a student body organization thereof or while the members are being transported by or under the sponsorship or arrangements of the school districts or community college districts or a student body organization thereof to or from school or other place of instruction and the place of the athletic event. Minimum medical benefits under any insurance required by this subdivision shall be equivalent to the three dollars and fifty cents ($3.50) conversion factor as applied to the unit values contained in the minimum fee schedule adopted by the Division of Industrial Accidents of the Department of Industrial Relations, effective October 1, 1966.

The Trustees of the California State University and the Board of Regents of the University of California shall designate any student body organizations the trustees and the regents deem appropriate to bear the entire cost of the insurance under this article, in such proportions as they deem equitable, and shall make appropriate deductions from any student body organization funds held by the institutions, or otherwise take such measures, as will assure the payment thereof.

The governing boards of the various school districts or community college districts and the State Department of Education special schools shall require that each member of an athletic team have insurance protection as prescribed by this section, with the costs of the insurance protection to be paid either out of the funds of the district or the funds of the student body, or by any other persons on behalf of, the individual team members or students covered by the insurance. In the event that the governing board of a school district or community college district should determine that a member of an athletic team or the parents, guardian, or other person having charge or control of a member of an athletic team are financially unable to pay the costs of insurance protection, then the governing board shall require the costs of the protection to be paid either out of funds of the district or funds of the student body.

The insurance required by this article shall be issued by an admitted insurer, or through a benefit and relief association described in paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 10493 of the Insurance Code.

The insurance otherwise required by this section shall not be required for any individual team member or student who has insurance or a reasonable equivalent of health benefits coverage provided for him or her in any other way or manner, including, but not limited to, purchase by himself or herself, or by his or her parent or guardian.

SEC. 18. Section 32320 of the Education Code is amended to read:

32320. No state-owned college, university, or other school shall charge any tuition, or incidental fees to any of the following:

(a) Any dependent receiving assistance under Article 2 (commencing with Section 890) of Chapter 4 of Division 4 of the Military and Veterans Code.

(b) Any child of any veteran of the United States military service who has a service-connected disability, and whose annual income not including governmental compensation for such service-connected disability, does not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(c) Any child of any veteran who has been killed in service or has died of a service-connected disability, where the annual income of the child, including the value of any support received from a parent, and the annual income of a surviving parent, does not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000).

Nothing contained in this section shall prevent the Regents of the University of California from charging to and collecting from nonresident students an admission fee and rate of tuition nor shall anything in this section prevent the charging and collecting of fees required of nonresident students admitted to schools under the jurisdiction of the State Department of Education or the Director of Education or to a state university under the jurisdiction of the Trustees of the California State University.

This section shall not apply to a dependent of a veteran within the meaning of paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 890 of the Military and Veterans Code.

SEC. 19. Section 33031 of the Education Code is amended to read:

33031. The board shall adopt rules and regulations not inconsistent with the laws of this state (a) for its own government, (b) for the government of its appointees and employees, (c) for the government of the day and evening elementary schools, the day and evening secondary schools, and the technical and vocational schools of the state, and (d) for the government of other schools, excepting the University of California and the California State University, as may receive in whole or in part financial support from the state.

The rules and regulations adopted shall be published for distribution as soon as practicable after adoption.

SEC. 20. Section 33113 of the Education Code is amended to read:

33113. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall prescribe regulations under which contracts, agreements, or arrangements may be made with agencies of the federal government for funds, services, commodities, or equipment to be made available to schools of the public school system, except the California State University.

SEC. 21. Section 33115 of the Education Code is amended to read:

33115. The Superintendent of Public Instruction may enter into an agreement with the government of the United States or any agency thereof relative to the establishment of courses of study in aeronautics in the technical schools of the public school system, except the California State University.

SEC. 22. The heading of Article 4 (commencing with Section 37050) of Chapter 1 of Part 22 of the Education Code is amended to read:

Article 4. Contracts with the California State University

SEC. 23. Section 39363.5 of the Education Code, as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 643 of the Statutes of 1981, is amended to read:

39363.5. Except as provided for in Article 2 (commencing with Section 39030) of Chapter 1, the sale or lease with an option to purchase of real property by a school district shall be in accordance with the following priorities and procedures.

(a) First, the property shall be offered for park or recreational purposes pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 54220) of Chapter 5 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, in any instance in which that article is applicable.

(b) Second, the property shall be offered for sale or lease with an option to purchase, at fair market value, in both of the following ways:

(1) In writing, to the Director of General Services, the Regents of the University of California, the Trustees of the California State University, the county and city in which the property is situated, and to any public housing authority in the county in which the property is situated.

(2) By public notice to any public district, public authority, public agency, public corporation, or any other political subdivision in this state, to the federal government, and to any charitable corporation determined by the Secretary of State to be a public benefit corporation under Part 2 (commencing with Section 5110) of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code. Public notice shall consist of at least publishing its intention to dispose of the real property in a newspaper of general circulation within the district, or if there is no newspaper of general circulation within the district, then in any newspaper of general circulation that is regularly circulated in the district. The notice shall specify that the property is being made available to all public districts, public authorities, public agencies, and other political subdivisions or public corporations in this state, and to nonprofit public benefit corporations.

Publication of notice pursuant to this section shall be once each week for three successive weeks. Three publications in a newspaper regularly published once a week or more often, with at least five days intervening between the respective publication dates not counting the publication dates, are sufficient. The written notice required by paragraph (1) of this subdivision shall be mailed no later than the date of the second published notice.

The entity desiring to purchase or lease the property shall, within 60 days after the third publication of notice, notify the school district of its intent to purchase or lease the property. If the entity desiring to purchase or lease the property and the district are unable to arrive at a mutually satisfactory price or lease payment during the 60-day period after the third publication of notice, the property may be disposed of as otherwise provided in this section. In the event the district receives offers from more than one entity pursuant to this subdivision, the school district governing board shall accept the highest offer. If two or more entities make the same offer, which is also the highest offer, the board shall seek an additional higher offer from all these entities. In the event no additional higher offer is made, the board may determine which of the original highest offers to accept.

Before accepting any written proposal, the board shall call for oral bids from entities with a priority pursuant to this subdivision, or with a higher priority. If, upon the call for oral bidding, an entity offers to purchase the property or to lease the property for a price or rental exceeding by at least 5 percent, the highest written proposal, after deducting the commission, if any, to be paid a licensed real estate broker, shall be finally accepted. Final acceptance shall not be made, however, until the oral bid is reduced to writing and signed by the offeror.

(c) Third, the property may be disposed of in any other manner authorized by law.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1988, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1988, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 24. Section 39363.5 of the Education Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 643 of the Statutes of 1981, is amended to read:

39363.5. Except as provided for in Article 2 (commencing with Section 39030) of Chapter 1, the sale or lease with an option to purchase of real property by a school district shall be in accordance with the following priorities and procedures.

(a) First, the property shall be offered for park or recreational purposes pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 54220) of Chapter 5 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, in any instance in which that article is applicable.

(b) Second, the property shall be offered for sale or lease with an option to purchase, at fair market value in both of the following ways:

(1) In writing, to the Director of General Services, the Regents of the University of California, the Trustees of the California State University, the county and city in which the property is situated, and to any public housing authority in the county in which the property is situated.

(2) By public notice to any public district, public authority, public agency, public corporation, or any other political subdivision in this state, to the federal government, and to nonprofit charitable corporations existing on December 31, 1979, and organized pursuant to Part 3 (commencing with Section 10200) of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code then in effect or organized on or after January 1, 1980, as a public benefit corporation under Part 2 (commencing with Section 5110) of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code. Public notice shall consist of at least publishing its intention to dispose of the real property in a newspaper of general circulation within the district, or if there is no newspaper of general circulation in the district, then in any newspaper of general circulation that is regularly circulated in the district. The notice shall specify that the property is being made available to all public districts, public authorities, public agencies, and other political subdivisions or public corporations in this state, and to other nonprofit charitable or nonprofit public benefit corporations.

Publication of notice pursuant to this section shall be once each week for three successive weeks. Three publications in a newspaper regularly published once a week or more often, with at least five days intervening between the respective publication dates not counting the publication dates, are sufficient. The written notice required by paragraph (1) shall be mailed no later than the date of the second published notice.

The entity desiring to purchase or lease the property shall, within 60 days after the third publication of notice, notify the school district of its intent to purchase or lease the property. If the entity desiring to purchase or lease the property and the district are unable to arrive at a mutually satisfactory price or lease payment during the 60-day period, the property may be disposed of as otherwise provided in this section. In the event the district receives offers from more than one entity pursuant to this subdivision, the school district governing board may determine which of such offers to accept.

(c) Third, the property may be disposed of in any other manner authorized by law.

This section shall become operative January 1, 1988.

SEC. 25. Section 44212 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44212. The Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Regents of the University of California, the Trustees of the California State University, the California Postsecondary Education Commission, and the Association of Independent California Colleges and Universities shall each appoint a representative to serve as member ex officio without vote in proceedings of the commission.

The ex officio members shall not vote in any proceedings of the commission nor in any of its committees or subcommittees, except, by a majority vote of the commission, ex officio members may be permitted to vote in committees or subcommittees in order to establish a quorum as otherwise determined by majority vote of the commission.

SEC. 26. Section 44315 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44315. Notwithstanding any provisions of law or administrative regulations, a California state university may approve a "diversified" or a "liberal arts" degree, provided that all coursework used to meet such requirements is provided in the several academic schools or departments, other than the school or department of education or educational methodology, of the institution.

SEC. 27. Section 44521 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44521. The University of California, the California State University, or any private institution of higher education may participate in the program prescribed in this article.

SEC. 28. Section 44522 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44522. Any school district may enter into an agreement with the University of California, the California State University, or any private institution of higher education to participate in the New Careers Program prescribed in this article.

SEC. 29. Section 44525 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44525. An intern shall be enrolled in at least a 6-week, but not more than a 12-week, preservice program at the participating university, campus of the California State University, or private institution of higher education.

SEC. 30. Section 44528 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44528. An intern shall enroll in a course of study at the participating university, campus of the California State University, or private institution of higher education which will lead to a baccalaureate degree and a teaching credential.

SEC. 31. Section 44529 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44529. The team leader and his or her interns shall, in addition to teaching duties, be afforded time for a teacher education program to be carried out under the guidance of the team leader in cooperation with the participating university, campus of the California State University, or private institution of higher education.

SEC. 32. Section 44531 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44531. The participating school district shall pay to the intern an amount equivalent to the tuition fees or college or university fees, or both, if levied, upon the intern attending the participating university, campus of the California State University, or private institution of higher education.

SEC. 33. Section 44534 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44534. The participating university, campus of the California State University, and private institution of higher education shall fund its own costs involved in the program prescribed by this article.

SEC. 34. Section 44574 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44574. The governing board of any school district may contract with institutions of higher education, including the University of California, the California State University, and private institutions, and with research centers or regional education laboratories for any of these institutions, centers, or laboratories, to furnish academic and consulting services for purposes of a staff development project. The school district shall be deemed the contracting agency and shall be responsible for coordination and administration of the staff development project.

SEC. 35. Section 44585 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44585. The governing board of any school district may contract with institutions of higher education, including the University of California, the California State University, and private institutions, and with research centers or regional education laboratories for any of these institutions, centers, or laboratories, to furnish academic and consulting services for purposes of a staff development project. The school district shall be deemed the contracting agency and shall be responsible for coordination and administration of the staff development project.

SEC. 36. Section 44857 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44857. Each person employed by the governing board of a school district for a position requiring certification qualifications shall, not later than 60 days after the date fixed by the governing board of the district for the commencement of the person's service, register, in the manner prescribed by Section 44310, a valid certification document issued on or before that date, authorizing the person to serve in the position for which he or she was employed, and shall, not later than 60 days after the renewal thereof, register the renewed certification document in the manner prescribed by Section 44310. If any person so employed is the holder of a California State University, or state teachers college, diploma accompanied by the certificate of the State Board of Education, or of an educational or life diploma of this state, and has presented the diploma to, and has had his or her name recorded by, the county superintendent of schools of the county, the person shall be deemed to have registered the diploma under Section 44310.

SEC. 37. Section 52342 of the Education Code is amended to read:

52342. In the implementation of this article, the State Department of Education shall, on a regular basis, advise and consult with representatives of the Employment Development Department, the office of the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, the California Postsecondary Education Commission, the University of California, the Chancellor of the California State University, the Commission on Teacher Credentialing, the Department of Industrial Relations, the Department of Consumer Affairs, the California Advisory Council on Vocational Education and Technical Training, and the State Personnel Board.

SEC. 38. Section 54405 of the Education Code is amended to read:

54405. (a) The State Board of Education may establish programs of the following types:

(1) Establishment of new curricula or modification of existing curricula in connection with the education and training of prospective teachers, to incorporate instruction in methods and techniques developed by competent authorities designed to enable teachers effectively to teach disadvantaged children.

(2) Research and consultative work projects undertaken to assist state and local public school agencies in carrying out their responsibilities under this chapter.

(3) Independently, or in cooperation with any public or private agency or organization, engaging in research and development undertakings directed to overcoming disadvantage, together with related activities involving evaluation, demonstration, and dissemination of findings having to do with programs of compensatory education.

(b) It is the intent and aim of the Legislature that the University of California and the California State University participate to the extent practicable with local public school agencies and the State Board of Education in their endeavors under this chapter. It is recommended that greater attention be devoted in the training of teachers to their preparation in the techniques and skills required to cope with the problems of disadvantaged children at the preschool as well as the elementary and secondary level. The University of California and the California State University are urged to participate at the local level in the programs being administered by the local public school authorities and agencies, and to provide all technical and personnel services practicable.

SEC. 39. Section 54632 of the Education Code is amended to read:

54632. (a) A "program improvement school" is an elementary school, a junior high school, or a high school designated as such by the district and approved by the State Board of Education.

(b) A "community resource committee" is a committee appointed by the director of each program improvement school at least one-half of the membership of which is made up of parents of children participating in the program. The committee shall assist the director and the director's staff to plan and implement the educational program, identify community resources which could be utilized in the program, and inform the community of the proposed program. The membership of the community resource committee may include, in addition to parents of children participating in the program, but need not be limited to:

- (1) Parents of other pupils served by the school.
- (2) Pupils enrolled in the school.
- (3) Representatives of the community college, campus of the California State University, or university participating in the project.
- (4) Other individuals representing business and industry, organized labor, and representatives of local law enforcement, welfare, and employment agencies.

(c) If a parent advisory committee has been established for the school pursuant to Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965, the director may, at his or her election, designate it to serve as the community resource committee in lieu of the committee otherwise to be appointed pursuant to subdivision (b).

SEC. 40. Section 59006 of the Education Code is amended to read: 59006. The Superintendent of Public Instruction may authorize the California School for the Deaf to establish and maintain teacher training courses designed to prepare teachers of the public schools and such other persons holding a credential issued by the State Board of Education as are recommended by the president of a campus of the California State University, to give instruction to the deaf and the hard of hearing. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall prescribe standards for the admission of persons to the courses, and for the content of the courses.

The California School for the Deaf may enter into agreements with the Trustees of the California State University, the University of California, or any other university or college accredited by the State Board of Education as a teacher training educational institution, to provide practice teaching required for issuance of the credential authorizing the holder to teach the deaf and severely hard of hearing. The agreement may provide a reasonable payment, for services rendered, to teachers of the California School for the Deaf who have practice teachers under their direction.

SEC. 41. Section 59143 of the Education Code is amended to read: 59143. The Superintendent of Public Instruction may authorize the California School for the Blind to establish and maintain, either independently or in cooperation with the University of California or the Trustees of the California State University, teacher training courses for teachers of the blind. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall establish standards for the admission of persons to the courses, and for the content thereof.

The California School for the Blind may enter into agreements with the Trustees of the California State University, the University of California, or any other university or college accredited by the State Board of Education as a teacher training educational institution, to provide practice teaching required for issuance of the credentials authorizing the holder to teach the visually handicapped, the deaf-blind, or provide orientation and mobility instruction. The agreement may provide a reasonable payment, for services rendered, to teachers of the California School for the Blind who have practice teachers under their direction.

SEC. 42. Section 59211 of the Education Code is amended to read:

59211. The Superintendent of Public Instruction may, in cooperation with an accredited college or university, authorize the California schools for neurologically handicapped children to establish and maintain teacher training courses designed to prepare teachers to instruct neurologically handicapped children in special classes in the public school system. The Superintendent of Public Instruction, in cooperation with an accredited college or university, shall prescribe standards for the admission of persons to the courses, and for the contents of the courses. Courses conducted in the schools shall be counted toward requirements of a credential in the area of the educationally handicapped upon the establishment of the credential.

The diagnostic schools for neurologically handicapped children may enter into agreements with the Trustees of the California State University, the University of California, or any other university or college accredited by the State Board of Education as a teacher training educational institution, to provide practice teaching required for issuance of the credential authorizing the holder to teach the educationally handicapped. The agreement may provide a reasonable payment, for services rendered, to teachers of the diagnostic schools for neurologically handicapped children who have practice teachers under their direction.

SEC. 43. Section 60313 of the Education Code is amended to read:

60313. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall establish and maintain a central clearinghouse-depository and duplication center for specialized textbooks, reference books, recordings, study materials, tangible apparatus, equipment, and other similar items for the use of visually handicapped students enrolled in the public schools of California who may require their use as shall be determined by the state board.

The instructional materials in specialized media shall be available to other handicapped minors enrolled in the public schools of California who are unable to benefit from the use of conventional print copies of textbooks, reference books, and other study materials in a manner determined by the state board.

The specialized textbooks, reference books, recordings, study materials, tangible apparatus, equipment, and other similar items shall be available for use by visually handicapped students enrolled in the public community colleges, the California State University, and the University of California.

SEC. 44. Section 66010 of the Education Code is amended to read:
66010. Public higher education consists of (a) all public community colleges, (b) the California State University, and each campus, branch, and function thereof, (c) each campus, branch, and function of the University of California, and (d) the California Maritime Academy.

SEC. 45. Section 66011 of the Education Code is amended to read:
66011. It is hereby declared to be the policy of the Legislature that all resident applicants to California institutions of public higher education, who are determined to be qualified by law or by admission standards established by the respective governing boards, should be admitted to either (1) the public community colleges, (2) the California State University, or (3) the University of California.

SEC. 46. Section 66016 of the Education Code is amended to read:
66016. It is the intent of the Legislature that opportunities for participation in intercollegiate athletic programs in the community colleges, in the campuses of the California State University, and in the campuses of the University of California be provided on as equal a basis as is practicable to male and female students.

The costs of providing these equal opportunities may vary according to the type of sports contained within the respective men's and women's athletic programs. Therefore it is also the intent of the Legislature that additional sources of revenue should be determined to provide additional funds for these equal opportunity programs.

SEC. 47. Section 66102 of the Education Code is amended to read:
66102. For purposes of this chapter, "public higher education" shall consist of (a) all public community colleges, (b) the California State University, and each campus, branch, and function thereof, (c) each campus, branch, and function of the University of California, and (d) the California Maritime Academy.

SEC. 48. Section 66202 of the Education Code is amended to read:
66202. It is further the intent of the Legislature that the following categories be established, insofar as practicable in the following order, for the purpose of enrollment planning and admission priority practice at the undergraduate resident student level for the California State University and the University of California:

- (1) Continuing undergraduate students in good standing.
- (2) California residents who have successfully completed the first two years of their baccalaureate program.
- (3) California residents entering at the freshman or sophomore levels.

It is further the intent of the Legislature that within each of the preceding enrollment categories, the following groups of applicants receive priority consideration in admissions practice in the following order:

- (a) Residents of California who are recently released veterans of the armed forces of the United States.
- (b) Transfers from California public community colleges.
- (c) Applicants who have been previously enrolled at the campus to which they are applying, provided they left such institution in good standing.

(d) Applicants who have a degree or credential objective that is not generally offered at other public institutions of higher learning within California.

(e) Applicants for whom the distance involved in attending another institution would create financial or other hardships.

It is further the intent of the Legislature that those veterans referred to in subdivision (a) who were enrolled in good standing at a campus of the University of California or at one of the California state universities prior to military service receive priority over other veterans recently released from military service.

(4) Residents of other states and foreign countries.

The segments may, in implementing these enrollment plans and admissions priorities, consider the overall needs of students in maintaining a balanced program and a quality curriculum.

SEC. 49. Section 66203 of the Education Code is amended to read:

66203. The California State University and the University of California shall keep a record of the applicants denied admission and develop and utilize an information collection system which indicates the number of qualified applicants who could not be accommodated at their campus of first choice and were redirected to campuses of alternate choice and the number of qualified redirected applicants who declined an offer of admission to an alternate campus.

SEC. 50. Section 66300 of the Education Code is amended to read:

66300. The Regents of the University of California, the Trustees of the California State University, and the governing board of every community college district, shall adopt or provide for the adoption of specific rules and regulations governing student behavior along with applicable penalties for violation of the rules and regulations. The institutions shall adopt procedures by which all students are informed of such rules and regulations, with applicable penalties, and any revisions thereof.

SEC. 51. Section 66500 of the Education Code is amended to read:

66500. The University of California may provide instruction in the liberal arts and sciences and in the professions, including the teaching professions. It shall have exclusive jurisdiction in public higher education over instruction in the profession of law and over graduate instruction in the professions of medicine, dentistry, and veterinary medicine. It has the sole authority in public higher education to award the doctoral degree in all fields of learning, except that it may agree with the California State University to award joint doctoral degrees in selected fields. It shall be the primary state-supported academic agency for research.

SEC. 52. The heading of Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 66600) of Part 40 of the Education Code is amended to read:

CHAPTER 8. CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY

SEC. 53. Section 66601 of the Education Code is amended to read:
66601. Whenever, in any law, the term "Trustees of the State College System of California" or "Trustees of the California State University," or the term "chief executive officer of the state college system" is used, such terms shall be deemed to mean the Trustees of the California State University and the Chancellor of the California State University, respectively.

SEC. 54. Section 66605 of the Education Code is amended to read:
66605. If the trustees and the Regents of the University of California both consent, the Chancellor of the California State University shall sit with the Regents of the University of California in an advisory capacity and the President of the University of California shall sit with the trustees in an advisory capacity.

SEC. 55. Section 66606 of the Education Code is amended to read:
66606. The Trustees of the California State University shall succeed to the powers, duties, and functions with respect to the management, administration, and control of the state colleges heretofore vested in the State Board of Education or in the Director of Education, including all powers, duties, obligations, and functions specified in Article 2 (commencing with Section 90010) of Chapter 8 of Part 55, and all obligations assumed by the State Board of Education pursuant to that article prior to July 1, 1961.

On and after July 1, 1961, the Trustees of the California State University shall have full power and responsibility in the construction and development of any state university campus, and any buildings or other facilities or improvements connected with the California State University. The powers shall be exercised by the Trustees of the California State University notwithstanding the provisions of Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 14100) and Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 14250) of Part 5 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, except that the powers shall be carried out pursuant to the procedures prescribed by these laws.

The Trustees of the California State University may accept gifts of land, or gifts of options on land, may accept and expend gifts of money for the purchase of land or options on land, and may enter into negotiations and contracts for the purchase of land for a future state university site in the vicinity of any of the areas specified in the recommendations contained in the Master Plan for Higher Education printed on page 42, paragraph 5, Senate Journal (Regular Session) for February 1, 1960, except that the gifts, expenditures, negotiations, and contracts shall not obligate the expenditure of any state funds for the purchase of the land or for development on the land, unless the Legislature shall subsequently approve the obligation by appropriating the funds for that specific purpose.

Any acceptance, acceptance and expenditure, or negotiations and contract may be conditioned upon an automatic reversion back to the donor or automatic termination of the negotiations and contract if a new state university is not established at a specific site prior to a specific date designated by the trustees and the donor or the trustees and the person or corporation with whom the trustees are negotiating or contracting.

SEC. 56. Section 66607 of the Education Code is amended to read:

66607. The California State University shall be entirely independent of all political and sectarian influence and kept free therefrom in the appointment of its trustees and in the administration of its affairs, and no person shall be debarred admission to any department of the state university on account of sex.

SEC. 57. Section 66609 of the Education Code is amended to read:

66609. All state employees employed on June 30, 1961, in carrying out functions transferred to the Trustees of California State University by this chapter, except persons employed by the Director of Education in the Division of State Colleges and Teacher Education of the Department of Education, are transferred to the California State University.

Nonacademic employees so transferred shall retain their respective positions in the state service, together with the personnel benefits accumulated by them at the time of transfer, and shall retain such rights as may attach under the law to the positions which they held at the time of transfer. All nonacademic positions filled by the trustees on and after July 1, 1961, shall be by appointment made in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 89500) of Part 55, and persons so appointed shall be subject to the provisions of Chapter 5.

The trustees shall provide, or cooperate in providing, academic and administrative employees transferred by this section with personnel rights and benefits at least equal to those accumulated by them as employees of the state colleges, except that any administrative employee may be reassigned to an academic or other position commensurate with his or her qualifications at the salary fixed for that position. An administrative employee so reassigned shall have a right to appeal from such reassignment, but only as to whether the position to which he or she is reassigned is commensurate with his or her qualifications. All academic and administrative positions filled by the trustees on and after July 1, 1961, shall be filled by appointment made solely at the discretion of the trustees. The trustees shall establish and adjust the salaries and classifications of all academic, nonacademic, and administrative positions and neither Section 18004 of the Government Code nor any other provision of law requiring approval by a state officer or agency for salaries or classifications shall be applicable thereto. In establishing and adjusting salaries, consideration shall be given to the maintenance of the state university in a competitive position in the recruitment and retention of qualified personnel in relation to other educational institutions, private industry, or public jurisdictions which are employing personnel with similar duties and responsibilities. The establishment and adjustment of salaries for nonacademic employees shall be in accordance with the standards prescribed in Section 18850 of the Government Code. The trustees, however, shall make no adjustments which require expenditures in excess of existing appropriations available for the payment of salaries. The provisions of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 89500) of Part 52 relating to appeals from dismissal, demotion, or suspension shall be applicable to academic employees.

Persons excluded from the transfer made by this section shall retain all the rights and privileges conferred upon civil service employees by law. Personnel of state agencies employed in state university work other than those transferred by this section and who are employed by the trustees prior to July 1, 1962, shall be provided with personnel rights and benefits at least equal to those accumulated by them as employees of such state agencies.

If the provisions of this section are in conflict with the provisions of a memorandum of understanding reached pursuant to Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 3560) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code, the memorandum of understanding shall be controlling without further legislative action, except that if the provisions of a memorandum of understanding require the expenditure of funds, the provisions shall not become effective unless approved by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 58. Section 66901 of the Education Code is amended to read: 66901. There is hereby created the California Postsecondary Education Commission, which shall be advisory to the Governor, the Legislature, other appropriate governmental officials, and institutions of postsecondary education. The commission shall be composed of the following members:

(a) One representative of the Regents of the University of California designated by the regents, one representative of the Trustees of the California State University designated by the trustees, and one representative of the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges designated by the board. Representatives of the regents, the trustees, and the board of governors shall be chosen from among the appointed members of their respective boards, but in no instance shall an ex officio member of a governing board serve on the commission.

(b) One representative of the independent California colleges and universities which are accredited by a national or regional association which is recognized by the United States Department of Education. This member shall be appointed by the Governor from a list or lists submitted by an association or associations of those institutions.

(c) The chair or the designee of the chair of the Council for Private Postsecondary Educational Institutions.

(d) The President of the State Board of Education or his or her designee from among the other members of the board.

(e) Nine representatives of the general public appointed as follows: three by the Governor, three by the Senate Rules Committee, and three by the Speaker of the Assembly. It is the intent of the Legislature that the commission be broadly and equitably representative of the general public in the appointment of its public members and that the appointing authorities, therefore, shall confer to assure that their combined appointments include adequate representation on the basis of sex and on the basis of the significant racial, ethnic, and economic groups in the state.

No person who is employed by any institution of public or private postsecondary education shall be appointed to or serve on the commission, except that a person who is not a permanent, full-time employee and who has part-time teaching duties which do not exceed six hours per week may be appointed to and serve on the commission.

The commission members designated in subdivisions (a), (c), and (d) shall serve at the pleasure of their respective appointing authorities. The member designated in subdivision (b) shall serve a three-year term. The members designated in subdivision (e) shall each serve a six-year term. The respective appointing authority may appoint an alternate for each member who may, during the member's absence, serve on the commission and vote on matters before the commission. When vacancies occur prior to expiration of terms, the respective appointing authority may appoint a member for the remainder of the term.

Any person appointed pursuant to this section may be reappointed to serve additional terms.

Any person appointed pursuant to this section who no longer has the position which made him or her eligible for appointment may nonetheless complete his or her term of office on the commission.

No person appointed pursuant to this section shall, with respect to any matter before the commission, vote for or on behalf of, or in any way exercise the vote of, any other member of the commission.

The commission shall meet as often as it deems necessary to carry out its duties and responsibilities.

Any member of the commission who in any calendar year misses more than one-third of the meetings of the full commission forfeits his or her office, thereby creating a vacancy.

The commission shall select a chair from among the members representing the general public. The chair shall hold office for a term of one year and may be selected to successive terms.

There is established an advisory committee to the commission and the director, consisting of the chief executive officers of each of the public segments, or their designees, the Superintendent of Public Instruction or his or her designee, and an executive officer from each of the groups of institutions designated in subdivisions (b) and (c) to be designated by the respective commission representative from such groups. Commission meeting agenda items and associated documents shall be provided to the committee in a timely manner for its consideration and comments.

The commission may appoint any subcommittees or advisory committees it deems necessary to advise the commission on matters of educational policy. The advisory committees may consist of commission members or nonmembers or both, including students, faculty members, segmental representatives, governmental representatives, and representatives of the public.

The commission shall appoint and may remove a director in the manner hereinafter specified. The director shall appoint persons to any staff positions the commission may authorize.

The commission shall prescribe rules for the transaction of its own affairs, subject, however, to all the following requirement and limitations:

- (1) The votes of all representatives shall be recorded.
- (2) Effective action shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of all the duly appointed members of the commission, not including vacant commission seats.
- (3) The affirmative votes of two-thirds of all the duly appointed members of the commission, not including vacant commission seats, shall be necessary to the appointment of the director.

SEC. 59. Section 66903.1 of the Education Code is amended to read:

66903.1. The commission shall report to the Legislature and the Governor on March 1, 1980, and every two years thereafter until, and including, 1984, on the representation and utilization of ethnic minorities and women among academic, administrative, and other employees at the California State University, the University of California, and the public community colleges. To prepare this report, the commission shall collect data from each of the three segments of public postsecondary education. The format for this data shall be the higher education staff information form required biennially from all institutions of higher education by the Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the collection of which is coordinated by the California Postsecondary Education Commission.

(a) The higher education staff information form includes all the following types of data:

- (1) The number of full-time employees by job categories, ethnicity, sex, and salary ranges.
- (2) The number of full-time faculty by ethnicity, sex, rank, and tenure.
- (3) The number of part-time employees by job categories (including tenured, nontenured or tenure track, and other nontenured academic employees), ethnicity, and sex.
- (4) The number of full-time new hires by job categories (including tenured, nontenured or tenure track, and other nontenured academic employees), ethnicity, and sex.

(b) In addition to the above, the segments shall submit to the commission all the following:

- (1) Promotion and separation data for faculty and staff employees by ethnicity and sex for each of the two-year time periods beginning with 1977 to 1979.

(2) Narrative evaluation examining patterns of underutilization of women and minority employees among different job categories compared with the availability of qualified women and minorities for different job categories.

(3) Narrative evaluation examining specific results of affirmative action programs in reducing underutilization of women and minorities.

(4) Narrative evaluation of both strengths and inadequacies of current affirmative action programs, including inadequacies resulting from budgetary constraints.

(c) For purposes of this section, minorities and ethnic minorities shall include those persons defined as such by rules and regulations of the Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

This section shall remain in effect until January 1, 1985, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 60. Section 66904 of the Education Code is amended to read:

66904. It is the intent of the Legislature that sites for new institutions or branches of the University of California and the California State University, and the classes of off-campus centers as the commission shall determine, shall not be authorized or acquired unless recommended by the commission.

It is further the intent of the Legislature that California community colleges shall not receive state funds for acquisition of sites or construction of new institutions, branches, or off-campus centers unless recommended by the commission. Acquisition or construction of nonstate-funded community college institutions, branches, and off-campus centers, and proposals for acquisition or construction shall be reported to and may be reviewed and commented upon by the commission.

It is further the intent of the Legislature that existing or new institutions of public education, other than those described in subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 66010, shall not be authorized to offer instruction beyond the 14th grade level.

All proposals for new postsecondary educational programs shall be forwarded to the commission for review together with such supporting materials and documents as the commission may specify. The commission shall review the proposals within a reasonable length of time, which time shall not exceed 60 days following submission of the program and the specified materials and documents. For the purposes of this section, "new postsecondary educational programs" means all proposals for new schools or colleges, all series of courses arranged in a scope or sequence leading to (1) a graduate or undergraduate degree, or (2) a certificate of a type defined by the commission, which have not appeared in a segment's or district's academic plan within the previous two years, and all proposals for new research institutes or centers which have not appeared in a segment's or district's academic plan within the previous two years.

It is further the intent of the Legislature that the advice of the commission be utilized in reaching decisions on requests for funding new and continuing graduate and professional programs, enrollment levels, and capital outlay for existing and new campuses, colleges, and off-campus centers.

SEC. 61. Section 67003 of the Education Code is amended to read:

67003. The Trustees of the California State University on behalf of the California State University, the Regents of the University of California on behalf of the university, the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges on behalf of the community colleges, and the Board of Governors of the California Maritime Academy on behalf of the California Maritime Academy, are vested with all power and authority to perform all acts necessary to receive the benefits and to expend the funds provided by the act of Congress described in Section 67000 and with all necessary power and authority to cooperate with the government of the United States, or any agency or agencies thereof, and with the California Postsecondary Education Commission for the purpose of receiving the benefits and expending the funds provided by the act of Congress, in accordance with the act, or any rules or regulations adopted thereunder, or any state plan or rules or regulations of the California Postsecondary Education Commission adopted in accordance with the act of Congress. Whenever necessary to secure the full benefits of the act of Congress for loans or grants for academic facilities, the trustees, regents, or boards of governors may give any required security and may comply with any conditions imposed by the federal government.

SEC. 62. Section 67124 of the Education Code is amended to read:

67124. Whenever a student transfers from one public or private institution of postsecondary education to another within the state, appropriate records or a copy thereof shall be transferred by the former community college, college, or university upon a request from the student. However, the community college, college, or university from which the student is transferring may notify the student that his or her records will be transferred upon payment by the student of all fees and charges due the community college, college, or university. Any community college, college, or university making such a transfer of records shall notify the student of his or her right to receive a copy of the record and of his or her right to a hearing to challenge the content of the record.

The California State University Board of Trustees and the Regents of the University of California may adopt rules and regulations concerning transfer of records to, from, or between schools under their respective jurisdictions.

SEC. 63. Section 67146 of the Education Code is amended to read:

67146. The California State University Board of Trustees shall adopt appropriate rules and regulations to insure the orderly implementation of this chapter.

SEC. 64. Section 68011 of the Education Code is amended to read:
68011. "Institution" means the University of California, the California State University, the California Maritime Academy, or a California community college.

SEC. 65. Section 68012 of the Education Code is amended to read:
68012. "Governing board" means the Regents of the University of California, the Trustees of the California State University, the Board of Governors of the California Maritime Academy, or the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges.

SEC. 66. Section 68022 of the Education Code is amended to read:
68022. "Resident classification" means classification as a resident, pursuant to Section 68017, at the University of California, the California State University, and the California Maritime Academy, and as a district resident, pursuant to Section 68019, or a nondistrict resident, pursuant to Section 68020, at a California community college.

SEC. 67. Section 68040 of the Education Code is amended to read:
68040. Each student shall be classified as: (a) a resident or nonresident at the University of California, the California State University, or the California Maritime Academy; or (b) a district resident, nondistrict resident, or nonresident at a California community college.

SEC. 68. Section 68121 of the Education Code is amended to read:
68121. (a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, no fees or tuition of any kind shall be required of or collected by the Trustees of the California State University from any surviving child, natural or adopted, of a deceased person who met all the following requirements:

- (1) Who was a resident of this state.
- (2) Who was employed by a public agency.
- (3) Whose principal duties consisted of active law enforcement service or active fire suppression and prevention, except a person whose principal duties were clerical even though such a person was subject to occasional call or was occasionally called upon to perform duties within the scope of active law enforcement or active fire suppression and prevention.
- (4) Who was killed in the performance of active law enforcement or active fire suppression and prevention duties or who died as a result of an accident or an injury caused by external violence or physical force, incurred in the performance of his or her active law enforcement or active fire suppression and prevention duties.

(b) As used in this section, "public agency" means the state or any city, county, district, or other local authority or public body of or within this state.

SEC. 69. Section 68123 of the Education Code is amended to read:
68123. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Trustees of the California State University may enter into agreements with other universities or colleges located within the state whereby qualified students from campuses of the California State University may attend the other universities or colleges without payment of some or all fees or tuition, or both, charged by the other institutions, and students from the other institutions may attend campuses of the California State University without payment of some or all of the fees or tuition, or both, charged by the state university. During any year, however, the number of students attending campuses of the California State University from other universities or colleges, pursuant to the agreements entered in between the Trustees of the California State University and other universities and colleges, shall not exceed the number of students of the California State University attending the other institutions.

SEC. 70. Section 68124 of the Education Code is amended to read:

68124. The trustees may enter into agreements with public colleges and universities in other states whereby qualified students from the California State University may attend the other college or university without payment of any tuition fee charged by that institution to persons who are nonresidents of the state in which it is situate, and students from that institution may attend the California State University without payment of the nonresident tuition established pursuant to Section 89705. No nonresident tuition shall be charged of students attending a campus of the California State University pursuant to an agreement entered into under this section. During any year, however, the number of students attending the California State University from a particular public college or university in another state, pursuant to the agreement, shall not exceed the number of the California State University students attending the institution under that agreement.

SEC. 71. Section 68133 of the Education Code is amended to read:

68133. If an action is brought against a governing board as the result of the application of this chapter, that governing board shall inform the governing boards of the other institutions regarding the litigation. If an action is brought against a district governing board as a result of the application of this chapter, that district governing board shall inform the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, who shall inform the Regents of the University of California, the Trustees of the California State University, and the Board of Governors of the California Maritime Academy regarding the pending litigation.

SEC. 72. Section 69271 of the Education Code is amended to read:

69271. The term "family physician," as used in this chapter, means a primary care physician who is prepared to and renders continued comprehensive and preventative health care services to families and who has received specialized training in an approved family practice residency for three years after graduation from an accredited medical school.

The terms "associated" and "affiliated," as used in this chapter, mean that relationship that exists by virtue of a formal written agreement between a hospital or other health care delivery system and an approved medical school which pertains to the family practice training program for which state contract funds are sought. This definition shall include agreements which may be entered into subsequent to October 2, 1973, as well as those relevant agreements which are in existence prior to October 2, 1973.

The term "commission," as used in this chapter, means the Health Manpower Policy Commission.

The term "programs which train primary care physician's assistants," as used in this chapter, means a program which has been approved for the training of primary care physician's assistants pursuant to Section 3513 of the Business and Professions Code.

The term "programs which train primary care nurse practitioners," as used in this chapter, means a program which is operated by a California school of medicine or nursing, or which is authorized by the Regents of the University of California or by the Trustees of the California State University, or which is approved by the Board of Registered Nursing.

SEC. 73. Section 69534.3 of the Education Code is amended to read:

69534.3. (a) The technical advisory committee shall be composed of all the following:

(1) Five students, one from each of the entities specified in paragraphs (3) to (7), inclusive, shall be selected by the Director of the California Postsecondary Education Commission.

(2) Two high school counselors, selected by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

(3) Two representatives of the California Community Colleges, selected by the Chancellor of the Community Colleges.

(4) Two representatives of the California State University, selected by the Chancellor of the California State University.

(5) Two representatives of the University of California, selected by the President of the University of California.

(6) Two representatives of independent colleges and universities, selected by the Director of the California Postsecondary Education Commission.

(7) Two representatives of private postsecondary education, selected by the Council on Private Postsecondary Education.

It is the intent of the Legislature that at least one of the representatives from each segment of postsecondary education be a practicing, campus-based student financial aid officer.

(b) Committee members shall receive no remuneration, other than reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses allowed by the State Board of Control incurred in the performance of their duties on the committee.

(c) Each committee member shall file annual financial disclosure statements required by the Fair Political Practices Commission.

(d) The Student Aid Commission shall provide staff support to the technical advisory committee during its evaluation of forms and processors. No member of the Student Aid Commission shall serve as a voting member of the technical advisory committee.

SEC. 74. The heading of Article 7 (commencing with Section 69620) of Chapter 2 of Part 42 of the Education Code is amended to read:

Article 7. California State University Educational Opportunity Program

SEC. 75. Section 69620 of the Education Code is amended to read: 69620. There is a state student assistance program which shall be known as the State University Educational Opportunity Program. It shall be the purpose of the program to provide educational assistance and grants for undergraduate study at the California State University to students who are economically disadvantaged or educationally and economically disadvantaged, but who display potential for success in accredited curricula offered by the California State University.

For the purposes of this chapter:

(a) "Trustees" means the Trustees of the California State University.

(b) "Educational agency" means an agency, other than a federal agency, which is supported in whole or in part by funds appropriated for educational purposes.

(c) "State agency" means every state office, officer, department, division, bureau, board, and commission.

(d) The residence of a recipient shall be determined in accordance with the rules for determining residence prescribed by Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 68000) of Part 41 and Article 1 (commencing with Section 89700) of Chapter 6 of Part 52.

SEC. 76. Section 69621 of the Education Code is amended to read: 69621. California State University Educational Opportunity Program grants may be awarded to persons selected for enrollment in programs authorized by the trustees according to the procedures established by the trustees. A person selected for a grant shall be a resident of this state, shall be a high school graduate or have, pursuant to the procedures, equivalent qualifications, and shall have been nominated by his or her high school, the Veterans Administration, a state agency or educational agency designated by the trustees, or a state university president. The trustees shall determine eligibility for grants awarded pursuant to this chapter. The grants may be granted and renewed according to standards set by the trustees until the student has received a baccalaureate degree or has completed five academic years, whichever occurs first. In special circumstances, as in the case of illness, military service, or family hardship, the trustees may renew the grant beyond the fifth year of study, provided the student has not received a baccalaureate degree. When the recipient is an enrollee in a special educational opportunity program approved by the trustees, for the purposes of this chapter, the state university sponsoring the program shall receive from the trustees reimbursement of up to sixty dollars ($60) per month per enrollee up to 12 months' support.

SEC. 77. Section 69622 of the Education Code is amended to read:

69622. Grants shall be provided for students who display potential for success in accredited curricula offered by the California State University, but lack the necessary funds to pay for tuition, books, and room and board, provided the students meet the standards of the state university which they are attending or the requirements for the special admissions program established by the trustees.

SEC. 78. Section 69624 of the Education Code is amended to read:

69624. Each high school in this state may nominate to the trustees students it deems deserving of the grants made available under this chapter. The trustees shall compile a list of students so nominated from which it may select students for grants in accordance with standards set by the trustees pursuant to this chapter. The Veterans Administration, any state agency, or educational agency designated by the trustees, or any president of a California State University may nominate persons whom they deem eligible for the grants.

SEC. 79. Section 69625 of the Education Code is amended to read:

69625. Records of the academic progress of each student attending a campus of the California State University under a grant shall be kept by each campus of the California State University having a program and forwarded to the trustees in order that the program created by this chapter may be evaluated.

SEC. 80. Section 69626 of the Education Code is amended to read:

69626. Each campus of the California State University may submit plans for a special educational opportunity program for approval by the trustees. Each program qualifying shall be authorized a program director and may be authorized as many special qualified counselors and advisers and the related operating and equipment support as is appropriate.

SEC. 81. Section 69627 of the Education Code is amended to read:

69627. This chapter shall be known as the California State University Educational Opportunity Act.

SEC. 82. Section 70022 of the Education Code is amended to read:

70022. The board of governors shall obtain the following services from the Trustees of the California State University pursuant to a contract providing for compensation, either in direct payment or by means of the exchange of services or use of facilities, to the trustees for the services:

(a) Legal services.

(b) Legislative representation.

(c) Assistance in curriculum development to the extent requested by the board of governors.

SEC. 83. Section 78001 of the Education Code is amended to read:

78001. The governing board of a community college district may contract with the Trustees of the California State University for the maintenance of a community college in a state university situated in the district. Any contract executed pursuant to this section shall include among its provisions a requirement that all expenditures incurred for community college maintenance shall be payable only on order of the governing board as all other expenditures of the district are payable, and an additional provision that the president of the state university shall serve as president of the community college and in that capacity shall be responsible to the governing board through the superintendent of schools of the district if there is one. Otherwise he or she shall be responsible directly to the governing board.

SEC. 84. Section 81363.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

81363.5. Except as provided for in Article 9 (commencing with Section 81190) of Chapter 1, the sale or lease with an option to purchase of real property by a community college district shall be in accordance with the following priorities and procedures.

(a) First, the property shall be offered for park or recreational purposes pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 54220) of Chapter 5 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, in any instance in which such article is applicable.

(b) Second, the property shall be offered for sale or lease with an option to purchase, at fair market value;

(1) In writing, to the Director of General Services, the Regents of the University of California, the Trustees of the California State University, the county and city in which the property is situated, and to any public housing authority in the county in which the property is situated; and

(2) By public notice to any public district, public authority, public agency, public corporation, or any other political subdivision in this state, to the federal government, and to nonprofit charitable corporations existing on December 31, 1979, and organized pursuant to Part 3 (commencing with Section 10200) of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code then in effect or organized for charitable purposes on or after January 1, 1980, under Part 2 (commencing with Section 5110) of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code. Public notice shall consist of at least publishing its intention to dispose of the real property in a newspaper of general circulation within the district, or if there is no such newspaper, then in any newspaper of general circulation that is regularly circulated in the district. The notice shall specify that the property is being made available to all public districts, public authorities, public agencies, and other political subdivisions or public corporations in this state, and to other nonprofit charitable or nonprofit public benefit corporations.

Publication of notice pursuant to this section shall be once each week for three successive weeks. Three publications in a newspaper regularly published once a week or more often, with at least five days intervening between the respective publication dates not counting such publication dates, are sufficient. The written notice required by paragraph (1) of this subdivision shall be mailed no later than the date of the second published notice.

The entity desiring to purchase or lease the property shall, within 60 days after the third publication of notice, notify the community college district of its intent to purchase or lease the property. If the entity desiring to purchase or lease the property and the district are unable to arrive at a mutually satisfactory price or lease payment during the 60-day period, the property may be disposed of as otherwise provided in this section. In the event the district receives offers from more than one entity pursuant to this subdivision, the school district governing board may, in its discretion, determine which of the offers to accept.

(c) Third, the property may be disposed of in any other manner authorized by law.

SEC. 85. Section 84500 of the Education Code is amended to read:

(2) A community college district may also include the attendance of students enrolled in approved courses or programs of independent study, including courses or programs formerly conducted as coordinated instruction systems, who are under the supervision, control, and evaluation, but not necessarily in the immediate presence, of an employee of the district who possesses a valid certification document. Such attendance may only be included for college level credit courses and programs which are accepted for completion of an appropriate educational sequence leading to an associate degree, and which generally are recognized upon transfer by an institution of the University of California or the California State University.

The community college district shall determine the nature, manner, and place of conducting any independent study course or program in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges to implement the purposes of this subdivision. The rules and regulations shall require community college districts to ensure that the components of each individual study course or program for each student shall be set out in a written record which includes the goals and methodology of the course or program, the number of units and hours of study required, the arrangements for consultation with the instructor, the work product to be evaluated, and the college facility required. The rules and regulations shall also provide for input from, and participation by, faculty, who are selected by academic senates or faculty councils, and students, in the development and evaluation of approved educational courses and programs.

The board of governors or its designee shall study the educational and fiscal effects of the authorization provided by this subdivision and shall report to the Legislature prior to June 30, 1981, on the appropriateness of deleting or extending the authorization, as well as other changes that should be made.

(b) For the purpose of work experience education programs in the community colleges meeting the standards of the California State Plan for Vocational Education, "immediate supervision" of off-campus work training stations means student participation in on-the-job training as outlined under a training agreement, coordinated by the community college district under a state-approved plan, wherein the employer and certificated school personnel share the responsibility for on-the-job supervision. The student/instructor ratio in the work experience program shall not exceed 125 students per full-time equivalent certificated coordinator.

(c) For purposes of computing the average daily attendance of a community college district, attendance shall also include student attendance and participation in in-service training courses in the areas of police, fire, corrections, and other criminal justice system occupations that conform to all apportionment attendance and course of study requirements otherwise imposed by law, if the courses are fully open to the enrollment and participation of the public. However, prerequisites for the courses shall not be established or construed so as to prevent academically qualified persons not employed by agencies in the criminal justice system from enrolling in and attending the courses.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (c) and any regulations adopted pursuant thereto, a community college may give preference in enrollment to persons employed by, or serving in a voluntary capacity with, a fire protection or fire prevention agency in any course of in-service fire training at the community college in cooperation with any fire protection or fire prevention agency or association. Preference shall only be given when such persons could not otherwise complete the course within a reasonable time and when no other training program is reasonably available. At least 15 percent of the enrollment in in-service fire training courses shall consist of persons who are neither volunteers of, nor employed by, a fire protection or prevention agency or association, if the persons are available to attend a course. Average daily attendance for the courses shall be reported for state aid.

(e) Subdivision (d) shall apply only to the following:

(1) Community colleges which, in cooperation with any fire protection or fire prevention agency or association, have been, as of January 1, 1980, the primary source of in-service fire training for any fire protection or fire prevention agency or association.

(2) Community colleges which, in cooperation with any fire protection or fire prevention agency or association, establish in-service fire training for any fire protection or fire prevention agency or association which did not have in-service fire training prior to January 1, 1980.

(f) In the event that certain in-service training courses are restricted to employees of police, fire, corrections, and other criminal justice agencies, attendance for the restricted courses shall not be reported for purposes of state apportionments. A community college district which restricts enrollment in in-service training courses may contract with any public agency to provide compensation for the cost of conducting such courses.

(g) Positive records of student admissions and daily attendance in all in-service training courses in the areas of police, fire, corrections, and other criminal justice system occupations, as described in subdivision (c), shall be maintained by each district and shall be separately reported annually to the Chancellor's office of the California Community Colleges.

SEC. 86. Section 87463 of the Education Code is amended to read:

87463. Any employee in a position requiring certification qualifications of a community college district who instructs in a four-year state institution of higher education maintained on the campus of the community college pursuant to contracts entered into between the Trustees of the California State University and the district, shall, without regard to subject or grade taught, whether of community college level or higher, acquire and retain all rights to employment in the district the same as though the employee were teaching exclusively in a community college of the the district. However, nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the employee from resigning from employment in the district pursuant to the provisions of Section 87730.

SEC. 87. The heading of Division 8 (commencing with Section 89000) of the Education Code is amended to read:

DIVISION 8. CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY

SEC. 90. Section 89004 of the Education Code is amended to read:
89004. The trustees, or a designated committee thereof, shall be a board of visitors to the Board of Governors of the California Maritime Academy and shall meet with the board of governors to discuss policies and concepts common to the two institutions, and to advise the board of governors.

However, the status as a board of visitors shall in no way affect the exclusive authority of the board of governors to administer the academy. Further, the California State University or the trustees shall not be legally responsible in any way for the acts or omissions of the California Maritime Academy or the board of governors.

SEC. 91. Section 89006 of the Education Code is amended to read:
89006. It is unlawful for any person to utilize any information, not a matter of public record, which is received by that person by reason of his or her employment by, or contractual relationship with, the trustees, the California State University, or an auxiliary organization of the California State University as defined in Section 89033, for personal pecuniary gain, not contemplated by the terms of the employment or contract, regardless of whether the person is or is not so employed or under contract at the time the gain is realized.

SEC. 92. Section 89030 of the Education Code is amended to read:
89030. The trustees shall adopt rules and regulations not inconsistent with the laws of this state for all of the following:

- (a) The government of the trustees.
- (b) The government of their appointees and employees.
- (c) The government of the California State University.

The rules and regulations shall be published for distribution as soon as practicable after adoption.

This section shall be liberally construed in order that the purposes of the Donahoe Higher Education Act pursuant to Part 40 (commencing with Section 66010) of Division 5 may be effectuated.

SEC. 93. Section 89031 of the Education Code is amended to read:
89031. The trustees may establish rules and regulations for the government and maintenance of the buildings and grounds of the California State University. Every person who violates or attempts to violate the rules and regulations is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 94. Section 89032 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89032. (a) Criteria for including the words "state university" in the name of any of the particular institutions designated in Section 89001 shall be jointly developed and approved by the Trustees of the California State University and the California Postsecondary Education Commission.

(b) Whenever the term "state university" is used in any provision of law, it shall be interpreted to refer to either a state college or a state university unless the context requires that it not be so interpreted.

SEC. 95. Section 89033 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89033. The name of any particular institution named in Section 89001 may be changed to read "California State University, _____," or "_____ State _____" (College or University, as the case may be), except that the institutions named in subdivisions (a), (b), (d), (e), (g), (h), and (p) of Section 89001 shall be changed to read "San Jose State University," "San Francisco State University," "Humboldt State University," "San Diego State University," "California Polytechnic State University, San Luis Obispo," "California State Polytechnic University, Pomona," and "Sonoma State College," respectively. However, the term "university" may be used in the name of a particular institution only after affirmative action by the trustees and the California Postsecondary Education Commission after consideration of the criteria developed pursuant to Section 89032.

SEC. 96. Section 89034 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89034. The designation of the California State University and the authority vested in the trustees to select and change the name of any institution of higher education in the California State University shall not be construed to contravene or conflict with the provisions of Section 66608.

SEC. 97. Section 89036 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89036. The trustees may enter into agreements with any public or private agency, officer, person, or institution, corporation, association, or foundation for the performance of acts or for the furnishing of services, facilities, materials, or equipment by or for the trustees or for the joint performance of an act or function or the joint furnishing of services and facilities by the trustees and the other party to the agreement.

The trustees may enter into agreements with the federal government or any agency thereof in accordance with the procedures prescribed by the federal government or agency in order to receive the benefits of any federal statute extending benefits to the California State University or to the California State University students, including, but not limited to:

(a) Agreements with any agency of the federal government for the education of persons in the service of the federal government.

(b) Agreements with any agency of the federal government for the education of veterans, provided that the agreements shall provide for payment of the maximum amount permitted under the act, or acts, of Congress under which the agreement is entered into.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the trustees have all power necessary to perform such acts and comply with conditions required or imposed by the federal government in order to receive the benefits. The trustees are vested with all necessary power and authority to cooperate with any such agency of the federal government in the administration of any applicable act of Congress and rules and regulations adopted thereunder.

The provisions of Article 1 (commencing with Section 4300) of Chapter 4 of Division 5 of Title 1 of the Government Code shall not apply to the purchase by the trustees of musical instruments for the use of students of the California State University.

SEC. 98. Section 89037 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89037. The trustees may establish facilities for training deaf persons at the campus of the California State University which the trustees shall designate for such purpose. The trustees shall do all of the following:

(a) Request the Department of Rehabilitation to refer deaf students to the designated state university.

(b) Recognize the designated campus of the California State University as a professional center for training deaf persons and take all action necessary to facilitate the receipt by the campus of state and federal funds.

SEC. 99. Section 89038 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89038. The trustees may enter into agreements with any agency of the federal government for the construction of housing and other educational facilities for students and faculties of any campus of the California State University under the jurisdiction of the trustees if they determine that the income, rent, and charges for the use of the facilities will be sufficient in amount to repay the principal and interest on the amount secured from the federal government for the construction of the facilities.

The trustees may also enter into agreements with any agency of the federal government which result in grants, matching funds, or any other kind of financial aid for construction of housing and other educational facilities for students and staff of any campus of the California State University under the jurisdiction of the trustees.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, whenever necessary to secure the full benefits of any federal statutes pertaining to loans, grants, matching funds, or any other kind of financial aid to educational institutions for housing and other educational facilities, the trustees may give such security as may be required and may comply with such conditions as may be imposed by the federal government.

SEC. 100. Section 89040 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89040. The trustees may insure the owner of any motor vehicle used in driver training and employees of the California State University and the students instructed by them against any liability, other than a liability which may be insured against under Division 4 (commencing with Section 3200) of the Labor Code, for injuries or damages resulting from the negligent operation of any motor vehicle while such motor vehicle is operated by the employees or by students in connection with the giving of instruction in the operation of motor vehicles within the curricula of the campus of the California State University.

SEC. 101. Section 89041 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89041. The trustees may give in the name of the State of California such bond as may be required by the federal government, or any officer or agency thereof, for the care, safekeeping, and return of property of the United States issued to the California State University for the Reserve Officer Training Corps unit maintained at the campus.

SEC. 102. Section 89044 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89044. The trustees may budget an amount to be expended in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the State Board of Control for use in carrying out the community relation responsibilities of the president of each campus of the California State University and of the chancellor, as defined by the trustees.

SEC. 103. Section 89045 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89045. The trustees shall establish an internal audit staff which shall include the staff positions authorized for internal auditing. The internal auditing staff shall report directly to the trustees and shall be available for consultation with any audit committee of the trustees which may be established by the trustees.

The duties of the internal audit staff shall include, but shall not be limited to, auditing, reviewing, cost and systems analysis, analyzing, and recommending operating procedures for the California State University.

Management audits shall be made to determine the effectiveness and efficiency of the organization, operation, and procedures of each state university, each auxiliary organization, and the office of the chancellor. Officials and employees of each state university, each auxiliary organization, and the office of the chancellor shall furnish all books, papers, contracts, management charts, and related information necessary for management audits.

SEC. 104. Section 89046 of the Education Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 867 of the Statutes of 1981, is amended to read:

89046. In addition to their general authority to lease property of a state university, the trustees may lease any property of a state university for any of the following purposes:

(a) The lease of state university property to a nonprofit organization composed exclusively of students of the university or of members of the faculty of the university, or both, for purposes related to the activities of the university or for the activities of student or faculty organizations.

(b) The lease of state university property to any nonprofit organization for the purpose of constructing and using thereon buildings as living quarters for students of the university and as meetingplaces.

(c) The lease to any student or faculty organization of the university of property for the purpose of establishing and maintaining cooperative stores, and cafeterias in connection with such stores.

Any rental received by the trustees under this or other leasing sections shall be deposited in the State Treasury and credited to the support appropriation of the California State University current during the period of occupancy.

Any lease under this section extending for a term of more than 20 years shall be approved by the Department of General Services.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1987, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1987, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 105. Section 89046 of the Education Code, as added by Section 2.5 of Chapter 867 of the Statutes of 1981, is amended to read:

89046. The trustees, with the approval of the Director of Finance, may lease any property of a state university for any purpose which they determine is not inconsistent with the functions of the California State University, including, but not limited to all of the following:

(a) The lease of state university property to a nonprofit organization composed exclusively of students of the university or of members of the faculty of the university, or both, for purposes related to the activities of the university or for the activities of student or faculty organizations.

(b) The lease of state university property to any nonprofit organization for the purpose of constructing and using thereon buildings as living quarters for students of the university and as meetingplaces.

(c) The lease to any student or faculty organization of the university of property for the purpose of establishing and maintaining cooperative stores and cafeterias in connection with the stores.

Any rental received under this section shall be deposited in the State Treasury and credited to the support appropriation of the California State University current during the period of occupancy.

(d) This section shall become operative January 1, 1987.

SEC. 106. Section 89047 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89047. The trustees, with the approval of the Director of General Services, and the governing board of any school district within which a campus of the California State University is located, may enter into an agreement providing for the leasing by the state of a school building of the school district for use by the campus as a laboratory demonstration elementary school on such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by the trustees and the governing board of the school district except as otherwise provided in this section.

The lease may be for a period not to exceed 20 years and shall, in addition to any other terms and conditions set forth therein, (a) require the school district to maintain the building at its own expense, (b) require the campus to maintain a school therein open to pupils of the school district residing in the attendance district for the school as established by the governing board of the district, and (c) require the school district to pay annually to the state on or before the end of each fiscal year an amount determined by computing the current expenditures per pupil in the elementary schools of the district for the fiscal year and multiplying the amount so computed by the average daily attendance for the fiscal year in the school in excess of 400.

Only the average daily attendance in the school in excess of 400 shall be credited to the school district.

The average daily attendance of pupils in the school shall be computed separately in the same manner as the average daily attendance in other schools of the same grade maintained by the school district.

SEC. 107. Section 89060 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89060. For each campus of the California State University, except as otherwise provided in this article, there shall be an advisory board of not less than seven nor more than 13 members, who shall be appointed by the trustees. Each member of the advisory board of a campus of the California State University shall reside in the area in which the campus is located. No person shall be appointed to serve as a member of an advisory board who at the time holds any salaried position with the California State University. No more than three members of an advisory board may also be members of a county board of education or a governing board of a school district or hold any salaried educational position.

SEC. 108. Section 89063 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89063. The members of each board shall select a chairman from the members of the board. The president of the campus of the California State University shall be the executive secretary of the board.

SEC. 109. Section 89064 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89064. Each board shall consult and advise with the president of the campus of the California State University with respect to the improvement and development of the campus.

SEC. 110. Section 89080 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89080. It is the intent of the Legislature, while maintaining the maximum utilization of funds provided for the support of public higher education, to provide increased access to higher education for all residents of this state, to permit maximum use of existing facilities and academic resources of the California State University campuses, to provide for the orderly growth and expansion of the state's system of higher education, and to allow for effective long-range planning to meet the needs of the institutions of higher education while maintaining the quality of that education.

Thus, it is the intent of the Legislature to establish year-round operations at the California State University where practical.

SEC. 111. Section 89082 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89082. Any campus of the California State University, other than those specified in Section 89081, which has a full-time equivalent academic year enrollment of 10,000 or greater shall operate on a year-round basis within two years of the effective date of an appropriation by the Legislature of sufficient planning money to effectuate an orderly transition of campus operations to the year-round basis.

SEC. 112. Section 89084 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89084. Any campus of the California State University which operated on a year-round basis on November 23, 1970, shall continue to operate on that basis.

SEC. 113. Section 89200 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89200. The trustees, on behalf of any campus of the California State University, may enter into contracts for the purpose of participating in, or the procuring or transmitting of, television broadcasts, may purchase broadcast time over, and may own, lease, and operate, television transmitting facilities for use in providing educational, noncommercial television broadcasts, and may provide necessary services in connection therewith.

SEC. 114. Section 89210 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89210. It is the intent and purpose of the Legislature in providing for the establishment at or in conjunction with individual state universities, under this article, of laboratory classes for exceptional children, to accomplish the following general aims:

(a) Improve programs presently offered within the California State University system for the training of teachers in the education of exceptional children, and afford prospective teachers with direct experience with typical exceptional children.

(b) Provide facilities and workshops where needed systematic continuing research in the development of methods, means, and techniques in teaching of exceptional children shall be conducted.

(c) Accelerate the recruitment and training of prospective teachers of exceptional children and provide in-service training for credentialed teachers to improve their skills.

(d) Provide a combined and comprehensive university level program of research and teacher training to meet the needs of exceptional children which will serve to attract and effectively utilize available public and private funds and grants.

(e) Provide for increased and improved special educational services for exceptional children through cooperation and coordination with local school districts and county offices.

SEC. 115. Section 89211 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89211. For purposes of state financial support, the laboratory classes for exceptional children established at or in conjunction with state universities under this article shall be separately budgeted for in each budgeting request submitted by the California State University, and in the Budget Act.

SEC. 116. Section 89222 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89222. On the basis of the examination and an evaluation of the candidate's experience and other qualifications made by the board, the board shall recommend the granting of a baccalaureate degree in vocational arts by the California State University.

SEC. 117. Section 89230 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89230. "Instructionally related activities" means those activities and laboratory experiences which are at least partially sponsored by an academic discipline or department and which are, in the judgment of the president of a particular campus, with the approval of the trustees, integrally related to its formal instructional offerings.

Activities which are considered to be essential to a quality educational program and an important instructional experience for any student enrolled in the respective program may be considered instructionally related activities.

Instructionally related activities include, but are not limited to:

(a) Intercollegiate athletics: costs which are necessary for a basic competitive program including equipment and supplies and scheduled travel, not provided by the state. Athletic grants should not be included.

(b) Radio, television, film: costs related to the provisions of basic "hands-on" experience not provided by the state. Purchase or rental of films as instructional aids shall not be included.

(c) Music and dance performance: costs to provide experience in individual and group performance, including recitals, before audiences and in settings sufficiently varied to familiarize students with the performance facet of the field.

(d) Drama and musical productions: basic support of theatrical and operatic activities sufficient to permit experience not only in actual performance, but in production, direction, set design, and other elements considered a part of professional training in these fields.

(e) Art exhibits: support for student art shows given in connection with degree programs.

(f) Publications: the costs to support and operate basic publication programs including a periodic newspaper and other laboratory experience basic to journalism and literary training. Additional publications designed primarily to inform or entertain shall not be included.

(g) Forensics: activities designed to provide experience in debate, public speaking, and related programs, including travel required for a competitive debate program.

(h) Other activities: activities associated with other instructional areas which are consistent with purposes included in the above may be added as they are identified.

Pursuant to this section and other provisions of this code, the Chancellor of the California State University shall develop a program of fiscal support, and shall consult with the Student Presidents' Association, the Academic Senate, and the Chancellor's Council of Presidents regarding the program.

The provisions of this section shall not become operative unless funds are appropriated to meet the instructionally related needs of the campuses of the California State University.

SEC 118. Section 89301 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89301. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, except as provided pursuant to Section 89707.5 with respect to nonresident students who are citizens and residents of a foreign country and who are not citizens of the United States, student body organization membership fees authorized under the provisions of Section 89300 shall be collected by the officials of the campus of the California State University, together with all tuition and material and service fees, at the time of registration, except where a student loan or grant from a recognized training program or student aid program has been delayed and there is reasonable proof that the funds will be forthcoming. Exception may also be made where changes are made during the change of program period which result in a higher fee category than paid at the time of registration. All unexpended funds and money collected on behalf of, or by, student body organizations, except funds and money collected from commercial services as provided in Section 89905, shall, with the approval of an appropriate officer of the student body organization, be deposited in trust by the chief fiscal officer of the campus. The money shall, subject to the approval of the trustees, be deposited or invested in any one or more of the following ways:

(a) Deposits in trust accounts of the centralized State Treasury system pursuant to Sections 16305 to 16305.7, inclusive, of the Government Code or in the California State University Trust Fund or in a bank or banks whose accounts are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

(b) Investment certificates or withdrawable shares in state-chartered savings and loan associations and savings accounts of federal savings and loan associations, if the associations are doing business in this state and have their accounts insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation and if any money so invested or deposited is invested or deposited in certificates, shares, or accounts fully covered by the insurance.

(c) Purchase of any of the securities authorized for investment by Section 16430 of the Government Code or investment by the Treasurer in those securities.

(d) Participation in funds which are exempt from federal income tax pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and which are open exclusively to nonprofit colleges, universities, and independent schools.

(e) Investment certificates or withdrawable shares in federal or state credit unions, if the credit unions are doing business in this state and have their accounts insured by the National Credit Union Administration and if any money so invested or deposited is invested or deposited in certificates, shares, or accounts fully covered by such insurance.

All moneys received by a state university from any agency of the state or federal government for the payment of student body organizations membership fees of students attending the state university shall be deposited or invested as provided above.

SEC. 119. Section 89302 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89302. All money collected by a campus of the California State University on behalf of a student body organization under Sections 89046, 89047, 89300, 89301, and 89750, shall be available for such purposes of the student body organization as are approved by the trustees.

The chief fiscal officer of each campus of the California State University shall be custodian of these moneys and provide the necessary accounting records and controls thereof.

These funds may be expended by the custodian only upon the submission of an appropriate claim schedule by officers of the student body organization.

The campus of the California State University shall be reimbursed by the student body organization an amount to cover the cost of the custodial and accounting services provided by the campus of the California State University in connection with these funds.

Student body funds used for scholarships, grants-in-aid, stipends, loans, and similar expenditures shall conform to the regulations of the trustees. The funds shall be approved by the financial aids office before the funds are expended and shall be reflected on the student's record kept in that office. The student's financial aid record shall include all the funds received by the student.

SEC. 120. Section 89304 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89304. Upon the favorable vote of two-thirds of the students voting in an election held for the purpose at a state university, in the manner the trustees shall prescribe, and open to all regular students enrolled in the state university, the trustees are authorized to fix, in addition to any other student fee the trustees are authorized to fix, a building and operating fee not to exceed twenty dollars ($20) per student per academic year which shall be required of all students attending the state university. All unexpended funds and money collected by any state university under this section shall be available for financing, operating, and constructing a student body center, and until so used, shall, subject to the approval of the trustees, be deposited or invested in trust by the chief fiscal officer of that state university in any one or more of the following ways:

(a) Deposits in trust accounts of the centralized Treasury system pursuant to Sections 16305 to 16305.7, inclusive, of the Government Code or in the California State University Trust Fund or in a bank or banks whose accounts are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

(b) Investment certificates or withdrawable shares in state-chartered savings and loan associations and savings accounts of federal savings and loan associations, if the associations are doing business in this state and have their accounts insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation.

(c) Purchase of any of the securities authorized for investment by Section 16430 of the Government Code or investment by the Treasurer in those securities.

(d) Participation in funds which are exempt from federal income tax pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and which are open exclusively to nonprofit colleges, universities, and independent schools.

(e) Investment certificates or withdrawable shares in federal or state credit unions, if the credit unions are doing business in this state and have their accounts insured by the National Credit Union Administration and if any money so invested or deposited is invested or deposited in certificates, shares, or accounts fully covered by such insurance.

The chief fiscal officer of each state university shall be custodian of those moneys and provide the necessary accounting records and controls thereof.

The state university shall be reimbursed from these funds in an amount to cover the cost of the custodial and accounting services provided by the state university in connection with these funds.

These funds may be expended by the custodian only upon the submission of an appropriate claim schedule by an elected representative of the student body or his or her appointee.

SEC. 121. Section 89330 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89330. The Trustees of the California State University may authorize at any of the institutions of the California State University the establishment of a program which allows persons 60 years of age or older to enroll in regular credit courses without requiring the payment of the application for admission fee and regular session registration fees.

SEC. 122. Section 89333 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89333. The Trustees of the California State University shall adopt regulations for the effective administration of this article. The Trustees of the California State University shall phase in programs under this article over not less than a three-year period commencing January 1, 1980, except that existing programs may be continued as programs under this article on and after its effective date.

SEC. 123. Section 89400 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89400. The Trustees of the California State University and any other public or private nonprofit agency may contract with the State Department of Education to establish and maintain a child development center on or near each state university campus pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 8200) of Part 6.

SEC. 124. Section 89502 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89502. (a) It is the policy of the state that the workweek of the employees of the California State University shall be 40 hours, and the workday of such employees eight hours, except that workweeks and workdays of a different number of hours may be established in order to meet the varying needs of the different campuses and facilities. It is the policy of the state to avoid the necessity for overtime work whenever possible.

This policy does not restrict the extension of regular working-hour schedules on an overtime basis when the action is necessary to carry on the business of the California State University properly during a manpower shortage.

The trustees may provide for the payment of overtime in designated classes for work performed after the normal scheduled workday or normal scheduled workweek, when the designation is appropriate to the designated class.

(b) If the provisions of this section are in conflict with the provisions of a memorandum of understanding reached pursuant to Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 3560) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code, the memorandum of understanding shall be controlling without further legislative action, except that if the provisions of a memorandum of understanding require the expenditure of funds, the provisions shall not become effective unless approved by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 125. Section 89503 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89503. (a) The trustees may authorize payments into a private fund to provide health and welfare benefits to nonpermanent employees of the class specified in Section 18853 of the Government Code employed by the trustees, upon a finding by the trustees as to any position that the criteria stated in subdivision (a) of Section 18853.5 of the Government Code are satisfied.

(b) Payments made by the state pursuant to this section to any fund on behalf of any employees shall be in lieu of benefits such as vacation allowance, sick leave, and retirement which may be granted directly by the state in accordance with law.

(c) The trustees may determine the equitable application of this section to ensure that the employees receive benefits comparable to, but not in excess of, those provided in comparable private employment.

(d) The payments authorized by this section shall be a proper charge against any funds available for the support of the California State University.

(e) If the provisions of this section are in conflict with the provisions of a memorandum of understanding reached pursuant to Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 3560) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code, the memorandum of understanding shall be controlling without further legislative action, except that if the provisions of a memorandum of understanding require the expenditure of funds, the provisions shall not become effective unless approved by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 126. Section 89508 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89508. (a) Each person holding a four-year term appointment under Section 80507 on June 30, 1961, regardless of when the term commenced, shall on that date be entitled to all personnel benefits and rights under the law which would have attached to the person's position if he or she had been appointed and had served throughout his or her state university employment under the provisions of law applicable to persons serving under appointments made pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 89530).

On and after July 1, 1961, the person shall be entitled to all personnel benefits and rights conferred by Section 66609 upon state employees appointed pursuant to Article 2 and transferred to the Trustees of the California State University by that section.

(b) If the provisions of this section are in conflict with the provisions of a memorandum of understanding reached pursuant to Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 3560) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code, the memorandum of understanding shall be controlling without further legislative action, except that if the provisions of a memorandum of understanding require the expenditure of funds, the provisions shall not become effective unless approved by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 127. Section 89515 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89515. The trustees shall eliminate all policies which detrimentally and unreasonably affect the employment status of females hired by the California State University. To accomplish this purpose, the trustees shall do all of the following:

(a) Review hiring, wages, job classifications, and advancement practices as applied to female employees and take corrective measures where inequities exist.

(b) Review selection procedures utilized for employment of female employees to determine disparate selection practices.

(c) Assure opportunity of advancement for qualified female employees to executive positions within departments and divisions.

If the provisions of this section are in conflict with the provisions of a memorandum of understanding reached pursuant to Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 3560) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code, the memorandum of understanding shall be controlling without further legislative action, except that if the provisions of a memorandum of understanding require the expenditure of funds, the provisions shall not become effective unless approved by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 128. Section 89520 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89520. (a) The provisions of Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 19400) of Chapter 7 of Part 2 of Division 5 of the Government Code, relating to upward mobility, shall be applicable to the California State University System. The trustees shall administer the program for its employees and shall have the powers and duties with respect to employees of the California State University System, as are given to the State Personnel Board in Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 19400) of Chapter 7 of Part 2 of Division 5 of the Government Code, with respect to state civil service employees. In the event of conflict between the provisions of Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 19400) of Chapter 7 of Part 2 of Division 5 of the Government Code and the antidiscrimination and affirmative action requirements of Title VI and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended; Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, as amended; Executive Order Number 11246, as amended, and the rules and regulations adopted under each of these, the federal law shall prevail.

(b) If the provisions of this section are in conflict with the provisions of a memorandum of understanding reached pursuant to Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 3560) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code, the memorandum of understanding shall be controlling without further legislative action, except that if the provisions of a memorandum of understanding require the expenditure of funds, the provisions shall not become effective unless approved by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 129. Section 89530 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89530. (a) As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Dismissal" means dismissal for cause.

(2) "Layoff" means separation from a position for lack of funds or lack of work.

(3) "Probation" means the period an employee must serve before becoming entitled to permanent employment.

(4) "Permanent" means that the employee has a right to continued employment unless dismissed or laid off.

(b) This article does not apply to the California State University presidents.

(c) This article does not apply to student assistants.

SEC. 130. Section 89542.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89542.5. The Trustees of the California State University shall establish grievance and disciplinary action procedures for all academic employees, including all temporary employees who have been employed for more than one semester or quarter, whereby all of the following requirements are satisfied:

(a) Grievances and disciplinary actions shall be heard by a faculty hearing committee composed of full-time faculty members, selected by lot from a panel elected by the campus faculty, which shall make a recommendation to the president of the state university.

(b) The grievance or disciplinary hearing shall be open to the public at the option of the person aggrieved or the person charged in a disciplinary hearing.

(c) Each party to the dispute shall have the right of representation by a faculty adviser or counsel of his or her choice and to be provided access to a complete record of the hearing.

(d) If there is disagreement between the faculty hearing committee's decision and the state university president's decision, the matter shall go before an arbitrator whose decision shall be final.

(e) The costs incurred in arbitration shall be paid by the state university.

(f) If the parties cannot agree upon an arbitrator, either party may petition the Federal Mediation Service, the State Conciliation Service, or the American Arbitration Association for a list of seven qualified, disinterested persons, from which list each party shall alternate in striking three names, and the remaining person shall be designated as the arbitrator.

The grievance procedure established pursuant to this section shall be exclusive with respect to any grievance which is not subject to a State Personnel Board hearing. In the case of a grievance or disciplinary action which is subject to a State Personnel Board hearing, pursuant to Sections 89535 to 89539, inclusive, and Section 89542 the procedures provided for in those sections or those provided for in this section may be utilized. The academic employee shall have the choice of which procedures shall be utilized.

For purposes of this section, a "grievance" is an allegation by an employee that the employee was directly wronged in connection with the rights accruing to his or her job classification, benefits, working conditions, appointment, reappointment, tenure, promotion, reassignment, or the like. A grievance does not include matters, such as the salary structure, which require legislative action.

If the provisions of this section are in conflict with the provisions of a memorandum of understanding reached pursuant to Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 3560) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code, the memorandum of understanding shall be controlling without further legislative action, except that if the provisions of a memorandum of understanding require the expenditure of funds, the provisions shall not become effective unless approved by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 131. Section 89545 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89545. (a) Whenever a new campus of the California State University is established and an employee is transferred from an existing campus of the California State University to the newly established campus before or during the first academic year of the newly established campus, each employee so transferred shall be entitled to retain all sickness and injury, all sabbatical and other leave rights, and all seniority and tenure rights accumulated as an employee of the existing campus of the California State University as though the rights had been accumulated as an employee of the newly established campus of the California State University.

Whenever the educational program of a newly established campus of the California State University is, during the first year of its existence, limited to an off-campus educational program rather than a regular educational program, any employee transferring from an existing campus of the California State University to the newly established campus of the California State University before or during the first three academic years of the newly established campus shall be entitled to retain all sickness and injury, all sabbatical and other leave rights, and all seniority and tenure rights accumulated as an employee of the existing campus as though the rights had been accumulated as an employee of the newly established campus.

(b) If the provisions of this section are in conflict with the provisions of a memorandum of understanding reached pursuant to Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 3560) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code, the memorandum of understanding shall be controlling without further legislative action, except that if the provisions of a memorandum of understanding require the expenditure of funds, the provisions shall not become effective unless approved by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 132. Section 89550 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89550. (a) It shall be the policy of the California State University to provide stability of employment by foreseeing and avoiding unnecessary reductions in staff. However, when this is not possible due to lack of funds or lack of work, the staff shall be reduced in accordance with this article. The classes or teaching service areas to be reduced and the employees therein to be laid off shall be determined, in accordance with the provisions of this article, by the president of the campus after consultation with the employees and others in the same classes, specializations within classes, or teaching service areas and other persons as appropriate, including faculty and administrators. The chancellor shall make all determinations for the office of the chancellor.

(b) The office of the Chancellor of the California State University shall make a survey of all campuses in order to ascertain the availability of suitable positions where staff to be laid off may seek relocation. To the extent staff resources permit, similar efforts shall be made with respect to colleges and universities outside the California State University.

(c) If the provisions of this section are in conflict with the provisions of a memorandum of understanding reached pursuant to Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 3560) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code, the memorandum of understanding shall be controlling without further legislative action, except that if the provisions of a memorandum of understanding require the expenditure of funds, the provisions shall not become effective unless approved by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 133. Section 89552 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89552. (a) Whenever a determination has been made that there is a lack of funds or lack of work, employees in a class or teaching service area to be reduced shall be laid off in the following order:

(1) The Chancellor of the California State University or a president of a state university may, at his or her discretion, without regard to the class or teaching service area to be reduced, separate from service any student assistant, instructor for extension service, person employed on a temporary basis, or, with respect to employment in a summer session, any member of the faculty of a campus summer session. Persons described in this paragraph, if performing the same or comparable work as that performed by a probationary or permanent employee, shall be separated before any probationary or permanent employee desiring to continue in employment is laid off pursuant to the provisions of this article.

(2) Probationary employees not employed on a temporary basis, without regard to length of service.

(3) Permanent employees:

(A) If the area of layoff is in administrative or nonacademic classes, permanent administrative and nonacademic employees in the inverse order of their length of employment both in the class and in class of equal or higher rank.

(B) If the area of layoff is in class or rank positions, permanent academic employees in the inverse order of their length of employment at the campuses.

(C) If the area of layoff is in the closely related academic area, permanent employees in the inverse order of their length of employment in the class or in classes of equal or higher level at the campuses.

(b) If the layoff is in a class, part-time employees shall be credited with the service at the campus in the proportion that the actual time employed bears to full-time employment. If the layoff is in a teaching service area, part-time permanent employees shall be credited with service as permanent employees of the campus in the proportion that the actual time served as permanent employees bears to full-time employment.

(c) In case two or more employees in the class or teaching service area are tied for a place in the order of layoff, the president or the chancellor, as appropriate to the place of employment, shall determine which of the employees shall be laid off.

(d) If the provisions of this section are in conflict with the provisions of a memorandum of understanding reached pursuant to Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 3560) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code, the memorandum of understanding shall be controlling without further legislative action, except that if the provisions of a memorandum of understanding require the expenditure of funds, the provisions shall not become effective unless approved by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 134. The heading of Article 3 (commencing with Section 89560) of Chapter 5 of Part 55 of the Education Code is amended to read:

Article 3. California State University Police

SEC. 135. Section 89560 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89560. The trustees may appoint one or more persons to constitute a police department for the headquarters and for each campus of the California State University. Persons employed and compensated as members of a California State University police department, when so appointed and duly sworn, are peace officers. However, such peace officers shall not exercise their powers or authority except (a) at the headquarters or upon any campus of the California State University and in an area within one mile of the exterior boundaries of each campus or the headquarters, and in or about other grounds or properties owned, operated, controlled, or administered by the California State University, or by trustees or the state on behalf of the California State University, and (b) as provided in Section 830.2 of the Penal Code.

SEC. 136. Section 89561 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89561. Every member of a California State University police department shall be supplied with, and authorized to wear, a badge bearing the words "California State University Police."

SEC. 137. Section 89701 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89701. The trustees are authorized to acquire, pursuant to the Property Acquisition Law (Part 11 (commencing with Section 15850) of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code) or by lease or other means, real property and to construct, operate, and maintain motor vehicle parking facilities thereon for state university officers, employees, students, or other persons. The trustees may prescribe the terms and conditions of such parking, and of parking on facilities existing on the effective date of this section, including the payment of parking fees in the amounts and under the circumstances determined by the trustees. Varying rates of parking fees may be established for different localities or for different parking facilities. In determining rates of parking fees, the trustees may consider the rates charged in the same locality by other public agencies and by private employers for employee parking, and the rates charged to students by other universities and colleges.

Except as otherwise provided in this section, revenues received by the trustees from any of the motor vehicle parking facilities, as well as from all parking facilities existing on the effective date of this section, shall be transmitted to the Treasurer and shall be deposited by that officer in the State Treasury to the credit of the State University Parking Revenue Fund, which fund is hereby created. The trustees may pledge all or any part of such revenues in connection with bonds or notes issued pursuant to the State University Revenue Bond Act of 1947 (Article 2 (commencing with Section 90010) of Chapter 8), in which case such revenues shall be deposited, transmitted, and used in the manner provided by that act. All revenues received by the trustees from parking facilities, to the extent not pledged in connection with bonds or notes issued pursuant to the State University Revenue Bond Act of 1947, are hereby appropriated, without regard to fiscal years, to the trustees for the acquisition, construction, operation, and maintenance of motor vehicle parking facilities on real property acquired hereunder or on real property otherwise under the jurisdiction of the trustees, and for the study of alternate methods of transportation for students and employees of the California State University. Moneys in the State University Parking Revenue Fund may be invested by the Treasurer, upon approval of the trustees, in those eligible securities listed in Section 16430 of the Government Code. All interest or other earnings received pursuant to such investments shall be collected by the Treasurer, and shall be deposited in the Treasury to the credit of the State University Parking Revenue Fund.

The Legislature by this section does not intend to authorize the institution of a private parking program unrelated to state purposes in competition with private industry.

If the provisions of this section are in conflict with the provisions of a memorandum of understanding reached pursuant to Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 3560) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code, the memorandum of understanding shall be controlling without further legislative action, except that if the provisions of a memorandum of understanding require the expenditure of funds, the provisions shall not become effective unless approved by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 138. Section 89702 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89702. The Trustees of the California State University may acquire, pursuant to the Property Acquisition Law (Part 11 (commencing with Section 15850) of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code) or by lease or other means, real property and may construct and improve student health centers entirely or in part by the use of funds acquired pursuant to this section.

The trustees may prescribe under Section 89700 a fee to provide for the acquisition, construction, and improvement of the facilities, in the amounts and under the circumstances as may be determined by the trustees.

Except as otherwise provided in this section, revenues received by the trustees from the facilities fee shall be transmitted to the Treasurer and shall be deposited by that officer in the State Treasury to the credit of the State University Facilities Revenue Fund, which fund is hereby created. The trustees may pledge all or any part of such revenues in connection with bonds or notes issued pursuant to the State University Revenue Bond Act of 1947 (Article 2 (commencing with Section 90010) of Chapter 8), in which case the revenues shall be deposited, transmitted, and used in the manner provided by that law. All revenues received by the trustees from the facilities fee, to the extent not pledged in connection with bonds or notes issued pursuant to the State University Revenue Bond Act of 1947, are hereby appropriated, without regard to fiscal years, to the trustees for the acquisition, construction, and improvement of student health centers on real property acquired pursuant to this section or on real property otherwise under the jurisdiction of the trustees. Moneys in the State University Facilities Revenue Fund may be invested by the Treasurer, upon approval of the trustees, in those eligible securities listed in Section 16430 of the Government Code. All interest or other earnings received pursuant to the investments shall be collected by the Treasurer, and shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the State University Facilities Revenue Fund.

All capital outlay projects in excess of sixty-five thousand dollars ($65,000) to be constructed with revenue from the fee established pursuant to this section shall be approved by the Legislature.

SEC. 139. Section 89703 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89703. Except as otherwise provided, the total tuition fees charged any student in the California State University shall not exceed twenty-five dollars ($25) per year or twelve dollars and fifty cents ($12.50) per term.

SEC. 140. Section 89704 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89704. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, revenues received by the Trustees of the California State University from extension programs, special session, and other self-supporting instructional programs, including but not limited to, fees and charges required by the trustees, shall be transmitted to the Treasurer and shall be deposited by that officer in the State Treasury to the credit of the State University Continuing Education Revenue Fund, which fund is hereby created, and which is hereby designated as successor to the State College Extension Program Revenue Fund.

All revenues are hereby appropriated, without regard to fiscal years, to the trustees for the support and development of self-supporting instructional programs of the California State University. However, proposed expenditures or obligation to be incurred during any fiscal year from the State University Continuing Education Revenue Fund shall be contained in the budget submitted for that fiscal year by the Governor pursuant to Section 12 of Article IV of the Constitution, and shall be subject to the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 13320) of Chapter 3 of Part 3 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

Moneys in the State University Continuing Education Revenue Fund may be invested by the Treasurer, upon approval of the trustees, in those eligible securities listed in Section 16430 of the Government Code. All interest or other earnings received pursuant to the investments shall be collected by the Treasurer and shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the State University Continuing Education Revenue Fund.

SEC. 141. Section 89706 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89706. The trustees may, on the basis of demonstrated financial need and scholastic achievement, waive entirely, or reduce below the rate, or the minimum rate, fixed by Section 89705, the tuition fee of a nonresident student, as defined in Section 68018, who is a citizen and resident of a foreign country, who is an undergraduate student of exceptional scholastic ability and prior scholastic achievement, and who is enrolled in a course of study of no less than 10 semester units.

The number of reductions and waivers granted by the trustees under this section shall at no time exceed  $7\frac{1}{2}$  percent of the nonresident undergraduate students who are citizens and residents of a foreign country, then enrolled in the California State University.

SEC. 142. Section 89707 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89707. The trustees may, on the basis of demonstrated financial need and scholastic achievement, waive entirely, or reduce below the rate, or the minimum rate, fixed by Section 89705, the tuition fee of a nonresident student or a nonresident student, as defined in Section 68018, who is a citizen and resident of a foreign country, who is a graduate student of exceptional scholastic ability and prior scholastic achievement, and who, while not employed full time by a state university, is employed 20 hours or more a week by a state university or is enrolled in a course of study of not less than 10 semester or quarter units.

The number of reductions and waivers granted by the trustees under this section shall at no time exceed 25 percent of the nonresident graduate students, including nonresident graduate students who are citizens and residents of a foreign country, then enrolled in the California State University.

SEC. 143. Section 89708 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89708. Tuition fees adequate, in the long run, to meet the cost of maintaining special sessions in the California State University shall be required of, and collected from, students enrolled in each special session under and pursuant to rules and regulations prescribed by the trustees.

"Special sessions," as used in this division, means self-supporting instructional programs conducted by the California State University. The special sessions shall include, but not be limited to, career enrichment and retraining programs. It is the intent of the Legislature that those programs, currently offered on a self-supporting basis by the California State University during summer sessions, may be provided throughout the year, and shall be known as special sessions. The self-supporting special sessions shall not supplant regular course offerings available on a non-self-supporting basis during the regular academic year.

SEC. 144. Section 89710 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89710. To enhance the opportunities for California State University employees to participate in training and career development the trustees may, subject to the rules and regulations they may establish, waive entirely or reduce any or all fees for employees who enroll in work-related courses offered by the California State University necessary for improving skills for existing jobs or advancement in accordance with a career development plan at the California State University.

SEC. 145. Section 89722 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89722. The California State University Trust Fund is hereby created in the State Treasury. Money in the California State University Trust Fund is appropriated to the trustees as provided in Section 89724. Interest accruing upon the investment of moneys of the California State University Trust Fund shall be paid into and credited to such fund. The trustees shall apportion as of June 30 and December 31 of each year the revenues earned and deposited in the fund during the six calendar months ending with those dates. There shall be apportioned and credited to each campus of the California State University having deposits in the fund, an amount directly proportionate to the total deposits in the fund and the length of time the deposits remained therein. The chief fiscal officer of each campus of the California State University may allocate further this amount to the extent considered necessary.

SEC. 146. Section 89723 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89723. The trustees are vested with all necessary power to perform acts, receive and expend funds, and cooperate with state and federal agencies as provided in Section 12400 for the purpose of receiving and spending the funds provided by the act of Congress entitled "An act to strengthen the national defense and to encourage and assist in the expansion and improvement of educational programs to meet critical national needs; and for other purposes" (National Defense Education Act of 1958), approved September 2, 1958, and the act of Congress entitled "An act to amend the Public Health Service Act to increase the opportunities for training professional nursing personnel, and for other purposes" (Nurse Training Act of 1964), approved September 4, 1964.

The trustees may provide for the establishment and maintenance of student loan funds pursuant to those acts of Congress. Money allocated for the purpose of establishing a student loan fund at a campus of the California State University may be withdrawn from the State Treasury and deposited to the credit of that institution in a trust account in accordance with the provisions of Sections 16305 to 16305.7, inclusive, of the Government Code for the purpose of making loans to students in accordance with the federal acts.

SEC. 147. Section 89724 of the Education Code, as added by Section 4 of Chapter 254 of the Statutes of 1981, is amended to read:

89724. (a) All money received from the sale of publications pursuant to Section 90500, all money received under an agreement entered into pursuant to Section 89036, and except as to the fees and charges specified in subdivisions (g) and (h) of Section 89721, all money collected as fees from students in any state university and from other persons under Section 89030, Sections 89036 to 89040, inclusive, and Sections 89700, 89705, 89708, 89709, 89720, and 89721, and by reason of Section 2080.9 of the Civil Code, is hereby appropriated for the support of the California State University in addition to such other amounts as may be appropriated therefor by the Legislature. Money received under Sections 89720 and 89721, or received by reason of Section 2080.9 of the Civil Code, is appropriated without regard to fiscal year. Money received by reason of Section 2080.9 of the Civil Code shall be used for student scholarships and loans pursuant to such regulations as the trustees shall provide, and while held pending the grant of a scholarship or loan, may be invested by the Treasurer upon approval of the trustees, in those eligible securities listed in Section 16430 of the Government Code. All interest or other earnings received pursuant to such investment shall also be used for those scholarships and loans. Money received by reason of Sections 89720 and 89721 may be invested by the Treasurer upon approval of the trustees, in those eligible securities listed in Section 16430 of the Government Code, in which case all interest and other earnings received pursuant to the investment of money received under Sections 89720 and 89721 shall also be used for such purposes as may be established by the trustees consistent with the terms and conditions of the gift, bequest, devise, donation, or agreement under Sections 89720 and 89721. Except as otherwise provided with respect to money received by reason of Section 2080.9 of the Civil Code and Sections 89720 and 89721 of this code, all money received pursuant to this section shall augment the support appropriation to the California State University for the fiscal year to which the collections apply.

(b) All money received from the sale or the disposition of real property acquired by or on behalf of a particular state university by gift, devise, or donation pursuant to Section 89720 or pursuant to the predecessor of that section is hereby appropriated to the trustees for expenditure for capital outlay for the acquisition and improvement of real property for such particular state university, in addition to such other amounts as may be appropriated therefor by the Legislature. All money received from the sale or other disposition of personal property, other than money, acquired by or on behalf of a particular state university by gift, bequest, or donation pursuant to Section 89720 or pursuant to the predecessor of that section is hereby appropriated to the trustees for expenditure for capital outlay for, or the acquisition and improvement of real or personal property for, the particular state university, in addition to such other amounts as may be appropriated therefor by the Legislature. No money shall be expended by the trustees under this subdivision without the approval of the Director of Finance. The money shall augment the support or capital outlay appropriation of the California State University current at the date of issuance of the Controller's receipt therefor as may be designated by the trustees prior to their deposit in the State Treasury.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1986, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1986, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 148. Section 89724 of the Education Code, as added by Section 6 of Chapter 254 of the Statutes of 1981, is amended to read:

89724. (a) All money received from the sale of publications pursuant to Section 90500, all money received under an agreement entered into pursuant to Section 89036, and except as to the fees and charges specified in subdivision (g) of Section 89721, all money collected as fees from students in any state university and from other persons under Section 89030, Sections 89036 to 89040, inclusive, and Sections 89700, 89705, 89708, 89709, 89720, and 89721, and by reason of Section 2080.9 of the Civil Code, is hereby appropriated for the support of the California State University in addition to such other amounts as may be appropriated therefor by the Legislature. Money received under Sections 89720 and 89721, or received by reason of Section 2080.9 of the Civil Code, is appropriated without regard to fiscal year. Money received by reason of Section 2080.9 of the Civil Code shall be used for student scholarships and loans pursuant to such regulations as the trustees shall provide, and while held pending the grant of a scholarship or loan, may be invested by the Treasurer upon approval of the trustees, in those eligible securities listed in Section 16430 of the Government Code. All interest or other earnings received pursuant to such investment shall also be used for such scholarships and loans. Money received by reason of Sections 89720 and 89721 may be invested by the Treasurer upon approval of the trustees, in those eligible securities listed in Section 16430 of the Government Code, in which case all interest and other earnings received pursuant to that investment shall also be used for the purposes established by the trustees consistent with the terms and conditions of the gift, bequest, devise, donation, or agreement under Sections 89720 and 89721. Except as otherwise provided with respect to money received by reason of Section 2080.9 of the Civil Code and Sections 89720 and 89721 of this code, all money received pursuant to this section shall augment the support appropriation to the California State University for the fiscal year to which the collections apply.

(b) All money received from the sale or the disposition of real property acquired by or on behalf of a particular state university by gift, devise, or donation pursuant to Section 89720 or pursuant to the predecessor of that section is hereby appropriated to the trustees for expenditure for capital outlay for the acquisition and improvement of real property for the particular state university, in addition to other amounts as may be appropriated therefor by the Legislature. All money received from the sale or other disposition of personal property, other than money, acquired by or on behalf of a particular state university by gift, bequest, or donation pursuant to Section 89720 or pursuant to the predecessor of that section is hereby appropriated to the trustees for expenditure for capital outlay for, or the acquisition and improvement of real or personal property for, the particular state university or college, in addition to other amounts as may be appropriated therefor by the Legislature. No money shall be expended by the trustees under this subdivision without the approval of the Director of Finance. The money shall augment the support or capital outlay appropriation of the California State University current at the date of issuance of the Controller's receipt therefor as may be designated by the trustees prior to their deposit in the State Treasury.

(c) This section shall become operative January 1, 1986.

SEC. 149. Section 89725 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89725. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, grants, revenues, and funds of any nature received by the trustees for research, workshops, conferences, institutes, and special projects from the state, federal government, local government, or private persons, may be transmitted to the Treasurer and, if transmitted, shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the California State University Special Projects Fund, which fund is hereby created.

All such grants, revenues, and funds are hereby appropriated without regard to fiscal years to the trustees for the operation, support, and development of research, workshops, conferences, institutes, and special projects in the California State University.

Provision shall be made by the trustees for reimbursements to the General Fund for the cost of space and services furnished to projects funded by the California State University Special Projects Fund.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the law to the contrary, the trustees shall have authority to establish the rules and procedures under which the fund shall operate. All expenditures shall be made in accordance with the rules and procedures, without prior approval of the Department of General Services or the Department of Finance. All expenditures shall receive an annual postaudit by the Audits Division of the Department of Finance.

Moneys in the California State University Special Projects Fund may be invested by the Treasurer, upon approval of the trustees in those eligible securities listed in Section 16430 of the Government Code. All interest or other earnings received pursuant to those investments shall be collected by the Treasurer and shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the California State University Special Projects Fund.

SEC. 150. Section 89750 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89750. The trustees shall control and expend all money appropriated for the support and maintenance of the California State University, and all money received as donations pursuant to Section 89720.

SEC. 151. Section 89753 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89753. All appropriations for the support of the California State University and the trustees shall be subject to the provisions of Section 13320 of the Government Code and applicable Budget Act restrictions, with the following exceptions:

(a) The trustees may approve any transfer of funds within functions for which funds are appropriated for the support of the California State University. In addition, the trustees may authorize the augmentation of the amount available for a category designated in any schedule set forth for the appropriation by transfer from any of the other designated categories, including additional reimbursements within the same schedule, and shall furnish the Joint Legislative Budget Committee a report of the authorizations given during the preceding quarter.

(b) The trustees may approve the substitution of one item of equipment for another within budgetary functions and the use of savings in equipment allotments.

(c) The trustees may approve travel, both within and outside the state, and the payment of allowances and expenses related to travel, moving, and the relocation of employees in accordance with the allowances established by the State Board of Control and within funds appropriated for this purpose.

(d) The trustees may, within funds appropriated for the support of the California State University, establish new positions and make changes in existing positions and the position payroll roster. However, all new positions and significant changes, as defined by the Department of Finance, in grade or class of existing positions shall be shown as administrative adjustments in the subsequent budgetary submissions and shall be subject to review during the legislative budget process.

SEC. 152. Section 89756 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89756. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the chief administrative officer of each campus of the California State University shall be responsible for the propriety of the expenditure, and the integrity of the financial reporting, of the following funds received by the campus:

- (1) State appropriations.
- (2) Gifts.
- (3) Bequests.
- (4) Trust funds.
- (5) Grants, loans, or combinations thereof.

The chief administrative officer shall also be responsible for the propriety of all expenditures, and the integrity of the financial reporting, made by auxiliary organizations. The chief administrative officer of a state university is, for the purpose of this section, the president of the university.

SEC. 153. Section 89758 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89758. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, obligations may be incurred for the summer quarter operation in the California State University at campuses on year-round operations, subsequent to enactment of a Budget Act and prior to July 1, payable from the appropriations contained in such Budget Act for those purposes. The obligations and the payment thereof shall be subject to Section 89753.

SEC. 154. Section 89901 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89901. As used in this article, the term "auxiliary organization" includes the following entities:

(a) Any entity in which any official of the California State University participates as a director as part of his or her official position.

(b) Any entity formed or operating pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 89300) of Chapter 3.

(c) Any entity which operates a commercial service for the benefit of a campus of the California State University on a campus or other property of the California State University.

(d) Any entity whose governing instrument provides in substance both of the following:

(1) That its purpose is to promote or assist any campus of the California State University, or to receive gifts, property, and funds to be used for the benefit of such campus or any person or organization having an official relationship therewith.

(2) That any of its directors, governors, or trustees are either appointed or nominated by, or subject to, the approval of an official of any campus of the California State University, or selected, ex officio, from the membership of the student body or the faculty or the administrative staff of campus.

(e) Any entity whose governing instrument provides in substance both of the following:

(1) That its purpose is to promote or assist the trustees of the California State University, or to receive gifts, property, and funds to be used for the benefit of the trustees of the California State University or any person or organization having an official relationship therewith.

(2) That any of its directors, governors, or trustees are either appointed or nominated by, or subject to, the approval of the trustees or an official of the California State University, or selected, ex officio, from the membership of the trustees or the administrative staff of the California State University.

(f) Any entity which, exclusive of the foregoing subdivisions of this section, is designated as an auxiliary organization by the trustees.

SEC. 155. Section 89902 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89902. This article shall not apply to any student body organization not formed or operating pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 89300) of Chapter 3 nor to any student or faculty society, social club, fraternity, or sorority, nor to any alumni association, whether officially recognized as a campus organization or not, unless it is described in Section 89901.

This section shall not be construed to alter or limit the powers of the trustees to establish rules and regulations governing organizations which maintain an official relationship with any campus of the California State University or which use the name or facilities of the campus.

SEC. 156. Section 89903 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89903. Each auxiliary organization formed pursuant to this article, shall have a board of directors composed, both as to size and categories of membership, in accordance with regulations established by the Trustees of the California State University.

Each governing board shall, during each fiscal year, hold at least one business meeting each quarter. The board shall have the benefit of the advice and counsel of at least one attorney admitted to practice law in this state and at least one licensed certified public accountant. Neither the attorney at law nor the certified public accountant need be members of the board.

No auxiliary organization shall accept any grant, contract, bequest, trust, or gift, unless it is so conditioned that it may be used only for purposes consistent with policies of the trustees.

Each governing board of an auxiliary organization shall conduct its business in public meetings in accordance with the provisions of Article 9 (commencing with Section 11120) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 157. Section 89905 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89905. Operations of commercial services on a campus of the California State University, such as a food service or bookstore, or any commercial services that may be provided in a state university union, shall, when operated by an auxiliary organization, be self-supporting.

Any surplus funds from commercial operations shall be used for such purposes as are consistent with regulations of the trustees.

SEC. 158. Section 90002 of the Education Code is amended to read:

90002. All student housing and any other related facilities operated by the College Auxiliary Enterprise Fund are hereby designated a "project" under the State College Revenue Bond Act of 1947 and subject to the provisions of that act. All assets, liabilities, and fund balances of the College Auxiliary Enterprise Fund are hereby transferred from that fund to a separate account to be established by the trustees within the California State University Dormitory Revenue Fund.

SEC. 159. Section 90011 of the Education Code is amended to read:

90011. The following terms wherever used or referred to in this article, or in any indenture entered into pursuant hereto, shall have the following meanings, respectively, unless a different meaning appears from the context:

(a) "Board" means the Trustees of the California State University.

(b) "State university" and "campus of the California State University" each means any of the institutions included within the California State University as specified in Section 89001.

(c) "Project" means any one or more dormitories or other housing facilities, boarding facilities, student union or activity facilities, vehicle parking facilities or any other auxiliary or supplementary facilities for individual or group accommodation, owned or operated or authorized to be acquired, constructed, furnished, equipped, and operated by the board for use by students, faculty members, or other employees of any one or more campuses of the California State University, or a combination of those facilities, which may include facilities already completed and facilities authorized for future completion, designated by the board as a project in providing for the issuance of revenue bonds or notes.

(d) "Bonds" or "revenue bonds" mean the written evidence of any obligation, other than revenue bond anticipation notes, issued by the board with the approval of the State Board of Control, payment of which is secured by a pledge of revenues or any part of revenues, as provided in this article, in order to obtain funds with which to carry out the purposes of this article, irrespective of the form of the obligations.

(e) "Notes" and "revenue bond anticipation notes" mean the written evidence of any obligation issued by the board, pursuant to Section 90013, in anticipation of the sale of revenue bonds, for the purpose of obtaining funds to carry out the purposes of this article.

(f) "Revenues" mean and include any and all fees, rates, rentals, and other charges received or receivable in connection with, and any and all other incomes and receipts of whatever kind and character derived by, the board from the operation of, or arising from, a project, including any revenue that may have been, or may be, impounded or deposited in any fund in the State Treasury created by this article for the security of any notes or bonds issued hereunder, or for the purpose of providing for the payment thereof, or the interest thereon.

(g) The "holder of bonds" or "bondholder" or any similar terms means any person who shall be the bearer of any outstanding revenue bond or bond registered to bearer or not registered or the registered owner of any outstanding revenue bond or bond which shall at the time be registered other than to bearer.

(h) "Indenture" means an agreement entered into by the board pursuant to which revenue bonds are issued, regardless of whether the agreement is expressed in the form of a resolution of the board or by other instrument.

(i) "Person" includes any individual, firm, corporation, association, copartnership, trust, business trust or receiver or trustee or conservator for any thereof, but does not include this state or any public corporation, political subdivision, city, county, district, or any agency thereof or of this state.

(j) (1) The present tense includes the past and future tenses; and the future, the present.

(2) The masculine gender includes the feminine and neuter.

(3) The singular number includes the plural, and the plural the singular.

(4) "Shall" is mandatory and "may" is permissive.

SEC. 160. Section 90073 of the Education Code is amended to read:

90073. The proceeds from the sale of all bonds and notes authorized under the provisions of this article, except those proceeds used to redeem outstanding notes, shall be deposited forthwith by the Treasurer, on order of the Controller, in the State Treasury to the credit of a fund to be designated as the California State University Dormitory Construction Fund, which fund is hereby created. The money in the construction fund shall be expended, pursuant to claims filed by the board with the Controller, for the purposes authorized by this article, or as provided in the indenture or notes, and for any other purposes, subject to the restrictions provided by law, by the notes, or by the indenture, that may be authorized by resolution of the board approved by the State Board of Control. Moneys required to meet the costs of acquisition or construction and all expenses and costs incidental to the acquisition, construction, furnishing, and equipping of any project authorized by this article shall be paid from the construction fund as herein provided upon claim filed by the board and after audit by the Controller in the manner provided by law and upon warrants drawn by the Controller.

SEC. 161. Section 90074 of the Education Code is amended to read:

90074. To the extent and in the manner provided in the indenture or in a resolution authorizing the issuance of notes, all revenues received from the operation of any project acquired or constructed by the board under the provisions of this article shall be transmitted by the board at least once in every calendar month, to the Treasurer. On order of the Controller, the Treasurer shall deposit the revenues in the State Treasury to the credit of the California State University Dormitory Revenue Fund, which fund is hereby created. Moneys in the California State University Dormitory Revenue Fund shall be used to pay the costs of operation and maintenance of the projects authorized by this article, including refunds authorized by Section 90069, to provide the amounts required for interest and redemption of notes and bonds as provided in this article, and for any other purposes authorized by resolution of the board approved by the State Board of Control, subject to any restrictions provided by law, a resolution authorizing the issuance of notes, or the indenture.

SEC. 162. Section 90075 of the Education Code is amended to read:

90075. For the payment of the principal and interest of the notes and bonds authorized to be issued under this article, an interest and redemption fund in the State Treasury is hereby created, to be designated the California State University Dormitory Interest and Redemption Fund. From the money deposited in the California State University Dormitory Construction Fund, the Treasurer, on order of the Controller, shall transfer to the California State University Dormitory Interest and Redemption Fund the sums required to pay the interest as it becomes due on all notes and bonds sold and outstanding for the construction or acquisition of a particular project authorized under this article during the period of actual construction or acquisition thereof and during the period thereafter as may be provided in the indenture or authorized by resolution of the board approved by the State Board of Control. The Treasurer, on order of the Controller, shall thereafter transfer from the California State University Dormitory Revenue Fund to the California State University Dormitory Interest and Redemption Fund the sums required to pay the interest on the notes and bonds and redeem the principal thereof as the interest payments and note and bond redemptions fall due for all notes and bonds issued under the provisions of this article.

SEC. 163. Section 90077 of the Education Code is amended to read:

90077. Moneys in the California State University Dormitory Construction Fund may be invested by the board, with the approval of the State Board of Control, subject only to limitations which may be provided in any resolution authorizing the issuance of revenue bond anticipation notes or in any indenture providing for the issuance of revenue bonds. All securities or other investments made under the provisions of this article shall be held by the Treasurer as custodian thereof. All interest or other earnings received pursuant to the investments shall be collected by the Treasurer, and, on order of the Controller, shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the fund from which interest or other earnings are derived.

SEC. 164. Section 90078 of the Education Code is amended to read:

90078. After all of the notes and revenue bonds shall have been fully paid and discharged, or provision for their payment and discharge irrevocably made, any surplus moneys in the California State University Dormitory Construction Fund shall, subject to the limitations and restrictions in any resolution authorizing the issuance of the notes or in any indenture providing for the issuance of the revenue bonds, remain available for the acquisition of sites for, and for the construction, equipping and furnishing of, buildings for the California State University.

SEC. 165. Section 90100 of the Education Code is amended to read:

90100. This chapter may be cited as the California State University Contract Law.

SEC. 166. Section 90101 of the Education Code is amended to read:

90101. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Project" includes the erection, construction, alteration, painting, repair, or improvement of any state structure, building, road, or other state improvement of any kind which will exceed in cost a total of ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(b) "Trustees" mean the Trustees of the California State University.

(c) "Service contract" means any contract for services in connection with a project other than a project contract, and includes, but is not limited to, contracts for architectural, engineering, planning, testing, general studies, or feasibility services.

SEC. 167. Section 90126 of the Education Code is amended to read:

90126. The trustees may receive bids for the construction of several public works projects at one campus of the California State University as a single project. Where more than one appropriation has been made for the several projects united as a single project under the provisions of this section, payments for the single project shall be made from the separate appropriations on such proportional basis as may be determined by the trustees and approved by the Department of Finance.

SEC. 168. Section 90400 of the Education Code is amended to read:

90400. (a) The California Polytechnic State University included within the California State University is comprised of a campus or complex of buildings, facilities, and land situated within the County of San Luis Obispo.

(b) The California State Polytechnic University included within the California State University is comprised of a campus or complex of buildings, facilities, and land situated within the County of Los Angeles and within or near the City of Pomona and the City of San Dimas.

SEC. 169. Section 90401 of the Education Code is amended to read:

90401. The trustees may provide for the establishment of a separate California State Polytechnic University at the campus or complex situated in the County of Los Angeles, more particularly described in subdivision (b) of Section 90400, and may execute any necessary agreements and receive, on behalf of the state, any property or interest in property which may be conveyed to the state in connection therewith or for any purposes of this section.

From and after the date upon which final action for the establishment of such separate university has been taken by the trustees, there shall be, within the California State University, two separate California state polytechnic universities, comprised of the respective campuses or complexes described in Section 90400. The provisions of Section 89067, the provisions of Sections 90404 to 90406, inclusive, and any provisions of law limited in applicability specifically to the California State Polytechnic University, unless otherwise therein specified, shall be deemed applicable to either or both of such California state polytechnic universities.

SEC. 170. Section 90420 of the Education Code is amended to read:

90420. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Director of General Services, with the approval of the State Public Works Board and the Trustees of the California State University, may rent, lease, sell, trade, or otherwise dispose of the property belonging to the state and used as California State University, Fresno, Ratcliffe Stadium, located on Blackstone Avenue between University Avenue and Cambridge Avenue in the City of Fresno, California.

All proceeds derived from the rental, lease, sale, trade, or other disposition shall be used for the acquisition, construction, improvement, or leasing of an athletic stadium for California State University, Fresno, and are hereby appropriated for the purposes described herein without regard to fiscal year.

SEC. 171. Section 90510 of the Education Code is amended to read:

90510. The president of each campus of the California State University shall provide for the annual cleaning, sterilizing, and necessary repair of football equipment of his or her campus of the California State University pursuant to Sections 90511 and 90512.

SEC. 172. Section 94302 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94302. As used in this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise:

(a) "Agent" means any person who, at a place away from the principal school premises or site of instruction, whose primary task is to serve as a paid recruiter, while owning an interest in, employed by, or representing for remuneration or other consideration a private postsecondary educational institution located within or without this state, offers or attempts to secure enrollment of any person within this state or accepts application fees or admissions fees for education in an institution. Administrators and faculty who make informational public appearances are exempted from this definition.

(b) "Agent's permit" means a nontransferable written document issued to an agent pursuant to the provisions of this chapter by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

(c) "Approval to operate" means that the institution so approved has met recognized and accepted standards as determined by the Superintendent of Public Instruction in carrying out the provisions of this chapter to operate a postsecondary educational institution in this state.

(d) "Authorization to operate" means that the institution so authorized has been granted permission by the Superintendent of Public Instruction to operate as a postsecondary educational institution.

(e) "Council" means the Council for Private Postsecondary Educational Institutions established pursuant to Section 94304.

(f) "Degree" means any "academic degree" or "honorary degree" or title of any designation, mark, appellation, series of letters or words such as, but not limited to, associate, bachelor, master, doctor, or fellow which signifies, purports, or is generally taken to signify satisfactory completion of the requirements of an academic, educational, technological, or professional program of study beyond the secondary school level or is an honorary title conferred for recognition of some meritorious achievement.

(g) "Diploma" means any "diploma," "certificate," "transcript," "document," or other writing in any language other than a degree.

(h) "Education" or "education services" includes, but is not limited to, any class, course, or program of training, instruction, or study.

(i) "Superintendent" refers to the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

(j) "To offer" includes, in addition to its usual meanings, advertising, publicizing, soliciting, or encouraging any person, directly or indirectly, in any form, to perform the act described.

(k) "To operate" an educational institution, or like term, means to establish, keep, or maintain any facility or location in this state where, from, or through which educational services are offered or educational degrees or diplomas are offered or granted.

(l) "Postsecondary educational institution" or "institution" includes, but is not limited to, an academic, vocational, technical, business, professional, home study school, college, or university, or other organization (comprised of a person, firm, association, partnership, or corporation) which offers educational degrees or diplomas, or offers instruction or educational services primarily to persons who have completed or terminated their secondary education or who are beyond the age of compulsory high school attendance. Auxiliary organizations of the California State University are not included within this division and are not governed by this article.

(m) "Vocational objective" means an objective which is ordinarily attained upon completion of a course which qualifies the person or leads to employment in a recognized occupation listed in the latest "Dictionary of Occupational Titles," issued by the United States Department of Labor, or declared by that department to be eligible for such listing, or leading to an employable objective determined by the council.

(n) "Professional objective" means an objective which ordinarily is attained upon the completion of a curriculum or program of studies leading to a recognized profession or semiprofession.

(o) "Educational objective" means an objective which ordinarily is attained upon the completion of a program consisting of any curriculum, or any combination of unit courses or subjects offered by an educational institution which normally leads to earning a college degree.

(p) "Technological objective" means one which is ordinarily attained upon completion of a curriculum or program of studies which emphasizes the application of principles to the solution of practical problems rather than the theoretical development of those principles.

(q) "Accredited" means that an institution has been recognized or approved as meeting the standards established by an accrediting agency recognized by the United States Department of Education or the Committee of Bar Examiners for the State of California. It shall not include those institutions which have applied for accreditation and are candidates for accreditation or have provisional accreditation.

(r) "Occupational skill, knowledge, or ability" means any fundamental or advanced competency which increases an individual's employability or potential, effectiveness, or expertise in a vocation or profession, including, but not limited to, self-employment, business, or financial ventures.

(s) "Instruction" includes any specific, formal arrangement by an institution for its enrollees to participate in learning experiences wherein the institution's faculty or contracted instructors present a planned curriculum appropriate to the enrollee's educational program.

(t) "Certificate of authorization for service" means a written, nontransferable document issued by the superintendent authorizing an individual to be an instructor or administrator in any private postsecondary institution in California which is approved under subdivision (d) of Section 94311.

SEC. 173. Section 12041 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

12041. (a) There is in the department an Agricultural Pest Control Advisory Committee consisting of 12 members. The committee shall be appointed by the director and shall be composed of two pest control research specialists, one of whom shall specialize in biological control, one agricultural extension service specialist nominated by the Regents of the University of California, and nine additional members, one each representing the following: the Trustees of the California State University, the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, agricultural pest control advisers, licensed pest control operators, the State Department of Health Services, the Department of Fish and Game, producers as defined in Section 56110, the agricultural chemical industry, and the department. The director may appoint one additional member on the committee, who shall be a public member.

(b) Upon the director's request, the committee shall submit to the director the names of three or more natural persons, each of whom shall be a citizen and resident of this state, for appointment by the director as a public member of the committee. The director may appoint one of the nominees as the public member on the committee. If all nominees are unsatisfactory to the director, the committee shall continue to submit lists of nominees until the director has made a selection. Any vacancy in the office of the public member of the committee shall be filled by appointment by the director from the nominee or nominees similarly qualified submitted by the committee. The public member of the committee shall represent the interests of the general public in all matters coming before the committee and shall have the same voting and other rights and immunities as other members of the committee.

SEC. 174. Section 7.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7.6. Whenever, by any law, any officer whose office is created by the California Constitution is made a member of a state board, commission, or committee, or of the governing body of any state agency or authority, such officer may designate a deputy of his or her office holding a position specified in subdivision (c) of Section 4 of Article VII of the California Constitution to act as the member in the constitutional officer's place and stead, to all intents and purposes as though the constitutional officer were personally present, including the right of the deputy to be counted in constituting a quorum, to participate in the proceedings of the board, commission, committee, or other governing body, and to vote upon any and all matters. The constitutional officer so designating a deputy shall be responsible for the acts of the deputy acting under the designation in the same manner and to the same extent that the constitutional officer is responsible for the acts of the deputy performing his or her official duties as a deputy of the office of the constitutional officer.

The Lieutenant Governor may designate any person in his or her office holding a position specified in subdivision (c) or (f) of Section 4 of Article VII of the California Constitution to act as a deputy for the purposes of this section only. However, the Lieutenant Governor may not appoint a person to act as a deputy for him or her at meetings of the Senate, or of the Regents of the University of California, or of the Trustees of the California State University.

The Attorney General may also designate any person in his or her office holding a position specified in subdivision (m) of Section 4 of Article VII of the California Constitution to act as a deputy for the purpose of this section. However, no person designated by the Attorney General pursuant to this section to act as a member on any state board, commission, committee, or governing body of which the Attorney General is presiding officer shall act as presiding officer in his or her place.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction may designate any person in his or her office holding a position specified in Section 2.1 of Article IX of the California Constitution to act as a deputy for the purposes of this section. However, the Superintendent of Public Instruction may not appoint a person to act as a deputy for him or her at meetings of the State Board of Education, of the Regents of the University of California, or of the Trustees of the California State University.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, not more than one officer subject to this section shall be represented by a deputy subject to this section at any meeting or session of the State Lands Commission.

SEC. 175. Section 3202 of the Government Code is amended to read:

3202. This chapter applies to all officers and employees of a state or local agency.

(a) "Local agency" means a county, city, city and county, political subdivision, district other than a school district, or municipal corporation. Officers and employees of a given local agency include officers and employees of any other local agency whose principal duties consist of providing services to the given local agency.

(b) "State agency" means every state office, department, division, bureau, board, commission, superior court, court of appeal, the Supreme Court, the California State University, the University of California, and the Legislature.

SEC. 176. Section 3560 of the Government Code is amended to read:

3560. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that:

(a) The people of the State of California have a fundamental interest in the development of harmonious and cooperative labor relations between the public institutions of higher education and their employees.

(b) All other employees of the public school systems in the state have been granted the opportunity for collective bargaining through the adoption of Chapter 10.3 (commencing with Section 3512) and Chapter 10.7 (commencing with Section 3540), and it would be advantageous and desirable to expand the jurisdiction of the board created thereunder to cover the employees of the University of California, Hastings College of the Law, and the California State University. These institutions of higher education have their own organizational characteristics.

(c) The people of the State of California have established a system of higher education under the Constitution of the State of California with the intention of providing an academic community with full freedom of inquiry and insulation from political influence in the administration thereof. In so doing, the people have caused to be created the regents to govern the University of California, a board of directors to govern Hastings College of the Law, an affiliate of the University of California, and a board of trustees to govern the California State University.

(d) The people and the aforementioned higher education employers each have a fundamental interest in the preservation and promotion of the responsibilities granted by the people of the State of California. Harmonious relations between each higher education employer and its employees are necessary to that endeavor.

(e) It is the purpose of this chapter to provide the means by which relations between each higher education employer and its employees may assure that the responsibilities and authorities granted to the separate institutions under the Constitution and by statute are carried out in an atmosphere which permits the fullest participation by employees in the determination of conditions of employment which affect them. It is the intent of this chapter to accomplish this purpose by providing a uniform basis for recognizing the right of the employees of these systems to full freedom of association, self-organization, and designation of representatives of their own choosing for the purpose of representation in their employment relationships with their employers and to select one of these organizations as their exclusive representative for the purpose of meeting and conferring.

SEC. 177. Section 3561 of the Government Code is amended to read:

3561. (a) It is the further purpose of this chapter to provide orderly and clearly defined procedures for meeting and conferring and the resolution of impasses, and to define and prohibit certain practices which are inimical to the public interest.

(b) The Legislature recognizes that joint decisionmaking and consultation between administration and faculty or academic employees is the long-accepted manner of governing institutions of higher learning and is essential to the performance of the educational missions of these institutions, and declares that it is the purpose of this chapter to both preserve and encourage that process. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to restrict, limit, or prohibit the full exercise of the functions of the faculty in any shared governance mechanisms or practices, including the Academic Senate of the University of California and the divisions thereof, the Academic Senates of the California State University, and other faculty councils, with respect to policies on academic and professional matters affecting the California State University, the University of California, or Hastings College of the Law. The principle of peer review of appointment, promotion, retention, and tenure for academic employees shall be preserved.

(c) It is the policy of the State of California to encourage the pursuit of excellence in teaching, research, and learning through the free exchange of ideas among the faculty, students, and staff of the University of California, Hastings College of the Law, and the California State University. All parties subject to this chapter shall respect and endeavor to preserve academic freedom in the University of California, Hastings College of the Law, and the California State University.

SEC. 178. Section 3562 of the Government Code is amended to read:

3562. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Arbitration" means a method of resolving a rights dispute under which the parties to a controversy must accept the award of a third party.

(b) "Board" means the Public Employment Relations Board established pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 3513.

(c) "Certified organization" means an employee organization which has been certified by the board as the exclusive representative of the employees in an appropriate unit after a proceeding under Article 5 (commencing with Section 3573).

(d) "Meet and confer" means the performance of the mutual obligation of the higher education employer and the exclusive representative of its employees to meet at reasonable times and to confer in good faith with respect to matters within the scope of representation and to endeavor to reach agreement on matters within the scope of representation. The process should include adequate time for the resolution of impasses. If agreement is reached between representatives of the higher education employer and the exclusive representative, they shall jointly prepare a written memorandum of the understanding which shall be presented to the higher education employer for concurrence. However, these obligations do not compel either party to agree to any proposal or require the making of a concession.

(e) "Confidential employee" means any employee who is required to develop or present management positions with respect to meeting and conferring or whose duties normally require access to confidential information which contributes significantly to the development of management positions.

(f) "Employee" or "higher education employee" means any employee of the Regents of the University of California, the Directors of Hastings College of the Law, or the Board of Trustees of the California State University, whose employment is principally within the State of California. However, managerial and confidential employees shall be excluded from coverage under this chapter. The board may find student employees, whose employment is contingent on their status as students, are employees only if the services they provide are unrelated to their educational objectives, or, that those educational objectives are subordinate to the services they perform and that coverage under this chapter would further the purposes of this chapter.

(g) "Employee organization" means any organization of any kind in which higher education employees participate and which exists for the purpose, in whole or in part, of dealing with higher education employers concerning grievances, labor disputes, wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment of employees. Employee organization shall also include any person such an organization authorizes to act on its behalf. An academic senate, or other similar academic bodies, or divisions thereof, shall not be considered employee organizations for the purposes of this chapter.

(h) "Employer" or "higher education employer" means the regents in the case of the University of California, the directors in the case of Hastings College of the Law, and the trustees in the case of the California State University, including any person acting as an agent of an employer.

(i) "Employer representative" means any person or persons authorized to act in behalf of the employer.

(j) "Exclusive representative" means any recognized or certified employee organization or person it authorizes to act on its behalf.

(k) "Impasse" means that the parties have reached a point in meeting and conferring at which their differences in positions are such that further meetings would be futile.

(l) "Managerial employee" means any employee having significant responsibilities for formulating or administering policies and programs. No employee or group of employees shall be deemed to be managerial employees solely because the employee or group of employees participate in decisions with respect to courses, curriculum, personnel, and other matters of educational policy. A department chair or head of a similar academic unit or program who performs the foregoing duties primarily on behalf of the members of the academic unit or program shall not be deemed a managerial employee solely because of those duties.

(m) "Mediation" means the efforts of a third person, or persons, functioning as intermediaries, to assist the parties in reaching a voluntary resolution to an impasse.

(n) "Person" means one or more individuals, organizations, associations, corporations, boards, committees, commissions, agencies, or their representatives.

(o) "Professional employee" means:

(1) Any employee engaged in work: (i) predominately intellectual and varied in character as opposed to routine mental, manual, mechanical, or physical work; (ii) involving the consistent exercise of discretion and judgment in its performance; (iii) of such a character that the output produced or the result accomplished cannot be standardized in relation to a given period of time; and (iv) requiring knowledge of an advanced type in a field of science or learning customarily acquired by a prolonged course of specialized intellectual instruction and study in an institution of higher learning or a hospital, as distinguished from a general academic education or from an apprenticeship or from training in the performance of routine mental, manual, or physical processes; or

(2) Any employee who: (i) has completed the courses of specialized intellectual instruction and study described in clause (iv) of paragraph (1), and (ii) is performing related work under the supervision of a professional person to qualify himself or herself to become a professional employee as defined in paragraph (1).

(p) "Recognized organization" means an employee organization which has been recognized by an employer as the exclusive representative of the employees in an appropriate unit pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 3573).

(q) For purposes of the University of California only, "scope of representation" means, and is limited to, wages, hours of employment, and other terms and conditions of employment. The scope of representation shall not include:

(1) Consideration of the merits, necessity, or organization of any service, activity, or program established by law or resolution of the regents or the directors, except for the terms and conditions of employment of employees who may be affected thereby.

(2) The amount of any fees which are not a term or condition of employment.

(3) Admission requirements for students, conditions for the award of certificates and degrees to students, and the content and supervision of courses, curricula, and research programs, as those terms are intended by the standing orders of the regents or the directors.

(4) Procedures and policies to be used for the appointment, promotion, and tenure of members of the academic senate, the procedures to be used for the evaluation of the members of the academic senate, and the procedures for processing grievances of members of the academic senate. The exclusive representative of members of the academic senate shall have the right to consult and be consulted on matters excluded from the scope of representation pursuant to this paragraph. If the academic senate determines that any matter in this paragraph should be within the scope of representation, or if any matter in this paragraph is withdrawn from the responsibility of the academic senate, the matter shall be within the scope of representation.

All matters not within the scope of representation are reserved to the employer and may not be subject to meeting and conferring, except that nothing in this subdivision is to be construed to limit the right of the employer to consult with any employees or employee organization on any matter outside the scope of representation.

(r) For purposes of the California State University only, "scope of representation" means, and is limited to, wages, hours of employment, and other terms and conditions of employment. The scope of representation shall not include:

(1) Consideration of the merits, necessity, or organization of any service, activity, or program established by statute or regulations adopted by the trustees, except for the terms and conditions of employment of employees who may be affected thereby.

(2) The amount of any student fees which are not a term or condition of employment.

(3) Admission requirements for students, conditions for the award of certificates and degrees to students, and the content and conduct of courses, curricula, and research programs.

(4) Criteria and standards to be used for the appointment, promotion, evaluation, and tenure of academic employees, which shall be the joint responsibility of the academic senate and the trustees. The exclusive representative shall have the right to consult and be consulted on matters excluded from the scope of representation pursuant to this paragraph. If the trustees withdraw any matter in this paragraph from the responsibility of the academic senate, the matter shall be within the scope of representation.

All matters not within the scope of representation are reserved to the employer and may not be subject to meeting and conferring, except that nothing in this subdivision is to be construed to limit the right of the employer to consult with any employees or employee organization on any matter outside the scope of representation.

SEC. 179. Section 3569.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

3569.5. (a) The state shall allow up to three employee representatives from each employee organization which represents employees of the California State University reasonable time off during working hours without loss of compensation or other benefits, to attend and make oral presentations at meetings of the Trustees of the California State University, or a committee thereof, held during the working hours of the employees, if a matter affecting conditions of employment is scheduled for consideration.

(b) Any employee organization wishing to send employee representatives to make oral presentations at such a meeting shall submit a request to the trustees far enough in advance to permit scheduling of speakers pursuant to rules and regulations of the trustees. Each employee organization shall be limited to not more than three speakers at any meeting.

(c) Only employee representatives who are named in the request submitted to the trustees as employee representatives who will make an oral presentation, and who intend to make an oral presentation, shall be allowed time off as specified in subdivision (a). Other employees may attend meetings by taking vacation time, compensating time off, or time off without pay if the workload permits, when approved by their supervisor.

(d) Nothing in this section shall preclude the trustees from adopting rules and regulations relating to time off for employees not represented by an employee organization to attend meetings.

(e) If the provisions of this section are in conflict with the provisions of a memorandum of understanding reached pursuant to this chapter, the memorandum of understanding shall be controlling without further legislative action, except that if the provisions of a memorandum of understanding require the expenditure of funds, the provisions shall not become effective unless approved by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 180. Section 3572 of the Government Code is amended to read:

3572. This section shall apply only to the California State University.

(a) The duty to engage in meeting and conferring requires the parties to begin meeting and conferring at least 60 days prior to the expiration of memoranda of understanding, or the May 1, if earlier, of any year in which a memorandum shall expire, or May 1, if there is no existing memorandum. The California State University shall maintain close liaison with the Department of Finance and the Legislature relative to the meeting and conferring on provisions of the written memoranda which have fiscal ramifications. The Governor shall appoint one representative to attend the meeting and conferring, including the impasse procedure, to advise the parties on the views of the Governor on matters which would require an appropriation or legislative action, and the Speaker of the Assembly and the Senate Rules Committee may each appoint one representative to attend the meeting and conferring to advise the parties on the views of the Legislature on matters which would require an appropriation or legislative action.

No written memoranda reached pursuant to the provisions of this chapter which require budgetary or curative action by the Legislature or other funding agencies shall be effective unless and until the action has been taken. Following execution of written memoranda of understanding, an appropriate request for financing or budgetary funding for all state-funded employees or for necessary legislation will be forwarded promptly to the Legislature and the Governor or other funding agencies. When memoranda require legislative action pursuant to this section, if the Legislature or the Governor fail to fully fund the memoranda or to take the requisite curative action, the entire memoranda shall be referred back to the parties for further meeting and conferring. However, the parties may agree that provisions of the memoranda which are nonbudgetary and do not require funding shall take effect whether or not the funding requests submitted to the Legislature are approved.

SEC. 181. Section 3586 of the Government Code is amended to read:

3586. The Trustees of the California State University shall continue all payroll assignments authorized by an employee prior to and until recognition or certification of an exclusive representative until notification is submitted by an employee to discontinue the employee's assignments.

SEC. 182. Section 3592 of the Government Code is amended to read:

3592. The panel shall, within 10 days after its appointment, meet with the parties or their representatives and consider their respective positions. The panel may make additional inquiries and investigations, hold hearings, and take other steps which it may deem appropriate. For the purpose of the hearings, investigations, and inquiries, the panel may issue subpoenas requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of evidence. The Regents of the University of California, the Directors of Hastings College of the Law, and the Trustees of the California State University shall furnish the panel, upon its request, with all records, papers, and information in their possession relating to any matter under investigation by or in issue before the panel, except for those records, books, and information which are confidential by statute.

SEC. 183. Section 4451 of the Government Code is amended to read:

4451. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, this chapter shall be limited in its application to all buildings and facilities stated in Section 4450 intended for use by the public, which have any reasonable availability to, or usage by, physically handicapped persons, including all facilities used for education and instruction including the University of California, the California State University, and the various community college districts, which are constructed in whole or in part by the use of state, county, or municipal funds, or the funds of any political subdivision of the state.

(b) Buildings, structures, and facilities, occupied 50 percent or more, which are leased, rented, contracted, sublet, or hired for periods in excess of two years by any municipal, county, or state division of government, or special district shall be made accessible to, and usable by, the physically handicapped. Exceptions to this paragraph may be made upon application to, and approval by, the Department of Rehabilitation.

(c) Except as otherwise provided by law, buildings, structures, sidewalks, curbs, and related facilities subject to the provisions of this chapter or Part 5.5 (commencing with Section 19955) of Division 13 of the Health and Safety Code shall conform to the building standards published in the State Building Standards Code relating to access for the physically handicapped and the other regulations adopted pursuant to Section 4450 which are in effect on the date a building permit is issued therefor. With respect to buildings, structures, sidewalks, curbs, and related facilities for which a building permit is not required, building standards published in the State Building Standards Code relating to access for the physically handicapped and other regulations adopted pursuant to Section 4450 which are in effect at the time construction is commenced shall be applicable.

(d) Until building standards are published in the State Building Standards Code and other regulations are adopted by the State Architect pursuant to Section 4450, buildings, structures, sidewalks, curbs, and related facilities subject to the provisions of this chapter or Part 5.5 (commencing with Section 19955) of Division 13 of the Health and Safety Code shall conform to the American Standards Association Specifications A117.1/1961.

(e) This chapter shall apply to temporary or emergency construction as well as permanent buildings.

(f) Administrative authorities as designated under Section 4453 may grant exceptions from the literal requirements of the building standards published in the State Building Standards Code relating to access for the physically handicapped or the other regulations adopted pursuant to this section or permit the use of other methods or materials, but only when it is clearly evident that equivalent facilitation and protection are thereby secured.

SEC. 184. Section 4475 of the Government Code is amended to read:

4475. "State agency," as used in this chapter, means any state agency defined in Section 11000, which is authorized to enter into contracts and shall include, but not be limited to, the Department of Public Works, the Department of Water Resources, the Department of General Services, the Trustees of the California State University, and the Board of Regents of the University of California.

SEC. 185. Section 8832 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8832. The commission shall also establish the instructional committee composed of one member and one alternate member appointed for one-year terms by each of the following:

(a) The Regents of the University of California.

(b) The Trustees of the California State University.

(c) The Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges.

(d) The independent California colleges and universities.

(e) The vocational and private postsecondary institutions.

(f) The Superintendent of Public Instruction.

(g) The private primary and secondary schools.

SEC. 186. Section 11121.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11121.5. Under the provisions of this article, the official student body organization at any campus of the California State University, or of the California Community Colleges, shall be treated in the same manner as a state body.

SEC. 187. Section 11126 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11126. (a) Nothing contained in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body from holding closed sessions during a regular or special meeting to consider the appointment, employment, or dismissal of a public employee or to hear complaints or charges brought against that employee by another person or employee unless the employee requests a public hearing. As a condition to holding a closed session on the complaints or charges to consider disciplinary action or to consider dismissal, the employee shall be given written notice of his or her right to have a public hearing, rather than a closed session, which notice shall be delivered to the employee personally or by mail at least 24 hours before the time for holding a regular or special meeting. If notice is not given, any disciplinary or other action taken against any employee at the closed session shall be null and void. The state body also may exclude from any such public or closed session, during the examination of a witness, any or all other witnesses in the matter being investigated by the state body. Following the public hearing or closed session, the body may deliberate on the decision to be reached in a closed session.

For the purposes of this section, "employee" shall not include any person who is elected to, or appointed to a public office by, any state body. However, officers of the California State University who receive compensation for their services, other than per diem and ordinary and necessary expenses, shall, when engaged in that capacity, be considered employees.

(b) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent state bodies which administer the licensing of persons engaging in businesses or professions from holding closed sessions to prepare, approve, grade, or administer examinations.

(c) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent an advisory body of a state body which administers the licensing of persons engaged in businesses or professions from conducting a closed session to discuss matters which the advisory body has found would constitute an unwarranted invasion of the privacy of an individual licensee or applicant if discussed in an open meeting, provided the advisory body does not include a quorum of the members of the state body it advises. Those matters may include review of an applicant's qualifications for licensure and an inquiry specifically related to the state body's enforcement program concerning an individual licensee or applicant where the inquiry occurs prior to the filing of a civil, criminal, or administrative disciplinary action against the licensee or applicant by the state body.

(d) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prohibit a state body from holding a closed session to deliberate on a decision to be reached based upon evidence introduced in a proceeding required to be conducted pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 or similar provision of law.

(e) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent any state body from holding a closed session to consider matters affecting the national security.

(f) Nothing in this article shall be construed to grant a right to enter any correctional institution or the grounds of a correctional institution where that right is not otherwise granted by law, nor shall anything in this article be construed to prevent a state body from holding a closed session when considering and acting upon the determination of a term, parole, or release of any individual or other disposition of an individual case, or if public disclosure of the subjects under discussion or consideration is expressly prohibited by statute.

(g) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent any closed session to consider the conferring of honorary degrees, or gifts, donations, and bequests which the donor or proposed donor has requested in writing to be kept confidential.

(h) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board from holding a closed session for the purpose of holding a deliberative conference as provided in Section 11125.

(i) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Trustees of the California State University from holding closed sessions dealing with site selection for the state university.

(j) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the California Postsecondary Education Commission from holding closed sessions to consider matters pertaining to the appointment or termination of the Director of the California Postsecondary Education Commission.

(k) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Franchise Tax Board from holding closed sessions for the purpose of discussion of confidential tax returns or data the public disclosure of which is prohibited by law, or from considering matters pertaining to the appointment or removal of the executive officer of the Franchise Tax Board.

(l) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Board of Corrections from holding closed sessions when considering reports of crime conditions under the provisions of Section 6027 of the Penal Code.

(m) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the State Air Resources Board from holding closed sessions when considering the proprietary specifications and performance data of manufacturers.

(n) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body which invests retirement, pension, or endowment funds from holding closed sessions when considering investment decisions. For purposes of consideration of shareholder voting on corporate stocks held by the state body, closed sessions for the purposes of voting may be held only with respect to election of corporate directors, election of independent auditors, and other financial issues which could have a material effect on the net income of the corporation.

(o) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body, or such boards, commissions, administrative officers, or other representatives as may properly be designated by law or by a state body, from holding closed sessions with its representatives in discharging its responsibilities under Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 3500) of Division 4 of Title 1 as the sessions relate to salaries, salary schedules, or compensation paid in the form of fringe benefits. For the purposes enumerated in the preceding sentence, a state body may also meet with a state conciliator who has intervened in the proceedings.

(p) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any meeting of the Public Utilities Commission at which the rates of entities under the commission's jurisdiction are changed shall be open and public.

Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Public Utilities Commission from holding closed sessions to deliberate on the institution of proceedings, or disciplinary actions against regulated utilities.

(q) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body from holding a closed session to confer with legal counsel regarding pending litigation when discussion in open session concerning those matters would adversely affect or be detrimental to the public interest.

(r) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body which invests in retirement, pension, or endowment funds from holding closed sessions to confer with legal counsel regarding pending litigation, when discussion in open session concerning these matters would adversely affect, or be detrimental to, those funds. For purposes of subdivision (q) and this subdivision, litigation shall be considered pending when a complaint, claim or petition for writ of mandate has been filed, or the threat of litigation is imminent in the sound opinion of the state body.

(s) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the examining committee established by the State Board of Forestry, pursuant to Section 763 of the Public Resources Code, from conducting a closed session to consider disciplinary action against an individual professional forester prior to the filing of an accusation against the forester pursuant to Section 11503.

(t) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent an administrative committee established by the State Board of Accountancy pursuant to Section 5020 of the Business and Professions Code from conducting a closed session to consider disciplinary action against an individual accountant prior to the filing of an accusation against the accountant pursuant to Section 11503. Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent an examining committee established by the Board of Accountancy pursuant to Section 5023 of the Business and Professions Code from conducting a closed hearing to interview an individual applicant or accountant regarding the applicant's qualifications.

(u) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body, as defined in Section 11121.2, from conducting a closed session to consider any matter which properly could be considered in closed session by the state body whose authority it exercises.

(v) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body, as defined in Section 11121.7, from conducting a closed session to consider any matter which properly could be considered in a closed session by the body defined as a state body pursuant to Section 11121, 11121.2, or 11121.5.

(w) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body, as defined in Section 11121.8, from conducting a closed session to consider any matter which properly could be considered in a closed session by the state body it advises.

(x) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the State Board of Equalization from holding closed sessions when considering matters pertaining to the appointment or removal of the executive secretary of the State Board of Equalization.

SEC. 188. Section 14903 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14903. As soon as practicable after deposit of the copies in the library stockroom, the State Printer shall forward of each publication, other than the legislative bills, daily journals, and daily or weekly histories, 50 copies to the State Library at Sacramento, 25 copies each to the University of California libraries at Berkeley and Los Angeles, and 50 copies to the California State University, to be allocated among the libraries thereof as directed by the Trustees of the California State University. Copies in excess of the number required for the institutions themselves, may be used for exchanges with other institutions or with agencies of other states and countries.

SEC. 189. Section 15854.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15854.5. To promote the safety of students, comprehensive community planning, and greater educational usefulness of state university sites, the Trustees of the California State University, before the board acquires title to property for any site, shall undertake the following action:

Immediately after receiving notice of the proposed acquisition of property which is within two miles, measured by air line, of that point on an airport boundary which is nearest the site, the Trustees of the California State University shall notify the Department of Aeronautics, in writing, of the proposed acquisition. The Department of Aeronautics shall make an investigation and report to the trustees within 25 days after receipt of the notice. If the Department of Aeronautics is no longer in operation, the trustees shall, in lieu of notifying the commission, notify the Federal Aviation Agency or any other appropriate agency, in writing, of the proposed acquisition for the purpose of obtaining from the authority or other agency any information or assistance it may desire to give.

The Trustees of the California State University shall investigate the proposed site and within 30 days after receipt of the notice shall submit to the board a written report and its recommendations concerning acquisition of the site. The board shall not acquire title to the property until the report of the trustees has been received. If the report does not favor the acquisition of the property for a state university site or an addition to a state university site, the board shall not acquire title to the property until 30 days after the trustees' report is received and until the trustees' report has been read at a public hearing duly called after 10 days' notice published once in a newspaper of general circulation within the county in which the property is located.

SEC. 190. Section 15861 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15861. Whenever it appears to the satisfaction of the board that any part of the campus of a state university acquired as a site for student housing will, if used for such purpose, interfere with the proper and orderly development of the campus, the board may authorize the use of such site for any other purpose of the state university upon the Trustees of the California State University designating some other part of the campus as a site for the student housing affected.

SEC. 191. Section 16304.6a of the Government Code is amended to read:

16304.6a. Within the time during which the appropriation is available for expenditure, the State Board of Control at the request of the Trustees of the California State University and with the approval of the Director of Finance, may authorize that unneeded funds in any appropriation for the support of a university which is included in the California State University shall be available and shall be deemed appropriated for the support of any university included in the California State University.

SEC. 192. Section 16315 of the Government Code is amended to read:

16315. Any appropriation made for major construction, improvements, equipment, designs, working plans, and specifications may be expended to reimburse the Division of Architecture Revolving Fund, the University of California, or the Trustees of the California State University, for expenditures incurred prior to the availability of the appropriation, if the State Public Works Board and the Department of Finance have approved preliminary plans for the project to be financed from the appropriation in accordance with any applicable provision of law. Any money in the Division of Architecture Revolving Fund may be expended or encumbered for expenditure prior to the availability of the appropriation for any project as to which reimbursement of the fund therefor is authorized by this section. Any money available to the Trustees of the California State University for expenditure for projects of major construction, improvements, equipment, designs, working plans, and specifications may be expended or encumbered for expenditure by the trustees for any state university project prior to the availability of the appropriation for the particular project, if reimbursement of the trustees or the state university from such appropriation is authorized pursuant to this section.

Nothing herein contained shall be construed to limit or control the Regents of the University of California or the Trustees of the California State University in the expenditure of funds appropriated for major construction, improvements, and equipment for the use, development, or enlargement of the University of California or the California State University, respectively.

SEC. 193. Section 20023.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20023.4. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 20023, if a member who is an academic employee of the California State University dies while on a leave with pay, or within 12 months following a leave with pay, during which the member received compensation in an amount less than the full compensation earnable by him or her when not on leave with pay, the benefit payable under subdivision (b) of Section 21361 shall be based on the full compensation earnable by the member when not on leave with pay.

SEC. 194. Section 20023.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20023.5. Liability imposed on the system with respect to the death of a member who is an academic employee of the California State University while on, or within 12 months following, a leave with pay during which the member received compensation in an amount less than the full compensation earnable by him or her when not on leave with pay shall extend to the death of the members occurring on or after January 1, 1973, and to any benefit for which there would have been liability with respect to such death had Section 20023.4 been effective on that date.

SEC. 195. Section 20815 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20815. Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, a member employed on a part-time basis on and after January 1, 1976, shall, for the period of part-time employment, receive the credit the member would receive if he or she was employed on a full-time basis and have his or her retirement allowance, as well as any other benefits the member is entitled to under this part, based upon the salary that he or she would have received if employed on a full-time basis, if the member and his or her employer both elect to contribute to the retirement fund the amount that would have been contributed if the member was employed on a full-time basis. Prior to the reduction of an employee's workload under this section, the district personnel responsible for the administration of this program, in conjunction with the administrative staff of the State Teachers' Retirement System and the Public Employees' Retirement System, shall verify the eligibility of the applicant for the reduced workload program. This section shall be applicable only to members who are academic employees of California State University or who are certificated employees of school districts and who have met the criteria provided in Sections 44922 and 87483 of the Education Code or Section 89516 of the Education Code and are not older than 70 years and is limited to a period of five years of part-time status. The employer shall maintain the necessary records to separately identify each employee receiving credit pursuant to this section.

SEC. 196. Section 22816.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

22816.5. An employee of the California State University system who is granted a partial leave of absence for more than halftime, but less than full time, may maintain enrollment in a health benefit plan under this part provided the employee pays the contributions otherwise required of the Trustees of the California State University system on account of the employee's enrollment.

SEC. 197. Section 50330 of the Government Code is amended to read:

50330. Whether governed under general laws or charter, a local agency may donate and grant to the Regents of the University of California or to the Trustees of the California State University real property which it owns as a site for university buildings and grounds, or state university buildings and grounds, as the case may be. A local agency may expend funds, incur indebtedness, and issue bonds for the acquisition of a site within or without its boundaries for the purposes of this section.

SEC. 198. Section 50330.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

50330.4. For the purposes of Section 50330, a local agency may purchase land or options on land or contract for and make downpayments on land or options on land within or without its boundaries and make a gift of that land, option, or contract and downpayment to the Trustees of the California State University for development as a state university on condition that the entire gift shall revert to the local agency if the state university is not established on that site prior to a specific date designated by the local agency and the trustees and the acceptance of the gift by the trustees shall not obligate the expenditure of any state funds for the purchase or acquisition of land or for development on land unless the Legislature shall subsequently approve the obligation by appropriating funds for that specific purpose.

SEC. 199. Section 551 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

551. The advisory committee shall consist of the Chief of the Local Environmental Health Programs Section, State Department of Health Services, or his or her designate, who shall serve as chairman ex officio, but who shall not vote, and the following nine members who shall be residents of the state:

(a) Two members from the California Conference of Directors of Environmental Health who shall be registered as sanitarians by the department and shall have had at least two years' experience as directors in the State of California.

(b) Three members, each of whom shall be a qualified, practicing sanitarian who has been registered by the State of California for a period of five or more years.

(c) One member from the California Conference of Local Health Officers.

(d) Two members from the faculty of any campus of the California State University which has curricula leading to a degree in environmental health. The members may be from the same or from different campuses.

(e) One public member. The public member shall not have been engaged at any time within five years immediately preceding his or her appointment in pursuits which lie within the field of environmental health or the profession regulated by the advisory committee of which he or she is a member.

SEC. 200. Section 10203.1 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10203.1. Life insurance conforming to all the following conditions is another form of group life insurance:

(a) Written under a policy covering, when issued, not less than 25 employees of the Trustees of the California State University in eligible classes as designated by the trustees pursuant to Section 89506 of the Education Code.

(b) Written under a policy issued to the Trustees of the California State University pursuant to Section 89506 of the Education Code.

(c) The premium on the policy is to be paid by the employees alone, or in part by the State of California, with the remainder to be paid by the employees. Payment of the premium by a third party on behalf of the employees shall be considered payment by the employees.

(d) Insuring only the employees of the Trustees of the California State University.

(e) Insuring for amounts of insurance based upon some plan which will preclude individual selection.

(f) Insuring for the benefit of persons other than the Trustees of the California State University.

(g) Written under a policy insuring, when issued, not less than 75 percent of all such employees eligible for insurance under the policy, or 75 percent of the employees of any class thereof reasonably determined by conditions pertaining to employment or of any established unit thereof not formed for the purpose of procuring insurance. However, if a group policy is intended to insure several classes or units, it may be issued as respects any class or unit, of which 75 percent are covered and extended to other units or classes as 75 percent thereof express the desire to be covered. In such case, when the employees apply and pay for additional amounts of insurance, a smaller percentage of employees may be insured for additional amounts of insurance. If any employee fails to become insured under an existing policy when he or she becomes eligible and later wishes to become insured thereunder, the insurer may require satisfactory evidence of insurability before insurance is granted on the employee.

SEC. 201. Section 1720.3 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

1720.3. For the limited purposes of Article 2 (commencing with Section 1770), "public works" also means the hauling of refuse from a public works site to an outside disposal location, with respect to contracts involving any state agency, including the California State University and the University of California.

SEC. 202. Section 602.10 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

602.10. Every person who, by physical force and with the intent to prevent attendance or instruction, willfully obstructs or attempts to obstruct any student or teacher seeking to attend or instruct classes at any of the campuses or facilities owned, controlled, or administered by the Regents of the University of California, the Trustees of the California State University, or the governing board of a community college district shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500), by imprisonment in a county jail for a period of not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

As used in this section, "physical force" includes, but is not limited to, use of one's person, individually or in concert with others, to impede access to, or movement within, or otherwise to obstruct the students and teachers of the classes to which the premises are devoted.

SEC. 203. Section 626 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

626. (a) As used in this chapter:

(1) "University" means the University of California, and includes any affiliated institution thereof and any campus or facility owned, operated, or controlled by the Regents of the University of California.

(2) "State university" means any California state university, and includes any campus or facility owned, operated, or controlled by the Trustees of the California State University.

(3) "Community college" means any public community college established pursuant to the Education Code.

(4) "School" means any elementary school, junior high school, four-year high school, senior high school, adult school or any branch thereof, opportunity school, continuation high school, regional occupational center, evening high school, or technical school.

(5) "Chief administrative officer" means:

(i) The president of the university or a state university, the Chancellor of the California State University, or the officer designated by the Regents of the University of California or pursuant to authority granted by the Regents of the University of California to administer and be the officer in charge of a campus or other facility owned, operated, or controlled by the Regents of the University of California, or the superintendent of a community college district.

(ii) For a school: the principal of the school; or a person who possesses a standard supervision credential or a standard administrative credential and who is designated by the principal; or a person who carries out the same functions as a person who possesses a credential and who is designated by the principal.

(b) For the purpose of determining the penalty to be imposed pursuant to this chapter, the court may consider a written report from the Department of Justice containing information from its records showing prior convictions; and the communication is prima facie evidence of the convictions, if the defendant admits them, regardless of whether or not the complaint commencing the proceedings has alleged prior convictions.

SEC. 204. Section 626.2 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

626.2. Every student or employee who, after a hearing, has been suspended or dismissed from a community college, a state university, the university, or a school for disrupting the orderly operation of the campus or facility of such institution, and as a condition of such suspension or dismissal has been denied access to the campus or facility, or both, of the institution for the period of the suspension or in the case of dismissal for a period not to exceed one year; who has been served by registered or certified mail, at the last address given by such person, with a written notice of such suspension or dismissal and condition; and who willfully and knowingly enters upon the campus or facility of the institution to which he or she has been denied access, without the express written permission of the chief administrative officer of the campus or facility, is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished as follows:

(1) Upon a first conviction, by a fine of not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500), by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(2) If the defendant has been previously convicted once of a violation of any offense defined in this chapter or Section 415.5, by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not less than 10 days or more than six months, or by both such imprisonment and a fine of not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500), and shall not be released on probation, parole, or any other basis until he or she has served not less than 10 days.

(3) If the defendant has been previously convicted two or more times of a violation of any offense defined in this chapter or Section 415.5, by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not less than 90 days or more than six months, or by both such imprisonment and a fine of not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500), and shall not be released on probation, parole, or any other basis until he or she has served not less than 90 days.

Knowledge shall be presumed if notice has been given as prescribed in this section. The presumption established by this section is a presumption affecting the burden of proof.

SEC. 205. Section 626.4 of the Penal Code is amend to read:

626.4. (a) The chief administrative officer of a campus or other facility of a community college, a state university, the university, or a school, or an officer or employee designated by the chief administrative officer to maintain order on such campus or facility, may notify a person that consent to remain on the campus or other facility under the control of the chief administrative officer has been withdrawn whenever there is reasonable cause to believe that such person has willfully disrupted the orderly operation of such campus or facility.

(b) Whenever consent is withdrawn by any authorized officer or employee, other than the chief administrative officer, such officer or employee shall as soon as is reasonably possible submit a written report to the chief administrative officer. The report shall contain all of the following:

(1) The description of the person from whom consent was withdrawn, including, if available, the person's name, address, and phone number.

(2) A statement of the facts giving rise to the withdrawal of consent.

If the chief administrative officer or, in the chief administrative officer's absence, a person designated by him or her for this purpose, upon reviewing the report, finds that there was reasonable cause to believe that such person has willfully disrupted the orderly operation of the campus or facility, he or she may enter written confirmation upon the report of the action taken by the officer or employee. If the chief administrative officer or, in the chief administrative officer's absence, the person designated by him or her, does not confirm the action of the officer or employee within 24 hours after the time that consent was withdrawn, the action of the officer or employee shall be deemed void and of no force or effect, except that any arrest made during such period shall not for this reason be deemed not to have been made for probable cause.

(c) Consent shall be reinstated by the chief administrative officer whenever he or she has reason to believe that the presence of the person from whom consent was withdrawn will not constitute a substantial and material threat to the orderly operation of the campus or facility. In no case shall consent be withdrawn for longer than 14 days from the date upon which consent was initially withdrawn. The person from whom consent has been withdrawn may submit a written request for a hearing on the withdrawal within the two-week period. The written request shall state the address to which notice of hearing is to be sent. The chief administrative officer shall grant such a hearing not later than seven days from the date of receipt of the request and shall immediately mail a written notice of the time, place, and date of such hearing to such person.

(d) Any person who has been notified by the chief administrative officer of a campus or other facility of a community college, a state university, the university, or a school, or by an officer or employee designated by the chief administrative officer to maintain order on such campus or facility, that consent to remain on the campus or facility has been withdrawn pursuant to subdivision (a); who has not had such consent reinstated; and who willfully and knowingly enters or remains upon such campus or facility during the period for which consent has been withdrawn is guilty of a misdemeanor. This subdivision does not apply to any person who enters or remains on such campus or facility for the sole purpose of applying to the chief administrative officer for the reinstatement of consent or for the sole purpose of attending a hearing on the withdrawal.

(e) This section shall not affect the power of the duly constituted authorities of a community college, a state university, the university, or a school, to suspend, dismiss, or expel any student or employee at the college, state university, university, or school.

(f) Any person convicted under this section shall be punished as follows:

(1) Upon a first conviction, by a fine of not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500), by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(2) If the defendant has been previously convicted once of a violation of any offense defined in this chapter or Section 415.5, by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not less than 10 days or more than six months, or by both such imprisonment and a fine of not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500), and shall not be released on probation, parole, or any other basis until he or she has served not less than 10 days.

(3) If the defendant has been previously convicted two or more times of a violation of any offense defined in this chapter or Section 415.5, by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not less than 90 days or more than six months, or by both such imprisonment and a fine of not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500), and shall not be released on probation, parole, or any other basis until he or she has served not less than 90 days.

(g) This section shall not affect the rights of representatives of employee organizations to enter, or remain upon, school grounds while actually engaged in activities related to representation, as provided for in Chapter 10.7 (commencing with Section 3540) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

SEC. 206. Section 626.6 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

626.6. In any case in which a person who is not a student or officer or employee of a community college, a state university, the university, or a school, and who is not required by his or her employment to be on the campus or any other facility owned, operated, or controlled by the governing board of any such community college, state university, university, or school, enters such campus or facility, and it reasonably appears to the chief administrative officer of the campus or facility or to an officer or employee designated by the chief administrative officer to maintain order on such campus or facility that such person is committing any act likely to interfere with the peaceful conduct of the activities of the campus or facility or has entered the campus or facility for the purpose of committing any such act, the chief administrative officer or officer or employee designated by him or her to maintain order on the campus or facility may direct the person to leave the campus or facility, and if the person fails to do so or if the person willfully and knowingly reenters upon the campus or facility within 72 hours after being directed to leave, he or she is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished as follows:

(1) Upon a first conviction by a fine of not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500), by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(2) If the defendant has been previously convicted once of a violation of any offense defined in this chapter or Section 415.5, by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not less than 10 days or more than six months, or by both such imprisonment and a fine of not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500), and shall not be released on probation, parole, or any other basis until he or she has served not less than 10 days.

(3) If the defendant has been previously convicted two or more times of a violation of any offense defined in this chapter or Section 415.5, by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not less than 90 days or more than six months, or by both such imprisonment and a fine of not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500), and shall not be released on probation, parole, or any other basis until he or she has served not less than 90 days.

For purposes of this section, a representative of a school employee organization engaged in activities related to representation, as provided for in Chapter 10.7 (commencing with Section 3540) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code, shall be deemed a person required by his or her employment to be in a school building or on the grounds of a school.

SEC. 207. Section 626.9 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

626.9. Any person, except a duly appointed peace officer as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2, a full-time paid peace officer of another state or the federal government who is carrying out official duties while in California, any person summoned by any such officer to assist in making arrests or preserving the peace while the person is actually engaged in assisting such officer, a member of the military forces of this state or the United States who is engaged in the performance of his or her duties, or a person holding a valid license to carry the firearm pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 12050) of Chapter 1 of Title 2 of Part 4, who brings or possesses a firearm upon the grounds of any public school, including the University of California and the California State University or within any public school, including the University of California and the California State University, unless it is with the permission of the school authorities, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than one year, a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or both such imprisonment and fine, or by imprisonment in the state prison.

SEC. 208. Seciton 626.11 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

626.11. (a) Any evidence seized by a teacher, official, employee, or governing board member of any university, state university, or community college, or by any person acting under his or her direction or with his or her consent in violation of standards relating to rights under the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution or under Section 13 of Article I of the State Constitution to be free from unreasonable searches and seizures, or in violation of state or federal constitutional rights to privacy, or any of them, is inadmissible in administrative disciplinary proceedings.

(b) Any provision in an agreement between a student and an educational institution specified in subdivision (a) relating to the leasing, renting, or use of a room of any student dormitory owned or operated by the institution by which the student waives a constitutional right under the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution or under Section 13 of Article I of the State Constitution, or under state or federal constitutional provision guaranteeing a right to privacy, or any of them, is contrary to public policy and void.

(c) Any evidence seized by a person specified in subdivision (a) after a nonconsensual entry not in violation of subdivision (a) into a dormitory room, which evidence is not directly related to the purpose for which the entry was initially made, is not admissible in administrative disciplinary proceedings.

SEC. 209. Section 1463.5a of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1463.5a. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a municipal or justice court shall either authorize the California State University or any campus thereof to receive, deposit, accept forfeiture, and otherwise process the posting of bail for parking violations for which the California State University has issued a written notice of parking violation pursuant to Section 41103 of the Vehicle Code within the judicial district, or the court shall receive, deposit, accept forfeiture, and otherwise process the posting of bail for parking violations.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (1) of Section 1463, out of the moneys deposited with the county treasurer pursuant to Section 1463, there shall be transferred, once a month, into the State Treasury to the credit of the State University Parking Revenue Fund an amount equal to 50 percent of all fines and forfeitures collected during the preceding month upon the conviction or upon the forfeiture of bail from any person arrested or notified by a member of the state college police and charged with a violation of parking regulations adopted by or with the sanction of the trustees of the California State University pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 21113 of the Vehicle Code which are applicable to parking upon property under the possession or control of the trustees, and an amount equal to the remaining 50 percent shall be transferred into the general fund of the county.

(c) If the moneys are deposited directly with the California State University or any campus thereof and forfeited pursuant to subdivision (a), all such moneys shall be transferred, once a month, into the State Treasury to the credit of the State University Parking Revenue Fund.

SEC. 210. Section 13507 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

13507. As used in this chapter, "district" means any of the following:

(a) A regional park district.

(b) A district authorized by statute to maintain a police department.

(c) The University of California.

(d) The California State University.

(e) A community college district.

(f) A school district.

SEC. 211. Section 13510.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

13510.5. For the purpose of maintaining the level of competence of state law enforcement officers, the commission shall adopt, and may, from time to time amend, rules establishing minimum standards for training of peace officers as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2, who are employed by any railroad company, the California State Police Division, the University of California Police Department, a California State University police department, the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, the Division of Investigation of the Department of Consumer Affairs, the Wildlife Protection Branch of the Department of Fish and Game, the Department of Forestry, the Department of Motor Vehicles, the California Horse Racing Board, the State Fire Marshal, the Bureau of Food and Drug, the Division of Labor Law Enforcement, the Director of Parks and Recreation, the State Department of Health Services, the State Department of Social Services, the State Department of Mental Health, the State Department of Developmental Services, the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs, the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development, and the Department of Justice. All rules shall be adopted and amended pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 212. Section 13522 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

13522. Any city, county, city and county, or district which desires to receive state aid pursuant to this chapter shall make application to the commission for the aid. The initial application shall be accompanied by a certified copy of an ordinance, or in the case of the University of California and the California State University by a resolution, adopted by its governing body providing that while receiving any state aid pursuant to this chapter, the city, county, city and county, or district will adhere to the standards for recruitment and training established by the commission. The application shall contain any information the commission may request.

SEC. 213. Section 6217 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

6217. With the exception of revenues derived from state school lands and from sources described in Sections 6217.6, 6301.5, 6301.6, 6855, and 8551 to 8558, inclusive, and Section 6406 (insofar as the proceeds are from property which has been distributed or escheated to the state in connection with unclaimed estates of deceased persons), the commission shall deposit in the State Treasury all revenues, moneys, and remittances received by it under this division, and under Chapter 138 of the Statutes of 1964, First Extraordinary Session, and such sums shall be applied to the following obligations in the following order:

(a) To the General Fund such revenue as necessary to provide in any fiscal year for the following:

(1) Payment of refunds, authorized by the commission and approved by the State Board of Control, out of appropriations made for that purpose by the Legislature.

(2) Payment of expenditures of the commission as provided in the annual Budget Act approved by the Legislature.

(3) Payments to cities and counties of the amounts specified in Section 6817 for the purposes specified in that section, and the revenues so deposited are appropriated for such purpose.

(4) Payments to cities and counties of the amounts agreed to pursuant to the provisions of Section 6875.

(b) To the California Water Fund each fiscal year the amount of twenty-five million dollars ($25,000,000).

(c) To the Central Valley Water Project Construction Fund each fiscal year the amount of five million dollars ($5,000,000).

(d) To the Resources Agency, the amount of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) for each of the fiscal years 1979-80, 1980-81, 1981-82, 1982-83, and 1983-84 for distribution for public and private higher education for use as up to two-thirds of the local matching share for projects under the National Sea Grant College and Program Act of 1966 (P.L. 89-688) approved, upon the recommendation of the advisory panel appointed pursuant to this subdivision, by the Secretary of the Resources Agency or his or her designee. During the fiscal year 1983-84, the Legislature shall consider recommendations from the Secretary of the Resources Agency and other interested parties on the benefits to the people of the State of California derived from this program and shall determine whether or not to continue similar appropriations for subsequent fiscal years.

The Secretary of the Resources Agency shall appoint an advisory panel, which shall do all of the following:

(1) Identify state needs which might be met through sea grant research projects, including, but not limited to, fields similar to living marine resources, aquaculture, ocean engineering, marine minerals, public recreation, coastal physical processes and coastal and ocean resources planning and management, and marine data acquisition and dissemination.

(2) Review all applications for funding under this subdivision and make recommendations based upon the priorities it establishes.

(3) Periodically review progress on sea grant research projects subsequent to their approval and funding under this subdivision.

(4) Make recommendations to the Secretary of the Resources Agency with respect to the implementation of this subdivision.

The members of the advisory panel shall serve at the pleasure of the Secretary of the Resources Agency. The advisory panel shall consist of 11 members composed of the following persons:

(1) A representative of the Department of Navigation and Ocean Development.

(2) A representative of the Department of Conservation.

(3) A representative of the Department of Fish and Game.

(4) The executive director of the California Coastal Zone Conservation Commission or his or her designee.

(5) A representative of the fish industry.

(6) A representative of the aquaculture industry.

(7) A representative of the ocean engineering industry.

(8) A representative of the University of California.

(9) A representative of the California State University.

(10) A representative of a private California institution of higher education which is participating in the National Sea Grant Program.

(11) A representative of the State Lands Commission. The Secretary of the Resources Agency shall designate one member of the panel to serve as its chairman. Panel members shall serve without compensation.

The sea grant research projects selected for state support under this subdivision shall have a clearly defined benefit to the people of the State of California. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the funding provided by this subdivision is needed to stimulate the development and utilization of ocean and coastal resources by working constructively with private sector firms and individuals. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to preclude the application for funding of any project which would be eligible for funding under the terms of the National Sea Grant College and Program Act of 1966.

(e) To the Capital Outlay Fund for Public Higher Education for the fiscal year 1980-81, the amount necessary to provide for an unencumbered balance available for appropriation on July 1, 1980, of one hundred twenty-five million dollars ($125,000,000), and for each fiscal year thereafter, the amount necessary to provide for an unencumbered balance available for appropriation on July 1 of each such year of one hundred twenty-five million dollars ($125,000,000).

(f) To the State School Building Lease-Purchase Fund for the fiscal year 1980-81, the amount of one hundred million dollars

($100,000,000), and for each fiscal year thereafter, the amount of two hundred million dollars ($200,000,000).

(g) To the Energy and Resources Fund, the amount of one hundred twenty million dollars ($120,000,000) for the fiscal year 1980-81, and for each fiscal year thereafter, the amount necessary to provide for a balance available for appropriation on July 1 of each fiscal year of one hundred twenty million dollars ($120,000,000).

Notwithstanding this subdivision, after June 30, 1982, no funds shall be transferred to the Energy Account created by Section 26401 unless a reorganization of the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission has been enacted by the Legislature.

(h) To the State Parks and Recreation Fund, the amount of thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000) for the fiscal year 1980-81 and for each fiscal year thereafter.

(i) To the Transportation Planning and Development Account in the State Transportation Fund to finance capital outlay costs of exclusive public mass transit guideway projects, including the acquisition of rolling stock, the amount of twenty-five million dollars ($25,000,000) for fiscal year 1981-82 and for each fiscal year thereafter.

(j) To the Special Account for Capital Outlay in the General Fund, the balance of all revenue in excess of that distributed pursuant to subdivisions (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), and (i).

The commission may, with the approval of the State Board of Control, authorize the refund of moneys received or collected by it illegally or by mistake, inadvertence, or error. Claims authorized by the commission and approved by the State Board of Control shall be filed with the Controller and the Controller shall draw a warrant against the General Fund in payment of such refund from any appropriation made for that purpose.

All references in any law to Section 6816 shall be deemed to refer to this section.

This section shall remain in effect only until the later of the following dates, and on that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute changes the requirements of this paragraph:

(1) The operative date of the Budget Act for the 1984-85 fiscal year.

(2) The operative date of the Budget Act for a fiscal year after the 1983-84 fiscal year which does not contain a section authorizing this section to remain operative for that fiscal year.

SEC. 214. Section 30119 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

30119. "State university" means the University of California and the California State University.

SEC. 215. Section 6404 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6404. (a) The loan by any retailer of any tangible personal property to any school district for an educational program conducted by the district is exempt from the use tax.

(b) The loan by any retailer of any motor vehicle to the University of California or to the California State University for the exclusive use in an approved driver education teacher preparation certification program conducted by the university or the state university is exempt from the use tax.

(c) The loan by any retailer of a motor vehicle to be used exclusively for driver training in an accredited private or parochial secondary school in a driver education and training program approved by the State Department of Education as a regularly conducted course of study is exempt from the use tax.

(d) The loan by any retailer of any motor vehicle to a veterans hospital or such other nonprofit facility or institution to provide instruction in the operation of specially equipped motor vehicles to disabled veterans is exempt from the use tax.

(e) If the retailer makes any other use of the property except retention, demonstration, or display while holding it for sale in the regular course of business, the use is taxable to the retailer under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 6201) as of the time the property is first so used, and the sales price of the property to the retailer is the measure of the tax.

SEC. 216. Section 135 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

135. (a) "Employing unit" means any individual or type of organization which has in its employ one or more individuals performing services for it within this state, and includes but is not limited to, the following individuals and organizations:

(1) Any individual or type of organization or public entity which elects coverage pursuant to any provision of this division.

(2) Any joint venture, partnership, association, trust, estate, joint stock company, insurance company, corporation whether domestic or foreign, community chest, fund, or foundation.

(3) Any public entity. As used in this section, "public entity" means the State of California (including the Trustees of the California State University), any instrumentality of this state (including the Regents of the University of California), any political subdivision of this state or any of its instrumentalities, a county, city, district (including the governing board of any school district or community college district, any county board of education, any county superintendent of schools, or any personnel commission of a school district or community college district which has a merit system pursuant to any provision of the Education Code), entities receiving state money to conduct county fairs and agricultural fairs pursuant to Sections 25905 and 25906 of the Government Code and which perform no other functions, any public authority, public agency, or public corporation of this state, any instrumentality of more than one of the foregoing, and any instrumentality of any of the foregoing and one or more other states or political subdivisions.

(4) Any instrumentality of the United States required to make payments under this division.

(5) The receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, trustee or successor thereof, and the legal representative of a deceased person.

(b) All individuals performing services within this state for any employing unit which maintains two or more separate establishments within this state shall be deemed to be employed by a single employing unit for all the purposes of this division.

SEC. 217. Section 12004 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

12004. It is the intent of the Legislature that the board in carrying out career opportunities development programs pursuant to this division shall provide for both of the following:

(a) Close coordination between career opportunities development programs and related activities under the Federal Intergovernmental Personnel Act (Public Law 91-648).

(b) Clear, direct, and systematic involvement by representatives of cities, counties, educational agencies, including, but not limited to, the California Community Colleges, the California State University, and the University of California, and lay representatives, especially those which represent low-income and minority persons.

SEC. 218. Section 22855 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

22855. The following persons shall have the authority to make appraisals of the value of vehicles for purposes of this chapter, subject to the conditions stated in this chapter:

(a) Any member of the California Highway Patrol designated by the commissioner.

(b) Any regularly employed and salaried deputy sheriff or other employee designated by the sheriff of any county.

(c) Any regularly employed and salaried police officer or other employee designated by the chief of police of any city.

(d) Any officer or employee of the Department of Motor Vehicles designated by the director of that department.

(e) Any member of the California State Police designated by the chief thereof.

(f) Any regularly employed and salaried police officer or other employee of the University of California Police Department designated by the chief thereof.

(g) Any regularly salaried employee of a city, county, or city and county designated by a board of supervisors or a city council pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 22702.

(h) Any regularly employed and salaried police officer or other employee of the police department of a California State University designated by the chief thereof.

(i) Any regularly employed and salaried security officer or other employee of a transit district security force designated by the chief thereof.

(j) Any regularly employed and salaried peace officer or other employee of the Department of Parks and Recreation designated by the director of that department.

SEC. 219. Any section of any act enacted by the Legislature during the 1983 calendar year, which takes effect on or before January 1, 1983, and which amends, amends and renumbers, adds, repeals and adds, or repeals a section amended, amended and renumbered, repealed and added, or repealed by this act, shall prevail over this act, whether that act is enacted prior to, or subsequent to, this act.

CHAPTER 144

An act to amend Section 1305.1 of the Penal Code, relating to crime.

[Approved by Governor June 28, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 28, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1305.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1305.1. If an assessment is made a condition of discharging the forfeiture under Section 1305, and the surety or depositor is not present in court, the clerk of the court shall within 30 days mail notice thereof to the surety or depositor at the address of its principal office and shall execute a certificate of mailing and place it in the court's file in the case. The time limit for payment shall in no event be less than 30 days after the date of mailing of such notice.

If the assessment has not been paid by the date specified, the court shall determine if a certificate of mailing has been executed, and if none has, the court shall cause a notice to be mailed to the surety or depositor, and said surety or depositor shall be allowed an additional 30 days to pay the assessment.

CHAPTER 145

An act to amend Sections 630, 35100, 35101, 35105, 35109, 35110, 35401, 35411, 35784, and 42030 of, to add Sections 320.5 and 35401.5 to, and to repeal Sections 35103, 35106.5, 35108, 35112, 35114, 35115, 35116, and 35117 of, the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 28, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 28, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 320.5 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

320.5. An "extralegal load" is a single unit or an assembled item which, due to its design, cannot be reasonably reduced or dismantled in size or weight so that it can be legally transported as a load without a permit as required by Section 35780. This section does not apply to loads on passenger cars.

SEC. 1.2. Section 630 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

630. A "trailer" is a vehicle designed for carrying persons or property on its own structure and for being drawn by a motor vehicle and so constructed that no part of its weight rests upon any other vehicle. "Trailer" includes a semitrailer when connected to, and having a portion of its weight supported by, an auxiliary dolly, if the auxiliary dolly is of a type constructed to replace the function of the drawbar and the front axle or axles of a trailer.

SEC. 1.5. Section 35100 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

35100. The total outside width of any vehicle or the load thereon shall not exceed 102 inches, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, safety devices which the Secretary of Transportation determines to be necessary for the safe and efficient operation of motor vehicles shall not be included in the calculation of width.

Any city or county may, by ordinance, prohibit a combination of vehicles of a total width in excess of 96 inches upon highways under its jurisdiction. The ordinance shall not be effective until appropriate signs are erected indicating the streets affected.

SEC. 2. Section 35101 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

35101. When any vehicle is equipped with pneumatic tires, the maximum width from the outside of one wheel and tire to the outside of the opposite outer wheel and tire shall not exceed 108 inches, but the outside width of the body of the vehicle or the load thereon shall not exceed 102 inches.

Vehicles manufactured, reconstructed, or modified after the effective date of amendments to this section enacted during the 1983 portion of the 1983-84 Regular Session of the Legislature, to utilize the 102 inch maximum width dimension, shall be equipped with axles, tires, and wheels of sufficient width to adequately and safely stabilize the vehicle. The Department of the California Highway Patrol shall conduct tests relating to the dynamic stability of vehicles utilizing body widths over 96 inches, up to and including 102 inches, to determine the necessity for establishing performance standards under the authority of Section 34500. Such standards if established shall be consistent with width standards established by or under the authority of the United States Department of Transportation.

SEC. 3. Section 35103 of the Vehicle Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 35105 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

35105. Any city organized under a freeholders' charter may by ordinance permit a total outside width of vehicle and load in excess of the limits set forth in Sections 35100, 35101, 35102, 35104, and 35106 when the vehicle is used exclusively within the boundary limits of the city.

SEC. 5. Section 35106.5 of the Vehicle Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 35108 of the Vehicle Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 35109 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

35109. Lights, mirrors, or devices which are required to be mounted upon a vehicle under this code may extend beyond the permissible width of the vehicle to a distance not exceeding 10 inches on each side of the vehicle.

SEC. 8. Section 35110 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

35110. Door handles, hinges, cable cinchers, chain binders, and holders for the display of placards warning of hazardous materials may extend three inches on each side of the vehicle.

SEC. 9. Section 35112 of the Vehicle Code is repealed.

SEC. 10. Section 35114 of the Vehicle Code is repealed.

SEC. 11. Section 35115 of the Vehicle Code is repealed.

SEC. 12. Section 35116 of the Vehicle Code is repealed.

SEC. 13. Section 35117 of the Vehicle Code is repealed.

SEC. 14. Section 35401 of the Vehicle Code, as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 731 of the Statutes of 1982, is amended to read:

35401. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), no combination of vehicles coupled together, including any attachments thereto, shall exceed a total length of 65 feet.

(b) The following combinations of vehicles coupled together, including any attachments thereto, shall not exceed a total length of 60 feet:

(1) A truck tractor, auxiliary dolly, and semitrailer.

(2) A motortruck and semitrailer, if the pivot point of the semitrailer connection is less than two feet to the rear of the center of the rearmost axle of the motortruck, or the distance from the pivot point to the center of the rearmost axle of the semitrailer exceeds 34 feet.

(c) A combination of vehicles coupled together, including any attachments thereto, which consists of a truck tractor, a semitrailer, and a trailer shall not exceed a total length of 75 feet, provided that the length of neither the semitrailer nor the trailer in such combination of vehicles exceeds 28 feet. However, semitrailers and trailers not exceeding 28 feet six inches in length and which were in lawful operation on December 1, 1982, may be used in vehicle combinations under this subdivision.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), a combination of vehicles coupled together which consists of a truck tractor and semitrailer, each of which was first registered in this state between January 1, 1977, and December 31, 1978, and the semitrailer of which is designed with a split bed capable of tilting to provide a loading ramp for tractors and other mobile equipment, shall not exceed a total length of 65 feet, provided that the truck tractor wheelbase does not exceed 23 feet, and the dimension from the kingpin to the center of the rearmost semitrailer axle does not exceed 34 feet.

(e) Any city or county may, by ordinance, prohibit a combination of vehicles of a total length in excess of 60 feet upon highways under its respective jurisdiction. The ordinance shall not be effective until appropriate signs are erected indicating either the streets affected by the ordinance or the streets not affected, as the local authority determines will best serve to give notice of the ordinance.

(f) The Legislature, in enacting this section, does not intend to reduce, and this section shall not be construed to reduce, any maximum total length of any combination of vehicles permitted under the statutes as they existed on January 1, 1974.

(g) This section shall remain in effect only until December 31, 1985, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before December 31, 1985, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 15. Section 35401 of the Vehicle Code, as added by Section 2 of Chapter 731 of the Statutes of 1982, is amended to read:

35401. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), no combination of vehicles coupled together, including any attachments thereto, shall exceed a total length of 65 feet.

(b) The following combinations of vehicles coupled together, including any attachments thereto, shall not exceed a total length of 60 feet:

(1) A truck tractor, auxiliary dolly, and semitrailer.

(2) A motortruck and semitrailer, if the pivot point of the semitrailer connection is less than two feet to the rear of the center of the rearmost axle of the motortruck, or the distance from the pivot point to the center of the rearmost axle of the semitrailer exceeds 34 feet.

(c) A combination of vehicles coupled together, including any attachments thereto, which consists of a truck tractor, a semitrailer, and a trailer shall not exceed a total length of 75 feet, provided that the length of neither the semitrailer nor the trailer in such combination of vehicles exceeds 28 feet. However, semitrailers and trailers not exceeding 28 feet six inches in length and which were in lawful operation on December 1, 1982, may be used in vehicle combinations under this subdivision.

(d) Any city or county may, by ordinance, prohibit a combination of vehicles of a total length in excess of 60 feet upon highways under their respective jurisdiction. The ordinance shall not be effective until appropriate signs are erected indicating either the streets affected by the ordinance or the streets not affected, as the local authorities determine will best serve to give notice of the ordinance.

(e) The Legislature, in enacting this section, does not intend to reduce, and this section shall not be construed to reduce, any maximum total length of any combination of vehicles permitted under the statutes as they existed on January 1, 1974.

(f) This section shall become operative January 1, 1986.

SEC. 16. Section 35401.5 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

35401.5. (a) A combination of vehicles consisting of a truck tractor and semitrailer, or of a truck tractor, semitrailer, and trailer, is not subject to the limitations of Sections 35400, 35401, 35411, and subdivisions (b) to (e), inclusive, of Section 35402, when operating on the National System of Interstate and Defense Highways or when using those portions of federal-aid primary highways that have been qualified by the United States Secretary of Transportation for such use, or when using routes appropriately identified by the Department of Transportation or local authorities as provided in subdivision (b), if the following conditions are met:

(1) The length of the semitrailer in exclusive combination with a truck tractor does not exceed 48 feet. For purposes of this paragraph, a motortruck used in combination with a semitrailer, when that combination of vehicles is engaged solely in the transportation of motor vehicles, is considered to be a truck tractor.

(2) Neither the length of the semitrailer nor the length of the trailer when simultaneously in combination with a truck tractor exceeds 28 feet. However, semitrailers or trailers not exceeding 28 feet six inches in length and which were in lawful operation on December 1, 1982, may be used in vehicle combinations under this paragraph.

(b) Combinations of vehicles operated pursuant to subdivision (a) may also use highways not specified in subdivision (a) which provide reasonable access to facilities for purposes limited to fuel, food, lodging, and repair when that access is consistent with the safe operation of the combinations of vehicles and when the facility is within one-half road mile of identified points of ingress and egress to or from highways specified in subdivision (a) for use by those combinations of vehicles. However, access to a terminal is permitted only on those routes which the Department of Transportation and affected local authorities have jointly identified and signed as being connections between terminals and the highways specified in subdivision (a), after having determined that the route or routes are adequate to accommodate the vehicle combinations specified in subdivision (a). The signing of routes by the Department of Transportation and local authorities shall be necessary only to indicate those routes which may be used as terminal connection routes.

For purposes of this subdivision, "terminal" means a facility at which freight is consolidated to be shipped and where full-load consignments may be offloaded, or at which the vehicle combinations are regularly maintained, stored, or manufactured.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), the limitations of access specified in that subdivision do not apply to licensed carriers of household goods when directly enroute to or from a point of loading or unloading of household goods, if travel on highways other than those specified in subdivision (a) is necessary and incidental to the shipment of the household goods.

SEC. 17. Section 35411 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:
35411. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), the load upon any combination of vehicles shall not exceed 75 feet measured from the front extremity of the front vehicle or load to the rear extremity of the last vehicle or load.

(b) The load upon any combination of vehicles operating pursuant to Section 35401 or 35401.5, when the overall length of the combination of vehicles exceeds 75 feet, shall be confined within the exterior dimensions of the vehicles.

SEC. 18. Section 35784 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

35784. (a) It is unlawful for any person to violate any of the terms or conditions of any special permit, except that, in an incorporated city where compliance with the route described in the permit would result in a violation of local traffic regulations, the permittee may detour from the prescribed route to avoid the violation if the permittee returns as soon as possible to the prescribed route. A detour under this section shall be made on only nonresidential streets.

(b) If a violation under subdivision (a), which occurs as a result of an extralegal load not being on the route described in the special permit, is directly caused by the action of an employee under the supervision of, or by the action of any independent contractor working for, any person subject to this section, the employee or independent contractor, as the case may be, causing the violation is guilty of a misdemeanor. That guilt shall not extend to the person employing the employee or retaining the independent contractor, unless that person is separately guilty of an action violating a provision of this section. This subdivision applies only if the employee or independent contractor has been provided written direction on the route to travel and has not been directed to take a different route by a peace officer.

(c) Any person convicted of transporting an extralegal load which is oversize, without a permit as authorized in Section 35780, shall be punished, in addition to the fine specified in Section 42030, by a fine of not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500), or by imprisonment in the county jail for not exceeding six months, or by both that fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 19. Section 42030 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

42030. Every person convicted of a violation of any weight limitation provision of Division 15 (commencing with Section 35000), and every person convicted of a violation of Section 21461 with respect to signs provided for by Sections 35654 and 35752, and every person convicted of a violation involving an extralegal load, and every person convicted of a violation of Section 40001 for requiring the operation of a vehicle upon a highway in violation of any provision referred to in this section shall be punished by a fine which shall equal the amounts specified in the following table:

Pounds of excess weight	Fine
0- 1,000 .....	$ 20
1,001- 1,500 .....	30
1,501- 2,000 .....	40
2,001- 2,500 .....	55
2,501- 3,000 .....	85
3,001- 3,500 .....	105
3,501- 4,000 .....	125
4,001- 4,500 .....	145
4,501- 5,000 .....	175
5,001- 6,000 .....	.04 each lb.
6,001- 7,000 .....	.06 each lb.
7,001- 8,000 .....	.08 each lb.
8,001-10,000 .....	.15 each lb.
10,001 and over .....	.20 each lb.

No part of the penalties prescribed by this section shall be suspended upon a conviction of a violation of any provision referred to in this section when the amount of the weight violation exceeds 4,000 pounds, or when a second or subsequent conviction of a violation of any provision referred to in this section occurs within three years immediately preceding the violation charged, or upon a conviction of a violation of Section 40001 for requiring operation of a vehicle upon a highway in violation of any provision referred to in this section.

The court shall exercise discretion with respect to the imposition of a fine under this section for excess weight not exceeding 1,000 pounds if the load of the vehicle cited consisted entirely of field-loaded, unprocessed bulk agricultural or forest products being transported from the field to the first point of processing or handling.

SEC. 20. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

SEC. 21. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that the changes in vehicular width limitations set forth in this act may be implemented without delay, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

The Federal Surface Transportation Assistance Act of 1982 prohibits the states from enforcing certain length limit presently existing in California. In order to conform state law to federal law, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 146

An act to amend Sections 987.603, 987.61, and 987.65 of the Military and Veterans Code, relating to veterans' farm and home purchase, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 29, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 29, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 987.603 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

987.603. The department may acquire a leasehold interest in trust land and contract with an Indian veteran as provided in Sections 987.601 and 987.602 upon the terms agreed if all of the following conditions are met:

(a) The department is satisfied of the desirability of the property submitted.

(b) The Indian veteran has agreed with the department that he or members of his immediate family will actually reside on the property within 60 days from the date of acquisition by the department, or if the residence on the property is not complete on the date of acquisition, within 60 days after the residence is completed.

(c) The sum to be expended by the department pursuant to a contract for the acquisition of a home or the construction of a dwelling house and other improvements does not exceed seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000).

(d) The Indian veteran has paid a reasonable fee set by the department to cover the cost of preliminary service of the department that may be necessary to process the application.

(e) The Indian veteran has filed with the department adequate plans and specifications for the improvements to be constructed upon the real property, together with a contract executed by a contractor licensed by the State of California or by an Indian contractor approved by the department for the construction of the improvements, in accordance with the plans and specifications, within eight months after the acquisition of the leasehold interest in the real property by the department, and a bond executed by the contractor providing for compliance with the terms of the contract and for the payment of materialmen and labor furnishing material or labor on the job, executed by a surety company, authorized to do business in the State of California.

(f) The plans, specifications, contract, and bond are approved by the department.

(g) The Indian veteran has placed in escrow all sums of money to be advanced by him where the cost is in excess of the maximum that may be expended by the department.

As used in this section, "immediate family" includes only the following:

Spouse; children, either natural or adoptive; and the parents if they are dependent upon the veteran for 50 percent or more of their support.

SEC. 2. Section 987.61 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

987.61. The department may purchase property, subject to a participation contract providing for a loan term of not less than 23 years. In no event shall the purchase price plus the participation contract exceed seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) or equal more than 95 percent of the market value of the property as determined by department appraisal, whichever is the lower amount.

SEC. 3. Section 987.65 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

987.65. The purchase price of a home to the department, or the sum to be expended by the department pursuant to a contract for the construction of a dwelling house and other improvements, shall not exceed the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000), except that the purchase price of a mobilehome sited on a lot owned by the purchaser and installed on a foundation system pursuant to Section 18551 of the Health and Safety Code shall not exceed seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000), or of a mobilehome which is to be sited in a mobilehome park, as defined in Section 18214 of the Health and Safety Code, shall not exceed fifty-five thousand dollars ($55,000). A veteran purchasing the home may advance, subject to Section 987.64, the difference between the total price or cost of the home and the sum of the purchase price of the home to the department and any amount the department is required, under Section 987.69 of this code, to add to the purchase price of the home in fixing the selling price thereof to the veteran. Any amount of the purchase price to the department may be provided by funds from participation contracts or revenue bonds.

The purchase price of a farm to the department shall not exceed two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000). A veteran purchasing the farm may advance the difference between the total price of the farm, or the cost of the dwelling and improvements to be constructed on a farm under a contract, and the sum of the purchase price to the department or contract price to the department and any amount which the department is required, under Section 987.69 of this code, to add to the purchase or contract price to the department in fixing the selling price of the farm to the veteran.

SEC. 4. The increased farm and home purchase benefits enacted by this act are applicable only in the case of applications for benefits under the Veterans' Farm and Home Purchase Act of 1974 filed with the Department of Veterans Affairs on or after the effective date of this act.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for the Cal-Vet farm and home purchase program to more nearly reflect the actual housing situation in this state and make the benefits of these provisions available to qualified veterans as soon as possible, it is necessary for this act to become effective immediately.

CHAPTER 147

An act to amend Sections 31681.8 and 31874.3 of the Government Code, relating to the County Employees Retirement Law of 1937.

[Approved by Governor June 29, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 29, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 31681.8 of the Government Code is amended to read:

31681.8. (a) The board of supervisors in any county under the County Employees Retirement Law of 1937 may provide, effective on a date determined by the board, for cost-of-living payments, in addition to those payable under Articles 16.5 and 16.6, to members of this system or a superseded system who retired and to their surviving beneficiaries who are receiving allowances under this system, provided the following conditions are met:

(1) On January 1 of the year of adoption or readoption of this section, the accumulations established by Section 31870, 31870.1, or 31870.2, as applicable, shall, for any member, equal or exceed 25 percent in order for that member to be eligible for such cost-of-living payment.

(2) The payments shall be made either quarterly or monthly to those members and survivors eligible for the first payment.

(3) The amount of each payment is equal to the product of a sum determined by the board of supervisors, but not to exceed fifteen dollars ($15) times the member's full years of county service not exceeding 30 years.

(b) The payments made pursuant to this section and Section 31739.5 shall be made only during the lifetimes of the members or their survivors receiving allowances and to no other person.

(c) The payments made pursuant to this section and Section 31739.5 shall not be considered as a part of the monthly retirement allowance, optional death allowance, or annual death allowance, nor shall any such payments be construed as guaranteeing any similar payments in any subsequent year.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the payments to beneficiaries of members pursuant to Section 31760.1, 31765.1, 31781.1, or 31785 or to beneficiaries who elected a combined benefit pursuant to Section 31781.3 shall be 60 percent of the payments which otherwise would have been payable under subdivision (a) to the members.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the payments to beneficiaries of members who elected optional settlement 3 pursuant to Section 31763 shall be 50 percent of the payments which otherwise would have been payable under subdivision (a) to the member.

(f) This section shall not be operative in any county in any year, unless it is adopted or readopted in any year by the board of supervisors. Any such adoption or readoption in any particular year shall not be construed to require any adoption or readoption in any subsequent year.

Before adoption by the board of supervisors in any year, the cost of the payments authorized by this section and Section 31739.5 shall be determined by a qualified actuary and the board of supervisors shall, with advice of the actuary, provide for the payment of such cost in such manner as to fully fund the benefits on a sound actuarial basis, including use of available funds in the reserves provided in Section 31592.2 with the approval of the retirement board, or an increase in the employer rates of contributions, or a combination of these sources of payments. This actuarial determination shall be made only upon authorization by the board of supervisors.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1989, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 2. Section 31874.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

31874.3. (a) Whenever the percentage of annual increase in the cost of living as of January 1 of each year as shown by the Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers exceeds 3 percent, the board of retirement may provide that all or part of such excess over either 2 percent or 3 percent shall be applied to the retirement allowances, optional death allowances or annual death allowances increased in Section 31870 or 31870.1. The board shall determine the amount of such excess to be applied and such amount shall not exceed an amount that can be paid from earnings of the retirement fund which are in excess of the total interest credited to contributions and reserves plus 1 percent of the total assets of the retirement fund.

Such supplemental increases in excess of the 3-percent increases applied to the retirement allowances, optional death allowances or annual death allowances increased in Section 31870 or 31870.1 shall not become a part of the retirement allowances, optional death allowances or annual death allowances to be increased by subsequent increases under Section 31870 or 31870.1.

This subdivision shall be operative in any county that has elected by a majority vote of the board of supervisors to make either Section 31870 or 31870.1 applicable in such county.

(b) The board of retirement may, instead of taking action pursuant to subdivision (a), provide supplemental cost-of-living increases, effective on a date to be determined by the board, to the retirement allowances, optional death allowances or annual death allowances increased in Section 31870 or 31870.1; provided however, that only those members shall be eligible for this increase whose accumulations established by Section 31870 or 31870.1 shall equal or exceed 25 percent as of January 1 of the year in which the board of retirement adopts an increase hereunder.

The supplemental increases to the retirement allowances, optional death allowances or annual death allowances increased in Section 31870 or 31870.1 shall not become a part of the retirement allowances, optional death allowances or annual death allowances to be increased by subsequent increases under Section 31870 or 31870.1.

This subdivision shall be operative in any county that has elected by a majority vote of the board of supervisors to make either Section 31870 or 31870.1 applicable in such county.

CHAPTER 148

An act to amend Section 10427.1 of the Streets and Highways Code, relating to improvement acts.

[Approved by Governor June 29, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State June 29, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10427.1 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

10427.1. If there is no supplemental assessment, the entire amount of the surplus shall be applied as a credit to the assessment. If any supplemental assessment has been levied, all or any part of the surplus shall be applied as a credit upon the assessment and any supplemental assessment, or any of them, as the legislative body may determine. Any credit upon the assessment or any supplemental assessment shall be made in the proportion which each individual assessment, or installment of principal thereof, bears to the total of all individual assessments in the assessment or supplemental assessments upon which the surplus is to be credited.

Where an individual assessment, or any installment of the principal thereof, has been paid in cash, the credit shall be returned in cash to the person or persons paying the same upon their furnishing satisfactory evidence of payment.

Where all or any part of an individual assessment remains unpaid, if the individual assessment is not payable in installments, the credit shall be applied in its entirety upon the individual assessment.

Where all or any part of an individual assessment remains unpaid and is payable in installments, the amount apportioned to each parcel shall be credited against the next installment or installments unpaid upon it after the two-year period specified below. When any or all of the surplus is to be applied as a credit upon the assessment, payable in installments, no credit may be paid or credited as provided in this section until after a period of two years from the date of receipt of proceeds of the sale of bonds by the legal entity conducting the proceedings.

There shall be transferred to the general fund of the city (a) any portion of the surplus which has not been paid to or claimed by the persons entitled thereto within four years from the date of recordation of the assessment and any supplemental assessment or, if bonds have been issued, within four years after the due date of the last installment upon the bonds or of the last principal coupon attached thereto, and (b) any interest earned from the investment of any moneys constituting all or any part of the surplus when the surplus attributable to an individual remaining assessment is fifty dollars ($50) or less. If the surplus attributable to an individual remaining assessment is greater than fifty dollars ($50), any interest earned thereon, less administrative cost of investing and crediting, shall be applied as a credit to the assessment.

CHAPTER 149

An act to amend Section 27281 of the Government Code, relating to government of counties.

[Approved by Governor June 29, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State June 29, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 27281 of the Government Code is amended to read:

27281. Deeds or grants conveying any interest in or easement upon real estate to a political corporation or governmental agency for public purposes shall not be accepted for recordation without the consent of the grantee evidenced by its certificate or resolution of acceptance attached to or printed on the deed or grant. If a certificate of acceptance is used, it shall be in substantially the following form:

This is to certify that the interest in real property conveyed by the deed or grant dated _____ from _____ to _____, a political corporation and/or governmental agency is hereby accepted by order of the

CHAPTER 152

An act to amend Section 1157.10 of the Government Code, relating to public employees.

[Approved by Governor June 29, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 29, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1157.10 of the Government Code is amended to read:

1157.10. Payroll deductions for state employees of public agencies, other than those under the uniform payroll system, shall be administered by the appropriate officer of the public agency. In administering payroll deductions the officer shall do all of the following:

(a) Make, cancel, or change a deduction at the request of the person or organization authorized to have the deduction. All requests shall be on forms approved by the public agency.

(b) Obtain a certification from any state agency, employee organization, or business entity requesting a deduction that they have, and will maintain, an authorization to make the deduction, signed by the individual from whose salary or wages the deduction is to be made.

(c) Provide for an agreement from organizations and business entities receiving deductions to relieve the public agency, its officers and employees, of any liability that may result from making, canceling, or changing requested deductions.

(d) Determine the cost of performing the requested deduction service and collect that cost from the organization, entity, or individual requesting or authorizing the deduction. Services requested which are incidental, but not necessary, to making the deduction may be performed at the public agency's discretion, with any additional cost to be paid by the requester.

(e) Prior to making a deduction for an employee organization or a bona fide association, determine that the organization or association has been recognized or registered by the appropriate authority.

(f) Decline to make deductions for any individual, organization, or entity if the public agency determines that it is not administratively feasible or practical to make the deduction.

(g) Make, cancel, or change a deduction not later than the month subsequent to the month in which the request is received. All deductions, cancellations, or changes shall be effective when made by the public agency.

CHAPTER 153

An act to amend Sections 37652 and 38861 of, and to repeal and add Section 37647 of, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to milk products.

[Approved by Governor June 29, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 29, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 37647 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 37647 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

37647. The standards for moisture and fat for cottage cheese and lowfat cottage cheese to which any chives, fruits, or vegetables are added may be reduced by the percentage amount of those additions.

SEC. 3. Section 37652 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

37652. In addition to the labeling provisions of Article 21 (commencing with Section 37971) any chives, fruits, or vegetables which are added to cottage cheese or lowfat cottage cheese shall be shown on the principal display panel following the product name with the word "and" or "with" preceding the common or usual name of the chives, fruits, or vegetables added.

SEC. 4. Section 38861 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

38861. With the exception of those dairy products defined in Article 27 (commencing with Section 38731) and Article 28 (commencing with Section 38741) of this chapter, any milk product for which a standard of composition is established by or pursuant to this division, and which may be processed or manufactured with the treatment or addition of cultures, may also be processed or manufactured with the addition of food-grade acids acceptable to the director instead of, or in combination with, cultures, if the milk product otherwise conforms to all requirements for the product established by or pursuant to this division. If the milk product is processed or manufactured by an acidification process instead of, or in combination with, cultures, the word "acidified" shall be a part of the name of the product, and shall be included in the label of the product. However, if cottage cheese is manufactured by an acidification process, the term "directly set" may be substituted for the word "acidified."

CHAPTER 154

An act to amend Section 19574.1 of the Government Code, relating to state employment.

[Approved by Governor June 29, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 29, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19574.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

19574.1. An employee who has been served with notice of adverse action, or a representative designated by the employee, shall have the right to inspect any documents in the possession of or under the control of the appointing power which are relevant to the adverse action taken and which would be admissible in evidence at a hearing of the employee's appeal from the adverse action. The employee, or the designated representative, shall also have the right to interview other employees having knowledge of the acts or omissions upon which the adverse action was based. Interviews of other employees and inspection of documents shall be at times and places reasonable for the employee and for the appointing power.

CHAPTER 155

An act to amend Sections 483.015, 484.050, 484.060, 485.240, 488.080, 488.140, 488.375, 488.385, 488.455, 488.465, 488.730, 683.180, 685.020, 687.040, 695.020, 697.640, 697.650, 697.670, 697.730, 699.080, 700.140, 700.160, 703.110, 704.120, 704.710, 704.930, 708.140, 715.040, 724.060, 726, and 1801 of, to add Sections 488.620, 700.165, 700.167, 701.035, 703.115, and 917.65 to, the Code of Civil Procedure, to amend Sections 864 and 7609.5 of the Financial Code, to amend Sections 7170 and 26820.4 of, and to amend, repeal, and add Section 72055 of, the Government Code, to amend Section 2407 of the Probate Code, and to amend Section 1342 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to creditors' remedies, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State June 30, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 483.015 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

483.015. (a) Subject to subdivision (b) and to Section 483.020, the amount to be secured by an attachment is the sum of the following:

(1) The amount of the defendant's indebtedness claimed by the plaintiff.

(2) Any additional amount included by the court under Section 482.110.

(b) The amount described in subdivision (a) shall be reduced by the sum of the following:

(1) The amount of any money judgment in favor of the defendant and against the plaintiff that remains unsatisfied and is enforceable.

(2) The amount of any indebtedness of the plaintiff that the defendant has claimed in a cross-complaint filed in the action if the defendant's claim is one upon which an attachment could be issued.

(3) The amount of any claim of the defendant asserted as a defense in the answer pursuant to Section 431.70 if the defendant's claim is one upon which an attachment could be issued had an action been brought on the claim when it was not barred by the statute of limitations.

SEC. 2. Section 484.050 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

484.050. The notice of application and hearing shall inform the defendant of all of the following:

(a) A hearing will be held at a place and at a time, to be specified in the notice, on plaintiff's application for a right to attach order and a writ of attachment.

(b) The order will be issued if the court finds that the plaintiff's claim is probably valid and the other requirements for issuing the order are established. The hearing is not for the purpose of determining whether the claim is actually valid. The determination of the actual validity of the claim will be made in subsequent proceedings in the action and will not be affected by the decisions at the hearing on the application for the order.

(c) The amount to be secured by the attachment is the amount of the defendant's indebtedness claimed by the plaintiff over and above the sum of (1) the amount of any money judgment in favor of the defendant and against the plaintiff that remains unsatisfied and is enforceable, (2) the amount of any indebtedness of the plaintiff claimed by the defendant in a cross-complaint filed in the action if the defendant's claim is one upon which an attachment could be issued, and (3) the amount of any claim of the defendant asserted as a defense in the answer pursuant to Section 431.70 if the defendant's claim is one upon which an attachment could be issued had an action been brought on the claim when it was not barred by the statute of limitations.

(d) If the right to attach order is issued, a writ of attachment will be issued to attach the property described in the plaintiff's application unless the court determines that such property is exempt from attachment or that its value clearly exceeds the amount necessary to satisfy the amount to be secured by the attachment. However, additional writs of attachment may be issued to attach other nonexempt property of the defendant on the basis of the right to attach order.

(e) If the defendant desires to oppose the issuance of the order, the defendant shall file with the court and serve on the plaintiff a notice of opposition and supporting affidavit as required by Section 484.060 not later than five days prior to the date set for hearing.

(f) If the defendant claims that the personal property described in the application, or a portion thereof, is exempt from attachment, the defendant shall include that claim in the notice of opposition filed and served pursuant to Section 484.060 or file and serve a separate claim of exemption with respect to the property as provided in Section 484.070. If the defendant does not do so, the claim of exemption will be barred in the absence of a showing of a change in circumstances occurring after the expiration of the time for claiming exemptions.

(g) The defendant may obtain a determination at the hearing whether real or personal property not described in the application or real property described in the application is exempt from attachment by including the claim in the notice of opposition filed and served pursuant to Section 484.060 or by filing and serving a separate claim of exemption with respect to the property as provided in Section 484.070, but the failure to so claim that the property is exempt from attachment will not preclude the defendant from making a claim of exemption with respect to the property at a later time.

(h) Either the defendant or the defendant's attorney or both of them may be present at the hearing.

(i) The notice shall contain the following statement: "You may seek the advice of an attorney as to any matter connected with the plaintiff's application. The attorney should be consulted promptly so that the attorney may assist you before the time set for hearing."

SEC. 3. Section 484.060 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

484.060. (a) If the defendant desires to oppose the issuance of the right to attach order sought by plaintiff or objects to the amount sought to be secured by the attachment, the defendant shall file and serve upon the plaintiff no later than five days prior to the date set for the hearing a notice of opposition. The notice shall state the grounds on which the defendant opposes the issuance of the order or objects to the amount sought to be secured by the attachment and shall be accompanied by an affidavit supporting any factual issues raised and points and authorities supporting any legal issues raised. If the defendant fails to file a notice of opposition within the time prescribed, the defendant shall not be permitted to oppose the issuance of the order.

(b) If a defendant filing a notice of opposition desires to make any claim of exemption as provided in Section 484.070, the defendant may include such claim in the notice of opposition filed pursuant to this section.

SEC. 4. Section 485.240 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

485.240. (a) Any defendant whose property has been attached pursuant to a writ issued under this chapter may apply for an order (1) that the right to attach order be set aside, the writ of attachment quashed, and any property levied upon pursuant to the writ be released, or (2) that the amount to be secured by the attachment be reduced as provided in Section 483.015. Such application shall be made by filing with the court and serving on the plaintiff a notice of motion.

(b) The notice of motion shall state the grounds on which the motion is based and shall be accompanied by an affidavit supporting any factual issues raised and points and authorities supporting any legal issues raised. It shall not be grounds to set aside an order that the plaintiff would not have suffered great or irreparable injury (within the meaning of Section 485.010) if issuance of the order had been delayed until the matter could have been heard on notice.

(c) At the hearing on the motion, the court shall determine whether the plaintiff is entitled to the right to attach order or whether the amount to be secured by the attachment should be reduced. If the court finds that the plaintiff is not entitled to the right to attach order, it shall order the right to attach order set aside, the writ of attachment quashed, and any property levied on pursuant to the writ released. If the court finds that the plaintiff is entitled to the right to attach order, thereafter the plaintiff may apply for additional writs pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 484.310) or Article 3 (commencing with Section 484.510) of Chapter 4.

(d) The court's determinations shall be made upon the basis of the pleadings and other papers in the record; but, upon good cause shown, the court may receive and consider at the hearing additional evidence, oral or documentary, and additional points and authorities, or it may continue the hearing for the production of such additional evidence or points and authorities.

(e) The hearing provided for in this section shall take precedence over all other civil matters on the calendar of that day except older matters of the same character.

SEC. 5. Section 488.080 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

488.080. (a) A registered process server may levy under a writ of attachment on the following types of property:

- (1) Real property, pursuant to Section 488.315.
- (2) Growing crops, timber to be cut, or minerals or the like (including oil and gas) to be extracted or accounts receivable resulting from the sale thereof at the wellhead or minehead, pursuant to Section 488.325.
- (3) Personal property in the custody of a levying officer, pursuant to Section 488.355.
- (4) Equipment of a going business, pursuant to Section 488.375.
- (5) Motor vehicles, vessels, mobilehomes, or commercial coaches used as equipment of a going business, pursuant to Section 488.385.
- (6) Farm products or inventory of a going business, pursuant to Section 488.405.
- (7) Personal property used as a dwelling, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 700.080.
- (8) Deposit accounts, pursuant to Section 488.455 or 488.465.
- (9) Property in a safe-deposit box, pursuant to Section 488.460 or 488.465.
- (10) Accounts receivable or general intangibles, pursuant to Section 488.470.

(11) Final money judgments, pursuant to Section 488.480.

(12) Interest of a defendant in personal property in the estate of a decedent, pursuant to Section 488.485.

(b) Before levying under the writ of attachment, the registered process server shall deposit a copy of the writ with the levying officer and pay the fee provided by Section 26721 of the Government Code.

(c) If a registered process server levies on property pursuant to subdivision (a), the registered process server shall do all of the following:

(1) Comply with the applicable levy, posting, and service provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 488.300).

(2) Deliver any undertaking required by Section 488.465.

(3) Request any third person served to give a garnishee's memorandum to the levying officer in compliance with Section 488.610.

(d) Within five days after levy under this section, all of the following shall be filed with the levying officer:

(1) The writ of attachment.

(2) An affidavit of the registered process server stating the manner of levy performed.

(3) Proof of service of the copy of the writ and notice of attachment on other persons as required by Article 2 (commencing with Section 488.300).

(4) Instructions in writing, as required by the provisions of Section 488.030.

(e) If the fee provided by Section 26721 of the Government Code has been paid, the levying officer shall perform all other duties under the writ as if the levying officer had levied under the writ and shall return the writ to the court. The levying officer is not liable for actions taken in conformance with the provisions of this title in reliance on information provided to the levying officer under subdivision (d) except to the extent that the levying officer has actual knowledge that the information is incorrect. Nothing in this subdivision limits any liability the plaintiff or registered process server may have if the levying officer acts on the basis of incorrect information provided under subdivision (d).

(f) The fee for services of a registered process server under this section may, in the court's discretion, be allowed as a recoverable cost. If allowed, the amount of the fee to be allowed is governed by Section 1032.8.

SEC. 5.5. Section 488.140 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

488.140. (a) The levying officer or registered process server is not liable for actions taken in conformance with the provisions of this title, including actions taken in conformance with the provisions of this title in reliance on information contained in the written instructions of the plaintiff except to the extent the levying officer or registered process server has actual knowledge that the information is incorrect. Nothing in this subdivision limits any liability the plaintiff may have if the levying officer or registered process server acts on the basis of incorrect information given in the written instructions.

(b) Unless the levying officer is negligent in the care or handling of the property, the levying officer is not liable to either the plaintiff or the defendant for loss by fire, theft, injury, or damage of any kind to personal property while (1) in the possession of the levying officer either in a warehouse or other storage place or in the custody of a keeper or (2) in transit to or from a warehouse or other storage place.

SEC. 6. Section 488.375 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

488.375. (a) Except as provided by Section 488.385, to attach equipment of a going business in the possession or under the control of the defendant, the levying officer shall file with the office of the Secretary of State a notice of attachment, in the form prescribed by the Secretary of State, which shall contain all of the following:

- (1) The name and mailing address of the plaintiff.
- (2) The name and last known mailing address of the defendant.
- (3) The title of the court where the action is pending and the cause and number of the action.
- (4) A description of the specific property attached.
- (5) A statement that the plaintiff has acquired an attachment lien on the specified property of the defendant.

(b) Upon presentation of a notice of attachment under this section for filing, and tender of the filing fee to the office of the Secretary of State, the notice of attachment shall be filed, marked, and indexed in the same manner as a financing statement. The fee for filing in the office of the Secretary of State is the same as the fee for filing a financing statement in the standard form.

(c) Upon the request of any person, the Secretary of State shall issue a certificate showing whether there is on file in that office on the date and hour stated therein any notice of attachment filed against the equipment of a particular person named in the request. If a notice of attachment is on file, the certificate shall state the date and hour of filing of each such notice and any notice affecting any such notice of attachment and the name and address of the plaintiff. The fee for the certificate issued pursuant to this subdivision is the same as the fee for a certificate issued pursuant to Section 9407 of the Commercial Code. Upon request, the Secretary of State shall furnish a copy of any notice of attachment or notice affecting a notice of attachment for the fee for a copy prescribed by subdivision (2) of Section 9407 of the Commercial Code.

(d) The fee for filing, indexing, and furnishing filing data for a notice of extension of attachment is the same as the fee for a continuation statement under Section 9403 of the Commercial Code. The fee for filing, indexing, and furnishing filing data for a notice of release of attachment is the same as the fee for a statement of release under Section 9405 of the Commercial Code.

(e) If property subject to an attachment lien under this section becomes a fixture (as defined in Section 9313 of the Commercial Code), the attachment lien under this section is extinguished.

SEC. 7. Section 488.385 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

488.385. (a) To attach a vehicle or vessel for which a certificate of ownership has been issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles, or a mobilehome or commercial coach for which a certificate of title has been issued by the Department of Housing and Community Development, which is equipment of a going business in the possession or under the control of the defendant, the levying officer shall file with the appropriate department a notice of attachment, in the form prescribed by the appropriate department, which shall contain all of the following:

- (1) The name and mailing address of the plaintiff.
- (2) The name and last known mailing address of the defendant.
- (3) The title of the court where the action is pending and the cause and number of the action.
- (4) A description of the specific property attached.
- (5) A statement that the plaintiff has acquired an attachment lien on the specific property of the defendant.

(b) Upon presentation of a notice of attachment, notice of extension, or notice of release under this section for filing and tender of the filing fee to the appropriate department, the notice shall be filed and indexed. The fee for filing and indexing the notice is three dollars ($3).

(c) Upon the request of any person, the department shall issue its certificate showing whether there is on file in that department on the date and hour stated therein any notice of attachment filed against the property of a particular person named in the request. If a notice of attachment is on file, the certificate shall state the date and hour of filing of each such notice of attachment and any notice affecting any such notice of attachment and the name and address of the plaintiff. The fee for the certificate issued pursuant to this subdivision is three dollars ($3). Upon request, the department shall furnish a copy of any notice of attachment or notice affecting a notice of attachment for a fee of one dollar ($1) per page.

(d) If property subject to an attachment lien under this section becomes a fixture (as defined in Section 9313 of the Commercial Code), the attachment lien under this section is extinguished.

SEC. 8. Section 488.455 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

488.455. (a) To attach a deposit account, the levying officer shall personally serve a copy of the writ of attachment and a notice of attachment on the financial institution with which the deposit account is maintained. The attachment lien reaches only amounts in the deposit account at the time of service on the financial institution (including any item in the deposit account that is in the process of being collected unless the item is returned unpaid to the financial institution).

(b) At the time of levy or promptly thereafter, the levying officer shall serve a copy of the writ of attachment and a notice of attachment on any third person in whose name the deposit account stands.

(c) Subject to Section 488.465, during the time the attachment lien is in effect, the financial institution shall not honor a check or other order for the payment of money drawn against, and shall not pay a withdrawal from, the deposit account that would reduce the deposit account to an amount less than the amount attached. For the purposes of this subdivision, in determining the amount of the deposit account, the financial institution shall not include the amount of items deposited to the credit of the deposit account that are in the process of being collected.

(d) During the time the attachment lien is in effect, the financial institution is not liable to any person for any of the following:

(1) Performance of the duties of a garnishee under the attachment.

(2) Nonpayment of a check or other order for the payment of money drawn or presented against the deposit account where the nonpayment is pursuant to the requirements of subdivision (c).

(3) Refusal to pay a withdrawal from the deposit account where the refusal is pursuant to the requirements of subdivision (c).

(e) When the amount attached pursuant to this section is paid to the levying officer, the attachment lien on the attached deposit account terminates.

(f) For the purposes of this section and Section 488.465, neither of the following is a third person in whose name the deposit account stands:

(1) A person who is only a person named as the beneficiary of a Totten trust account.

(2) A person who is only a payee designated in a pay-on-death provision in an account pursuant to Section 852.5, 7604.5, 11203.5, 14854.5, or 18318.5 of the Financial Code or other similar provision.

SEC. 8.2. Section 488.465 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

488.465. (a) The provisions of this section apply in addition to the provisions of Sections 488.455 and 488.460 if any of the following property is attached:

(1) A deposit account standing in the name of a third person or in the names of both the defendant and a third person.

(2) Property in a safe-deposit box standing in the name of a third person or in the names of both the defendant and a third person.

(b) The plaintiff shall provide, and the levying officer shall deliver to the financial institution at the time of levy, an undertaking for not less than twice the amount of the attachment or, if a lesser amount in a deposit account is sought to be levied upon, not less than twice the lesser amount. The undertaking shall indemnify any third person rightfully entitled to the property against actual damage by reason of the attachment of the property and shall assure to the third person the return of the property upon proof of the person's right thereto. The undertaking need not name the third person specifically but may refer to the third person generally in the same manner as in this subdivision. If the provisions of this subdivision are not satisfied, the attachment is ineffective and the financial institution shall not comply with the requirements of this section or with the attachment.

(c) Upon delivery of the undertaking to the financial institution, the financial institution shall immediately mail or deliver a notice of the delivery of the undertaking to the third person in whose name the deposit account or safe-deposit box stands. If mailed, the notice shall be sent by registered or certified mail addressed to the person's last address known to the financial institution. The financial institution shall deliver the undertaking as directed by the third person.

(d) Notwithstanding Article 4 (commencing with Section 488.600), from the time of levy and delivery of the undertaking to the financial institution until 15 days after the notice is mailed or delivered under subdivision (c) if no objection to the undertaking is made or, if such objection is made, until the court determines that the undertaking is sufficient, the financial institution shall not do any of the following:

(1) Honor a check or other order for the payment of money drawn against, or pay a withdrawal from, the deposit account that would reduce the deposit account to less than the amount attached. For the purposes of this paragraph, in determining the amount of the deposit account, the financial institution shall not include the amount of items deposited to the credit of the deposit account that are in the process of being collected.

(2) Permit the removal of any of the contents of the safe-deposit box except pursuant to the writ.

(e) The financial institution is not liable to any person for any of the following during the period prescribed in subdivision (d):

(1) Nonpayment of a check or other order for the payment of money drawn or presented against the deposit account where the nonpayment is pursuant to the requirements of subdivision (d).

(2) Refusal to pay a withdrawal from the deposit account where the refusal is pursuant to the requirements of subdivision (d).

(3) Refusal to permit access to the safe-deposit box by the person in whose name it stands.

(4) Removal of any of the contents of the safe-deposit box pursuant to the attachment.

(f) Upon the expiration of the period prescribed in subdivision (d), the financial institution shall comply with the attachment and Sections 488.455 and 488.460 apply.

SEC. 8.3. Section 488.620 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

488.620. A third person who gives a garnishee's memorandum pursuant to this title is not liable to any person for the disclosure in the garnishee's memorandum of any information contained in the garnishee's memorandum.

SEC. 9. Section 488.730 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

488.730. (a) The levying officer shall release attached property when the levying officer receives a written direction to release the property from the plaintiff's attorney of record or, if the plaintiff does not have an attorney of record, from the plaintiff or when the levying officer receives a certified copy of a court order for release or when otherwise required to release the property. The release extinguishes any attachment lien in favor of the plaintiff on the property released.

(b) If the property to be released has been taken into custody under the levy, it shall be released to the person from whom it was taken unless otherwise ordered by the court. If the person does not claim the property to be released, the levying officer shall retain custody of the property and shall serve on the person a notice of where possession of the property may be obtained. If the person does not claim the property within 30 days after the notice is served, the levying officer shall sell the property (other than cash which does not have a value exceeding its face value) in the manner provided by Article 6 (commencing with Section 701.510) of Chapter 3 of Division 2 of Title 9. The levying officer shall deposit the proceeds of sale and cash, after first deducting the levying officer's costs, with the county treasurer of the county where the property is located payable to the order of the person. If the amount deposited is not claimed by the person or the legal representative of the person within five years after the deposit is made, by making application to the treasurer or other official designated by the county, it shall be paid into the general fund of the county.

(c) If the property to be released has not been taken into custody under the levy, the levying officer shall release the attachment by issuing a written notice of release and serving it on the person who was served with a copy of the writ and a notice of attachment to create the lien.

(d) If the property to be released was levied upon by recording or filing a copy of the writ and a notice of attachment, the levying officer shall record or file a written notice of release in the same office.

(e) The levying officer is not liable for releasing an attachment in accordance with this section and no other person is liable for acting in conformity with the release.

SEC. 9.5. Section 683.180 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

683.180. (a) If a judgment lien on an interest in real property has been created pursuant to a money judgment and the judgment is renewed pursuant to this article, the duration of the judgment lien is extended until 10 years from the date of the filing of the application for renewal if, before the expiration of the judgment lien, a certified copy of the application for renewal is recorded with the county recorder of the county where the real property subject to the judgment lien is located.

(b) A judgment lien on an interest in real property that has been transferred subject to the lien is not extended pursuant to subdivision (a) if the transfer was recorded before the application for renewal was filed unless both of the following requirements are satisfied:

(1) A copy of the application for renewal is personally served on the transferee.

(2) Proof of such service is filed with the court clerk within 90 days after the filing of the application for renewal.

SEC. 10. Section 685.020 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

685.020. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), interest commences to accrue on a money judgment on the date of entry of the judgment.

(b) Unless the judgment otherwise provides, if a money judgment is payable in installments, interest commences to accrue as to each installment on the date the installment becomes due.

SEC. 11. Section 687.040 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

687.040. (a) The levying officer or registered process server is not liable for actions taken in conformance with the provisions of this title, including actions taken in conformance with the provisions of this title in reliance on information contained in the written instructions of the judgment creditor, or in reliance on information provided to the levying officer by a registered process server pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 699.080 or subdivision (e) of Section 706.101 or subdivision (b) of Section 715.040 or other provision, except to the extent the levying officer or registered process server has actual knowledge that the information is incorrect. Nothing in this subdivision limits any liability the judgment creditor may have if the levying officer or registered process server acts on the basis of incorrect information given in the written instructions.

(b) Unless the levying officer is negligent in the care or handling of the property, the levying officer is not liable to either the judgment debtor or the judgment creditor for loss by fire, theft, injury, or damage of any kind to personal property while (1) in the possession of the levying officer either in a warehouse or other storage place or in the custody of a keeper or (2) in transit to or from a warehouse or other storage place.

SEC. 12. Section 695.020 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

695.020. (a) Community property is subject to enforcement of a money judgment as provided in Title 8 (commencing with Section 5100) of Part 5 of Division 4 of the Civil Code.

(b) Unless the provision or context otherwise requires, if community property that is subject to enforcement of a money judgment is sought to be applied to the satisfaction of a money judgment:

(1) Any provision of this division that applies to the property of the judgment debtor or to obligations owed to the judgment debtor also applies to the community property interest of the spouse of the judgment debtor and to obligations owed to the other spouse that are community property.

(2) Any provision of this division that applies to property in the possession or under the control of the judgment debtor also applies to community property in the possession or under the control of the spouse of the judgment debtor.

SEC. 12.1. Section 697.640 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

697.640. (a) The judgment creditor, judgment debtor, owner of property subject to a judgment lien on personal property created under the judgment, or a person having a security interest in or a lien on the property subject to the judgment lien, may file in the office of the Secretary of State an acknowledgment of satisfaction of judgment executed as provided in Section 724.060 or a court clerk's certificate of satisfaction of judgment issued pursuant to Section 724.100, together with a statement containing the name of the judgment creditor, the name and address of the judgment debtor, and the file number of the notice of judgment lien. Upon such filing, the judgment lien created under the judgment that has been satisfied is extinguished as a matter of record. The fee for filing the acknowledgment or certificate is the same as the fee for filing a termination statement under Section 9404 of the Commercial Code.

(b) The filing officer shall treat an acknowledgment of satisfaction of judgment, or court clerk's certificate of satisfaction of judgment, and statement filed pursuant to this section in the same manner as a termination statement filed pursuant to Section 9404 of the Commercial Code.

SEC. 12.2. Section 697.650 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

697.650. (a) The judgment creditor may by a writing do either of the following:

(1) Release the judgment lien on all or a part of the personal property subject to the lien.

(2) Subordinate to a security interest or other lien or encumbrance the judgment lien on all or a part of the personal property subject to the judgment lien.

(b) A statement of release or subordination is sufficient if it is signed by the judgment creditor and contains a description of the property being released or on which the lien is being subordinated, the name and address of the judgment debtor, and the file number of the notice of judgment lien, and, in the case of a statement of subordination, a description of the security interest or other lien or encumbrance to which the judgment lien is being subordinated.

(c) The filing officer shall treat a statement of release or subordination filed pursuant to this section in the same manner as a statement of release filed pursuant to Section 9405 of the Commercial Code. The fee for filing the statement is the same as that provided in Section 9405 of the Commercial Code.

SEC. 12.3. Section 697.670 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

697.670. (a) The Secretary of State may prescribe, provided that a cost-savings would be achieved thereby:

(1) The forms for the notice of judgment lien on personal property and the statement of release or subordination provided for in this article.

(2) The form for the statement provided for in Section 697.640 and the situations when that form is required or is not required.

(b) A form prescribed by the Secretary of State for a notice or statement pursuant to subdivision (a) is deemed to comply with this article and supersedes any requirements specified in this article for the notice or statement.

SEC. 12.4. Section 697.730 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

697.730. (a) Subject to Section 701.630 and except as provided in subdivision (b), if tangible personal property subject to an execution lien is in the custody of a levying officer and is transferred or encumbered, the property remains subject to the lien after the transfer or encumbrance.

(b) If a levy upon tangible personal property of a going business is made by the levying officer placing a keeper in charge of the business, a purchaser of property subject to the execution lien takes the property free of the execution lien if the property is sold in the ordinary course of business while the keeper is in charge of the business.

SEC. 13. Section 699.080 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

699.080. (a) A registered process server may levy under a writ of execution on the following types of property:

(1) Real property, pursuant to Section 700.015.

(2) Growing crops, timber to be cut, or minerals or the like (including oil and gas) to be extracted or accounts receivable resulting from the sale thereof at the wellhead or minehead, pursuant to Section 700.020.

(3) Personal property in the custody of a levying officer, pursuant to Section 700.050.

(4) Personal property used as a dwelling, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 700.080.

(5) Deposit accounts, pursuant to Section 700.140 or 700.160.

(6) Property in a safe-deposit box, pursuant to Section 700.150 or 700.160.

(7) Accounts receivable or general intangibles, pursuant to Section 700.170.

(8) Final money judgments, pursuant to Section 700.190.

(9) Interest of a judgment debtor in personal property in the estate of a decedent, pursuant to Section 700.200.

(b) Before levying under the writ of execution, the registered process server shall deposit a copy of the writ with the levying officer and pay the fee provided by Section 26721 of the Government Code.

(c) If a registered process server levies on property pursuant to subdivision (a), the registered process server shall do all of the following:

(1) Comply with the applicable levy, posting, and service provisions of Article 4 (commencing with Section 700.010).

(2) Deliver any undertaking required by Section 700.160.

(3) Request any third person served to give a garnishee's memorandum to the levying officer in compliance with Section 701.030.

(d) Within five days after levy under this section, all of the following shall be filed with the levying officer:

(1) The writ of execution.

(2) An affidavit of the registered process server stating the manner of levy performed.

(3) Proof of service of the copy of the writ and notice of levy on other persons as required by Article 4 (commencing with Section 700.010).

(4) Instructions in writing, as required by the provisions of Section 687.010.

(e) If the fee provided by Section 26721 of the Government Code has been paid, the levying officer shall perform all other duties under the writ as if the levying officer had levied under the writ and shall return the writ to the court.

(f) The fee for services of a registered process server under this section may, in the court's discretion, be allowed as a recoverable cost upon a motion pursuant to Section 685.080. If allowed, the amount of the fee to be allowed is governed by Section 1032.8.

SEC. 14. Section 700.140 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

700.140. (a) To levy upon a deposit account, the levying officer shall personally serve a copy of the writ of execution and a notice of levy on the financial institution with which the deposit account is maintained. The execution lien reaches only amounts in the deposit account at the time of service on the financial institution (including any item in the deposit account that is in the process of being collected unless the item is returned unpaid to the financial institution).

(b) At the time of levy or promptly thereafter, the levying officer shall serve a copy of the writ of execution and a notice of levy on any third person in whose name the deposit account stands. Service shall be made personally or by mail.

(c) Subject to Sections 700.160, 700.165, and 700.167, during the time the execution lien is in effect, the financial institution shall not honor a check or other order for the payment of money drawn against, and shall not pay a withdrawal from, the deposit account that would reduce the deposit account to an amount less than the amount levied upon. For the purposes of this subdivision, in determining the amount of the deposit account, the financial institution shall not include the amount of items deposited to the credit of the deposit account that are in the process of being collected.

(d) During the time the execution lien is in effect, the financial institution is not liable to any person for any of the following:

(1) Performance of the duties of a garnishee under the levy.

(2) Nonpayment of a check or other order for the payment of money drawn or presented against the deposit account where such nonpayment is pursuant to the requirements of subdivision (c).

(3) Refusal to pay a withdrawal from the deposit account where such refusal is pursuant to the requirements of subdivision (c).

(e) When the amount levied upon pursuant to this section is paid to the levying officer, the execution lien on the deposit account levied upon terminates.

(f) For the purposes of this section and Section 700.160, neither of the following is a third person in whose name the deposit account stands:

(1) A person who is only a person named as the beneficiary of a Totten trust account.

(2) A person who is only a payee designated in a pay-on-death provision in an account pursuant to Section 852.5, 7604.5, 11203.5, 14854.5, or 18318.5 of the Financial Code or other similar provision.

SEC. 14.3. Section 700.160 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

700.160. (a) The provisions of this section apply in addition to the provisions of Sections 700.140 and 700.150 if any of the following property is levied upon:

(1) A deposit account standing in the name of a third person or in the names of both the judgment debtor and a third person.

(2) Property in a safe-deposit box standing in the name of a third person or in the names of both the judgment debtor and a third person.

(b) The judgment creditor shall provide, and the levying officer shall deliver to the financial institution at the time of levy, an undertaking for not less than twice the amount of the judgment or, if a lesser amount in a deposit account is sought to be levied upon, not less than twice the lesser amount. The undertaking shall indemnify any third person rightfully entitled to the property against actual damage by reason of the levy on the property and shall assure to the third person the return of the property upon proof of the person's right thereto. The undertaking need not name the third person specifically but may refer to the third person generally in the same manner as in this subdivision. If the provisions of this subdivision are not satisfied, the levy is ineffective and the financial institution shall not comply with the requirements of this section or with the levy.

(c) Upon delivery of the undertaking to the financial institution, the financial institution shall immediately mail or deliver a notice of the delivery of the undertaking to the third person in whose name the deposit account or safe-deposit box stands. If mailed, the notice shall be sent by registered or certified mail addressed to the person's last address known to the financial institution. The financial institution shall deliver the undertaking as directed by the third person.

(d) Notwithstanding Article 5 (commencing with Section 701.010), from the time of levy and the delivery of the undertaking to the financial institution until 15 days after the notice is mailed or delivered under subdivision (c) if no objection to the undertaking is made or, if such objection is made, until the court determines that the undertaking is sufficient, the financial institution shall not do any of the following:

(1) Honor a check or other order for the payment of money drawn against, or pay a withdrawal from, the deposit account that would reduce the deposit account to less than the amount levied upon. For the purposes of this paragraph, in determining the amount of the deposit account, the financial institution shall not include the amount of items deposited to the credit of the deposit account that are in the process of being collected.

(2) Permit the removal of any of the contents of the safe-deposit box except pursuant to the writ.

(e) The financial institution is not liable to any person for any of the following during the period prescribed in subdivision (d):

(1) Nonpayment of a check or other order for the payment of money drawn or presented against the deposit account where such nonpayment is pursuant to the requirements of subdivision (d).

(2) Refusal to pay a withdrawal from the deposit account where such refusal is pursuant to the requirements of subdivision (d).

(3) Refusal to permit access to the safe-deposit box by the person in whose name it stands.

(4) Removal of any of the contents of the safe-deposit box pursuant to the levy.

(f) Upon being notified by the levying officer of the expiration of the period prescribed in subdivision (d), the financial institution shall comply with the levy and Sections 700.140 and 700.150 apply.

(g) This section does not apply in any case where the procedure provided in Section 700.165 or 700.167 is used.

SEC. 14.4. Section 700.165 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

700.165. (a) This section provides an alternative procedure to the provisions of Section 700.160 in a case where the deposit account levied upon stands only in the names of both the judgment debtor and the spouse of the judgment debtor and not in the name of any other person. This section applies only if the judgment creditor instructs the levying officer to proceed under this section rather than under Section 700.160.

(b) If the judgment creditor instructs the levying officer to proceed under this section, the judgment creditor shall provide, and the levying officer shall deliver to the financial institution at the time of levy, a notice that the judgment creditor has elected to use the procedure provided in Section 700.165 of the Code of Civil Procedure and that the levy reaches any deposit account that stands in the names of both the judgment debtor and the spouse of the judgment debtor and not in the name of any other person and specifying the name of the spouse of the judgment debtor.

(c) At the time of the levy or promptly thereafter, the levying officer shall serve a copy of the writ of execution and a notice of levy on the spouse of the judgment debtor. Service shall be made personally or by mail.

(d) If the judgment creditor elects to use the procedure provided in this section and the requirements of subdivision (a) are satisfied, the financial institution shall comply with the levy and Section 700.140 applies. The financial institution is not liable to any person for performing its duties as a garnishee under the levy in good faith reliance upon the information delivered to the financial institution pursuant to subdivision (b).

SEC. 14.5. Section 700.167 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

700.167. (a) This section provides an alternative procedure to the provisions of Section 700.160 in a case where the deposit account levied upon stands in a fictitious business name and the fictitious business name statement filed pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 17900) of Part 3 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code lists as the persons doing business under the fictitious business name either the judgment debtor or the judgment debtor and the spouse of the judgment debtor but does not list any other person as doing business under the fictitious business name. This section applies only if the judgment creditor instructs the levying officer to proceed under this section rather than under Section 700.160.

(b) If the judgment creditor instructs the levying officer to proceed under this section, the judgment creditor shall provide, and the levying officer shall deliver to the financial institution at the time of levy, both of the following:

(1) A notice that the judgment creditor has elected to use the procedure provided in Section 700.167 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(2) A copy of an unexpired fictitious business name statement, certified as provided in Section 17926 of the Business and Professions Code, listing as the person doing business under the fictitious business name either the judgment debtor or the judgment debtor and the spouse of the judgment debtor but not listing any other person as doing business under the fictitious business name.

(c) At the time of the levy or promptly thereafter, the levying officer shall serve a copy of the writ of execution and a notice of levy upon each of the persons listed in the fictitious business name statement. Service shall be made personally or by mail.

(d) If the judgment creditor elects to use the procedure provided in this section and the requirements of subdivision (b) are satisfied, the financial institution shall comply with the levy and Section 700.140 applies. The financial institution is not liable to any person for performing its duties as a garnishee under the levy in good faith reliance upon the information delivered to the financial institution pursuant to subdivision (b).

SEC. 14.6. Section 701.035 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

701.035. A third person who gives a garnishee's memorandum pursuant to this title is not liable to any person for the disclosure in the garnishee's memorandum of any information contained in the garnishee's memorandum.

SEC. 14.7. Section 703.110 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

703.110. If the judgment debtor is married:

(a) The exemptions provided by this chapter or by any other statute apply to all property that is subject to enforcement of a money judgment, including the interest of the spouse of the judgment debtor in community property. The fact that one or both spouses are judgment debtors under the judgment or that property sought to be applied to the satisfaction of the judgment is separate or community does not increase or reduce the number or amount of the exemptions. Where the property exempt under a particular exemption is limited to a specified maximum dollar amount, unless the exemption provision specifically provides otherwise, the two spouses together are entitled to one exemption limited to the specified maximum dollar amount, whether one or both of the spouses are judgment debtors under the judgment and whether the property sought to be applied to the satisfaction of the judgment is separate or community.

(b) If an exemption is required by statute to be applied first to property not before the court and then to property before the court, the application of the exemption to property not before the court shall be made to the community property and separate property of both spouses, whether or not such property is subject to enforcement of the money judgment.

(c) If the same exemption is claimed by the judgment debtor and the spouse of the judgment debtor for different property, and the property claimed by one spouse, but not both, is exempt, the exemption shall be applied as the spouses agree. If the spouses are unable to agree, the exemption shall be applied as directed by the court in its discretion.

SEC. 15. Section 703.115 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

703.115. In determining an exemption based upon the needs of the judgment debtor and the spouse and dependents of the judgment debtor or an exemption based upon the needs of the judgment debtor and the family of the judgment debtor, the court shall take into account all property of the judgment debtor and, to the extent the judgment debtor has a spouse and dependents or family, all property of such spouse and dependents or family, including community property and separate property of the spouse, whether or not such property is subject to enforcement of the money judgment.

SEC. 16. Section 704.120 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

704.120. (a) Contributions by workers payable to the Unemployment Compensation Disability Fund and by employers payable to the Unemployment Fund are exempt without making a claim.

(b) Before payment, amounts held for payment of the following benefits are exempt without making a claim:

(1) Unemployment compensation benefits payable under Part 1 (commencing with Section 100) of Division 1 of the Unemployment Insurance Code.

(2) Unemployment compensation disability benefits payable under Part 2 (commencing with Section 2601) of Division 1 of the Unemployment Insurance Code.

(3) Extended duration benefits payable under Part 3 (commencing with Section 3501) of Division 1 of the Unemployment Insurance Code.

(4) Federal-state extended benefits payable under Part 4 (commencing with Section 4001) of Division 1 of the Unemployment Insurance Code.

(5) Incentive payments payable under Division 2 (commencing with Section 5000) of the Unemployment Insurance Code.

(6) Benefits under a plan or system established by an employer that makes provision for employees generally or for a class or group of employees for the purpose of supplementing unemployment compensation benefits.

(7) Unemployment benefits by a fraternal organization to bona fide members.

(8) Benefits payable by a union due to a labor dispute.

(c) After payment, the benefits described in subdivision (b) are exempt.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), where benefits exempt under subdivision (b) become payable to a person and are sought to be applied to the satisfaction of a judgment for child support against that person:

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), the amount is exempt only to the extent that the court determines under subdivision (c) of Section 703.070.

(2) If the amount sought to be applied to the satisfaction of the judgment is payable periodically, the amount payable is subject to a wage assignment for support as defined in Section 706.011 or to any other applicable enforcement procedure, but the amount to be withheld pursuant to the assignment or other procedure shall be 25 percent of the amount of each periodic payment, or such lower amount specified in writing by the judgment creditor or court order, rounded down to the nearest whole dollar. The paying entity may deduct from each payment made pursuant to a wage assignment under this paragraph an amount reflecting the actual cost of administration caused by the wage assignment up to two dollars ($2) for each payment.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivisions (b) and (d), a judgment for child support against a person who is entitled to unemployment compensation may be enforced as provided in Section 11350.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(f) Nothing in this section precludes the Department of Social Services from deducting and withholding child support obligations as provided in Section 1255.7 of the Unemployment Insurance Code.

SEC. 17. Section 704.710 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

704.710. As used in this article:

(a) "Dwelling" means a place where a person resides and may include but is not limited to the following:

(1) A house together with the outbuildings and the land upon which they are situated.

(2) A mobilehome together with the outbuildings and the land upon which they are situated.

(3) A boat or other waterborne vessel.

(4) A condominium, as defined in Section 783 of the Civil Code.

(5) A planned development, as defined in Section 11003 of the Business and Professions Code.

(6) A stock cooperative, as defined in Section 11003.2 of the Business and Professions Code.

(7) A community apartment project, as defined in Section 11004 of the Business and Professions Code.

(b) "Family unit" means any of the following:

(1) The judgment debtor and the judgment debtor's spouse if the spouses reside together in the homestead.

(2) The judgment debtor and at least one of the following persons who the judgment debtor cares for or maintains in the homestead:

(A) The minor child or minor grandchild of the judgment debtor or the judgment debtor's spouse or the minor child or grandchild of a deceased spouse or former spouse.

(B) The minor brother or sister of the judgment debtor or judgment debtor's spouse or the minor child of a deceased brother or sister of either spouse.

(C) The father, mother, grandfather, or grandmother of the judgment debtor or the judgment debtor's spouse or the father, mother, grandfather, or grandmother of a deceased spouse.

(D) An unmarried relative described in this paragraph who has attained the age of majority and is unable to take care of or support himself or herself.

(3) The judgment debtor's spouse and at least one of the persons listed in paragraph (2) who the judgment debtor's spouse cares for or maintains in the homestead.

(c) "Homestead" means the principal dwelling (1) in which the judgment debtor or the judgment debtor's spouse resided on the date the judgment creditor's lien attached to the dwelling, and (2) in which the judgment debtor or the judgment debtor's spouse resided continuously thereafter until the date of the court determination that the dwelling is a homestead. Where exempt proceeds from the sale or damage or destruction of a homestead are used toward the acquisition of a dwelling within the six-month period provided by Section 704.720, "homestead" also means the dwelling so acquired if it is the principal dwelling in which the judgment debtor or the judgment debtor's spouse resided continuously from the date of acquisition until the date of the court determination that the dwelling is a homestead, whether or not an abstract or certified copy of a judgment was recorded to create a judgment lien before the dwelling was acquired.

(d) "Spouse" does not include a married person following entry of a judgment decreeing legal separation of the parties, or an interlocutory judgment of dissolution of the marriage, unless such married persons reside together in the same dwelling.

SEC. 18. Section 704.930 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

704.930. (a) A homestead declaration recorded pursuant to this article shall contain all of the following:

(1) The name of the declared homestead owner. A husband and wife both may be named as declared homestead owners in the same homestead declaration if each owns an interest in the dwelling selected as the declared homestead.

(2) A description of the declared homestead.

(3) A statement that the declared homestead is the principal dwelling of the declared homestead owner or such person's spouse, and that the declared homestead owner or such person's spouse resides in the declared homestead on the date the homestead declaration is recorded.

(b) The homestead declaration shall be executed and acknowledged in the manner of an acknowledgment of a conveyance of real property by at least one of the following persons:

(1) The declared homestead owner.

(2) The spouse of the declared homestead owner.

(3) The guardian or conservator of the person or estate of either of the persons listed in paragraph (1) or (2). The guardian or conservator may execute, acknowledge, and record a homestead declaration without the need to obtain court authorization.

(4) A person acting under a power of attorney or otherwise authorized to act on behalf of a person listed in paragraph (1) or (2).

(c) The homestead declaration shall include a statement that the facts stated in the homestead declaration are known to be true as of the personal knowledge of the person executing and acknowledging the homestead declaration. If the homestead declaration is executed and acknowledged by a person listed in paragraph (3) or (4) of subdivision (b), it shall also contain a statement that the person has authority to so act on behalf of the declared homestead owner or the spouse of the declared homestead owner and the source of the person's authority.

SEC. 19. Section 708.140 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

708.140. (a) The examination proceedings authorized by this article may be conducted by a referee appointed by the court. The referee may issue, modify, or vacate an order authorized by Section 708.205, may make a protective order authorized by Section 708.200, and may issue a warrant authorized by Section 708.170, and has the same power as the court to grant adjournments, to preserve order, and to subpoena witnesses to attend the examination, but only the court that ordered the reference has power to do the following:

- (1) Punish for contempt for disobeying an order of the referee.
- (2) Make an award of attorney's fees pursuant to Section 708.170.
- (3) Determine a contested claim of exemption or determine a third-party claim under Section 708.180.

(b) Only a member of the State Bar of California is eligible for appointment as a referee pursuant to this article. A person who was duly appointed as a referee prior to July 1, 1983, pursuant to the law in operation at the time of appointment, and who is available to perform the duties of a referee on July 1, 1983, shall be exempt from the requirements of this subdivision.

(c) Nothing in subdivision (a) limits the power of a court to appoint a temporary judge pursuant to Section 21 of Article VI of the California Constitution.

SEC. 20. Section 715.040 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

715.040. (a) A registered process server may execute the writ of possession of real property as provided in subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 715.020 if a proper writ of possession is delivered to the sheriff, marshal, or constable and that officer does not execute the writ as provided in subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 715.020 within three days (Saturday, Sunday, and legal holidays excluded) from the day the writ is delivered to that officer. If the writ is not executed within such time, the levying officer shall upon request give the writ to the judgment creditor or to a registered process server designated by the judgment creditor.

(b) Within five days after executing the writ under this section, all of the following shall be filed with the levying officer:

- (1) The writ of possession of real property.
- (2) An affidavit of the registered process server stating the manner in which the writ was executed.
- (3) Proof of service of the writ.
- (4) Instructions in writing, as required by the provisions of Section 687.010.

(c) If the writ is executed by a registered process server, the levying officer shall perform all other duties under the writ and shall return the writ to the court.

(d) The fee for services of a registered process server under this section may, in the court's discretion, be allowed as a recoverable cost upon a motion pursuant to Section 685.080. If allowed, the amount of the fee to be allowed is governed by Section 1032.8.

SEC. 21. Section 724.060 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

724.060. (a) An acknowledgment of satisfaction of judgment shall contain the following information:

(1) The title of the court.

(2) The cause and number of the action.

(3) The names and addresses of the judgment creditor, the judgment debtor, and the assignee of record if any. If an abstract of the judgment has been recorded in any county, the judgment debtor's name shall appear on the acknowledgment of satisfaction of judgment as it appears on the abstract of judgment.

(4) The date of entry of judgment and of any renewals of the judgment and where entered in the records of the court.

(5) A statement either that the judgment is satisfied in full or that the judgment creditor has accepted payment or performance other than that specified in the judgment in full satisfaction of the judgment.

(6) A statement whether an abstract of the judgment has been recorded in any county and, if so, a statement of each county where the abstract has been recorded and the book and page of the county records where the abstract has been recorded, and a notice that the acknowledgment of satisfaction of judgment (or a court clerk's certificate of satisfaction of judgment) will have to be recorded with the county recorder of each county where the abstract of judgment has been recorded in order to release the judgment lien on real property in that county.

(7) A statement whether a notice of judgment lien has been filed in the office of the Secretary of State and, if such a notice has been filed, a statement of the file number of such notice, and a notice that the acknowledgment of satisfaction of judgment (or a court clerk's certificate of satisfaction of judgment) will have to be filed in that office in order to terminate the judgment lien on personal property.

(b) The acknowledgment of satisfaction of judgment shall be made in the manner of an acknowledgment of a conveyance of real property.

(c) The acknowledgment of satisfaction of judgment shall be executed and acknowledged by one of the following:

(1) The judgment creditor.

(2) The assignee of record.

(3) The attorney for the judgment creditor or assignee of record unless a revocation of the attorney's authority is filed.

SEC. 22. Section 726 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

726. (a) There can be but one form of action for the recovery of any debt or the enforcement of any right secured by mortgage upon real property, which action must be in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. In the action the court may, by its judgment, direct the sale of the encumbered property (or so much of the property as may be necessary), and the application of the proceeds of the sale to the payment of the costs of court, the expenses of levy and sale, and the amount due plaintiff, including, where the mortgage provides for the payment of attorney's fees, such sum for attorney's fees as the court shall find reasonable, not exceeding the amount named in the mortgage.

(b) The decree for the foreclosure of a mortgage or deed of trust secured by real property or any interest therein shall declare the amount of the indebtedness or right so secured and, unless judgment for any deficiency there may be between the sale price and the amount due with costs is waived by the judgment creditor or a deficiency judgment is prohibited by Section 580b, shall determine the personal liability of any defendant for the payment of the debt secured by the mortgage or deed of trust and shall name the defendants against whom a deficiency judgment may be ordered following the proceedings prescribed in this section. In the event of waiver, or if the prohibition of Section 580b is applicable, the decree shall so declare and there shall be no judgment for a deficiency. In the event that a deficiency is not waived or prohibited and it is decreed that any defendant is personally liable for the debt, then upon application of the plaintiff filed at any time within three months of the date of the foreclosure sale and after a hearing thereon at which the court shall take evidence and at which hearing either party may present evidence as to the fair value of the property or the interest therein sold as of the date of sale, the court shall render a money judgment against the defendant or defendants for the amount by which the amount of the indebtedness with interest and costs of levy and sale and of action exceeds the fair value of the property or interest therein sold as of the date of sale. In no event shall the amount of the judgment, exclusive of interest from the date of sale and of costs exceed the difference between the amount for which the property was sold and the entire amount of the indebtedness secured by the mortgage or deed of trust. Notice of the hearing shall be served upon all defendants who have appeared in the action and against whom a deficiency judgment is sought, or upon their attorneys of record, at least 15 days before the date set for the hearing. Upon application of any party made at least 10 days before the date set for the hearing the court shall, and upon its own motion the court at any time may, appoint one of the probate referees provided for by law to appraise the property or the interest therein sold as of the time of sale. The probate referee shall file the appraisal with the clerk and the appraisal is admissible in evidence.

The probate referee shall take and subscribe an oath to be attached to the appraisal that the referee has truly, honestly and impartially appraised the property to the best of the referee's knowledge and ability. Any probate referee so appointed may be called and examined as a witness by any party or by the court itself. The court must fix the compensation, in an amount as determined by the court to be reasonable, but the fees shall not exceed similar fees for similar services in the community where the services are rendered, which may be taxed and allowed in like manner as other costs.

(c) No person holding a conveyance from or under the mortgagor of the property mortgaged, or having a lien thereon, which conveyance or lien does not appear of record in the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action need be made a party to the action, and the judgment therein rendered, and the proceedings therein had, are as conclusive against the person holding the unrecorded conveyance or lien as if the person had been a party to the action. Notwithstanding Section 701.630, the sale of the encumbered property does not affect the interest of a person who holds a conveyance from or under the mortgagor of the property mortgaged, or has a lien thereon, if the conveyance or lien appears of record in the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action and the person holding the recorded conveyance or lien is not made a party to the action.

(d) If the land mortgaged consists of a single parcel, or two or more contiguous parcels, situated in two or more counties, the court may, in its judgment, direct the whole thereof to be sold in one of the counties, and upon such proceedings, and with like effect, as if the whole of the property were situated in that county.

(e) If a deficiency judgment is waived or prohibited, the property shall be sold as provided in Section 716.020. If a deficiency judgment is not waived or prohibited, the property shall be sold subject to the right of redemption as provided in Sections 729.010 to 729.090, inclusive.

SEC. 22.5. Section 917.65 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, immediately following Section 917.6, to read:

917.65. The perfecting of an appeal shall not stay enforcement of a right to attach order unless an undertaking is given. The undertaking shall be in the amount specified in the right to attach order as the amount to be secured by the attachment. The undertaking shall be on condition that if the right to attach order is not reversed and the plaintiff recovers judgment in the action in which the right to attach order was issued, the appellant shall pay the amount of the judgment, together with any interest which may have accrued. The liability on the undertaking may be enforced if the judgment is not paid within 30 days after it becomes final. If a surety on the undertaking pays the judgment, either with or without action, the surety is substituted to the rights of the creditor and is entitled to control, enforce, and satisfy the judgment, in all respects as if the surety had recovered the judgment.

SEC. 23. Section 1801 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1801. In any general assignment for the benefit of creditors (as defined in Section 493.010), the assignor, if an individual, may choose to retain as exempt property either the property which is otherwise exempt under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 703.010) of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 or, in the alternative, the following property:

(a) The assignor's aggregate interest, not to exceed seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500) in value, in real property or personal property that the assignor or a dependent of the assignor uses as a residence, in a cooperative that owns property that the assignor or a dependent of the assignor uses as a residence, or in a burial plot for the assignor or a dependent of the assignor.

(b) The assignor's interest, not to exceed one thousand two hundred dollars ($1,200) in value, in one motor vehicle.

(c) The assignor's interest, not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200) in value in any particular item, in household furnishings, household goods, wearing apparel, appliances, books, animals, crops, or musical instruments, that are held primarily for the personal, family, or household use of the assignor or a dependent of the assignor.

(d) The assignor's aggregate interest, not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500) in value, in jewelry held primarily for the personal, family, or household use of the assignor or a dependent of the assignor.

(e) The assignor's aggregate interest, not to exceed in value four hundred dollars ($400) plus any unused amount of the exemption provided under subdivision (a), in any property.

(f) The assignor's aggregate interest, not to exceed seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) in value, in any implements, professional books, or tools, of the trade of the assignor or the trade of a dependent of the assignor.

(g) Any unmatured life insurance contract owned by the assignor, other than a credit life insurance contract.

(h) The assignor's aggregate interest, not to exceed in value four thousand dollars ($4,000) in any accrued dividend or interest under, or loan value of, any unmatured life insurance contract owned by the assignor under which the insured is the assignor or an individual of whom the assignor is a dependent.

(i) Professionally prescribed health aids for the assignor or a dependent of the assignor.

(j) The assignor's right to receive any of the following:

(1) A social security benefit, unemployment compensation, or a local public assistance benefit except that this paragraph does not preclude the application of Section 1255.7 of the Unemployment Insurance Code.

(2) A veterans' benefit.

(3) A disability, illness, or unemployment benefit except that this paragraph does not preclude the application of Section 1255.7 of the Unemployment Insurance Code.

(4) Alimony, support, or separate maintenance, to the extent reasonably necessary for the support of the assignor and any dependent of the assignor.

(5) A payment under a stock bonus, pension, profit sharing, annuity, or similar plan or contract on account of illness, disability, death, age, or length of service, to the extent reasonably necessary for the support of the assignor and any dependent of the assignor, unless:

(i) The plan or contract was established by or under the auspices of an employer of which the assignor was a partner, officer, director or controlling person at the time the assignor's rights under the plan or contract arose;

(ii) The payment is on account of age or length of service; and

(iii) Such plan or contract does not qualify under Section 401 (a), 403 (a), 403 (b), 408, or 409 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (26 U.S.C. 401 (a), 403 (a), 403 (b), 408, or 409).

(k) The assignor's right to receive, or property that is traceable to any of the following:

(1) An award under a crime victim's reparation law.

(2) A payment on account of the wrongful death of an individual of whom the assignor was a dependent, to the extent reasonably necessary for the support of the assignor and any dependent of the assignor.

(3) A payment under a life insurance contract that insured the life of an individual of whom the assignor was a dependent on the date of such individual's death, to the extent reasonably necessary for the support of the assignor and any dependent of the assignor.

(4) A payment, not to exceed seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500), on account of personal bodily injury, as compensation for pain and suffering or actual pecuniary loss (other than loss of future earnings), of the assignor or an individual of whom the assignor is a dependent.

(5) A payment in compensation of loss of future earnings of the assignor or an individual of whom the assignor is or was a dependent, to the extent reasonably necessary for the support of the assignor and any dependent of the assignor.

In this section, "dependent" includes spouse, whether or not actually dependent, "assignor" means each spouse, if the assignment is made by a married couple, and "value" means fair market value as of the date of the making of the assignment.

SEC. 24. Section 864 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

864. (a) For the purposes of this section:

(1) "Customer" means one or more natural persons.

(2) "Debt" means an interest-bearing obligation or an obligation which by its terms is payable in installments, which has not been reduced to judgment, arising from an extension of credit to a natural person primarily for personal, family, or household purposes, and does not mean a charge for bank services or a debit for uncollected funds or for an overdraft of an account imposed by a bank on a deposit account.

(b) A bank is limited in exercising any setoff for a debt claimed to be owed to the bank by a customer in that a setoff shall not result in an aggregate balance of less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) as shown on the records of the bank for all demand deposit accounts maintained by a customer with the bank or any branch thereof.

(c) Not later than the day following the exercise of any setoff with respect to a deposit account for any debt claimed to be owed to the bank by a customer, the bank shall deliver to each customer personally or send by first-class mail postage prepaid to the address of each customer as shown on the records of the bank a written notice in at least 10-point type containing the following:

(1) A statement that the bank has set off a debt or a portion thereof against the customer's deposit account, identifying the account, and giving the respective balances before and after the setoff.

(2) A statement identifying the debt set off against the account and giving the respective balances due before and after the setoff.

(3) A statement that if the customer claims that the debt has been paid or is not now owing, or that the funds in the deposit account consist of moneys expressly exempt pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 703.010) of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and listed in the notice, the customer may execute and return the notice to the bank by mail at the address shown or personally to the bank branch where the customer's account is maintained not later than 20 days after the date of mailing or personal delivery.

(4) A statement that if the notice is executed and returned, the bank may file an action in court to collect the debt; that if a lawsuit is filed, the customer will be notified and have an opportunity to appear and defend; and that if the bank is successful, the customer will be liable for court costs, and attorney's fees, if the debt so provides.

(5) A response form in at least 10-point type containing substantially the following:

"The debt described in the Notice of Setoff received from the bank is _____ is not _____ my debt or the debt of another person in whose name the account is maintained.

"I claim that the debt:

_____ has been paid.

_____ is not now owing.

_____ is not subject to setoff because the money in the account is:

_____ Paid earnings (CCP 704.070)

_____ Proceeds from execution sale of or insurance for loss of a motor vehicle (CCP 704.010)

_____ Proceeds from execution sale of household

- _____ furnishings or other personal effects (CCP 704.020)
- _____ Relocation benefits (CCP 704.180)

(Customer)

(d) If the response form described in subdivision (c) executed by the customer is received by the bank not later than 20 days after the date of mailing or personal delivery of the written notice, the amount of the setoff for any debt claimed to be owed to the bank by a customer, and any bank service charges resulting from the setoff, shall be reversed and such amount shall be credited to the deposit account not later than the end of the business day following receipt of such executed response form.

(e) The limitations provided in this section do not apply to a deposit account, other than a demand deposit account, in which the bank has a security interest expressed by a written contract as collateral for the debt owing to the bank by the customer.

(f) The limitations provided in this section do not apply when a customer previously has authorized a bank in writing to periodically debit a deposit account as the agreed method of payment of the debt.

(g) The limitations provided in this section shall apply only to the exercise by a bank a setoff with respect to debts claimed to be owing to it by customers on or after July 1, 1976.

(h) Nothing in this section shall prejudice a person's right to assert exemptions under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 703.010) of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, or to assert a claim or defense as to the validity of the debt, in a judicial proceeding.

SEC. 25. Section 7609.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

7609.5. (a) For the purposes of this section:

(1) "Customer" means one or more natural persons.

(2) "Debt" means an interest-bearing obligation or an obligation which by its terms is payable in installments, which has not been reduced to judgment, arising from an extension of credit to a natural person primarily for personal, family, or household purposes, and does not mean a charge for savings and loan services or a debit for uncollected funds or for an overdraft account imposed by a savings and loan association on a deposit account.

(3) "Deposit account" includes investment certificate, share account and withdrawable share.

(b) A savings and loan association is limited in exercising any setoff for a debt claimed to be owed to the savings and loan association by a customer in that a setoff shall not result in an aggregate balance of less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) as shown on the records of the savings and loan association for all demand deposit accounts maintained by a customer with the savings and loan association or any branch thereof.

(c) Not later than the day following the exercise of any setoff with respect to a deposit account for any debt claimed to be owed to the savings and loan association by a customer, the savings and loan association shall deliver to each customer personally or send by first-class mail postage prepaid to the address of each customer as shown on the records of the savings and loan association a written notice in at least 10-point type containing the following:

(1) A statement that the savings and loan association has set off a debt or a portion thereof against the customer's deposit account, identifying the account, and giving the respective balances before and after the setoff.

(2) A statement identifying the debt set off against the account and giving the respective balances due before and after the setoff.

(3) A statement that if the customer claims that the debt has been paid or is not now owing, or that the funds in the deposit account consist of moneys expressly exempt pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 703.010) of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and listed in the notice, the customer may execute and return the notice to the savings and loan association by mail at the address shown or personally to the savings and loan branch where the customer's account is maintained not later than 20 days after the date of mailing or personal delivery.

(4) A statement that if the notice is executed and returned, the savings and loan association may file an action in court to collect the debt; that if a lawsuit is filed, the customer will be notified and have an opportunity to appear and defend; and that if the savings and loan association is successful, the customer will be liable for court costs, and attorney's fees, if the debt so provides.

(5) A response form in at least 10-point type containing substantially the following:

"The debt described in the Notice of Setoff received from the savings and loan association is _____ is not _____ my debt or the debt of another person in whose name the account is maintained.

"I claim that the debt:

(Customer)

(d) If the response form described in subdivision (c) executed by the customer is received by the savings and loan association not later than 20 days after the date of mailing or personal delivery of the written notice, the amount of the setoff for any debt claimed to be owed to the savings and loan association by a customer, and any savings and loan association service charges resulting from the setoff, shall be reversed and such amount shall be credited to the deposit account not later than the end of the business day following receipt of such executed response form.

(e) The limitations provided in this section do not apply to a deposit account in which the savings and loan association has a security interest expressed by a written contract as collateral for the debt owing to the savings and loan association by the customer.

(f) The limitations provided in this section do not apply when a customer previously has authorized a savings and loan association in writing to periodically debit a deposit account as the agreed method of payment of the debt.

(g) The limitations provided in this section shall apply only to the exercise by a savings and loan association of a setoff with respect to debts claimed to be owing to it by customers on or after July 1, 1976.

(h) Nothing in this section shall prejudice a person's right to assert exemptions under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 703.010) of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, or to assert a claim or defense as to the validity of the debt, in a judicial proceeding.

SEC. 26. Section 7170 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7170. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), a state tax lien attaches to all property and rights to property whether real or personal, tangible or intangible, including all after-acquired property and rights to property, belonging to the taxpayer and located in this state. A state tax lien attaches to a dwelling notwithstanding the prior recording of a homestead declaration (as defined in Section 704.910 of the Code of Civil Procedure).

(b) A state tax lien is not valid as to real property against the right, title, or interest of any of the following persons where the person's right, title, or interest was acquired or perfected prior to recording of the notice of state tax lien in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the real property is located pursuant to Section 7171:

(1) A successor in interest of the taxpayer without knowledge of the lien.

(2) A holder of a security interest.

(3) A mechanic's lienor.

(4) A judgment lien creditor.

(c) A state tax lien is not valid as to personal property against:

(1) The holder of a security interest in the property whose interest is perfected pursuant to Section 9303 of the Commercial Code prior to the time the notice of the state tax lien is filed with the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 7171.

(2) Any person (other than the taxpayer) who acquires an interest in the property under the law of this state without knowledge of the lien or who perfects an interest in accordance with the law of this state prior to the time that the notice of state tax lien is filed with the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 7171.

(3) A buyer in ordinary course of business who, under Section 9307 of the Commercial Code, would take free of a security interest created by the seller.

(4) Any person (other than the taxpayer) who, notwithstanding the prior filing of the notice of the state tax lien:

(A) Is a holder in due course of a negotiable instrument.

(B) Is a holder to whom a negotiable document of title has been duly negotiated.

(C) Is a bona fide purchaser of a security.

(D) Is a purchaser of chattel paper or an instrument who gives new value and takes possession of the chattel paper or instrument in the ordinary course of business.

(E) Is a holder of a purchase money security interest.

(F) Is a collecting bank holding a security interest in items being collected, accompanying documents and proceeds, pursuant to Section 4208 of the Commercial Code.

(G) Acquires a security interest in a deposit account or in the beneficial interest in a trust or estate.

(H) Acquires any right or interest in letters of credit, advices of credit, or money.

(I) Acquires without actual knowledge of the state tax lien a security interest in or a claim in or under any policy of insurance including unearned premiums.

(J) Acquires any right or interest in property subject to a certificate of title statute of another jurisdiction under the law of which indication of a security interest on the certificate of title is required as a condition of perfection of the security interest.

(5) A judgment lien creditor whose lien was created by the filing of a notice of judgment lien on personal property with the Secretary of State prior to the time the notice of state tax lien is filed with the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 7171.

SEC. 27. Section 26820.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26820.4. The total fee for filing of the first paper in a civil action or proceeding in the superior court, except an adoption proceeding, shall be the sum fixed by the board of supervisors pursuant to Section 68090, which shall not exceed the following maximum amounts:

(1) In any county where a fee is collected for the court reporter fund, the total fee shall not exceed eighty-six dollars ($86).

(2) In any county where a fee is not collected for the court reporter fund, the total filing fee shall not exceed sixty-one dollars ($61).

This section applies to the initial complaint, petition, or application, and the papers transmitted from another court on the transfer of a civil action or proceeding, but does not include documents filed pursuant to Section 491.150, 704.750, or 708.160 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 27.1. Section 26820.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26820.4. The total fee for filing of the first paper in a civil action or proceeding in the superior court, except an adoption proceeding, shall be the sum fixed by the board of supervisors pursuant to Section

68090, which shall not exceed the following maximum amounts:

(1) In any county where a fee is collected for the court reporter fund, the total fee shall not exceed eighty-six dollars ($86).

(2) In any county where a fee is not collected for the court reporter fund, the total filing fee shall not exceed sixty-one dollars ($61).

This section applies to the initial complaint, petition, or application, and the papers transmitted from another court on the transfer of a civil action or proceeding, but does not include documents filed pursuant to Section 491.150, 704.750, or 708.160 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

The fee shall be waived in any action for damages against a defendant, based upon the defendant's commission of a felony offense, upon presentation to the clerk of the court of a certified copy of the abstract of judgment of conviction of the defendant of the felony giving rise to the claim for damages.

SEC. 28. Section 72055 of the Government Code is amended to read:

72055. The total fee for filing of the first paper in a civil action or proceeding in the municipal or justice court, shall be the sum fixed by the board of supervisors pursuant to Section 68090, which shall not exceed the following maximum amounts:

(1) In any court where a fee is collected for the court reporter fund, the total fee shall not exceed forty dollars ($40).

(2) In any court where a fee is not collected for the court reporter fund, the total fee shall not exceed twenty-nine dollars ($29).

This section applies to the initial complaint, petition, or application, and any papers transmitted from another court on the transfer of a civil action or proceeding, but does not include documents filed pursuant to Section 491.150, 704.750, or 708.160 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

The term "total fee" as used in this section and Section 72056 includes the clerk's fee, any amount allocated to the Judges' Retirement Fund pursuant to Section 72056.1, any amount allocated to the court reporter fund, and the law library fee pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 6320) of Chapter 5 of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code.

SEC. 28.1. Section 72055 of the Government Code is amended to read:

72055. The total fee for filing of the first paper in a civil action or proceeding in the municipal or justice court, shall be the sum fixed by the board of supervisors pursuant to Section 68090, which shall not exceed the following maximum amounts:

(1) In any court where a fee is collected for the court reporter fund, the total fee shall not exceed forty dollars ($40).

(2) In any court where a fee is not collected for the court reporter fund, the total fee shall not exceed twenty-nine dollars ($29).

This section applies to the initial complaint, petition, or application, and any papers transmitted from another court on the transfer of a civil action or proceeding, but does not include documents filed pursuant to Section 491.150, 704.750, or 708.160 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

The term "total fee" as used in this section and Section 72056 includes the clerk's fee, any amount allocated to the Judges' Retirement Fund pursuant to Section 72056.1, any amount allocated to the court reporter fund, and the law library fee pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 6320) of Chapter 5 of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code.

The fee authorized for the automation and conversion of court records pursuant to Section 68090.7 may be included in the total fee, or may be in addition thereto, as determined by the board of supervisors.

SEC. 28.2. Section 72055 of the Government Code is amended to read:

72055. The total fee for filing of the first paper in a civil action or proceeding in the municipal or justice court, shall be the sum fixed by the board of supervisors pursuant to Section 68090, which shall not exceed the following maximum amounts:

(1) In any court where a fee is collected for the court reporter fund, the total fee shall not exceed forty dollars ($40).

(2) In any court where a fee is not collected for the court reporter fund, the total fee shall not exceed twenty-nine dollars ($29).

This section applies to the initial complaint, petition, or application, and any papers transmitted from another court on the transfer of a civil action or proceeding, but does not include documents filed pursuant to Section 491.150, 704.750, or 708.160 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

The term "total fee" as used in this section and Section 72056 includes the clerk's fee, any amount allocated to the Judges' Retirement Fund pursuant to Section 72056.1, any amount allocated to the court reporter fund, and any law library fee imposed pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 6320) of Chapter 5 of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code which was in effect on December 31, 1983. Any law library fee increase adopted on or after January 1, 1984, may be included in the total fee, or may be in addition thereto, as determined by the board of supervisors pursuant to Section 68090.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1985, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 28.3. Section 72055 is added to the Government Code, to read:

72055. The total fee for filing of the first paper in a civil action or proceeding in the municipal or justice court, shall be the sum fixed by the board of supervisors pursuant to Section 68090, which shall not exceed the following maximum amounts:

(1) In any court where a fee is collected for the court reporter fund, the total fee shall not exceed forty dollars ($40).

(2) In any court where a fee is not collected for the court reporter fund, the total fee shall not exceed twenty-nine dollars ($29).

This section applies to the initial complaint, petition, or application, and any papers transmitted from another court on the transfer of a civil action or proceeding, but does not include documents filed pursuant to Section 491.150, 704.750, or 708.160 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

The term "total fee" as used in this section and Section 72056 includes the clerk's fee, any amount allocated to the Judges' Retirement Fund pursuant to Section 72056.1, any amount allocated to the court reporter fund, and the law library fee pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 6320) of Chapter 5 of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code.

This section shall become operative on January 1, 1985.

SEC. 28.4. Section 72055 of the Government Code is amended to read:

72055. The total fee for filing of the first paper in a civil action or proceeding in the municipal or justice court, shall be the sum fixed by the board of supervisors pursuant to Section 68090, which shall not exceed the following maximum amounts:

(1) In any court where a fee is collected for the court reporter fund, the total fee shall not exceed forty dollars ($40).

(2) In any court where a fee is not collected for the court reporter fund, the total fee shall not exceed twenty-nine dollars ($29).

This section applies to the initial complaint, petition, or application, and any papers transmitted from another court on the transfer of a civil action or proceeding, but does not include documents filed pursuant to Section 491.150, 704.750, or 708.160 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

The term "total fee" as used in this section and Section 72056 includes the clerk's fee, any amount allocated to the Judges' Retirement Fund pursuant to Section 72056.1, any amount allocated to the court reporter fund, and any law library fee imposed pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 6320) of Chapter 5 of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code which was in effect on December 31, 1983. Any law library fee increase adopted on or after January 1, 1984, may be included in the total fee, or may be in addition thereto, as determined by the board of supervisors pursuant to Section 68090. The fee authorized for the automation and conversion of court records pursuant to Section 68090.7 may be included in the total fee, or may be in addition thereto, as determined by the board of supervisors.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1985, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 28.5. Section 72055 is added to the Government Code, to read:

72055. The total fee for filing of the first paper in a civil action or proceeding in the municipal or justice court, shall be the sum fixed by the board of supervisors pursuant to Section 68090, which shall not exceed the following maximum amounts:

(1) In any court where a fee is collected for the court reporter fund, the total fee shall not exceed forty dollars ($40).

(2) In any court where a fee is not collected for the court reporter fund, the total fee shall not exceed twenty-nine dollars ($29).

This section applies to the initial complaint, petition, or application, and any papers transmitted from another court on the transfer of a civil action or proceeding, but does not include documents filed pursuant to Section 491.150, 704.750, or 708.160 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

The term "total fee" as used in this section and Section 72056 includes the clerk's fee, any amount allocated to the Judges' Retirement Fund pursuant to Section 72056.1, any amount allocated to the court reporter fund, and the law library fee pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 6320) of Chapter 5 of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code. The fee authorized for the automation and conversion of court records pursuant to Section 68090.7 may be included in the total fee, or may be in addition thereto, as determined by the board of supervisors.

This section shall become operative on January 1, 1985.

SEC. 29. Section 2407 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

2407. This chapter applies to property owned by husband and wife as community property only to the extent authorized by Part 6 (commencing with Section 3000).

SEC. 30. Section 1342 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1342. Any waiver by any person of any benefit or right under this code is invalid, except as provided by Section 1255.7. Benefits under this code, incentive payments provided by Division 2 (commencing with Section 5000), and payments to an individual under a plan or system established by an employer which makes provisions for his employees generally, or for a class or group of his employees, for the purpose of supplementing unemployment compensation benefits, are not subject to assignment, release, or commutation, except as provided by Section 1255.7. Any agreement by any individual in the employ of any person or concern to pay all or any portion of the contributions required of his employer under this division is void.

SEC. 30.1. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill 493 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1984, both bills amend Section 26820.4 of the Government Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill 493, that Section 26820.4 of the Government Code, as amended by Section 27 of this act, shall remain operative until the effective date of Assembly Bill 493, and that on the effective date of Assembly Bill 493 Section 26820.4 of the Government Code, as amended by Section 27 of this act, be further amended in the form set forth in Section 27.1 of this act to incorporate the changes in Section 26820.4 proposed by Assembly Bill 493. Therefore, if this bill and Assembly Bill 493 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1984, and Assembly Bill 493 is chaptered before this bill and amends

Section 26820.4, Section 27.1 of this act shall become operative on the effective date of Assembly Bill 493.

SEC. 30.2. It is the intent of the Legislature that if this bill and Assembly Bill 243 or Senate Bill 150, or both, are chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1984, and amend Section 72055 of the Government Code, and this bill is chaptered last, that amendments proposed by each of the bills which are chaptered be given effect as follows:

(1) If this bill and Assembly Bill 243 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1984, both bills amend Section 72055 of the Government Code, but Senate Bill 150 is not chaptered or as chaptered does not amend that section, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill 243, the amendments proposed by both bills shall be given effect. Therefore, if this bill and Assembly Bill 243 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1984, both bills amend Section 72055, this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill 243, and Senate Bill 150 is not chaptered or as chaptered does not amend that section, Section 28 shall be operative on the operative date of this act and shall remain operative until the effective date of Assembly Bill 243 and on the effective date of Assembly Bill 243, Section 72055, as amended by Section 28 of this act, shall be further amended in the form set forth in Section 28.1 of this act and Sections 28.2, 28.3, 28.4, and 28.5 of this act shall not become operative.

(2) If this bill and Senate Bill 150 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1984, both bills amend Section 72055 of the Government Code, but Assembly Bill 243 is not chaptered or as chaptered does not amend that section, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill 150, the amendments proposed by both bills shall be given effect. Therefore, if this bill and Senate Bill 150 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1984, both bills amend Section 72055, this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill 150, and Assembly Bill 243 is not chaptered or as chaptered does not amend that section, Section 28 shall be operative on the operative date of this act and shall remain operative until the effective date of Senate Bill 150 and on the effective date of Senate Bill 150, Section 72055, as amended by Section 28 of this act, shall be further amended in the form set forth in Section 28.2 and Section 28.3 shall become operative on January 1, 1985, and Sections 28.1, 28.4, and 28.5 of this act shall not become operative.

(3) If this bill and Assembly Bill 243 and Senate Bill 150 are all chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1984, all three bills amend Section 72055 of the Government Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill 243 and Senate Bill 150, the amendments proposed by all three bills shall be given effect. Therefore, if this bill and Assembly Bill 243 and Senate Bill 150 are all chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1984, all three bills amend Section 72055 of the Government Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill 243 and Senate Bill 150, Section

28 of this act shall be operative on the operative date of this act and shall remain operative until January 1, 1984, the effective date of Assembly Bill 243 and Senate Bill 150, and on that date Section 72055 shall be further amended in the form set forth in Section 28.4, and Section 28.5 shall become operative on January 1, 1985, and Sections 28.1, 28.2, and 28.3 shall not become operative.

SEC. 31. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to facilitate and coordinate the implementation of the Enforcement of Judgments Law, which will become operative July 1, 1983, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

SEC. 32. This act shall become operative on July 1, 1983.

CHAPTER 156

An act to amend Sections 17311, 17313, 17314, 17320, 17321, 17322, 17334, 17336, and 17339 of, and to add Section 17320.1 to, the Financial Code, relating to escrow agents, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 30, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17311 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17311. Within 180 days after the effective date of this chapter, persons licensed pursuant to the provisions of this division shall establish a corporation under the Nonprofit Mutual Benefit Corporation Law (Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110) of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code) to operate under the name Escrow Agents' Guaranty Corporation of California. Guaranty Corporation shall not commence operations, other than its organization, unless the board of directors of Guaranty Corporation first determines that sufficient money has been deposited in the guaranty fund and the fidelity bond required by Section 17314 has been purchased and is in effect. When Guaranty Corporation commences operations, its members in good standing shall not be subject to Section 17203.1.

SEC. 2. Section 17313 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17313. The commissioner shall review and approve the articles of incorporation and bylaws of Guaranty Corporation before they are filed with the Secretary of State.

SEC. 3. Section 17314 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17314. Guaranty Corporation shall pay a member for loss of trust obligations sustained as a result of embezzlement, theft, or mysterious disappearance or because of checks which have not been paid by the drawee bank drawn by the escrow agent on its trust or escrow account resulting from embezzlement, theft, or mysterious disappearance by an officer, director, trustee, stockholder, or employee of the escrow agent.

The liability of Guaranty Corporation to be paid from the guaranty fund shall be as follows:

(a) Up to fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) per loss to a member during the first full year of operation of the Guaranty Corporation, for each loss discovered during this period.

(b) Up to one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) per loss to a member during the second full year of operation of the Guaranty Corporation, for each loss discovered during this period.

(c) Up to one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) per loss to a member during the third full year of operation of the Guaranty Corporation, and thereafter.

Losses in excess of the amounts covered in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c), shall be covered by a fidelity bond purchased by the Guaranty Corporation on behalf of its members. Guaranty Corporation shall furnish a good and sufficient bond indemnifying the member against loss of trust obligations as a result of embezzlement, theft, or mysterious disappearance in excess of the amounts covered in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c). The bond shall be filed with the commissioner for approval pursuant to Section 17203.1.

The minimum amount of the bond shall be 1 percent of the total average trust obligations of all members as reported to the commissioner pursuant to Section 17348. When the amount of the bond is reduced below 1 percent of the total average trust obligations of all members because of a paid claim, Guaranty Corporation shall immediately purchase an additional bond to increase the bond coverage to 1 percent of the total average trust obligations of all members.

At all times, the bond shall equal 1 percent of the total average trust obligations of all members as reported to the commissioner pursuant to Section 17348.

SEC. 4. Section 17320 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17320. Guaranty Corporation shall establish and maintain a guaranty fund as follows:

(a) Upon organization and establishment of the Guaranty Corporation, each member shall pay to Guaranty Corporation a membership fee of two thousand two hundred fifty dollars ($2,250) for each member's licensed location. The membership fee shall be paid in three annual installments of seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) each on or before April 15 of each year.

(b) Each person licensed pursuant to this division who becomes a member subsequent to the organization and establishment of Guaranty Corporation shall also pay to Guaranty Corporation a membership fee of two thousand two hundred fifty dollars ($2,250) for each member's licensed location. The first installment of the membership fee of seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) shall be paid to Guaranty Corporation prior to the time the license is issued by the commissioner for each location. The second and third installments of the membership fee of seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) each shall be paid on or before April 15 of the first and second year, respectively, subsequent to the year in which the license is issued. Guaranty Corporation shall not deny membership to any escrow agent holding a valid unrevoked license under the Escrow Law.

(c) A member who is granted authority by the commissioner to establish additional licensed locations shall pay to Guaranty Corporation, at the same time the authority is granted by the commissioner, the first installment of the membership fee for each licensed location. The second and third installments of the membership fee of seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) shall be paid on or before April 15 of the first and second years, respectively, subsequent to the year in which the authority is granted by the commissioner.

(d) For the purpose of the annual assessment of each member to maintain the guaranty fund, Guaranty Corporation shall establish a guaranty fund account for each member, which shall require a cash payment from each member equal to the greater of the membership fee for each licensed location or 1 percent of the member's monthly average trust obligations as reported to the commissioner pursuant to Section 17348. If on April 15 of the fourth year of membership the member's guaranty fund account does not equal the greater of the membership fee for each licensed location or 1 percent of the member's monthly average trust obligations, then Guaranty Corporation shall assess the member as follows:

(1) First, the remaining annual installments on the membership fee as set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 17320.

(2) Then, after the membership fee is paid in full, an amount based on the member's average monthly trust obligations as follows:

(A) Six one hundredths of 1 percent of the average monthly trust obligations up to five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) plus

(B) Four one hundredths of 1 percent of the average monthly trust obligations from five hundred thousand one dollars ($500,001) to one million dollars ($1,000,000) plus

(C) Two one hundredths of 1 percent of the average monthly trust obligations in excess of one million dollars ($1,000,000).

Provided, however, in no event will a member be required to pay an annual assessment greater than seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) per licensed location.

(e) Whenever Guaranty Corporation is requested by a member to indemnify that member against all trust obligations as a result of embezzlement, theft, or mysterious disappearance, Guaranty Corporation shall pay its liability from the guaranty fund under Section 17314 by first charging the requesting member's guaranty fund account and then, to the extent that the member's guaranty fund account is insufficient to satisfy the claim, then Guaranty Corporation will charge the guaranty fund accounts of all members by an amount equal to the ratio of the member's guaranty fund account to the total of all members' guaranty fund accounts. Thereafter, Guaranty Corporation shall immediately assess the member filing the claim the amount charged to that member's guaranty fund account as provided for in Section 17321.

(f) In the event the amount in the guaranty fund equals 2 percent or more of the total average trust obligations for all members as reflected in the most recent report required by Section 17348, Guaranty Corporation may remit to each member an amount in the guaranty fund in excess of 1½ percent of the total trust obligations of all members. The amount which may be remitted to each member shall be an amount equal to the ratio of the member's guaranty fund account to the total amount of all members' guaranty fund accounts. If a member has not paid any assessment or has not paid the full amount of any assessment or a membership fee, the amount to be remitted shall first be applied to pay the member's unpaid assessment or membership fee liability.

(g) The membership fee may be considered a tangible asset of the member in all financial statements.

(h) Whenever any member has surrendered its license to engage in business as an escrow agent (and the commissioner has accepted the surrender of the license), and the member has disbursed its trust obligations in accordance with the requirements of Escrow Law and escrow instructions, a member may request Guaranty Corporation to refund to the member the balance of its guaranty fund account. The member's guaranty fund account shall be refunded in accordance with Guaranty Corporation's bylaws; provided, no refund shall be made to any member sooner than 24 months and one day from the date of acceptance of surrender of the license by the commissioner.

SEC. 5. Section 17320.1 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

17320.1. Notwithstanding Section 17311, Guaranty Corporation shall bill and collect from each member the first annual installment of the membership fee, which shall be paid within 30 days from the effective date of this section. If the member fails to pay the first annual installment of the membership fee on or before the expiration of such 30-day period, the membership fee shall become delinquent and the commissioner may by order summarily suspend or revoke the certificate to engage in business as an escrow agent issued to the member. If, after such an order is made, a request for a hearing is filed in writing and a hearing is not held within 60 days thereafter, the order is deemed rescinded as of its effective date. During any period when its certificate is revoked or suspended, a member shall not conduct business pursuant to this division except as may be permitted by order of the commissioner; provided, however, that neither the revocation, suspension, or surrender of a certificate shall affect the powers of the commissioner as provided in this division.

SEC. 6. Section 17321 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17321. Guaranty Corporation shall send a written notice of assessment to each member assessed within 30 days after the levy of any assessment. Amounts assessed shall be paid to Guaranty Corporation by each member assessed not later than 90 days following written notice of assessment.

In the event that Guaranty Corporation has extraordinary expenses or claims paid from the guaranty fund during any fiscal year which reduces the guaranty fund by 25 percent or more and the reduction would result in the guaranty fund being less than 1 percent of the total trust obligations of all members, Guaranty Corporation shall immediately levy an assessment on each member to replenish the guaranty fund by an amount charged to each member's account pursuant to the method set forth in Section 17339; provided, the assessment limitation of seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) per year per location shall not apply.

SEC. 7. Section 17322 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17322. A report of each levy of assessment shall be made to the commissioner within 10 business days after the levy.

SEC. 8. Section 17334 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17334. Whenever the commissioner has taken possession of the property and business of Guaranty Corporation, Guaranty Corporation within 10 business days after the taking, if it deems itself aggrieved thereby, may apply to the superior court in the county in which the head office of Guaranty Corporation is located to enjoin further proceedings. The court, after citing the commissioner to show cause why further proceedings should not be enjoined, and after a hearing and a determination of the facts upon the merits, may dismiss the application or enjoin the commissioner from further proceedings and direct the commissioner to surrender the property and business to Guaranty Corporation, or make a further order as may be just.

SEC. 9. Section 17336 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17336. (a) Guaranty Corporation shall have independent authority to investigate claims filed by members pursuant to Section 17330.

(b) Guaranty Corporation, with the written consent of the commissioner, may conduct an examination or investigation of the business practices of a member's handling and processing of trust obligations.

(c) Guaranty Corporation may submit reports and make recommendations to a member on its findings as a result of an examination or investigation conducted pursuant to this section. These reports and recommendations shall not be public documents. A copy of all reports and recommendations shall be furnished to the commissioner by Guaranty Corporation. There shall be no liability on the part of, and no cause of action of any nature shall arise against, Guaranty Corporation or its members, directors, officers, employees, stockholders, or agents or the commissioner or commissioner's authorized representatives for any statements made by them in any reports or recommendations made hereunder.

(d) With the written consent of a majority of its directors and the commissioner, Guaranty Corporation, in order to fulfill its obligations under this section, may appoint an independent certified public accountant or public accountant or hire or appoint a specialized committee or employees to conduct an examination or investigation authorized by this section. Any reports as a result thereof shall be furnished to the commissioner pursuant to the provisions of subdivision (c).

(e) For the purposes of conducting an examination or investigation, Guaranty Corporation or its appointee shall have free access to the offices and places of business, books, accounts, papers, records, files, safes and vaults of the member.

(f) Costs and expenses for such examination or investigation shall be paid by Guaranty Corporation.

(g) Guaranty Corporation, any member of Guaranty Corporation, an agent of Guaranty Corporation or of its members, or any person who uses any information obtained under this section for any purpose not authorized herein is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 10. Section 17339 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17339. Expenses of administration that exceed income from investments at the end of the year shall be charged to members' accounts. Each member's account shall be charged by an amount equal to the ratio of the member's guaranty fund account to the total of all members' guaranty fund accounts. Prior to incurring any extraordinary or nonrecurring expense, Guaranty Corporation shall first obtain the written consent of the commissioner.

In order for the changes made by this act to take effect during the current fiscal year, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 157

An act to amend Section 2509 of the Education Code, relating to county superintendents of schools, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State June 30, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2509 of the Education Code is amended to read:

2509. (a) Whenever a county board of supervisors adopts the provisions of Section 1080 or 42649 and thereby transfers certain duties of the county auditor to the county superintendent of schools as provided therein, the revenue limit amount computed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2551 for that county superintendent of schools shall, commencing with the fiscal year in which the effective date of the transfer occurs, be increased by an amount equivalent to the expenditures from the county general fund used to provide those services of the county auditor in the fiscal year immediately prior to the date of the transfer of functions to the county superintendent of schools. The amount of the increase shall be mutually agreed upon by both the county board of supervisors and the county superintendent of schools, as required by subdivision (a) of Section 3 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall adjust the revenue limit computed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2551 prior to the application of the inflation allowance specified in Section 2557.

(b) Commencing with the fiscal year in which the effective date of the transfer occurs, the county auditor shall, from the county's allocation of taxes, add to the allocation of taxes to the county superintendent of schools, computed pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 95) of Part 0.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, an amount equal to the amount of the increase agreed upon pursuant to subdivision (a), increased by the percentage growth in the taxable assessed value from the equalized assessment roll for the county, for the fiscal year in which the effective date of the transfer occurs, as compared to the fiscal year prior to the transfer. In each fiscal year thereafter, the amount to be added to the allocation of taxes to the county superintendent of schools shall be the amount added pursuant to this subdivision in the prior fiscal year, increased by the percentage growth in the taxable assessed value from the equalized assessment roll for the county for the then current fiscal year, as compared to the prior fiscal year.

SEC. 2. Section 1 of this act shall be deemed operative July 1, 1983, and shall apply to all transfers that are effective on or after that date.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

This act affects appropriations for support of local government and public education commencing with the 1983-84 fiscal year. In order for this act to take effect during the 1983-84 fiscal year, and to facilitate the orderly administration of the transfer of funding, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 158

An act to add Article 11 (commencing with Section 25549.20) to Chapter 5 of Part 2 of Division 2 of Title 3 of the Government Code, relating to counties.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 30, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 11 (commencing with Section 25549.20) is added to Chapter 5 of Part 2 of Division 2 of Title 3 of the Government Code, to read:

Article 11. Condominium Occupancy

25549.20. Any county or city and county may contract to acquire a condominium interest, as defined in Section 783 of the Civil Code, in real property to be used jointly by the county or city and county and any private person, firm, or corporation pursuant to this article.

Any land, building, or portion thereof, which is used by a private person, firm, or corporation pursuant to this article shall be subject to the zoning and building code requirements of the local jurisdiction in which the land and building are situated.

25549.21. The site in which the condominium interest is to be acquired may, prior to acquisition of such interest, be owned by a private person, firm, or corporation.

25549.22. The condominium interest acquired may be for a term of years or in fee.

25549.23. Any acquisition of a condominium interest shall be upon such terms and conditions as the parties thereto may agree. However, a notice of intention shall be given as provided in Section 25350 not later than the close of escrow.

CHAPTER 159

An act to amend Sections 865, 865.2, 865.4, 6600, 6601, and 6602 of the Financial Code, relating to financial institutions, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 30, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 865 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

865. As used in this article:

(a) "Account" means a demand, savings, or time deposit, as defined in regulations promulgated pursuant to Sections 371b, 1828, and 3502 of Title 12 of the United States Code, respectively, which is established by one or more natural persons, or an unincorporated association of natural persons, pursuant to which the depositor may from time to time make deposits and effect withdrawals and as to which the address shown on the records of the bank is within the United States or its territories.

(b) "Depositor" means a person who is identified on the signature card for an account, or in the absence of a signature card, a person who has an interest in an account which is reflected on the records of the bank for that account to whom statements of account or other notices are normally given, or the agent of such person.

(c) "Charges" means those charges which a bank may, from time to time, impose on an account in the normal course of business in the operation of the account, and does not include:

(1) Charges which may be imposed for extraordinary services furnished at the specific request of the depositor.

(2) Charges or amounts required to be disclosed to the depositor pursuant to the Truth-in-Lending Act (15 U.S.C. 1601, et seq.) and Regulation Z (12 C.F.R. 226.1, et seq.), as amended.

(3) Charges which may be imposed in connection with the printing of checks ordered by the depositor.

(4) Charges which may be imposed on the account but which are actually asserted by another bank pursuant to the Commercial Code in the course of presentment, payment or collection of an item.

SEC. 2. Section 865.2 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

865.2. A bank shall maintain information about: (1) the amount or, if no amount can be stated, the method of determining the amount of each charge which the bank may impose on an account; (2) the rate of interest, the annual yield, and the method that will be used in computing and paying interest on the account, if any, including any provision for nonpayment of interest on deposits made after the beginning of the interest payment period or withdrawn before the end of such period; (3) if the rate of interest may vary, the circumstances under which a variation may occur, including, if any, the index or formula to be utilized in determining such variation; and (4) the effective date thereof. The information shall be available to the public at each office in California at which such accounts are maintained in one or both of the following ways: (1) in written materials displayed and available to the public in an area of the bank open to the public; or (2) in any form of communication; provided that written materials displayed in an area of the bank open to the public tell how to get the information.

SEC. 3. Section 865.4 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

865.4. (a) Except as hereafter provided, prior to the time of accepting the initial deposit into an account, a bank shall furnish a written statement or statements to the depositor, which the depositor may retain, setting forth the information described in Section 865.2.

If the depositor is not physically present at a branch office of the bank at the time the initial deposit is accepted and the written statement has not been furnished previously, the bank shall deliver the written statement to the depositor personally, or mail or deliver it to the depositor at the address shown on the records of the bank for that account, not later than 10 days after the date of the initial deposit.

(b) (1) Except as provided in subdivision (c), before any charge which has been disclosed in a statement furnished to a depositor is increased for that account, or any charge which has not been disclosed in a statement furnished to a depositor is imposed on that account, or any charge is imposed on an account if a statement has not been furnished as required by subdivision (a), the bank shall deliver to the depositor personally, or mail or deliver to the depositor at the address shown on the records of the bank for that account, a written statement or statements disclosing the increased charge or new charge in a manner provided in subdivision (a), or the written statement or statements required by subdivision (a), not less than 15 days prior to the date on which the charge is to be increased or first imposed, unless such charge or change therein is required by law or regulation.

(2) Except with respect to an account as to which the rate of interest applicable to all or any portion of the account balance may vary, whether or not pursuant to a specified index or formula, or as provided in subdivision (c), before a bank makes a change in the rate of interest or the method or frequency of computing or paying interest such that the annual yield will be less favorable to a depositor than under the previous rate, method, or frequency, the bank shall deliver to the depositor personally, or mail or deliver to the depositor at the address shown on the records of the bank for that account, a written statement or statements disclosing such change not less than 15 days prior to the effective date of such change, unless such change is required by law or regulation.

(c) With respect to an account established prior to July 1, 1977, unless previously furnished, a bank shall deliver to its depositors personally, or mail or deliver to its depositors at the address shown on the records of the bank for those accounts which are demand deposits, not later than July 1, 1977, and for those accounts which are savings and time deposits, not later than January 31, 1978, a current written statement or statements disclosing the information described in Section 865.2 which is in effect at that time.

(d) If there is more than one depositor with respect to an account, the bank need furnish the information required by this section to only one of them.

(e) An unincorporated association of natural persons may execute a written waiver of the requirements of this section when establishing an account which provides for specially negotiated arrangements with respect to the charges, interest rate, and method or frequency of computing and paying interest applicable to such account.

(f) For the purposes of the second paragraph of subdivision (a), a bank is not required to make subsequent initial disclosures solely because a depositor makes or authorizes subsequent deposits which individually may bear different rates of interest notwithstanding that federal or state law or regulation treat such deposits as separate accounts, if the deposits are made or authorized in accordance with an arrangement contemplating a series of deposits which individually may bear different rates of interest, and that disclosure has been furnished at the time the arrangement was established or at a later time prior to the acceptance of a particular deposit for which a subsequent initial disclosure would otherwise be required by this section.

SEC. 4. Section 6600 of the Financial Code is amended to read: 6600. As used in this article:

(a) "Account" means withdrawable or repurchasable shares, investment certificates, deposits or savings accounts as defined in Section 561.11 of Title 12 of the Code of Federal Regulations or in regulations promulgated pursuant to Section 3502 of Title 12 of the United States Code, which is established by one or more natural persons, or an unincorporated association of natural persons, pursuant to which the depositor may, from time to time, make deposits and effect withdrawals and as to which the address shown on the records of the association is within the United States or its territories.

(b) "Depositor" means a person who is identified on the signature card for an account, or in the absence of a signature card, a person who has an interest in an account which is reflected on the records of the association for that account to whom statements of account or other notices are normally given, or the agent of such person.

(c) "Charges" means those charges which an association may, from time to time, impose on an account in the normal course of business in the operation of the account and, does not include:

(1) Charges which may be imposed for extraordinary services furnished at the specific request of the depositor.

(2) Charges or amounts required to be disclosed to the depositor pursuant to the Truth-in-Lending Act (15 U.S.C. 1601, et seq.) and Regulation Z (12 C.F.R. 226.1, et seq.), as amended.

SEC. 5. Section 6601 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

6601. An association shall maintain information about: (1) the amount or, if no amount can be stated, the method of determining the amount of each charge which the association may impose on an account; (2) the rate of interest, the annual yield, and method that will be used in computing and paying interest on the account, if any, including any provision for nonpayment of interest on deposits made after the beginning of the interest payment period or withdrawn before the end of such period; (3) if the rate of interest may vary, the circumstances under which a variation may occur, including, if any, the index or formula to be utilized in determining such variation; and (4) the effective date thereof. The information shall be available to the public at each office in California at which such accounts are maintained in one or both of the following ways: (1) in written materials displayed and available to the public in an area of the association open to the public; or (2) in any form of communication; provided that written materials displayed in an area of the association open to the public tell how to get the information.

SEC. 6. Section 6602 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

6602. (a) Except as hereafter provided, prior to the time of accepting the initial deposit into an account, an association shall furnish a written statement or statements to the depositor, which the depositor may retain, setting forth the information described in Section 6601.

If the depositor is not physically present at a branch office of the association at the time the initial deposit is accepted and the written statement has not been furnished previously, the association shall deliver the written statement to the depositor personally, or mail or deliver it to the depositor at the address shown on the records of the association for that account, not later than 10 days after the date of the initial deposit.

(b) (1) Except as provided in subdivision (c), before any charge which has been disclosed in a statement furnished to a depositor is increased for that account, or any charge which has not been disclosed in a statement furnished to a depositor is imposed on that account, or any charge is imposed on an account if a statement has not been furnished as required by subdivision (a), the association shall deliver to the depositor personally, or mail or deliver to the depositor at the address shown on the records of the association for that account, a written statement or statements disclosing the increased charge or new charge in the manner provided in subdivision (a), or the written statement or statements required by subdivision (a), not less than 15 days prior to the date on which the charge is to be increased or first imposed unless such charge or change therein is required by law or regulation.

(2) Except with respect to an account as to which the rate of interest applicable to all or any portion of the account balance may vary, whether or not pursuant to a specified index or formula, or as provided in subdivision (c), before an association makes a change in the rate of interest or the method or frequency of computing or paying interest such that the annual yield will be less favorable to a depositor than under the previous rate, method, or frequency, the association shall deliver to the depositor personally, or mail or deliver to the depositor at the address shown on the records of the association for that account, a written statement or statements disclosing such change not less than 15 days prior to the effective date of such change, unless such change is required by law or regulation.

(c) With respect to an account established prior to July 1, 1977, unless previously furnished, an association shall deliver to its depositors personally, or mail or deliver to its depositors at the address shown on the records of the association not later than January 31, 1978, a current written statement or statements disclosing the information described in Section 6601 which is in effect at that time.

(d) If there is more than one depositor with respect to an account, the association need furnish the information required by this section to only one of them.

(e) An unincorporated association of natural persons may execute a written waiver of the requirements of this section when establishing an account which provides for specially negotiated arrangements with respect to the charges, interest rate, and method or frequency of computing and paying interest applicable to such account.

(f) For the purposes of the second paragraph of subdivision (a), an association is not required to make subsequent initial disclosures solely because a depositor makes or authorizes subsequent deposits which individually may bear different rates of interest notwithstanding that federal or state law or regulation treat such deposits as separate accounts, if the deposits are made or authorized in accordance with an arrangement contemplating a series of deposits which individually may bear different rates of interest, and that disclosure has been furnished at the time the arrangement was established or at a later time prior to the acceptance of a particular deposit for which a subsequent initial disclosure would otherwise be required by this section.

SEC. 7. The amendments to Sections 865, 865.4, 6600, and 6602 of the Financial Code made by Sections 1, 3, 4, and 6, respectively, of this act do not constitute a change in, but are declaratory of, the existing law.

SEC. 8. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

A question has arisen relating to the intent of the Legislature when it amended Sections 865.4 and 6602 of the Financial Code by the enactment of Sections 7 and 10 of Chapter 1203 of the Statutes of 1982. In order to clarify that intent in conformity with testimony and materials presented to the Legislature at that time (i.e., that different notice requirements were imposed with respect to all variable rate deposit accounts as distinguished from deposit accounts as to which the rate of interest may not vary) as soon as possible so that depositors in California banks and savings and loan associations may obtain the benefit of new types of variable rate deposit accounts as they become authorized by the federal Depository Institutions Deregulation Committee during the period in which that Committee is authorized to so act by the Congress of the United States, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 160

An act to amend Section 70055 of the Government Code, relating to court reporter fees, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 30, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 70055 of the Government Code is amended to read:

70055. In San Bernardino County, the fee required by Section 70053 shall be sixteen dollars and fifty cents ($16.50); provided, however, that in addition to any fee otherwise required, in civil cases that last longer than one judicial day, a fee per day equal to the per diem rate for official reporters pro tempore shall be charged to the parties for the services of an official reporter for the second and each successive day a reporter is required. The foregoing fees shall apply to cases in which the services of only one official reporter are required: in the event the court, at the request of a party, orders a daily transcript, necessitating the services of two phonographic reporters, the party requesting the daily transcript shall pay an additional fee per day equal to the per diem rate for official reporters pro tempore for the services of the second reporter for the first and each successive day.

All fees paid under this section may be taxed as costs.

There is a serious shortage of county funds available for support of the superior court. Continuation of superior court operations necessitates that this act go into effect immediately in order to avoid deterioration in the administration of justice.

CHAPTER 161

An act to amend Section 830.7 of the Penal Code, relating to peace officers.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 30, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 830.7 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

830.7. The following persons are not peace officers but may exercise the powers of arrest of a peace officer as specified in Section 836 during the course and within the scope of their employment, if they receive a course in the exercise of those powers pursuant to Section 832:

(a) Persons designated by a cemetery authority pursuant to Section 8325 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) Persons regularly employed as security officers for institutions of higher education, recognized under subdivision (a) of Section 94310 of the Education Code, if the institution has concluded a memorandum of understanding, permitting the exercise of that authority, with the sheriff or chief of police within whose jurisdiction the institution lies.

(c) Persons regularly employed as security officers for health facilities defined in Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code which are owned and operated by cities, counties, and cities and counties, if the facility has concluded a memorandum of understanding permitting the exercise of that authority with the sheriff or chief of police within whose jurisdictions the facility lies.

CHAPTER 162

An act to amend Section 36605 of, and to add Sections 36577 and 36578 to, the Water Code, relating to water districts, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 30, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 36577 is added to the Water Code, to read:

36577. In lieu of assessing all land pursuant to its cash value as set forth in Section 36571 or the county assessed value pursuant to Section 36575, the board may provide for an alternative method of valuation based upon the benefits bestowed on the land by directing the assessor to, and the assessor shall thereafter, adopt as the assessed value of all land in the district an amount determined by the board pursuant to Section 36578.

SEC. 2. Section 36578 is added to the Water Code, to read:

36578. If the board elects to have land within the district valued pursuant to Section 36577, the following procedures shall apply:

(a) Prior to its adoption of a valuation based upon benefits under this section, the board shall hold a public hearing at which owners of property or residents of the district may appear and be heard. Notice of the hearing shall be given by the secretary by posting notice thereof at the district office at least 15 days prior to the hearing, stating the purpose, time, and place of hearing, together with publication thereof in a newspaper of general circulation in each county in which the district has land at least three times, not sooner than three days between publications, and the last publication to be at least 10 days, but not more than 20 days, before the hearing. Notice shall also be given by mail to each landowner as shown in the records of the district and shall be mailed at least 20 days prior to the hearing.

(b) At the hearing, evidence shall be introduced by the assessor and may be introduced by landowners or residents within the district as to the valuation schedules to be adopted by the board.

(c) At the conclusion of the hearing, or as it may be continued from time to time, the board shall adopt a schedule of valuations on a per acre basis, or fractions thereof, for agricultural land and on a parcel, acreage, or square foot basis for nonagricultural land. The schedule shall reflect the proportional benefits bestowed on the property assessed by the operation of the district. Land may be classified as to direct or indirect receipt of district benefit, irrigated or nonirrigated use, commercial, industrial, or residential use, or any other method which reflects the benefits received.

(d) Upon the board's adoption of a schedule of valuations, the duties and responsibilities of the board of supervisors and clerk of the board of supervisors established in this chapter and Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 36725) shall be carried out by the board and secretary of the district, respectively.

(e) There shall be no allocation of property tax revenues pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 95) of Part 0.5 of Division 1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code to any district that utilizes the provisions of Section 36577. Each district utilizing Section 36577 shall notify the county auditor pursuant to Section 100 of the Revenue and Taxation Code that the district does not desire to receive a property tax allocation.

SEC. 3. Section 36605 of the Water Code is amended to read:

36605. After hearing all objections and evidence, the board of supervisors shall:

(a) Add to or deduct from the valuation assessed to any parcel of land a percent thereof sufficient to raise it or reduce it to its full cash value.

(b) Fix the full cash value of any land that has not been assessed.

(c) In the case of lands assessed pursuant to Section 36577, change the assessed value of any parcel so as to reflect the proportional benefit bestowed upon the parcel by the operations of the district.

In order for an alternative method of determining assessments within districts organized under the California Water District Law to be available for use in the next fiscal year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 163

An act to add Section 1361 to the Civil Code, relating to condominiums.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 30, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1361 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

1361. (a) The owner of a condominium unit shall have the right to modify the unit, at his or her own expense, consistent with applicable building code requirements, and consistent with the intent of otherwise applicable conditions, covenants and restrictions pertaining to safety or aesthetics, if the purpose of the modification is to facilitate access for persons who are blind, visually handicapped, deaf, or physically disabled, or to alter conditions which could be hazardous to such persons.

(b) "Condominium unit" or "unit" as used in this section shall mean the dwelling of the individual owner as well as the route from the public way to the door of the individual dwelling and shall apply only to ground floor units and units already accessible by existing ramps or elevators.

(c) Modifications external to the dwelling shall be in compliance with the provisions of subdivision (a), shall not prevent reasonable passage by other residents, and shall be removed by the owner when the unit is no longer occupied by persons who are blind, visually handicapped, deaf, or physically disabled, requiring those modifications.

(d) This section shall apply both to existing condominium units and to future condominium units.

(e) Any owner who intends to modify a unit pursuant to this section shall submit his or her plans and specifications to the homeowner's association for review to determine whether such modifications will comply with the provisions of this section. The governing board of the homeowner's association shall not deny approval of those proposed modifications under this section without good cause.

CHAPTER 164

An act to add Section 20128.5 to the Public Contract Code, relating to county buildings.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 30, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20128.5 is added to the Public Contract Code, to read:

20128.5. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this article to the contrary, the board of supervisors may award annual contracts which do not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000) for repair, remodeling, or other repetitive work to be done according to unit prices. No annual contracts may be awarded for design, contract drawings, or for any new construction. The contracts shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder and shall be based on plans and specifications for typical work. No project shall be performed under such a contract except by order of the board of supervisors, or an officer acting pursuant to Section 20145.

For purposes of this section, "unit price" means the amount paid for a single unit of an item of work, and "typical work" means a work description applicable universally or applicable to a large number of individual projects, as distinguished from work specifically described with respect to an individual project.

---

CHAPTER 165

An act to add Section 71040.4 to the Government Code, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 30, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 71040.4 is added to the Government Code, to read:

71040.4. In the event that the Board of Supervisors of Kings County consolidates the Hanford Judicial District and the Lemoore Judicial District, any municipal court established in the consolidation shall have two judges. The judges shall be selected as otherwise provided by law. The constable of the Hanford Judicial District shall become the marshal of the municipal court upon any such consolidation. The board of supervisors may by resolution or ordinance provide for the sheriff and his deputies to act ex officio as the marshal and deputy marshals of the municipal court beginning on January 1, 1990, or upon a vacancy in the office, whichever occurs first.

---

CHAPTER 166

An act to add Section 37392.2 to the Government Code, relating to city property.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 30, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 37392.2 is added to the Government Code, to read:

37392.2. Notwithstanding Section 718 of the Civil Code, a city may lease any of its lands to a county, county water authority, or special district for the purpose of constructing, operating, maintaining, and replacing a dam, reservoir, and appurtenant facilities to collect, divert, and store water for all beneficial uses, including development of power, flood control, and recreational uses. The lease may be for any term, but not to exceed the time during which the lands are devoted to the purposes and uses authorized by this section.

CHAPTER 167

An act to amend Sections 6005 and 6007 of, and to add Section 6003 to, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to cotton, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 30, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6003 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

6003. "First handler" means the first person who, as owner, agent, or broker, purchases, or otherwise acquires from a grower, possession or control of cotton.

SEC. 2. Section 6005 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

6005. (a) Every grower of cotton in the state shall pay to the director a fee of two dollars ($2) for each bale of cotton ginned or for each bale of cotton sold by growers in this state who received the cotton under the federal payment-in-kind program, Section 700 et seq. of Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(b) The fee is a maximum fee. The amount of the fee may vary from district to district in accordance with the protection afforded to the cotton crop in the districts. The director may establish districts in the state for the purpose of fixing the fee. Between February 1 and June 30 of each year, the Cotton Pest Control Board shall recommend to the director the amount of the fee that it determines to be necessary to carry out this article in each district. The director may fix the fee at a less amount, when he or she finds that the cost of administering this article can be defrayed with the below-maximum fee. The amount of the fee shall be effective for the next fiscal year. The fee shall be paid to the director at the time the cotton is ginned or by the first handler when the cotton is sold in the case of cotton received by growers under the federal payment-in-kind program, Section 700 et seq. of Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations. The first handler shall deduct the fee from any moneys owed to the grower. To determine the number of payment-in-kind bales on which the fee is calculated that the first handler pays to the director, the first handler shall divide each grower's total payment-in-kind entitlement pounds of cotton by 500. The amount received by the director shall be paid into the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund and shall be used for the control of pink bollworm or other related cotton pests.

(c) The revenue from the fee shall be used to pay the cost of carrying out this article.

(d) The director shall refund any fees which have not been expended by the termination date of this article.

(e) The director may receive moneys from other sources for this program, which shall be deposited into the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund, and used to carry out the purposes of this article.

SEC. 3. Section 6007 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

6007. This article shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1988, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before July 1, 1988, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

In order to protect this state's cotton crop from destruction, the boll weevil must be eradicated as soon as possible. Therefore, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 168

An act to add and repeal Section 669.1 of the Evidence Code, relating to due care.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State June 30, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 669.1 is added to the Evidence Code, to read:

669.1. A local rule, regulation, or guideline setting forth standards of conduct for peace officers in the use of deadly force shall not be considered a statute, ordinance, or regulation of a public entity within the meaning of Section 669.

This section affects only the application of the presumption set forth in Section 669; it does not affect what evidence is admissible in a civil action.

The provisions of this section shall be applicable to any cause of action arising out of facts occurring on or after January 1, 1984, but before January 1, 1987 regardless of the date the action is commenced or tried.

This section shall remain in effect until January 1, 1987, and on that date is repealed unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before that date, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that some local police agencies have adopted rules and regulations designed to provide guidance and training to peace officers in the exercise of their powers and duties, and that these rules and regulations reflect an effort by police administrators to encourage peace officers to follow procedures that are appropriate to local conditions and which are more restrictive than minimum standards of conduct required by state law.

The Legislature further finds and declares that the adoption of rules and regulations which are intended to elevate the conduct of peace officers beyond minimum state standards should not expose a peace officer, police agency or locality to presumptive civil liability than if those rules had not been adopted.

The Legislature further finds and declares that a court decision which interpreted Section 669 of the Evidence Code to raise a presumption of negligence when a peace officer violates a locally adopted rule of conduct does not accurately reflect the intent of the Legislature, and that the effect of the decision has been to discourage police agencies from adopting rules and regulations designed to upgrade the conduct of its peace officers.

The Legislature further finds and declares that in adopting this act it is not the intent of the Legislature to restrict the right of injured parties to pursue civil actions against peace officers or police agencies, but that it is the intent of the Legislature to permit localities to adopt rules of peace officer conduct without fear of presumptive civil liability.

CHAPTER 169

An act to amend Section 52020 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to local government, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State June 30, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 52020 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Chapter 1452 of the Statutes of 1982, is amended to read:

52020. (a) For purposes of a home financing program authorized by this part, a city or county shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) To acquire, contract, and enter into advance commitments to acquire, home mortgages made or owned by lending institutions at the purchase prices and upon the other terms and conditions as shall be determined by the city or county or other person as it may designate as its agent, to make and execute contracts with lending institutions for the origination and servicing of home mortgages and to pay the reasonable value of services rendered under those contracts. Prior to executing any contract with a lending institution, a city or county shall adopt regulations establishing criteria for qualification of lending institutions eligible to originate and service home mortgages under home financing programs authorized by this part and shall, with respect to each home financing program, permit each qualified lending institution which transacts business in the city or county the opportunity to participate in the program on an equitable basis with other participating lending institutions. Two or more cities in the same county, or a county and one or more cities within the county, or two or more adjacent counties and any number of cities within those counties may enter into an agreement to join or cooperate with one another in the exercise jointly, or otherwise, of any or all of their powers for the purpose of financing home mortgages pursuant to this part with respect to property within the boundaries of any one or more of the entities.

(2) To make loans to lending institutions under terms and conditions which, in addition to other provisions as determined by the city or county, shall require the lending institutions to use all of the net proceeds thereof, directly or indirectly, for the making of home mortgages in an aggregate principal amount equal to the amount of the net proceeds.

(3) To establish, by rules or regulations, in resolutions relating to any issuance of bonds or in any documents relating to the issuance, the standards and requirements applicable to the purchase of home mortgages or the making of loans to lending institutions as the city or county deems necessary or desirable to effectuate the purposes of this part, which may include without limitation the following:

(A) The time within which lending institutions are required to make commitments and disbursements for home mortgages.

(B) The location and other characteristics of homes to be financed by home mortgages.

(C) The terms and conditions of home mortgages to be acquired.

(D) The amounts and types of any insurance coverage required on homes, home mortgages and bonds.

(E) The representations and warranties of lending institutions confirming compliance with such standards and requirements.

(F) Restrictions as to interest rate and other terms of home mortgages or the return realized therefrom by lending institutions.

(G) The type and amount of collateral security to be provided to assure repayment of any loans from the city or county and to assure repayment of bonds.

(H) Any other matters related to the purchase of home mortgages or the making of loans to lending institutions as shall be deemed relevant by the city or county.

(4) To require from each lending institution from which home mortgages are purchased or to which loans are made the submission of evidence satisfactory to the city or county of the ability and intention of the lending institution to make home mortgages, and the submission, within the time specified by the city or county for making disbursements for home mortgages, of evidence satisfactory to the city or county of the making of home mortgages and of compliance with any standards and requirements established by it.

(b) Each city or county which finances housing pursuant to this part shall designate a person or entity to administer the program.

(c) Each city or county which finances housing pursuant to this part shall adopt regulations establishing criteria for qualification of persons and families, which may differ among different cities or counties to reflect varying economic and housing conditions. In developing this criteria, factors similar to the following shall be taken into consideration:

(1) The amount of the income of the person or family that is available for housing needs.

(2) The size of the household.

(3) The costs and condition of available housing.

(4) The eligibility of the persons or families for federal housing assistance of any type.

(d) Criteria for qualification of persons and families pursuant to this section shall include a maximum household income, which maximum shall not exceed the following:

(1) One hundred fifty percent of the median household income shall be for mortgages made for improving a home or for homes where the purchaser will be the first occupant. Upon the resale of a home for which financing was originally provided under this paragraph, the maximum income of persons and families shall also be 150 percent of the median household income. For purposes of this paragraph, a mortgage made for improving a home includes a home improvement loan as defined in Section 103A of the federal Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended.

(2) One hundred twenty percent of the median household income where the purchaser will not be the first occupant. However, the city or county shall assure that no less than 20 percent of the funds allocated for home mortgages where the purchaser will not be the first occupant shall be for households whose income does not exceed 110 percent of the median household income; provided, that the legislative body of the city or county may, by resolution, increase this income limitation to 120 percent of median household income if the legislative body finds that there are insufficient numbers of creditworthy persons whose income does not exceed the median household income. The resolution shall be final and conclusive as to the findings required by this subparagraph. However, the finding shall not be made by the legislative body before six months from the date mortgages were first made under the program and only if participating lenders have entered into an agreement with the city, county, or city and county that lenders will advertise at least monthly the availability of funds and will forfeit one-quarter of their origination fees if they are unable to use 20 percent of the funds to make mortgages to households whose income does not exceed 110 percent of the median income.

(3) One hundred fifty percent of the median household income shall be for mortgages made for improving a home or for homes where the purchaser will be the first occupant in any city, the entire area of which, or in any county in which a portion thereof, is designated by the United States Department of Commerce, Economic Development Administration as a special impact area within a Title IV redevelopment area, pursuant to Section 401 of the federal Public Works and Economic Development Act of 1965, as amended, and which is eligible for Urban Development Action Grant funds under the current distress standards established for cities and counties by the Secretary of the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development pursuant to Section 119, of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, provided that the homes purchased or improved are situated within the boundaries of a special impact area as defined by the Economic Development Administration, and that the designation is in effect on the date of sale of revenue bonds issued under this part.

As used in this subdivision, "median household income" means the highest of (A) statewide median household income, (B) countywide median household income, or (C) median family income for area as determined by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (with respect to either a standard metropolitan statistical area or an area outside of a standard metropolitan statistical area).

Any city or county which issued bonds pursuant to this chapter after August 1, 1981, may elect to apply the provisions of this subdivision and subdivision (c) to mortgagors obtaining mortgages from the proceeds of the bonds.

(e) Each city or county which finances housing pursuant to this part shall allocate no less than 60 percent of the dollar amount of its financing from bond proceeds to fund loans for the purchase of homes where the purchaser will be the first occupant, or for substantial rehabilitation. As used in this chapter, "substantial rehabilitation" means rehabilitation in which the costs of rehabilitation equal or exceed 20 percent of the value of the structure after rehabilitation.

(f) Each city or county which finances housing pursuant to this part shall require each mortgagor under the program to certify his or her intention to occupy the home for a minimum of two years after receiving a home mortgage, with appropriate exceptions in hardship cases determined by such city or county.

(g) To do any and all things necessary to carry out the purposes and exercise the powers expressly granted by this part.

This section shall remain in effect only until June 30, 1984, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before June 30, 1984, deletes or extends that date. However, the provisions of this section shall remain applicable to loans made on or after June 30, 1984, with the proceeds of bonds issued prior to that date.

SEC. 2. Section 52020 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Section 4 of Chapter 155 of the Statutes of 1982, is amended to read:

52020. (a) For purposes of a home financing program authorized by this part, a city or county shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) To acquire, contract, and enter into advance commitments to acquire, home mortgages made or owned by lending institutions at the purchase prices and upon the other terms and conditions as shall be determined by the city or county or other person as it may designate as its agent, to make and execute contracts with lending institutions for the origination and servicing of home mortgages and to pay the reasonable value of services rendered under those contracts. Prior to executing any contract with a lending institution, a city or county shall adopt regulations establishing criteria for qualification of lending institutions eligible to originate and service home mortgages under home financing programs authorized by this part and shall, with respect to each home financing program, permit each qualified lending institution which transacts business in the city or county the opportunity to participate in the program on an equitable basis with other participating lending institutions. Two or more cities in the same county, or a county and one or more cities within the county, or two or more adjacent counties and any number of cities within those counties may enter into an agreement to join or cooperate with one another in the exercise jointly, or otherwise, of any or all of their powers for the purpose of financing home mortgages pursuant to this part with respect to property within the boundaries of any one or more of the entities.

(2) To make loans to lending institutions under terms and conditions which, in addition to other provisions as determined by the city or county, shall require the lending institutions to use all of the net proceeds thereof, directly or indirectly, for the making of home mortgages in an aggregate principal amount equal to the amount of the net proceeds.

(3) To establish, by rules or regulations, in resolutions relating to any issuance of bonds or in any documents relating to the issuance, standards and requirements applicable to the purchase of home mortgages or the making of loans to lending institutions as the city or county deems necessary or desirable to effectuate the purposes of this part, which may include without limitation the following:

(A) The time within which lending institutions are required to make commitments and disbursements for home mortgages.

(B) The location and other characteristics of homes to be financed by home mortgages.

(C) The terms and conditions of home mortgages to be acquired.

(D) The amounts and types of any insurance coverage required on homes, home mortgages and bonds.

(E) The representations and warranties of lending institutions confirming compliance with the standards and requirements.

(F) Restrictions as to interest rate and other terms of home mortgages or the return realized therefrom by lending institutions.

(G) The type and amount of collateral security to be provided to assure repayment of any loans from the city or county and to assure repayment of bonds.

(H) Any other matters related to the purchase of home mortgages or the making of loans to lending institutions as shall be deemed relevant by the city or county.

(4) To require from each lending institution from which home mortgages are purchased or to which loans are made the submission of evidence satisfactory to the city or county of the ability and intention of the lending institution to make home mortgages, and the submission, within the time specified by the city or county for making disbursements for home mortgages, of evidence satisfactory to the city or county of the making of home mortgages and of compliance with any standards and requirements established by it.

(b) Each city or county which finances housing pursuant to this part shall designate a person or entity to administer the program.

(c) Each city or county which finances housing pursuant to this part shall adopt regulations establishing criteria for qualification of persons and families, which may differ among different cities or counties to reflect varying economic and housing conditions. In developing this criteria, factors similar to the following shall be taken into consideration:

(1) The amount of the income of the person or family that is available for housing needs.

(2) The size of the household.

(3) The costs and condition of available housing.

(4) The eligibility of the persons or families for federal housing assistance of any type.

(d) Criteria for qualification of persons and families pursuant to this section shall include a maximum household income, which maximum shall not exceed the following:

(1) One hundred twenty percent of the median household income shall be for mortgages made for improving a home or for homes where the purchaser will be the first occupant. Upon the resale of a home for which financing was originally provided under this paragraph, the maximum income of persons and families shall also be 120 percent of the median household income.

(2) The median household income where the purchaser will not be the first occupant. However, the city or county shall assure that no less than half the funds allocated for home mortgages where the purchaser will not be the first occupant shall be for households whose income does not exceed 80 percent of such median household income; provided, that the legislative body of the city or county may, by resolution, increase this income limitation to 90 percent of median household income if the legislative body finds that there are insufficient numbers of creditworthy persons whose income does not exceed 80 percent of median household income. The resolution shall be final and conclusive as to the findings required by this paragraph.

(3) One hundred fifty percent of the median household income shall be for mortgages made for improving a home or for homes where the purchaser will be the first occupant in any city, the entire area of which, or in any county in which a portion thereof, is designated by the United States Department of Commerce, Economic Development Administration as a special impact area within a Title IV redevelopment area, pursuant to Section 401 of the federal Public Works and Economic Development Act of 1965, as amended, and which is eligible for Urban Development Action Grant funds under the current distress standards established for cities and counties by the Secretary of the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development pursuant to Section 119, of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, provided that the homes purchased or improved are situated within the boundaries of a special impact area as defined by the Economic Development Administration, and that the designation is in effect on the date of sale of revenue bonds issued under this part.

As used in this subdivision, "median household income" means the highest of (A) statewide median household income, (B) countywide median household income, or (C) median family income for area as determined by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (with respect to either a standard metropolitan statistical area or an area outside of a standard metropolitan statistical area).

(e) Each city or county which finances housing pursuant to this part shall allocate no less than 60 percent of the dollar amount of its financing from bond proceeds to fund loans for the purchase of homes where the purchaser will be the first occupant, or for substantial rehabilitation. As used in this chapter, "substantial rehabilitation" means rehabilitation in which the costs of rehabilitation equal or exceed 20 percent of the value of the structure after rehabilitation.

(f) Each city or county which finances housing pursuant to this part shall require each mortgagor under the program to certify his or her intention to occupy the home for a minimum of two years after receiving a home mortgage, with appropriate exceptions in hardship cases determined by such city or county.

(g) Each city and county may do any and all things necessary to carry out the purposes and exercise the powers expressly granted by this part.

(h) This section shall become operative June 30, 1984.

SEC. 3. The City of Coalinga may proceed under the provisions of Sections 4 to 10, inclusive, of this act when adopting or amending one or more redevelopment plans within the city and when issuing bonds to finance the construction or development of multifamily rental housing.

SEC. 4. With respect to the adoption or amendment of one or more redevelopment plans within the City of Coalinga, the otherwise applicable provisions of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 33300) of Part 1 of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code shall be modified as follows:

(a) In lieu of preparing the report required pursuant to Section 33328 within 90 days of the date the redevelopment agency files the information required by Section 33327 with the State Board of Equalization, the county officials may prepare and deliver that report to the redevelopment agency and each of the taxing agencies within 20 days of the date the redevelopment agency files that information with the State Board of Equalization and the report need only be as complete as the information then available will permit.

(b) For the purposes of Section 33328, "last equalized assessment roll" and "base year assessment roll" shall mean and refer to the assessment roll as reduced in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (b) of Section 170 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(c) The notices provided for in Sections 33349, 33361, and 33452 need be published only once at least 10 days prior to the hearing referred to in those sections.

(d) The requirements of Section 33353 shall not apply.

SEC. 5. With respect to the issuance of bonds within the City of Coalinga pursuant to Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 33750) of Part 1 of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code, the limitations contained in subdivision (j) of Section 33753 governing the financing of commercial structures shall not apply.

SEC. 6. Bonds issued by the City of Coalinga before January 1, 1985, to finance the construction or development of multifamily rental housing pursuant to Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 52075) of Part 5 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code shall not be included for the purpose of determining whether the annual maximum aggregate amount of bonds sold pursuant to that chapter exceeds nine hundred million dollars ($900,000,000).

SEC. 7. Notwithstanding Section 33500 of the Health and Safety Code, no action attacking or otherwise questioning the validity of a redevelopment plan or amendment to a redevelopment plan adopted in accordance with the provisions of Sections 4, 5, and 8 of this act or the adoption or approval of such plan or amendment or any of the findings or determinations of the City of Coalinga or its redevelopment agency in connection with such plan or amendment shall be brought prior to the adoption of the redevelopment plan or amendment nor at any time after the elapse of 30 days from and after the date of adoption of the ordinance adopting or amending the plan.

SEC. 8. With respect to a redevelopment plan or amendment to a redevelopment plan adopted by the City of Coalinga in accordance with the provisions of Sections 4 and 5 of this act, the terms "assessment roll" and "last equalized assessment roll" as used in Section 33670 of the Health and Safety Code shall mean and refer to the assessment roll as reduced in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (b) of Section 170 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

SEC. 9. In accordance with subdivision (b) of Section 21080 of the Public Resources Code, the provisions of the California Environmental Quality Act shall not be applicable to redevelopment plans or amendments to redevelopment plans adopted by the City of Coalinga in accordance with the provisions of Sections 4, 5, and 8 of this act, or to the public and private activities and undertakings pursuant to, or in furtherance of, those redevelopment plans or amendments.

SEC. 10. Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 33130 and 33130.5 of the Health and Safety Code, an officer or employee of the agency or of the community may purchase or lease property within a redevelopment project area of the City of Coalinga, if the purchase or lease is for the purpose of reestablishing, expanding, or continuing an existing business or property investment, or securing a personal residence, and if the officer or employee who purchases or leases the property immediately makes a written disclosure to the agency and the legislative body. The disclosure shall be entered on the minutes of the agency. The officer or employee shall thereafter be disqualified from voting on matters directly affecting such a purchase, lease, or residency. Failure to so disclose shall constitute misconduct in office.

SEC. 11. Sections 3 to 10, inclusive, of this act, applicable only to the City of Coalinga and its redevelopment agency, are necessary to provide immediate aid and assistance to the disaster area damaged by the May 1983, earthquake. The problems created by that disaster are such that a general law cannot be made applicable.

SEC. 12. Sections 3 to 11, inclusive, of this act shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1989, and as of such date are repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends that date.

Liberalized provisions relating to much needed financing for housing will lapse on July 1, 1983, unless a statute chaptered before that time deletes or extends that date. As this act would extend the date until January 1, 1984, it is necessary for this act to go into immediate effect.

In addition, areas of the City of Coalinga damaged by the May 1983, earthquake are urgently in need of aid and assistance which can be provided by the city's redevelopment agency through the use of its powers under the Community Redevelopment Law of this state. In order to exempt the issuance of bonds to finance the construction or development of multifamily rental housing from an existing limitation as soon as possible, and in order for the Redevelopment Agency of the City of Coalinga to provide immediate aid and assistance, it is necessary to enable the City of Coalinga and its redevelopment agency to quickly establish redevelopment projects and adopt and amend redevelopment plans. Therefore, this act must take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 170

An act to amend Sections 6851, 6852, 6863, 6865, 6865.5, 6868.5, 6871, 6872, 6880, 6894.7, 6915.4, 6926, and 6947 of, to add Sections 6858, 6863.5, 6893.1, 6893.2, 6893.3, 6893.4, 6893.5, 6893.6, 6894.15, 6894.16, 6894.17, 6894.18, 6926.1, 6926.2, 6926.3, 6926.4, 6926.5, 6926.6, 6926.7, 6926.8, 6926.9, 6926.10, and 6926.11 to, and to repeal Sections 6927 and 6947.1 of, the Business and Professions Code, and to amend Section 4 of Chapter 772 of the Statutes of 1978, relating to collection agencies, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 30, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6851 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6851. (a) "Person" includes firm, partnership, association or corporation.

(b) "Department" means the Department of Consumer Affairs.

(c) "Director" means the Director of Consumer Affairs.

(d) "Bureau" means the Bureau of Collection and Investigative Services.

(e) "Chief" means the Chief of Collection and Investigative Services.

(f) "Board" means the Collection Agency Board.

(g) "Manager" means a qualified certificate holder who is actively in charge of a licensed collection agency.

SEC. 1.5. Section 6852 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6852. "Collection agency" means and includes all persons engaging, directly or indirectly and as a primary or secondary object, business, or pursuit, in soliciting claims for collection or in the collection of claims owed or due or asserted to be owed or due to another.

SEC. 2. Section 6858 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

6858. As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Director" means the Director of Consumer Affairs.

(b) "Bureau" means the Bureau of Collection and Investigative Services.

(c) "Chief" means the Chief of the Bureau of Collection and Investigative Services.

(d) "Person" includes any individual, firm, company, association, organization, partnership, or corporation.

(e) "Licensee" means a person licensed as a collection agency.

(f) "Commercial account" means any account based on a transaction other than for personal, family, or household purposes.

(g) "Assignment" means that legal title to a claim is transferred from the person owning the claim to a licensed collection agency notwithstanding the fact that the consideration paid by the licensed collection agency to the assignor is contingent upon collection of the claim.

SEC. 3. Section 6863 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6863. The director may establish and enforce such rules and regulations as may be reasonable and necessary for the examination and licensing of applicants, for the conduct of licensees and for the general enforcement of the various provisions of this chapter for the protection of the public, and may establish and enforce implementing regulations within the subject area of Title 1.6C (commencing with Section 1788) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code for licensees and applicants. The chief shall distribute to each licensee and each applicant for a license copies of this chapter and of such rules and regulations. Such rules and regulations shall be adopted, amended, or repealed in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act.

Prior to proposing the adoption, amendment, or repeal of regulations pursuant to the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, the director shall submit a draft copy of any contemplated regulatory proposal to the Collection Agency Board for review, comment, and recommendations. The draft copy shall be submitted to the board at least 30 days prior to a regularly scheduled board meeting.

The willful violation of any rules and regulations established hereunder or the willful violation of any provision of Title 1.6C (commencing with Section 1788) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code shall be sufficient ground for revocation of the license of a licensee, or other disciplinary action.

On and after July 1, 1985, the director's authority to establish any new rule or regulation is terminated.

SEC. 3.1. Section 6863.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

6863.5. After taking action to adopt, amend, or repeal an administrative regulation but prior to the time the order of adoption is submitted to the Office of Administrative Law for review and filing, the director shall submit the order of adoption to the Collection Agency Board. The board may, by unanimous vote of its members, reject any regulation adopted by the director. Any rejected regulation shall not be filed with the Office of Administrative Law and shall have no force or effect.

The provisions of this section shall apply only to regulations adopted, amended or repealed on or after July 1, 1983.

SEC. 3.3. Section 6865 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6865. The California Advisory Board of Collection Agencies, which consists of seven members is continued in existence as the Collection Agency Board in the Bureau of Collection and Investigative Services.

SEC. 3.5. Section 6865.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6865.5. Of the seven members of the Collection Agency Board, three members shall have been actively engaged in business as a licensed collector or manager of a licensed collection agency in this state for a minimum period of five consecutive years immediately preceding his appointment and shall continue in good standing in such capacity during his term of office. Four members shall be public members, who may be customers of a licensee but shall not be licensees or engage in any business or profession in which any part of the fees, compensation or revenue thereof is derived from any licensee.

SEC. 4. Section 6868.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6868.5. The board shall:

(a) Inquire into the needs of the collection agency business, the functions of the bureau and the matter of the policy thereof, and make such recommendations with respect thereto as, after consideration, may be deemed important and necessary for the welfare of the state, the welfare of the public, and the welfare and progress of the collection agency business.

(b) Confer and advise with the director as to how the bureau may best serve the state, the public, and the collection agency business.

(c) Consider and make appropriate recommendations on its own initiative as to changes in, or additions to or deletions of rules and regulations which the director has adopted as, after consideration, may be deemed important and necessary.

(d) Consider and make appropriate recommendations in all matters submitted to it by the director or the chief.

(e) Consider and reject rules and regulations adopted by the director as provided in Section 6863.5.

(f) Assist the director and the chief in the collection of such necessary information and data as the director or the chief may deem necessary to the proper administration of this chapter.

SEC. 5. Section 6871 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6871. In addition to any other penalty, any person, firm, corporation or voluntary association, or any officer or director of any corporation or association carrying on business as a collection agency unless he or she shall hold a valid collection agency license issued pursuant to this chapter or who carries on such business after the revocation of the license, or more than 30 days after expiration of any license is guilty of a misdemeanor and punishable by a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or by imprisonment not exceeding one year or by both fine and imprisonment.

Any person who knowingly engages an unlicensed collection agency to conduct collections on his or her behalf is guilty of a misdemeanor.

The prosecuting officer of any county or city shall prosecute all violations of this chapter occurring within his or her jurisdiction.

SEC. 6. Section 6872 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6872. The superior court in and for the county wherein any person carries on, or attempts to carry on, business as a collection agency without first having obtained a license pursuant to this chapter, or carries on such business after the revocation or expiration of any license or during the period of suspension of any license, may, on application of the director, or any person licensed under this act or association representing such licensees or any member of the general public, issue an injunction or other appropriate order restraining such conduct and may impose civil fines not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

All fines collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Collection Agency Fund.

The proceedings under this section shall be governed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, except that there shall be no requirement to allege facts necessary to show or tending to show lack of an adequate remedy at law or irreparable injury.

SEC. 7. Section 6880 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6880. The application shall include a financial statement of the applicant, showing the assets and liabilities of the applicant and truly reflecting that the applicant's net worth is not less than the sum of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000), in cash or its equivalent, of which, however, not less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) shall be deposited in a bank, available for the use of licensee's business. The financial statement shall be sworn to by the applicant, if the applicant is an individual, or by a partner, officer, or manager in its behalf, if the applicant is a partnership, corporation or unincorporated association. The information contained in the financial statement shall be confidential and not a public record, but is admissible in evidence at any hearing held, or in any action instituted in a court of competent jurisdiction, pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

SEC. 8. Section 6893.1 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

6893.1. When considering the denial, suspension, revocation, or reinstatement of a license, registration, or certificate, the director, in evaluating the rehabilitation of the applicant, licensee, registrant, certificate holder or petitioner and his or her present eligibility for a license, registration, or certificate, shall consider the following criteria:

(a) The nature and severity of the act or crime under consideration as grounds for denial.

(b) Evidence of any act committed subsequent to the act or crime under consideration as grounds for denial which also could be considered as grounds for denial under Section 480.

(c) The time that has elapsed since commission of the act or crime referred to in subdivision (a) or (b).

(d) The extent to which the applicant has complied with any terms of parole, probation, restitution, or any other sanctions lawfully imposed against the applicant.

(e) Evidence, if any, of any rehabilitation submitted by the applicant.

SEC. 9. Section 6893.2 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

6893.2. An applicant is not eligible for examination until he or she has filed a complete application accompanied by the appropriate fee. Complete applications must be filed in person at or mailed to the bureau's Sacramento office not later than 20 days prior to the next scheduled examination date. An applicant who fails to file within the above time period may, in the bureau's discretion, be scheduled to take the following scheduled examination.

SEC. 10. Section 6893.3 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

6893.3. An applicant who fails to pass the examination or who fails to appear for the examination after proper notification by the bureau shall not be permitted to take any subsequent examination unless he or she has duly filed a completed application for reexamination, accompanied by the appropriate fee, for each such subsequent examination. This section shall not apply to an applicant who has requested a rescheduled examination date within seven days after receipt of the original scheduling notice.

SEC. 11. Section 6893.4 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

6893.4. If an applicant fails to complete his or her application within one year after it has been filed, or fails to take and pass the examination within a one-year period after becoming eligible therefor, the application shall be deemed abandoned. Any application submitted subsequent to the abandonment of a former application shall be treated as a new application and must be filed in accordance with Section 6893.2.

SEC. 12. Section 6893.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

6893.5. An application for examination shall be approved if the applicant has done the following:

(a) Filed an application for a qualification certificate and paid the application fee.

(b) Met all the requirements of Section 6886.

(c) Graduated from a four-year high school, or is possessed of the equivalent of a four-year high school education in point of intellectual competency and achievement as evidenced by either a General Education Development Certificate or completion of formal courses of instruction in postsecondary school satisfactory to the chief.

SEC. 13. Section 6893.6 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

6893.6. The examination shall be of sufficient length and scope to test the applicant's knowledge as it applies to the daily operation of a collection agency on the following:

(a) Collection ethics and practices.

(b) Bookkeeping.

(c) Business law and laws governing claims assigned for collection.

(d) Administrative and managerial ability.

(e) Collection Agency Act rules and regulations, Title 1.6C (commencing with Section 1788) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, and the Federal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act.

SEC. 14. Section 6894.7 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6894.7. After a hearing the director may refuse to register an employee, or may suspend or revoke a previous registration, if the individual has committed any act which would justify refusal of permission to take the collection agency examination and to issue a qualification certificate under Section 6886.1.

If the director determines that it is in the public interest to grant probationary registration to a person whose application for registration is subject to denial under this section, he or she may register such person on terms and conditions sufficient in his or her judgment to protect the public interest. The director may suspend or revoke a probationary registration if, after a hearing, he or she determines that the individual has violated any of the terms and conditions of registration or any provision of this chapter or of the rules and regulations adopted thereunder. The granting of a probationary registration shall not in any way restrict the director's authority under this chapter to refuse to grant permission to take the collection agency examination, to issue a qualification certificate, or to issue a license.

SEC. 15. Section 6894.15 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

6894.15. The person deemed to be actively in charge of an office shall be the holder of a qualification certificate, which certificate shall be prominently displayed below the agency license. The person shall spend over 50 percent of his or her time in the supervision of the fiscal and administrative functions of the office. The person shall share equally with the licensee the responsibility for the conduct of the business and the personnel of the licensed activity.

SEC. 16. Section 6894.16 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

6894.16. Whenever notice is given pursuant to Section 6922 that a person actively in charge of a licensed office has ceased to be in charge thereof, the license for the office shall remain in force for 60 days after the notice is given. The chief may extend the 60-day period for an additional period not to exceed one year in any case in which he or she determines that the facts or circumstances justify the extension. If a qualified person is not then actively in charge of the office, the license shall be ipso facto suspended.

SEC. 17. Section 6894.17 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

6894.17. The exemption from registration of employees who are engaged exclusively in sales or stenographic, typing, filing, or other clerical activities, provided in Section 6894.6 shall not include persons whose duties include accounting for receipts or disbursements or trust moneys, preparation of bank deposits or reconciliations, or other functions of responsibility for the financial transactions of the licensee.

SEC. 18. Section 6894.18 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

6894.18. After any license has been revoked or has expired, the licensee shall not sell or assign any claim or account in his or her possession for collection other than to return or reassign the uncollected accounts to the customers or their order, and the licensee shall not charge or receive any fee or compensation for the return or assignment of any such claim or account; and no licensee shall charge or receive any fee or commission on any moneys received or collected subsequent to the revocation or expiration of his or her license, but all such moneys shall be forthwith remitted to the owners of the accounts on which the moneys were paid. The commission of any of the above-mentioned prohibited acts shall be deemed to constitute carrying on business within the meaning of Section 6871, but this section shall not be construed to prohibit a bulk sale after termination of license of all of the business, assets and goodwill of a licensee as a unit, including the right to solicit reassignment of all uncollected accounts.

SEC. 19. Section 6915.4 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6915.4. The provisions of this article shall not preclude the director from inspecting, examining, or investigating the business, including the books, accounts, records, and files used therein by the licensee, as they pertain to the licensee's trust account and collection records only, unless there is a substantial trust deficiency, in which case, the audit may be extended to all the business records of the licensee, on such basis and on such occasion as shall be necessary to insure compliance with this chapter and any rule or regulation adopted by the director pursuant to this chapter. For the purposes of this provision, and limited to the inspection, examination, or investigation as provided above, the director shall have free access to the offices and places of business, books, accounts, records, papers, files, safes, and vaults of all licensees.

When an audit is performed as a consequence of information disclosed by the trust reconciliation statements or the bank statements filed pursuant to Section 6915.1, or if a second audit is required due to the unavailability of records required to be maintained pursuant to Section 6915 or regulations promulgated in accordance with Section 6863, the cost of the second audit shall be charged to and paid by the licensee at a rate of twenty-one dollars ($21) per audit hour, subject to a maximum of seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) for any one audit. "Audit hour" means one auditor working one hour.

Prior to the conduct of a second audit, the licensee shall be given written notice of the discrepancies or violations and allowed 15 days from the receipt of the notice to submit a written reply which provides information that eliminates the need for a second audit.

Upon completion of a second audit conducted pursuant to this section, the bureau shall provide written notice to the licensee of the charge due. If the licensee fails to pay the charge within 30 days after the date of the bureau's notice, his or her license shall forthwith be revoked.

No licensee shall be required to pay a charge for any inspection, examination, investigation, or audit of his or her business under this chapter except to the extent provided for by this section.

SEC. 20. Section 6926 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6926. The assignment by a customer to a licensee of an account for collection creates a fiduciary relationship between the customer and the licensee. Such relationship imposes upon every licensee and employee a fiduciary duty to the customer the same as that imposed upon a trustee.

In carrying out the purpose of such fiduciary relationship every licensee or employee is bound to act in the highest good faith toward his or her beneficiary and every licensee or employee shall not:

(a) Obtain any advantage over the beneficiary by the slightest misrepresentation, concealment, threat, or adverse pressure of any kind.

(b) Use or deal with the trust property for his or her own profit, other than normal interest, or for any other purpose unconnected with the trust, in any manner. The licensee shall pay to the customer the bank interest earned on any funds held by the licensee for more than 60 days which accrues after the 60th day.

(c) Use the influence which his or her position gives him or her to obtain any advantage from his or her beneficiary.

(d) Willfully mingle the trust property with his or her own so as to constitute himself or herself in appearance as its absolute owner.

All transactions between a licensee or employee and the beneficiary during the existence of the trust, or while the influence acquired by the trustee remains, by which he or she obtains any advantage from his or her beneficiary, are presumed to be entered into by the latter without sufficient consideration, and under undue influence.

Any licensee or employee who uses or disposes of the trust property contrary to the provisions of this chapter or the administrative rules established thereunder may at the option of the beneficiary be required to account for all profits so made, or to pay the value of its use, and if he or she has disposed thereof to replace it, with its fruits, or to account for its proceeds, with interest.

A violation of any of the above provisions by a licensee or employee constitutes grounds for the institution of disciplinary proceedings and revocation of a license or other disciplinary action.

SEC. 21. Section 6926.1 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

6926.1. Any terms, rates and conditions set forth in any written agreement between a licensee and his or her customer by which claims are assigned for collection shall be specific, intelligible and unambiguous. In the absence of a written agreement the interpretation of the customer shall be accepted, unless the previous conduct of the parties evidences a contrary mutual understanding.

SEC. 22. Section 6926.2 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

6926.2. No claim shall be compromised so as to yield to a customer less than his or her agreed interest in the assigned balance unless the customer shall authorize the compromise. All moneys collected on a compromised claim, excepting court costs advanced, shall be disclosed to the customer in writing.

SEC. 23. Section 6926.3 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

6926.3. (a) In the absence of any written agreement, any claim may be withdrawn, without charge, after six months from date of assignment on 60 days' prior written demand, provided the claim is not in the process of collection at the time of demand. A claim is deemed to be in the process of collection within the meaning of this rule if any of the following apply:

(1) Within six months immediately preceding the demand for withdrawal a payment has been received thereon by either the customer or licensee.

(2) The licensee has obtained a written promise of payment which is legally enforceable.

(3) Suit filed thereon by or on behalf of the licensee is pending or has been reduced to judgment.

(4) The claim has been forwarded out of state for collection.

(5) Payment is assured because of an ascertained future event, such as payment of dividends in a bankruptcy proceeding, probate of an estate, assignment for benefit of creditors, or similar events, provided the licensee has diligently complied with all requirements necessary to insure payment of claim upon the happening of that event.

(b) The licensee may, as a condition to withdrawal, require by registered or certified mail that the customer furnish a signed statement to the effect the customer has not received on account of such claim any payment which has not previously been reported and accounted for and that no arrangement has been made with the debtor directly for the payment or settlement of such claim.

(c) If a licensee fails to render an accounting or make remittance to a customer within the time and in the manner provided in this chapter, the customer may withdraw the claim and shall not be liable for payment of any commission, charge, fee, court costs or attorneys' fees relating to such claim. Within 30 days after receipt of written notice from the customer of such withdrawal, the licensee shall return the claim. The provisions of this subdivision apply to every claim assigned to a licensee for collection, whether or not that claim is in the process of collection, and notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in any agreement between the licensee and the customer.

(d) Upon the withdrawal of a claim, the licensee shall return to the customer all things to which the customer is legally entitled.

(e) In the event a customer shall make written demand upon a licensee, at least 60 days before the cause of action on a claim assigned for collection or any obligation substituted therefor becomes barred by the statute of limitations, to require the licensee to file suit on that claim or obligation and offers to advance and pay the court costs incident to the filing of the suit, and the licensee shall fail or refuse to cause such suit to be filed at least 30 days before such cause of action becomes barred, or if the licensee fails to inform the assignee at least 30 days prior to the time upon which the statute of limitations will be effective against the assigned account, then the customer shall have the right to immediate release and return of the claim or obligation without further demand or notice and without charge notwithstanding any term or assignment or that claim or obligation may then be in the process of collection.

SEC. 24. Section 6926.4 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

6926.4. (a) Within 60 days after any payment is received on any claim or account, the licensee shall render an itemized statement of account to the customer and remit therewith all money then due the customer; however, upon specific written request signed by the customer, the remittances may be made at other times not to exceed six months after receipt of the payment. After court costs are recovered on any claim or group of claims against a debtor, moneys shall be first applied to the reduction of principal, unless another priority has been authorized in writing. In the absence of a writing executed by the customer, and in the event of a dispute with the customer, the version or understanding of the customer relating thereto shall be accepted and deemed to be true and correct unless the previous conduct of the parties evidences a mutual understanding and agreement to the contrary.

(b) If any customer fails to advise a licensee, in writing or orally, of all payments or credits paid directly to the customer on any claim or account, within 30 days after receipt, the licensee may make written demand therefor by certified mail with return receipt requested. The licensee shall not be obliged to make any further remittances to the customer until the customer has rendered the statement. The failure or refusal of a customer to render the statement shall not relieve the licensee of the obligation to render an itemized statement of account.

SEC. 25. Section 6926.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

6926.5. Within 60 days after an overpayment of one dollar ($1) or more on any claim is received from a debtor or it is determined that a refund of one dollar ($1) or more is due a debtor on any claim that has been paid, the licensee shall account for and remit to the debtor the money due him or her. The money shall be paid from the licensee's trust account. Money due a debtor for an overpayment or a credit on a debt may not be offset against any other obligation owed by the debtor unless the debtor has so authorized in writing.

SEC. 26. Section 6926.6 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

6926.6. (a) Each licensed office shall maintain a current accounting system which shall at all times show the moneys due and owing to customers as well as the funds in the trust bank account available for remittance to customers.

(b) Books of accounts and records shall be maintained at the licensee's California address of record and shall show and be subject to all of the following:

(1) A cash receipts journal which shall show each collection made, the allocation of the collection, and shall be totalled monthly.

(2) A cash disbursement journal which shall show each check written on the trust bank account.

(3) A general journal which shall reflect all adjustments to the control accounts.

(4) A general ledger, which shall be posted monthly with respect to all accounts controlling the fiduciary relationship with customers. Such postings shall occur within 90 days after the close of each business month.

(5) A customer listing record which shall show detail as to name of customer, date of assignment, name of the debtor, and the amount assigned.

(6) A customer ledger record which shall set forth the true financial relationship of the licensee with the customer, and shall reflect in full detail all collections made on behalf of the customer, whether paid to licensee or customer, including remittances made to the particular customer.

(7) A debtor account record which shall set forth the amount assigned, additions to account legally chargeable to the debtor, and allocation of payments credited to the account. Such records may be filed alphabetically or numerically with an alphabetical cross index.

(c) The trust bank account shall be reconciled each month with the balance shown in the customer trust account by accounting for checks not yet presented and outstanding, bank deposits not shown on the bank statement, and other adjustments required.

(d) All records and accounts shall be maintained for a period of three years, except that debtor account records of accounts which have been canceled or paid in full may be maintained at an address other than the licensed address of record, provided that such records can be returned to the licensed address of record within five working days of bureau demand.

SEC. 27. Section 6926.7 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

6926.7. (a) The acceptance of claims by collection agencies shall be limited to debts arising out of contracts, express or implied, or other claims reduced to judgment. In the pursuit of collection, an account may be referred to an attorney for his or her evaluation and possible legal action. On the date when such an account is so referred, the collection agency shall indicate the date of referral and the name of the attorney on the debtor account record in a clear and concise manner.

(b) All clerical work delegated by the attorney of record shall be under the direction and control of that attorney. Should an attorney delegate clerical work to a person on the payroll of a collection agency, said delegation shall be in writing and shall specifically set forth the work to be done.

(c) If litigation is initiated by the attorney, there shall be no further contact with the debtor or his attorney except by those individuals who have been specifically authorized and delegated by the agency's attorney in writing.

SEC. 28. Section 6926.8 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

6926.8. (a) Each licensed office shall at all times maintain a separate bank account, savings account or savings certificate in which all moneys received on assigned claims shall be deposited, except that negotiable instruments received may be forwarded directly to a customer if such procedure is provided for by a writing executed by the customer. Moneys received shall be deposited within five days after posting to the books of account.

(b) The bank account, savings account or savings certificate shall bear a title sufficient to designate it as a trust account. There shall be sufficient funds in the trust account at all times to pay all moneys owing to all customers. No disbursement shall be made from such account except the following:

- (1) To customers.
- (2) To pay costs advanced by customers.
- (3) To licensee's attorneys.
- (4) To refund overpayments.
- (5) To the licensee, such moneys as may accrue to licensee.

(c) Money belonging to a customer or a debtor who cannot be located may be deposited in a separate account in the name of the licensee followed by a designation which shall clearly label it as unclaimed funds. Moneys on deposit in the account may not be reported in the financial statements required under Section 6915. Each licensee shall maintain as to each accrual to the account a clear and complete record of the accounts. If the money is not claimed by the customer or the debtor within seven years following its collection by the licensee, and the circumstances are such that it is presumed to be abandoned or unclaimed property under the provisions of Title 10 (commencing with Section 1300) of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the licensee shall report to, and shall pay or deliver the money and any income or increment thereon to the Controller at the time and in the manner therein provided.

SEC. 29. Section 6926.9 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

6926.9. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any person may use an alias in the collection of claims; however, any person using an alias in the collection of claims for a licensee, shall register the alias with the licensee and with the bureau. No person shall have more than one alias. The alias shall be the property of the individual. No change of alias shall be authorized unless good cause is shown.

SEC. 30. Section 6926.10 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

6926.10. If any licensee accepts for collection a claim or account against a debtor who is also a customer of the licensee, the licensee shall not set off or apply any moneys collected for or belonging to the debtor against the claim or account, nor shall he or she withhold payment of any moneys due to the debtor, unless the debtor, with knowledge that the claim or account owed has been assigned to the licensee for collection, expressly consents in writing to the setoff or withholding of payment.

SEC. 31. Section 6926.11 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

6926.11. For the purposes of denial, suspension, or revocation of a collection agency license, qualification certification, or registration of a collection agency employee pursuant to Division 1.5 (commencing with Section 475), a crime or act shall be considered to be substantially related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of a collection agency licensee, qualification certificate holder, or collection agency employee if to a substantial degree it evidences present or potential unfitness of a licensee, certificate holder, or registrant to perform the functions authorized by his or her license, certificate, or registration in a manner consistent with the public health, safety, or welfare. Such crimes or acts shall include, but not be limited to, those involving the following:

- (a) Fiscal dishonesty.
- (b) Conviction of illegally carrying or possessing a dangerous weapon.
- (c) Any violation of the provisions of Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 6850).
- (d) Any acts or crimes specified in Title 1.6C (commencing with Section 1788) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code.
- (e) Unfair, misleading, or illegal means of collection.

SEC. 32. Section 6927 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 33. Section 6947 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6947. Nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to authorize a collection agency licensee while operating as a collection agency to perform any act or acts, either directly or indirectly, constituting the practice of law unless the licensee is an attorney authorized to practice law.

No suit may be instituted on behalf of a collection agency licensee in any court on any claim assigned to it in its own name as the real party in interest unless it appears by a duly authorized and licensed attorney at law.

A collection agency may not appear as an assignee party in any proceeding involving claim and delivery, replevin, or other possessory action, action to foreclose a chattel mortgage, mechanic's lien, materialman's lien, or any other lien. Nothing herein contained shall prohibit a licensee from making an oral or written demand for the return or surrender of personal property or from having property attached in an action at law pursuant to the provisions of Title 6.5 (commencing with Section 481.010) of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, or from enforcing a judgment carrying it into execution.

No licensee or employee shall:

(a) Directly or indirectly aid or abet any unlicensed person to engage in business as a collection agency or to receive compensation therefrom.

(b) Engage in any practice or act prohibited by Title 1.6C (commencing with Section 1788) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code or the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (15 U.S.C. 1692 et seq.).

(c) Print, publish or otherwise prepare for distribution for the use of, or sell or offer to sell or furnish or offer to furnish to, any person any system of collection letters, demand forms or other printed material upon his stationery, or upon stationery upon which the licensee's name appears in such manner as to indicate that a demand is being made by the licensee for the payment of any sum or sums due or asserted to be due, where such forms constituting such message are to be sold or furnished to any person to be used by such person at any address different from the address of the licensee as shown on the face of the license.

(d) Engage in any unfair or misleading practices or resort to any illegal means or methods of collection.

SEC. 34. Section 6947.1 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 35. Section 4 of Chapter 772 of the Statutes of 1978 is amended to read:

Sec. 4. Section 1 of this act shall become operative on June 30, 1986, unless a later enacted statute which is chaptered on or before that date deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 36. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

The Collection Agency Act will be repealed July 1, 1983, if this act is not enacted prior to that date. It is vital that the Collection Agency Act be continued to assure adequate regulation of the collection agency and investigative services industries, and to thereby preserve important consumer protections in the law. It is therefore necessary that this act take immediate effect.

CHAPTER 171

An act relating to school districts, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 30, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of eighty thousand dollars ($80,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to Section A of the State School Fund for allocation by the Superintendent of Public Instruction to the Westwood Unified School District. The appropriation made by this section shall be deemed to be an apportionment made pursuant to Section 41310 of the Education Code. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall enter into a contract with the Westwood Unified School District for allocation and repayment of the appropriation made by this section pursuant to the provisions of subdivisions (a) to (d), inclusive, of Section 41320 and Sections 41321 to 41324, inclusive, of the Education Code.

SEC. 2. The sum of ninety six thousand dollars ($96,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to Section A of the State School Fund for allocation by the Superintendent of Public Instruction to the Val Verde Elementary School District of Riverside County, for the 1982-83 fiscal year for any purpose for which money in the district general fund may be used.

The appropriation made by this section shall be deemed an apportionment made pursuant to Section 41310 of the Education Code and the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 41320) of Chapter 3 of Part 24 of the Education Code shall be applicable.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding any other provision of law the appropriation made by Sections 1 and 2 shall be repaid as follows:

For each of the fiscal years 1983-84 to 1987-88, inclusive, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall deduct from the apportionments made to the Westwood Unified School District and the Val Verde Elementary School District an amount equal to one-fifth of the amount actually allocated to each district pursuant to this act, together with amounts representing interest at a rate based on the most current investment rate of the Pooled Money Investment Account as of the date of disbursement of funds to the district.

SEC. 4. Due to the unique circumstances concerning the Westwood Unified School District and the Val Verde Elementary School District, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the Constitution.

SEC. 5. (a) The sum of four hundred fifty thousand dollars ($450,000) is hereby appropriated from the Special Account for Capital Outlay to Section A of the State School Fund for allocation by the Superintendent of Public Instruction as a loan to the South Whittier School District.

(b) For each of the fiscal years 1984–85, 1985–86, and 1986–87, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall deduct from the apportionments made to the South Whittier School District the sum of one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000).

(c) Due to unique circumstances concerning the South Whittier School District, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the Constitution.

In order that the Westwood Unified School District, the South Whittier School District, and the Val Verde Elementary School District receive an emergency apportionment during the 1982–83 fiscal year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

---

CHAPTER 172

An act to amend Sections 6852, 6863, and 6956 of the Business and Professions Code and to add Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 1249.5) to Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to collections, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 30, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6852 of the Business and Profession Codes is amended to read:

6852. "Collection agency" means and includes all persons engaging, directly or indirectly and as a primary or secondary object, business, or pursuit, in soliciting claims for collection or in the collection of claims owed or due or asserted to be owed or due to another whether the collection effort is directed at the primary debtor or some secondary source of payment.

SEC. 2. Section 6956 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6956. The director shall fix, charge, and collect the following fees:

(1) An original license fee, to a maximum of five hundred dollars ($500).

(2) A license continuation fee, to a maximum of three hundred ninety dollars ($390).

(3) A duplicate license fee, to a maximum of thirty dollars ($30).

(4) A temporary license fee, to a maximum of sixty dollars ($60).

(5) A delinquency fee, to a maximum of fifty dollars ($50), notwithstanding the provisions of Section 163.5.

(6) An examination fee, to a maximum of one hundred dollars ($100).

(7) A qualification certificate application fee, to a maximum of one hundred dollars ($100).

(8) A qualification certificate continuation fee, to a maximum of one hundred dollars ($100).

(9) A reinstatement fee to a maximum of the amount of the annual continuation fee plus a penalty of 50 percent thereof, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 163.5.

(10) A reinstatement fee to a maximum of the amount of the qualification certificate continuation fee plus a penalty of 50 percent thereof, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 163.5.

(11) An employee registration fee, to a maximum of twenty-five dollars ($25).

(12) An employee registration continuation fee, to a maximum of twenty-five dollars ($25).

(13) A registration continuation delinquency fee to a maximum of the amount of the registration continuation fee plus a penalty of 50 percent thereof, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 163.5.

(14) The director shall furnish one copy of any issue or edition of the licensing law and rules and regulations to any applicant or licensee without charge; and shall charge and collect a fee of three dollars ($3) plus sales tax for each additional copy which may be furnished on request to any applicant or licensee, and for each copy furnished on request to any other person.

SEC. 3. Section 6863 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Senate Bill 2 of the 1983-84 Regular Session, is amended to read:

6863. The director may establish and enforce such rules and regulations as may be reasonable and necessary for the examination and licensing of applicants, for the conduct of licensees and for the general enforcement of the various provisions of this chapter for the protection of the public, and may establish and enforce implementing regulations within the subject area of Title 1.6C (commencing with Section 1788) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code for licensees and applicants. The chief shall distribute to each licensee and each applicant for a license copies of this chapter and of such rules and regulations. Such rules and regulations shall be adopted, amended, or repealed in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act.

Prior to proposing the adoption, amendment, or repeal of regulations pursuant to the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, the director shall submit a draft copy of any contemplated regulatory proposal to the Collection Agency Board for review, comment, and recommendations. The draft copy shall be submitted to the board at least 30 days prior to a regularly scheduled board meeting.

The willful violation of any rules and regulations established hereunder or the willful violation of any provision of Title 1.6C (commencing with Section 1788) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code shall be sufficient ground for revocation of the license of a licensee, or other disciplinary action.

SEC. 4. Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 1249.5) is added to Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 1.5. MEDICAL PROVIDER CONSULTANTS

1249.5. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Chief" means the Chief of the Bureau of Collection and Investigative Services.

(b) "Director" means the Director of Consumer Affairs.

(c) "Provider of medical services" means any person licensed or certified pursuant to Division 2 (commencing with Section 500) of the Business and Professions Code, or licensed pursuant to the Osteopathic Initiative Act or the Chiropractic Initiative Act or licensed pursuant to Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 1440) of Division 2 of this code, and any clinic, health dispensary, or health facility licensed pursuant to this division.

1249.51. Upon receiving and filing an application the director shall grant and issue a medical provider consultant license.

So long as the activities of a medical provider consultant licensee are limited to authorized activities set forth in subdivision (b) of Section 1249.52, medical provider consultants shall not be required to be licensed pursuant to Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 6850) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code.

Application for a license shall be made in writing to, and filed with, the chief in such form as may be required by the chief and shall be accompanied by an original license fee prescribed in this section.

Every application for a license shall state, among other things that may be required by the chief, the name of the applicant, with the name under which the applicant will do business, and the address of the principal place of business.

The original license fee shall be five hundred dollars ($500). The license shall be renewed biennially upon application and payment of the renewal fee of seven hundred eighty dollars ($780).

All fees shall be deposited in the Collection Agency Fund.

1249.52. (a) A provider of medical services may employ, hire, or contract with a licensed medical provider consultant who may function as an agent or representative for providing manpower and technology to assist the provider in the areas referred to in subdivision (b).

(b) A medical provider consultant may contact patients, insurance companies, governmental representatives, and other third parties for the purpose of establishing partial or complete coverage by a governmental or nongovernmental source and may consult with a health care provider in the area of cost control and cost control maintenance. A medical provider consultant may assist the provider of medical services with any class of accounts, except that a medical provider consultant may not accept assignments on any provider's accounts receivable, or collect for deposit any moneys to be held in trust for the provider, or use any name other than the name of the provider when assisting the provider in bringing accounts receivable to a conclusion.

(c) Providers of medical services or their employees whose responsibilities include, in whole or in part, the submission and followup of billing from the providers' patients or other payers shall not be required to be licensed pursuant to this chapter.

1249.53. The license program shall be administered by the Bureau of Collection and Investigative Services. The director may deny, suspend, or revoke a license after a hearing for fraud, dishonesty, misrepresentation, or any act or omission inconsistent with the faithful discharge of the duties or obligation of the license holder.

All hearings conducted under this chapter shall be in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that Collection Agency Act fees not revert to pre-1979 levels on June 30, 1983, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 173

An act to amend Section 14087.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to Medi-Cal, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State June 30, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14087.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14087.2. It is the intent of the Legislature that for the 1982-83 and 1983-84 fiscal years, children's hospitals and charitable research hospitals as defined in Section 10178 of the Insurance Code, need not contract under the provisions of this article. Services provided by such hospitals shall be reimbursed according to the state plan. Children's hospitals are defined as those hospitals where 30 percent of the infants and children served by the single institution qualify for Med-Cal payment systems and the institution serves primarily children.

If such a hospital elects to contract pursuant to this article in the 1982-83 or 1983-84 fiscal year, the negotiator shall give consideration to the special services provided in such hospitals, such as those services provided to children. The California Medical Assistance Commission shall continue to extend such consideration to such hospitals following the 1983-84 fiscal year.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to effectuate necessary changes in the Medi-Cal program as soon as possible, it is essential that this act go into immediate effect.

---

CHAPTER 174

An act to amend Section 6534.2 of, to add Section 6541.6 to, and to repeal Section 6534.5 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to barbers, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 8, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State July 11, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6534.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6534.2. Upon receipt of the application the board shall require the applicant, if an individual, or a member, partner, or officer thereof if the applicant is a firm, partnership, or corporation, to appear personally before the board and submit information in such form as the board may by regulation prescribe showing:

(1) The location of the proposed college and its physical facilities and equipment, (2) the proposed maximum number of students to be trained at any one time and the number of instructors to be provided, (3) the nature and terms of the applicant's right of possession of the proposed premises, whether by lease, ownership or otherwise, (4) the financial ability of the applicant to operate the college in accordance with the requirements of this chapter and the regulations of the board, (5) a copy of the school's curriculum including course outlines, lesson plans and method of student evaluation, and (6) such other information as the board considers necessary.

SEC. 2. Section 6534.5 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 6541.6 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

6541.6. A barber college which has been licensed in this state for less than two years shall be required to post with the board a bond issued by an admitted surety in the amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000). The bond shall be in favor of the Student Security Trust Fund. The bond shall remain in effect until the college completes two years of licensed operations.

In addition to the bonding requirement set forth above, every college shall be required to comply with the requirements of this article regarding the payment of assessments for support of the Student Security Trust Fund.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

To prevent undue hardship to those barber colleges which are prevented from opening as a result of restrictions placed on them by provisions of the Business and Professions Code, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 175

An act to amend Section 1095 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to unemployment insurance, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 8, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State July 11, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1095 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1095. The director shall permit the use of any information in his or her possession to the extent necessary for any of the following purposes:

- (a) To properly present a claim for benefits.
- (b) To acquaint a worker or his or her authorized agent with his or her existing or prospective right to benefits.
- (c) To furnish an employer or his or her authorized agent with information to enable him or her to fully discharge his or her obligations or safeguard his or her rights under this division or Division 3 (commencing with Section 9000). This subdivision as it relates to Division 3 (commencing with Section 9000) shall apply only to subdivision (j) of this section.

(d) To enable an employer to receive a reduction in contribution rate.

(e) To enable the Director of Social Services or his or her representatives or the State Director of Health Services or his or her representatives subject to federal law to verify or determine the eligibility or entitlement of an applicant for, or a recipient of, public social services provided pursuant to the Welfare and Institutions Code, and directly connected with and limited to the administration of public social services.

(f) To enable county administrators of general relief or assistance, or their representatives, to determine entitlement to locally provided general relief or assistance, where the determination is directly connected with and limited to the administration of general relief or assistance.

(g) To enable county district attorneys, or their representatives, to seek criminal, civil, or administrative remedies in connection with the unlawful application for or receipt of relief provided under Division 9 (commencing with Section 10000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(h) To enable the director or his or her representative to carry out his or her responsibilities under this code.

(i) To enable county departments of collection or their representatives to determine entitlement to medical assistance services rendered pursuant to Part 5 (commencing with Section 17000) of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and, when appropriate, to enable collection for the county's expenditures for these medical assistance services.

(j) To furnish an employer, or his or her authorized agent, with information including, but not limited to, the applicant's or recipient's name, social security number, address, employable skills, and job placement in order to enable him or her to fully discharge his or her obligations or safeguard his or her rights under the elements of a joint union, management, and Employment Development Department agreement as are deemed necessary to assist displaced workers to obtain new employment under the provisions of Chapter 2.9 (commencing with Section 9970) of Part 1 of Division 3 and related provisions of Division 3 (commencing with Section 9000). The information shall be limited to any information gathered under these divisions by the department and authorized for release by the labor organization which shall act as an agent for the affected workers under terms of the agreement and shall participate in defining the information release provisions.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize or permit the use of information obtained in the administration of this code by any private collection agency.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

The persistently high and long-term unemployment resulting in the need to assist unemployed individuals in the state, and to implement a triparte agreement to assist displaced workers due to plant closures.

CHAPTER 176

An act to amend Sections 428.50 and 625 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to civil procedure.

[Approved by Governor July 8, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State July 11, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 428.50 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

428.50. (a) A party shall file a cross-complaint against any of the parties who filed the complaint or cross-complaint against him or her before or at the same time as the answer to the complaint or cross-complaint.

(b) Any other cross-complaint may be filed at any time before the court has set a date for trial.

(c) A party shall obtain leave of court to file any cross-complaint except one filed within the time specified in subdivision (a) or (b). Leave may be granted in the interest of justice at any time during the course of the action.

SEC. 2. Section 625 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

625. In all cases the court may direct the jury to find a special verdict in writing, upon all, or any of the issues, and in all cases may instruct them, if they render a general verdict, to find upon particular questions of fact, to be stated in writing, and may direct a written finding thereon. In all cases in which the issue of punitive damages is presented to the jury the court shall direct the jury to find a special verdict in writing separating punitive damages from compensatory damages. The special verdict or finding must be filed with the clerk and entered upon the minutes. Where a special finding of facts is inconsistent with the general verdict, the former controls the latter, and the court must give judgment accordingly.

CHAPTER 177

An act to amend Sections 19616 and 19622 of the Government Code, relating to state employees.

[Approved by Governor July 8, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 11, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19616 of the Government Code is amended to read:

19616. Upon approval by the head of the state agency, the plan shall be transmitted to the Department of Finance which shall review the plan and determine whether the elements of the plan contain provisions to enable the agency and the Department of Finance to measure the performance of the organizational unit and to determine whether this performance has resulted in budget savings. The Department of Finance may limit the number of organizational units participating in the shared savings program to five or less during the first year of operation in order to evaluate results, and shall report on its evaluation of the program's effectiveness in enhancing productivity in state government to the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee on or before January 1, 1986.

SEC. 2. Section 19622 of the Government Code is amended to read:

19622. If the provisions of this chapter are in conflict with the provisions of a memorandum of understanding reached pursuant to the State Employer-Employee Relations Act (SEERA), commencing with Section 3512 of the Government Code, the memorandum of understanding shall be controlling without further legislative action, except that if such provisions of a memorandum of understanding require the expenditure of funds, the provisions shall not become effective unless approved by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

This chapter shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1987, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1987, deletes or extends that date.

---

CHAPTER 178

An act to amend Sections 73084.1, 73084.2, 73084.4, 73084.5, 73084.6, 73089, and 73096 of the Government Code, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor July 8, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 11, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 73084.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73084.1. The clerk and administrative officer of the municipal court for the Alameda Judicial District may appoint the following deputy clerks:

- (a) One chief deputy clerk.

73084.2. The clerk and administrative officer of the municipal court for the Berkeley-Albany Judicial District may appoint the following deputy clerks:

- (a) One chief deputy clerk.
- (b) Three deputy clerks, supervising municipal court clerk II.
- (c) Four deputy clerks, municipal courtroom clerk.
- (d) Four deputy clerks, senior municipal court clerk.
- (e) Eight deputy clerks, municipal court clerk.
- (f) Six deputy clerks, clerk II.
- (g) One deputy clerk, secretary II.
- (h) One deputy clerk, accounting technician.
- (i) One deputy clerk, account clerk II.
- (j) One deputy clerk, account clerk I.
- (k) Two deputy clerks, data input clerk.

Not more than three such deputy clerks may be assigned as court interpreter at the additional percentage compensation provided for county employees required to possess bilingual capabilities.

SEC. 3. Section 73084.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73084.4. The clerk and administrative officer of the municipal court for the San Leandro-Hayward Judicial District may appoint the following deputy clerks:

- (a) One chief deputy clerk.
- (b) Three deputy clerks, division chiefs. The clerk and administrative officer may transfer such division chiefs from one division to another regardless of any resulting change in salary as set forth in Section 73086.
- (c) Seven deputy clerks, municipal courtroom clerk.
- (d) Three deputy clerks, supervising municipal court clerk I.
- (e) One deputy clerk, senior municipal court clerk.

- (f) Thirty deputy clerks, municipal court clerk.
- (g) Three deputy clerks, clerk II.

- (i) One deputy clerk, supervising accountant I.
- (j) One deputy clerk, account clerk II.
- (k) Two deputy clerks, data input clerk.
- (l) One deputy clerk, staff services assistant.

Not more than three such deputy clerks may be assigned as court interpreters at the additional percentage compensation provided for county employees required to possess bilingual capabilities.

SEC. 4. Section 73084.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73084.5. The clerk and administrative officer of the municipal court for the Fremont-Newark-Union City Judicial District may appoint the following deputy clerks:

- (a) One chief deputy clerk.
- (b) Four deputy clerks, municipal courtroom clerk.
- (c) Three deputy clerks, supervising municipal court clerk I.
- (d) Two deputy clerks, senior municipal court clerk.
- (e) Thirteen deputy clerks, municipal court clerk.
- (f) Ten deputy clerks, clerk II.
- (g) One deputy clerk, secretary I.
- (h) One deputy clerk, accounting technician.
- (i) One deputy clerk, account clerk II.
- (j) One deputy clerk, account clerk I.
- (k) One deputy clerk, intermittent I.

Not more than three such deputy clerks may be assigned as court interpreters at the additional percentage compensation provided for county employees required to possess bilingual capabilities.

SEC. 5. Section 73084.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73084.6. The clerk and administrative officer of the municipal court for the Livermore-Pleasanton Judicial District may appoint the following deputy clerks:

- (a) One chief deputy clerk.
- (b) Three deputy clerks, municipal courtroom clerk.
- (c) Three deputy clerks, supervising municipal court clerk I.
- (d) Two deputy clerks, senior municipal court clerk.
- (e) Seven deputy clerks, municipal court clerk.
- (f) One deputy clerk, accounting technician.

Not more than one such deputy clerk may be assigned as court interpreter at the additional percentage compensation provided for county employees required to possess bilingual capabilities.

SEC. 6. Section 73089 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73089. With the approval of the board of supervisors, judges of each municipal court concerned within Alameda County may establish such additional titles and pay rates as are required and may appoint such additional deputy clerks, officers, assistants and other employees as deemed necessary for the powers conferred by law upon the court and its members. Rates of compensation of the clerk and administrative officers, deputy clerks, officers, assistants and other employees may be adjusted by joint action and approval of the board of supervisors and the judges in each respective municipal court within the county.

If the board of supervisors provides by ordinance or resolution for any increase in the number or rate of compensation of any municipal court personnel pursuant to this section, such increase shall be effective only until January 1, 1986, and shall be effective at the same time and in the same manner as such increases for Alameda County employees generally.

SEC. 7. Section 73096 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73096. Official reporters of municipal courts in Alameda County, in lieu of any other compensation provided by law for their services in reporting testimony and proceedings in such court, shall receive:

(a) One hundred eight dollars and thirty cents ($108.30) a day for the days they actually are on duty under order of the court; or

(b) A minimum payment of fifty-four dollars and fifteen cents ($54.15) for serving four hours or less a day, plus an hourly rate of thirteen dollars and fifty-four cents ($13.54) for each hour served in excess of four hours, up to the maximum amount specified in subdivision (a). However, not more than three official reporters in a judicial district having three or more judges shall each receive an annual salary, vacation leave and sick leave, in the same amounts as the official reporters of the Superior Court in Alameda County.

Rates of compensation of regular official reporters and official reporters pro tempore may be adjusted by joint action and approval of the board of supervisors and a majority of the judges of the court, provided, however, that any changes in compensation which are made pursuant to this section shall be on an interim basis and shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1986, unless ratified by statute by the Legislature prior to that date.

SEC. 8. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act.

CHAPTER 180

An act to amend Section 2808 of the Penal Code, relating to prisons and prisoners.

[Approved by Governor July 8, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 11, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2808 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

2808. The board shall, in the exercise of its duties, have all the powers and do all the things which the board of directors of a private corporation would do, except as specifically limited in this article, including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) To enter into contracts and leases, execute leases, pledge the equipment, inventory and supplies under the control of the authority and the anticipated future receipts of any enterprise under the jurisdiction of the authority as collateral for loans, and execute other necessary instruments and documents.

(b) To assure that all funds received by the authority are kept in commercial accounts according to standard accounting practices.

(c) To arrange for an independent annual audit.

(d) To review and approve the annual budget for the authority, in order to assure that the solvency of the Prison Industries Revolving Fund is maintained.

(e) To appoint a general manager to serve as the chief administrative officer of the authority. The person so appointed shall serve at the pleasure of the chairman. The general manager shall have wide and successful experience with a productive enterprise and have a demonstrated appreciation of the problems associated with prison management.

(f) To apply for and administer grants and contracts of all kinds.

(g) To establish, notwithstanding any other provision of law, procedures governing the purchase of raw materials, component parts, and any other goods and services which may be needed by the authority or in the operation of any enterprise under its jurisdiction. Such procedures shall contain provisions for appeal to the board from any action taken in connection with them.

(h) To establish, expand, diminish, or discontinue industrial, agricultural and service enterprises under its jurisdiction to enable the authority to operate as a self-supporting organization, to provide as much employment for inmates as is feasible, and to provide diversified work activities to minimize the impact on existing private industry in the state.

(i) To hold public hearings pursuant to paragraph (h) above to provide an opportunity for persons or organizations who may be affected to appear and present testimony concerning the plans and activities of the authority. The authority shall assure adequate public notice of such hearings. No new industrial, agricultural, or service enterprise which involves a gross annual production of more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) shall be established unless and until a hearing concerning the enterprise has been held by the authority. The authority shall take into consideration the effect of a proposed enterprise on California industry and shall not approve the establishment of the enterprise if it would have a comprehensive and substantial adverse impact on a particular California business, enterprise, or industry.

(j) To periodically determine the prices at which activities, supplies, and services shall be sold.

(k) To report to the Legislature in writing, on or before February 1 of each year, regarding:

(1) The financial activity and condition of each enterprise under its jurisdiction.

(2) The plans of the board regarding any significant changes in existing operations.

(3) The plans of the board regarding the development of new enterprises.

(4) A breakdown, by institution, of the number of prisoners at each institution, working in enterprises under the jurisdiction of the authority, said number to indicate the number of prisoners which are not working full time.

CHAPTER 181

An act to amend Sections 751.7, 777, and 778 of the Financial Code, relating to banks, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 8, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State July 11, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 751.7 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

751.7. A commercial bank may provide real estate appraisal services and may charge a fee therefor.

SEC. 2. Section 777 of the Financial Code, as added by Chapter 1196 of the Statutes of 1982, is amended to read:

777. A commercial bank may provide management consulting advice and services and may charge a fee therefor.

SEC. 3. Section 778 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

778. (a) A commercial bank may provide electronic data-processing services and may charge a fee therefor.

(b) As used in this section, "electronic data-processing" means the process that encompasses all computerized and auxiliary automated information handling, including systems analysis and design, conversion of data, computer programming, information storage and retrieval, data transmission, requisite system controls, simulation, and all the related operator-machine interaction.

Prior to the January 1, 1983, effective date of Sections 751.7, 777, and 778 of the Financial Code, a commercial bank was not specifically prohibited to engage in the real estate appraisal business, the management consulting business, and in electronic data-processing. Section 206 of the Corporations Code provides that a corporation subject to the Banking Law may engage in any business activity which is not prohibited by statute or regulation.

The operative date of Sections 751.7, 777, and 778 of the Financial Code is delayed until the earlier of specified federal action or January 1, 1984. The delayed operative date provisions of these sections implies that these activities are prohibited until these sections become operative.

Many commercial banks are now offering real estate appraisal, management consulting, and electronic data-processing services. Unless the delayed operative date provisions in Sections 751.7, 777, and 778 of the Financial Code are repealed, confusion will exist as to whether commercial banks should be required to cease these activities until January 1, 1984, or the effective date of federal legislation or regulation. Since the adverse impact due to the uncertainty created by these sections is great while no benefits accrue to the state or the public generally, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 182

An act to add Section 14165.95 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to Medi-Cal.

[Approved by Governor July 8, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 11, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14165.95 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14165.95. On or before February 1, 1984, the commission shall submit to the Legislature an evaluation of its inpatient hospital service procedure, including, but not limited to, the following:

- (a) The recommended duration of contracts.
- (b) The effect of the disclosure of executed contracts on the price levels of subsequently negotiated contracts.
- (c) The conditions under which contractors failing to secure a contract on a first bid should be allowed to rebid.
- (d) The effectiveness of contract provisions designed to ensure access to hospital services and a high quality of care.
- (e) The effect of flat per diem rates on the variety of cases treated by contract hospitals.

The evaluation provided for by this section shall be accompanied by a recommendation for any relevant legislation deemed necessary by the commission.

CHAPTER 183

An act to amend Sections 68512 and 69141 of, and to repeal Section 69140 of the Government Code, relating to courts of appeal.

[Approved by Governor July 8, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 11, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 68512 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68512. The Chairman of the Judicial Council, with the approval of the Director of Finance, may adjust the salaries of the following judicial officers by the same percent as is granted state employees of comparable salary level as a general salary increase after July 1, 1969:

(a) The Clerk of the Supreme Court whose salary is set by Section 68841.

(b) The reporter of decisions for the Supreme Court and of the courts of appeal whose salary is set by Section 68901.

SEC. 2. Section 69140 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 69141 of the Government Code is amended to read:

69141. Each court of appeal may appoint and employ during its pleasure a clerk, and such phonographic reporters, assistants, secretaries, librarians, and other employees as it deems necessary for the performance of the duties and exercise of the powers conferred by law upon it and its members. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, each such court may determine the duties and, subject to subdivision (b) of Section 19825 of the Government Code, fix and pay the compensation of all such officers and employees.

All salaries and expenses incurred under this section shall be paid from the funds appropriated for the use of such courts, when approved by order of the courts.

SEC. 4. It is the intent of the Legislature that this act shall not in any manner affect the accrued sick leave of clerks of the courts of appeal.

CHAPTER 184

An act to amend Section 6014 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor July 8, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 11, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6014 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6014. "Seller" includes every person engaged in the business of selling tangible personal property of a kind the gross receipts from the retail sale of which are required to be included in the measure of the sales tax.

For the purposes of this section, the phrase "tangible personal property of a kind the gross receipts from the retail sale of which are required to be included in the measure of the sales tax" includes all tangible personal property of a kind the gross receipts from the retail sale of which is, or would be, required to be included in the measure of the sales tax if sold at retail, whether or not the tangible personal property is ever sold at retail or is suitable for sale at retail.

SEC. 2. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. However, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the first day of the first calendar quarter commencing more than 90 days after the effective date of this act.

CHAPTER 185

An act to amend Section 9706 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 8, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State July 11, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9706 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

9706. (a) Application for partial year registration in conjunction with an application for original California registration shall be made by the owner within 20 days of the date the vehicle first becomes subject to California registration. Any application for partial year registration submitted after that 20-day period shall not be registered for a partial year and the vehicle shall be subject to payment of the fees for the entire registration year. In addition to the fee for the registration year, a penalty as specified in Section 9554 shall be added to the fee for registration.

(b) Any application to renew registration for a part of the remainder of the registration year or for the entire remainder of the registration year shall be made prior to midnight of the expiration date of the last issued registration certificate. Application shall be made upon presentation of the last issued registration card or of a potential registration issued by the department for use at the time of renewal and by payment of the proper partial year fees, or, if renewal is for the remainder of the registration year, by payment of the annual fee provided by Section 9400, as reduced pursuant to Section 9407. Any application submitted after the expiration date of the last issued registration certificate which is not accompanied by a certificate of nonoperation as provided in Section 9708 shall be refused partial year registration and shall be subject to payment of the full fees for the registration year or remainder thereof. In addition to the fee for the registration year or remainder thereof, a penalty as specified in Section 9554 shall be added to the fee for renewal of registration.

(c) In order to obtain partial year registration or renewal of partial year registration for a period of less than three months, application shall be made prior to the date the vehicle is first operated, moved, or left standing on the highways. Partial year registration or renewal of partial year registration may be obtained for a minimum of three months when application is made after, but within 20 days of the date the vehicle is first operated, moved, or left standing on the highways.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (c), the owner of any vehicle being moved or operated for the purpose of providing support to firefighting operations while the vehicle or owner is under contract to the United States Forestry Service, the United States Department of Interior, Bureau of Land Management, the Department of Forestry, or the Office of Emergency Services may obtain partial year registration when application is made after, but within 20 days of the date, the vehicle is first operated, moved, or left standing on the highway, provided that the owner has obtained a letter of authorization from the Department of Motor Vehicles prior to the date that the vehicle is first operated, moved, or left standing on the highway.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for this act to become effective prior to this year's fire season commencing in June, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

CHAPTER 186

An act to amend Section 66796.33 of the Government Code, relating to solid waste.

[Approved by Governor July 8, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 11, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 66796.33 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66796.33. (a) When issuing, modifying, or revising any solid waste facilities permit, the enforcement agency shall ensure that primary consideration is given to preventing environmental damage and that the long-term protection of the environment is the guiding criterion. To achieve these purposes, the enforcement agency may prohibit or condition the handling or disposal of solid waste to protect, rehabilitate, or enhance the environmental quality of the state or to mitigate adverse environmental impacts. If an operator holds a permit issued under subdivision (a) of Section 66796.30, the permit shall control, and no condition imposed under this section shall be more restrictive than the terms of the permit issued under subdivision (a) of Section 66796.30.

(b) The enforcement agency may include in a solid waste facilities permit a reasonable time schedule for existing facilities for compliance with the standards adopted by the board and standards and conditions contained in the approved county solid waste management plan.

(c) Any permit may be suspended, modified, or revoked by the enforcement agency after a hearing for cause, including, but not limited to, any of the following:

(1) Intentional or negligent violation of any term or condition contained in the permit.

(2) Obtaining the permit by misrepresentation or failure to disclose fully all relevant facts.

(3) Failure to fulfill the terms of a compliance schedule developed pursuant to Section 66796.39.

(d) Any solid waste facilities permit issued, modified, or revised under this chapter shall be reviewed and, if necessary, revised at least every five years.

(e) The enforcement agency may suspend or revoke the permit of any solid waste facility designed to convert solid waste from offsite sources into energy or synthetic fuels if the facility utilizes recyclable materials for conversion to energy and if the local agency in whose jurisdiction the materials are collected requires, by ordinance, contract, or otherwise, that recyclable materials within the jurisdiction of that local agency be converted into energy at that facility. This subdivision does not otherwise restrict the ability of a solid waste facility to purchase, collect, transport, or process recyclable materials. For purposes of this subdivision, "local agency" has the same meaning as in subdivision (a) of Section 66787 and "recyclable materials" means discarded paper, glass, cardboard, plastic, ferrous metal, or aluminum which has been segregated from other solid waste materials for the purpose of reuse or recycling, except that recyclable materials do not include materials which a local agency, having jurisdiction over the locations where these materials exist, determines could be potentially harmful to the public health, or materials which create a public nuisance, as defined in Section 3480 of the Civil Code.

CHAPTER 187

An act to amend Section 798.87 of the Civil Code, relating to mobilehomes.

[Approved by Governor July 8, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State July 11, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 798.87 of the Civil Code is amended to read:
798.87. (a) The substantial failure of the management to provide and maintain physical improvements in the common facilities in good working order and condition shall be deemed a public nuisance. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 3491, such a nuisance only may be remedied by a civil action or abatement.

(b) The substantial violation of a mobilehome park rule shall be deemed a public nuisance. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 3491, such a nuisance only may be remedied by a civil action or abatement.

CHAPTER 188

An act to amend Section 1031 of the Government Code, and to amend Section 288.1 of the Penal Code, relating to psychology.

[Approved by Governor July 8, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 11, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1031 of the Government Code is amended to read:

1031. Each class of public officers or employees declared by law to be peace officers shall meet all of the following minimum standards:

(a) Be a citizen of the United States or a permanent resident alien who is eligible for and has applied for citizenship.

(b) Be at least 18 years of age.

(c) Be fingerprinted for purposes of search of local, state, and national fingerprint files to disclose any criminal record.

(d) Be of good moral character, as determined by a thorough background investigation.

(e) Be a high school graduate or pass the general education development test indicating high school graduation level; provided that this subdivision shall not apply to any public officer or employee who was employed, prior to the effective date of the amendment of this section made at the 1971 Regular Session of the Legislature, in any position declared by law prior to the effective date of such amendment to be peace officer positions.

(f) Be found to be free from any physical, emotional, or mental condition which might adversely affect the exercise of the powers of a peace officer. Physical condition shall be evaluated by a licensed physician and surgeon. Emotional and mental condition shall be evaluated by a licensed physician and surgeon or by a licensed psychologist who has a doctoral degree in psychology and at least five years of postgraduate experience in the diagnosis and treatment of emotional and mental disorders.

This section shall not be construed to preclude the adoption of additional or higher standards, including age.

SEC. 2. Section 288.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

288.1. Any person convicted of committing any lewd or lascivious act including any of the acts constituting other crimes provided for in Part 1 of this code upon or with the body, or any part or member thereof, of a child under the age of 14 years shall not have his sentence suspended until the court obtains a report from a reputable psychiatrist, or from a reputable psychologist who meets the standards set forth in Section 1027, as to the mental condition of that person.

CHAPTER 189

An act to amend Sections 8520, 8521, and 8522 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to structural pest control.

[Approved by Governor July 8, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 11, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8520 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8520. There is in the Department of Consumer Affairs a Structural Pest Control Board, which consists of seven members.

Subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the director by Division 1 (commencing with Section 100) of this code, the board is vested with the power to and shall administer the provisions of this chapter.

SEC. 2. Section 8521 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8521. The board is composed of seven members, three of whom shall be, and shall have been for a period of not less than five years preceding the date of their appointment, operators licensed under this chapter actively engaged in the business of pest control and who are residents of this state, and four public members who shall not be licentiates of the board.

SEC. 3. Section 8522 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8522. Members of the board shall be appointed for a term of four years, subject to removal by the appointing power at his or her pleasure.

Vacancies shall be filled by the appointing power for the unexpired term.

Each member shall hold office until the appointment and qualification of his successor or until one year shall have elapsed since the expiration of the term for which he was appointed, whichever first occurs. No person shall serve as a member of the board for more than two consecutive terms.

Each appointment shall be for a four-year term expiring June 1 of the fourth year following the year in which the previous term expires.

The Governor shall appoint two of the public members and the two licensed members qualified as provided in Section 8521. The Senate Rules Committee and the Speaker of the Assembly shall each appoint a public member, and their initial appointment shall be made to fill, respectively, the first and second public member vacancies which occur on or after January 1, 1983.

The Governor shall appoint the member who is a licentiate of the board provided at the 1983 portion of the 1983-84 Regular Session of the Legislature on or before January 15, 1984, and that member's term shall expire on January 15, 1988. Each appointment thereafter shall be for a four-year term expiring on January 15th.

CHAPTER 190

An act to amend Section 31496.3 of the Government Code, relating to the County Employees Retirement Law of 1937, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 8, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 11, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 31496.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

31496.3. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions contained in this section govern the construction of this article.

(a) "Board" means the board of retirement.

(b) "Employer" means the county or district or agency whose employees are members of the retirement system of the county.

(c) "Federal system" means the Old Age and Survivors Insurance provisions of the Social Security Act.

(d) "Final compensation" means the average annual compensation earnable by a general member during any three years, whether or not consecutive, elected by the member at or before the time an application for retirement is filed or, if no election is made, during the three years in which the member or former member last earned compensation preceding retirement. If a member or former member has less than three years of service, final compensation shall be determined by dividing total compensation by the number of months of service credited to the member or former member and multiplying by 12. In no event shall final compensation include any disability benefits received by the member or former member under a disability plan provided by the employer.

(e) "Member" or "general member" means an employee hired on a permanent basis, as defined by the employer, except an employee eligible for safety membership.

(f) "Primary insurance amount" means the monthly retirement benefit payable under the federal system at the age of 65.

(g) "Service" means the period of uninterrupted employment of a member and the time in which a member or former member (1) is totally disabled, and (2) is receiving disability benefits or is eligible to receive disability benefits either during or after any elimination or qualifying period, under a disability plan provided by the employer.

Except as otherwise herein provided, a member shall not be credited with service for any period of time in which the member is absent from work without pay.

Unless otherwise provided, service shall not include military service or public service other than service with the employer.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a member who has elected or transferred to the plan created by this article and who is terminated for any reason and is later reemployed shall receive credit at retirement for his or her service rendered prior to termination if the reemployment occurs within two years of termination.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that the benefits authorized by this act may be available at the earliest possible time to the number of former employees who have returned to work and desire to elect for these benefits, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 191

An act to amend Section 11019 of the Government Code, and to add Sections 1797.108 and 1797.110 to, and to repeal Section 419 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to emergency medical care, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 8, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 11, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11019 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11019. (a) Any department or authority specified in subdivision (b) may, upon determining that an advance payment is essential for the effective implementation of a program within the provisions of this section, and to the extent funds are available, and not more frequently than once each fiscal year, advance to a community-based private nonprofit agency with which it has contracted, pursuant to federal law and related state law, for the delivery of services, not to exceed 25 percent of the annual allocation to be made pursuant to the contract and those laws, during the fiscal year to the private nonprofit agency. Advances in excess of 25 percent may be made on contracts financed by a federal program when the advances are not prohibited by federal guidelines. Advance payments may be provided for services to be performed under any contract with a total annual contract amount of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) or less, or which the State Department of Finance determines has been entered into with any community-based private nonprofit agency with modest reserves and potential cash flow problems. No advance payment shall be granted if the total annual contract exceeds two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000), without the prior approval of the State Department of Finance.

The specific departments and authority mentioned in subdivision (b) shall develop a plan to establish control procedures for advance payments. Each plan shall include a procedure whereby the department or authority determines whether or not an advance payment is essential for the effective implementation of a particular program being funded. Each plan is required to be approved by the Department of Finance.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall apply to the Emergency Medical Service Authority, the Department of Aging, the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs, the Department of Corrections, the Employment Development Department, the State Department of Health Services, the State Department of Mental Health, the Department of Rehabilitation, the State Department of Social Services, the Department of the Youth Authority, and the Department of Education.

Subdivision (a) shall also apply to the Health and Welfare Agency which may make advance payments, pursuant to the requirements of that subdivision, to multipurpose senior services projects as established in Sections 9400 to 9413, inclusive, of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(c) A county may, upon determining that an advance payment is essential for the effective implementation of a program within the provisions of this section, and to the extent funds are available, and not more frequently than once each fiscal year, advance to a community-based private nonprofit agency with which it has contracted, pursuant to federal law and related state law, for the delivery of services, not to exceed 25 percent of the annual allocation to be made pursuant to the contract and those laws, during the fiscal year to the private nonprofit agency.

SEC. 2. Section 419 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 1797.108 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1797.108. Subject to the availability of funds appropriated therefor, the authority may contract with local EMS agencies to provide funding assistance to those agencies for planning, organizing, implementing, and maintaining regional emergency medical services systems.

In addition, the authority may provide special funding to multicounty EMS agencies which serve rural areas with extensive tourism, as determined by the authority, to reduce the burden on the rural EMS agency of providing the increased emergency medical services required due to that tourism.

Each local or multicounty EMS agency receiving funding pursuant to this section shall make a quarterly report to the authority on the functioning of the local EMS system. The authority may continue to transfer appropriated funds to the local EMS agency upon satisfactory operation.

SEC. 4. Section 1797.110 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1797.110. The Legislature finds that programs funded through the authority are hindered by the length of time required for the state process to execute approved contracts and payment of vendor claims. These programs include, but are not limited to, general fund assistance to rural multicounty EMS agencies and dispersal of federal grant moneys for EMS systems development to local EMS agencies. This hardship is particularly felt by new or rural community based EMS agencies with modest reserves and cash flow problems. It is the intent of the Legislature that advance payment authority be established for the authority in order to alleviate such problems for those types of contractors to the extent possible.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the authority may, to the extent funds are available, provide for advanced payments under any financial assistance contract which the authority determines has been entered into with any small, rural, or new EMS agency with modest reserves and potential cash flow problems, as determined by the authority. Such programs include, but are not limited to, local county or multicounty EMS agencies.

No advance payment or aggregate of advance payments made pursuant to this section shall exceed 25 percent of the total annual contract amount. No advance payment should be made pursuant to this section if the applicable federal law prohibits advance payment.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Following the expiration of federal eligibility, it is vital that the programs provided for in this act continue. Therefore, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 192

An act to amend Section 5102 of the Civil Code, relating to marriage.

[Approved by Governor July 8, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 11, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5102 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

5102. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, neither husband nor wife has any interest in the separate property of the other, but neither can be excluded from the other's dwelling except as provided in Section 4359 or, in proceedings under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 4400) or Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 4425) of Title 2 of this part, or under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 4500) of Title 3 of this part, upon application of either party in the manner provided by Section 527 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the court may order the temporary exclusion of either party from the family dwelling or from the dwelling of the other until the final determination of the proceeding, upon a showing that the party to be excluded has assaulted or threatens to assault the other party, and that physical or emotional harm would otherwise result to the other party or any other person under the care, custody, or control of the other party, or, upon application and hearing, the court may order such temporary exclusion of either party upon a showing that physical or emotional harm would otherwise result.

(b) If notice of the pendency of a proceeding for separation or annulment or dissolution of marriage is recorded in any county in which the husband or wife resides on real property that is the separate property of the other, the real property shall not for a period of three months thereafter be transferred, encumbered, or otherwise disposed of voluntarily or involuntarily without the joinder of both spouses, unless the court otherwise orders.

CHAPTER 193

An act to repeal and add Section 2435 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to the Board of Medical Quality Assurance.

[Approved by Governor July 8, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 11, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2435 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 2435 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

2435. The following fees apply to physician's and surgeon's certificates, certificates of drugless practitioners, and certificates to practice midwifery:

(a) Each applicant for a certificate based upon a national board diplomate certificate, each applicant for a certificate based on reciprocity, and each applicant for a certificate based upon written examination, shall pay a nonrefundable application and processing fee of one hundred dollars ($100) at the time the application is filed.

(b) Each applicant for a certificate by written examination, unless otherwise provided by this chapter, shall pay an examination fee fixed by the board, which shall equal the actual cost to the board of the purchase of the written examination furnished by the organization pursuant to Section 2176, plus the actual cost to the board of administering the written examination. Such actual cost to the board of administering the written examination that shall be charged to the applicant shall not exceed one hundred dollars ($100).

(c) Each applicant who qualifies for a certificate, as a condition precedent to its issuance, in addition to other fees required herein, shall pay an initial license fee, if any. The initial license fee shall be fixed by the board at an amount not less than two hundred dollars ($200), and not to exceed three hundred twenty-five dollars ($325).

(d) The biennial renewal fee shall be fixed by the board at an amount not less than two hundred dollars ($200), and not to exceed three hundred twenty-five dollars ($325). Any licensee enrolled in an approved residency program shall be required to pay only 50 percent of the biennial renewal fee at the time of his or her first renewal.

(e) Notwithstanding Section 163.5, the delinquency fee is 10 percent of the biennial renewal fee.

(f) The duplicate certificate, endorsement, certification, and letter of good standing fees shall each be ten dollars ($10).

(g) It is the intent of the Legislature that, in setting fees pursuant to this section, the board shall seek to maintain a reserve in the Contingent Fund of the Board of Medical Quality Assurance equal to approximately four months' operating expenditures.

CHAPTER 194

An act to amend Sections 26820.8 and 72056.5 of, and to add and repeal Section 68090.2 of, the Government Code, relating to courts, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 11, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 12, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 26820.8 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26820.8. The maximum amounts set forth in Sections 26820.4, 26826, and 26827, shall be deemed adjusted, effective January 1, 1983, and on January 1 of each odd-numbered year thereafter, to reflect changes in the value of the dollar. Such adjustments shall be made by multiplying the base amounts by the percent change in the California Consumer Price Index as compiled and reported by the California Department of Industrial Relations with the result rounded to the nearest dollar; however, any adjustment for any two-year period shall not exceed 6 percent per biennium.

SEC. 2. Section 68090.2 is added to the Government Code, to read:

68090.2. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 68090, the board of supervisors of a county may by resolution adopted prior to August 1, 1983, fix the amounts to be charged as total filing fees in the courts within the county pursuant to Sections 26820.4, 26826, 26827, 72055, and 72056, and establish the components thereof, for the period August 1, 1983, to December 31, 1984. A copy of any such resolution shall be forwarded promptly to the Judicial Council.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 26820.8 and 72056.5, the adjustment for the two-year period covering calendar years 1983 and 1984 may exceed 6 percent per biennium when any adjustment in excess of 6 percent for those two years reflects a law library fee increase pursuant to Section 6322.1 of the Business and Professions Code; however, in no event shall the adjustment exceed 10 percent per biennium.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1985, and as of such date is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 72056.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

72056.5. The maximum amounts set forth in Sections 72055 and 72056, shall be deemed adjusted, effective January 1, 1983, and on January 1 of each odd-numbered year thereafter, to reflect changes in the value of the dollar. Such adjustments shall be made by multiplying the base amounts by the percent change in the California Consumer Price Index as compiled and reported by the California Department of Industrial Relations, with the result rounded to the nearest dollar; however, any adjustment for any two-year period shall not exceed 6 percent per biennium.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to coordinate the fee structure for municipal and superior courts, it is necessary that this statute take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 195

An act to amend Sections 18016.5, 50516, 50517.5, 50531, 50661, 50701, 50778, and 51653 of, and to amend and add Section 18502.5 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to housing, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Became law without Governor's signature. Filed with
Secretary of State July 12, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18016.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18016.5. (a) The Mobilehome Revolving Fund is continued in existence and renamed the Mobilehome-Manufactured Home Revolving Fund. Money transferred to, or deposited in, the fund is continuously appropriated to the department notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, for expenditure in carrying out the provisions of this part. All fees or other moneys accruing to the department pursuant to this part shall, except as otherwise expressly provided by law, be deposited in the fund.

(b) Total money contained in the Mobilehome-Manufactured Home Revolving Fund on June 30 of each fiscal year shall not exceed the amount of money needed for operating expenses for one year for the enforcement of this part. If the total money contained in the fund exceeds this amount, the commission or department, as appropriate, shall make appropriate reductions in the schedule of fees authorized by this part.

SEC. 2. Section 18502.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18502.5. (a) There is hereby established in the State Treasury the Mobilehome Parks Revolving Fund into which funds collected by the department pursuant to this part shall be deposited. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, money deposited in the fund is continuously appropriated to the department for expenditure in carrying out the provisions of this part.

(b) Notwithstanding any maximum fees set by this part, the department may, by regulation, set fees charged by the department for all permits and for the department's activities mandated by this part. The fees shall be set with the primary objective that the aggregate revenue deposited in the Mobilehome Parks Revolving Fund shall not, on an annual basis, exceed the costs of the department's activities mandated by this part.

(c) No proposed increase in fees may be effective any sooner than 45 days after written notification thereof is provided to the Chairman of the Joint Legislative Audit Committee and the Auditor General. Upon receipt of the notification, the Auditor General may prepare, a report to the Legislature which indicates whether the proposed increase is appropriate and consistent with the provisions of this part.

(d) The total money contained in the Mobilehome Parks Revolving Fund on June 30 of each fiscal year shall not exceed the amount of money needed for the department's operating expenses for one year for the enforcement of this part. If the total money contained in the fund exceeds this amount, the department shall make appropriate reductions in the schedule of fees authorized by this section.

(e) Any city, county, or city and county which, pursuant to this section, transmits any annual mobilehome park permit-to-operate fees to the state, may, by ordinance, add a surcharge to these fees to defray its administrative costs in transmitting the fees to the department, provided the aggregate amount of the surcharge does not exceed the actual administrative costs of transmittal.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1984, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before that date, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 3. Section 18502.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

18502.5. (a) There is hereby established in the State Treasury the Mobilehome Parks Revolving Fund into which funds collected by the department pursuant to this part shall be deposited. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, money deposited in the fund is continuously appropriated to the department for expenditure in carrying out the provisions of this part.

(b) Notwithstanding any maximum fees set by this part, the department may, by regulation, set fees charged by the department for all permits and for the department's activities mandated by this part. The fees shall be set with the primary objective that the aggregate revenue deposited in the Mobilehome Parks Revolving Fund shall not, on an annual basis, exceed the costs of the department's activities mandated by this part.

(c) No proposed increase in fees may be effective any sooner than 45 days after written notification thereof is provided to the Chairman of the Joint Legislative Audit Committee and the Auditor General. Upon receipt of the notification, the Auditor General may prepare, a report to the Legislature which indicates whether the proposed increase is appropriate and consistent with the provisions of this part.

(d) The total money contained in the Mobilehome Parks Revolving Fund on June 30 of each fiscal year shall not exceed the amount of money needed for the department's operating expenses for one year for the enforcement of this part. If the total money contained in the fund exceeds this amount, the department shall make appropriate reductions in the schedule of fees authorized by this section.

(e) This section shall become operative January 1, 1984.

SEC. 4. Section 50516 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50516. There is hereby continued in existence in the State Treasury the Housing Predevelopment Loan Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, all money in the Housing Predevelopment Loan Fund, including any interest on loans made therefrom, is continuously appropriated to the department for carrying out the purposes of this section and Section 50517. The Housing Predevelopment Loan Fund shall be a revolving loan fund which shall be used to make predevelopment loans to local agencies or nonprofit corporations for assisted housing for persons of low income in rural areas.

SEC. 5. Section 50517.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50517.5. (a) The department shall establish a Farmworker Housing Grant Program under which, subject to the availability of funds therefor, grants shall be made to local public entities and nonprofit corporations for the construction or rehabilitation of housing for agricultural employees and their families. Under such program, grants may also be made for the purchase of land in connection with housing assisted pursuant to this section and for the construction and rehabilitation of related support facilities necessary to such housing. No part of a grant made pursuant to this section may be used for project organization or planning.

Such program shall be administered by the Director of Housing and Community Development and such officers and employees of the department as he may designate.

It is the intent of the Legislature that, in administering the program, the director shall facilitate, to the greatest extent possible, the construction and rehabilitation of permanent dwellings for year-round occupancy and ownership by agricultural employees, including ownership of the sites upon which such dwellings are located.

(b) The Farmworker Housing Grant Fund is hereby created in the State Treasury. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, all money in the fund is continuously appropriated to the department for making grants pursuant to this section and for costs incurred by the department in administering such grant program.

There shall be paid into the fund the following:

(1) Any moneys appropriated and made available by the Legislature for purposes of the fund.

(2) Any moneys which the department receives in repayment or return of grants from the fund, including any interest therefrom.

(3) Any other moneys which may be made available to the department for the purposes of this chapter from any other source or sources.

(c) Grants made pursuant to this section shall be matched by grantees with at least equal amounts of federal moneys, other cash investments, or in-kind contributions.

(d) With respect to the supervision of grantees, the department shall do the following:

(1) Establish minimum capital reserves to be maintained by grantees.

(2) Fix and alter from time to time a schedule of rents such as may be necessary to provide residents of housing assisted pursuant to this section with affordable rents to the extent consistent with the maintenance of the financial integrity of the housing project. No grantee shall increase the rent on any unit constructed or rehabilitated with the assistance of funds granted pursuant to this section without the prior permission of the department, which shall be given only if the grantee affirmatively demonstrates that such increase is required to defray necessary operating costs or avoid jeopardizing the fiscal integrity of the housing project.

(3) Determine standards for, and control selection by grantees of, tenants and subsequent purchasers of housing constructed or rehabilitated with the assistance of funds granted pursuant to this section.

(4) Require as a condition precedent to a grant of funds that the grantee be record owner in fee of the assisted real property and that such grantee shall have entered into a written agreement with the department binding upon the grantee and successors in interest to the grantee. The agreement shall include the conditions under which the funds advanced may be repaid. The agreement shall include provisions for a lien on the assisted real property in favor of the State of California for the purpose of securing performance of the agreement. The agreement shall also provide that the lien shall endure until released by the Director of Housing and Community Development.

In the event that funds granted pursuant to this section constitute less than 25 percent of the total development cost or value, whichever is applicable, of a project assisted under this section, the department may adopt, by regulation, criteria for determining the number of units in a project to which the restrictions on occupancy contained in the agreement apply. In no event may such regulations provide for the application of the agreement to a percentage of units in a project which is less than the percentage of total development costs which funds granted pursuant to this section represent.

Contemporaneously with the disbursement of the initial funds to a grantee, the department shall cause to be recorded, in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the assisted real property is located, a notice of lien executed by the Director of Housing and Community Development. The notice of lien shall refer to the agreement required by this paragraph for which it secures and it shall include a legal description of the assisted real property which is subject to the lien. The notice of lien shall be indexed by the recorder in the Grantor Index to the name of the grantee and in the Grantee Index to the name of the State of California, Department of Housing and Community Development. The department shall adopt by regulation criteria for the determination of the lien period. Such regulation shall take into account whether the property is held by multifamily rental, single-family ownership, or cooperative ownership and whether it is new construction or rehabilitative construction.

Pursuant to regulations adopted by the department, the department is authorized to execute and cause to be recorded in the office of the recorder of the county, in which a notice of lien has been recorded, a subordination of the lien. The regulations adopted by the department shall provide that any subordination of the lien shall not jeopardize the security interest of the state and shall further the interest of farmworker housing. The recitals contained in such subordination shall be conclusive in favor of any bona fide purchaser or lender relying thereon.

(5) Regulate the terms of occupancy agreements or resale controls, to be used in housing assisted pursuant to this section.

(6) Provide bilingual services and publications, or require grantees to do so, as necessary to implement the purposes of this section.

(7) The agreement between the department and the grantee shall provide, among other things, that:

(A) Upon the sale or conveyance of the real property, or any part thereof, for use other than for agricultural employee occupancy, the grantee or its successors shall, as a condition for the release of the lien provided pursuant to paragraph (4), repay to the fund the department's grant funds.

(B) Upon the sale or conveyance of the real property, or any part thereof, for continued agricultural employee occupancy, the transferee shall assume the obligation of the transferor and the real property shall be transferred to the new owner; provided that such person agrees to abide by the agreement entered into between the transferor and the department and that the new owner takes the property subject to the lien provided pursuant to paragraph (4), except that such lien shall at the time of the transfer of the property to the new owner be extended for such additional lien period, as determined by the department pursuant to paragraph (4), and the new owner shall not be credited with the lien period that had run from the time the transferor had acquired the property to the time of transfer to the new owner, unless the department determines that it is in the best interest of the state and consistent with the intent of this section to so credit the lien period to the new owner. However, such lien shall have priority as of the recording date of the lien for the original grantee, pursuant to paragraph (4) of this subdivision.

(e) The department may do any of the following with respect to grantees:

(1) Through its agents or employees enter upon and inspect the lands, buildings, and equipment of a grantee, including books and records, at any time before, during, or after construction or rehabilitation of units assisted pursuant to this section. However, there shall be no entry or inspection of any unit which is occupied, whether or not any occupant is actually present, without the consent of the occupant.

(2) Supervise the operation and maintenance of any housing assisted pursuant to this section and order such repairs as may be necessary to protect the public interest or the health, safety, or welfare of occupants of the housing.

(f) The department shall include in its annual report required by Section 50408, a current report of the Farmworker Housing Grant Program. Such report shall include, but need not be limited to: (1) the number of households assisted, (2) the average income of households assisted and the distribution of annual incomes among assisted households, (3) the rents paid by households assisted, (4) the number and amount of grants made to each nonprofit corporation and local public entity in the preceding year, (5) the dollar value of funding derived from sources other than the state for each project receiving a grant under this section, and an identification of each such source, (6) recommendations, as needed, to improve operations of the program and respecting the desirability of extending its application to other groups in rural areas identified by the department as having special need for state housing assistance, and (7) the number of manufactured housing units assisted under this section.

(g) As used in this section:

(1) "Agricultural employee" has the same meaning as specified in subdivision (b) of Section 1140.4 of the Labor Code.

(2) "Housing" may include, but need not be limited to, conventionally constructed units, and manufactured housing.

SEC. 6. Section 50531 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50531. There is hereby created in the State Treasury the Urban

Housing Development Loan Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, all money in the loan fund is hereby continuously appropriated to the department for carrying out the purposes of this chapter. The loan fund shall be a revolving loan fund which shall be used to make loans to local agencies or nonprofit corporations for assisted housing in urban areas, for occupancy primarily by persons of low income.

All interest, dividends, and pecuniary gains from investments or deposits of moneys in the loan fund shall accrue to the loan fund notwithstanding Section 16305.7 of the Government Code.

There shall be paid into the fund the following:

(a) Any moneys appropriated and made available by the Legislature for the purposes of the fund.

(b) Any moneys which the department receives in repayment of loans made from the fund, including any interest on loans made therefrom.

(c) Any other moneys which may be made available to the department for the purposes of this chapter from any other source or sources.

SEC. 7. Section 50661 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50661. (a) There is hereby created in the State Treasury the Housing Rehabilitation Loan Fund. All interest or other increments resulting from the investment of moneys in the Housing Rehabilitation Loan Fund shall be deposited in the fund, notwithstanding Section 16305.7 of the Government Code. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, all money in the fund is continuously appropriated to the department for the following purposes:

(1) For making deferred-payment rehabilitation loans for financing all or a portion of the cost of rehabilitating existing housing to meet rehabilitation standards as provided in this chapter.

(2) For making deferred-payment loans as provided in Sections 50669 and 50670.

(3) For related administrative expenses of the department.

(4) For related administrative costs of nonprofit corporations and local public entities contracting with the department pursuant to Section 50663 in an amount, if any, as determined by the department, to enable the entities and corporations to implement a program pursuant to this chapter. The department shall ensure that not less than 20 percent of the funds loaned pursuant to this chapter shall be allocated to rural areas.

(b) There shall be paid into the fund the following:

(1) Any moneys appropriated and made available by the Legislature for purposes of the fund.

(2) Any moneys which the department receives in repayment of loans made from the fund, including any interest thereon.

(3) Any other moneys which may be made available to the department for the purposes of this chapter from any other source or sources.

SEC. 8. Section 50701 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50701. There is hereby created in the State Treasury the Land Purchase Fund. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, all money in the Land Purchase Fund is continuously appropriated to the department for the purpose of making loans to eligible sponsors of assisted housing for land purchase costs incurred by them in connection with the provision of housing for low-income persons in rural areas.

All interest, dividends, and pecuniary gains from investments or deposits of moneys in the loan fund shall accrue to the fund notwithstanding Section 16305.7 of the Government Code.

There shall be paid into the fund the following:

(1) Any moneys appropriated and made available by the Legislature for purposes of the fund.

(2) Any moneys which the department receives in repayment or return of loans made from the fund, including any interest thereon.

(3) Any other moneys which may be made available to the department for the purposes of this chapter from any other source or sources.

SEC. 9. Section 50778 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50778. The Homeownership Assistance Fund is hereby created in the State Treasury and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, is continually appropriated to the department for purposes of this chapter, including Section 50775.5, and for the purposes of Section 50745.1. Any moneys received by the department pursuant to this chapter shall be deposited in such fund. All interest or other increment resulting from investment or deposit of moneys in the fund shall be deposited in the fund, notwithstanding Section 16305.7 of the Government Code. Moneys in the fund shall not be subject to transfer to any other fund pursuant to any provisions of Part 2 (commencing with Section 16300) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, excepting the Surplus Money Investment Fund.

Not less than 50 percent of the moneys in the fund shall be used to assist lower-income households. Not less than 20 percent of the units assisted shall be in rural areas.

Funds available for the purpose of this chapter shall be allocated by the department throughout the state in accordance with identified housing needs.

SEC. 10. Section 51653 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

51653. The Housing Rehabilitation Insurance Fund is hereby renamed the Housing Insurance Fund. All references in any provision of law to the Housing Rehabilitation Insurance Fund shall be deemed to refer to the Housing Insurance Fund. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, all money in the insurance fund is hereby continuously appropriated to the agency without regard to fiscal year for the purpose of insuring loans and bonds pursuant to this part and for the purpose of defraying administrative expenses incurred by the agency in operating such programs of loan and bond insurance. All insurance premiums shall be deposited in the insurance fund.

SEC. 11. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to keep the programs under the so-called "Mobilehome Parks Act" and under the Mobilehomes-Manufactured Housing Act of 1980, the Farmworker Housing Grant Program, the Land Purchase Fund, the Homeownership Assistance Fund, the Housing Rehabilitation Loan Fund, the Urban Housing Development Loan Fund and the Housing Predevelopment Loan Fund running continuously without disruption, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 196

An act to amend Sections 2082, 11101, 11103, and 11104 of, to amend, repeal, and add Sections 3058.5 and 6250 to, and to add and repeal Section 11156 of, the Penal Code, and to amend, repeal, and add Section 1180 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to prisoners and parolees.

[Approved by Governor July 12, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 12, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2082 of the Penal Code is amended to read: 2082. The Director of Corrections shall within 30 days after receiving persons convicted of crime and sentenced to serve terms in the respective prisons under the jurisdiction of the Director of Corrections, except those cases under juvenile court commitment, furnish to the Department of Justice two copies of a report containing the fingerprints and descriptions, including complete details of marks, scars, deformities, or other peculiarities, and a statement of the nature of the offense for which the person is committed. One copy shall be transmitted by the Department of Justice to the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The director shall notify the Department of Justice whenever any of the prisoners dies, escapes, is discharged, released on parole, transferred to or returned from a state hospital, taken out to court or returned therefrom, or whose custody is terminated in any other manner. The Director of Corrections may furnish to the Department of Justice such other fingerprints and information as may be useful for law enforcement purposes. Any expenditures incurred in carrying out the provisions of this section shall be paid for out of the appropriation made for the support of state's prisons or the Department of Corrections.

SEC. 2. Section 3058.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

3058.5. The Department of Corrections shall provide within 10 days, upon request, to the chief of police of a city or the sheriff of a county, information available to the department, including actual, glossy photographs, no smaller than  $3\frac{1}{8}$  x  $3\frac{1}{8}$  inches in size, and, in conjunction with the Department of Justice, fingerprints, concerning persons then on parole who are or may be residing or temporarily domiciled in that city or county.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1987, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1987, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 3058.5 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

3058.5. The Department of Corrections shall provide within 10 days, upon request, to the chief of police of a city or the sheriff of a county, information available to the department, including photographs, concerning persons then on parole who are or may be residing or temporarily domiciled in that city or county.

SEC. 4. Section 6250 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

6250. (a) The Director of Corrections may establish and operate facilities to be known as community correctional centers. No later than 60 days prior to award of a contract for the establishment of such a center, the director shall notify the county board of supervisors or city council in whose jurisdiction the center will be located of the pending contract. The notice may be delivered by hand or sent by any form of mail requiring a return receipt. Failure to provide the notice shall be grounds for extinguishing the contract upon motion of the board of supervisors or city council.

(b) The Director of Corrections shall not change the use of or significantly increase the capacity of a community correctional center established pursuant to subdivision (a) unless the director has first notified the county board of supervisors or city council in whose jurisdiction the center is located at least 30 days prior to such change of use or capacity. Failure to provide the notice shall be grounds for enjoining such change in use or capacity.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1987, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1987, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 5. Section 6250 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

6250. The Director of Corrections may establish and operate facilities to be known as community correctional centers. No later than 60 days prior to award of a contract for the establishment of such a center, the director shall notify the county board of supervisors or city council in whose jurisdiction the center will be located of the pending contract. The notice may be delivered by hand or sent by any form of mail requiring a return receipt. Failure to provide the notice shall be grounds for extinguishing the contract upon motion of the board of supervisors or city council.

SEC. 6. Section 11101 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

11101. The Attorney General shall procure from any available source, and file for record and report in the office of the bureau, all descriptions, information, and measurements of all persons convicted of a felony, or imprisoned for violating any of the military, naval, or criminal laws of the United States, and of all well-known and habitual criminals.

SEC. 7. Section 11103 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

11103. The Attorney General shall keep on file in the office of the bureau a record consisting of duplicates of all measurements, processes, operations, signalitic cards, measurements, and descriptions of all persons confined in penal institutions of the state as far as possible, in accordance with whatever system or systems may be commonly used in the state.

SEC. 8. Section 11104 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

11104. The Attorney General shall file all measurements, information and descriptions received and shall make a complete and systematic record and index, providing a method of convenience, consultation, and comparison.

SEC. 9. Section 11156 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

11156. The notice sent to the chief of police and county sheriff pursuant to Section 11155 shall include an actual glossy photograph no smaller than  $3\frac{1}{8}$  x  $3\frac{1}{8}$  inches in size, in conjunction with the Department of Justice, fingerprints of each inmate in the reentry or work furlough program.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1987, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1987, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 10. Section 1180 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

1180. The Department of the Youth Authority shall provide, within 10 days, upon request to the chief of police of a city or the sheriff of a county information available to the department, including actual, glossy photographs, no smaller than  $3\frac{1}{8}$  x  $3\frac{1}{8}$  inches in size, and, in conjunction with the Department of Justice, fingerprints concerning persons then on parole who are or may be residing or temporarily domiciled in that city or county.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1987, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1987, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 11. Section 1180 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

1180. The Department of the Youth Authority shall provide, within 10 days, upon request to the chief of police of a city or the sheriff of a county information available to the department, including photographs, concerning persons then on parole who are or may be residing or temporarily domiciled in that city or county.

SEC. 12. The provisions of Sections 3, 5, and 11 of this act shall be operative January 1, 1987.

CHAPTER 197

An act to add Section 977.2 to the Penal Code, relating to arraignments.

[Approved by Governor July 12, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State July 12, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 977.2 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

977.2. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 977, the Board of Supervisors of San Diego or Sacramento Counties, or both, with the approval of the presiding judge of the municipal court and in consultation with the district attorney, and the public defender, may establish a pilot project, not to exceed two years in duration, whereby the arraignment of defendants in municipal court on felony charges is conducted by two-way electronic audio-video communication between the defendant and the courtroom in lieu of the physical presence of the defendant in the courtroom. The defendant may be accompanied by his or her attorney, and may enter a plea, during such an arraignment. The defendant shall have the right to make his or her plea while physically present in the courtroom if he or she so requests. Each county conducting a pilot project pursuant to this section shall report annually to the Legislature such data, including costs, benefits, and problems incurred, as shall be specified by the Judicial Council.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a judge may order a defendant's personal appearance in court for arraignment, and shall not pursuant to this section accept a plea of guilty or no contest from a defendant not physically in the courtroom.

CHAPTER 198

An act to amend Section 37700 of the Education Code, relating to schools, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 12, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 12, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 37700 of the Education Code is amended to read:

37700. (a) The following school districts may, independently, operate experimental programs pursuant to this chapter:

(1) The Potter Valley Community Unified School District.

(2) The French Gulch-Whiskeytown Union Elementary School District.

(3) The Death Valley Unified School District.

(b) Notwithstanding Sections 37620 and 41420, the Potter Valley Community Unified School District and the French Gulch-Whiskeytown Union Elementary School District may each, during the 1983-84, 1984-85, and 1985-86 school years, conduct an experimental program for the operation of the schools in the district on a four-day school week, so long as the district complies with the requirements of this chapter.

(c) Notwithstanding Sections 37620 and 41420, the Death Valley Unified School District may, during the 1983-84 school year, and every school year thereafter, through the 1987-88 school year, conduct an experimental program for the operation of schools in the district on a four-day school week, so long as the district complies with the requirements of this chapter.

SEC. 2. Due to the unique circumstances regarding scarcity of funds for the schools in the Death Valley Unified School District, the Legislature hereby finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

SEC. 3. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the Legislature finds and declares that there are savings as well as costs in this act which, in the aggregate, do not result in additional net costs.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Due to some of the most severe temperature extremes faced by any school district in the state and the unusually long daily commute distances of 130 to 150 miles for some of its students, the Death Valley Unified School District spends an inordinate amount of its budget on heating, cooling, and transportation costs.

Due to these costs and the lack of appropriated funds to support general education, the district is bordering on financial insolvency and extinction.

In order for the district to continue to provide education to a widely dispersed population, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 199

An act to amend Section 602 of the Penal Code, relating to trespass.

[Approved by Governor July 12, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 12, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 602 of the Penal Code is amended to read:
602. Every person who willfully commits a trespass by any of the following acts is guilty of a misdemeanor:

(a) Cutting down, destroying, or injuring any kind of wood or timber standing or growing upon the lands of another.

(b) Carrying away any kind of wood or timber lying on those lands.

(c) Maliciously injuring or severing from the freehold of another anything attached to it, or its produce.

(d) Digging, taking, or carrying away from any lot situated within the limits of any incorporated city, without the license of the owner or legal occupant, any earth, soil, or stone.

(e) Digging, taking, or carrying away from land in any city or town laid down on the map or plan of the city, or otherwise recognized or established as a street, alley, avenue, or park, without the license of the proper authorities, any earth, soil, or stone.

(f) Maliciously tearing down, damaging, mutilating, or destroying any sign, signboard, or notice placed upon, or affixed to, any property belonging to the state, or to any city, county, city and county, town or village, or upon any property of any person, by the state or by an automobile association, which sign, signboard or notice is intended to indicate or designate a road, or a highway, or is intended to direct travelers from one point to another, or relates to fires, fire control, or any other matter involving the protection of the property, or putting up, affixing, fastening, printing, or painting upon any property belonging to the state, or to any city, county, town, or village, or dedicated to the public, or upon any property of any person, without license from the owner, any notice, advertisement, or designation of, or any name for any commodity, whether for sale or otherwise, or any picture, sign, or device intended to call attention to it.

(g) Entering upon any lands owned by any other person whereon oysters or other shellfish are planted or growing; or injuring, gathering, or carrying away any oysters or other shellfish planted, growing, or on any such lands, whether covered by water or not, without the license of the owner or legal occupant; or destroying or removing, or causing to be removed or destroyed, any stakes, marks, fences, or signs intended to designate the boundaries and limits of any such lands.

(h) Willfully opening, tearing down, or otherwise destroying any fence on the enclosed land of another, or opening any gate, bar, or fence of another and willfully leaving it open without the written permission of the owner, or maliciously tearing down, mutilating, or destroying any sign, signboard, or other notice forbidding shooting on private property.

(i) Building fires upon any lands owned by another where signs forbidding trespass are displayed at intervals not greater than one mile along the exterior boundaries and at all roads and trails entering the lands, without first having obtained written permission from the owner of the lands or the owner's agent, or the person in lawful possession.

(j) Entering any lands, whether unenclosed or enclosed by fence, for the purpose of injuring any property or property rights or with the intention of interfering with, obstructing, or injuring any lawful business or occupation carried on by the owner of the land, the owner's agent or by the person in lawful possession.

(k) Entering any lands under cultivation or enclosed by fence, belonging to, or occupied by, another, or entering upon uncultivated or unenclosed lands where signs forbidding trespass are displayed at intervals not less than three to the mile along all exterior boundaries and at all roads and trails entering the lands without the written permission of the owner of the land, the owner's agent or of the person in lawful possession, and

(1) Refusing or failing to leave the lands immediately upon being requested by the owner of the land, the owner's agent or by the person in lawful possession to leave the lands, or

(2) Tearing down, mutilating, or destroying any sign, signboard, or notice forbidding trespass or hunting on the lands, or

(3) Removing, injuring, unlocking, or tampering with any lock on any gate on or leading into the lands, or

(4) Discharging any firearm.

(l) Entering and occupying real property or structures of any kind without the consent of the owner, the owner's agent, or the person in lawful possession.

(m) Driving any vehicle, as defined in Section 670 of the Vehicle Code, upon real property belonging to or lawfully occupied by another and known not to be open to the general public, without the consent of the owner, the owner's agent, or the person in lawful possession.

(n) Refusing or failing to leave land, real property, or structures belonging to or lawfully occupied by another and not open to the general public, upon being requested to leave by (1) a peace officer at the request of the owner, the owner's agent, or the person in lawful possession, and upon being informed by the peace officer that he or she is acting at the request of the owner, the owner's agent, or the person in lawful possession, or (2) the owner, the owner's agent, or the person in lawful possession. The owner, the owner's agent, or the person in lawful possession shall make a separate request to the peace officer on each occasion when the peace officer's assistance in dealing with a trespass is requested. However, a single request for a peace officer's assistance may be made to cover a limited period of time not to exceed 30 days and identified by specific dates, during which there is a fire hazard or the owner, owner's agent or person in lawful possession is absent from the premises or property. In addition, a single request for a peace officer's assistance may be made for a period not to exceed six months when the premises or property is closed to the public and posted as being closed. However, this subdivision shall not be applicable to persons engaged in lawful labor union activities which are permitted to be carried out on the property by the California Agricultural Labor Relations Act, Part 3.5 (commencing with Section 1140) of Division 2 of the Labor Code, or by the National Labor Relations Act.

(o) Entering upon any lands declared closed to entry as provided in Section 4256 of the Public Resources Code, if the closed areas shall have been posted with notices declaring the closure, at intervals not greater than one mile along the exterior boundaries or along roads and trails passing through the lands.

(p) Refusing or failing to leave a public building of a public agency during those hours of the day or night when the building is regularly closed to the public upon being requested to do so by a regularly employed guard, watchman, or custodian of the public agency owning or maintaining the building or property, if the surrounding circumstances are such as to indicate to a reasonable man that the person has no apparent lawful business to pursue.

(q) Knowingly skiing in an area or on a ski trail which is closed to the public and which has signs posted indicating the closure.

(r) Refusing or failing to leave a hotel or motel, where he or she has obtained accommodations and has refused to pay for those accommodations, upon request of the proprietor or manager, and the occupancy is exempt, pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1940 of the Civil Code, from Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1940) of Title 5 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code.

SEC. 2. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 200

An act to amend Section 6254 of the Government Code, relating to public records, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 12, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State July 12, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6254 of the Government Code is amended to read:

6254. Except as provided in Section 6254.7, nothing in this chapter shall be construed to require disclosure of records that are any of the following:

(a) Preliminary drafts, notes, or interagency or intraagency memoranda which are not retained by the public agency in the ordinary course of business, provided that the public interest in withholding such records clearly outweighs the public interest in disclosure.

(b) Records pertaining to pending litigation to which the public agency is a party, or to claims made pursuant to Division 3.6 (commencing with Section 810) of Title 1 of the Government Code, until such litigation or claim has been finally adjudicated or otherwise settled.

(c) Personnel, medical, or similar files, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

(d) Contained in or related to:

(1) Applications filed with any state agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of the issuance of securities or of financial institutions, including, but not limited to, banks, savings and loan associations, industrial loan companies, credit unions, and insurance companies.

(2) Examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of any state agency referred to in subdivision (1).

(3) Preliminary drafts, notes, or interagency or intraagency communications prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of any state agency referred to in subdivision (1).

(4) Information received in confidence by any state agency referred to in subdivision (1).

(e) Geological and geophysical data, plant production data and similar information relating to utility systems development, or market or crop reports, which are obtained in confidence from any person.

(f) Records of complaints to or investigations conducted by, or records of intelligence information or security procedures of, the office of the Attorney General and the Department of Justice, and any state or local police agency, or any such investigatory or security files compiled by any other state or local police agency, or any such investigatory or security files compiled by any other state or local agency for correctional, law enforcement or licensing purposes, except that state and local law enforcement agencies shall disclose the names and addresses of persons involved in, or witnesses other than confidential informants to, the incident, the description of any property involved, the date, time, and location of the incident, all diagrams, statements of the parties involved in the incident, the statements of all witnesses, other than confidential informants, to the victims of an incident, or an authorized representative thereof, an insurance carrier against which a claim has been or might be made, and any person suffering bodily injury or property damage or loss, as the result of the incident caused by arson, burglary, fire, explosion, larceny, robbery, vandalism, vehicle theft, or a crime of violence as defined by subdivision (b) of Section 13960, unless the disclosure would endanger the safety of a witness or other person involved in the investigation, or unless disclosure would endanger the successful completion of the investigation or a related investigation; provided, however, that nothing herein shall require the disclosure of that portion of those investigative files which reflect the analysis or conclusions of the investigating officer.

Other provisions of this subdivision notwithstanding, state and local law enforcement agencies shall make public the following information, except to the extent that disclosure of a particular item of information would endanger the safety of a person involved in an investigation or would endanger the successful completion of the investigation or a related investigation:

(1) The full name, current address, and occupation of every individual arrested by the agency, the individual's physical description including date of birth, color of eyes and hair, sex, height and weight, the time and date of arrest, the time and date of booking, the location of the arrest, the factual circumstances surrounding the arrest, the amount of bail set, the time and manner of release or the location where the individual is currently being held, and all charges the individual is being held upon, including any outstanding warrants from other jurisdictions and parole or probation holds; and

(2) The time, substance, and location of all complaints or requests for assistance received by the agency and the time and nature of the response thereto, including, to the extent such information regarding crimes alleged or committed or any other incident investigated is recorded, the time, date and location of occurrence, the time and date of the report, the name, age and current address of the victim, except that the address of the victim of any crime defined by Section 261, 264, 264.1, 273a, 273d, 286, 288, 288a, or 289 of the Penal Code shall not be disclosed, the factual circumstances surrounding the crime or incident, and a general description of any injuries, property or weapons involved.

(g) Test questions, scoring keys, and other examination data used to administer a licensing examination, examination for employment, or academic examination, except as provided for in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 99150) of Part 65 of the Education Code.

(h) The contents of real estate appraisals, engineering or feasibility estimates and evaluations made for or by the state or local agency relative to the acquisition of property, or to prospective public supply and construction contracts, until such time as all of the property has been acquired or all of the contract agreement obtained, provided, however, the law of eminent domain shall not be affected by this provision.

(i) Information required from any taxpayer in connection with the collection of local taxes which is received in confidence and the disclosure of the information to other persons would result in unfair competitive disadvantage to the person supplying such information.

(j) Library circulation records kept for the purpose of identifying the borrower of items available in libraries, and library and museum materials made or acquired and presented solely for reference or exhibition purposes. The exemption in this subdivision shall not apply to records of fines imposed on such borrowers.

(k) Records the disclosure of which is exempted or prohibited pursuant to provisions of federal or state law, including, but not limited to, provisions of the Evidence Code relating to privilege.

(l) Correspondence of and to the Governor or employees of the Governor's office or in the custody of or maintained by the Governor's legal affairs secretary, provided public records shall not be transferred to the custody of the Governor's legal affairs secretary to evade the disclosure provisions of this chapter.

(m) In the custody or maintained by the Legislative Counsel.

(n) Statements of personal worth or personal financial data required by a licensing agency and filed by an applicant with such licensing agency to establish his personal qualification for the license, certificate, or permit applied for.

(o) Financial data contained in applications for financing under Division 27 (commencing with Section 44500) of the Health and Safety Code, where an authorized officer of the California Pollution Control Financing Authority determines that disclosure of such financial data would be competitively injurious to the applicant and such data is required in order to obtain guarantees from the United States Small Business Administration. The California Pollution Control Financing Authority shall adopt rules for review of individual requests for confidentiality under this section and for making available to the public those portions of an application which are subject to disclosure under this chapter.

(p) Records of state agencies related to activities governed by Chapter 10.3 (commencing with Section 3512) of Division 4 of Title 1, Chapter 10.5 (commencing with Section 3525) of Division 4 of Title 1, and Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 3560) of Division 4 of Title 1, which reveal a state agency's deliberative processes, impressions, evaluations, opinions, recommendations, meeting minutes, research, work products, theories, or strategy, or which provide instruction, advice, or training to employees who do not have full collective bargaining and representation rights under the above chapters. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit the disclosure duties of a state agency with respect to any other records relating to the activities governed by the employee relations acts referred to in this subdivision.

(q) Records of state agencies related to activities governed by Articles 2.6, 2.8, and 2.91 of Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 14000) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, which reveal the special negotiator's deliberative processes, impressions, opinions, recommendations, meeting minutes, research, work product, theories, or strategy, or which provide instruction, advice, or training to employees. All or portions of contracts entered into pursuant to these articles may be exempted from the provisions of this chapter as specified by the terms of each contract.

Nothing in this section is to be construed as preventing any agency from opening its records concerning the administration of the agency to public inspection, unless disclosure is otherwise prohibited by law.

(r) Records of Native American graves, cemeteries, and sacred places maintained by the Native American Heritage Commission.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

The Native American Heritage Commission is empowered to identify and catalog known graves and cemeteries of Native Americans on private lands. In order that the graves and cemeteries cataloged by the commission are protected from vandalism and destruction, it is necessary that the records of the location of the graves and cemeteries be exempt from disclosure under the Public Records Act. In order that the exemption take place at the earliest possible time, it is essential that this act take effect immediately.

(commencing with Section 3720) to Chapter 5 of Part 8 of Division 4 of, and to repeal Division 2a (commencing with Section 260) of, the Probate Code, relating to missing persons.

[Approved by Governor July 12, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 12, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 667 of the Evidence Code is amended to read:

667. A person not heard from in five years is presumed to be dead.

SEC. 2. Section 8627 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

8627. Cemetery property held in joint tenancy is exempt from the provisions of the Probate Code relating to proceedings for establishing the fact of death of a person whose death affects title to real property.

SEC. 3. Division 2a (commencing with Section 260) of the Probate Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Chapter 24 (commencing with Section 1350) is added to Division 3 of the Probate Code, to read:

CHAPTER 24. ADMINISTRATION OF ESTATES OF MISSING PERSONS PRESUMED DEAD

1350. As used in this chapter, unless the provision or context otherwise requires, "missing person" means a person who is presumed to be dead under Section 1351.

1351. In proceedings under this division, a person who is absent for a continuous period of five years, during which time the person has not been heard from, and whose absence is not satisfactorily explained after diligent search or inquiry, is presumed to be dead. The person's death is presumed to have occurred at the end of the period unless there is sufficient evidence to establish that death occurred earlier.

1352. The estate of a missing person may be administered and distributed, as though the person were dead, in the manner provided generally for the administration and distribution of estates of deceased persons, subject to the provisions of this chapter, except that no preliminary or final distribution of the property of the missing person shall be made pursuant to Chapter 16 (commencing with Section 1000) until the lapse of one year after the appointment and qualification of the executor or administrator.

1353. (a) If the missing person was a resident of this state at the time of the person's disappearance, the superior court of the county of the person's last known place of residence has jurisdiction for the purposes of this chapter.

(b) If the missing person was a nonresident of this state at the time of the person's disappearance, the superior court of any county where any real property of the missing person is located, or of the county where any personal property is located if there is no real property in this state, has jurisdiction for the purposes of this chapter.

1354. (a) A petition may be filed in the court having jurisdiction under Section 1353 for the administration of the estate or the probate of the last will, as the case may be, of a missing person.

(b) The petition may be filed by any one or more of the following:

(1) The spouse or a member of the family of the missing person.

(2) A person interested in the estate of the missing person.

(3) A friend of the missing person.

(c) In addition to the matters otherwise required in a petition for administration or probate, the petition shall state all of the following:

(1) The last known place of residence of the missing person.

(2) The time and circumstance of the person's disappearance.

(3) That the missing person has not been heard from by the persons most likely to hear (naming them and their relationship to the missing person) for a period of five years and the whereabouts of the missing person is unknown to those persons and to the petitioner.

(4) A description of any search or inquiry made concerning the whereabouts of the missing person.

(d) The petition shall be verified to the best knowledge and belief of the petitioner.

1355. (a) When the petition is filed, the clerk of the court shall set the petition for hearing by the court on a day not less than three months from the date of filing.

(b) Notice of hearing on the petition shall be published in the form of similar notices of hearing in the administration of estates of deceased persons, pursuant to Section 6064 of the Government Code, the first publication to be at least 90 days prior to the day set for the hearing.

(c) Within 20 days after the filing of the petition, notice of the hearing on the petition shall be:

(1) Served on the persons listed in Section 328 in the manner prescribed in that section.

(2) Sent by registered mail to the missing person at his or her last known address.

(d) Proof of such publication, service, and mailing shall be filed at or prior to the hearing.

1356. (a) At the hearing, the court shall determine whether the alleged missing person is a person who is presumed to be dead under Section 1351. In addition to the testimony at the hearing, the court may receive in evidence and consider the affidavits and depositions of persons likely to have heard from or know the whereabouts of the alleged missing person.

(b) If the court is not satisfied that a diligent search or inquiry has been made for the missing person, the court may order the petitioner to conduct a reasonably diligent search and to report the results of the search. The court may order the search to be made in any manner that seems advisable, including any or all of the following methods:

(1) Inserting in one or more suitable periodicals a notice requesting information from any person having knowledge of the whereabouts of the missing person.

(2) Notifying law enforcement officials and public welfare agencies in appropriate locations of the disappearance of the missing person.

(3) Engaging the services of an investigator.

(c) The costs of any search ordered by the court pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be paid by the petitioner if there is no administration or by the estate of the decedent if there is administration.

1357. (a) If the court finds that the alleged missing person is a person presumed to be dead under Section 1351, the court shall do both of the following:

(1) Appoint an executor or administrator for the estate of the missing person in the manner provided for the estates of deceased persons.

(2) Determine the date of the missing person's death.

(b) The administrator or executor to whom letters have been issued as provided in this chapter shall administer and distribute the estate of the missing person in the same general manner, method of procedure, and with the same force and effect as provided by statute for the administration and settlement of the estates of deceased persons, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

1358. (a) If the missing person reappears:

(1) The missing person may recover property of the missing person's estate in the hands of the executor or administrator.

(2) The missing person may recover from distributees any property of the missing person's estate that is in their hands, or the value of distributions received by them, to the extent that any recovery from distributees is equitable in view of all the circumstances, but any action under this paragraph is forever barred five years after the time the petition is filed under Section 1354.

(b) The remedies available to the missing person under subdivision (a) are in addition to any remedies available to the missing person by reason of any fraud or intentional wrongdoing.

(c) Except as provided in subdivisions (a) and (b), the decree of final distribution, when it becomes final, is conclusive as to the rights of the missing person and the rights of the heirs, devisees, and legatees of the missing person.

(d) If a dispute exists as to the identity of a person claiming to be a reappearing missing person, the person making the claim or any other interested person may file a petition under Section 1080 for the determination of the identity of the person claiming to be the reappearing missing person.

1359. (a) This chapter applies only to cases where a petition is filed under Section 1354 after December 31, 1983. If a petition is filed under Section 1354 after December 31, 1983, the required period of absence of the alleged missing person may include a period of absence that commenced to run before that date.

(b) This chapter does not apply to any proceeding under former Sections 280 to 294, inclusive, that is pending on December 31, 1983, and the law that applies to such proceeding on December 31, 1983, shall continue to apply after that date.

SEC. 5. Section 1461.7 is added to the Probate Code, to read:

1461.7. Unless the court for good cause dispenses with such notice, notice of the time and place of the hearing on a petition, report, or account, together with a copy of the petition, report, or account, shall be given to the same persons who are required to be given notice under Section 2581 for the period and in the manner provided in this chapter if both of the following conditions exist:

(a) A conservator of the estate has been appointed under Article 5 (commencing with Section 1845) of Chapter 1 of Part 3 for a person who is missing and whose whereabouts is unknown.

(b) The petition, report, or account is filed in the conservatorship proceeding under any one or more of the following provisions:

(1) Section 1861 or 2423.

(2) Article 7 (commencing with Section 2540) of Chapter 6 of Part 4.

(3) Section 2570, 2571, 2580, 2592, or 2620.

(4) Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 2640) of Part 4.

(5) Chapter 9.5 (commencing with Section 2670) of Part 4.

(6) Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 3100) of Part 6.

SEC. 6. Section 1804 is added to the Probate Code, to read:

1804. Subject to Section 1800, a conservator of the estate may be appointed for a person who is missing and whose whereabouts is unknown.

SEC. 7. Article 5 (commencing with Section 1845) is added to Chapter 1 of Part 3 of Division 4 of the Probate Code, to read:

Article 5. Special Provisions Applicable Where Proposed Conservatee is a Missing Person

1845. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this article, a conservator of the estate of a person who is missing and whose whereabouts is unknown shall be appointed as provided in Article 3 (commencing with Section 1820).

(b) This article does not apply where the proposed conservatee is an absentee as defined in Section 1403.

1846. In addition to the other required contents of the petition, if the proposed conservatee is a person who is missing and whose whereabouts is unknown, the petition shall state all of the following:

(a) The proposed conservatee owns or is entitled to the possession of real or personal property situated in this state.

(b) The time and circumstance of the person's disappearance and that the missing person has not been heard from by the person most likely to hear (naming them and their relationship to the missing person) since the time of disappearance and that the whereabouts of the missing person is unknown to those persons and to the petitioner.

(c) The last known residence of the missing person.

(d) A description of any search or inquiry made concerning the whereabouts of the missing person.

(e) A description of the estate of the proposed conservatee which requires attention, supervision, and care.

1847. In addition to the persons and entities to whom notice of hearing is required under Section 1822, if the proposed conservatee is a person who is missing and whose whereabouts is unknown:

(a) A copy of the petition for appointment of a conservator and notice of the time and place of the hearing on the petition shall be mailed at least 15 days before the hearing to the proposed conservatee at the last known address of the proposed conservatee.

(b) Notice of the time and place of the hearing shall also be published pursuant to Section 6061 of the Government Code in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the proposed conservatee was last known to reside if the proposed conservatee's last known address is in this state.

(c) Pursuant to Section 1462, the court may require that further or additional notice of the hearing be given.

1848. In a proceeding to appoint a conservator of the estate of a person who is missing and whose whereabouts is unknown, the following acts are not required:

(a) Issuance of a citation to the proposed conservatee pursuant to Section 1823.

(b) Service of a citation and petition pursuant to Section 1824.

(c) Production of the proposed conservatee at the hearing pursuant to Section 1825.

(d) Performance of the duties of the court investigator pursuant to Section 1826.

(e) Performance of any other act that depends upon knowledge of the location of the proposed conservatee.

1849. A conservator of the estate of a person who is missing and whose whereabouts is unknown may be appointed only if the court finds all of the following:

(a) The proposed conservatee owns or is entitled to the possession of real or personal property situated in this state.

(b) The proposed conservatee remains missing and his or her whereabouts remains unknown.

(c) The estate of the proposed conservatee requires attention, supervision, and care.

1849.5. (a) This article applies only to cases where a petition is filed under this article after December 31, 1983. After December 31, 1983, a petition may be filed under this article regardless of when the proposed conservatee became missing or how long the proposed conservatee has been missing.

(b) If a trustee was appointed pursuant to former Section 262, the provisions of former Sections 260 to 272, inclusive, continue to apply to the case after December 31, 1983, unless, upon a petition filed under this article after December 31, 1983, the trustee is replaced by a conservator.

SEC. 8. The heading of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 3700) of Part 8 of Division 4 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

CHAPTER 5. PERSONAL PROPERTY OF ABSENT FEDERAL PERSONNEL

SEC. 9. A heading is added immediately preceding Section 3700 of the Probate Code, to read:

Article 1. Definitions

SEC. 10. Section 3700 of the Probate Code is amended to read: 3700. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Absentee" is defined in Section 1403.

(b) "Certificate of missing status" means the official written report complying with Section 1283 of the Evidence Code and showing the determination of the secretary of the military department or the head of the department or agency concerned or the delegate of the secretary or head that the absentee is in missing status.

(c) "Eligible spouse" means the spouse of an absentee who has not commenced an action or proceeding for judicial or legal separation, divorce, annulment, adjudication of nullity, or dissolution of the marriage of the spouse and the absentee.

(d) "Family of an absentee" means an eligible spouse, if any, or if no eligible spouse, the child or children of an absentee, equally, or if no child or children, the parent or parents of an absentee, equally, provided these persons are dependents of the absentee as defined in Section 401 of Title 37 of the United States Code, and the guardian of the estate or conservator of the estate of any person bearing such relationship to the absentee.

(e) "Secretary concerned" is defined in Section 1440.

SEC. 11. A heading is added immediately preceding Section 3701 of the Probate Code, to read:

Article 2. Court Proceeding to Set Aside Personal Property of Absentee

SEC. 12. Section 3703 of the Probate Code is amended to read: 3703. (a) The petition shall contain all of the following:

- (1) A statement that the petition is filed under this chapter.
- (2) In its caption, the last known military rank or grade and the social security account number of the absentee.

(3) A specific description and estimate of the value of all of the absentee's property, wherever situated (including all sums due the absentee from the United States).

(4) A designation of the property to be set aside, and the facts establishing that setting aside the property is necessary and in the best interest of the absentee.

(5) If the property is to be set aside for the benefit of the spouse of the absentee, an allegation that the spouse is an eligible spouse.

(6) So far as known to the petitioner, the names and residences of all persons comprising the family of the absentee, and an allegation whether a guardian of the estate or a conservator of the estate of any member of the family of the absentee has been appointed.

(b) There shall be attached to the petition a certificate of missing status. The certificate of missing status shall be received as evidence of that fact and the court shall not determine the status of the absentee inconsistent with the status shown in the certificate.

SEC. 13. Article 3 (commencing with Section 3710) is added to Chapter 5 of Part 8 of Division 4 of the Probate Code, to read:

Article 3. Management and Disposition of Personal Property of Absentee Without Court Proceeding

3710. The family of an absentee may collect, receive, dispose of, or engage in any transaction relating to the absentee's personal property situated in California without any judicial proceeding if all the following conditions are satisfied:

(a) The absentee owns no real property situated in California.

(b) The aggregate value of all of the absentee's personal property situated in California is five thousand dollars ($5,000) or less, excluding any money owed the absentee by the United States.

(c) The family of the absentee needs to dispose of such personal property to provide for shelter, food, health care, education, transportation, or the maintenance of a reasonable and adequate standard of living for the family of the absentee.

3711. (a) If the conditions set forth in Section 3710 are satisfied, the family of the absentee may have any evidence of interest, indebtedness, or right attributable to the absentee's personal property transferred to the family of the absentee, or transferred to the person to whom the property is to be sold or transferred by the family of the absentee, upon furnishing the person (including any governmental body) having custody of the property both of the following:

(1) A certificate of missing status.

(2) An affidavit stating under oath that the provisions of this article are applicable and that the aggregate value of all property received pursuant to this affidavit, together with all other property previously received under this article, does not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(b) The receipt of a certificate of missing status and affidavit under subdivision (a) constitutes sufficient acquittance for any payment of money or delivery of property made pursuant to this article and fully discharges the recipient from any further liability concerning the money or property without the necessity of inquiring into the truth of any of the facts stated in the affidavit.

3712. The time within which an absentee may commence an action against any person who executes an affidavit and receives property pursuant to this article commences to run on the earlier of the following dates:

(a) Ninety days after the absentee returns to the continental United States after the termination of the condition that caused the classification of an absentee.

(b) Two years after the termination of the condition that caused the classification of an absentee.

SEC. 14. Article 4 (commencing with Section 3720) is added to Chapter 5 of Part 8 of Division 4 of the Probate Code, to read:

Article 4. Absentee's Power of Attorney

3720. If an absentee executed a power of attorney that expires during the period that occasions absentee status, the power of attorney continues in full force and effect until 30 days after the absentee status is terminated. Any person who acts in reliance upon the power of attorney when accompanied by a copy of a certificate of missing status is not liable for relying or acting upon the power of attorney.

CHAPTER 202

An act to add Section 351.1 to the Evidence Code, relating to polygraph examinations, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 12, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 12, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 351.1 is added to the Evidence Code, to read:

351.1. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the results of a polygraph examination, the opinion of a polygraph examiner, or any reference to an offer to take, failure to take, or taking of a polygraph examination, shall not be admitted into evidence in any criminal proceeding, including pretrial and post conviction motions and hearings, or in any trial or hearing of a juvenile for a criminal offense, whether heard in juvenile or adult court, unless all parties stipulate to the admission of such results.

(b) Nothing in this section is intended to exclude from evidence statements made during a polygraph examination which are otherwise admissible.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to establish clear rules for the admission of evidence in criminal cases for the proper administration of justice by the courts it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 203

An act to amend Sections 1521 and 3012 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to employment, making an appropriation therefor, to take effect immediately, usual current expenses.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 13, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1521 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1521. The Unemployment Fund is continued in existence as a special fund, separate and apart from all public money or funds of this state. This fund shall consist of (1) all employer contributions collected under this division; (2) interest earned upon any money in the fund; (3) any property or securities acquired through the use of money belonging to the fund; (4) all earnings of such property or securities; (5) all money credited to this state's account in the Unemployment Trust Fund pursuant to Section 903 of the Social Security Act, as amended; and (6) all other money received for the fund from any other source. All money in the fund shall be mingled and undivided.

Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, all money in the Unemployment Fund and in the various accounts of that fund, except any money deposited pursuant to Section 1528.5, is continuously appropriated until July 1, 1984, for the purposes authorized in this article.

SEC. 2. Section 3012 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

3012. (a) Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, all money in the disability fund is continuously appropriated until July 1, 1984, for the purpose of providing disability benefits pursuant to this part, including the payment of refunds, credits, or judgments, and interest thereon, the payment of disability benefits to all eligible persons not covered exclusively by an approved voluntary plan, and the payment of the expenses of administration of this part and Sections 17061 and 17061.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code by the department and the Franchise Tax Board. "Eligible persons" as used in this section, means those individuals who are covered by the disability fund at the time their period of disability commences, or whose employment has terminated or who are in noncovered employment at the time their period of disability commences, and who are otherwise eligible for benefits under this part.

(b) For the purpose of keeping a record of the payments to and the disbursements from the disability fund with respect to the payment of benefits to persons whose employment has terminated or who are in noncovered employment at the time their period of disability commences, the director shall maintain the Unemployed Disabled Account in the disability fund. This account shall be credited with 12 percent of the product obtained by multiplying the rate of worker contributions as determined in Section 984, by the amount of the taxable wages paid to employees covered by voluntary plans for disability benefits for each calendar year. This account shall also be credited with an amount equal to 12 percent of the product obtained by multiplying the rate of worker contributions as determined in Section 984, by the amount of the taxable wages paid to employees covered by the disability fund for each calendar year. This account shall be charged each calendar year with disbursements from the disability fund for the payment of benefits and the additional administrative costs of the payment of benefits to persons whose employment has terminated or who are in noncovered employment at the time their period of disability commences.

SEC. 3. This act makes an appropriation for the usual current expenses of the state within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 204

An act to amend Section 707.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to juvenile court law.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State July 13, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 707.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

707.1. (a) If the minor is declared not a fit and proper subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law, the district attorney or other appropriate prosecuting officer shall acquire the authority to file an accusatory pleading against the minor in a court of criminal jurisdiction. The case shall proceed from that point according to the laws applicable to a criminal case. If a prosecution has been commenced in another court but has been suspended while juvenile court proceedings are being held, it shall be ordered that the proceedings upon that prosecution shall resume.

(b) (1) Unless the juvenile court specifically orders the individual minor delivered to the custody of the sheriff upon a finding that the presence of the minor in the juvenile hall would endanger the safety of the public or be detrimental to the other inmates detained in juvenile hall, the minor, if detained, shall remain in the juvenile hall pending final disposition by the criminal court or until he or she attains the age of 18, whichever occurs first.

(2) Upon attainment of the age of 18 such a person shall be delivered to the custody of the sheriff unless the court finds that it is in the best interests of the person and the public that he or she be retained in juvenile hall. If a hearing is requested by the person, the transfer shall not take place until after the court has made its findings.

(3) When a person under 18 years of age is detained pursuant to this section in a facility in which adults are confined, it shall be unlawful to permit that person to come or remain in contact with those adults.

CHAPTER 205

An act to amend Section 25345.5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 13, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25345.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25345.5. (a) Neither the recordkeeping requirements of Section 25342 nor the tax provided in Section 25345 shall apply to hazardous wastes collected by local health officers or county agricultural commissioners which result from voluntary hazardous waste collection programs if the total quantities collected are limited to 1,000 kilograms or less per month from all sources; provided, however, that they comply with all requirements of Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100) and regulations adopted pursuant thereto. For the purposes of this subdivision, "voluntary hazardous waste collection program" means a program in which small quantities of hazardous wastes are received from nonindustrial sources, stored, and ultimately transferred to a licensed hazardous waste disposal site. Any hazardous waste collections in excess of 1,000 kilograms per month shall be subject to all requirements of this chapter and Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100) and regulations adopted pursuant thereto, including, but not limited to, those providing for payment of taxes and recordkeeping.

(b) The tax provided for in Section 25345 shall not apply to hazardous wastes generated or disposed of by local vector control agencies which have entered into a cooperative agreement pursuant to Section 2426 or by county agricultural commissioners if the hazardous wastes result from their control activities and if they comply with the requirements of Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100) and regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Due to the March 1 filing deadline for the reporting of the disposal amounts of hazardous waste, and in order to insure the efficient and equitable administration of the Hazardous Substance Account tax, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 206

An act to amend Section 15026 of, to add Section 1798.6 to, and to repeal Section 1482.5 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to health.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 13, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1482.5 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 1798.6 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1798.6. (a) Authority for patient health care management in an emergency shall be vested in that licensed or certified health care professional, which may include any paramedic or other prehospital emergency personnel, at the scene of the emergency who is most medically qualified specific to the provision of rendering emergency medical care. If no licensed or certified health care professional is available, the authority shall be vested in the most appropriate medically qualified representative of public safety agencies who may have responded to the scene of the emergency.

(b) If any county desires to establish a unified command structure for patient management at the scene of an emergency within that county, a committee may be established in that county comprised of representatives of the agency responsible for county emergency medical services, the county sheriff's department, the California Highway Patrol, public prehospital-care provider agencies serving the county, and public fire, police, and other affected emergency service agencies within the county. The membership and duties of the committee shall be established by an agreement for the joint exercise of powers under Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 6500) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), authority for the management of the scene of an emergency shall be vested in the appropriate public safety agency having primary investigative authority. The scene of an emergency shall be managed in a manner designed to minimize the risk of death or health impairment to the patient and to other persons who may be exposed to the risks as a result of the emergency condition, and priority shall be placed upon the interests of those persons exposed to the more serious and immediate risks to life and health. Public safety officials shall consult emergency medical services personnel or other authoritative health care professionals at the scene in the determination of relevant risks.

SEC. 3. Section 15026 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

15026. (a) "Hospital building" includes any building not specified in subdivision (b) which is used, or designed to be used, for a health facility of a type required to be licensed pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250) of Division 2.

(b) "Hospital building" shall not include any of the following:

(1) Any building in which only outpatient clinic services are provided and which is separated from a building in which hospital services are provided.

(2) Any building used, or designed to be used, for a skilled nursing facility or intermediate care facility if such building is of single-story, wood frame construction.

(3) Any building of single-story, wood frame construction in which only skilled nursing or intermediate care services are provided if such building is separated from a building housing other patients of the health facility receiving higher levels of care.

(4) Any freestanding structures of a chemical dependency recovery hospital exempted under the provisions of subdivision (c) of Section 1275.2.

(5) Any building which has been used as a community care facility licensed pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1500) of Division 2 and which was originally licensed to provide that level of care prior to March 7, 1973, if (i) the building complied with applicable building and safety standards at the time of that licensure, (ii) the Director of Health Services, upon application, determines that in order to continue to properly serve the facility's existing client population, relicensure as an intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled will be required, and (iii) a notice of intent to obtain a certificate of need was filed with the area health planning agency and the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development on or before March 1, 1983. The exemption provided in this paragraph extends only to use of the building as an intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled.

SEC. 4. The Legislature finds and declares that the amendments to Section 15026 of the Health and Safety Code made by Section 3 of this act are necessary to permit certain community care facilities, which were licensed prior to the effective date of seismic design requirements for health facilities, to obtain licensure as intermediate care facilities/developmentally disabled in order to continue to properly serve their aging client populations. Reconstructing the physical plant of these facilities would be too costly to be economic and would also be disruptive to residents of the facilities. Without the changes proposed in Section 15026, clients receiving satisfactory care for many years will be forced to relocate to another facility, with attendant disruption, or receive care at less than an optimum level. It is, therefore, the intent of the Legislature to permit these facilities to continue to provide adequate care for their client populations by permitting these facilities to obtain relicensure as intermediate care facilities/developmentally disabled without being required to comply with seismic design requirements for health facilities.

CHAPTER 207

An act to amend Section 2913 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to psychology and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State July 13, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2913 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2913. A person other than a licensed psychologist may be employed by a licensed psychologist, by a licensed physician and surgeon who is board certified in psychiatry by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology, by a clinic which provides mental health services under contract pursuant to Section 5614 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, by a psychological corporation, by a licensed psychology clinic as defined in Section 1204.1 of the Health and Safety Code, or by a medical corporation to perform limited psychological functions provided that all of the following apply:

(a) The person is termed a "psychological assistant."

(b) The person (1) has completed a master's degree in psychology or education with the field of specialization in psychology or counseling psychology, or (2) has been admitted to candidacy for a doctoral degree in psychology or education with the field of specialization in psychology or counseling psychology, after having satisfactorily completed three or more years of postgraduate education in psychology and having passed preliminary doctoral examinations, or (3) has completed a doctoral degree which qualifies for licensure under Section 2914, in an accredited or approved university, college, or professional school located in the United States or Canada.

(c) The person is at all times under the immediate supervision, as defined in regulations adopted by the committee, of a licensed psychologist, or board certified psychiatrist, who shall be responsible for insuring that the extent, kind, and quality of the psychological services he or she performs are consistent with his or her training and experience and be responsible for his or her compliance with the provisions of this chapter and regulations duly adopted hereunder, including those provisions set forth in Section 2960.

(d) The licensed psychologist, board certified psychiatrist, contract clinic, psychological corporation, or medical corporation, has registered the psychological assistant with the committee. The registration shall be renewed annually in accordance with regulations adopted by the committee.

No licensed psychologist may register, employ, or supervise more than three psychological assistants at any given time unless specifically authorized to do so by the committee. No board certified psychiatrist may register, employ, or supervise more than one psychological assistant at any given time. No contract clinic, psychological corporation, or medical corporation may employ more than 10 such assistants at any one time. No contract clinic may register, employ, or provide supervision for more than one psychological assistant for each designated full-time staff psychiatrist who is qualified and supervises the psychological assistants. No psychological assistant may provide psychological services to the public for a fee, monetary or otherwise, except as an employee of a licensed psychologist, licensed physician, contract clinic, psychological corporation, or medical corporation.

(e) The psychological assistant shall comply with regulations that the committee may, from time to time, duly adopt relating to the fulfillment of requirements in continuing education.

(f) No person shall practice as a psychological assistant who is found by the committee to be in violation of the provisions of Section 2960 and the rules and regulations duly adopted thereunder.

In order to avoid hardship to persons enrolled in psychology doctoral programs which bypass a master's degree program and who relied on the passage of AB 2199 (1982) (Ch. 462 Stats. 1982) which was inadvertently chaptered out by Chapter 1172 of the Statutes of 1982, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 208

An act to amend Section 186.4 of the Penal Code, relating to profiteering.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State July 13, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 186.4 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

186.4. (a) The prosecuting agency shall, in conjunction with the criminal proceeding, file a petition of forfeiture with the superior court of the county in which the defendant has been charged with the underlying criminal offense, which shall allege that the defendant has engaged in a pattern of criminal profiteering activity, including the acts or threats chargeable as crimes and the property forfeitable pursuant to Section 186.3. The prosecuting agency shall make service of process of a notice regarding that petition upon every individual who may have a property interest in the alleged proceeds, which notice shall state that any interested party may file a verified claim with the superior court stating the amount of their claimed interest and an affirmation or denial of the prosecuting agency's allegation. If the notices cannot be given by registered mail or personal delivery, the notices shall be published for at least three successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the property is located. If the property alleged to be subject to forfeiture is real property, the prosecuting agency shall, at the time of filing the petition of forfeiture, record a lis pendens in each county in which the real property is situated which specifically identifies the real property alleged to be subject to forfeiture. The judgment of forfeiture shall not affect the interest in real property of any third party which was acquired prior to the recording of the lis pendens.

(b) All notices shall set forth the time within which a claim of interest in the property seized is required to be filed pursuant to Section 186.5.

SEC. 2. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the Legislature finds and declares that there are savings as well as costs in this act which, in the aggregate, do not result in additional net costs.

CHAPTER 209

An act to amend Section 86100 of the Government Code, relating to the Political Reform Act of 1974.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 13, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 86100 of the Government Code is amended to read:

86100. Any individual employed or retained as a lobbyist shall register with the Secretary of State before doing anything to influence legislative or administrative action.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that the provisions of this act further the purposes of the Political Reform Act of 1974 within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 81012 of the Government Code.

---

CHAPTER 210

An act to amend Section 40519 of the Vehicle Code, relating to offenses.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 13, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 40519 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

40519. (a) Any person who has received a written notice to appear for an infraction may, prior to the time at which the person is required to appear, make a deposit and declare the intention to plead not guilty to the clerk of the court named in the notice to appear. The deposit shall be in the amount of bail established pursuant to Section 1269b of the Penal Code, together with any assessment required by Section 42006 or 42050 of this code, for the offense charged, and shall be used for the purpose of guaranteeing the appearance of the defendant at the time and place scheduled by the clerk for arraignment and for trial, and to apply toward the payment of any fine or assessment prescribed by the court in the event of conviction. The case shall thereupon be set for arraignment and trial on the same date, unless the defendant requests separate arraignment.

(b) Any person who has received a written notice to appear for an infraction may, prior to the time at which the person is required to appear, plead not guilty in writing in lieu of appearing in person. In a county where the board of supervisors has adopted an ordinance providing that a plea of not guilty to a parking violation may be entered in writing in lieu of appearing in person, any person who has received a notice of a parking violation issued under Section 41103 may, prior to the time at which the person is required to appear, plead not guilty in writing in lieu of appearing in person. The written plea shall be directed to the court named in the notice to appear or to the court or city agency indicated on the notice of parking violation and, if mailed, shall be sent by certified or registered mail postmarked not later than five days prior to the day upon which appearance is required. The written plea and request to the court or city agency shall be accompanied by a deposit consisting of the amount of bail established pursuant to Section 1269b of the Penal Code, together with any assessment required by Section 42006 or 42050 of this code, for that offense, which amount shall be used for the purpose of guaranteeing the appearance of the defendant at the time and place set by the court for trial and to apply toward the payment of any fine or assessment prescribed by the court in the event of conviction. Upon receipt of the plea and deposit, the case shall be set for arraignment and trial on the same date, unless the defendant requests separate arraignment. Thereafter, the case shall be conducted in the same manner as if the defendant had appeared in person, had made his or her plea in open court, and had deposited such sum as bail. The court or the clerk of the court shall notify the accused of the time and place of trial by first-class mail postmarked at least 10 days prior to the time set for the trial. Any person using this procedure shall be deemed to have waived the right to be tried within the statutory period.

(c) Any person using the procedure set forth in subdivision (a) or (b) shall be deemed to have given a written promise to appear at the time designated by the court for trial, and failure to appear at the trial shall constitute a misdemeanor.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act for the purpose of making reimbursement pursuant to these sections. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 2231.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, this act does not contain a repealer, as required by that section; therefore, the provisions of this act shall remain in effect unless and until they are amended or repealed by a later enacted act.

CHAPTER 211

An act to amend Section 683 of the Financial Code, relating to banks.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 13, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 683 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

683. The board of each bank and of each trust company shall hold a meeting not less than once each calendar quarter. Regular meetings of the board shall be held within this state. Any regular or special meeting is valid wherever held if held upon written consent of all members of the board given either before or after the meeting and filed with the secretary of the corporation. Special meetings of the board may be held upon four days' notice by mail, unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, or 24 hours' notice delivered personally or by telephone or by telegraph, unless the articles or bylaws provide for a shorter period.

---

CHAPTER 212

An act to amend Section 27454 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 13, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 27454 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

27454. No tire on any vehicle upon any highway shall have on its periphery any block, stud, flange, cleat, ridge, bead, or any other protuberance of metal or wood which projects beyond the tread of the traction surface of the tire.

This section does not apply to the following:

(a) Tire chains of reasonable size used to prevent skidding when upon wet surfaces or when upon snow or ice.

(b) Pneumatic tires which have embedded therein wire not to exceed 0.075 of an inch in diameter and which are so constructed that under no conditions will the percentage of metal in contact with the roadway exceed 5 percent of the total tire area in contact with the roadway, except that during the first 1,000 miles of use or operation of any such tire, the metal in contact with the roadway may exceed

5 percent of the tire area in contact with the roadway, but shall in no event exceed 20 percent of such area.

(c) Vehicles operated upon unimproved roadways when necessary in the construction or repair of highways.

(d) Traction engines or tractors when operated under the conditions of a permit first obtained from the Department of Transportation.

(e) Pneumatic tires containing metal-type studs of tungsten carbide or other suitable material and which are so inserted or constructed that under no conditions will the number of studs or the percentage of metal in contact with the roadway exceed 3 percent of the total tire area in contact with the roadway, between the first day of November and the first day of April. The Commissioner of the California Highway Patrol, after consultation with the Department of Transportation, may extend the period during which studded pneumatic tires may be used in any area of the state for the protection of the public because of adverse weather conditions.

(f) Pneumatic tires used on an authorized emergency vehicle, as defined in Section 165, containing metal-type studs of tungsten carbide or other suitable material, if the studs are so inserted or constructed that under no conditions will the number of studs or the percentage of metal in contact with the roadway exceed 3 percent of the total tire area in contact with the roadway. Notwithstanding subdivision (e), authorized emergency vehicles are permitted the unrestricted use of studded pneumatic tires throughout the year.

CHAPTER 213

An act to repeal and add Section 104.13 to the Streets and Highways Code, relating to possessory interest taxes.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State July 13, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 104.13 of the Streets and Highways Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 104.13 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

104.13. (a) The department shall act as agent for the payment of possessory interest taxes due from persons to whom the department leases property of a type described in subdivision (e).

(b) The department shall annually provide a current list of all such property located in each county to the assessor of the county. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the assessor shall submit the possessory interest tax bill for each property directly to the department, and the department shall be responsible for the payment of the tax in the manner described in subdivision (c).

(c) All funds distributed to a county pursuant to Section 104.10 shall be deemed to be in full or partial payment on the total possessory interest taxes due on the property described in subdivision (e) located in the county. If the amount transferred to a county pursuant to Section 104.10 in any year is less than the total possessory interest tax due on all the property located in the county, the department shall promptly forward to the county the amount of the balance due.

(d) In lieu of the information required by Section 107.6 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, all leases of property of a type described in subdivision (e) shall contain a statement that the department will pay all possessory interest taxes arising from the lease and that the amount of rent charged reflects the cost of this added responsibility of the department.

(e) This section shall apply only to real property held for future state highway needs and to real property originally held for that purpose, which the department has determined is no longer needed for that purpose, prior to its sale or exchange by the department.

CHAPTER 214

An act to amend Sections 87200 and 87500 of the Government Code, relating to the Political Reform Act of 1974.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 13, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 87200 of the Government Code is amended to read:

87200. This article is applicable to elected state officers, judges of courts of record, members of the Public Utilities Commission, members of the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, members of the Fair Political Practices Commission, members of the California Coastal Commission, members of planning commissions, members of the board of supervisors, district attorneys and chief administrative officers of counties, mayors, city managers, chief administrative officers and members of city councils of cities, and to candidates for any of these offices at any election.

SEC. 2. Section 87500 of the Government Code is amended to read:

87500. Statements of economic interests required by this chapter shall be filed as follows:

(a) Statewide elected officer—one original with the agency which shall make and retain a copy and forward the original to the commission, which shall retain the original and send one copy to the Registrar-Recorder of Los Angeles County and one copy with the Clerk of the City and County of San Francisco. The commission shall be the filing officer.

(b) Candidates for statewide elective office—one original with the person with whom the candidate's declaration of candidacy is filed, who shall forward the original to the commission which shall retain the original and send one copy to the Registrar-Recorder of Los Angeles County and one copy with the Clerk of the City and County of San Francisco. The commission shall be the filing officer.

(c) Members of the Legislature and Board of Equalization—one original with the agency which shall make and retain a copy and forward the original to the commission, which shall retain the original and send one copy to the clerk of the county which contains the largest percentage of registered voters in the election district which the officeholder represents, and one copy to the clerk of the county in which the officeholder resides. No more than one copy of each statement need be filed with the clerk of any one county. The commission shall be the filing officer.

(d) Candidates for the Legislature or the Board of Equalization—one original with the person with whom the candidate's declaration of candidacy is filed, who shall forward the original to the commission which shall retain the original and send one copy to the clerk of the county which contains the largest percentage of registered voters in the election district in which the candidate seeks nomination or election, and one copy to the clerk of the county in which the candidate resides. No more than one copy of each statement need be filed with the clerk of any one county. The commission shall be the filing officer.

(e) Persons holding the office of chief administrative officer and candidates for and persons holding the office of district attorney and member of the board of supervisors—one original with the county clerk who shall make and retain a copy and forward the original to the commission which shall be the filing officer.

(f) Persons holding the office of city manager or, if there is no city manager, the chief administrative officer, and candidates for and persons holding the office of city councilmember and mayor—one original with the city clerk who shall make and retain a copy and forward the original to the commission which shall be the filing officer.

(g) Members of the Public Utilities Commission, members of the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, planning commissioners, and members of the California Coastal Commission—one original with the agency which shall make and retain a copy and forward the original to the commission which shall be the filing officer.

(h) Members of the Fair Political Practices Commission—one original with the commission which shall make and retain a copy and forward the original to the office of the Attorney General which shall be the filing officer.

(i) Judges of courts of record—one original with the clerk of the court who shall make and retain a copy and forward the original to the commission which shall be the filing officer.

(j) Heads of agencies, members of boards or commissions not under a department of state government, or members of boards or commissions not under the jurisdiction of a local legislative body, one original with the agency, which shall make and retain a copy and forward the original to the code reviewing body which shall be the filing officer. In its discretion, the code reviewing body may provide that the original be filed directly with the code reviewing body and that no copy be retained by the agency.

(k) Persons not mentioned above—one original with the agency or with the code reviewing body, as provided by the code reviewing body in the agency's conflict of interest code.

SEC. 3. The Legislature finds and declares that the provisions of this act further the purposes of the Political Reform Act of 1974 within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 81012 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 215

An act to amend Section 25503.1 of, and to amend and repeal Section 25600 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to alcoholic beverages, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 13, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25503.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

25503.1. (a) Anything in this division to the contrary notwithstanding, any manufacturer, winegrower, manufacturer's agent, rectifier, distiller, bottler, importer, or wholesaler, or any officer, director, or agent of any such person is authorized:

(1) Only in connection with alcoholic beverages manufactured, produced or sold by such licensee, to install, service and set up window displays, promotional materials, and temporary floor displays holding merchandise in the premises of an off-sale retail licensee.

(2) Only in connection with alcoholic beverages manufactured, produced or sold by such licensee, to furnish, give, lend, rent or sell decorations and decorative materials, including holiday decorations, paintings and pictures, to an off-sale retail licensee for use in the windows and elsewhere in the interior of the retail premises in connection with advertising and promotional material or displays in the premises of such retailer; provided, that the advertising and promotional material shall have no intrinsic value other than as advertising and that the total original cost of all such decorations and decorative materials, including holiday decorations, paintings and pictures furnished by any licensee and in use at any one time in any one off-sale retail premise shall not exceed the amount established by rules of the department; and provided, that the licensee or any officer, director or agent of such licensee shall not directly or indirectly pay or credit the retailer for the display of such decorations or decorative materials or for any expense incidental to their operation.

(3) To furnish, give, lend, rent or sell to an off-sale retailer who sells the alcoholic beverages of such licensee, newspaper cuts, mats, or engraved blocks for use in the retailer's advertisements relating to such alcoholic beverages.

(b) Anything in this chapter to the contrary notwithstanding, any holder of a wholesaler's license may manufacture, and distribute, sell, or rent any lawful product to any person engaged in operating, owning, or maintaining any retail premises where alcoholic beverages are sold; provided, however, that such products are sold or rented by the holder of the wholesaler's license to the licensee at a price not less than the current market price for such product; and provided, further, that the manufacturer and importer of alcoholic beverages shall be controlled by the other applicable provisions of this division.

SEC. 2. Section 25600 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

25600. No licensee shall, directly or indirectly, give any premium, gift, or free goods in connection with the sale or distribution of any alcoholic beverage except as provided by rules which shall be adopted by the department to implement this section or except as authorized by this division.

No rule of the department may permit a licensee to give any premium, gift or free goods of greater than inconsequential value in connection with the sale or distribution of beer.

This section shall remain in effect until January 1, 1986, and on that date it shall be repealed unless a later enacted statute extends or otherwise changes that date of repeal.

Pursuant to the passage of legislation which mandates that state agencies review their regulations to determine if they are properly based upon existing statutes, the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is proposing to repeal its Rule 106 which relates to advertising and merchandising of alcoholic beverages. While this rule is not based firmly upon a statute, it has for many years served as an effective guideline to the alcoholic beverage industry for trade practices, and its repeal would create extensive disorderly marketing problems affecting all levels of the alcoholic beverage industry and the public. As the passage of this legislation would permit a reinstatement of a similar rule fully based upon statutes, if it is passed before the impending rule repeal as proposed by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 216

An act to amend Section 25608 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to alcoholic beverages.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State July 13, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25608 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

25608. Every person who possesses, consumes, sells, gives, or delivers to any other person, any alcoholic beverage in or on any public schoolhouse or any of the grounds thereof, is guilty of a misdemeanor. This section does not, however, make it unlawful for any person to acquire, possess, or use any alcoholic beverage in or on any public schoolhouse, or on any grounds thereof, if either of the following applies:

(a) The alcoholic beverage is acquired, possessed, or used in connection with a course of instruction given at the school and the person has been authorized to acquire, possess, or use it by the governing body or other administrative head of the school.

(b) The public schoolhouse is surplus school property and the grounds thereof are leased to a lessee which is a general law city with a population of less than 50,000, or the public schoolhouse is surplus school property and the grounds thereof are located in an unincorporated area and are leased to a lessee which is a civic organization, and the property is to be used for community center purposes and no public school education is to be conducted thereon by either the lessor or the lessee and the property is not being used by persons under the age of 21 years for recreational purposes at any time during which alcoholic beverages are being sold or consumed on the premises.

Any person convicted of a violation of this section shall, in addition to the penalty imposed for the misdemeanor, be barred from having or receiving any privilege of the use of public school property which is accorded by Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 16551) of Division 12 of the Education Code.

CHAPTER 217

An act to amend Section 79020 of the Education Code, relating to community colleges.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 13, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 79020 of the Education Code is amended to read:

79020. Except as otherwise provided the community colleges shall continue in session or close on specified holidays as follows:

(a) The community colleges shall close on January 1st, February 12th known as "Lincoln Day," the third Monday in February known as "Washington Day," the last Monday in May known as "Memorial Day," July 4th, the first Monday in September known as "Labor Day," November 11th known as "Veterans Day," that Thursday in November proclaimed by the President as "Thanksgiving Day," and December 25th.

(b) The Governor in appointing any other day for a public fast, thanksgiving, or holiday may provide whether the community colleges shall close on the day. If the Governor does not provide whether the community colleges shall close, they shall continue in session on all special or limited holidays appointed by the Governor, but shall close on all other days appointed by the Governor for a public fast, thanksgiving, or holiday.

(c) The community colleges shall close on every day appointed by the President as a public fast, thanksgiving, or holiday, unless it is a special or limited holiday.

(d) The community colleges shall continue in session on all legal holidays other than those designated by or pursuant to this section, or Section 79022, and shall hold proper exercises commemorating the day.

(e) When any of the holidays on which the schools would be closed fall on Sunday, the community colleges shall close on the Monday following, except that (1) if Lincoln Day falls on a Sunday, the community colleges may observe this holiday on the preceding Friday, the following Monday, or the following Tuesday, and maintain classes on the date specified in subdivision (a) where applicable, or (2) if Lincoln Day falls on a Monday, the community colleges may observe this holiday on the preceding Friday, that Monday, or the following Tuesday, and maintain classes on the date specified in subdivision (a) where applicable.

(f) When any of the holidays on which the schools would be closed fall on Saturday, the community colleges shall close on the preceding Friday, and that Friday shall be declared a state holiday.

(g) If any holiday on which the community colleges are required to close pursuant to subdivision (a) occurs under federal law on a date different than the date specified in subdivision (a), the governing board of any community college district may close the community colleges of the district on the date recognized by federal law and maintain classes on the date specified in subdivision (a).

(h) When Veterans Day or Lincoln Day would fall on Tuesday, the governing board of a community college district may close the colleges on the preceding Monday, and maintain classes on the date specified in subdivision (a). When Veterans Day or Lincoln Day would fall on Wednesday, the governing board of a community college district may close the colleges on either the preceding Monday or the following Friday, and maintain classes on the date specified in subdivision (a). When Veterans Day or Lincoln Day would fall on Thursday, the governing board of a community college district may close the colleges on the following Friday, and maintain classes on the date specified in subdivision (a).

(i) Nothing in this section is to be interpreted as authorizing a community college district governing board to maintain community colleges in its district for a lesser number of days during the college year than the minimum established by law.

SEC. 2. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the Legislature finds and declares that there are savings as well as costs in this act which, in the aggregate, do not result in additional net costs.

CHAPTER 218

An act to add Section 938.5 to the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to unemployment insurance.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 13, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 938.5 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

938.5. "Wages" does not include any payment received by a member of the National Guard or reserve component of the armed forces for inactive duty training, annual training, or emergency state active duty.

CHAPTER 219

An act to amend Section 117.12 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to small claims court.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 13, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 117.12 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

117.12. The judgment of the superior court shall be final and not appealable. If the judgment is affirmed in whole or in part or the appeal is dismissed, the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff the amount of the judgment as affirmed, together with interest and costs and the sum of fifteen dollars ($15) as an attorney's fee upon such terms and conditions as the judge shall prescribe. However, if the judge finds that the appeal was without substantial merit and not based on good faith, but intended to harass, delay, or encourage plaintiff to abandon his or her claim, the judge may award attorney's fees of up to, but not exceeding, two hundred fifty dollars ($250), following a hearing on the matter.

---

CHAPTER 220

An act to add Article 5.5 (commencing with Section 29410) to Chapter 2 of Division 3 of Title 3 of the Government Code, relating to county funds, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 14, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 5.5 (commencing with Section 29410) is added to Chapter 2 of Division 3 of Title 3 of the Government Code, to read:

Article 5.5. District Attorney's Family or Child Support Trust Fund

29410. The board of supervisors of a county may establish a district attorney's family or child support trust fund pursuant to this article.

29411. In any county that establishes a district attorney's family or child support trust fund pursuant to this article, the board of supervisors shall make such amounts available annually to the district attorney's family or child support office as determined to be necessary by the auditor-controller. The auditor-controller shall cause those amounts to be transferred to the district attorney's family or child support trust fund.

29412. The district attorney's family or child support office shall use the trust fund solely for the purpose of advancing reimbursement for moneys erroneously attached or intercepted by a government agency for payment of a delinquent support obligation.

29413. Upon the presentation by the district attorney's family or child support office of his or her requisition to the auditor, the auditor shall draw a warrant in favor of the district attorney's family or child support office on the trust fund for such amounts as the district attorney's family or child support office requires, within seven working days of the presentation of the requisition to the auditor. The treasurer shall pay the warrant.

29414. (a) The district attorney's family or child support office shall forward attached or intercepted moneys upon which advances were made to the trust fund within three days of receipt from the attaching or intercepting agency.

(b) The district attorney's family or child support office shall not designate the application of money returned to the trust fund to a specific case.

29415. The district attorney's family or child support trust fund is in addition to any other appropriations at his or her disposal, and this article shall not be construed to limit or affect any provision of law relative to the expenses of the district attorney which are incurred by him or her and paid as other county claims after allowance by the board of supervisors.

In order for the provisions of this act to achieve their intended effect, it is necessary that this act take effect at the earliest possible date.

---

CHAPTER 221

An act to amend Sections 1737 and 1737.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to youth.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 14, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1737 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

1737. When a person has been committed to the custody of the authority, if it is deemed warranted by a diagnostic study and recommendation approved by the director, the judge who ordered the commitment or, if the judge is not available, the presiding or sole judge of the court, within 120 days of the date of commitment on his or her own motion, or the court, at any time thereafter upon recommendation of the director, may recall the commitment previously ordered and resentence the person as if he or she had not previously been sentenced. The time served while in custody of the authority shall be credited toward the term of any person resentenced pursuant to this section.

As used in this section, "time served while in custody of the authority" means the period of time during which the person was physically confined in a state institution by order of the Youth Authority or the Youthful Offender Parole Board.

SEC. 2. Section 1737.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

1737.1. Whenever any person who has been convicted of a public offense in adult court and committed to and accepted by the Youth Authority appears to the Youthful Offender Parole Board, either at the time of his or her first appearance before the board or thereafter, to be an improper person to be retained by the Youth Authority, or to be so incorrigible or so incapable of reformation under the discipline of the Youth Authority as to render his or her detention detrimental to the interests of the Youth Authority and the other persons committed thereto, the board may order the return of such a person to the committing court. The court may then commit the person to a state prison or sentence him or her to a county jail as provided by law for punishment of the offense of which he or she was convicted. The maximum term of imprisonment for a person committed to a state prison under this section shall be a period equal to the maximum term prescribed by law for the offense of which he or she was convicted less the period during which he or she was under the control of the Youth Authority. This section shall not apply to commitments from juvenile court.

As used in this section "period during which he or she was under the control of the Youth Authority" means the period of time during which he or she was physically confined in a state institution by order of the Youth Authority or Youthful Offender Parole Board.

CHAPTER 222

An act to amend Section 26700 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 14, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 26700 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

26700. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), a passenger vehicle, other than a motorcycle, and every bus, motortruck or truck tractor, and every firetruck, fire engine or other fire apparatus, whether publicly or privately owned, shall be equipped with an adequate windshield.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not apply to any vehicle issued identification plates pursuant to Section 5004 which was not required to be equipped with a windshield at the time it was first sold or registered under the laws of this state, another state, or foreign jurisdiction.

---

CHAPTER 223

An act to amend Sections 11352.5, 11357, and 11360 of the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 1203.04 and 1203.07 of the Penal Code, relating to controlled substances.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 14, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11352.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11352.5. The court shall impose a fine not exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), in the absence of a finding that the defendant would be incapable of paying such a fine, in addition to any term of imprisonment provided by law for any of the following persons:

(1) Any person who is convicted of violating Section 11351 of the Health and Safety Code by possessing for sale 14.25 grams or more of a substance containing heroin.

(2) Any person who is convicted of violating Section 11352 of the Health and Safety Code by selling or offering to sell 14.25 grams or more of a substance containing heroin.

(3) Any person convicted of violating Section 11351 of the Health and Safety Code by possessing heroin for sale or convicted of violating Section 11352 of the Health and Safety Code by selling or offering to sell heroin, and who has one or more prior convictions for violating Section 11351 or Section 11352 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 2. Section 11357 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11357. (a) Except as authorized by law, every person who possesses any concentrated cannabis shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than one year or by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500), or by both such fine and imprisonment, or shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison.

(b) Except as authorized by law, every person who possesses not more than 28.5 grams of marijuana, other than concentrated cannabis, is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars ($100). Notwithstanding other provisions of law, if such person has been previously convicted three or more times of an offense described in this subdivision during the two-year period immediately preceding the date of commission of the violation to be charged, the previous convictions shall also be charged in the accusatory pleading and, if found to be true by the jury upon a jury trial or by the court upon a court trial or if admitted by the person, the provisions of Sections 1000.1 and 1000.2 of the Penal Code shall be applicable to him, and the court shall divert and refer him for education, treatment, or rehabilitation, without a court hearing or determination or the concurrence of the district attorney, to an appropriate community program which will accept him. If the person is so diverted and referred he shall not be subject to the fine specified in this subdivision. If no community program will accept him, the person shall be subject to the fine specified in this subdivision. In any case in which a person is arrested for a violation of this subdivision and does not demand to be taken before a magistrate, such person shall be released by the arresting officer upon presentation of satisfactory evidence of identity and giving his written promise to appear in court, as provided in Section 853.6 of the Penal Code, and shall not be subjected to booking.

(c) Except as authorized by law, every person who possesses more than 28.5 grams of marijuana, other than concentrated cannabis, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than six months or by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500), or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(d) Except as authorized by law, every person who possesses marijuana upon the grounds of, or within, any school providing instruction in kindergarten or, any of grades 1 through 12, inclusive, during hours in which the school is open for classes or school-related programs is guilty of a misdemeanor to be punished by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500), or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than 10 days, or both; provided, that except as authorized by law, every minor who possesses marijuana upon the grounds of, or within, any school providing instruction in kindergarten or, any of grades 1 through 12, inclusive, during hours in which the school is open for classes or school-related programs is guilty of a misdemeanor to be punished by a fine not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for a first offense; and provided further, that except as authorized by law, every minor who possesses marijuana upon the grounds of, or within, any school providing instruction in kindergarten or, any of grades 1 through 12, inclusive, during hours in which the school is open for classes or school-related programs is guilty of a misdemeanor to be punished by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500), or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than 10 days, or both, for the second and each subsequent conviction of a violation of this subdivision.

SEC. 3. Section 11360 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11360. (a) Except as otherwise provided by this section or as authorized by law, every person who transports, imports into this state, sells, furnishes, administers, or gives away, or offers to transport, import into this state, sell, furnish, administer, or give away, or attempts to import into this state or transport any marijuana shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a period of two, three or four years.

(b) Except as authorized by law, every person who gives away, offers to give away, transports, offers to transport, or attempts to transport not more than 28.5 grams of marijuana, other than concentrated cannabis, is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars ($100). In any case in which a person is arrested for a violation of this subdivision and does not demand to be taken before a magistrate, such person shall be released by the arresting officer upon presentation of satisfactory evidence of identity and giving his written promise to appear in court, as provided in Section 853.6 of the Penal Code, and shall not be subjected to booking.

SEC. 4. Section 1203.04 of the Penal Code, as added by Chapter 1283 of the Statutes of 1982, is amended to read:

1203.04. (a) A person convicted of a felony specified in subdivision (b) may be granted probation only in an unusual case where the interests of justice would best be served; when probation is granted in such a case, the court shall specify on the record and shall enter in the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by such a disposition.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (a), probation shall not be granted to, nor shall the execution or imposition of sentence be suspended for, any of the following persons:

(1) Any person who is convicted of violating Section 11351 of the Health and Safety Code by possessing for sale 28.5 grams or more of cocaine, or a substance containing 28.5 grams or more of cocaine.

(2) Any person who is convicted of violating Section 11378 of the Health and Safety Code by possessing for sale 28.5 grams or more of methamphetamine, or a substance containing 28.5 grams or more of methamphetamine.

SEC. 5. Section 1203.07 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.07. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1203, probation shall not be granted to, nor shall the execution or imposition of sentence be suspended for, any of the following persons:

(1) Any person who is convicted of violating Section 11351 of the Health and Safety Code by possessing for sale 14.25 grams or more of a substance containing heroin.

(2) Any person who is convicted of violating Section 11352 of the Health and Safety Code by selling or offering to sell 14.25 grams or more of a substance containing heroin.

(3) Any person convicted of violating Section 11351 of the Health and Safety Code by possessing heroin for sale or convicted of violating Section 11352 of the Health and Safety Code by selling or offering to sell heroin, and who has one or more prior convictions for violating Section 11351 or Section 11352 of the Health and Safety Code.

(4) Any person who is convicted of violating Section 11378.5 of the Health and Safety Code by possessing for sale 14.25 grams or more of any salt or solution of any controlled substance specified in subdivision (e) of Section 11055.

(5) Any person who is convicted of violating Section 11379.5 of the Health and Safety Code by transporting for sale, importing for sale, or administering phencyclidine, or offering to transport for sale, import for sale, or administer phencyclidine, or by attempting to import for sale or transport for sale phencyclidine.

(6) Any person who is convicted of violating Section 11379.5 or 11380.5 of the Health and Safety Code by manufacturing, selling, or offering to sell phencyclidine, or using, soliciting, inducing, encouraging, or intimidating a minor to manufacture, compound, or sell phencyclidine.

(7) Any person who is convicted of violating Section 11380.5 of the Health and Safety Code by the use of a minor as an agent or who solicits, induces, encourages, or intimidates a minor with the intent that the minor shall violate the provisions of Section 11378.5 or 11379.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

(8) Any person who is convicted of violating subdivision (b) of Section 11383 of the Health and Safety Code by possessing piperidine and cyclohexanone with intent to manufacture.

(b) The existence of any fact which would make a person ineligible for probation under subdivision (a) shall be alleged in the information or indictment, and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

CHAPTER 224

An act to add Section 66021 to the Education Code, relating to student financial aid.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 14, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 66021 is added to the Education Code, to read:

66021. It is the intent of the Legislature that the Budget Act for each fiscal year provide sufficient funding for financial aid for students with demonstrated financial need at the University of California, the California State University, and California community colleges to offset increases in student charges at those institutions.

CHAPTER 225

An act to amend Section 51350 of the Government Code, relating to contracts for county services to cities.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State July 14, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 51350 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51350. A county which provides services through its appropriate departments, boards, commissions, officers or employees, to any city pursuant to contract or as authorized by law, shall charge the city all those costs which are incurred in providing the services so contracted or authorized. A county shall not charge a city contracting for a particular service, either as a direct or an indirect overhead charge, any portion of those costs which are attributable to services made available to all portions of the county, as determined by resolution of the board of supervisors, or which are general overhead costs of operation of the county government. General overhead costs, for the purpose of this section, are those costs which a county would incur regardless of whether or not it provided a service under contract to a city.

Any determination of general overhead costs shall be subject to court review as to the reasonableness of such determination.

This section does not apply to a contract or agreement in effect on December 31, 1983, made by a county.

SEC. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature to encourage intergovernmental contracts which eliminate the need for duplicate facilities, equipment, and personnel, and which thereby reduce the overall cost of government. In furtherance of this intent, a county which supplies contract services to the cities therein, shall charge such cities all the costs for such services incurred by the county which are attributable to the service provided.

This section does not apply to a contract or agreement in effect on December 31, 1983, made by a county.

CHAPTER 226

An act to amend Sections 73433, 73433.1, 73434, 73435, 73436, and 73437 of the Government Code, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 14, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 73433 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73433. There shall be one clerk-administrator in each municipal court who shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of a majority of the judges of the court to which the clerk-administrator is appointed. In a court with less than three judges, the presiding judge shall appoint the clerk-administrator of the court. The clerk-administrator of the East Kern Municipal Court shall receive the biweekly salary specified in range 45.1 of the salary schedule. The clerk-administrator of the West Kern Municipal Court shall receive the biweekly salary specified in range 50.9 of the salary schedule. The salary of the West Kern Municipal Court clerk-administrator shall be not less than 12 full range steps higher than the salary range in which the position of chief deputy court clerk is compensated.

SEC. 2. Section 73433.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73433.1. There shall be one assistant clerk-administrator in the West Kern Municipal Court who shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the majority of the judges of the court. The assistant clerk-administrator shall receive the biweekly salary specified in range 46.9 of the salary schedule.

SEC. 3. Section 73434 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73434. There shall be one judicial secretary in the West Kern Municipal Court who shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of a majority of the judges of the court. The judicial secretary shall receive a biweekly salary specified in range 37.8 of the salary schedule.

SEC. 4. Section 73435 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73435. The clerk-administrator of the West Kern Municipal Court may appoint:

(a) Four chief deputy court clerks who shall act as the supervisors of the civil, criminal, traffic, and accounting divisions of the court and each of whom shall receive the biweekly salary specified in range 38.3 of the salary schedule.

(b) Five deputy court clerks III, each of whom shall receive the biweekly salary specified in range 36.4 of the salary schedule.

(c) Fourteen municipal courtroom clerks or junior municipal courtroom clerks, each of whom shall receive the biweekly salary specified in ranges 36.4 and 33.6, respectively, of the salary schedule.

Junior municipal courtroom clerk shall be the entrance position to courtroom clerk. The clerk-administrator, with the concurrence of the presiding judge, may advance any junior municipal courtroom clerk to the position of municipal courtroom clerk without further examination, if the junior municipal courtroom clerk has served for six months and otherwise meets the qualifications for municipal courtroom clerk and if the presiding judge is satisfied with the junior municipal courtroom clerk's performance during the six-month period.

(d) One data entry operator III who shall receive the biweekly salary specified in range 33.3 of the salary schedule.

(e) Four data entry operators II or I, each of whom shall receive the biweekly salary specified in ranges 31.3 and 29.3, respectively, of the salary schedule. Data entry operator I shall be the entrance position to the data entry operator series. The clerk-administrator may advance any data entry operator I to the position of data entry operator II without further examination if the data entry operator I has served for one year and otherwise meets the qualifications for data entry operator II.

(f) One account clerk IV who shall receive the biweekly salary specified in range 35.9 of the salary schedule.

(g) One account clerk III who shall receive the biweekly salary specified in range 33.1 of the salary schedule.

(h) Four account clerks II or I each of whom shall receive the biweekly salary specified in ranges 30.4 and 27.6, respectively, of the salary schedule. Account clerk I shall be the entrance position to the account clerk series. The clerk-administrator may advance any account clerk I to the position of account clerk II without further examination if the account clerk I has served for one year and otherwise meets the qualifications for account clerk II.

(i) Thirty-one full-time deputy court clerks II, I, or junior deputy court clerks, each of whom shall receive the biweekly salary specified in ranges 33.6, 29.6, and 26.8, respectively, of the salary schedule.

Junior deputy court clerk shall be the entrance position to the clerk's staff. The clerk-administrator may advance any junior deputy court clerk to the position of deputy court clerk I without further examination, if the junior deputy has served for six months and otherwise meets the qualifications for deputy court clerk I. The clerk-administrator may advance any deputy court clerk I to the position of deputy court clerk II without further examination if the deputy court clerk I has served for six months and otherwise meets the qualifications for deputy court clerk II.

(j) One secretary who shall receive the biweekly salary specified in range 34.5 of the salary schedule.

(k) One legal clerk I who shall receive the biweekly salary specified in range 35.0 of the salary schedule.

(l) One records clerk who shall receive the biweekly salary specified in range 33.1 of the salary schedule.

(m) One accountant II or I who shall receive the biweekly salary specified in range 42.6 or 39.9, respectively, of the salary schedule.

SEC. 5. Section 73436 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73436. The clerk-administrator of the East Kern Municipal Court may appoint:

(a) Three deputy court clerks III, each of whom shall receive the biweekly salary specified in range 36.4 of the salary schedule.

(b) Eight full-time and two part-time deputy court clerks II, I, or junior deputy court clerks, each of whom shall receive the biweekly salary specified in ranges 33.6, 29.6, and 26.8, respectively, of the salary schedule.

Junior deputy court clerk shall be the entrance position to the clerk's staff. The clerk-administrator may advance any junior deputy court clerk to the position of deputy court clerk I without further examination, if the junior deputy has served for six months and otherwise meets the qualifications for deputy court clerk I. The clerk-administrator may advance any deputy court clerk I to the position of deputy court clerk II without further examination if the deputy court clerk I has served for six months and otherwise meets the qualifications for deputy court clerk II.

SEC. 6. Section 73437 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73437. (a) Whenever reference to a numbered salary range of the salary schedule is made in any section of this article, the schedule of salary ranges found in the salary ordinance of the County of Kern in effect on January 1, 1983, shall apply. The employees of the municipal courts shall be paid biweekly pursuant to the payroll procedures in effect in the County of Kern.

(b) The minimum salary for each position shall normally be "step A" for the position. If it is difficult to secure qualified personnel at that step or if a person of unusual qualifications is engaged, the court or the clerk-administrator may hire at any step of the salary range applicable to the position.

(c) Any employee who is promoted or whose position is reclassified from one class position to a higher class position shall be placed in the step level of the higher class salary range which most closely approximates a one-step increase from the former position, except that such increase shall not exceed an amount equivalent to 1.4 steps in the salary schedule. In the event the "A" step of the higher class position is greater than a 1.4-step increase over the salary of the employee in the lower class position, the employee shall be placed at the "A" step in the salary range of the higher class position.

(d) The Board of Supervisors of the County of Kern may adjust the salaries paid to employees of the municipal courts as part of its county employee compensation plan. Such adjustment shall be effective on the same date as the effective date of the action of the board of supervisors to adjust compensation of other county employees. Any adjustment shall be effective only until January 1 of the second year following the year in which the adjustment is made, unless ratified by the Legislature.

(e) In addition to the compensation provided in this article, the attachés of the municipal court shall receive, and they shall be entitled to, the same vacations, sick leaves, and similar privileges and benefits as are now or may hereafter be provided for the employees of the County of Kern, including the right to participate in any group, accident, health or life insurance plan adopted by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Kern.

SEC. 7. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act.

CHAPTER 227

An act to amend Section 409.5 of the Penal Code, relating to the authority of peace officers to close a disaster area.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 14, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 409.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

409.5. (a) Whenever a menace to the public health or safety is created by a calamity such as flood, storm, fire, earthquake, explosion, accident or other disaster, officers of the California Highway Patrol, California State Police, police departments, marshal's office or sheriff's office, any officer or employee of the Department of Forestry designated a peace officer by subdivision (f) of Section 830.3, and any officer or employee of the Department of Parks and Recreation designated a peace officer by subdivision (i) of Section 830.3, may close the area where the menace exists for the duration thereof by means of ropes, markers or guards to any and all persons not authorized by such officer to enter or remain within the closed area. If such a calamity creates an immediate menace to the public health, the local health officer may close the area where the menace exists pursuant to the conditions which are set forth above in this section.

(b) Officers of the California Highway Patrol, California State Police, police departments, marshal's office or sheriff's office or officers of the Department of Forestry designated as peace officers by subdivision (f) of Section 830.3 may close the immediate area surrounding any emergency field command post or any other command post activated for the purpose of abating any calamity enumerated in this section or any riot or other civil disturbance to any and all unauthorized persons pursuant to the conditions which are set forth in this section whether or not such field command post or other command post is located near to the actual calamity or riot or other civil disturbance.

(c) Any unauthorized person who willfully and knowingly enters an area closed pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) and who willfully remains within such area after receiving notice to evacuate or leave shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

(d) Nothing in this section shall prevent a duly authorized representative of any news service, newspaper, or radio or television station or network from entering the areas closed pursuant to this section.

SEC. 2. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 228

An act to amend Sections 5076, 6420, 6702, 6705.8, 6900, 7157, and 7185 of, and to add Sections 6430, 6800, 7415, and 7420 to, the Financial Code, relating to savings and loan associations.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 14, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5076 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

5076. "Statutory net worth" means the sum of the following:

(a) Issued and outstanding guarantee stock.

- (b) Paid-in-surplus.
- (c) Undivided profits.
- (d) Pledged shares of a mutual association with the approval of the commissioner.
- (e) General reserves and other amounts as the commissioner prescribes.
- (f) Net worth certificates issued by an association pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 406 of the National Housing Act, (12 U.S.C. 1729, subdivision (f)), as amended October 15, 1982.

SEC. 2. Section 6420 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

6420. Subject to the requirements of this section, an association may offer certificate accounts in such form as the board of directors of the association may authorize by resolution. A certificate account is a savings account evidenced by a certificate which, if held for a fixed or minimum term, will receive a rate of return greater than on regular accounts.

(a) Subject to applicable maximum regulatory limitations in the regulations of the federal home loan bank system regulations and the Depository Institutions Deregulation Committee, an association may pay interest on a certificate account at a rate or anticipated rate of return determined at the time that the account is accepted. The rate or anticipated rate on a certificate account either may be fixed or may vary according to a schedule, index, or formula specified at the time that the account is accepted.

(b) In issuing certificate accounts, no association shall do any of the following:

(1) Provide for the payment or the distribution of interest on any certificate account in excess of the applicable maximum rate of return.

(2) Accept any fixed-term account for a term of less than 14 days.

(3) Provide for withdrawal from any certificate account prior to the expiration of its term, except as provided in subdivision (e).

(4) Issue any form of certificate account, unless the association has filed with the commissioner and the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation the form of account with a legal opinion that the form complies with applicable law.

(c) Each certificate account shall include in its provisions and display in easily read type all of the following:

(1) The rate or anticipated rate of interest to be paid, the basis, frequency, extent, and limits of any variation in the rate over the term of the account, and the dates or frequency at which interest is distributable.

(2) The amount of the account and the date on which it is issued.

(3) The minimum term (or for a savings deposit, the term) and minimum balance requirements.

(4) Any provisions limiting the right of the holder to make additions to the account or to withdraw all or any portion of the account prior to its maturity.

(5) The penalty or penalties for withdrawal prior to expiration of the term.

(6) Any provisions relating to redemption, call or repurchase.

(7) Any provisions relating to a renewal when the term expires.

(8) Any provisions relating to interest after expiration of the term or any renewal period.

(9) A provision converting the rate of return on the certificate account, whenever the minimum balance requirement may cease to be met, to the rate of return on an account without a fixed term.

(d) Any certificate account may provide for renewal at the option of the association for successive periods not exceeding 10 years for each renewal.

(e) Each certificate issued by an association shall provide that, for any withdrawal of all or any part of the certificate account before maturity, a penalty shall be imposed in accordance with regulatory requirements. If any interest was distributed on the account before withdrawal, deduction shall be made from the amount withdrawn to adjust for the applicable penalty.

(1) In the case of early withdrawal of only a part of the account, the certificate account shall be canceled if the applicable minimum balance requirement ceases to be met. If the requirement continues to be met: (A) appropriate notation may be made on the certificate indicating the amount and date of the withdrawal and the remaining account balance, or (B) the certificate may be canceled and a new certificate issued for the remaining portion of the account with the same term, rate, and dates as on the canceled certificate.

(2) A certificate account may provide that the owner cannot withdraw any portion of the account prior to maturity except under such circumstances as otherwise provided; however, no certificate may prohibit withdrawal in the event of death or adjudication of incompetence of an account owner.

SEC. 3. Section 6430 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

6430. An association may provide correspondent services primarily to other depository institutions to the extent that that activity does not violate other provisions of law.

(a) An association may maintain a noninterest-bearing account at any institution whose accounts are insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation or the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, if such an account is necessary or incidental to a correspondent relationship.

(b) An association may receive noninterest-bearing deposits from correspondent institutions for use as compensating balances, for settlement purposes, or for other purposes incidental to a correspondent relationship. These deposits may be payable on demand and subject to withdrawal by negotiable or transferable instrument, order, or authorization. These deposits shall not give rise to voting rights or other rights of membership in a state mutual association.

SEC. 4. Section 6702 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

6702. An association may invest in, hold, buy, sell, or otherwise deal with all of the following:

(a) Real property used or to be used primarily as the principal office or branch of the association, and real property used or to be used primarily as a service office or office of the service corporation of the association or an undivided interest in real property used or to be used primarily as a service office or office of the association or its service corporation and of other associations owning the other undivided interests in the real property. As used in this subdivision the term real property includes (1) real property in reasonably close proximity to a principal, branch, or service office used or to be used primarily as a parking lot in connection with the operations of the office and (2) structures or buildings located on land owned in fee or held under a lease or sublease by the association with an unexpired term of 25 years at the date of execution by the association of the lease or sublease.

(b) Furniture, fixtures, furnishings, equipment, and leasehold improvements necessary or proper for the business of the association, or for use in connection with properties owned by or securing loans of the association. Leasehold improvements as used herein shall not include structures or buildings referred to in subdivision (a).

(c) United States government bonds and treasury certificates, or any bonds, debentures, notes, or other obligations guaranteed by the United States of America, and obligations issued or guaranteed by the Government National Mortgage Association.

(d) Bonds, debentures, notes, and other securities issued or guaranteed in whole or in part by any federal home loan bank, or the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, or other similar federal agency.

(e) Consolidated federal home loan bank bonds, debentures, or notes.

(f) Bonds of this state or of any flood control and water conservation districts or any zone thereof having an assessed valuation on taxable real property of not less than one million dollars ($1,000,000), county, city and county, city, metropolitan water district, municipal utility district, any special district established by and within any municipal utility district, transit district, rapid transit district, metropolitan transit authority, flood control district, or school district of the State of California.

(g) Bonds and other securities which are expressly authorized as legal investments for or purchase by savings banks in this state, bankers' acceptances of the kind, character, and maturity eligible for rediscount with a Federal Reserve bank, and such other securities as the commissioner may authorize by rules and regulations.

(h) Bonds issued by any railroad corporation or any public utility corporation substantially all of the properties of which are located in the United States of America. Railway corporations and public utility corporations, as used in this subdivision, do not include street railway corporations.

(i) Stock, shares, debentures, and bonds of any international home loan bank which may hereafter be incorporated by authority of an act of Congress.

(j) California street improvement bonds.

(k) Stock issued by any federal home loan bank or other similar federal agency of which the association is eligible to be a member.

(l) Bonds and other securities as provided in Division 11.

(m) Stocks, bonds, debentures, participations, and other obligations of or issued by the Federal National Mortgage Association and the Small Business Administration.

(n) Loans and interests in loans on the security of real property located in foreign countries guaranteed by an agency of the federal or state government; and capital stock, obligations, notes, and other securities of any thrift institution organized under the laws of a foreign country and engaged in the business of making loans on the security of real estate in that country subject to regulations of the commissioner.

(o) Subject to the rules and regulations of the commissioner, stock issued by a corporation authorized to be created pursuant to Title IX of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968, and may make investments in a partnership, limited partnership, or joint venture formed pursuant to Section 907(a) or 907(c) of that act.

(p) Any obligations or other instruments or securities of the Student Loan Marketing Association.

(q) Shares and investment certificates issued by any domestic savings and loan association which is an "insured institution" as defined in Title IV of the National Housing Act.

(r) Shares or certificates in any open-end management investment company which is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Investment Company Act of 1940. To be an eligible investment under this subdivision, the investment company's portfolio shall be restricted, changeable only by shareholder vote, to investments:

(1) That an association is authorized, without limitation as to percentage of assets, to invest in, sell, redeem, hold or otherwise deal with; or

(2) That an association may invest in, sell, redeem, hold or otherwise deal with pursuant to Section 6705.8.

The total investment made pursuant to paragraph (2) and Section 6705.8 shall not exceed the percent of total assets limitation, if any, provided in Section 6705.8.

(s) Loans which are secured by mortgages as to which the association has the benefit of either of the following:

(1) Insurance under Title X of the National Housing Act or a commitment or agreement for such insurance.

(2) Any guarantee under Title IV of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 or under Part B of the National Urban Policy and New Community Development Act of 1974, or of a commitment or agreement therefor.

(t) Stocks, obligations, or other securities of any small business investment company formed pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 301 of the Small Business Investment Act of 1958, (15 U.S.C. Sec. 681, subd. (d)) for the purpose of aiding members of the Federal Home Loan Bank System.

SEC. 5. Section 6705.8 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

6705.8. An association may make secured or unsecured loans for agricultural, business, corporate, commercial, personal, family, or household purposes, and may invest in, sell, or hold commercial paper and corporate debt securities, as defined by the commissioner, provided that:

(a) With respect to loans made directly by an association, the total of agricultural, business, corporate, and commercial loans under this section shall not exceed 5 percent of the assets of the association prior to January 1, 1984; 7½ percent of those assets prior to January 1, 1985; and 10 percent of those assets thereafter.

(b) With respect to agricultural, business, corporate, or commercial loans originated by a commercial bank, subsidiary of a commercial bank, bank holding company or subsidiaries of a bank holding company, located in this state and either purchased by or participated in by an association, the total of those purchases and participations under this section shall not exceed 10 percent of the assets of the association.

(c) With respect to loans for personal, family, or household purposes, including loans reasonably incident to the provision of credit for those purposes, the total of those loans shall not exceed 30 percent of the assets of the association.

SEC. 6. Section 6800 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

6800. An association may invest in tangible personal property including without limitation vehicles, manufactured homes, machinery, equipment, or furniture, for rental or sale, but the investment shall not exceed 10 percent of the assets of the association.

SEC. 7. Section 6900 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

6900. The commissioner shall fix a minimum statutory net worth requirement applicable to all associations, but such requirement shall not exceed 3 percent of an association's total assets. In defining total assets, the commissioner may issue regulations to exclude from the total asset figure such asset items as may be deemed appropriate by the commissioner. For the purpose of computing total assets as of any given date, an association at its option may use the average of total assets as of the end of the preceding calendar year and the total assets of the association at the end of any one or more, up to four, of the immediately preceding calendar years providing all such dates are consecutive.

SEC. 8. Section 7157 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

7157. (a) An association may make loans secured by the pledge of its shares or investment certificates to the extent of not more than 100 percent of the value of those shares or investment certificates at the time of making the loan. Any loans, which are wholly secured by the pledge of those shares or investment certificates, and the interest and arrearages due or accrued on those loans, may be repaid at any time without the payment of any premium or bonus interest, and upon the payment of the loan the security pledged therefor shall be surrendered.

(b) An association may make loans without limitation to a borrower for the purpose of investing in a certificate account.

(1) "Loophole certificate" means an account for which the association lends the depositor part of the funds necessary to meet minimum deposit requirements.

(2) The rate of interest on the loan shall be equal to at least 1 percent per year more than the rate of return on the loophole certificate.

(3) The penalty for early withdrawal applies to the full face amount of a loophole certificate.

SEC. 9. Section 7185 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

7185. An association may, with or without security, make loans, advance credit, and purchase obligations representing loans and advances of credit (all of which are hereinafter referred to in this section as "loans") for the payment of educational expenses; however, the total of loans made for educational expense shall not exceed 5 percent of the assets of the association.

SEC. 10. Section 7415 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

7415. An association may establish a minimum balance requirement for savings accounts to be eligible for distribution of interest.

SEC. 11. Section 7420 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

7420. Subject to limitations of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board System of Regulations and the Depository Institutions Deregulation Committee Regulations, an association may pay commissions or fees in cash or merchandise of soliciting deposits to any employee of the association or to any broker or agent, as determined by the association.

CHAPTER 229

An act to amend Section 667.5, and to repeal Section 5080.5, of the Penal Code, and to amend Section 1252 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to criminal law.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 14, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION. 1. Section 667.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

667.5. Enhancement of prison terms for new offenses because of prior prison terms shall be imposed as follows:

(a) Where one of the new offenses is one of the violent felonies specified in subdivision (c), in addition and consecutive to any other prison terms therefor, the court shall impose a three-year term for each prior separate prison term served by the defendant where the prior was one of the violent felonies specified in subdivision (c); provided that no additional term shall be imposed under this subdivision for any prison term served prior to a period of 10 years in which defendant remained free of both prison custody and the commission of an offense which results in a felony conviction.

(b) Except where subdivision (a) applies, where the new offense is any felony for which a prison sentence is imposed, in addition and consecutive to any other prison terms therefor, the court shall impose a one-year term for each prior separate prison term served for any felony; provided that no additional term shall be imposed under this subdivision for any prison term served prior to a period of five years in which the defendant remained free of both prison custody and the commission of an offense which results in a felony conviction.

(c) For the purpose of this section, "violent felony" shall mean any of the following:

- (1) Murder or voluntary manslaughter.
- (2) Mayhem.
- (3) Rape as defined in subdivision (2) of Section 261.
- (4) Sodomy by force, violence, duress, menace, or threat of great bodily harm.
- (5) Oral copulation by force, violence, duress, menace, or threat of great bodily harm.
- (6) Lewd acts on a child under 14 as defined in Section 288.
- (7) Any felony punishable by death or imprisonment in the state prison for life.
- (8) Any other felony in which the defendant inflicts great bodily injury on any person other than an accomplice which has been charged and proved as provided for in Section 12022.7 on or after July 1, 1977, or as specified prior to July 1, 1977, in Sections 213, 264, and 461, or any felony in which the defendant uses a firearm which use has been charged and proved as provided in Section 12022.5.

The Legislature finds and declares that these specified crimes merit special consideration when imposing a sentence to display society's condemnation for such extraordinary crimes of violence against the person.

(d) For the purposes of this section the defendant shall be deemed to remain in prison custody for an offense until the official discharge from custody or until release on parole whichever first occurs including any time during which the defendant remains subject to reimprisonment for escape from custody or is reimprisoned on revocation of parole. The additional penalties provided for prior prison terms shall not be imposed unless they are charged and admitted or found true in the action for the new offense.

(e) The additional penalties provided for prior prison terms shall not be imposed for any felony for which the defendant did not serve a prior separate term in state prison.

(f) A prior conviction of a felony shall include a conviction in another jurisdiction for an offense which if committed in California is punishable by imprisonment in state prison if the defendant served one year or more in prison for the offense in the other jurisdiction. A prior conviction of a particular felony shall include a conviction in another jurisdiction for an offense which includes all of the elements of the particular felony as defined under California law if the defendant served one year or more in prison for the offense in the other jurisdiction.

(g) A prior separate prison term for the purposes of this section shall mean a continuous completed period of prison incarceration imposed for the particular offense alone or in combination with concurrent or consecutive sentences for other crimes, including any reimprisonment on revocation of parole which is not accompanied by a new commitment to prison, and including any reimprisonment after an escape from incarceration.

(h) Serving a prison term includes any confinement time in any state prison or federal penal institution as punishment for commission of an offense, including confinement in a hospital or other institution or facility credited as service of prison time in the jurisdiction of the confinement.

(i) For the purposes of this section, a commitment to the State Department of Health as a mentally disordered sex offender following a conviction of a felony, which commitment exceeds one year in duration, shall be deemed a prior prison term.

(j) For the purposes of this section, when a person subject to the custody, control, and discipline of the Director of Corrections is incarcerated at a facility operated by the Youth Authority, that incarceration shall be deemed to be a term served in state prison.

SEC. 2. Section 5080.5 of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 1252 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

1252. There may be transferred to and confined in the California Youth Training School any male subject to the custody, control and discipline of the Youth Authority, whom the Youth Authority believes will be benefited by confinement in such an institution. Whenever by reason of any law governing the commitment of a person to the Youth Authority or to an institution under the jurisdiction of the Youth Authority such a person is deemed not to be a person convicted of a crime, the transfer or placement of such a person in the California Youth Training School shall not affect the status or rights of the person and shall not be deemed to constitute a conviction of a crime.

CHAPTER 230

An act to amend Sections 74020, 74027, and 74028 of, and to add Section 69948.5 to, the Government Code, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 14, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 69948.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

69948.5. Notwithstanding Section 69948, in Modoc County, the board of supervisors may, by ordinance, prescribe a higher rate of compensation for superior court reporters.

SEC. 2. Section 74020 of the Government Code is amended to read:

74020. This article shall be applicable to the municipal court hereby established for the geographical area within the County of Placer formerly consisting of the Roseville-Rocklin, Loomis-Lincoln, Auburn-Colfax, and Foresthill Judicial Districts. Such consolidated court districts shall hereby be known as the Placer County Municipal Court.

SEC. 3. Section 74027 of the Government Code is amended to read:

74027. A judge automatically succeeding a judgeship in any district hereafter consolidated with the Placer County Municipal Court shall continue to hold office in such district for the term to which he was elected or appointed in either of the component districts and until his successor is elected within the municipal court district and qualifies; but in no event shall such judge or his successor be elected at any election held within 10 months of the operative date or effective date, whichever is later, of the ordinance adopted by the board of supervisors fixing for the first time the boundaries of the consolidated district.

SEC. 4. Section 74028 of the Government Code is amended to read:

74028. The deputy clerks and deputy marshals of the Placer County Municipal Court on the effective date of the consolidation shall automatically transfer to at least the same or comparable positions in the consolidated district upon the effective date of consolidation. However, any classifications established with a higher rate of compensation shall be filled through the civil service promotional examination process.

CHAPTER 231

An act to add and repeal Sections 17202.4, 17285, and 24343.7 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 14, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17202.4 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17202.4. In addition to the deduction allowed for trade or business expenses and any other deductions allowed by this part, a taxpayer who donates unspoiled agricultural products under Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 58501) of Part 1 of Division 21 of the Food and Agricultural Code shall be allowed as a deduction an amount equal to the cost of those unspoiled agricultural products.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1985, and as of that date is repealed, unless prior to that date, a later chaptered statute deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 17285 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17285. In addition to the deduction allowed for trade or business expenses and any other deductions allowed by this part, a taxpayer who donates unspoiled agricultural products under Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 58501) of Part 1 of Division 21 of the Food and Agricultural Code shall be allowed as a deduction an amount equal to the cost of those unspoiled agricultural products.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1985, and as of that date is repealed, unless prior to that date, a later chaptered statute deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 24343.7 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

24343.7. In addition to the deduction allowed for trade or business expenses and any other deductions allowed by this part, a taxpayer who donates unspoiled agricultural products under Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 58501) of Part 1 of Division 21 of the Food and Agricultural Code shall be allowed as a deduction an amount equal to the cost of those unspoiled agricultural products.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1985, and as of that date is repealed, unless prior to that date, a later chaptered statute deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. If this bill and Assembly Bill 36 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1984, Sections 1 and 2 of this act shall become operative as follows:

(a) If this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill 36, Section 2 of this act shall become operative on the effective date of this act and

Section 1 of this act shall not become operative.

(b) If this bill is chaptered before Assembly Bill 36, Section 1 of this act shall become operative on the effective date of this act and shall cease to be operative on the effective date of Assembly Bill 36, at which time Section 2 of this act shall become operative.

SEC. 5. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. However, the provisions of this act shall be applied in the computation of taxes for taxable years beginning on or after the first day of the calendar year in which this act becomes effective provided the effective date is more than 90 days prior to the last day of the calendar year. If the effective date is 90 days or less prior to the last day of the calendar year, the provisions of this act shall apply in the computation of taxes for taxable years beginning on or after the first day of the calendar year following the effective date.

CHAPTER 232

An act to add Section 22652.5 to the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 14, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State July 14, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22652.5 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

22652.5. The owner or person in lawful possession of an offstreet parking facility, or any local authority owning or operating an offstreet parking facility, who causes a vehicle to be removed from the parking facility pursuant to Section 22511.8, or any state, city, or county employee, is not civilly liable for the removal if the police or sheriff's department in whose jurisdiction the offstreet parking facility or the stall or space is located or the Department of the California Highway Patrol has been notified prior to the removal.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that the parking designated for handicapped persons is made available for their use, and improper use of that parking is curtailed at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 233

An act to amend Section 34501, as amended by Section 7 of Chapter 912 of the Statutes of 1981, and Section 40000.22 of, and to repeal Section 34501, as added by Section 2 of Chapter 615 of the Statutes of 1980 of, the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor July 14, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State July 14, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 34501 of the Vehicle Code, as added by Section 2 of Chapter 615 of the Statutes of 1980, is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 34501 of the Vehicle Code, as amended by Section 7 of Chapter 912 of the Statutes of 1981, is amended to read:

34501. (a) The Department of the California Highway Patrol shall adopt reasonable rules and regulations which in the judgment of the department are designed to promote the safe operation of vehicles described in Section 34500, regarding, but not limited to, hours of service of drivers, equipment, fuel containers, fueling operations, inspection, maintenance, recordkeeping, accident reports, and drawbridges. The rules and regulations shall not, however, be applicable to schoolbuses which shall be subject to rules and regulations adopted pursuant to Section 34501.5. The Commissioner of the Department of the California Highway Patrol shall appoint a committee of 15 members, consisting of representatives of industry subject to the regulations to be adopted pursuant to this section, to act in an advisory capacity to the department, and the department shall cooperate and confer with the advisory committee so appointed.

The department may inspect any vehicles in maintenance facilities or terminals, as well as any records relating to the dispatch of vehicles or drivers, and the pay of drivers, to assure compliance with the provisions of this code and regulations adopted pursuant to this section.

(b) The department, using the definitions adopted pursuant to Section 2402.7 shall adopt such regulations for the transportation of hazardous materials in this state, except for materials the transportation of which is subject to other provisions of this code, as the department determines reasonably necessary to ensure the safety of persons and property using the highways. The regulations may include provisions governing the filling, marking, packing, labeling, and assembly of, and containers that may be used for, hazardous materials shipments, and the manner by which the shipper attests that the shipments are correctly identified and in proper conditions for transport.

(c) At least once every 13 months, the department shall inspect every maintenance facility or terminal of any person who at any time operates any bus.

(d) The Commissioner of the California Highway Patrol shall adopt and enforce regulations which will provide for the public or private users of any bus being made aware of the operator's last safety rating.

(e) It is unlawful and constitutes a misdemeanor for any person to operate any bus without the inspection specified in subdivision (c) having been conducted.

(f) The department may adopt regulations restricting or prohibiting the movement of any vehicle from a maintenance facility or terminal if the vehicle is found in violation of the provisions of this code or regulations adopted pursuant to this section.

SEC. 3. Section 40000.22 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

40000.22. A violation of subdivision (c) of Section 34501, relating to inspections, is a misdemeanor and not an infraction.

SEC. 4. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 234

An act to amend Sections 4359, 5102, and 7020 of the Civil Code, relating to family law.

[Approved by Governor July 14, 1983 Filed with
Secretary of State July 14, 1983]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4359 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4359. (a) During the pendency of any proceeding under Title 2 (commencing with Section 4400) or Title 3 (commencing with Section 4500) of this part, upon application of either party in the manner provided by Section 527 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the superior court may issue ex parte orders (1) restraining any person from transferring, encumbering, hypothecating, concealing, or in any way disposing of any property, real or personal, whether community, quasi-community, or separate, except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life, and if the order is directed against a party, requiring him or her to notify the other party of any proposed extraordinary expenditures and to account to the court for all such extraordinary expenditures; (2) enjoining any party from contacting, molesting, attacking, striking, threatening, sexually assaulting, battering, or disturbing the peace of the other party, and, in the discretion of the court, upon a showing of good cause, other named family and household members; (3) excluding one party from the family dwelling or from the dwelling of the other, for the period of time and upon the conditions as the court may determine, regardless of which party holds legal or equitable title, or is the lessee of the dwelling, upon a showing that the party to be excluded has assaulted or threatens to assault the other party or any other person under the care, custody, or control of the other party, or any minor child of the parties or of the other party, and that physical or emotional harm would otherwise result to the other party or any person under the care, custody, or control of the other party, or to any minor child of the parties or of the other party as provided in Section 5102; (4) determining the temporary custody of any minor children of the marriage, and the right of a party to visit the minor children upon the conditions as the court may determine; (5) determining the temporary use, possession, and control of real or personal property of the parties and the payment of any liens or encumbrances coming due during the pendency of the order; and (6) enjoining a party from specified behavior which the court determines is necessary to effectuate orders under paragraph (2) or (3).

Any order issued pursuant to this section shall state on its face the date of expiration of the order.

The Judicial Council shall promulgate forms and instructions for applications for orders and orders granted pursuant to this section.

(b) The court shall order the party who obtained the order or the attorney for such party to deliver or the clerk to mail a copy of any order, or extension, modification or termination thereof, granted pursuant to subdivision (a), by the close of the business day on which the order, extension, modification, or termination was granted, and any subsequent proof of service thereof, to each local law enforcement agency designated by the party or the attorney for the party, having jurisdiction over the residence of the party and such other locations where the court determines that acts of domestic violence against the party are likely to occur. Each appropriate law enforcement agency shall make available through an existing system for verification, information as to the existence, terms and current status of any order issued pursuant to subdivision (a) to any law enforcement officer responding to the scene of reported domestic violence.

(c) Any willful and knowing violation of any order granted pursuant to paragraph (2), (3) or (6) of subdivision (a) shall be a misdemeanor punishable under Section 273.6 of the Penal Code.

SEC. 2. Section 5102 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

5102. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, neither husband nor wife has any interest in the separate property of the other, but neither can be excluded from the other's dwelling except as provided in Section 4359 or, in proceedings under Chapter 1

(commencing with Section 4400) or Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 4425) of Title 2 of this part, or under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 4500) of Title 3 of this part, upon application of either party in the manner provided by Section 527 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the court may order the temporary exclusion of either party from the family dwelling or from the dwelling of the other upon a showing that the party to be excluded has assaulted or threatens to assault the other party, or any other person under the care, custody, or control of the other party, or any minor child of the parties or of the other party, and that physical or emotional harm would otherwise result to the other party or any other person under the care, custody, or control of the other party or to any minor child of the parties or of either party, until the final determination of the proceeding.

(b) If notice of the pendency of a proceeding for separation or annulment or dissolution of marriage is recorded in any county in which the husband or wife resides on real property that is the separate property of the other, the real property shall not for a period of three months thereafter be transferred, encumbered, or otherwise disposed of voluntarily or involuntarily without the joinder of both spouses, unless the court otherwise orders.

SEC. 2.5. Section 5102 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

5102. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, neither husband nor wife has any interest in the separate property of the other, but neither can be excluded from the other's dwelling except as provided in Section 4359 or, in proceedings under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 4400) or Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 4425) of Title 2 of this part, or under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 4500) of Title 3 of this part, upon application of either party in the manner provided by Section 527 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the court may order the temporary exclusion of either party from the family dwelling or from the dwelling of the other until the final determination of the proceeding, upon a showing that the party to be excluded has assaulted or threatens to assault the other party, or any other person under the care, custody, or control of the other party, or any minor child of the parties or of the other party, and that physical or emotional harm would otherwise result to the other party or any other person under the care, custody, or control of the other party, or to any minor child of the parties or of either party, or, upon application and hearing, the court may order such temporary exclusion of either party upon a showing that physical or emotional harm would otherwise result.

(b) If notice of the pendency of a proceeding for separation or annulment or dissolution of marriage is recorded in any county in which the husband or wife resides on real property that is the separate property of the other, the real property shall not for a period of three months thereafter be transferred, encumbered, or otherwise disposed of voluntarily or involuntarily without the joinder of both spouses, unless the court otherwise orders.

SEC. 3. Section 7020 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

7020. (a) During the pendency of any proceeding under this part, upon application in the manner provided by Section 527 of the Code of Civil Procedure by the party who has care, custody, and control of the minor child, the superior court may issue ex parte orders (1) enjoining any party from contacting, molesting, attacking, striking, threatening, sexually assaulting, battering, or disturbing the peace of the other party or the minor child; (2) excluding one party from the dwelling of the party who has care, custody and control of the child upon showing that the party to be excluded has assaulted or threatens to assault the other party or the minor child, and that physical or emotional harm would otherwise result to the party or the minor child; and (3) enjoining a party from specified behavior which the court determines is necessary to effectuate orders under paragraph (1) or (2). In the case in which a temporary restraining order is granted without notice, the matter shall be made returnable on an order requiring cause to be shown why the order should not be granted, on the earliest day that the business of the court will permit, but not later than 15 days or, if good cause appears to the court, 20 days from the date the temporary restraining order is granted. The court may on motion of the plaintiff or on its own motion shorten the time for service on the defendant of the order to show cause.

(b) The court may issue upon notice and a hearing any of the orders set forth in subdivision (a). Any restraining order granted pursuant to this subdivision shall remain in effect, in the discretion of the court, not to exceed one year, unless otherwise terminated by the court, extended by mutual consent of the parties or extended by further order of the court on the motion of any party.

(c) Any order issued pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) shall state on its face the date of expiration of the order.

(d) The court shall order the party who obtained the order or the attorney for the party to deliver or the clerk to mail a copy of any order, or extension, modification or termination thereof, granted pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b), by the close of the business day on which the order, extension, modification, or termination was granted, and any subsequent proof of service thereof, to each local law enforcement agency designated by the party or the attorney for the party, having jurisdiction over the residence of the party who has care, custody and control of the minor child and such other locations where the court determines that acts of domestic violence against the party and the minor child are likely to occur. Each appropriate law enforcement agency shall make available through an existing system for verification, information as to the existence, terms and current status of any order issued pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) to any law enforcement officer responding to the scene of reported domestic violence.

(e) Any willful and knowing violation of any order granted pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) shall be a misdemeanor punishable under Section 273.6 of the Penal Code.

SEC. 4. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill 1148 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1984, both bills amend Section 5102 of the Civil Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill 1148, that the amendments to Section 5102 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 5102 in the form set forth in Section 2.5 of this act. Therefore, Section 2.5 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Assembly Bill 1148 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1984, both amend Section 5102, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill 1148, in which case Section 2 of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 235

An act to amend Sections 17053.5, 17064.5, 18152, 18161.5, 18692, 24837.5, 24916, and 25903 of, to add Section 17055 to, to repeal and add Sections 18689 and 25901c to, and to repeal Sections 17064 and 23404 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor July 14, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 14, 1983.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17053.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17053.5. (a) In the case of qualified renters, there shall be allowed credits against their "net tax" (as defined in Section 17039). The credit shall be in the amount of one hundred thirty-seven dollars ($137) for married couples, heads of household and surviving spouses (as defined in Section 17046), and sixty dollars ($60) for other individuals.

Except as provided in subdivision (b) of this section a husband and wife shall receive but one credit under this section. If the husband and wife file separate returns, the credit may be taken by either or equally divided between them, except as follows:

(1) If one spouse was a resident for the entire taxable year and the other spouse was a nonresident for part or all of the taxable year, the resident spouse shall be allowed one-half the credit allowed to married persons and the nonresident spouse shall be permitted one-half the credit allowed to married persons, prorated as provided in subdivision (d).

(2) If both spouses were nonresidents for part of the taxable year, the credit allowed to married persons shall be divided equally between them subject to the proration provided in subdivision (d).

(b) In the case of a husband and wife, if each spouse maintained a separate place of residence and resided in this state during the entire taxable year, each spouse will be allowed one-half the full credit allowed to married persons provided in subdivision (a).

(c) For purposes of this section, a "qualified renter" means an individual who on March 1 of the taxable year—

(1) Was a resident of this state, as defined in Section 17014, and

(2) On that date rented and occupied premises in this state which constitute his or her principal place of residence.

The term "qualified renter" does not include an individual who on March 1 of the taxable year rented and occupied premises which were exempt from property taxes, except that an individual, otherwise qualified, shall be deemed a qualified renter if he or she or his or her landlord pays possessory interest taxes, or the owner of those premises makes payments in lieu of property taxes which are substantially equivalent to property taxes paid on properties of comparable market value.

The term "qualified renter" does not include an individual whose principal place of residence is with any other person who claimed such individual as a dependent for income tax purposes.

The term "qualified renter" does not include an individual who has been granted or whose spouse has been granted the homeowners' property tax exemption during the taxable year. This paragraph shall not apply in the case of an individual whose spouse has been granted the homeowners' property tax exemption if each spouse maintained a separate residence for the entire taxable year.

(d) Any individual who is a nonresident for any portion of the taxable year shall claim the credits set forth in subdivision (a) at the rate of one-twelfth of those credits for each full month that individual resided within this state during the taxable year.

(e) Every person claiming the credit provided in this section shall, as part of that claim, and under penalty of perjury, furnish that information as the Franchise Tax Board prescribes on a form supplied by the board.

(f) The credit provided in this section shall be claimed on returns in that form as the Franchise Tax Board may from time to time prescribe, and shall be filed with the Franchise Tax Board on the date prescribed by Section 18432.

(g) For the purposes of this section, the term "premises" means a house or a dwelling unit used to provide living accommodations in a building or structure and the land incidental thereto, but does not include land only, except in the case where the dwelling unit is a mobilehome.

(h) In the case of qualified renters whose credits provided in this section exceed their tax liability computed under this part, minus all other credits provided for in this part, the qualified renter shall be allowed a credit to the extent of his tax liability plus a refund in excess of that amount up to a combined credit and refund equal to the credit otherwise provided in this section.

(i) The changes made to paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of this section by the 1977-78 Legislature and the changes made to subdivisions (a) and (b) of this section by the 1979-80 Legislature, shall be applied with respect to taxable years beginning on January 1, 1979, and thereafter.

SEC. 2. Section 17055 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17055. (a) Any individual who is a nonresident or a part-year resident shall be allowed all credits provided under this part, except those described in subdivision (b) and in Sections 17053.5 and 18002, in the same proportion as the ratio determined under subdivision (b) or (d) of Section 17041.

(b) Credits allowed under this part which are conditional upon a transaction occurring wholly within California shall be allowed in their entirety.

SEC. 3. Section 17064 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 17064.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17064.5. (a) In the case of an estate or trust—

(1) The sum of the items of tax preference for any taxable year of the estate or trust shall be apportioned between the estate or trust and the beneficiaries on the basis of the income of the estate or trust allocable to each, and

(2) The four thousand dollars ($4,000) amount specified in Section 17062 applicable to such estate or trust shall be reduced to an amount which bears the same ratio to four thousand dollars ($4,000) as the portion of the sum of the items of tax preference allocated to the estate or trust under paragraph (1) bears to such sum.

(b) In the case of a nonresident or a part-year resident, the minimum tax imposed by this chapter shall be a tax computed as if the nonresident or part-year resident were a resident multiplied by the ratio of California source items of tax preference to total items of tax preference from all sources.

(c) The items of tax preference of a common trust fund (as defined in Section 17671) for each taxable year of the fund shall be treated as items of tax preference of the participants of such fund and shall be apportioned pro rata among such participants.

(d) If a return is made for a short period, then the four thousand dollars ($4,000) amount specified in Section 17062 or the eight thousand dollars ($8,000) specified in Section 17062.1, modified as provided by this section, shall be reduced to the amount which bears the same ratio to such specified amount as the number of days in the short period bears to 365.

(e) (1) For purposes of this part, the term estimated tax shall not include the minimum tax imposed by this chapter.

(2) For purposes of Chapter 12 (relating to credit for taxes paid), the taxes imposed by this part do not include taxes imposed by this chapter.

(3) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this chapter, the term “taxes” includes the minimum tax imposed by this chapter.

(f) The Franchise Tax Board shall prescribe regulations under which items of tax preference shall be properly adjusted where the tax treatment giving rise to those items will not result in the reduction of the taxpayer’s tax under this part for any taxable year.

SEC. 5. Section 18152 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18152. (a) Losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets shall be allowed only to the extent of the gains from such sales or exchanges, plus (if such losses exceed such gains) whichever of the following is smallest:

(1) The taxable income for the taxable year, or

(2) One thousand dollars ($1,000).

(b) In the case of a husband or wife who files a separate return, the amount specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) shall be five hundred dollars ($500) in lieu of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(c) For purposes of subdivision (a), taxable income shall be computed without regard to gains or losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets.

(d) If a taxpayer has a net capital loss for any taxable year the excess of such net capital loss shall be a capital loss in the succeeding taxable year.

SEC. 6. Section 18161.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18161.5. (a) For purposes of this article, “small business stock” is an equity security issued by a corporation which has the following characteristics at the time of acquisition by the taxpayer:

(1) The commercial domicile or primary place of business is located within California.

(2) The total employment of the corporation is no more than 500 employees, as measured by the number of employees covered by federal unemployment insurance on December 31 of the year preceding acquisition of the small business stock, a majority of which employees were covered by California unemployment insurance on December 31 of the year preceding acquisition of the small business stock; provided, that, if more than 50 percent of the outstanding equity securities of all classes are held by another corporation, the employment of the controlling corporation shall be counted as employment of the eligible corporation for purposes of this section.

(3) The outstanding issues of the corporations, including those held by the taxpayer, are not listed on the New York Stock Exchange, the American Stock Exchange, or the National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation system.

(4) No more than 25 percent of gross receipts in the immediate prior income year were obtained from rents, interest, dividends, or sales of assets.

(5) The corporation is not engaged primarily in the business of holding land.

(b) For purposes of this part, a “nonproductive asset” is any piece of property which is any of the following:

(1) A precious or strategic metal, including but not limited to, gold, silver, and platinum, except when used by the taxpayer in his or her trade or business.

(2) Jewelry or individual gems, except when used by the taxpayer in his or her trade or business.

(3) Objects of art, except when used by the taxpayer in his or her trade or business.

(4) Antique items, including but not limited to, furniture, automobiles, coins, and ceramic objects, except when used by the taxpayer in his trade or business.

(5) Stamps, except when used by the taxpayer in his or her trade or business.

SEC. 7. Section 18689 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 18689 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

18689. (a) Except as provided in Section 18692, interest shall be imposed under this article with respect to any assessable penalty as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c).

(b) In the case of a penalty which, when assessed, is due and payable on notice and demand, interest shall be imposed from the date of the notice and demand to the date of payment.

(c) In the case of a penalty which is initially assessed as a deficiency, interest shall be imposed from the date of the notice of proposed assessment to the date of payment.

SEC. 9. Section 18692 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18692. If notice is made for payment of any amount, and if that amount is paid within 10 days after the date of the notice, interest under this article on the amount so paid shall not be imposed for the period after the date of the notice.

SEC. 10. Section 23404 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 11. Section 24837.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24837.5. (a) (1) At the election of the taxpayer, expenditures paid or incurred during the income year for the purpose of ascertaining the existence, location, extent, or quality of any deposit of ore or other mineral, and paid or incurred before the beginning of the development stage of the mine, shall be allowed as a deduction in computing net income. This subdivision shall apply only with respect to the amount of such expenditures which, but for this subdivision, would not be allowable as a deduction for the income year. This subdivision shall not apply to expenditures for the acquisition or improvement of property of a character which is subject to the allowance for depreciation provided in Sections 24349 to 24354.2, inclusive, but allowances for depreciation shall be considered, for purposes of this subdivision, as expenditures paid or incurred. In no case shall this subdivision apply with respect to amounts paid or incurred for the purpose of ascertaining the existence, location, extent, or quality of any deposit of oil or gas or of any mineral with respect to which a deduction for percentage depletion is not allowable under Section 24832 or 24833.

(2) (A) Any election under this subdivision shall be made in such manner as the Franchise Tax Board may by regulations prescribe.

(B) The election provided by paragraph (1) for the income year may be made at any time before the expiration of the period prescribed for making a claim for credit or refund of the tax imposed by this part for the income year. That election for the income year shall apply to all expenditures described in paragraph (1) paid or incurred by the taxpayer during the income year or during any subsequent income year. That election may not be revoked unless the Franchise Tax Board consents to the revocation.

(C) The statutory period for the assessment of any deficiency for any income year, to the extent such deficiency is attributable to an election or revocation of an election under this subdivision, shall not expire before the last day of the three-year period beginning on the day after the date on which such election or revocation of election is made; and such deficiency may be assessed at any time before the expiration of such three-year period, notwithstanding any law or rule of law which would otherwise prevent such assessment.

(b) (1) If, in any income year, any mine with respect to which expenditures were deducted pursuant to subdivision (a) reaches the producing stage, then—

(A) If the taxpayer so elects with respect to all such mines reaching the producing stage during the income year, it shall include in gross income for the income year an amount equal to the adjusted exploration expenditures with respect to such mines, and the amount so included in income shall be treated for purposes of this part as expenditures which (i) are paid or incurred on the respective dates on which the mines reach the producing state, and (ii) are properly chargeable to capital account.

(B) If subparagraph (A) does not apply with respect to any such mine, then the deduction for depletion under Section 24831 with respect to the property shall be disallowed until the amount of depletion which would be allowable but for this subparagraph equals the amount of the adjusted exploration expenditures with respect to such mine.

(2) (A) Any election under this subdivision shall be made in such manner as the Franchise Tax Board may by regulations prescribe.

(B) The election provided by paragraph (1) for any income year may be made or changed not later than the time prescribed by law for filing the return (including extensions thereof) for such income year.

(c) If an election has been made under subdivision (a) with respect to expenditures relating to a mining property and the taxpayer receives or accrues a bonus or a royalty with respect to such property, then the deduction for depletion under Section 24831 with respect to the bonus or royalty shall be disallowed until the amount of depletion which would be allowable but for this subdivision equals the amount of the adjusted exploration expenditures with respect to the property to which the bonus or royalty relates.

(d) (1) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision if mining property is disposed of the lower of—

(A) The adjusted exploration expenditures with respect to such property, or

(B) The excess of—

(i) The amount realized (in the case of a sale, exchange, or involuntary conversion), or the fair market value (in the case of any other disposition), over

(ii) The adjusted basis of such property, shall be treated as gain from the sale or exchange of property. Such gain shall be recognized notwithstanding any other provision of this part.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1)—

(A) In the case of the disposition of a portion of a mining property (other than an undivided interest), the entire amount of the adjusted exploration expenditures with respect to such property shall be treated as attributable to such portion to the extent of the amount of the gain to which paragraph (1) applies.

(B) In the case of the disposition of an undivided interest in a mining property (or a portion thereof), a proportionate part of the adjusted exploration expenditures with respect to such property shall be treated as attributable to such undivided interest to the extent of the amount of the gain to which paragraph (1) applies. This paragraph shall not apply to any expenditure to the extent the taxpayer establishes to the satisfaction of the Franchise Tax Board that such expenditure relates neither to the portion (or interest therein) disposed of nor to any mine, in the property held by the taxpayer before the disposition which has reached the producing stage.

(3) This subdivision shall apply notwithstanding any other provisions of this part.

(e) (1) The basis of any property shall not be reduced by the amount of any depletion which would be allowable but for the application of this section.

(2) The Franchise Tax Board shall prescribe such regulation as it may deem necessary to provide for adjustments to the basis of property to reflect gain recognized under paragraph (1) of subdivision (d).

(f) For purposes of this section—

(1) The term “adjusted exploration expenditures” means, with respect to any property or mine—

(A) The amount of the expenditures allowed for the income year and all preceding income years as deductions under subdivision (a) to the taxpayer or any other person which are properly chargeable to such property or mine and which (but for the election under subdivision (a)) would be reflected in the adjusted basis of such property or mine, reduced by

(B) For the income year and for each preceding income year, the amount (if any) by which (i) the amount which would have been allowable for percentage depletion under Section 24832 or 24833 but for the deduction of such expenditures, exceeds (ii) the amount allowable for depletion under Section 24831 properly adjusted for any amounts included in gross income under subdivision (b) or (c) and for any amounts of gain to which subdivision (d) applied.

(2) The term "mining property" means any property (within the meaning of Section 614 of the Internal Revenue Code after the application of subsections (c) and (e) thereof) with respect to which any expenditures allowed as a deduction under paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) are properly chargeable.

(g) (1) In the case of any property or mine received by the taxpayer in a distribution with respect to part or all of its interest in a partnership, the adjusted exploration expenditures with respect to such property or mine include the adjusted exploration expenditures (not otherwise included under paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of this section) with respect to such property or mine immediately prior to such distribution, but the adjusted exploration expenditures with respect to any such property or mine shall be reduced by the amount of gain to which Section 17912 applied realized by the partnership (as constituted after the distribution) on the distribution of such property or mine.

(2) In the case of any property or mine held by a partnership after a distribution to a partner to which Section 17912 applied, the adjusted exploration expenditures with respect to such property or mine shall, under regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board be reduced by the amount of gain to which Section 17912 applied realized by such partner with respect to such distribution on account of such property or mine.

(h) (1) Subdivision (a) shall apply to any amount paid or incurred after December 31, 1970, with respect to any deposit of ore or other mineral located outside the United States, only to the extent that such amount, when added to the amounts which are or have been deducted under subdivision (a) of this section and subdivision (a) of Section 24837 and the amounts which are or have been treated as deferred expenses under subdivision (b) of Section 24837 or the corresponding provisions of prior law, does not exceed four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000).

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), there shall be taken into account amounts deducted and amounts treated as deferred expenses by—

(A) The taxpayer, and

(B) Any individual or corporation who has transferred to the taxpayer any mineral property.

(3) Subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) shall apply with respect to all amounts deducted and all amounts treated as deferred expenses which were paid or incurred before the latest such transfer from the individual or corporation to the taxpayer. Subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) shall apply only if the taxpayer acquired any mineral property from the individual or corporation under circumstances which make Section 18135 of the Personal Income Tax Law, or subdivision (b) of Section 24504, Sections 24552, 24553, 24575, subdivision (a) of Section 24577, Section 24961, or 24988 apply to such transfer.

(i) This section shall apply with respect to exploration expenditures paid or incurred after December 31, 1970.

SEC. 11.5. Section 24837.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24837.5. (a) (1) At the election of the taxpayer, expenditures paid or incurred during the income year for the purpose of ascertaining the existence, location, extent, or quality of any deposit of ore or other mineral, and paid or incurred before the beginning of the development stage of the mine, shall be allowed as a deduction in computing net income. This subdivision shall apply only with respect to the amount of those expenditures which, but for this subdivision, would not be allowable as a deduction for the income year. This subdivision shall not apply to expenditures for the acquisition or improvement of property of a character which is subject to the allowance for depreciation provided in Sections 24349 to 24354.2, inclusive, but allowances for depreciation shall be considered, for purposes of this subdivision, as expenditures paid or incurred. In no case shall this subdivision apply with respect to amounts paid or incurred for the purpose of ascertaining the existence, location, extent, or quality of any deposit of oil or gas or of any mineral with respect to which a deduction for percentage depletion is not allowable under Section 24832 or 24833.

(2) (A) Any election under this subdivision shall be made in that manner which the Franchise Tax Board may by regulations prescribe.

(B) The election provided by paragraph (1) for the income year may be made at any time before the expiration of the period prescribed for making a claim for credit or refund of the tax imposed by this part for the income year. That election for the income year shall apply to all expenditures described in paragraph (1) paid or incurred by the taxpayer during the income year or during any subsequent income year. That election may not be revoked unless the Franchise Tax Board consents to the revocation.

(C) The statutory period for the assessment of any deficiency for any income year, to the extent that deficiency is attributable to an election or revocation of an election under this subdivision, shall not expire before the last day of the three-year period beginning on the day after the date on which that election or revocation of election is made; and that deficiency may be assessed at any time before the expiration of that three-year period, notwithstanding any law or rule of law which would otherwise prevent that assessment.

(b) (1) If, in any income year, any mine with respect to which expenditures were deducted pursuant to subdivision (a) reaches the producing stage, then—

(A) If the taxpayer so elects with respect to all those mines reaching the producing stage during the income year, it shall include in gross income for the income year an amount equal to the adjusted exploration expenditures with respect to those mines, and the amount so included in income shall be treated for purposes of this part as expenditures which (i) are paid or incurred on the respective dates on which the mines reach the producing state, and (ii) are properly chargeable to capital account.

(B) If subparagraph (A) does not apply with respect to any such mine, then the deduction for depletion under Section 24831 with respect to the property shall be disallowed until the amount of depletion which would be allowable but for this subparagraph equals the amount of the adjusted exploration expenditures with respect to that mine.

(2) (A) Any election under this subdivision shall be made in that manner which the Franchise Tax Board may by regulations prescribe.

(B) The election provided by paragraph (1) for any income year may be made or changed not later than the time prescribed by law for filing the return (including extensions thereof) for that income year.

(c) If an election has been made under subdivision (a) with respect to expenditures relating to a mining property and the taxpayer receives or accrues a bonus or a royalty with respect to that property, then the deduction for depletion under Section 24831 with respect to the bonus or royalty shall be disallowed until the amount of depletion which would be allowable but for this subdivision equals the amount of the adjusted exploration expenditures with respect to the property to which the bonus or royalty relates.

(d) (1) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision if mining property is disposed of the lower of—

(A) The adjusted exploration expenditures with respect to that property, or

(B) The excess of—

(i) The amount realized (in the case of a sale, exchange, or involuntary conversion), or the fair market value (in the case of any other disposition), over

(ii) The adjusted basis of that property, shall be treated as gain from the sale or exchange of property. That gain shall be recognized notwithstanding any other provision of this part.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1)—

(A) In the case of the disposition of a portion of a mining property (other than an undivided interest), the entire amount of the adjusted exploration expenditures with respect to that property shall be treated as attributable to that portion to the extent of the amount of the gain to which paragraph (1) applies.

(B) In the case of the disposition of an undivided interest in a mining property (or a portion thereof), a proportionate part of the adjusted exploration expenditures with respect to that property shall be treated as attributable to that undivided interest to the extent of the amount of the gain to which paragraph (1) applies. This paragraph shall not apply to any expenditure to the extent the taxpayer establishes to the satisfaction of the Franchise Tax Board that the expenditure relates neither to the portion (or interest therein) disposed of nor to any mine, in the property held by the taxpayer before the disposition which has reached the producing stage.

(3) This subdivision shall apply notwithstanding any other provisions of this part.

(e) (1) The basis of any property shall not be reduced by the amount of any depletion which would be allowable but for the application of this section.

(2) The Franchise Tax Board shall prescribe that regulation as it may deem necessary to provide for adjustments to the basis of property to reflect gain recognized under paragraph (1) of subdivision (d).

(f) For purposes of this section—

(1) The term “adjusted exploration expenditures” means, with respect to any property or mine—

(A) The amount of the expenditures allowed for the income year and all preceding income years as deductions under subdivision (a) to the taxpayer or any other person which are properly chargeable to that property or mine and which (but for the election under subdivision (a)) would be reflected in the adjusted basis of that property or mine, reduced by

(B) For the income year and for each preceding income year, the amount (if any) by which (i) the amount which would have been allowable for percentage depletion under Section 24832 or 24833 but for the deduction of those expenditures, exceeds (ii) the amount allowable for depletion under Section 24831 properly adjusted for any amounts included in gross income under subdivision (b) or (c) and for any amounts of gain to which subdivision (d) applied.

(2) The term “mining property” means any property (within the meaning of Section 614 of the Internal Revenue Code after the application of subsections (c) and (e) thereof) with respect to which any expenditures allowed as a deduction under paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) are properly chargeable.

(g) (1) In the case of any property or mine received by the taxpayer in a distribution with respect to part or all of its interest in a partnership, the adjusted exploration expenditures with respect to that property or mine include the adjusted exploration expenditures

(not otherwise included under paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of this section) with respect to that property or mine immediately prior to the distribution, but the adjusted exploration expenditures with respect to that property or mine shall be reduced by the amount of gain to which Section 751(b) of the Internal Revenue Code applied realized by the partnership (as constituted after the distribution) on the distribution of that property or mine.

(2) In the case of any property or mine held by a partnership after a distribution to a partner to which Section 751(b) of the Internal Revenue Code applied, the adjusted exploration expenditures with respect to the property or mine shall, under regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board, be reduced by the amount of gain to which Section 751(b) of the Internal Revenue Code applied realized by the partner with respect to the distribution on account of that property or mine.

(h) (1) Subdivision (a) shall apply to any amount paid or incurred after December 31, 1970, with respect to any deposit of ore or other mineral located outside the United States, only to the extent that the amount, when added to the amounts which are or have been deducted under subdivision (a) of this section and subdivision (a) of Section 24837 and the amounts which are or have been treated as deferred expenses under subdivision (b) of Section 24837 or the corresponding provisions of prior law, does not exceed four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000).

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), there shall be taken into account amounts deducted and amounts treated as deferred expenses by—

(A) The taxpayer, and

(B) Any individual or corporation who has transferred to the taxpayer any mineral property.

(3) Subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) shall apply with respect to all amounts deducted and all amounts treated as deferred expenses which were paid or incurred before the latest transfer from the individual or corporation to the taxpayer. Subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) shall apply only if the taxpayer acquired any mineral property from the individual or corporation under circumstances which make Section 1082(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, or subdivision (b) of Section 24504, Sections 24552, 24553, 24575, subdivision (a) of Section 24577, Section 24961, or 24988 apply to that transfer.

(i) This section shall apply with respect to exploration expenditures paid or incurred after December 31, 1970.

SEC. 12. Section 24916 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24916. Proper adjustment in respect of the property shall in all cases be made—

(a) For expenditures, receipts, losses, or other items properly chargeable to capital account, but no such adjustment shall be made for taxes or other carrying charges or for expenditures described in

Section 24364 and Section 24369 for which deductions have been taken by a bank or corporation in determining net income for the income year or prior income years;

(b) For exhaustion, wear and tear, obsolescence, amortization, and depletion:

(1) In the case of banks or corporations subject to the tax imposed by Chapter 2, to the extent sustained prior to January 1, 1928, and to the extent allowed (but not less than the amount allowable) under this part, except that no deduction shall be made for amounts in excess of the amount which would have been allowable had depreciation not been computed on the basis of January 1, 1928, value and amounts in excess of the adjustments required by Section 113(b) (1) (B) of the Federal Revenue Act of 1938 for depletion prior to January 1, 1932.

(2) In the case of a taxpayer subject to the tax imposed by Chapter 3, to the extent sustained prior to January 1, 1937, and for periods thereafter to the extent allowed (but not less than the amount allowable) under the provisions of this part.

(3) If a taxpayer has not claimed an amortization deduction for an emergency facility, the adjustment under paragraph (1) shall be made only to the extent ordinarily provided under Sections 24349, and 24372.

(c) In the case of stock (to the extent not provided for in the foregoing subsections) for the amount of distributions previously made which, under the law applicable to the year in which the distribution was made, either were tax free or were applicable in reduction of basis (not including distributions made by a corporation, which was classified as a personal service corporation under the provisions of the Federal Revenue Act of 1918 or 1921, out of its earnings or profits which were taxable in accordance with the provisions of Section 218 of the Federal Revenue Act of 1918 or 1921).

(d) (1) In the case of banks or corporations subject to the tax imposed by Chapter 2, in the case any bond (as defined in Section 24363) to the extent of the deductions allowable pursuant to Section 24360 with respect thereto.

(2) In the case of taxpayers subject to the tax imposed by Chapter 3, in the case of any bond (as defined in Section 24363) the interest on which is wholly exempt from the tax imposed by this part, to the extent of the amortizable bond premium disallowable as a deduction pursuant to Section 24361, and in the case of any other bond (as defined in Section 24363) to the extent of the deductions allowable pursuant to Section 24361 with respect thereto.

(3) In the case of property pledged to the Commodity Credit Corporation, to the extent of the amount received as a loan from the Commodity Credit Corporation and treated by the taxpayer as income for the year in which received pursuant to Section 24273, and to the extent of any deficiency on such loan with respect to which the taxpayer has been relieved from liability.

(e) For amounts allowed as deductions as deferred expenses under subdivision (b) of Section 24836 (relating to certain expenditures in the development of mines) and resulting in a reduction of the taxpayer's tax, but not less than the amounts allowable under such section for the income year and prior years.

(f) For amounts allowable as deductions as deferred expenses under subdivision (b) of Section 24837 (relating to certain exploration expenditures) and resulting in a reduction of the taxpayer's tax, but not less than the amounts allowable under such section for the income year and prior years.

(g) For amounts allowed as deductions as deferred expenses under Section 24366(a) (relating to research and experimental expenditures) and resulting in a reduction of the bank or corporations' taxes under this part, but not less than the amounts allowable under such section for the income year and prior years.

(h) For amounts allowed as deductions for expenditures treated as deferred expenses under Section 24368.1 (relating to trademark and trade name expenditures) and resulting in a reduction of the taxpayer's taxes under this part, but not less than the amounts allowable under such section for the income year and prior years.

(i) For amounts allowed as deductions for payments made on account of transfers of franchises, trademarks, or trade names under Section 24378.

SEC. 13. Section 25901c of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 14. Section 25901c is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

25901c. (a) Except as provided in Section 25903, interest shall be imposed under this article in respect of any assessable penalty as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c).

(b) In the case of a penalty which, when assessed, is due and payable on notice and demand, interest shall be imposed from the date of the notice and demand to the date of payment.

(c) In the case of a penalty which is initially assessed as a deficiency, interest shall be imposed from the date of the notice of proposed assessment to the date of payment.

SEC. 15. Section 25903 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

25903. If notice is made for payment of any amount, and if that amount is paid within 10 days after the date of the notice, interest under this article on the amount so paid shall not be imposed for the period after the date of the notice.

SEC. 16. If this bill and Assembly Bill 36 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1984, Sections 6, 11, and 11.5 of this act shall become operative as follows:

(a) If this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill 36, Section 11.5 of this act shall become operative on the effective date of this act and Sections 6 and 11 of this act shall not become operative.

(b) If this bill is chaptered before Assembly Bill 36, Sections 6 and 11 of this act shall become operative on the effective date of this act and shall cease to be operative on the effective date of Assembly Bill 36, at which time Section 11.5 of this act shall become operative.

SEC. 17. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. However, the provisions of this act shall be applied in the computation of taxes for taxable or income years beginning on or after the first day of the calendar year in which this act becomes effective provided the effective date is more than 90 days prior to the last day of the calendar year. If the effective date is 90 days or less prior to the last day of the calendar year, the provisions of this act shall apply in the computation of taxes for taxable or income years beginning on or after the first day of the calendar year following the effective date.

CHAPTER 236

An act to amend Sections 821 and 822 of the Penal Code, relating to arrest.

[Approved by Governor July 14, 1983. Filed with
Secretary of State July 14, 1983 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 821 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

821. If the offense charged is a felony, and the arrest occurs in the county in which the warrant was issued, the officer making the arrest must take the defendant before the magistrate who issued the warrant or some other magistrate of the same county.

If the defendant is arrested in another county, the officer must, without unnecessary delay, inform the defendant in writing of his right to be taken before a magistrate in that county, note on the warrant that he has so informed defendant, and, upon being required by defendant, take him before a magistrate in that county, who must admit him to bail in the amount specified in the endorsement referred to in Section 815a, and direct the defendant to appear before the court or magistrate by whom the warrant was issued on or before a day certain which shall in no case be more than 25 days after such admittance to bail. If bail be forthwith given, the magistrate shall take the same and endorse thereon a memorandum of the aforesaid order for the appearance of the defendant, or, if the defendant so requires, he may be released on bail set on the warrant by the issuing court, as provided in Section 1269b of this code, without an appearance before a magistrate.

If the warrant on which the defendant is arrested in another county does not have bail set thereon, or if the defendant arrested in another county does not require the arresting officer to take him before a magistrate in that county for the purpose of being admitted to bail, or if such defendant, after being admitted to bail, does not forthwith give bail, the arresting officer shall immediately notify the law enforcement agency requesting the arrest in the county in which the warrant was issued that such defendant is in custody, and thereafter such law enforcement agency shall take custody of such defendant within five days in the county in which he was arrested and shall take such defendant before the magistrate who issued the warrant, or before some other magistrate of the same county.

SEC. 2. Section 822 of the Penal Code is amended to read:
